Here is the Spring where waters flow,
to quench our heat of sinne:

Here is the Sea where truth doth grow, to leade our liues therein:

Here is the Iudge that stints the strife,
when mens deuices faile:

Here is the Bread that feeds the life,
that death can not assaile,

The tidings of Salvation deere, comes to our eares from hence:

The fortress of our Faith is heere, and shield of our defence.

Reade not, but first desire Gods grace, to vnderstand thereby.

Pray still in faith, with this respect,
to fructifie therein,

That knowledge may bring this effect,
to mortifie thy sinne.

Then happy thou, in all thy life,
what to thee befallles:

Yea, double happy shalt thou be,
when God by death thee calles.

O Gracious God and most mercifull Father, which hast vouchsafed vs the rich and precious iewell of thy holy Word, assist vs with thy Spirit, that it may be written in our hearts to our euermlasting comfort, to reforme vs, to renew vs according to thine owne image, to build vs vp, and edifie vs into the perfect building of thy Christ, sanctifying and increasing in vs all heavenly vertues. Grant this, O heavenly Father, for Iesus Christes sake. Amen.

¶ To the Christian Reader.

Besides the manifold and continual benefits which Almighty God bestoweth upon vs, both corporall and spirrituall, we are especially bounde (deare brethren) to giue him thanks without ceasing for his great grace and vnto this maruileous light of his Gospel, and mercifully to regard vs as to his backsliding & falling away from Christ to Antichrist, frō light to darknes, from the liuing God to diuells and dead Idoles, and that after so cruell murder of Gods Saints, as almost hath bene among vs, we are not altogether cast off, as were the Iſraelites, & many others for the like, or not so manifest wickednes, but receiued againe to grace with most euident signes and tokens of Gods especiall loue and fauour.
To the intent therefore that we may not bee vnderfull of these great mercies, but seeke by all meanes (according to our duty) to be thankfull for the same, it belongeth vs to walke in his feare and loue, that all the dayes of our life we may procure the glory of his holy Name. Now forasmuch as this thing chiefly is attained by the knowledge and practising of the worde of God, (which is the light to our pathes, the key of the kingdome of heauen, our comfort in affliction, our shield and sword against Satan, the schoole of all wisdom, the glasse wherein we beholde Gods face, the testimonie of his faueur, and the onely soule and nourishment of our soules) we thought that we could bestowe our labours and studie in nothing which could bee more acceptable to God and comfortable to his Church, then in the translating of the holy Scriptures into our native tongue: the which thing, albeit that diuers heretofore haue endeouored to achieve: yet considering the infancie of those times and imperfect knowledge of the tongues, in respect of this ripe age and cleare light: which God hath now reuelled, the translations required greatly to be perused and reformed. Not that we vendicate any thing to our selues alone the least of our brethren (for God knoweth with what feare & trembling we haue bene for the space of two yeeres and more, day and night occupied herein) but being earnestly desired, and by diuine, whole learning and godlines we reuerence, exhorted, and also encouraged by the ready willes of such, whose hearts God likewise touched, not to spare any charges for the furtherance of such a benefit & fauor of God toward his Church (though the time then was most dangerous, and the persecution sharpe & furious) we submitted our selues at length to their godly iudgements, and seeing the great opportunitie and occasions, which God presented vnto vs in his Church, by reason of so many godly and learned men, and such diuersities of translations in diuers tongues: we undertooke this great & wonderful worke (with all reuerence, as in the presence of God, as interpreting the word of God, whereunto we thinke our selues vsufficient) which now God, according to his diuine providence & mercy, hath directed to a most prosperous end. And this we may with good conscience protest, that we haue in every point & word, according to the measure of that knowledge which it pleased Almighty God to giue vs, faithfully rendred the text, and in all hard places most sincerely expounded the same. For God is our witness, that we haue by all meanes endeouored to set forth the puritie of the word and right sense of the holy Ghost, for the edifying of the brethren in faith and charitie.

Now as we haue chiefly obserued the sense, and laboured alwayes to restore it to all integritie: so haue we most reueren-tly kept the proprietie of the words, considering that the Apostles who spake and wrote to the Gentiles in the Greeke tongue, rather constituted them to the liuely phrase of the Hebrews, then enterprised farre by mollifying their language to speake as the Gentiles did. And for this & other causes we haue in many places reuered the Hebrew phrases, notwithstanding that they may seeme somewhat hard in their eares that are not well practised, and also delight in the sweet sounding phrases of the holy Scriptures. Yet lest either the simple should be discouraged, or the malicious haue any occasion of iust exaltation, seeing some translations reade after one sort, and some after another, whereas all may serue to good purpose & edification, we haue in the margin noted that diuersitie of speech or reading which may also seeme agreeable to the minde of the holy Ghost, and proper for our language with this mark. ¶. Again, whereas the Hebrew speech seemed hardly to agree with ours, we haue noted it in the margin after this sort & vnder that which was more intelligible. And albeit that many of the Hebrew names be altered from the old text, and restored to the true writing & first original, wherof they haue their sig-nification, yet in the vsuall names little is changed for feare of troubling the simple readers. Moreover, whereas the necessitie of the sentence required any thing to be added (for such is the grace and proprietie of the Hebrew and Greeke tongues that it cannot but either by circūlocution, or by adding the verbe or some word, be vnderstood of them that are not well practised therein) we haue put it in the text with another kinde of letter, that it may easily be discerned from the common letter. As touching the division of the verses, we haue followed the Hebrew examples, which haue so euen from the beginning distinguished them. Which thing as it is most profitable for memorie, so doth it agree with the best translations, and is most easie to finde out both by the best Concordances, and also by the quotations which we haue diligently herein perused and set forth by this *. Besides this, the principall matters are noted and distinguished by this mark ¶. Yea and the arguments both for the booke and for the chapters with the number of the verses are added, that by all meanes the reader might be holpen. For the which cause also we haue set ouer the head of every page some notable word or sentence which may greatly further serue for memorie, as for the chiefest point of the page. And considering how hard a thing it is to vnderstand the holy Scriptures, and what errors, sects and heresies grow daily for lacke of the true knowledge thereof, and how many are discouraged (as they prepaire) because they cannot attaine to the true and simple meaning of the same, we haue also included both by the diligent reading of the best commentaries, and also by the conference with the godly and learned brethren, together briefe annotations vpon all the hard places, as well for the vnderstanding of such words as are obscure, and for the declaration of the text, as for the application of the same, as may most appertaine to Gods glory & the edification of his Church.

Finally, that nothing might lacke which might be bought by labours, for the increase of knowledge and furtherance of Gods glory, there are adioyned two most profitable Tables, the one serving for the interpretation of the Hebrew names: and the other, concerning all the chiefest and principall matters of the whole Bible: so that nothing (as we trust) that any could iustly desire, is omitted. Therefore, as brethren that are partakers of the same hope and saluation with vs, we beseech you, that this rich, ample and inestimable treasure may not be offered in vaine, but as lent from God to the people of God, for the increase of his kingdome, the comfort of his Church, and discharge of our conscience, whom it hath pleased him to raise vp for this purpose, so you would willingly recite the worde of God, earnestly studie it, and in all your life practise it, that yet may now appeare in deede to be the people of God, not walking any more according to this world, but in the fruits of the Spirit: that God in vs may be fully glorified, through Christ Iesus our Lord, who liueth and reigneth for euer. Amen.

How to take profit by reading of the holy Scriptures.

- 1 Earnestly and vially pray unto God that he will vouchsafe to
  - Teach the way of his statutes.
  - Give understanding.
  - Direct in the path of his commandments.
  - At the least, twice every day this exercise be kept.
- 2 Diligently keepe such order of reading the scriptures and prayer as may stand with his calling and state of life, So that
  - The time once appointed hereunto after a good sort be no otherwise employed.
  - Superstition be avoided.
  - At one other time that be done, which is left vndone at any time.
- 3 Vnderstand to what ende and purpose the Scriptures sene, which were written, so
  - Teache, that we may learne truth.
  - Improve, that we may be kept from error.
  - Correct, that we may be driuen from vice.
  - Instruct, that wee may be fed in the way of well doing.
  - Comfort, that in troubles we may be confirmed in patient hope.

The first booke of Moses, called

GENESIS.

THE ARGUMENT.

Moses in effect declares three things, which are in this booke chiefly to be considered. First, that the world and all things therein were created by God, and the man being placed in the great Tabernacle of the world to behold Gods wonderful works, and to praise his Name. Next, that the infinite grace, wherewith he had endued him, fell away by free Will, by the temptation of the infernal serpent, wherewith he had deceived him, falling away from God through disobedience who yet for his wile merits sake restored him to life, and continued him in the same by his promise of Christ to come, by whom he should overcome Satan, death and hell. Secondly, that the wicked, vniuersall of Gods most case them benefits remained still in their wickedness, and so falling most horribly from time to time, prouoked God (who by his preaching called them continually to repentance) a length to destroy the whole world. Thirdly, he alleth vs by the examples of Abraham, Isaac, Iacob, and the rest of the Patriarches that his mercies neuer faile them, whom he chaist to be his Church, and to praise his Name in earth, but in all their afflictions and persecutions he ever assisteth them, comforteth them, and delivereth them: And because the beginning, increase, perfection and success thereof might be easily attributed to God, Moses thereto by the examples of Cain, Shadd, Elix and others, which were able in mans judgement that this Church dependeth not on the situation and multitude of the world, and also by the fewness of them, which have at all times worshipped him purely according to his word, that it standeth not in the multitude, but in the poore and despised, in the small flocke and little number, that man in his wisdom might be confounded, and the Name of God the more praised.

CHAP. I.

1 God created the heaven and the earth. 2 The light and the darkness. 3 The firmament. 4 He separated the waters from the earth. 5 He created the Sunne, the Moone, and the Starres. 6 He created the fish, fowles, beastes. 7 He created man, and giueth him rule ouer all creatures. 8 And he presideeth ouer all.

In the beginning God created the heauen and the earth. 2 And the earth was without forme and void, and darkness was upon the deep, and the Spirit of God moued upon the waters. 3 And God said, Let there be light: and there was light. 4 And God saw the light that it was good, and God separated the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light, Day, and the darkness, he called night. 6 So the evening and the morning were the first day.

7 And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters. 8 And God called the firmament, Heauen.

9 And God said, Let the waters under the firmament be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appeare. And it was so.

10 And God called the dry land, Earth, and he called the gathering together of the waters, Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 Then God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

12 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

13 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

14 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

15 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

16 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

17 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

18 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

19 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

20 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

21 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

22 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

23 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

24 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

25 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

26 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

27 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

28 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

29 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

30 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

31 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

32 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

33 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

34 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

35 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

36 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

37 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the beast of the field, and the cattell, and the creeping thing, and the beastes of the field, after their kind, and the beast of the field after his kind, and the cattell after their kind, and the creeping thing after his kind, and the beastes of the field after their kind.

19 ¶ On the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

20 ¶ Afterward God said, Let the waters bring forth in abundance every creeping thing that hath life: and let the soule live upon the earth in the open firmament of the heaven.

21 ¶ Then God created the great whales, and every thing living and moving, which the waters brought forth in abundance, according to their kinde, and every feathered soule according to his kinde: and God saw that it was good.

22 ¶ Then God blessed them, saying, Bring forth fruit and multiply, and fill the waters in the sea, and let the soule multiply in the earth.

23 ¶ So the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

24 ¶ Wherefore God said, Let for earth bring forth the living thing according to his kinde, cattell, and that which creepeth, and the beast of the earth, according to his kinde, and it was so.

25 ¶ And God made the beast of the earth according to his kinde, and the cattell according to his kinde, and every creeping thing of the earth according to his kind: and God saw that it was good.

26 ¶ Furthermore God said, Let us make man in our image according to our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea, and over the fowle of the heaven, and over the beasts, and over all the earth, and over every thing that creepeth and moveth upon the earth.

27 ¶ Thus God created the man in his image: in the image of God created he him: he created them male and female.

28 ¶ And God blessed them, and God said to them, Bring forth fruit and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it, and rule over the fish of the sea, and over the fowle of the heaven, and over every beast that moveth upon the earth.

29 ¶ And God said, Behold, I have given unto you every herbe bearing seed, which is upon all the earth, and every tree, wherein is the fruit of a tree bearing seed: he shall be to you for meat.

30 ¶ Likewise to every beast of the earth, and to every fowle of the heaven, and to every thing that moveth upon the earth, which hath life in it, I have given every herbe that beareth seed for meat. And it was so.

31 ¶ And God saw all that hee had made, and loe, it was very good. So the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

2. God refresheth the seventh day, and sanctifieth it. 13 He fireth man in the garden. 22 Hee creeth the woman. 24 Marriage is ordained.

¶ On the seventh day, and the earth was finished, and all the host of heaven.

2 ¶ For in the seventh day God ended his work which he had made, and the seventh day he rested from all his work, which he had made.

3 ¶ And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it, because that in it he had rested from all his work, which God had made, and made.

4 ¶ These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth, when they were created, in the day that the Lord God made the earth and the heavens.

5 ¶ And every plant of the field, before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field, before it grew: for the Lord God had not caused it to come upon the earth, neither was there a man to till the ground.

6 ¶ But a mist went from the earth, and watered all the earth.

7 ¶ The Lord God also made the man of the dust of the ground, & breathed in his face breath of life, & the man was a living soule.

8 ¶ And the Lord God planted a garden Eastward in Eden, and there he put the man whom he had made.

9 ¶ For out of the ground made the Lord God to grow every tree pleasant to the sight, and good for meat: the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, & the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

10 ¶ And out of Eden went a river to water the garden, and from thence it was divided, and became four heads.

11 ¶ The name of one is Euphrates: the thing compasseth the whole land of Chaldees, where is gold.

12 ¶ And the gods of that land is god: there is Belus, and the other name.

13 ¶ And the name of the second River is Gihon: the same compasseth the whole land of Cush.

14 ¶ The name also of the third river is Tigris: this goeth toward the East betwixt the Assyrians and the fourth river is Euphrates.

15 ¶ When the Lord God made the man, and put him into the garden of Eden, that he might dress it and keepe it.

16 ¶ And the Lord God commanded the man, saying, Thou shalt eat freely of every tree of the garden.

17 ¶ But of the tree of knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof, thou shalt die the death.

18 ¶ Also the Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be alone: I will make him an helpmeet for him.

19 ¶ So the Lord God formed of the earth every beast of the field, and every fowle of

1 God threateth to bring the flood. 2 Man is altogether corrupt. 3 God repenteth that hee made him. 4 Noah and his are preferred in the Arke, which he was commanded to make.

5 When men began to be multiplied upon the earth, and there were daughters born unto them.

2 Then the sonnes of God sawe the daughters of men that they were faire, and they tooke them wives of all that they liked.

3 Therefore the Lord said, For loe, they are not all flesh: and his dayes shall be an hundred and twentie yeres.

4 There were giants in the earth in those dayes, and after that the sonnes of God came unto the daughters of men, and they had borne them children, these were mightie men, which in old time were men of renowne.

5 When the Lord sawe that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and all the imaginations of the thoughts of his heart were only evil & continually.

6 Then it repented the Lord, that hee had made man in the earth, and he was sorry in his heart.

7 Therefore the Lord said, I will destroy from the earth the man whom I have created, from man to beast, to the creeping thing, and to the foule of the heaven: for I repent that I have made them.

8 But Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord.

9 These are the generations of Noah. Noah was a just and upright man in his time: and Noah walked with God.

10 And Noah begate three sonnes, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt before God: for the earth was filled with cruelty.

12 When God looked upon the earth, and beheld, it was corrupt: for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

13 And God said to Noah, An end of all flesh is come before mee: for the earth is filled with cruelty: through them: and behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

14 Make thee an Arke of pine trees: thou shalt make a cabinet in the Arke, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And thus shalt thou make it: The length of the Arke shall be three hundred cubites, the breadth of it fiftie cubites, and the height of it threety cubites.

16 A window shalt thou make in the Arke, and in a cubite shalt thou finish it above, and the doore of the Arke shalt thou set in the side thereof: thou shalt make it with the low, second and third roome.

17 And I, behold, I will bring a flood of waters upon the earth to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life under the heaven: all that is in the earth shall perish.

18 But with thee will I establish my Covenant, and thou shalt goe into the Arke, thou and thy sonnes, and thy wife, and thy sonnes wives with thee.

CHAP. VII.

1 Noah and his enter into the Arke. 20 The flood destroyeth all the rest vpon the earth.

And the Loyde sayde vnto Noah, Enter thou and all thine house into the Arke: for thee haue I scene * righteous before me in this age.

2 Of euery cleane beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens, the male and his female: but of vncleane beasts by couples, the male and his female.

3 Of the foules also of the heauen by sevens, male and female, to keepe seede aliuie vpon the whole earth.

4 For seven dayes hence I will cause it raine vpon the earth fourtie dayes & fourtie nightes, and all the substance that I haue made, wil I destroy from off the earth.

5 * Noah therefore did according vnto all that the Lord commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred yeres olde, when the flood of waters was vpon the earth.

7 * So Noah entred and his sonnes, and his wife, and his sonnes wiues with him into the Arke, because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of the cleane beasts, and of the vncleane beasts, & of the foules, and of all that creepeth vpon the earth.

9 There came two & two vnto Noah into the Arke, male and female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And after seven dayes the waters of the flood were vpon the earth.

11 * In the six hundred yere of Noahs life in the 4 second moneth, the leuenteenth day of the moneth, in the same day were all the fountaines of the great deepe broken vp, and the windowes of heauen were opened.

12 And the raine was vpon the earth fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes.

13 In the selfe same day entred Noah with them, and Ham and Japheth, the sonnes of Noah, and Noahs wife, and the three wiues of his sonnes with them into the Arke.

14 They and euery beast after his kind, and all cattell after their kind, & euery thing that creepeth and moueth vpon the earth after his kinde, and euery foule after his kind, euen euery bird of euery feather.

15 For they came to Noah into the Arke, two and two, of all flesh wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they entring in, came male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the Lord shut him in.

17 When the flood was fourtie dayes vpon the earth, and the waters were increased, and bare vp the Arke, which was left vpon a boue the earth.

18 The waters also waxed strong, and were increased exceedingly vpon the earth, and the Arke went vpon the waters.

19 The waters prevailed so exceedingly vpon the earth, that all the hie mountaines, that are vnder the whole heauen, were couered.

20 Fiftene cubites byward did the waters preuaile, when the mountaines were couered.

21 * Then all flesh perished that mooued vpon the earth, both foule and cattell and beast, & euery thing that creepeth and moueth vpon the earth, and euery man.

22 Euery thing in whose nostrils was the spirit of life, died breathe, whatsoeuer they were in the dry land, they died.

23 * So hee destroyed euery thing that was vpon the earth, from man to beast, & to the creeping thing, & to the foule of the heauen: they were euen destroyed from the earth. And Noah onely remained, and they that were with him in the Arke.

24 And the waters prevailed vpon the earth an hundred and fiftie dayes.

CHAP. VIII.

13 The flood ceaseth. 26 Noah is commanded to come forth of the Arke with his. 20 He sacrificeth to the Lord. 22 God promisseth that all things shall continue in their first order.

Now God remembered Noah and euery beast, & all the cattell that was with him in the Arke: therefore God made a winde to passe vpon the earth, and the waters ceased.

2 The fountaines also of the deepe, and the windowes of heauen were stopped, and the raine from the heauen was restrained.

3 And the waters returned from aboue the earth, going and returning: and after the ende of the hundred and fiftieth day the waters abated.

4 And in the seventh moneth, in the seventeenth day of the moneth, the Arke rested vpon the mountaines of Ararat.

5 And the waters were going & decreasing vntill the 4 tenth mouer: in the tenth moneth, and in the first day of the moneth were the tops of the mountaines seene.

6 * So after fourtie dayes, Noah opened the window of the Arke, which hee had made.

7 And sent forth a rauen which went out going forth and returning, vntill the waters were dried vpon the earth.

8 Again he sent a dove from him that hee might see if the waters were diminished from off the earth.

9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foote: therefore she returned vnto him into the Arke (for the waters were vpon the whole earth) and hee put forth his hand and receiued her, and took her to him into the Arke.

10 And he abode yet other seven dayes, & again he sent forth the dove out of the Arke.

and every thing that creepeth and mooueth beast of the earth.

11 And my covenant will I establish with you, that from henceforth all flesh shall not be rooted out by the waters of the flood, neither shall there be a flood to destroy the earth any more.

12 Then God saide, This is the token of the covenant which I make betwene mee and you, & betwene every liuing thing that is with you vnto perpetual generations.

13 I haue set my bow in the cloud, and ment, and put it upon both their shoulders, and went backward, and covered the nakedness of their father in their faces backward: so they saw not their fathers nakedness.

24 Then Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger sonne had done unto him.

25 And sayde, Cursed be Canaan: a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren.

26 He said moreover, Blessed be the Lord God of Shem, let Canaan be his servant.

27 God || perfwade Japheth, that hee may dwell in the tents of Shem, and let Canaan be his servant.

28 ¶ And Noah lived after the flood three hundredth and fiftie yeeres.

29 So all the dayes of Noah were nine hundredth and fiftie yeeres, and he died.

CHAP. X.

1 The increase of mankind by Noah and his sons
2 The beginning of cities, countryes, and nations.

Now these are the generations of the sonnes of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth: unto whom sonnes were borne after the flood.

2 The sonnes of Japheth were Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Janan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras.

3 And the sonnes of Gomer, Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah.

4 Also the sonnes of Janan, Elthah, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanum.

5 Of these were the Gentiles divided in their lands, every man after his tongue, and after their families in their nations.

6 ¶ Wherefore the sonnes of Ham were Cush, and Mizraim, and Put, & Canaan.

7 And the sonnes of Cush, Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabrecha: also the sonnes of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan.

8 And Cush begat Nimrod, who began to be mightie in the earth.

9 He was a mightie hunter before the Lord: wherefore it is sayd, As Nimrod the mightie hunter before the Lord.

10 And the beginning of his kingdome was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, & Calneh in the land of Shinar.

11 Out of that land came Ashur: he builded Nineveh, & the citie Rehoboth, and Calah: this is a great citie.

12 Rezin also betweene Nineveh, & Calah: this is a great citie.

13 And Mizraim begat Ludim, and Canaanim, and Chabim, and Phutim.

14 Pathrusim also, and Casluhim, out of whom came the Philistines, and Cappadocians.

15 ¶ Also Canaan begate Sidon his first borne, and Heth.

16 And Jebel, and Emor, & Girgash.

17 And Hiti, and Arki, and Sini.

18 And Arvad, and Zemar, and Hamar.

19 ¶ And the sonnes of Ham were Cush, and Mizraim, and Put, & Canaan.

20 ¶ And the sonnes of Cush were Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabrecha.

21 ¶ And the sonnes of Raamah were Sheba, and Dedan.

22 ¶ And the sonnes of Ham were Cush, and Mizraim, and Put, & Canaan.

23 ¶ And the sonnes of Cush were Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabrecha.

24 ¶ And the sonnes of Raamah were Sheba, and Dedan.

25 ¶ And the sonnes of Ham were Cush, and Mizraim, and Put, & Canaan.

26 ¶ And the sonnes of Cush were Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabrecha.

27 ¶ And the sonnes of Raamah were Sheba, and Dedan.

28 ¶ And the sonnes of Ham were Cush, and Mizraim, and Put, & Canaan.

29 ¶ And the sonnes of Cush were Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabrecha.

thi: and afterward were the families of the Canaanites spread abroad.

19 Then the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon, as thou comest to Gerar unto Azah, and as thou goest unto Sodom and Gomorrah, and Admah, and Zeboim, even unto Lasha.

20 These are the sonnes of Ham according to their families, according to their tongues in their countryes and in their nations.

21 ¶ Unto Shem also, the father of all the sonnes of Eber, and elder brother of Japheth were children borne.

22 ¶ The sonnes of Shem were Elam, and Ashur, and Arpachshad, & Lud, and Aram.

23 And the sonnes of Aram, Uz, & Hul, and Gether, and Bash.

24 Also Arpachshad begate Shelah, and Shelah begate Eber.

25 Unto Eber also were borne two sons: the name of the one was Peleg: for in his dayes was the earth divided: and his brothers name was Joktan.

26 Then Joktan begate Almodad, and Shaleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah.

27 And Hadoam, and Uzal, & Diklah.

28 And Abimael, and Abimael, and Shela.

29 And Ophir, & Havilah, and Jobab: all these were the sonnes of Joktan.

30 And their dwelling was from Mesha, as thou goest unto Shephar a mount of the East.

31 These are the sonnes of Shem according to their families, according to their tongues, in their countryes and nations.

32 These are the families of the sonnes of Noah, after their generations among their people: and out of these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

CHAP. XI.

6 The building of Babel was the cause of the confusion of tongues.

10 The age and generation of Sem unto Abram.

32 The age and death of Terah.

¶ When the whole earth was of one language, and one speech.

2 And as they went from the East, they found a plain in the land of Shinar, and there they abode.

3 And they sayd one to another, Come, let vs make bricks, and burne it in the fire. So they had brick for stone, and flint had they in stead of mortar.

4 Also they sayde, Goe to, let vs build vs a citie and a tower, whose top may reach unto the heauen, that wee may get vs a name, leaue we be scattered vpon the whole earth.

5 But the Lord came down to see the citie and tower, which the sonnes of men builded.

6 And the Lord said, Behold, the people are one, and they all haue one language, and this they begin to doe, neither can they now be stopped from whatsoeuer they haue imagined to doe.

7 ¶ And the Lord said, I will come down, and confound their language, that they may not vnderstand one anothers speech.

8 ¶ So the Lord scattered them abroad in the earth from thence.

9 ¶ And the name of the citie was Babel, because the Lord did there.

10 ¶ And the beginning of Sem's generation was Abram, who was born in Ur of the Chaldees.

11 ¶ And the age of Abram when he was born was seventy and five yeeres.

12 ¶ And the age of Abram when he was born was seventy and five yeeres.

13 ¶ And the age of Abram when he was born was seventy and five yeeres.

14 ¶ And the age of Abram when he was born was seventy and five yeeres.

15 ¶ And the age of Abram when he was born was seventy and five yeeres.

16 ¶ And the age of Abram when he was born was seventy and five yeeres.

17 ¶ And the age of Abram when he was born was seventy and five yeeres.

18 ¶ And the age of Abram when he was born was seventy and five yeeres.

19 ¶ And the age of Abram when he was born was seventy and five yeeres.

20 ¶ And the age of Abram when he was born was seventy and five yeeres.

21 ¶ And the age of Abram when he was born was seventy and five yeeres.

22 ¶ And the age of Abram when he was born was seventy and five yeeres.

14. ¶ How when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman for she was very faire.

15. And the princes of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her unto Pharaoh: so the woman was taken into Pharaohs house.

16. And he increased Abram's wealth for her sake, and he had sheeps, and camels, and hee asses, and men servants and mayd servants, and hee asses, and camels.

17. But the Lord plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues, because of Sarai Abrams wife.

18. Then Pharaoh called Abram, and said, Why hast thou done this unto me?
wherefore diddest thou not tell me, that she was thy wife?

19. Why saydest thou, She is my sister, that I should take her to be my wife: now therefore behold thy wife, take her and goe thy way.

20. And Pharaoh gave men a commandement concerning him: and they conveyed him forth, and his wife, and all that he had.

CHAP. XIII.

1. Abram departed out of Egypt. 2. He calleth upon the Name of the Lord. 3. Lot departeth from him. 4. The wickednes of the Sodomites. 5. The promise made to Abram is renewed. 6. Abram buildeth an altar to the Lord.

¶ Then Abram went up from Egypt, hee
T and his wife, and all that hee had, and Lot with him toward the South.

2. And Abram was very rich in cattell, in silver, and in gold.

3. And hee went on his journey from the South toward Beth-el, to the place where his tent had bene at the beginning, between Beth-el, and Hai.

4. Unto the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first: & three Abram called on the Name of the Lord.

5. ¶ And Lot also, who went with Abram, had sheeps, and cattell, and tents.

6. So that the lande could not beare them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.

7. Also there was debate betwene the herdmen of Abrams cattell, and the herd-men of Lots cattell: and the Canaanites and the Perizzites dwelled at that time in the land.

8. Then sayd Abram unto Lot, Let there be no strife I pray thee, betwene thee and me, neither betwene mine herdmen & thine herdmen: for we be brethren.

9. Is not the whole land before thee? depart I pray thee from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then will I goe to the right: or if thou go to the right hand, then I will take the left.

10. So when Lot lifted up his eyes, hee saw that all the plaine of Jordan was watered every where: (for before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorah, it was as the garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, as thou goest unto Soar.)

11. Then Lot chose unto him all the plains of Jordan, & took his journey to the East:

and they departed the one from the other.

12. Abram dwelled in the land of Cana-an, and Lot abode in the cities of the plaine, and pitched his tent even to Sodom.

13. Now the men of Sodom were wicked, and exceeding sinners against the Lord.

14. ¶ Then the Lord sayd unto Abram, (after that Lot was departed from him) Lift up thine eyes now, and looke from the place where thou art, Northward, and Southward, and Eastward, and Westward.

15. For all the land, which thou seest, will
I give unto thee, and to thy seed for ever.

16. And I will make thy seed, as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed be numbered.

17. Arise, walke thow the land, in the length thereof, and breadth thereof: for I will give it unto thee.

18. Then Abram remoued his tent, and came and dwelled in the plaine of Manre, which is Hebron, and builded there an altar unto the Lord.

¶ Spiritually this is referred to the true children of Abram, borne according to the promise, & not according to the flesh, which are heirs of the true land of Canaan.

CHAP. XIII.

12. For the overthrow of Sodom Lot is taken prisoner. 16. Abram delivereth him. 18. Melchiredek cometh to meete him. 23. Abram would not be enriched by the king of Sodom.

¶ And in the dayes of Amraphel King of A-Sinar, Arioch king of Elasar, Chedor-loamer king of Elam, & Elial king of the Nations:

2. These men made warre with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsha king of Gomorah, Shinar king of Admah, and Shemeber king of Jobim, and the king of Bela, which is Soar.

3. All these layned together in the vale of Siddim, which is the salt sea.

4. Twelue yeeres were they subject to Chedor-loamer, but in the thirteenth yeere they rebelled.

5. And in the fourteenth yeere came Chedor-loamer, and the kings that were with him, and smote the Rephaims in Asteroch Karnaim, and the Suthims in Ham, and the Emims in Shinar.

6. And the princes in their mount Seir, unto the plaine of Paran, which is byrde wildernesse.

7. And they returned & came to En mis-par, which is Kadish, & ynote all the coun-treys of the Amalekites, and also the Amarites that dwelled in Wazeran tamar.

8. Then went out the King of Sodom, and the King of Gomorah, and the King of Admah, and the King of Jobim, & the King of Bela, which is Soar, and they layned bat-tall with them in the vale of Siddim.

9. To wit, with Chedor-loamer king of Elam, and Elial king of nations, and Amraphel king of Sinar, and Arioch king of Elasar: foure kings against five.

10. Nowe the vale of Siddim was full of brime pits, and the kings of Sodom and child bearing. I say, if she got in into me, make: it may be that she shall receive a child by her. And Abram obeyed the voice of Sarah.

3 Then Sarah Abrahams wife took Hagar her maid the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelled ten years in the land of Canaan; and gave her to her husband Abram for his wife.

4 And he went unto Hagar, and she conceived, & when she saw that she had conceived, her name was: despised in her eyes.

5 When Sarah saw that she had conceived a child unto Abram, she hated her maid whom she had despised, & she said unto Abram, I have given my maid to thee, & thou hast despised her, & thou hast despised my name: & the Lord hath despised me, & thou hast despised me.

6 Then Abram said to Sarah, Behold, thou makest me in thine eyes as thy maid, as it pleases thee. Then Sarah dealt roughly with her: wherefore she despised her.

7 But the Angel of the Lord found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way of Shur.

8 And he said, Hagar Sarahs maid, whence comest thou? & whither wilt thou go? And she said, I flee from my mistress Sarah.

9 Then the Angel of the Lord said to her, Return to thy mistress, and humble thyself under her hands.

10 Again the Angel of the Lord said unto her, I will so greatly increase thy seed, that it shall not be numbered for multitude.

11 Also the Angel of the Lord said unto her, See, thou art with child, & shalt bear a sonne, and shalt call his name Ishmael: for the Lord hath heard thy tribulation.

12 And he shall be a wild man; his hand shall be against every man, and every mans hand against him; & he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren.

13 Then she called the name of the Lord that spake unto her, Thou God looked on me: for she said, I have not also here looked after him that seeth me.

14 Wherefore she was called Beer-lai-roi: for, & where were Rabbeth and Beer.

15 And Hagar bare Abram a sonne, and Abram called his sonnes name, which Hagar bare, Ishmael.

16 And Abram was fourscore and six years old, when Hagar bare him Ishmael.

CHAPTER XXII

5 Abrahams name is changed to confirm him in the promise. 6 The land of Canaan is the first time promised. 12 Circumcision is instituted. 13 Sarah is named Sarah. 18 Abraham prays for Ishmael. 19 Ishmael is promised. 23 Abrahams and his house are circumcised.

When Abram was ninety years old and nine, the Lord appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am God all sufficient: make thee become, and be thou upright.

2 And I will make my covenant between me and thee, and I will multiply thee exceedingly.

3 Then Abram fell on his face, and God talked with him, saying,

4 Behold, I make my covenant with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many nations.

15 And he said, Shall the name of mine house be called Abram, when thy name shall be called Sarai? for a father of many nations shalt thou be called.

16 Also I will make thee exceeding fruitful, & thou shalt have many sons, & thou shalt possess the gate of thy brethren.

17 Moreover, I will establish my covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be God unto thee and to thy seed after thee.

18 And I will give thee, and thy seed after thee, the land, wherein thou art a stranger, even all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession, and I will be thy God.

19 Again God says unto Abraham, Thou shalt keep my covenant, thou, and thy seed after thee in their generations.

20 This is my covenant, which ye shall keep between me and you, and thy seed after thee: Let every man child among you be circumcised.

21 That is, ye shall circumcise the foreskin of your flesh, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and you.

22 And every man child of your house among you shall be circumcised in your generations, as well he that is borne in thine house, as he that is bought with money of a stranger, which is not of thy seed.

23 He that is borne in thine house, and he that is bought with thy money, shall needs be circumcised: for my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

24 But the uncircumcised, in whose flesh the foreskin is not circumcised, even that person shall be cut off from his people, because he hath broken my covenant.

25 Afterward God says unto Abraham, Sarai thy wife shall thou not call Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name.

26 And I will bless her, and will also give thee a sonne of her, yea, I will bless her, and she shall be the mother of nations; Kings also of people shall come of her.

27 Then Abraham fell upon his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be borne unto him that is an hundred years old? And shall Sarah that is ninety years old, bear?

28 And Abraham said unto God, Oh that Ishmael might live in thy sight.

29 Then God said, Sarai thy wife shall bear thee a sonne indeed, and thou shalt call his name, Isaac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with thy seed after him.

30 And as concerning Ishmael, I have heard thee say, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him: exceedingly & he shall be a great nation of him.

31 But my covenant will I establish with thee, & with Isaac, saying, Thou shalt be called Isaac.

32 And he left off talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

33 Then Abraham took Ishmael his sonne, and all that were borne in his house, b The changing of his name is a seal to confirm Gods promise unto him.

c Circumcision is called the covenant, because it signifieth the commandment, and the promise of grace joined to it: which phrase is common to all Sacraments.

Abraham was circumcised, to show that all that is begun of man is corrupt, and must be mortified.

Rom. 7, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33.

d That phrase partly circumcised, to show that all that is begun of man is corrupt, and must be mortified.

Rom. 7, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33.

CHAP. XX.

1 Abraham dwelleth in a stranger in the land of Gerar. 2 Abimelech taketh away his wife. 3 God reproveh the king. 4 and the king Abimelech. 5 Sarah is restored with her gift. 6 Abraham prayeth, and the king and his are healed.

A fterward Abimelech departed thence toward the South country, and dwelled between Gader and Abur, and sojourning in Gerar.

2 And Abimelech said of Sarah his wife, Where is my sister. Then Abimelech king of Gerar sent and took Sarah.

3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream a night, and said to him, Behold, thou art but dead, because of the woman which thou hast taken: for she is a man's wife.

4 (Thou wilt stand upon the right hand of the man, yet come never here.) And he said, Lord, will thou slay even the righteous nation?

5 Said not he unto me, Where is my sister? yea, and he has said, She is my sister: with an upright mind, and innocent hands have I done this.

6 And God said unto him in a dream, I know that thou didst this: now tell an upright mind, and I will save thee also that thou shouldst not linge against men: therefore smite her: I will not touch her.

7 Now then, deliver the man his wife again: for he is a Prophet, &c. shall pray for thee that thou mayest live: but if thou deliver her not again, be sure that thou shalt die the death, thou and all that thou hast.

8 Then Abimelech rising up early in the morning, called all his servants, and told all these things: and the men were sore afraid.

9 *A*fterward Abimelech called Abraham, and said unto him, What hast thou done unto me? and where have I sinned thee, that thou hast brought on me and my kingdom this great sinne? thou hast done things unto me that ought not to be done.

10 So Abimelech said unto Abraham, What hast thou done that thou hast done this thing?

11 Then Abraham answered, Because I thought that thou wast the fear of God: I was not in this place, and thou wast thy wife unto me.

12 Then Abimelech answered, Because I thought that thou wast the fear of God: I was not in this place, and thou wast thy wife unto me.

13 Then Abimelech answered, Because I thought that thou wast the fear of God: I was not in this place, and thou wast thy wife unto me.

14 Then Abimelech answered, Because I thought that thou wast the fear of God: I was not in this place, and thou wast thy wife unto me.

15 Then Abimelech answered, Because I thought that thou wast the fear of God: I was not in this place, and thou wast thy wife unto me.

16 Then Abimelech answered, Because I thought that thou wast the fear of God: I was not in this place, and thou wast thy wife unto me.

17 Then Abimelech answered, Because I thought that thou wast the fear of God: I was not in this place, and thou wast thy wife unto me.

18 Then Abimelech answered, Because I thought that thou wast the fear of God: I was not in this place, and thou wast thy wife unto me.

19 Then Abimelech answered, Because I thought that thou wast the fear of God: I was not in this place, and thou wast thy wife unto me.

20 Then Abimelech answered, Because I thought that thou wast the fear of God: I was not in this place, and thou wast thy wife unto me.

21 Then Abimelech answered, Because I thought that thou wast the fear of God: I was not in this place, and thou wast thy wife unto me.

22 Then Abimelech answered, Because I thought that thou wast the fear of God: I was not in this place, and thou wast thy wife unto me.

23 Then Abimelech answered, Because I thought that thou wast the fear of God: I was not in this place, and thou wast thy wife unto me.

24 Then Abimelech answered, Because I thought that thou wast the fear of God: I was not in this place, and thou wast thy wife unto me.

25 Then Abimelech answered, Because I thought that thou wast the fear of God: I was not in this place, and thou wast thy wife unto me.

26 Then Abimelech answered, Because I thought that thou wast the fear of God: I was not in this place, and thou wast thy wife unto me.

27 Then Abimelech answered, Because I thought that thou wast the fear of God: I was not in this place, and thou wast thy wife unto me.

15 And when the water of the bottle was spent, shee call'd the child under a kerchiefe tree.

16 When her sons were with her, shee said, I will not see the death of the child: and shee laid her hand upon Isaac, and said, I will not see the death of the child.

17 Then God heard the voice of the child, and the angel of God called to Sarah from heaven, and said unto her, what aileth thee, Sarah? saith she, not: for God hath heard the voice of the child: where he is.

18 And shee said, I will make of him a great people.

19 And God opened her eyes, and shee saw a well of water: so shee went and filled the bottle with water, and gave the boy drink.

20 So God was with the child, and hee grew and dwelt in the wilderness, and was a herder.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran, and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

22 And at that time Abimelech and Phicol his chief captain spake unto Abraham, saying, God is with thee in all that thou doest.

23 Now therefore swear unto me here by God, that thou wilt not have me nor my children, nor my children's children: thou shalt deal with me, and with the country where thou hast been, as a stranger, according unto the kindness that I have shewed thee.

24 And Abraham said, I will swear.

25 And Abraham rebuked Abimelech for a well of water, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away.

26 And Abimelech said, I know not who hath done this thing: also thou toldest me not, neither heard I of this day.

27 Then Abraham took sheepe, and kine, and gave them unto Abimelech: and they two made a covenant.

28 And Abraham let seven lambs of the flock be for witnesses.

29 Then Abimelech said unto Abraham, Behold mine hand is clear from thee, for thou hast let be thy witnesses.

30 And he answered, Because thou hast received mine hand, these seven lambs, that it may be a witness unto me, that I have digged this well.

31 Therefore the place is called Beer-sheba, because there they both swore.

32 Thus made they a covenant at Beer-sheba: afterward Abimelech and Phicol his chief captain rose up, and turned againe unto the land of the Philistines.

33 And Abraham planted a grove in Beer-sheba, and called there on the name of the Lord, who is the everlasting God.

33 And Abraham planted a grove in Beer-sheba, and called there on the name of the Lord, who is the everlasting God.

34 And Isaac was a stranger in the Philistines land a long season.

9 Then the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and swore to him by this matter.

10 So the servant took ten camels of the camels of his master, and departed: for he had all his masters goods in his hand; and so he went, and went to Aram Naharaim, unto the city of Haran.

11 And he made his camels to lie down without the city by a well of water, at evening about the time that the women come out to draw water.

12 And he said, O Lord God of my master Abraham, I beseech thee, send me good speed this day, and shew me mercie unto my master Abraham.

13 For I stand by the well of water, while the mens daughters of this city come out to draw water.

14 Forasmuch therefore that the maide, to whom I say, Bow downe thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drinke: if shee say, Drinke, and I will giue thy camels drinke also: may be she that thou hast ordained for thy servant Ishaq: and thereby shall I know that thou hast shewed mercie on my master.

15 And now ver hee had left speaking, behold, Rebekah came out, the daughter of Bethuel, sonne of Milcah the wife of Laban, Abrahams brother, and her pitcher upon her shoulder.

16 And the maide was verie faire to looke upon, a virgin and unknowne of man: and shee went downe to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up.

17 Then the servant came to meete her, and said, Let me drinke, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher.

18 And shee said, Drinke I first and shee hastened, and let downe her pitcher upon her hand, and gaue him drinke.

19 And when shee had giuen him drinke, shee said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they be drunken enough.

20 And shee potyed out her pitcher into the trough speedily, and ranne againe unto the well to draw water, and shee drue for all his camels.

21 So the man wondered at her, and held his peace, to know whether the Lord had made his iourney prosperous or not.

22 And when the camels had left drinke, the man took a golden <sup>12</sup> shillem of halfe a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her handes, of tenn shekels weight of gold.

23 And hee said, Behold daughter art thou: tell me, I pray thee, Is there room in thy fathers house for vs to lodge in?

24 Then shee said to him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the sonne of Milcah whom shee bare unto Laban.

25 Whereupon shee said unto him, We haue litter also and prouender enough, and room to lodge in.

26 And the man bowed himselfe and worshipped the Lord.

27 And shee, Blessed be the Lord God of my master Abraham, which hath not deceived me: and his truth from my master: for when I was in the way, the Lord brought mee to my mistresss daughters house.

28 And the maide ranne and told them of her mothers house according to these words.

29 So Rebekah had a brother called Laban, and Laban ranne unto the man to the well.

30 For when he had seene the earrings, and the bracelets in his sisters eares, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus said the man unto mee, then he went to the man, and for: he stood by the camels at the well.

31 And hee said, Come in thou blessed of the Lord: wherefore standest thou without seeing I have prepared the house and camels for the camels.

32 Then the man came into the house, and he laden her camels, and brought litter and prouender for the camels, and water to wash his feet, and the mens feet that were with him.

33 Afterward the meate was set before him: but hee said, I will not eat, until I have said my message. And hee said, Speake on.

34 Then hee said, I am Abrahams servant. And the Lord hath blessed my matter wonderfully, that he is become great: for hee hath giuen him sheepe, and heeres, and silver, and golde, and men seruants, and many seruants, and camels, and asses.

35 And when my fathers wife hath borne a sonne unto me, when shee was old, vnto him hath he giuen all that hee had.

36 Now my master willeth me to say, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my sonne of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell.

37 But thou shalt goe vnto my fathers house, and to my kinred, and take a wife to my sonne.

38 Then I said vnto my master, what if the woman will not follow mee?

39 And hee answered me, The Lord, before whom I walke, will send his Angel with thee, and prosper thy iourney, and thou shalt take a wife for my sonne of my kinred, and my fathers house.

40 Then thou shalt be discharged of mine oath, when thou comest to my kinred: and if they giue thee not one, thou shalt bee free from mine oath.

41 So I came this day to the well, and sayd, O Lord the God of my master Abraham, if thou now prosper my iourney which I goe.

42 Behold, I stand by the well of water, when a virgin cometh forth to draw water, and I say vnto her, Giue mee, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drinke.

43 And shee say to me, Drinke thou, and I will also draw for thy camels, let her see thee, while the Lord hath prepared for my masters house.

44 And before I had made an ende of speaking in mine eare, behold, Rebekah came forth and her pitcher on her shoulder, and shee went downe vnto the well, and drew water. Then I said vnto her, Giue mee drinke I pray thee.

name of it is Eſau.

22 Then he remoued thence, and digged another well, for the which they ſtroue not:
therefore called hee the name of it Eſau:
both, and ſaide, Becauſe the Lord hath now made vs ſtroue, we ſhall increaſe vpon
the earth.

23 So he went vp thence to Beer ſheba.

24 And the Lord appeared vnto him the ſame night, and ſaide, I am the God of Abraham thy father: feare not, for I am with thee, and will bleſſe thee, and multiply thy ſeede by my ſervant Abrahams ſake.

25 Then he buildeth an altar there, and called vpon the name of the Lord, and there ſpawd his tent: where alſo Iſaaks ſervants digged a well.

26 Then came Abimelech to him from Gerar, & ſurprized one of his ſervants, and ſpied the captaine of his army.

27 To whom Iſaak ſaide, Wherefore come ye to me, ſeeing ye hate mee, and haue

Lord, doe this.

30 Then he made them a feaſt, and they dore eate and drinke.

31 And they roſe vp betimes in the morning, and ſware one to another: then Iſaak let them goe, and they departed from him in peace.

32 And that ſame day Iſaaks ſervants came and tolde him of a well, which they had digged, and ſaide vnto him, Alas haue found water.

33 So he called it Eſhbach: therefore the

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 Iſaak getteth the bleſſing fro Eſau by his mothers counſell. 2 Eſau by ſwearing ſetteth his father to pay him, & Eſau hateth Iſaak & ſur-prizeth his death. 3 Rebekah ſineth Iſaaks way.

40 When Iſaak was olde, and his eyes were dimme, (ſo that he coulde ſee) he called Eſau his eldeſt ſonne, and ſaid vnto him, My ſonne. And hee answered him,
I am here.

Then he ſaid, Behold, I am now old, and know not the day of my death.

3 Therefore ſay, I pray thee, take thine ſervants, & thy quier, and thy bowe, & get thee to the field, that thou mayeſt & take me ſome veniſon.

40 Then make me ſomewhat to eate, ſuch as I loue, and bring it me, that I may eate, and that my ſoule may be well cheere before I die.

1 (Howe Rebekah heard, when Iſaak ſpoke to Eſau his ſonne) and Eſau went into the ſelds to hunt for veniſon, and was bring it.

2 Then Rebekah ſpoke vnto Iſaak her ſonne, ſaying, Beholde, I haue hearde thy father talking with Eſau thy brother, ſaying,

3 Bring mee veniſon, & make me ſomewhat to eate, that I may eate and bleſſe thee before the Lord, afore my death.

4 Now therefore, my ſonne, heare my voyce in that which I command thee.

5 Get thee now to the ſlocke, & bring me thence two good kids of the goat, that I may make pleaſant meate of them for thy father, ſuch as he loueth.

6 Then thou haſt bring it to thy father, and he ſhall eate, to the intent that hee may bleſſe thee before hee death.

7 But Iſaak ſaide to Rebekah his mother, Beholde, Eſau my brother is rough, and I am ſmoother.

8 My father may poſſibly ſee me, and I ſhall ſeeme to him to be another: ſo ſhall
I bring a curſe vpon me, and not a bleſſing.

9 But his mother ſaid vnto him, & ſay on me be the curſe, my ſonne: once I heare my voyce, and doe as thou ſayeſt.

10 So he went and tooke them, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made pleaſant meate, ſuch as his father loued.

11 And Rebekah tooke ſauy clothes of her eldeſt ſonne Eſau, which were in her houſe, and clothed Iſaak her younger ſonne:

12 And the ſcarres of his hands, and the ſmoothe of his ſkin, which were of the kids of the goat.

13 Afterward hee brought the pleaſant meate and bread, which hee had prepared, in the hand of her ſonne Iſaak.

14 And when he came to his father, he ſaide, My father, Alas answered, I am here: who art thou, my ſonne?

15 And Iſaak ſaid to his father, I am Eſau thy eldeſt ſonne. I haue done as thou haſt ſaid me, and I pray thee let me eate of my veniſon, that thy ſoule may be well.

16 Then Iſaak ſaid vnto his ſonne, How haſt thou found it ſo quickly my ſonne? Eſau ſaide, Becauſe the Lord thy God brought it to mine hand.

17 Then ſaid Iſaak vnto Iſaak, Come hither now, my ſonne, & I will kiſſe thee: I ſuppoſe thou art my ſonne Eſau or not.

18 Then Iſaak came neere to Iſaak his father, and he kiſſed him, and ſaide, The voyce is Iſaaks voyce, but the hands are the hands of another.

19 He ſaid vnto him, Becauſe thy hands were ſmoother, as his brother Eſaus hands: wherefore hee called thee Iſaak.

20 Then ſaid hee vnto him, My ſonne, what thou that my ſonne Eſau? Alas answered, I doe.

21 Then ſaid hee vnto him, Bring it me hither, and I will eate of my ſonne's veniſon, that my ſoule may be well cheere. And hee brought it to him, and he ate: and hee was brought him wine, and hee drank.

27 And he came nether, and kiſſed him. And he ſmelled the ſavour of his garments, and bleſſed him, and ſaid, Behold, the ſmell of my ſonne, as the ſmell of a field, which the Lord hath bleſſed.

28 * God give thee therefore of the dewe of heauen, and the fatneſſe of the earth, and plenty of wheate and wine.

29 Let people be thy ſervants, and nations bowe vnto thee: let loue ouer thy brethren, and let thy mothers children honour thee, curſed be he that curſeth thee, and bleſſed be he that bleſſeth thee.

30 And when Iaakob had made an end of bleſſing Iaakob, and Iaakob was ſcarce gone out from the preſence of Iaakob his father, then came Eſau his brother from his hunting.

31 And he alſo prepared ſauourie meate and brought it to his father, & ſaide vnto his father, Let my father ariſe, and eate of his ſonnes veniſon, that thy ſoule may bleſſe me.

32 But his father Iaakob ſaid vnto him, Wherefore thou? And he answered, I am thy ſonne, even thy ſirſt borne Eſau.

33 Then Iaakob was ſtricken with a marvellous great feare, and ſaid, Behold, I beſeech thee hunt veniſon, and brought it me, and I haue eate of all beſore thou cameſt: and I haue bleſſed him, therefore he ſhall be bleſſed.

34 When Eſau heard the wordes of his father, he cried out with a great crye a bitter, out of meature, and ſaid vnto his father, Bleſſe me, euen me alſo, my father.

35 And he answered, Thy brother came with ſubiſtance, and hath taken away thy bleſſing.

36 When he ſaid ſo, Eſau be not wroth called Iaakob: for hee hath deceiued mee theſe two times: heooke my birthright, and loe, now hath he taken my bleſſing. Alſo he ſaid, Haſt thou not reſerued a bleſſing for me?

37 Then Iaakob answered, and ſaid vnto Eſau, Behold, I haue made him my loue, and all his brethren haue I made his ſervants: alſo with wheate and wine haue I ſuſtained him, and vnto thee now what ſhall I doe, my ſonne?

38 Then Eſau ſaid vnto his father, Doſt thou but one bleſſing, my father? Bleſſing, I ſee me alſo my father, and Eſau ſworne by his voyce, and went.

39 Then Iaakob his father answered, and ſaid vnto him, Behold, the fatneſſe of earth ſhall be thy dwelling place, and thou ſhalt haue of the dewe of heauen from above.

40 And by thy ſword ſhalt thou liue, and ſhalt be thy brethren ſervants. But I will come to paſſe, when thou ſhalt be the multitude, that thou ſhalt beſeeke me, and ſhalt come from thence.

41 ¶ Then Eſau ſaid vnto Iaakob becauſe of the bleſſing, I ſperced to his father bleſſed him. And Eſau thought in his minde, I ſhall dayes of mourning for my father with come ſhortly, then I will ſlay my brother Iaakob.

42 And it was tolde to Rebekah of the wordes of Eſau her elder ſonne, and he ſent and called Iaakob her younger ſonne, & ſaide vnto him, Behold, thy brother Eſau is comforted againſt thee, meaning to kill thee:

43 Nowe therefore my ſonne, heare my voyce, ariſe, and ſiet thou to Haran to my brother Laban.

44 And tarry with him a while untill thy brothers fierceneſſe be ſlacked.

45 And till thy brothers wrath turne away from thee, & he forget the things which thou haſt done to him: then will I ſend and take thee from thence: why ſhould I be deſtroyed of you both in one day?

46 Alſo Rebekah ſaid to Iaakob, I am wearie of my life, for I haue borne thee. If Iaakob take a wife of the daughters of Heth like thoſe of the daughters of the land, what ſhall I doe to thee?

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Iaakob forbiddeh Iaakob to take a wife of the Canaanites. 9 Eſau taketh to wife the daughters of Iſhmael againſt his fathers will. 12 Iaakob in the way to Haran ſeeh a ladder reaching to heauen. 14 Chriſt is promiſed. 20 Iaakob ſtretcheth of God onely meate and cloathing.

¶ Then Iaakob called Iaakob, and ſaid, bleſſed thou art, and charged him, and ſaide vnto him, Take not a wife of the daughters of Canaan.

2 Ariſe, get thee to Padan Aram to the houſe of Bethuel thy mothers father, and thence take thee a wife of the daughters of Laban thy mothers brother.

3 And God ſhall ſufficiently bleſſe thee, and multiply thee, that thou mayeſt be a multitude of people.

4 And give thee the ſhepeling of Abhah, euen to thee, and to the ſheep with thee, that thou mayeſt inherit the land (wherein thou art a ſtranger,) which God gaue vnto Abraham.

¶ Thus Iaakob ſent forth Iaakob, and he went to Padan Aram vnto Laban ſonne of Bethuel the Aramite, brother to Rebekah Iaakobs and Eſaus mother.

¶ Eſauhen Eſau ſaid that Iaakob had bleſſed Iaakob, and ſent him to Padan Aram, to ſer him a wife thence, and giuen him a charge when he bleſſed him, ſaying, Thou ſhalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan.

7 And that Iaakob had obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Padan Aram:

8 ¶ Alſo Eſau ſeeing that the daughters of Canaan diſpleaſed Iſrah his father, 9 Then went Eſau to Iſhmael, a ſooke of the ſonnes, which he had, & ſolath the daughter of Iſhmael Abrahams ſonne, the ſiſter of Habbith, to be his wife.

10 ¶ Nowe Iaakob departed from Bethuel, and went to Haran.

11 And he came vnto a certain place, and taried there all night, becauſe the ſonne was downe, and tooke of the ſtones of the place, and laide vnder his head, and ſlept in the ſame place.

vpon the which thou sleepest, I will I giue thee and thy seede.

14 And thy seed shall be as the dust of the keepe thee whither soeuer thou goest, and will bring thee againe into this land: for I will not forsake thee, vntill I haue performed that, that I haue promised thee.

16 ¶ Then Iakob awoke out of his sleepe, and sayd, Surely the Lord is in this place, and I was not aware.

17 And hee was afraid, and sayd, How fearefull is this place: this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heauen.

18 Then Iakob rose vp early in the morning, & tooke the stone that he had layd vnder his head, and sett it vp as a pillar, and poured oyle vpon the top of it.

19 And hee called the name of that place Beth-el: for he had said, the house of the city was as the first called Luz.

20 ¶ Then Iakob awoke a vow, saying,
If God will be with me, and will keepe me in this journey which I goe, and will geue me bread to eat, and clothes to put on:

21 So that I come againe vnto my fa-my God.

22 And this stone, which I haue set vp as a pillar, shall be Gods house: and of all that thou shalt giue me, will I giue the tenth

CHAP. XXIX.

13 Iakob cometh to Laban and serueth seven yeres for Rachel: 23 Leah brought to him bad in stead of Rachel: 29 He serueth seven yeres more for Ra-bel: 32 Leah conceiveth and beareth foure sonnes.

¶ Then Iakob lift vp his feet, and came into the East country.

2 And as he looked about, beholde, there was a well in the field, and lo, three flocks of sheepe lay thereby: (for at that well were the flocks watered) and there was a great stone vpon the wells mouth.

3 And thither were all the flocks gathered, and they rolled the stone from the wells mouth, & watered the sheepe, & put the stone again vpon the wells mouth in his place.

4 And Iakob sayd vnto them, My brethren, whence be ye? And they answered,
We are of Haran.

¶ Then he layd vnto them, Know ye Laban the sonne of Nahor? Alfo sayd, We know him.

6 Again he sayd vnto them, Is he in good health? and they answered, He is in good health, and beholde, his daughter Rachel cometh with the sheepe.

7 ¶ Then he said, Lo, it is yet his day, neither is it time that the cattell should be gathered together: wnder yet the sheepe and goe seeke them.

8 But they sayde, We may not vntill all the flocks be brought together, and all men roll the stone from the wells mouth, that we may water the sheepe.

9 ¶ While he talked with them, Rachel also came with her fathers sheepe, for she kept them.

10 And althow as Iakob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mothers daughter, and the sheepe of Laban his mothers brother, then came Iakob neere, & rolled the stone from the wells mouth, and watered the flocks of Laban his mothers brother.

11 And Iakob kissed Rachel and lift vp his hope, and wept.

12 ¶ For Iakob tolde Rachel, that hee was her father's daughter, and that hee was Rebekahs sonne: then the raine and cold her father.

13 And when Laban heard tell of Iakob his sisters sonne, he came to meete him, and embraced him, and kissed him, & brought him to his house: and he tolde Laban all these things.

14 ¶ To whom Laban sayd, Well, thou art my bone and my flesh, and her abode with him the space of a moneth.

15 ¶ For Laban sayde vnto Iakob, Though thou be my brother, shouldest thou therefore serue me for nought? Tell me what shalbe thy wages?

16 Now Laban had two daughters, the elder called Leah, and the younger called Ra-bel.

17 And Leah was tender eyed, but Ra-bel was beautiful and faire.

18 And Iakob loued Rachel, and sayd, I will serue thee seven yeeres for Rachel thy younger daughter.

19 Then Laban answered, It is better that I giue her thee, then that I should giue her to an other man: abide with me.

20 And Iakob serued seven yeeres for Rachel, & they seemed vnto him but a few dayes, because he loued her.

21 ¶ Then Iakob sayd to Laban, Giue me my wife that I may goe in to her: for my time is ended.

22 Wherefore Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast.

23 But when the evening was come, hee tooke Leah his daughter, and brought her to him, and he went in vnto her.

24 And Laban gaue his maide Zilpah to his daughter Leah, to be her seruant.

25 But when the morning was come, beholde, it was Leah. ¶ Then said he to Laban, Wherefore hast thou done thus to me? Did not I serue thee for Rachel? wherefore then hast thou beguiled me?

26 And Laban answered, It is not the manner of this place, to giue the younger he-sore the elder.

27 Fulfill seven yeeres for her, and I will also giue thee this for the seruice, which thou shalt serue me yet seven yeeres more.

28 ¶ Then Iakob did so, and fulfilled her seven yeeres, to see gaue him Rachel his daughter to be his wife.

29 Laban also gaue to Rachel his daughter Bilhah his maid to her servant.

30 So entered he in to Rachel also, and loved also Rachel more then Leah, and served him yet seven yeeres more.

31 ¶ When the Lord saw that Leah was despised, he made her fruitfull: but Rachel was barren.

32 And Leah conceived and bare a sonne, and shee called his name Reuben: for shee sayde, Because the Lord hath looked upon my tribulation, now therefore mine husband will love me.

33 And she conceived againe, and bare a sonne, and sayde, Because the Lord heard that I was hated, her hath therefore given me this sonne also, and shee called his name Simeon.

34 And she conceived againe, and bare a sonne, and sayde, Now at this time will my husband keepe me company, because I have borne him three sonnes: therefore was his name called Leui.

35 Wherefore shee conceived againe, and bare a sonne, saying, Now will I please the Lord: therefore shee called his name Iudah, and left bearing.

CHAP. XXX.

4.9. Rachel and Leah being both barren give their maids unto their husband, and they bare him children. 15 Leah giueth Mandrakes to Rachel, that Yaakob might be with her. 27 Laban is enriched for Yaakob's sake. 43 Yaakob is made very rich.

¶ And when Rachel saw that shee bare Yaakob no children, Rachel envied her sister, and sayde unto Yaakob, Giue me children, or else I die.

2 Then Yaakobs anger was kindled against Rachel, and he sayd, Am I in Gods stead, which hath withhelden from thee the fruit of the wombe?

3 And she sayde, Beholde me, mayd Bilhah, goe into her, and shee shall beare upon my knees, and I shall haue children also by her.

4 Then she gaue him Bilhah, her mayd to wife, and Yaakob went in to her.

5 So Bilhah conceived, and bare Yaakob a sonne.

6 Then sayd Rachel, God hath giuen sentence on my side, and hath also heard my voyce, and hath giuen me a sonne: therefore shee called his name Dan.

7 And Bilhah Racheles maide conceived againe, and bare Yaakob the second sonne.

8 Then Rachel sayd, Alas! I wrestlings haue I wrestled with my sister, and haue gotten the upper hand, and shee called her name Naphtali.

9 And when Leah saw that shee had left bearing, sheeooke Zilpah her maide, and gaue her Yaakob to wife.

10 And Zilpah, Leahs mayde bare Yaakob a sonne.

11 Then sayd Leah, A company cometh: and shee called his name Gad.

12 Againe Zilpah Leahs maide bare Yaakob another sonne.

13 Then sayd Leah, As I blessed am I, for the daughters will bless me: and shee called his name Asher.

14 ¶ Now Reuben went in the dayes of the tocher harvest: & found Mandrakes in the field, and brought them unto his master Leah. Then sayd Rachel to Leah, Giue me, I pray thee, of thy sonnes Mandrakes.

15 But she answered her, Is it a small matter for thee to take mine husband, except thou take my sonnes Mandrakes also? Then sayd Rachel, Therefore he shall sleepe with thee this night for thy sonnes Mandrakes.

16 And Yaakob came from the field in the evening, & Leah went out to meete him, & sayd, Come in to me, for I haue bought & payed for thee with my sonnes Mandrakes: and hee slept with her that night.

17 And God heard Leah, and shee conceived, and bare unto Yaakob the fifth sonne.

18 Then sayd Leah, God hath giuen me my reward, because I gaue my Mayde to my husband, and shee called his name Issachar.

19 After, Leah conceived againe, & bare Yaakob the sixth sonne.

20 Then Leah sayde, God hath induced me with a good dowrye: now will mine husband dwell with mee, because I haue borne him six sonnes: and shee called his name Zebulun.

21 After that, shee bare a daughter, and shee called her name Dinah.

22 ¶ And God remembered Rachel, and God heard her, and opened her wombe.

23 So she conceived, & bare a sonne, and sayd, God hath taken away my rebuke, 24 And shee called his name Joseph, saying, The Lord will giue mee yet another sonne.

25 ¶ And as soon as Rachel had borne Joseph, Yaakob said to Laban, Send me away that I may go to my place, & to my country.

26 Giue mee my wives and my children, for whom I haue serued thee, and let mee goe: for thou knowest what seruice I haue done thee.

27 To whom Laban answered, If I haue founde fauour in thy sight, arise: I haue perceived that the Lord hath blessed me for thy sake.

28 Also shee sayde, Appoynt unto me thy wages, and I will giue it thee.

29 But hee sayd unto him, Thou knowest what seruice I haue done thee, and in what taking thy cattell hath bene I vnder me.

30 For the liue, that thou hadst before I came, is increased into a multitude: and the Lord hath blessed thee by my coming: but now when shall I travel for mine owne house also?

31 Then hee sayd, What shall I giue thee? And Yaakob answered, Thou shalt giue mee nothing at all: if thou wilt doe this thing for me, I will returne, feede, and keepe thy sheepe.

32 I will passe through all the flocks this day, and I will separate from them all the sheepe with little spots and great spots, and all the blacke lambs among the sheepe, & the goats spotted, and little spotted among the goats: and it shall be my wages.

me hereafter, when it shall come for my reward before thy face, & every one that hath not little or great spots among the goates, and blacke among the sheepe, the same shall be spotted with me.

34 Then Laban said, So to, would God it might be according to thy saying.

35 Therefore he took out the same day the hee goates, that were partly coloured and with great spots, and all the goates with little and great spots, and all that had whitt in them, & all the blacke among the sheepe, and put them in the keeping of his ionnes.

36 And hee set these dayes journey betwene himselfe and Isaakob. And Isaakob kept the rest of Labans sheepe.

37 ¶ Then Isaakob took rods of greene poplar, & of haled, and of the chestnut tree, and piled white strakes in them, and made the whiter appeare in the rods.

38 Then hee put the rods, which he had piled, in the gutters and watering troughes, when the sheepe came to drinke, before the sheepe: (for they were in heat when they came to drinke)

39 And the sheepe were in heat before the rods, and afterward brought forth young of partie colour, and with small and great spots.

40 And Isaakob parted these lambs, and turned the flocke towards these lams: partie coloured, & all manner of blacke, among the sheepe of Laban: so hee put his owne flockes by themselves, and put them nor with Labans flocke.

41 And in every morning time of the stronger sheepe, Isaakob laid the rods before the eyes of the sheepe in the gutters, that they might conceale before the rods.

42 But when the sheepe were feeble, hee put them not in: and so the feeble were Labans, and the stronger Isaakobs.

43 So the man increased exceedingly, and had many flockes, and maiſterſervants, and men ſervants, and camels and asses.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 Labans children murmure against Isaakob.

3 God commandeth him to returne to his country.

13 34 The care of God for Isaakob. 19 Rachel fleeth her fathers idoles. 23 Laban followeth Isaakob.

44 The covenant betwene Laban and Isaakob.

¶ Now hee heard the wordes of Labans ionnes, saying, Isaakob hath taken away all that was our fathers, and of our fathers goods hath hee gotten all this honour.

2 Also Isaakob beseech the countenance of Laban, i that it was not towards him as in times past:

3 And the Lord had sayd unto Isaakob, Turne againe into the lande of thy fathers, and to thy kindred, and I will be with thee.

4 Therefore Isaakob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field unto his flocke.

5 Then saith he unto them, I see your fathers countenance, that it is not toward me: as it was wont, and the God of my fathers hath bene with me.

6 And ye know that I have served your father with all my might.

7 But your father hath deceived me, and changed my wages ten times: but God suffered him not to hurt me.

8 If hee thus say, The spotted shall be thy wages, then all the sheepe bare spotted: and if hee sayd thus, The partie coloured shall be thy reward, then bare all the sheepe partie coloured.

9 Thus hath God taken away your fathers substance, and given it me.

10 ¶ For in counting time I lifted by mine eyes and saw in a dream, and beheld, the hee goates leaped upon the tree goates, that were partie coloured with little and great spots spotted.

11 And the Angel of God sayd to me in a dream, Isaakob. And I answered, Lo, I am here.

12 And hee sayde, Lift up now thine eyes, and see all thine hee goates leaping upon the tree goates that are partie coloured, spotted with little and great spots: for I have seen all that Laban doeth unto thee.

13 ¶ I am the God of Beth-el, where thou anointedst the pillar, where thou vowedst a vow unto mee. Now rise, get thee out of this country, and returne unto the land where thou wast borne.

14 Then answered Rachel and Leah, and sayd unto him, Have we any more portion and inheritance in our fathers house?

15 Dooth not hee count vs as strangers? for he hath sold us, and hath eaten vp and consumed our money.

16 Therefore all the riches, which God hath taken from our father, is ours, and our childrens: now then whatſoever God hath sayd unto thee, doe it.

17 ¶ Then Isaakob rose vp, and let his ionnes and his wives upon camels.

18 And hee carried away all his flockes, and all his substance which hee had gotten, to wa, his riches which hee had gotten in Padan Aram, to goe to Ishak his father unto the land of Canaan.

19 ¶ When Laban was gone to heare his sheepe, then Rachel stole her fathers idoles.

20 Thus Isaakob stole away the heart of Laban the Aramite: for hee tolde him not that hee fled.

21 So fled hee with all that hee had, and hee rose vp, and passed the river, and let his face toward mount Seilan.

22 And the third day after was it tolde Laban, that Isaakob fled.

23 Then heeooke his brethren with him, and followed after him seven dayes lonney, and overtook him at mount Seilan.

24 And God came to Laban the Aramite in a dream by night, and sayde unto him, Take heede that thou speake not to Isaakob: & ought thou good.

25 ¶ Then Laban overtook Isaakob, and Isaakob had pitched his tent in the mount: and Laban also with his brethren pitched upon mount Seilan.

26 ¶ Then Laban sayd to Isaakob, What hast thou done? for thou hast even stolen away mine heart, and carried away my daughters.

¶ Or, many times.

¶ This declareth that the thing which Isaakob did before, was by Gods commandement, and not through deſire.

daughters as though they had bene taken captives with the sword.

27 Therefore diddest thou flee to secretly and steale away from mee, and diddest not tell me, that I might have sent thee forth with mirth and with songs, with tambour and with harp.

28 But thou hast not suffered mee to kiss my sonnes and my daughters: now thou hast done foolishly in doing so.

29 I am able to doe you euill: but the God of your father shalke vnto mee yesternight, saying, Take heede that thou speake not to Isakob ought saue good.

30 Now though thou wentest thy way, because thou greatly longedst after thy fathers house, yet wherewith hast thou stolen my gods?

31 Then Isakob answered, and sayde to Laban, Because I was afrayd, and thought that thou wouldest haue taken thy daughters from me.

32 But with whom thou findest thy gods, let him not lye. Search thou before our brethren what I haue of thine, and take it to thee, (but Isakob wist not that Rachel had stolen them.)

33 Then came Laban into Isakobs tent, and into Leahs tent, and into the two maydes tents, but found them not. So hee went out of Leahs tent, and entered into Rahels tent.

34 (Now Rachel had taken the stoles, and put them in the camels litter, and lace downe vpon them) and Laban searched all the tent, but found them not.

35 Then sayde shee to her father, & O my lord, bee not angry that I cannot rise vp before thee: for the custome of women is vpon mee: so hee searched, but found not the stoles.

36 ¶ Then Isakob was wroth, & chode with Laban: Isakob also answered & sayd to Laban, What haue I trespassed? what haue I offended, that thou hast pursued after me?

37 Seeing thou hast searched all my stuffe, what hast thou founde of rhine household stuffe? put it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may iudge betweene vs both.

38 This twentieth yeere I haue bene with thee: thine ewes and thy goates haue not cast their young, and the rammes of thy flocks haue I not eaten.

39 Whatsoeuer was toyne of beastes, I brought it not vnto thee, but made it good my selfe: of mine hand didst thou require it, were it stolen by day or stolen by night.

40 I was in the day consumed with heate, and with frok in the night, and my sleep departed from mine eyes.

41 Thus haue I bene twentieth yeere in rhine house, and scised thee fourteene yeeres for thy two daughters, and six yeeres for thy sheepe, and thou hast changed my wages ten times.

42 Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the feare of Isakob had bene with mee, surely thou haddest sent me away now empty: but God beheld my tribulation, and the labour of mine handes, and rebuked thee yesternight.

43 Then Laban answered, and said vnto Isakob, These daughters are my daughters, and these sonnes are my sonnes, and these sheepe are my sheepe, and all that thou seest, is mine, and what can I doe this day vnto these my daughters, or to these sonnes which they haue borne?

44 Now therefore come & let vs make a covenant, I and thou, which may be a witness betwene me and thee.

45 Then tooke Isakob a stone, and set it vp as a pillar.

46 And Isakob saide vnto his brethren, Gather stones: who brought stones, and made an heape, and they did eat there vpon the heape.

47 And Laban called it Jegar-sabuditha, and Isakob called it Galeed.

48 For Laban sayd, This heape is witness betwene me and thee this day: therefore he called the name of it Galeed.

49 Also he called it Jegar-sabuditha, because hee sayde, The Lord looke betwene me and thee, when we shall bee departed one from another.

50 ¶ Then shall bee my daughters, as thou shalt take to wiuues beside my daughters: there is no man with vs, behold, God is witness betwene me and thee.

51 Moreover, Laban sayd to Isakob, Beholde this heape, and beholde the pillar, which I haue set betwene me and thee.

12 And he said, Let us take our journey and goe, and I will go before thee.

13 Then hee answered him, My lord knoweth that the children are tender, and the cows and kine with yong bukes mine hands: and if they should overtake them one day, all the flocks would die.

14 Let now my lord go before his servant, and I will drive softly, according to the pace of the cattell, which is before mee, and as the children be able to indure, untill I come to my lord unto Gier.

15 Then Elan saide, I will leave thee some of my folke with thee. And he answered, What needest thou: let me finde grace in the sight of my lord.

16 So Elan returned, & went his way that same day unto Gier.

17 And Jaakob went forward towarde Succoth, and built him an house, and made booths for his cattell: therefore hee called the name of the place Succoth.

18 Afterward, Jaakob came safe to Shechem a cite, which is in the land of El-man, when he came from Padan Aram, and pitched before the cite.

19 And there hee bought a parcell of ground, wher hee pitched his tent, at the hand of the sonnes of Hamor Shechems father, for an hundred pieces of money.

20 And hee set up there an altar, and called it, The mighty God of Israel.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 Dinah is ravished, 3 Hamor asketh her in marriage for his sonne, 22 The Shechemites are circumcised at the request of Jaakob's sonnes, and the persuasion of Hamor. 25 The whore-dome is ravenged.

23 Jaakob reprooveth his sonnes.
Then Dinah, daughter of Leah, which she bare unto Jaakob, went out to see the daughters of that countrey.

2 When shee came to Shechem the sonne of Hamor, the Hevite lord of that countrey, saw her, and took her, and lay with her, and hee defiled her.

3 So his heart came unto Dinah the daughter of Jaakob: and hee loved the maid, and hee spake kindly unto the maid.

4 Then said Shechem to his father Hamor, saying, Get me this maid to wife.

5 Now Jaakob heard that hee had defiled Dinah his daughter, and his sonnes were with his cattell in the feld: therefore Jaakob beseech his peace, untill they were come.)

6 Then Hamor the father of Shechem went out unto Jaakob to commune with him.

7 And when the sonnes of Jaakob were come out of the feld and heard it, it grieved them, and they were very angry, because hee had wrought villanie in Israel, in that hee had lien with Jaakobs daughter: which thing ought not to be done.

8 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soule of my sonne Shechem longeth for your daughter: give her him to wife, I pray you.

9 So make affinity with us: give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you.

10 And yett shall dwell with vs, and the land shall be before you: dwell, & be your business in it, & have your possessions therein.

11 Shechem also said unto her father and unto her brethren, I let me finde favour in your eyes, and I will give whatsoever yett shall appoint me.

12 After of the abundance of his dowrie, and gifts, and I will give as ye appoint me, so that ye give me the maid to wife.

13 Then the sonnes of Jaakob answered Shechem & Hamor his father, talking deceitfully, because hee had defiled Dinah their sister, 14 And they said unto them, After can not bee this thing, to give our sister to an uncircumcised man: for that were a reprooche unto vs.

15 But in this will we consent unto you, if ye will be as we are, that every manchild among you might be circumcised.

16 Then will we give our daughters to you, and ye will take your daughters to us, and shall dwell with you, and be one people.

17 But if ye will not hearken unto us to be circumcised, then will we take our daughters and depart.

18 Now their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamors sonne.

19 And the yong man deferred not to doe the thing, because hee loved Jaakobs daughter: hee was also the most for of all his fathers house.

20 Then Hamor and Shechem his sonne went unto the gate of their cite, and communed with the men of their cite saying,

21 These men are peaceable with vs: and that they may dwell in the land, and doe their affaires therein (for behold, the land hath room enough for them) let vs take their daughters to wives, and give them out daughters.

22 Onely therein will the men consent unto vs for to dwell with vs, and to be one people, if all the men children among vs be circumcised as they are circumcised.

23 Shall not their flocks and their substance and all their cattell be ours: onely let vs consent herin unto them, and they will dwell with us.

24 And unto Hamor, and Shechem his sonne hearkened all that went out of the gate of his cite: and all the men children were circumcised, even all that went out of the gate of his cite.

25 And on the third day (when they were gone) two of the sonnes of Jaakob, Simeon and Levi Dinahs brethren, came either of them his sword and went into the cite boldly, and slew every male.

26 They slew also Hamor and Shechem his sonne with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechems house, and went their way.

27 Again the other sonnes of Jaakob came upon the dead, and howled the city, because they had defiled their sister.

land of Canaan.

6 So Esau took his wives & his sonnes and his daughters, and all the houses of his house, and his flocks, and all his cattell, and all his substance which he had gotten in the land of Canaan, and went into another country from his brother Jacob.

7 For their riches were so great that they could not dwell together, and the land, wherein they were strangers, could not receive them because of their flocks.

8 Therefore dwelt Esau in mount Seir: This Esau is Edom.

9 And these are the generations of Esau father of Edom in mount Seir.

10 These are the names of Esau's sonnes: Eliphaz the sonne of Adah, the wife of Esau, and Reuel the sonne of Basemath the wife of Esau.

11 And the sonnes of Eliphaz were Toman, Omar, Jephthah, and Gatam, and Kenaz.

12 And Tanna was concubine to Eliphaz Esau's sonne, and bare unto Eliphaz Amalek: these be the sonnes of Adah Esau's wife.

13 And these are the sonnes of Reuel Esau's sonne: Phahath, and Zerah, Shammah, and Ophir: these were the sonnes of Basemath Esau's wife.

14 And these were the sonnes of Abolam the daughter of Anah, daughter of Zibion Esau's wife: for she bare unto Esau Jeshu, and Jaalam, and Kozah.

15 These were the Dukes of the sonnes of Esau: the sonnes of Eliphaz, the first borne of Esau: Duke Toman, Duke Omar, Duke Jephthah, Duke Kenaz.

16 Duke Kozah, Duke Gatam, Duke Amalek: these are the Dukes that came of Eliphaz in the land of Edom: these were the sonnes of Adah.

17 And these are the sonnes of Reuel Esau's sonne: Duke Phahath, Duke Zerah, Duke Shammah, Duke Ophir: these are the Dukes that came of Reuel in the land of Edom: these are the sonnes of Basemath Esau's wife.

18 Likewise these were the sonnes of Abolam Esau's wife: Duke Jeshu, Duke Jaalam, Duke Kozah: these Dukes came of Abolam, the daughter of Anah Esau's wife.

19 These are the children of Esau, and these are the Dukes of them: This Esau is Edom.

20 These are the sonnes of Seir the Dukes, which inhabited the land before, Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibion, and Anah.

21 And Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan: these are the Dukes of the Dukes, the sonnes of Seir in the land of Edom.

22 And the sonnes of Lotan were Hori, and Heman, and Lotan's sister was Tanna.

23 And the sonnes of Shobal were these: Aluan, and Phanaah, and Obal, Shepho, and Onam.

24 And these are the sonnes of Zibion: both Anah, and Anah: this was Anah that found mules in the wilderness, as he fed his father Zibion's asses.

25 And the children of Anah were these:

Dishon, and Abolam, the daughters of Anah.

26 All these are the sonnes of Dishon, Dendian, and Eshan, and Ishan, and Choran.

27 The sonnes of Ezer are these: Bilhan, Jaanan, and Akan.

28 The sonnes of Dishon, are these: Uz, and Aran.

29 These are the Dukes of the Dukes: Duke Lotan, Duke Shobal, Duke Zibion, Duke Anah.

30 Duke Dishon, Duke Ezer, Duke Dishan: these be the Dukes of the Dukes, after their Dukedomes in the land of Seir.

31 And these are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom, before there reigned any king over the children of Israel.

32 Then Bela the sonne of Beor, reigned in Edom, and the name of his cite was Dinhabah.

33 And when Bela died, Jobab the sonne of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead.

34 When Jobab also was dead, Iusham the sonne of Amiel reigned in his stead.

35 And after the death of Iusham, Hadad the sonne of Bedad, which slew Iusham in the field of Moab, reigned in his stead, and the name of his cite was Auzi.

36 When Hadad was dead, then Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his stead.

37 When Samlah was dead, Shaul of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his stead.

38 When Shaul died, Baal-hanan the sonne of Achbor, reigned in his stead.

39 And after the death of Baal-hanan the sonne of Achbor, Hadad reigned in his stead, and the name of his cite was Pau: and his wives name Shephelah the daughter of Batrah, the daughter of Beorabab.

40 Then these are the names of the Dukes of Esau according to their families, their places & by their names: Duke Toman, Duke Anah, Duke Jether.

41 Duke Abolam, Duke Elad, Duke Dishon.

42 Duke Kenaz, Duke Tanna, Duke Shizar.

43 Duke Shagiel, Duke Iram: these be the Dukes of Edom, according to their habitations, in the land of their inheritance.

This Esau is the father of Edom.

1 Jacob now dwelt in the land, wherein his father was a stranger; in the land of Canaan.

2 These are the generations of Jacob: when Joseph was fourteen years old, he kept sheep with his brethren: and the child was with the sonnes of Zabul, and with the sonnes of Silpah, his father's wives.

And Joseph brought unto their father their evil saying.

4 So when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, when they hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him.

5 And Joseph dreamed a dream, and told his brethren, who hated him so much the more.

6 For he said unto them, Heare, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed.

7 Behold, I was once binding sheaves in the midst of the field: and loe, my sheaf arose, & also stood upright, and behold, your sheaves compassed round about, and did reverence to my sheaf.

8 Then his brethren said to him, Alas, what shalt thou reigne over vs, and rule us? or shalt thou have altogether dominion over vs? And they hated him so much the more for his dreams, and for his words.

9 And againe he dreamed another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have had one dream more, and behold, the sunne and the moone and eleven starres did reverence to me.

10 When he told it unto his father and to his brethren, and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What is this dream, which thou hast dreamed? Shall I, and thy mother, and thy brethren come in deede and fall on the ground before thee?

11 And his brethren envied him, but his father I noted the saying.

12 And when his brethren went to keepe their fathers sheepe in Shechem.

13 And Israel said unto Joseph, Doe not thy brethren keepe in Shechem? come, and I will send thee to them.

14 And hee answered him, I am feere. Then he said unto him, Doe now, see whether it bee well with thy brethren, and how the flocks prosper, and bring mee word againe: so hee sent him from the vale of Shechem, and he came to Shechem.

15 And when a man found him: for loe, he was wandring in the field, and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou?

16 And hee answered, I seeke my brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they keepe sheepe.

17 And the man said, They are departed hence: for I heard them say, Let vs goe unto Dothan. Then went Joseph after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.

18 And when they saw him a far off even before hee came at them, they conspired against him, how to slay him.

19 For they said one to another, Behold, this I dreamed cometh.

20 Come now therefore, and let vs slay him, and cast him into some pit, and we will say, A wicked beast hath devoured him: then wee shall see, what will come of his dreams.

21 But when Reuben heard that, he delivered him out of their hands, and said, Let vs not kill him.

22 And Reuben said unto them, Shedd not blood, but cast him into this pit: that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him. Thus hee said, that hee might deliver him out of their hand, and restore him to his father againe.

23 And now when Joseph was come unto his brethren, they strait took him out of his coat, his particoloured coat that was upon him.

24 And they took him, and cast him into a pit, and the pit was empty, without water in it.

25 Then they sate them down to eat bread: and they lift up their eyes, and looked, and behold, there came a companie of Ishmeelites from Gilead, and their camels laden with spicerie, and balm, and myrrhe, and were going to carie it downe into Egypt.

26 Then Judah said unto his brethren, What availed it, if wee slay our brother, though we keepe his blood secret?

27 Come and let us sell him to the Ishmeelites, and let not our hands be upon him: for hee is our brother and our flesh: and his brethren obeyed.

28 Then the Ishmeelites marchmen passed by, and they were found, and lift Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph unto the Ishmeelites for twentie pieces of silver: who brought Joseph into Egypt.

29 And afterwards Reuben returned to the pit, and beheld, Joseph was not in the pit: then he rent his clothes.

30 And returned to his brethren, and said, The child is not yonder, and I, whither shal I goe?

31 And they took Josephs coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dyed the coat in the blood.

32 So they sent that particoloured coat, and they brought it unto their father, and said, This have we found: see now, whether it be thy sonnes coat, or no.

33 Then hee knewe it, and said, It is my sonnes coat: a wicked beast hath devoured him: Joseph is surely come in pieces.

34 And Jacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his loynes, and sorrowed for his sonne a long season.

35 Then all his sonnes and all his daughters rose up to comfort him, but he would not be comforted, but said, I surely I will goe downe into the grave unto my sonne mourning: so his father wept for him.

36 And the Ishmeelites sold him into Egypt unto Potiphar an Eunuch of Pharaoh, and his I chiefe steward.

she called Shelah: and Judah was at Shebim when she was born.

7 Then Judah took a wife for Et his first borne, whose name was Tamar.

8 For the first borne of Judah was wicked in the sight of the Lord: therefore the Lord smote him.

9 Then Judah said to Dan, Spin linen for thy brothers wife: and do the office of a kinsman unto her: and raise up seed unto thy brother.

10 And Dan knew that the seed should not be his: Therefore when he went in unto his brothers wife, hee killed it on the ground, lest her should give seed unto his brother.

11 And it was wicked in the eyes of the Lord, which he did: therefore hee slew him also.

12 Then later Judah to Tamar his daughter in law, Remaine a widow in thy fathers house: till Shelah my sonne grow up (for hee thought thus, Lest hee die as well as his brethren.) So Tamar went and dwelt in her fathers house.

13 And in process of time also the daughter of Shimon Judahs wife died. The Judah, when hee had left mourning, went up to his sheepe shepards to Tinnah, he, and his neighbour Urah the Amulamite.

14 And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold, thy father in law goeth up to Urah, to meet his sheepe.

15 Then she put her widowes garments off from her, & covered her with a baile, and wrapped her selfe in plate downe in a Desolamite, which is by the way of Tinnah, because the law that Shelah was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife.

16 Children Judah saw her, hee lodged her an whore: for she had covered her face.

17 And hee turned to the way towards her, and said, Come, I pray thee, let mee lie with thee, (for hee knew not that shee was his daughter in law.) And shee answered, What wilt thou give me for to lie with thee?

18 Then said he, I will send thee a kid of the goats from the flocke: and the said, Well, if thou wilt give me a pledge, till thou send it.

19 Then hee said, What is the pledge that I shall give thee? And shee answered, Thy lignes, and thy cloake, and thy staffe: that is in thine hand. So hee gave it her, and lay by her, and shee was with child by him.

20 Afterward Judah sent a kidde of the goates by the hand of his neighbour the Amulamite, for to receive his pledge from the womans hand: but hee found her not.

21 Then asked hee the men of that place, saying, Where is the whore, that was in Ennaim by the way here? And they answered, There was no whore here.

22 Hee came therefore to Judah againe, and sayd, I cannot finde her, and also the men of the place say, There was no whore there.

23 Then Judah said, Let her take it to her, lest we bee ashamed: behold, I sent this kid, and thou hast not found her.

24 And after this, when shee had travailed, shee brought forth twins: and shee called the first borne Pharez, because hee was Pharez through the whore, and shee called the second borne Zerah, because hee was Zerah through the whore.

25 And when shee was brought forth, shee sent for her father in law, saying, As the man, unto whom I have beene a whore, I have borne thee two children: and shee said, I pray thee, what wilt thou give me for the child, and the child, and the name?

26 Then Judah knew thee, and said, Shee is more righteous then I: for shee hath done it, because I gave her not to Shelah my son. So hee lay with her, no more.

27 And when the time was come, that shee should be delivered, shee brought forth twins in her wombe.

28 And when shee was in travail, shee one put out his hand: and the midwife took and bound a red thread about his hand, saying, This is come out first.

29 But when hee plucked his hand backe againe, for his brother came out, and the midwife said, How hast thou broken the oath upon thee: and his name was called Zerah.

30 And afterward came out his brother that had the red thread about his hand, and his name was called Pharez.

Joseph a Hebrew, a God professed him: Joseph with Joseph him, Joseph with Joseph him, Joseph with Joseph him, Joseph with Joseph him.

Joseph was brought downe into Egypt, and Joseph was a Hebrew, and his chief steward an Egyptian bought him at the hand of the Amulamite, which bought him first.

2 And the Lord was with Joseph, and he was a man that prospered, and was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

3 And his master saw that the Lord was with him, and that the Lord made all that hee did, to prosper in his hand.

4 So Joseph found favour in his sight, and served him: and hee made him ruler of his house, and put all that hee had, in his hand.

5 And from that time that hee had made him ruler over his house, and over all that hee had, the Lord blessed the Egyptians house for Josephs sake: and the blessing of the Lord was upon all that hee had in the house, and in the field.

6 Therefore hee left all that hee had in Josephs hand, and took account of nothing that was with him, save only of the bread, which hee did eat. And Joseph was a faire person, and well favoured.

7 And when therefore after these things, his masters wife cast her eyes upon Joseph, and said, Lie with me.

CHAP. XL.

¶ The interpretation of dreames is of God. 12. 29 Joseph expoundeth the dreames of the two prisoners. 23 The ingratitude of the Butler.

2 And Pharaoh was angry against his two officers, against the chief butler, and against the chief baker.

3 Therefore he put them in ward in his chief stewards house, in the prison and place where Joseph was bound.

4 And the chief steward gave Joseph charge over them, and he served them: and they continued a season in ward.

¶ And they both dreamed a dreame either of them his dreame in one night, each one according to the interpretation of his dreame, both the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which were bound in the prison.

¶ And when Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them, behold, they were sad.

¶ And he said unto Pharaoh's officers that were in ward, saying, I have dreamed, saying, I see thee with me: but thou hast left thy garment in my hand, and thou hast got him out.

and Ephraim. 14 The famine began to be sore in the world.

15 And the second yeere after, Pharaoh also dreamed, and beheld, his dream by himself.

16 And loe, there came one of the ruler of the country, knee and forehead, and bowed in a time of need.

17 And hee, when other kine came by after them out of the river, was fauoured with leane flesh, and stood by the same kine, which were the leane of the river.

18 And the eue fauoured and leane fleshed kine did eat of the leane which fauoured, and fat kine: so Pharaoh awoke.

19 Again he slept, and dreamed the second time: and beheld, seven eares of come grew upon one stalk, eares and good.

20 And loe, seven thin eares and blasted with the east wind, standing by them.

21 And the thin eares bowed down to the fat eares, and said, we are full eares, when Pharaoh awoke, and loe, it was a dreame.

22 Now when the morning came, his spirit was troubled: therefore he sent and called all the footmen of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof, and Pharaoh told them his dreame: but none could interpret it to him.

23 Then spake the chief butler vnto Pharaoh, saying, I call to minde my faultes this day.

24 Pharaoh being angry with his seruants, put min ward in the chiefe steward, whome both he and the chiefe baker.

25 Then were dreamed a dreame in one night, both I, and hee: we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dreame.

26 And there was with vs a young man, an Egiptian, seruant vnto the chiefe steward, whome when we tolde, hee declared our dreames to vs, to euery one he declared according to his dreame.

27 And as he declared vnto vs, so it came to passe: for he restored me to mine office, and hanged him.

28 Then sent Pharaoh and called Ioseph, and they brought him hastily out of prison, and he shaued him, and changed his raiment, and came to Pharaoh.

29 Then Pharaoh saide to Ioseph, I haue dreamed a dreame, and no man can interpret it, and I haue heard say of thee, that when thou hearest a dreame, thou canst interpret it.

30 And Ioseph answered Pharaoh, saying, without mee God shall say, and were for the wealth of Pharaoh.

31 And Pharaoh said vnto Ioseph, In my dreame, behold, I stood by the banke of the river:

32 And loe, there came by out of the river seven fat fleshed, and well fauoured kine, and they fed in the meadow.

33 And loe, seven other kine came by after them, poore and very fawell fauoured, and leane fleshed: I neuer saw the like in all the land of Egypt, for euill fauoured.

34 And the leane and euill fauoured kine did eat of the fat seven fat kine.

35 And when they had eaten them up, I would not haue knowne that they had eaten them, but they were full as full as before: and I awoke, and loe, my dream was fulfilled.

36 Wherefore I came in my dreame, and beheld, seven eares growing out of one stalk, and they were full, and they were good.

37 And the seven eares, which were full, and they were good, they were eaten up after them.

38 And the seven thin eares, which were blasted with the east wind, they were good eares. Now I haue told thee the things, and thou canst declare vnto me.

39 Then Ioseph answered Pharaoh, saying, Pharaohs dreames are one: God hath shewed Pharaoh, what hee is about to doe.

40 The seven good kine are seven yeeres, and the seven good eares are seven yeeres, that shall come.

41 By likewise the seven thin and euill fauoured kine, that came out after them, are seven yeeres: and the seven eares blasted with the east wind, are seven yeeres of famine.

42 This is the thing which I haue said vnto Pharaoh, that God hath shewed vnto Pharaoh, what hee is about to doe.

43 Behold, there come seven yeeres of great plentie in all the land of Egypt.

44 Again, there shall arise after them seven yeeres of famine, so that all the plentie shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine shall consume the land.

45 Neither shall the plentie be knownen in the land by reason of this famine that shall come after: for it shall bee exceeding great.

46 And therefore the dreame was doubled vnto Pharaoh the second time, because the thing is established by God, and God hasteth to performe it.

47 Now therefore let Pharaoh provide for a man of vnderstanding, and wise, and let him ouer the land of Egypt.

48 Let Pharaoh make and appoint officers ouer the land, and take vp the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plentious yeeres.

49 Also let them gather all the fowle of their good yeeres that come, and lay by corne vnder the hand of Pharaoh for fowle, in the cities, and let them heape it.

50 So the fowle shall bee for the provision of the land, against the seven yeeres of famine, which shall bee in the land of Egypt, that the land perished not by famine.

51 And the saying pleased Pharaoh, and all his seruants.

52 Then said Pharaoh vnto his seruants, Can we finde such a man as this, in whom is the spirit of God?

53 Then Pharaoh said to Ioseph, For as much as God hath shewed thee all this, there is no man of vnderstanding, or of wisdom like vnto thee.

54 Thou shalt be ouer mine house, and as thy word shall all my people bee armed, ouer in thy Kings throne wilt I bee about thee.

we brought, that he may pick a quarrell against us, & lay some thing to our charge, and bring us in bondage and our allies.

19 Therefore came they to Iosephs steward, and communed with him at the doore of the house.

20 And sayd, Oh sir, we came indeede downe hither at the first time to buy food, 21 And as we came to an Inne and opened our sackes, beholde, every mans money was in his sackes mouth, even our money in full weight, but wee have brought it againe in our hands.

22 All other money have we brought in our hands to buy food, but we cannot tell, who put our money in our sackes.

23 And he said, Feare be unto you, feare not: your God and the God of your father hath given you that treasure in your sackes, I had your money and he brought forth silver in returne to them.

24 So the men ledde them into Iosephs house, and gave them water to wash their feet, and gave their asses provender.

25 And they made ready their present against Ioseph came at noone (for they heard say, that they should eate bread there.)

26 When Ioseph came home, they brought the present into the house to him, which was in their hands, and bowed downe to the ground before him.

27 And he asked them of their prosperitie, and sayd, Is your father the old man, of whom ye told me, in good health? is he yet alive?

28 They answered, Thy servant our father is in good health, he is yet alive: & they bowed downe, and made obeisance.

29 And he lifting up his eyes, beheld his brother Benjamin his mothers sonne, and said, Is this your younger brother, of whom ye told me? And he sayde, God be mercifull unto thee my sonne.

30 And Ioseph made haste, (for his affection was inflamed toward his brother, and sought where to weepe,) and entered into his chamber, and wept there.

31 Afterward he washed his face, & came out, and restrained himselfe, and said, Eet on & meate.

32 And they prepared for him by themselves, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians, which did eate with him, by themselves, because the Egyptians might not eate bread with the Chretians: for that was an abomination unto the Egyptians.

33 So they late before him: the eldest according unto his age, and the youngest according unto his youth, and the men marvelled among themselves.

34 And they took meattes from before him, and sent to them but Beniamins meate was five times so much as any of theirs: and they drinke, & had of the best drinke with him.

35 And he said, I have found that I have found in your sackes, a cup.

36 And he said, I have found in your sackes, a cup. And he said, I have found in your sackes, a cup.

37 And he said, I have found in your sackes, a cup. And he said, I have found in your sackes, a cup.

38 And he said, I have found in your sackes, a cup. And he said, I have found in your sackes, a cup.

39 And he said, I have found in your sackes, a cup. And he said, I have found in your sackes, a cup.

40 And he said, I have found in your sackes, a cup. And he said, I have found in your sackes, a cup.

41 And he said, I have found in your sackes, a cup. And he said, I have found in your sackes, a cup.

Afterward he commanded his steward, saying, Fill the mens sackes with food, as much as they can carry, and put every mans money in his sackes mouth.

2 And put my cup, I meane the silver cup, in the sackes mouth of the youngest, and his come money. And hee did according to the commaundement that Ioseph gave him.

3 And in the morning the men were sent away, they, and their asses.

4 And when they went out of the citie not farre off, Ioseph said to his steward, Thy fellow after the men: and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded me ill for good?

5 Is that not the cup, wherein my lord drinketh? and in the which hee doth divine and prophesie: yet have done evill in so doing.

6 And when he overtook them, hee sayd those words unto them.

7 And they answered him, Wherefore sayth my lord such wordes? God forbid that thy servants should doe such a thing.

8 Beholde, the money which wee found in our sackes mouthes, we brought againe to thee out of the land of Canaan: how then should we steal out of thy lords house silver, or gold?

9 Which whomsoever of thy servants it be found, let him die, and we also will be my lords bondmen.

10 And he sayd, Now then let it be according unto your wordes: hee which whom it is found, shall be my servant, and ye shall be blamelesse.

11 Then at once every man took downe his sacke to the ground, and every one opened his sacke.

12 And he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest, and the cup was found in Beniamins sacke.

13 Then they rent their clothes, and laded every man his ass, and went againe into the citie.

14 So Judah and his brethren came to Ioseph house (for he was yet there) and they fell before him on the ground.

15 Then Ioseph sayd unto them, What act is this, which ye have done? know ye not that such a man as I, can divine and prophesie?

16 Then sayd Judah, What shall wee say unto my lord? what shall wee speake? and how can wee justifye our selves? God hath founde out the wickednesse of thy servants: behold, wee are servants to my lord, both we, and yet, with whom the cuppe is found.

17 But he answered, God forbid, that I should doe so, for the man, with whom the cuppe is found, he shall be my servant, and goe ye in peace unto your father.

18 Then Judah drew neere unto him, and sayd, Oh my lord, let thy servant now speake a word in my lords eares, and let not thy wrath be kindled against thy servant: for thou art even as an Iddol.

19 My lord hath led his servants, saying, Have ye a father or a brother?

dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loueth him.

28 Now thou saydest vnto thy seruants,
Bring him vnto mee, that I may see mine

29 And we answered my lord, The child cannot depart from his father: for if he leaue his father, his father would die.

30 Then saydest thou vnto thy seruants,
Except your yonger brother come downe

31 So when wee came vnto thy seruant

33 Then we answered, Wee cannot goe bring him not vnto thee againe, then I will beare the blame vnto my father for ever.

40 Now therefore I pray thee, let me thy seruant bide for the child, as a seruant to my while Ioseph wretched himselfe vnto his bre-

2 And hee wept and cryed, so that the Egyptians heard: the house of Pharaoh heard also.

3 Then Ioseph sayde to his brethren, I am Ioseph: doeth my father yet liue? But his brethren could not answer him, for they were allanied at his presence.

4 Againe, Ioseph sayde to his brethren, Come neere. I pray you, to me. And they came neere. And hee sayde, I am Ioseph your brother, whom ye sold into Egypt.

5 Now therefore be not sadde, neither griued with your selues, that ye sold me hi-your preservation.

6 For now two yeres of famine have bene through the lande, and fure yeres are behinde, wherein neither shall be eating nor 7 Therefore God sent me before you to preserve your posteritie in this land, and to leave you alme by a great deliuerance.

8 Now then you sent not me before, but God, who hath made mee a father vnto Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

9 Waste you and goe up to my father, and tell him, Thus saith thy sonne Ioseph, God

Goshen, and shalt bee neere mee, thou and thy children, and thy childrens children, and hast.

11 Also I will nourish thee there: (for yet remaine fure yeres of famine) lest thou perish through povertie, thou and thy household, and all that thou hast.

12 And behold, your eyes doe see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that my mouth speaketh to you.

13 Therefore tell my father of all mine honour in Egypt, and of all that ye haue seene, and make haste, and bring my father hither.

14 Then hee fell on his brother Bena-minis necke, and wept, and Benjamin wept on his necke.

15 Moreover, hee kissed all his brethren, and wept vpon them: and afterward his brethren talked with him.

16 And the tidings came vnto Pharaohs house, so that they sayd, Iosephs bre-and his seruants.

17 Then Pharaoh sayde vnto Ioseph, Say to thy brethren, This doe ye, lade your heastes, and depart, goe to the land of Ca-

18 And take your father, and your house-brought their sheepe and their cattell, and all that they have.

33 And if Pharaoh call you, and aske you what is your trade?

f God suffereth the world to hate his, & they may forsake the filth of the world, and cleave to him.

34 Then yet shall say, Thy servants are men occupied about cattell, from our childhood even unto this time, both wee and our fathers: that yet may dwell in the lande of Goshen: for every sheepe keeper is an adomination unto the Egyptians.

CHAP. XLVII.

7 Jacob commeth before Pharaoh, and telleth him his age. 11 The land of Goshen is given him.

22 The idolatrous priests have living of the king.

28 Jacobs age, when he dieth. 30 Joseph sweareth to burie him with his fathers.

Then came Joseph and tolde Pharaoh, and sayd, Thy father, and my brethren, and their sheepe, and their cattell, and all that they have, are come out of the lande of Canaan, and behold, they are in the land of Goshen.

2 And Joseph took part of his brethren, even 5 five men, and presented them unto Pharaoh.

a That the king might be assured they were come, and see what manner of people they were.

3 Then Pharaoh said unto his brethren, What is your trade? And they answered Pharaoh, Thy servants are sheepeheads, both we and our fathers.

4 They sayd moreover unto Pharaoh, For to subsist in the land are we come: for thy servants have no pasture for their sheepe, for so is the famine in the land of Canaan. Now therefore, wee pray thee, let thy servants dwell in the land of Goshen.

5 Then spake Pharaoh to Joseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee.

b Josephs great modestie appeareth in that he would enterprise nothing without the kings commandment.

6 The land of Egypt is before thee: in the best place of the land make thy father and thy brethren dwell: let them dwell in the lande of Goshen: and if thou knowest that there be men of activity among them, make them rulers over my cattell.

7 Joseph also brought Iakob his father, and set him before Pharaoh: and Iakob saluted Pharaoh.

8 Then Pharaoh sayde unto Iakob, How old art thou?

c Ebr. How many dayes are theyeres of thy life? Ieb. 11. 9, 13.

9 And Iakob sayde unto Pharaoh, The whole time of my pilgrimage is an hundred and thirtie yeeres: fewe and euill haue the dayes of my life bene, and I haue not attained unto the yeeres of the life of my fathers, in the dayes of their pilgrimages.

10 And Iakob tooke leave of Pharaoh, and departed from the presence of Pharaoh.

d Ebr. blessed. e Which was a eirie in the countrey of Goshen, Exod. 1. 21.

11 And Joseph placed his father, and his brethren, and gave them possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the lande, even in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded.

f Some read, that he sed them as lide babies, because they could not provide for themselves against that famine.

12 And Joseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his fathers household with bread, 4 even to the yong children.

13 C Nowe there was no bread in all the land: for the famine was exceeding sore: so that the land of Egypt, and the land of Canaan were 4 famished by reason of the famine.

g Ebr. brought an extraordinary at their wits.

14 And Joseph gathered all the money, that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the coine which they bought, and 4 Joseph layd by the money in Pharaohs house.

h Wherein he both declared his fidelity towa the king, and his minde free from countnesse.

15 So when money failed in the lande of Egypt, and in the lande of Canaan, then all the Egyptians came unto Joseph, and said, Give vs bread: for why should we die before thee: for our money is spent.

16 Then sayd Joseph, Bring your cattell, and I will give you for your cattell, if your money be spent.

17 So they brought their cattell unto Joseph, and Joseph gave them bread for the oxen, and for the hockes of sheepe, and for the herds of cattell, and for the asses: so he fed them with bread for all their cattell that yere.

18 But when the yere was ended, they came unto him the next yere, and sayd vnto him, We will not hide from my lord, that since our money is spent, and we have sold the herds of the cattell, there is nothing left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies and our ground.

i For except the ground be tilled and sowed, it perissheth, and is as it were dead.

19 Why shall we perish in thy sight, both we, and our lande: buy vs and our lande for bread, and we and our land will be bond to Pharaoh: therefore give vs seede, that we may live and not die, and that the land not to waste.

20 So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh: for the Egyptians sold every man his ground, because the famine was sore upon them: so the land became Pharaohs.

21 And he removed the people unto the cities, from one side of Egypt even to the other.

j By this changing, they signified that they had nothing of their owne, but received all of the kings liberality. k Ebr. end of the border.

22 Onely the land of the Priests bought hee not: for the Priests had an ordinance of Pharaoh, and they did eate their ordinarie, which Pharaoh gave them: wherefore they sold not their ground.

23 Then Joseph sayde unto the people, Behold, I haue bought you this day, and your land for Pharaoh: loe, here is seede for you: sow therefore the ground.

24 And of the increase yet shall give the fifth part unto Pharaoh, and four parts shall be yours for the seeds of the field, and for your meate, and for them of your households, and for your children to eate.

25 Then they answered, Thou hast saved our lives: let vs finde grace in the sight of my lord, and wee will be Pharaohs servants.

l Pharaoh is prouoking for idolatrous priests shall be a condemnation to all them which neglect the true min isters of Gods word.

26 Then Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt unto this day, that Pharaoh should haue the fifth part, except the lande of the Priests onely, which was not Pharaohs.

27 And Israel dwelt in the lande of Egypt, in the countrey of Goshen: and they had their possessions therein, and grew and multiplied exceedingly.

28 And pour,

28 Moreover, Iacob lived in the land of Egypt fourteen yeres, so that the whole age of Iacob was an hundred twenty and seven yeres.

29 Now when the time drew nere that Iacob must die, he called his sonne Ioseph, and sayd unto him, If I have founde grace in thy sight, put this hand now under my thigh, and deale mercifully and truly with mee: burie mee not, I pray thee, in Egypt.

30 But when I shall sleepe with my fathers, thou shalt carie me out of Egypt, and bury mee in their burfall. And he answered, I will doe as thou hast sayd.

31 Then he sayd, Swaie unto me. And he swaie unto him. And Iacob bowed himself towards the bed's head.

CHAP. XLVIII.

1 Ioseph with his two sonnes visiteth his sick father. 2 Iacob rehearseth Gods promise. 3 He receiveth Iosephs sonnes as his. 19 He preferreth the younger. 21 Hee prophesieth their returne to Canaan.

AINe after this, one sayd to Ioseph, Alas, thy father is sick: then hee tooke with him his two sonnes, Manasse and Ephraim.

2 Also one tolde Iacob, and sayd, Behold, thy sonne Ioseph is come to thee, and Iacob tooke his strength unto him, and layd upon the bed.

3 Then Iacob sayd unto Ioseph, God Almighty appeared unto me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me.

4 And he sayd unto me, Behold, I will make thee fruitful, and will multiply thee, and will make a great number of people of thee, and will give this land unto thy seede after thee for an everlasting possession.

5 And now thy two sonnes, Manasse and Ephraim, which are borne unto thee in the land of Egypt, before I came to thee into Egypt, shall bee mine, as Reuben and Simeon are mine.

6 But thy lineage which thou hast begotten after them, shall be thine: they shall bee called after the names of their brethren in their inheritance.

7 Now when I came from Padan, Rachel died upon mine hand in the land of Canaan, by the way when there was but halfe a dayes iourney of ground to come to Ephraim: and I buried her there in the way to Ephraim: the same is Beth-lesem.

8 Then Iacob beseech Iosephs sonnes and sayd, I will die: but they answered him, and sayd, We will not leave thee.

9 And Ioseph sayd unto his father, They are my sonnes, which God hath given mee here. Then he sayd, I pray thee bring them to me, that I may blesse them:

10 For the eyes of Iacob were dimme for age, so that he could not well see: Then he caused them to come to him, and hee kissed them and embraced them.

11 And Iacob sayd unto Ioseph, I had not thought to haue seene thy face: yet loe, God hath shewed me all thy need.

12 And Ioseph tooke them away from his knees, and did reverence & downe to the ground.

14 But Iacob stretched out his right hand, and layd it upon Ephraims head, which was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasses head (directing his hands of purpose) for Manasse was the elder.

15 And he blessed Ioseph, and sayd, The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Ishaak did walke, the God, which hath fed me all my life long unto this day, blesse thee.

16 The Angel which hath delivered me from all euill, blesse the children, and let my name be named upon them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Ishaak, that they may growe as fish into a multitude in the mids of the earth.

17 But when Ioseph sawe that his father layd his right hande upon the head of Ephraim, it displeased him, and hee stayed his fathers hand to remove it from Ephraims head to Manasses head.

18 And Ioseph said unto his father, Not so, my father, for this is the eldest: put thy right hand upon his head.

19 But his father refused, and sayd, I knowe well, my sonne, I knowe well: hee shall be also a people, and hee shall be great likewise: but his younger brother shall bee greater then hee, and his seed shall be full of nations.

20 And he blessed them that day, and said, In thee Iacob shall blesse, and say, GOD make thee as Ephraim and as Manasse, and better Ephraim before Manasse.

21 Then Iacob sayd unto Ioseph, Behold, I die, and God shall be with you, and bring you againe unto the land of your fathers.

22 Moreover, I haue giuen unto thee one portion aboue thy brethren, which I gat out of the hand of the Amorite by my sword and by my bow.

24 But his bowe abode strong, and the bandes of his armes were strengthened, by the hands of the mighty God of Isakob, of whom was the feeder appointed by the stone of Israel.
25 Euen by the God of thy father, who shall helpe thee, and by the Almighty, who shall blesse thee with heavenly blessings from above, with blessings of the deepe, that lieth

28 All these are the twelue tribes of Israel, and thus their father spake vnto them, and blessed them: every one of them blessed he with a seuerall blessing.
29 And he charged them, and sayd vnto them, I am ready to bee gathered vnto my people: burie me with my fathers in the caue that is in the fildes of Ephron the Iu-ditee.
30 In the caue that is in the fildes of Canaan: which caue Abraham bought with the fildes of Ephron the Iuditee for a possession to burie in.

31 There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife: there they buried Isak and Rebeckah his wife: and there I buried Leah.
32 The purchase of the fildes, and the caue that is therein, was bought of the children of Heber.
33 Thus Isakob made an end of giuing charge to his finnes, and plucked vp his feet into the bed, and gave vp the ghost, and was gathered to his people.

13 Isakob is buried. 19 Joseph forgiveth his

Then Joseph fell vpon his fathers face, and wept vpon him, and kissed him.
2 And Joseph commanded his seruants

Physicians embalmed Isakob.
3 So forty dayes were accomplished (for so long did the dayes of them that were embalmed last) and the Egyptians bewailed him 70 dayes.
4 And when the dayes of his mourning were past, Joseph spake to the house of Pharaoh, saying, If I haue found fauour in your eyes, I pray you, in the eares of Pharaoh, and say, 5 My father made mee sware, saying,

haue made me in the land of Canaan: now therefore let me goe, I pray thee, and burie my father, and I will come againe.
6 Then Pharaoh sayd, Go vp and burie thy father: as he made thee to sweare.
7 So Joseph went vp to burie his father, and with him went all the seruants of Pharaoh, both the Elders of his house, and all the Elders of the land of Egypt.
8 Likewise all the house of Joseph, and his brethren and his fathers house: onely their children and their sheepe, and their cattell left they in the land of Goshen.
9 And there went vp with him, both cha-res and harem: and they were an exceed-

11 And when the Canaanites the inhabitants of the land saw the mourning in Gosen Arab, they sayde, This is a great mourning unto the Egyptians: wherefore the name thereof was called J Abel Misraim, which is beyond Jordan.

12 So his sonnes did unto him, according as he had commanded them.

13 For his sonnes carryed him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which cave Abraham bought with the field, to be a place to burie in, of Ephron the Hittite belives Hamre.

14 Then Joseph returned into Egypt, hee and his brethren, and all that went up with him to burie his father, after that hee had buried his father.

15 And when Josephs brethren sawe that their father was dead, they sayd, 4 It may bee that Joseph will hate vs, and will pay vs againe all the euill, which we did unto him.

16 Therefore they sent unto Joseph, saying, Thy father commanded betwix his death, saying,

17 Thus shall ye say unto Joseph, Forgiuenow. I pray thee, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sinne: for they rewarded thee euill. And now we pray thee, forgive the trespass of the seruantes of thy fathers God. And Joseph wept, when he they spake

22 And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his fathers house: and Joseph liued an hundred and ten yeere.

23 And Joseph sawe Egyptians children, euen vnto the third generation: also the sonnes of Joseph the sonne of Manasse were brought vp on Josephs knees.

24 And Joseph sayde vnto his brethren, * I am ready to die, and God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land, vnto the land which he sware vnto Abraham, vnto Isaac, and vnto Iacob.

25 And Joseph tooke an othe of the children of Israel, saying, * God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry my bones hence.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that Iacob by Gods commendement, Gene. 46. 3, had brought his familie into Egypt, where they remained for the space of foure hundred yeeres, and of fouenteen persons grew to an infinite number, so that the king and the commoner grudged, and outdewoured both by tyrannie & cruel slavery to oppresse them: the Lord according to his promise, Gene. 15. 14, had compassion of his Church, and deliuered them, but plagued their enemies in most strange and sundry sorts. And the more that the tyranny of the wicked enured against his Church, the more did his heavy iudgements increase against them, till Pharaoh & his armie were drowned in the same Sea, which gave entrance and passage to the children of God. But as the ingratitude of man is great, so did they immediately forget Gods wonderful benefices: and albeit he had giuen them the Passouer to be a signe and memoriall of the same, yet they fell to distrust, and tempted God with sundry murmuring and grudgings against him and his ministers: sometime moued with ambition, sometime for lacke of drinke or meat to content their lusts, sometime by idolatry, or such like. Wherefore God visited them with sharper rods and plagues, that by his corrections they might seek to him for remedy against his scourges, and earnestly repent them for their rebellions and wickedness. And because God touch them to the end, whom he hath once begunne to loue, he punished them not according to their deserts, but dealt with them in great mercies, and euer with new benefices laboured to overcome their malice: for hee still gouerned them, and gaue them his word and Law, both concerning the manner of seruing him, and also the forme of iudgements and ciuill police: to the intent that they should not serue God after their owne intentions, but according to that order which his heavenly wisdom had appointed.

exceeding mighty, so that the land was full of them.

8 Then there rose up a new king in Egypt, who knew not Joseph.

9 And he said unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are greater and mightier than we.

10 Come, let us make wisely with them, lest they multiply, and it come to pass that if there be warre, they fight themselves also into our enemies, and fight against us, and let us get them out of the land.

11 Therefore did they set task-masters over them, to keep them under with burdens: and they built the cities Pithom and Raamses for the treasuries of Pharaoh.

12 But the more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and grew: therefore they were more grieved against the children of Israel.

13 Wherefore the Egyptians by crueltie caused the children of Israel to serve.

14 Thus they made them weary of their lives by long labour in clay and in bricks, and in all work in the field, with all manner of bondage, & which they layed upon them most cruelly.

15 And Pharaoh the king of Egypt commanded the midwives of the Hebrew women, (of which the one's name was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah)

16 And sayd, When ye doe the office of a midwife to the women of the Hebrews, and see them on their stools, if it be a sonne, then shall ye kill him: but if it be a daughter, then let her live.

17 Notwithstanding the midwives feared God, and did not as the king of Egypt commanded them, but preserved alive the men children.

18 Then the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and sayd unto them, Why have ye done thus, and have preserved alive the men children?

19 And the midwives answered Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not as the women of Egypt: for they are lively, and are delivered ere the midwife come at them.

20 God therefore preserved the midwives, and the people multiplied and were very mighty.

21 And because the midwives feared God, therefore he made them houses.

22 Then Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every man shall kill his sonne, and every man his brother, and every man his neighbour.

CHAPTER II.

a Moses is borne & cast into the floud. b He is taken up of Pharaoh's daughter and kept. c He is called the Egyptian. d He fleeth & marryeth a wife. e The Israelites cry unto the Lord.

Then there went a man of the house of Letu, & took to wife a daughter of Letu.

2 And the woman conceived and bare a sonne: and when she saw that he was faire, she hid him three moneths.

3 But when she could no longer hide him, she took for him an ark made of reed, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and layed the child therein, and put it among the bulrushes by the rivers side.

4 Now his sister stood afar off, to wit what would come of him.

5 Then the daughter of Pharaoh came downe to wash her in the river: and her maidens walked by the rivers side: and when she saw the arke among the bulrushes, she sent her maid to fetch it.

6 Then she opened it, and saw it was a child: and behold, the babe wept: so she had compassion on it, and sayd, This is one of the Hebrews children.

7 Then sayde his sister unto Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I goe and call unto thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, to nurse thee the child?

8 And Pharaoh's daughter sayd to her, Doe. So the maide went and called the child's mother.

9 To whom Pharaoh's daughter sayd, Take this child away and nurse it for me, and I will reward thee. Then the woman took the child and nursed him.

10 Now the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he was as her sonne, and she called his name Moses, because, sayd she, I drew him out of the water.

11 And in those dayes, when Moses was a grownen, he went forth unto his brethren, and looked on their burdens: also he saw an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew, one of his brethren.

12 And he looked & round about, & when he saw no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

13 Again he came forth the second day, and beholde, two Hebrews stood: and hee sayd unto him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellowe?

14 And he answered, Altho maye thee a man of authority, and audge over us: I smitest thou to kill mee, as thou killedst the Egyptian? Then Moses feared and sayd, I certainly this thing is knowne.

15 Now Pharaoh heard this matter, and sought to slay Moses: therefore Moses fled from Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian, and he had a wife by a maid.

16 And when the flock of Midian had sent daughters, which came and drew water, and drew the troughs, to give water their fathers beasts.

17 Then the shepherds came and drew their away: but Moses rose up and defended them, and watered their flocks.

18 And when they came an Angel thereof, he sayd, Whom are ye come to loose to day?

19 And they sayd, A man of Egypt delivered us from the hands of the shepherds, and also drew us water troughs, and watered the flocks.

20 Then hee sayd unto his daughters, And where is hee? why have ye so long the man? call him that he maye eat bread.

21 And Moses agreed to dwell with the man: who gave unto Moses Zipporah his daughter.

24 Then God heard their moane, & God remembered his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Iacob.

25 So God looked vpon the children of Israel, and had respect vnto them.

CHAP. III.

1 Moses keepeth sheepe, and God appeareth vnto him in a bush. 10 He sendeth him to deliuer the children of Israel. 14 The name of God. 16 God teacheth him what to doe.

Vhen Moses kept the sheepe of Iethro his father in lawe, Dielct of Midian, and dwelt the flocke to the backeside of the desert, and came to the mountaine of God, wher.

2 Then the Angel of the Lord appeared vnto him in a flame of fire, out of the middes of a bush: and hee looked, and beholds, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

3 Therefore Moses sayd, I will turne as the note, and see this great sight, why the bush burneth not.

4 And when the Lord saw that he turned aside to see, God called vnto him out of the middes of the bush, and sayde, Moses, Moses. And he answered, I am here.

5 Then he sayd, Come not hither: put thy shoes off thy feet: for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.

6 Wherevnto hee sayd, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob. When Moses hid his face: for hee was afraid to looke vpon God.

7 And when the Lord sayd, I haue surely seene the trouble of my people, which are in Egypt, and haue heard their cry, because of their taskmasters: for I knowe their sorowes.

8 Therefore I am come downe to deliuer them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them out of that lande into a good land, and a large, into a land that floweth with milke and hony, euen into the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites and the Iebusites.

9 And now lo, the crye of the children of Israel is come vnto mee, and I haile also seene the oppression, wherewith the Egyptians oppress thee.

10 Come now therefore, and I will send thee vnto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.

11 But Moses said vnto God, Who am I, that I should goe vnto Pharaoh, and that I should bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?

12 And he answered, Certainly I will be with thee: and this shall be a token vnto thee, that I haue sent thee, After that thou halt brought the people out of Egypt, yee shall serue God vpon this mountaine.

13 Then Moses sayd vnto God, Behold, when I shall come vnto the children of Israel, and shall say vnto them, The God of your fathers hath sent mee vnto you: if they say vnto me, What is his name? what shall I say vnto them?

14 And God answered Moses, I AM THAT I AM. Also hee said, Thus shalt thou say vnto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me vnto you.

15 And God spake further vnto Moses, Thus shalt thou say vnto the children of Israel, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob hath sent mee vnto you: this is my name for euer, and this is my memoriall vnto all ages.

16 Soe and gather the Elders of Israel together, and thou shalt say vnto them, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Iacob appeared vnto mee, and sayde, I haue surely remembered you, and that which is done to you in Egypt.

17 Therefore I did say, I will bring you out of the affliction of Egypt vnto the lande of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Iebusites, vnto a land that floweth with milke and hony.

18 Then shall they obey thy voyce, and thou and the Elders of Israel shall go vnto the King of Egypt, and say vnto him, The Lord God of the Egyptians hath met with vs: wee pray thee now therefore, let vs goe three dayes iourney in the wilderness, that we may sacrifice vnto the Lord our God.

19 But I knowe, that the king of Egypt will not let you goe, but by strong hand.

20 Therefore wil I stretch out mine hand and smite Egypt with all my wonders, which I will doe in the middes thereof: and after that shall he let you goe.

21 And I will make this people to be favoured of the Egyptians: so that when yee goe, yee shall not goe empty.

22 For every woman shall aske of her neighbour, and of her that lodgeth in her house, iewels of silver, and iewels of golde, and rayment, and yee shall put them on your lannes, and on your daughters, and shall spoile the Egyptians.

A God beareth with Moses standing, because he was not altogether without faith.

3 Then said hee, Cast it on the ground. So he cast it on the ground, and it was turned into a serpent: and Moses fled from it.

4 Again, the Layde sayd vnto Moses, Put forth thine hande, and take it by the taile. Then he put forth his hand and caught it, and it was turned into a rodde in his hand.

5 Doe this, that they may beleue, that the Layde God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob hath appeared vnto thee.

6 And the Layde sayde furthermore vnto him, Thrust nowe thine hande into thy bosome. And hee thrust his hande into his bosome, and when heeooke it out againe, beholde, his hand was leproous as snow.

7 Whereupon he sayd, Put thine hand into thy bosome againe. So hee put his hand into his bosome againe, and pluckt it out of his bosome, and behold, it was turned againe as his other flesh.

8 So shall it bee, if they will not beleue thee, neither obey I the voyce of the first signe, yet shall they beleue for the voyce of the second signe.

9 But if they will not yet beleue these two signes, neither obey vnto thy voyce, then shalt thou take of the water of the river, and putte it vpon the drye land: so the water which thou shalt take out of the river, shall bee turned to blood vpon the drye land.

10 But Moses said vnto the Layde, Oh my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither at any time haue bene, nor yet since thou hast spoken vnto thy seruant: but I am a slowe of speech, and slow of tongue.

11 Then the Layde sayd vnto him, Altho hath giuen the mouth to man: or who hath made the dumbe, or the deafe, or him that seeth, or the blind: haue not I the Lord?

12 Therefore goe now, and I will bee with thy mouth, and will teach thee what thou shalt say.

13 But he sayd, Oh my Lord, send I pray thee, by the hande of him, whome thou shouldest send.

14 Then the Layde was very angry with Moses, and sayd, Doe not I knowe Aaron thy brother the Leuite, that he himselfe shall speake for thee, hee commeth also fourth to mee, and when he seeth thee, hee will be glad in his heart.

15 Therefore thou shalt speake vnto him, and put the wordes in his mouth, and I will bee with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye ought to doe.

16 And hee shall bee thy spokesman vnto the people: and hee shall be, when he shall bee as thy mouth, and thou shalt bee to him as God.

17 Whereupon thou shalt take this rodde in thine hand, wherewith thou shalt doe miracles.

18 Therefore Moses went and returned to Iethro his father in law, and sayd vnto him, I pray thee, let mee goe, and returne to my brethren, which are in Egypt, and see whether they bee yet alive. Then Iethro sayd to Moses, Doe in peace.

19 For the Layde had sayd vnto Moses in Midian, Goe, returne to Egypt: for they are all dead which were about to kill thee.

20 Then Moses tooke his wife, and his sonnes, and put them on an asse, and returned towards the lande of Egypt, and Moses tooke the rodde of God in his hand.

21 And the Layde sayd vnto Moses, When thou art entred and come into Egypt againe, see that thou doe all the wonders before Pharaoh, which I haue put in thine hand: but I will harden his heart, and hee shall not let the people goe.

22 Then thou shalt say to Pharaoh, Thus sayeth the Lord, Israel is my sonne, even my first borne.

23 Therefore I say to thee, Let my sonne goe, that hee may serue me: if thou refuse to let him goe, behold, I will slay thy sonne, even thy first borne.

24 And as hee was by the way in the Inne, the Layde met him, and would haue killed him.

25 Then Zipporah tooke a sharpe knife, and cut away the foreskinne of her sonne, and cast it at his fete, and sayd, Thou art in drede a bloody husband vnto me.

26 So he departed from him. Then the Layde, O bloody husband (because of the circumcision.)

27 Then the Layde said vnto Aaron, So meete Moses in the wilderness. And he went and met him in the mount of God, and kissed him.

28 Then Moses told Aaron all the words of the Layde, who had sent him, and all the signes wherewith he had charged him.

29 So went Moses and Aaron, and gathered all the elders of the children of Israel.

30 And Aaron told all the wordes, which the Layde had spoken vnto Moses, and hee did the miracles in the sight of the people.

31 And the people beleued, and when they heard that the Layde had visited the children of Israel, and had looked vpon their tribulation, they bowed downe, and worshipped.

6. Wherefore Pharaoh gaue commandement the same day vnto the task-masters of the people, and to their 4 officers, saying,

7. Ye shal giue the people no more straw, to make bricke (& as in time past) but let them goe and gather them straw themselves.

8. Notwithstanding lay vpon them the number of bricke, which they made in time past, diminish nothing thereof: for they be idle, therefore they cry, saying, Let vs goe to offer sacrifice vnto our God.

9. Lay more worke vpon the men, and cause them to doe it, and let them not regard their words.

10. When went the task-masters of the people, and their officers out, and tolde the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I will giue you no more straw.

11. Goe you leaue, get you straw to where ye can finde it, yet shal nothing of your labour be diminished.

12. Then were the people scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt, for to gather stubble in stead of straw.

13. And the task-masters hailed them, saying, Finish your dayes worke & eury dayes talke, as ye did when ye had straw.

14. And the officers of the children of Israel, which Pharaohs task-masters had let ouer them, were beaten, and demanded, wherefore haue ye not fulfilled your talke in making bricke yesterday and to day, as in times past?

15. Then the officers of the children of Israel came, and cried vnto Pharaoh, saying, Wherefore beatest thou thus with thy seruants?

16. There is no straw giuen to thy seruants, and they say vnto vs, Make bricke: and loe, thy seruants are beaten, and thy people is blamed.

17. But hee said, I see are too much idle: therefore ye say, Let vs goe to offer sacrifice to the Lord.

18. Goe therefore now and worke: for there shal no straw be giuen you, yet shal ye deliuer the whole tale of bricke.

19. Then the officers of the children of Israel saw themselves in an euill case, because it was laid, Ye shal diminish nothing of your bricke, nor of eury dayes talke.

20. And they met Moses and Aaron, which went in their way as they came out from Pharaoh,

21. To whom they said, The Lord looke vpon you and iudge: for ye haue made our labour to be strike before Pharaoh and before his seruants, in that ye haue put a sword in their hand to slay vs.

22. Wherefore Moses returned to the Lord, and said, Lord, why hast thou afflicted this people? Wherefore hast thou thus sent me?

23. For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he hath vexed this people, and yet thou hast not relieved this people.

4. Furthermore as I made my covenant with them to giue them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers.

5. So I haue also heard the groning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keepe in bondage, and haue remembered my covenant.

6. Wherefore say thou vnto the children of Israel, I am the Lord, and I will bring you out from the burdens of the Egyptians, and will deliuer you out of their bondage, and will redeeme you in a stretched out arme and in great iudgements.

7. Also I will take you for my people, and will be your God: then ye shal know that I the Lord your God bring you out from the burdens of the Egyptians.

8. And I will bring you into the land which I sware that I would giue to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Iacob, and I will giue it vnto you for a possession: I am the Lord.

9. So Moses tolde the children of Israel thus: but they hearkened not vnto Moses, for anguish of spirit and for cruel bondage.

10. Then the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, spake unto Moyses in the land of Egypt,

29 ¶ When the Lord say, spake unto Moses, saying, I am the Lord, spake thou unto Pharaoh the king of Egypt, all that I say unto thee.

30 ¶ Then Moyses said before the Lord, Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh heare me?

C. H. A. P. VII.

3 God hardeneth Pharaohs heart, so Moyses and Aaron doe the myracles of the serpent, and the blood, and Pharaohs forcerers doe the like.

¶ When the Lord said to Moyses, Behold, I have made thee || Pharaohs God, and Aaron thy brother shall be thy Prophet.

2 Thou shalt speake all that I commaunded thee, and Aaron thy brother shall speake unto Pharaoh, that hee suffer the children of Israel to goe out of his land.

3 But I will harden Pharaohs heart, and multiply my miracles and my wonders in the land of Egypt.

4 And Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you, that I may lay mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out mine armies, even my people: the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, by great judgements.

¶ Then the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I stretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them.

5 ¶ So Moyses and Aaron did as the Lord commanded them, even in this way.

¶ (Now Moyses was fourscore yeeold, and Aaron fourscore and thyece, when they spake unto Pharaoh)

¶ And the Lord had spoken unto Moyses and Aaron, saying,

¶ If Pharaoh speake unto you, saying,
Shew me a myracle for you, then thou shalt say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and cast it before Pharaoh, and it shall be turned into a serpent.

¶ Then went Moyses and Aaron unto Pharaoh, & did even as the Lord had commanded: and Aaron cast forth his rod before Pharaoh, and before his seruants, and it was turned into a serpent.

¶ Then Pharaoh called also for the wisemen, and forcerers: and these charmers also of Egypt did in like manner with their enchantments.

12 For they cast downe every man his rod, and they were turned into serpents: but Aarons rod deuoured their rods.

13 ¶ So Pharaohs heart was hardened, and hee hearkened not to them, as the Lord had said.

¶ The Lord then said unto Moyses, Pharaohs heart is || obstinate, he refused to let the people goe.

¶ So went Pharaoh in the morning, (for he will come forth unto the water) and thou halt stand and meete him by the riuers brinke, and the rod, which was turned into a serpent, shalt thou take in thine hand,

¶ And thou shalt say unto him, The Lord God of the Hebrewes hath sent me unto thee, saying, Let my people go, that they may serue me in the wilderness: and behold, hitherto thou wouldest not heare.

¶ Thus saith the Lord, In this thou shalt know that I am the Lord: behold, I will smite with the rod that is in mine hand, upon the water that is in the riuier, and it shall be turned to blood.

¶ And the fish that is in the riuier, shall die, and the riuier shall stinke, and it shall griue the Egyptians to drinke of the water of the riuier.

¶ The Lord then spake to Moyses, Say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and stretch out thine hand ouer the waters of Egypt, ouer their draimes, ouer their riuers, and ouer their ponds, and ouer all pootes of their waters, and they shall bee || blood, and there shall bee blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of woode, and of stone.

¶ So Moyses and Aaron did even as the Lord commanded: & hee lift vp the rod, and smote the water that was in the riuier in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his seruants: and all the water that was in the riuier was turned into blood.

15 Then Pharaoh returned, and went again into his house, & neither did they yet enter into his heart.

16 All the Egyptians then digged round about the river for waters to drink: for they could not drink of the water of the river.

18 And the Lord said unto Moses, 19 And the river Nile shall be turned into blood, and the Egyptians could not drink of the waters of the river: and there shall be blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

20 And if thou wilt not let them go, behold, I will smite all the country with frogs.

21 And the river shall swell full of frogs, which shall go up, and come into thine house, & into thy chamber where thou sleepest, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thine ovens, and into thy kneading troughs.

22 Then the frogs shall climb up upon thee, and on thy people, and upon all thy servants.

23 And the Lord said unto Moses, 24 Say unto Aaron, stretch out thine hand with thy rod upon the streams, upon the rivers, and upon the ponds, and smite frogs to come upon the land of Egypt.

25 Then Aaron stretched out his hand upon the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt.

26 And the sorcerers did likewise with their sorceries, and brought frogs up upon the land of Egypt.

27 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, 28 Bring ye me into the land that hee may take away the frogs from me, and from my people, and I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice unto the Lord.

29 And Moses said unto Pharaoh, 30 Concerning thee, and concerning thine house, and thy servants, and thy people, to deliver thee and thy house, and thy servants, and thy people from these frogs, that they may remaine in the river only.

30 Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh: and Moses cryed unto the Lord concerning the frogs, which he had sent unto Pharaoh.

31 And the Lord did according to the saying of Moses: and the frogs died in the houses, in the towns, and in the fields.

32 And they gathered them together by heaps, and the land stank of them.

33 But when Pharaoh saw that hee had not given him, he hardened his heart, & hearkened not unto them, as the Lord had said.

34 Against the Lord said unto Moses, 35 Say unto Aaron, stretch out the rod, and smite the dust of the earth, that it may be turned to lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

44 And the Lord said to Moses, 45 Thy servant shall come in the morning, and shall stand before thee, and thou shalt say unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

46 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, 47 God do thus unto me, and unto my servants, and unto my people, that I may see the face of the Lord: for I have seen that thou art righteous.

48 But Moses answered, 49 It is not mine honour to see the face of the Lord: for I have seen that thou art righteous. I will see the face of the Lord: for I have seen that thou art righteous. I will see the face of the Lord: for I have seen that thou art righteous.

desert, and sacrifice vnto the Lord our God, as he hath commanded vs.

23 And Pharaoh said, I will let you goe, that yet may sacrifice vnto the Lord your God in the wilderness, but's good will farre away may he be.

24 And Moses said, Behold, I will goe out from thee, and play into the Lord, that the swannes of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his seruants, and from his people to morrow: but let Pharaoh send henceforth decree no more, in not suffering the people to sacrifice vnto the Lord.

25 So Moses went out from Pharaoh, and played vnto the Lord.

26 And the Lord did according to the saying of Moses, & the swannes of flies departed from Pharaoh, from his seruants, and from his people, and there remained not one.

27 Yet Pharaoh's heart hardened his heart at this time also, and did not let the people goe.

CHAP. IX.

1 The murraine of beasts. 10 The plague of bushes and trees. 23 The horrible baile, thunder, and the lightning. 26 The land of Goshen auer is excepted. 27 Pharaoh confesse his wickedness. 31 Moses prayeth for him, 33 Tet is he refused.

Then the Lord said vnto Moses, Goe to Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Egyptians, Let my people goe, that they may leaue me.

2 But when he refused to let them goe, and wilt yet hold them still,

3 Behold, the hand of the Lord is vpon thy flocke which is in the field: for vpon the horses, vpon the asses, vpon the camels, vpon the cattell, & vpon the sheepe shall be a mightie great murraine.

4 And the Lord shall doe a wonderfull thing betwene the beasts of Israel, and the beasts of Egypt: so that there shall nothing die of all that pertaineth to the children of Israel.

5 And the Lord appointed a time, saying,
To morrow the Lord shall smite the thing in this land.

6 So the Lord did this thing on the morrow:
and all the cattell of Egypt died: but of the cattell of the children of Israel died not one.

7 Then Pharaoh sent, & behold, there was not one of the cattell of the Israelites dead: and the heart of Pharaoh was obdurate, and he did not let the people goe.

8 And the Lord said vnto Moses, and Aaron, Take your handfull of ashes of the furnace, and Moses shall sprinkle them toward the heauen in the sight of Pharaoh:

9 And they shall bee turned to dust in all the land of Egypt: and it shall bee as a hab smoking, out vnto the children of man, and vpon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt.

10 Then they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh: & Moses sprinkled them toward the heauen, and there came raines breaking out into dust vpon man, and vpon beast.

11 And the Egyptians could not stand be fore Moses, because of the dust, for the dust was vpon the chariotters, and vpon all the Egyptians.

12 And the Lord hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened not vnto them, as the Lord had said vnto Moses.

13 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Egyptians, Let my people goe, that they may leaue me.

14 For I will at this time send all my plagues vpon thy heart, and vpon thy ser uants, and vpon the people, that thou mayest know that there is none like mee in all the earth.

15 For now I will stretch out mine hand, that I may smite thee, and thy people with the pestilence: and thou shalt perish from the earth.

16 And inderde, for this cause haue I appointed thee, I to shewe my power in thee, and to declare my name throughout all the world.

17 Yet thou exaltest thy selfe against my people, and lettest them not goe.

18 Behold, to morrow this time I will cause to raine a mightie great haile, such as was not in Egypt since the foundation thereof was laid vnto this time.

19 Gather therefore now, and gather thy cattell, and all that thou hast in the field:
for vpon all the men, and the beasts, which are found in the field, and not brought home, the haile shall fall vpon them, and they shall die.

20 Such then as feared the word of the Lord among the seruants of Pharaoh made his seruants, and his cattell to flee into the houses.

21 But such as regarded not the saying of the Lord, left his seruants, and his cattell in the field.

22 And the Lorde sayde to Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heauen, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, vpon man, and vpon beast, and vpon all the beasts of the field: in the land of Egypt.

23 Then Moses stretched out his rod toward heauen, and the Lord sent thunder and haile, and lightning vnto the ground: and the Lord caused hail to come vpon the land of Egypt.

24 So there was haile, and fire mingled with the haile, & greivous: as there was none throughout all the land of Egypt since it was a nation.

25 And the haile smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast: also the haile smote all the heards of the fildes, and made to peece all the trees of the field.

26 And in the land of Goshen (where the children of Israel were) was no haile.

27 Then Pharaoh rose and called for Moses and Aaron, and said vnto them, I beare now sinnes, for the Lord is righteous, but I and my people are wicked.

28 Heare ye now the voyce of the Lord (for he is enough)

29 Then Moses said vnto him, Alas, as I am out of the city, I will spend mine hands vnto the Lord, and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there bee any more haile, that thou mayest know that the earth is the Lords.

33 Then Boles went out of the city from Borason, and spread his hands to the Lord, and the founder and the hail ceased, neither rained it upon the earth.

34 And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunder were ceased, he sinned again, and hardened his heart, both he, and his servants.

35. So the heart of Pharaoh was hardened: neither would he let the children of Israel go, as the Lord had said by Moses.

CHAPTER X

7 Pharaohs servants counsell him to let the Israelites depart. 13 Grasshoppers destroy the coun-trei. 16 Pharaoh confesse his sinne. 22 Darke-nesse is sent. 28 Pharaoh forbiddeth Moses to come any more in his presence.

A Gaine the Layde sayd unto Moyses, Go to Pharaoh: for I haue hardened his heart, and the heart of his seruants, that I might worke these my miracles in the mids of his realme.

2 And that thou mayest declare in the parts of the sonne, and of the sonnes sonne, what things I haue done in Egypt, and my miracles, which I haue done among them: that yee may knowe that I am the Lord.

3 Then came Moses and Aaron vnto Pharaoh, and they sayde vnto him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Chyrenes, How long wilt thou refuse to humble thy selfe before me? Let my people goe, that they may serue me.

4 But if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, to morrow will I bring <sup>1</sup> grasshoppers into thy coasts.

5 And they shall cover the face of the earth, that a man can not see the earth: and they shall eat the residue which remaineth vnto you, and hath escaped from the hail: :
and they shall eat all your trees that be in the field.

6 And they shall fill thine houses, and all thy servants, houses, and the houses of all the Egyptians, as neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers' fathers have seen, since the time they were upon the earth unto this day. So hee returned, and went out from Pharaoh.

7. Then Pharaohs servants sayde vnto him, How long shall he be in an offence vnto vs: let the men go, that they may serue the Lord their God: wilt thou first knowe that Egypt is destroyed?

8 So Moses and Aaron were brought again unto Pharaoh, and he said to them, See, I serve the Lord your God, but who are they that shall go?

9 And Boles answereth, Elies will goe with our yong and with our olde, with our longen and with our Daughters, with our sheepe and with our cattell will we goe: for we must celebrate a feast unto the Lord.

10 And her saye vnto them, Let the Lord be with you; as I will let you go and your children: beholde, for euill is before your face.

II It shall not be so: neither goe yet that are men, and serue the Lord: for that was your desire. Then they were thrust out from Pharaohs presence.

12. After the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Stretch out thine hande vpon the lande of Egypt for the grasshoppers; that they may come vpon the lande of Egypt, and eate all the herbes of the land, euen all that the haille hath left.

13 Then Moses stretched forth his rod upon the lande of Egypt: and the Loide brought an East winde upon the lande all that day, and all that night: and in the morning the East winde brought the grasshoppers.

14. And the grasshoppers went up upon all the lands of Egypt, and I remained in all quarters of Egypt : so grievous grasshoppers, like to these were never before, neither after them shall be such.

19. For they covered all the face of the earth, so that the land was dark: and they did eat all the herbes of the land, and all the fruites of the trees, which the harte had left, so that there was no greene thing left vpon the trees, nor among the herbes of the fieldes throughout all the land of Egypt.

16. Therefore Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste, and said, I have sinned against the Lord your God, and against you.

17 And nowe supplice me my sinne onely this once, and pray vnto the Lord your God, that he may take away from mee this death onely.

18 Moses then went out from Pharaoh, and prayed unto the Lord.

19 And the Lord turned a mighty strong West wind; and took away the grasshoppers, and violently cast them into the Red Sea, so that there remained not one grasshopper in all the coast of Egypt.

20 But the Lorde hardened Pharaohs heart, and he did not let the children of Israel go.

24 ¶ Again the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heauen, that there may bee vpon the lande of Egypt darkenesse, euen darkenesse, that may bee felt.

22 Then Moses stretched forth his hand toward heauen, and there was a blacke darkenelle in all the lande of Egypt three dayes. The sunne was not seene, nor the moone, nor the starres, for three dayes.

24 When Pharaoh called for Moses, and says, Get thee up: for the Lord: only your sheep and your cattell shall abide, and your children shall go with you.

25 And Moses says, Thou must give us also sacrifices, and burnt offerings, that we may do service unto the Lord our God.

26 Therefore our cattell also shall go with us: there shall not an hoof be left, for thereof must we take to serve the Lord our God: neither do wee knowe how we shall serve the Lord, untill we come thither.

27 (But the Lord hardened Pharaohs heart, and he would not let them goe)

28 And Pharaoh sayde unto him, Get thee from mee: looke thou see my face no more: for whensoever thou comest in my sight, thou shalt die.

29 Then Pharaoh sayde, Thou hast sayd well: from henceforth will I see thy face no more.

CHAP. XL

1 God prometh their departure. 2 He willet them to borrow their neighbours iowels. 3 Moses was esteemed of all false Pharaoh. 4 He signifieth the death of the first borne.

IN the Lorde had sayde unto Moses, Per will I bring one plague more upon Pharaoh, and upon Egypt: after that, hee will let you goe hence: when hee letteth you goe, he shall at once chafe you hence.

2 Speake thou now to the people, that every man require of his neighbour, and every woman of her neighbour iowels of silver and iowels of gold.

3 And the Lord gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians: also Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaohs servants, and in the sight of the people.

4 Also Moses said, Thus saith the Lord, About midnight will I goe out into the mids of Egypt.

5 And all the first borne in the land of Egypt shall die, from the first borne of Pharaoh that sitteth on his chaine, unto the first borne of the mayde servant, that is at the mill, and all the first borne of beasts.

6 Then there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as was neuer none like, nor shall be.

7 But against none of the children of Israel shall a dogge moue his tongue, neither against man nor beast, that ye may knowe that the Lord putteth a difference betwene the Egyptians and Israel.

8 And all these thy servants shall come downe unto mee, and fall before me, saying, Get thee out, and all the people that are at thy feet, and after this will I depart. So hee went out from Pharaoh very angry.

9 And the Lorde sayde unto Moses, Pharaoh shall not heare you, that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.

10 So Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh: but the Lord hardened Pharaohs heart, and hee suffered not the children of Israel to goe out of his land.

1 The Lord instructeth the Passover. 2 The father must teach his children the mystery thereof. 3 The first borne are slain. 4 The Egyptians are driven out of the land. 5 The Egyptians are spoiled. 6 The number that departed out of Egypt. 7 How long they were in Egypt.

THEN the Lorde spake unto Moses and to Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,

2 This moneth shall be unto you the beginning of moneths: it shall be to you the first moneth of the yeere.

3 Speake ye unto all the Congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth of this moneth let every man take unto him a lambe, according to the house of the fathers, a lambe for an house.

4 And if the household be too little for the lambe, he shall take his neighbour, which is next unto his house, according to the number of the persons: every one of you, according to his eating, shall make your count for the lambe.

5 Your lambe shall be without blemish, a male of a yeere olde: ye shall take it of the lambs, or of the kidnes.

6 And ye shall keepe it untill the fourteenth day of this moneth: then all the multitude of the Congregation of Israel shall kill it at euen.

7 After, they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two postes, and on the upper doore post of the houses where they shall eat it.

8 And they shall eat the flesh the same night, rost with fire, and unleavened bread: with some herbes they shall eat it.

9 Eat not thereof raw, boyled nor sodden in water, but roste with fire, both his head, his feet, and his purtenance.

10 And ye shall reserve nothing of it unto the morning: but that, which remaineth of it unto the morning, shall ye burne with fire.

11 And thus shall ye eat it, Your loynes girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staves in your handes, and ye shall eat it in haste: for it is the Lorde Passover.

12 For I will passe through the land of Egypt the same night, and will smite all the first borne in the land of Egypt, both man and beast, and I will execute judgement upon all the gods of Egypt: I am the Lord.

13 And the blood shall be a token for you upon the houses where ye are: so when I see the blood, I will passe over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destruction, when I smite the land of Egypt.

14 And this day shall be unto you a remembrance: and ye shall keepe it an holy feast unto the Lord, throughout your generations: ye shall keepe it holy by an ordinance for euer.

15 Seven dayes shall ye eat unleavened bread, and in any case ye shall put away leaven the first day out of your houses: for whatsoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that person shall be cut off from Israel.

Or calling together of the people to serve God.

16 And in the first day shall be an holy assembly: also in the seventh day shall be an holy assembly unto you; no work shall be done in them, save about that which every man must eat: that only may ye do.

17 Ye shall keep also the feast of unleavened bread: for that same day I will bring your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore ye shall observe this day throughout your posterity, by an ordinance for ever.

18 ¶ In the first month and the fourteenth day of the month at even ye shall eat unleavened bread unto the one and twentieth day of the month at even.

19 Seven days shall no leaven be found in your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread, that person shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel: whether he be a stranger, or borne in the land.

20 Ye shall eat no leavened bread: but in all your habitation shall ye eat unleavened bread.

21 ¶ Then Moses called all the Elders of Israel, and said unto them, Observe and take you heed of every way of your households a lamb, and kill the Passover.

22 And take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel, and the two doors cheekes with the blood that is in the basin, and let none of you go out at the door of his house, until the morning.

23 For the Lord will passe by to smite the Egyptians: and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and the two doors cheekes, the Lord will passe over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come into your houses to plague you.

24 Therefore shall ye observe this thing as an ordinance both for thee and thy sonnes for ever.

25 And when ye shall come into the land, which the Lord will give you, as he hath promised, then ye shall keep this service.

26 ¶ And when your children aske you, What service is this ye keep?

27 Then ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the Lordes Passover, which passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, & preserved our houses. Then the people bowed themselves, and worshipped.

28 So the children of Israel went, and did as the Lord had commanded Moses and Aaron: so did they.

29 ¶ Now at midnight the Lord smote all the first borne in the land of Egypt, from the first borne of Pharaoh that lay on his chaine, unto the first borne of the captive that was in prison, and all the first borne of beasts.

30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians: and there was a great cry in Egypt: for there was no house where there was not one dead.

31 And he called to Moses and to Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, get you out from among my people, both ye, and the children of Israel, and go serve the Lord as ye have said.

32 Take also your sheepe, and your cattell as ye have said, and depart, and be blessed me also.

33 And the Egyptians did force the people, because they would send them out of the land in haste: for they said, He die all.

34 Therefore the people took their dough before it was leavened, even their dough bound in clothes upon their shoulders.

35 And the children of Israel did according to the saying of Moses, and they asked of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment.

36 And the Lord gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians: and they granted their request: so they spoiled the Egyptians.

37 Then the children of Israel took their journey from Ramesses to Succoth about six hundred thousand men of foot, beside children.

38 And a great multitude of sundry sort of people went out with them, and sheepe, and bezels, and cattell in great abundance.

39 And they baked the dough which they brought out of Egypt, and made unleavened cakes: for it was not leavened, because they were thrust out of Egypt, neither could they tarry, nor yet prepare themselves vituals.

40 ¶ So the dwelling of the children of Israel, while they dwelled in Egypt, was four hundredth and thirtiye yeeres.

41 And when the four hundredth and thirtiye yeeres were expired, even the selfe same day departed all the hostes of the Lord out of the land of Egypt.

42 It is a night to be kept holy to the Lord, because hee brought them out of the land of Egypt: this is that night of the Lord, which all the children of Israel must keep throughout their generations.

43 Also the Lord saith unto Moses and Aaron, This is the lane of the Passover: no stranger shall eat thereof.

44 But every servant that is bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof.

45 A stranger or an hired servant shall not eat thereof.

46 ¶ In one house shall it be eaten: thou shalt carry none of the flesh out of the house: neither shall ye breake a bone thereof.

47 All the congregation of Israel shall observe it.

48 But if a stranger dwell with thee, and will observe the Passover of the Lord, let him circumcise all the males that belong unto him, and then let him come and observe it, and he shall be as one that is borne in the land: for none uncircumcised person shall eat thereof.

Then Moſes ſaid vnto the people, Remember this day in the which ye came out of Egypt, out of the houſe of bondage: for by a mightie hand the Lord brought you out from thence: therefore no leauened bread ſhall be eaten.

This day came ye out in the month of Abib.

Now when the Lord hath brought thee into the lande of the Canaanites, and Hittites, and Amorites, and Hittites, and Jebuſites (which hee ſware vnto thy fathers, that hee would giue thee, a land flowing with milke and hony) then thou ſhalt keepe this ſeruite in this month.

to morrow, ſaying, What is this? thou ſhalt then ſay vnto him, With a mightie hand the Lord brought vs out of Egypt, out of the houſe of bondage.

For when Pharaoh had heard hee had heard againe, departing, the Lord then ſlew all the firſt borne in the land of Egypt from the firſt borne of man euen to the firſt borne of beaſt: therefore I ſanctifie vnto the Lord all the males that firſt open the wombe, but all the firſt borne of my bondes I redeeme.

And it ſhall be as a token vpon thine hand, and as ſtrong ſigns betweene thine eyes, that the Lord brought vs out of Egypt by a mightie hand.

Now when Pharaoh had let the people goe, God carried them not by the way of the Philiftines countrie, I ſeough it were better: (for God ſayde, Let the people repent when they ſee warre, and turne againe to Egypt.)

But God made the people to goe about by the way of the wilderneſſe of the red ſea: and the children of Iſrael went by armed out of the land of Egypt.

And Moſes tooke the bones of Ieſeph with him: for he had made the children of Iſrael ſwear, ſaying, God will ſurely viſite you, and ye ſhall take my bones away hence with you.

So they tooke their journey from Succoth, and camped in Etham in the edge of the wilderneſſe.

And the Lord went before them by day in pillar of a cloud, to lead them by the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to giue them light, that they might goe both by day and by night.

Ye tooke not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night from before the people.

Then the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying.

Speake to the children of Iſrael, that they returne and campe before Pharaoh, betweene Migdol and the Sea, ouer againſt Baal zephon: about it ſhall ye campe by the Sea.

For Pharaoh will ſay of the children of Iſrael, They are tangled in the land: the wilderneſſe hath caught them in.

And I will harden Pharaohs heart, that he ſhall follow after you: ſo I will get mee honour vpon Pharaoh, and vpon all his hoſte: the Egyptians alſo ſhall knowe that I am the Lord: and they ſhall ſo.

Then it was told the king of Egypt, that the people fled: and the heart of Pharaoh and of his ſeruants was turned againſt the people, and they ſayde, Why haue we done this, and haue let Iſrael goe out of our ſeruite?

took his people with him,

7 And took six hundred chosen chariots, and * all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over every one of them.

8 For the Lord had hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he followed after the children of Israel: but the children of Israel went out with an * big hand.

9 And the Egyptians pursued after them, and all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his host overtook them camping by the Sea, beside Hibbathoth, before Baal-zephon.

10 And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lift up their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians marched after them, and they were sore * afraid: wherefore the children of Israel cryed unto the Lord.

11 And they say unto Moses, Hast thou brought us to this in the wilderness, because there were no graves in Egypt: wherefore hast thou served us thus, to carry us out of Egypt?

12 Did not we tell thee this thing in Egypt, saying, Let us be in rest, that we may serve the Egyptians: for it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, then that we should die in the wilderness.

13 Then Moses said to the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and behold: the salvation of the Lord which he will shew to you this day. For the Egyptians, whom ye have seen this day, ye shall never see them again.

14 The Lord shall fight for you: therefore hold you your peace.

15 ¶ And the Lord sayde unto Moses, Wherefore criest thou unto mee: speake unto the children of Israel that they go forward:

16 And lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thine hand upon the Sea, and divide it, and let the children of Israel goe on dry ground thow the mids of the Sea.

17 And I, behold, I will harden the heart of the Egyptians, that they may followe them, and I will get me honour upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

18 When the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I have gotten me honour upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

19 ¶ And the Angel of God, which went before the host of Israel, remooued, and went behind them: also the pillar of the cloud went from before them, and stood behind them,

20 And came betwene the campe of the Egyptians, and the campe of Israel: it was both a cloude and darkness, yet gaue it light by night, so that all the night long the one came not at the other.

21 And Moses stretched forth his hand upon the Sea, and the Lord caused the Sea to runne backe by a strong East winde all the night, and made the Sea dry land: for the waters were * diuided.

22 When the * children of Israel went thow the mids of the Sea upon the dry ground, and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left hand.

23 And the Egyptians pursued and went after them to the mids of the Sea, even all Pharaohs hostes, his chariots, and his horsemen.

24 Now in the morning watch, when the Lord looked upon the hoste of the Egyptians out of the fierie and cloudy pillar, hee strooke the hoste of the Egyptians with feare.

25 For hee took off their chariet wheelies, and they dyane them: with much adoe: so that the Egyptians every one layde, I will flee from the face of Israel: for the Lord fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

26 ¶ When the Lord layde to Moses, Stretch thine hand upon the Sea, that the waters may returne upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen.

27 Then Moses stretched forth his hand upon the Sea, and the Sea returned to his force early in the morning, and the Egyptians fled against it: but the Lord * overthrew the Egyptians in the mids of the Sea.

28 So the water returned and covered the chariots and the horsemen, even all the hoste of Pharaoh that came into the Sea after them: there remained not one of them.

29 But the children of Israel walked upon dry land thow the mids of the Sea, and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

30 Thus the Lord saue Israel the same day out of the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea bankes.

31 And Israel saw the mightie * power, which the Lord shewed upon the Egyptians: so the people feared the Lord, and beleueed the Lord, and his * seruant Moses.

1 The Israelites come to the desert of Sin, and murmur against Moses & Aaron. 2 The Lord sendeth Quailles and Manna. 3 The Sabbath is fastified unto the Lords. 4 The seventh day Manna could not be found. 5 It is kept for a remembrance to the posteritie.

Afterward all the Congregation of the children of Israel departed from Elim, and came to the wilderness of Sin (which is betwene Elim and Sinai) the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt.

a This is the eight place when in they had camped: there is another place called Zin, which was the 33. place wherein they camped: and is also called Cadeth, Num. 33. 36.

2 And the whole Congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron in the wilderness.

b So hard a thing it is to the flesh not to murmur against God, when the belly is pinched.

3 For the children of Israel said to them, Oh that wee had died by the hande of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when wee sate by the fishy poyes, when wee had bread our bellies full: for ye have brought vs out into the wilderness, to kill this whole company with famine.

he hath bread your murmuring.

10. How as Aaron spake unto the whole congregation of the children of Israel, they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of the Lord appeared in a cloud.

11. (For the Lord had spoken unto Moses, saying,

12. I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel; tell them, therefore, and say, I At even ye shall eat flesh, and in the morning ye shall be filled with bread, and ye shall know that I am the Lord your God.)

13. And it at even the Quails came and covered the camps; and in the morning the dew lay round about the host.

14. And when the dew that was fallen, was strewed, behold, a small round thing was upon the face of the wilderness, small as the hoar frost on the earth.

15. And when the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, It is Manna; for they wist not what it was. And Moses said unto them, This is the bread which the Lord hath given you to eat.

16. This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded: gather of it every man according to his eating, an Omer for a man according to the number of your persons: every man shall take for them which are in his tent.

17. And the children of Israel did so, and gathered some more, some less.

18. And when they did measure it with an Omer, he that had gathered much, had nothing over, & he that had gathered little, had no lack: so every man gathered according to his eating.

19. Moses then said unto them, Let no man reserve thereof till morning.

20. Notwithstanding, they obeyed not Moses: but some of them reserved of it till morning, and it was full of worms, and stank: therefore Moses was angry with them.

21. And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating: for when the heat of the Sunme came, it was melted.

22. And the sixth day they gathered twice so much bread, two Omers for one man: then all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.

23. And he answered them, This is that which the Lord hath said, Tomorrow is the rest of the holy Sabbath unto the Lord: bake that to day which ye will bake, and seethe that which ye will seethe, and all that remaineth, lay it up to be kept till the morning for you.

24. And they layd it up till the morning, as Moses bade, and it stank not, neither was there any worm therein.

25. Then Moses said, Eat that to day: for to day is the Sabbath unto the Lord: to day ye shall not find it in the field.

26. Seven days shall ye gather it, but in the seventh day is the Sabbath: in it there shall be none.

27. Notwithstanding, there went out some of the people in the seventh day to gather, and they found none.

28. And the Lord said unto Moses, How long shall ye keep my commandments and my statutes?

29. Behold, now the Lord hath given you the Sabbath: therefore he giveth you the day dead for two days, that ye may come out in your place: let no man go out of his place the seventh day.

30. So the people rested the seventh day.

31. And the house of Israel called a name of it Manna, and it was like to Coriander seed, but white: and the taste of it was like unto wafers made with honey.

32. And Moses said, This is that which the Lord hath commanded, Full an Omer of it, to keep it for your posterity: that they may see the bread wherewith I have fed you in wilderness, when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.

33. Moses also said to Aaron, Take a pot, and put an Omer full of Manna therein, & let it be before the Lord to be kept for your posterity.

34. As the Lord commanded Moses, so Aaron layd it by before the Testimonie to be kept.

35. And the children of Israel did eat Manna fourty yeeres, untill they came into a land inhabited: they did eat Manna untill they came to the borders of the land of Canaan.

36. The Omer is the tenth part of the Ephah.

CHAP. XVII.

4. And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the wilderness of Sin, by their journeyes, at the commandment of the Lord, and camped in Rephidim, where was no water for the people to drinke.

5. Wherefore the people contended with Moses, and said, Give us water, that we may drinke. And Moses said unto them, Why contend ye with me? Wherefore do ye tempt the Lord?

6. So the people thirsted there for water, and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore hast thou thus brought us out of Egypt to kill us and our children and our cattell with thirst?

7. And Moses cried to the Lord, saying, What shall I doe to this people? for they be almost ready to stone me.

8. And the Lord answered to Moses, Go before the people, and take with thee of the Elders of Israel: and thy rod, wherewith thou smotest the river, take in thine hand, and go.

9. Beholde, I will stand there before thee, upon the rock in Horeb, and thou shalt smite the rock, and water shall come out of it, that the people may drinke. And Moses did so in the sight of the Elders of Israel.

8 And her two daughters, (whereof the one was called Gershom: for hee sayd, I have bene an affaunt in a strange land)

9 And the name of the other was Eliezer: for the God of my father, sayd he, was mine helpe, and delivered mee from the sword of Pharaoh)

10 And Jethro Moses father in lawe came with his two daughters and his wife vnto Moses into the wilderness, where he campt by the mount of God.

11 And he sayd to Moses, Thy father in lawe Jethro am come to thee, and thy wife and her two daughters with her.

12 And Moses went out to meete his father in lawe, and did obeysance, and kissed him, and each asked order of his welfare, and they came into the tent.

13 Then Moses tolde his father in lawe all that the Lord had done vnto Pharaoh, and to the Egyptians for Israels sake, and all the trouble that had come vnto them by the way, and how the Lord delivered them.

14 And Jethro rejoyced at all the goodnes which the Lord had shewed to Israel, and because he had delivered them out of the hand of the Egyptians.

15 Therefore Jethro sayd, Blessed bee the Lord, who hath delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh: who hath also delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.

16 Now I know that the Lord is greater then all the gods: for as they have dealt proudly with them, so are they recompensed.

17 Then Jethro Moses father in lawe took burnt offerings and sacrifices, and offered vnto God, And Aaron and all the Elders of Israel came to eat bread with Moses father in lawe.

18 And on the morrow, when Moses sat to iudge the people, the people stood about Moses from morning vnto euen.

19 And when Moses father in lawe sawe all that he did to the people, hee said, What is this that thou doest to the people? why sittest thou thy self alone, and all the people stand about thee from morning vnto euen?

20 And Moses sayd vnto his father in lawe, Because the people come vnto mee to seeke a God.

21 When they have a matter, they come vnto me, and I iudge betweene one and another, and declare the ordinances of God, and his lawes.

22 And Moses father in lawe sayde vnto him, The thing which thou doest, is not well.

23 Thou both wearyest thy self greatly, and the people that is with thee: for the thing is too heauie for thee: thou art not able to doe it thy self alone.

24 Heare now my voice, I will giue thee counsell, and God shall be with thee: Be thou for the people to Godward, and report thou the causes vnto God.

25 And admonish them of the ordinances, and of the lawes, and shew them the way wherein they must walke, and the worke that they must doe.

26 And let them iudge the people at all seasons: but every great matter let them bring vnto thee, and let them iudge all small causes: so shal it be easier for thee, when they shall beare the burden with thee.

27 If thou doe this thing, (and God so command thee) both thou shalt be able to endure, and all this people shall also goe quietly to their places.

28 So Moses obeyed the voyce of his father in lawe, and did all that hee had sayd.

29 And Moses chose men of courage out

1 The Israelites come to Sinai. 2 Israel chosen from among all other nations. 3 The people promise to obey God. 4 The tabernacle built. 5 The cloud appears. 6 Moses upon the mount in thunder and lightning.

7 The third morning, after the children of Israel were gone out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they into the wilderness of Sinai.

2 For they departed from Rephidim, and came to the desert of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness: when there Israel camped before the mount.

3 And Moses went up unto God; for the Lord had called out of the mount unto him, saying, Thus saith thou thy father of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel,

4 I have seen thee what I did to the Egyptians, how I carried you out as eagles wings, and have brought you unto me.

5 How therefore? if ye will heare my voice in deed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be my choice treasure above all people, though all the earth be mine.

6 I will be unto me also a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

7 And Moses then came and called for the elders of the people, and proposed unto them all these things, which the Lord commanded him.

8 And the people answered all together, and said, All that the Lord hath commanded we will doe. And Moses reported the words of the people unto the Lord.

9 And the Lord said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto thee in a thick cloud, that the people may heare, whilst I talke with thee, and that they may also beleue thee for ever, (for Moses had tolde the wordes of the people unto the Lord)

10 Moreover the Lord said unto Moses, See to the people, and sanctifie them to day and to morrow, and let them wash their clothes.

11 And let them be ready on the thirde day: for the thirde day the Lord will come downe in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai.

12 And thou shalt set marks vnto the people round about, saying, Take heede to your selves that ye goe not vp to the mount, nor touch the border of it: whosoever toucheth the mount, shall surely die.

13 And hand shall touch it, but he shall be hanged to death, or stricken through with darts: whether it be beast or man, hee shall not liue: when the thorne bloweth long, they shall come by this the mountaine.

14 And Moses went downe from the mount unto the people, and sanctified the people, and they washed their clothes.

15 And he said unto the people, Be ready on the thirde day, & come and at your times.

16 And the third day, when it was morning, there was thunder and lightning, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the sound of the trumpet exceeding loud, so that all the people that was in the campe, was affraid.

17 Then Moses brought the people out of the tents to meet with God, and they stood in the nether part of the mount.

18 And mount Sinai was all on fire, because the Lord came downe upon it in fire, and the smoke thereof ascended, as the smoke of a furnace, and all the mount trembled exceedingly.

19 And when the sound of the trumpet blew long, Moses bowed & louder, Moses spake, and God answered him by voice.

20 For the Lord came downe upon mount Sinai on the top of the mount, and when the Lord called Moses up into the top of the mount, Moses went up.

21 Then the Lord said unto Moses, Goe downe, charge the people, that they breake not their bounds, to goe vp to the Lord to gaze, lest many of them perish.

22 And let the priests also wholy come to the Lord, be sanctified, lest the Lord destroy them.

23 And Moses said unto the Lord, The people cannot come up into the mount Sinai: for thou hast charged vs, saying, Set marks on the mountaine, and sanctifie it.

24 And the Lord said unto him, Goe, get thee downe, and come up, thou, and Aaron with thee: but let not the priests and the people breake their bounds to come up unto the Lord, lest he destroy them.

25 So Moses went downe unto the people, and told them.

21 So the people stood a farre off, but Moyses drew neere vnto the darkenes where God was.

4 If his master hath giuen him a wife, the wife and her children shall bee her: matters but he shall goe out himselfe alone.

5 But if the seruant say thus, I loue my master, my wife and my children, I will not goe out free.

6 Then his master shall bring him vnto the Iudges, and set him to the doore, or to the post, and his master shall haue his eare throught with an ayre, and he shall serue him to the end.

7 Likewise if a man sell his daughter to be a seruant, she shall not goe out as the men seruants do.

8 If she please not her master, who hath betrothed her to himselfe, then shall hee cause to buy her: her shall haue no power to sell her to a strange people, seeing hee is despised.

9 But if he hath betrothed her vnto his sonne, he shall deale with her according to the custome of the daughters.

10 If hee take him another wife, her shall not diminish her food, her raiment, and recompence of her virginity.

11 And if he do not these three vnto her, then shall she goe out free, paying no money.

12 If he that smiteth a man, and he die, shall die the death.

13 And if a man hath not layed waite, but God hath offered him into his hand, then I will appoint thee a place whither he shall flee.

14 But if a man come presumptuously vpon his neighbour to lay him with guile, thou shalt take him from mine altar, that he may die.

15 If also he that smiteth his father or his mother, shall die the death.

16 And hee that sleeth a man, or killeth him, if it be found with him, shall die the death.

1 If a man steale an ore in a sheep, and kill it or sell it, hee shall restore five neen for the ore, and fourne sheepe for the sheepe.

2 If a theefe be found breaking up, and he be smitten that he die, no blood shall be shed for him.

3 But if he die in the day night, blood shall be shed for him: yet he ought make full restitution: if he had not, then hee should be sold for his theft.

4 If the theft be found with him alive, whether it be ore, ass, or sheepe, he shall restore the double.

5 If a man do hurt fields, or vineyards, and put in his beast to feed in another mans field, he shall recompense of best of his own field, and of the best of his owne vineyard.

6 If the borrower, and the lender be in the shew, and the borrower be come in the morning time, he shall be condemned, he that borrowed the best, shall make full restitution.

7 If a man deliver his neighbour money, or things to keep, and it be stolen out of his house, if the theefe be found: he shall pay the double.

8 If the theefe be not found, then the master of the house shall be brought unto the Judges, and he shall be bound by his hand unto his neighbours good, or no.

9 And if the theefe be found, whether it be ore, ass, or sheepe, for payment of any manner of best thing, which another challengeth to be his, the cause of both parties shall come before the Judges, and whome the Judges condemn, hee shall pay the double unto the owner.

10 If a man deliver unto his neighbour to keep, or to use, or to wepe, or any beast, and it die, or be hurt, or taken away by enemies, and no man see it.

11 An othe of the Lord shall be betweene them, that the borrower put his hand unto his neighbours good, and the owner of it shall take the othe, and hee shall not make it good.

29 And thou shalt cover the boards with gold, and make their rings of golde, for places for the barres, and thou shalt cover the barres with gold.

30 So thou shalt make up the Tabernacle according to the fashion thereof, which was shewed thee in the mount.

31 Moreover, thou shalt make a vail of blue linn, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linnen: thou shalt make it of double red woyle with Cherubims.

32 And thou shalt hang it upon foure pillars of shittim wood covered with golde, (whereof the hooke shall be of gold) standing upon foure sockets of silver.

33 Afterward thou shalt hang the vaile in the booke, that thou makest hanging in together, that is, (within the vaile) the Arke of the Testimonie: and the vaile that make you a separation betweene the holy place and the most holy place.

34 Also thou shalt put the golden table upon the Arke of the Testimonie in the most holy place.

35 And thou shalt set the table without the vail, and the golden table set against the Table on the Southside of the Tabernacle, and thou shalt set the Table on the Southside.

36 Also thou shalt make an hanging for the doore of the Tabernacle of blue linn, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linnen, wrought with needle.

37 And thou shalt make for the hanging five pillars of shittim, and cover them with gold: their heads shall be of gold, and thou shalt cast five sockets of brasse for them.

M D Moreover thou shalt make the altar of shittim wood, five cubits long and five cubites broad (the altar shall be square) and the height thereof three cubites.

2 And thou shalt make it houses in the four corners thereof: the houses shall be of it: setler and thou shalt cover it with brasse.

3 Also thou shalt make his steps for his altar, and his beams, and his palms, and his fleshhooks, and his centers: thou shalt make all the instruments thereof of brasse.

4 And thou shalt make unto it a grate like net woike of brasse also upon which thou shalt make four brassen rings upon the four corners thereof.

5 And thou shalt put it under the compass of the altar beneath, that the grate may be in the mids of the altar.

6 Also thou shalt make barres for the altar, barres of shittim wood, and shalt cover them with brasse.

7 And the barres thereof shall be put in the rings, the which barres shall be upon the shoulders of the altar to beare it.

8 Thou shalt make the shew hollovs betweene the boards as God shewed thee in the mount: so they shall make it.

9 Also thou shalt make the court of the Tabernacle in the Southside, even full South: the court shall have curtains of fine twined linnen, of an hundred cubits long for one side,

10 And it shall have twentie pillars, with their twentie sockets of brasse: the heads of the pillars, and their fillets shall be silver.

11 Likewise on the Northside in length there shall be hangings of an hundred cubits long, and the twentie pillars thereof with their twentie sockets of brasse: the heads of the pillars, and the fillets shall be silver.

12 And the breadth of the court on the Westside shall be curtains of fine cubites, with their ten pillars, and their ten sockets.

13 And the breadth of the court, Eastward full East shall have: five cubites.

14 Also hangings of silver cubits shall be on the one side, with their three pillars and their three sockets.

15 Likewise on the other side shall be hangings of silver cubits, with their three pillars

CHAP. XXVIII.

The Lord calleth Aaron and his sonnes to the Priesthood, & their garments. 12, 29. Aaron entreth into the Sanctuary in the name of the chilron beareth the iniquities of the Israelites offerings.

And canst thou thy brother Aaron to come vnto thee, and his sonnes with him from among the children of Israel, that hee may serue mee in the Priestis office: I meane Aaron, Phadai, and Abih, Eleazar, and Ithamar Aarons sonnes.

2 Also thou shalt make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, glorious and becutfull.

3 Therefore thou shalt speake vnto al the cunning men, whom I haue filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they make Aarons garments to consecrate him, that hee may serue mee in the Priestis office.

4 Now these shall be the garments, which they shall make, a brest plate, and an Ephod, and a robe, and a breasted coat, a mitre, and a girdle: so these holy garments shall they make for Aaron thy brother, for his sonnes, that hee may serue mee in the Priestis office.

5 Therefore they shall take gold, and blew silke, and purple, and chariet, and fine linen.

6 And they shall make the Ephod of gold, blew silke, and purple, chariet and fine twined linen of breasted worke.

7 The two shoulders thereof shall they bound together by their two ringes: so shall it be closed.

8 And the breasted gird of the same Ephod, which shall be vpon him, shall bee of the leste same worke and stuffe, eue of gold, blew silke, and purple, and chariet, and fine twined linen.

9 And thou shalt take two onie stones, and graue vpon them the names of the chilopen of Israel:

10 And thou shalt graue the names of the one stone, and the like names that remaine, vpon the second stone, according to their generations.

11 Thou shalt cause to graue the two stones according to the names of the children of Israel by a grauer of signers, that worketh and grauieth in stone, and shall make them to be set and embosled in gold.

12 And thou shalt put the two stones vpon the shoulders of the Ephod, as stones of remembrance of the children of Israel: for Aaron shall beare their names before the Lord vpon his two shoulders for a remembrance.

13 And thou shalt make bosses of golde, at the ends of twined worke shall thou make them: and shall fasten the twined chaines vpon the bosses.

14 Also thou shalt make the brest plate of engraving with breasted worke: like the worke of the Ephod shall thou make it: of gold, blew silke, and purple, and chariet, and fine twined linen shall thou make it.

15 Four square it shall bee and double, an hand breadth long, and an hand breadth broad.

16 Then thou shalt set it full of places for stones, euen foure rowes of stones: the upper shalbe this, a rubie, a topaze, and a carbuncle in the first rowe.

17 And in the second rowe thou shalt set an emerald, a saphire, and a diamond.

18 And in the third rowe a turkeie, an achate, and an hematite.

19 And in the fourth rowe a chrysolite, an onix, and a saphire: and they shall be set in gold in their emboslements.

20 And the stones shall be according to the names of the children of Israel, twine, according to their names, grauen as signers, euey one after his name, and they shall bee for the turkeie tribes.

21 And thou shalt make vpon the brest plate two chaines at the ends of twined worke of pure gold.

22 Thou shalt make also vpon the brest plate two ringes of golde, and put the two ringes on the two ends of the brest plate.

23 And thou shalt put the two breasted chaines of gold in the two ringes in the ends of the brest plate.

24 And the other two ends of the two breasted chaines, thou shalt fasten in the two emboslements, and shall put them vpon the shoulders of the Ephod on the outside of it.

25 Also thou shalt make two ringes of golde, which thou shalt put in the two other ends of the brest plate, vpon the border thereof, toward the inside of the Ephod.

26 And two other ringes of golde thou shalt make, and put them on the two sides of the Ephod, beneath in the forefront of our against the coupling of it vpon the breasted Eccl. 45. 9.

29 ¶ And Aaron shall = beare the names of the children of Israel in the breast plate of iudgement upon his heart, when hee goeth into the holy place, for a remembrance continually before the Lord.

30 ¶ Also thou shalt put in the breast plate of iudgement the = Urim and the Thummin, which shall bee upon Aarons heart, when hee goeth in before the Lord: and Aaron shall beare the iudgement of the children of Israel upon his heart before the Lord continually.

31 ¶ And thou shalt make the robe of the Ephod altogether of blue silke.

32 And the hole for his head shall bee in the midst of it, having an edge of wouen worke round about the collar of it: so it shall be as the collar of an habergeon that it rent not.

33 ¶ And beneath upon the skirts thereof thou shalt make pomegranates of blue silke, and purple, and scarlet, round about the skirts thereof, and bells of gold betweene them round about:

34 That is, a golden bell, and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate round about upon the skirts of the robe.

35 So it shall be upon Aaron, when hee ministereth, and his sounde shall be heard, when hee goeth into the holy place before the Lord, and when hee cometh out, and hee shall not die.

36 ¶ Also thou shalt make a plate of pure golde, and graue thereon, as signets are grauen, = HOLINESSE TO THE LORD.

37 And thou shalt put it on a blue silke lace, and it shall be upon the miter: even upon the forefront of the miter shall it be.

38 So it shall be upon Aarons forehead, that Aaron may = beare the iniquities of the offerings, which the children of Israel shall offer in all their holy offerings: and it shall be alwayes upon his forehead, to make them acceptable before the Lord.

39 Likewise thou shalt imbroder the fine linen coats, and thou shalt make a miter of fine linen, but thou shalt make a girdle of needle worke.

40 Also thou shalt make for Aarons sonnes coats, and thou shalt make them girdles, and bonnets shalt thou make them for glory and comeliness.

41 And thou shalt put them upon Aaron thy brother, and on his sonnes with him, and shalt anoint them, and fill their hands, and sanctifie them, that they may minister unto me in the Priests office.

42 Thou shalt also make them linen breeches to cover their privities: from the loines unto the thighs shall they reach.

43 And they shall bee for Aaron and his sonnes when they come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, or when they come unto the altar to minister in the holy place, that they = commit no iniquities, and so die. This shall be a signe for me, unto you and to their nakedness his name after him.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 The manner of consecrating the Priests. 38 The continual sacrifice. 45 The Lord promise to dwell among the children of Israel.

¶ This thing also shall thou doe unto them when thou consecratest them to bee my Priests. Take a young bullock, and two rammes without blemish,

2 And unleavened bread, and cakes unleavened tempered with oyle, and wafers unleavened anointed with oyle: (of fine wheate flour shalt thou make them)

3 Then thou shalt put them in one basket, and present them in the basket with the calves and the two rammes,

4 And shalt bring Aaron and his sonnes unto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and wash them with water.

5 Also thou shalt take the garments, and put upon Aaron the tunicle, and the robe of the Ephod, and the Ephod, and the breast plate, and shalt close them in him with the girdle of the Ephod.

6 Then thou shalt put the miter upon his head, and shalt put the holy = crowne upon the miter.

7 And thou shalt take the anointing oyle, and shalt poure upon his head, and anoint him.

8 And thou shalt bring his sonnes, and put coats upon them.

9 And thou shalt gird them with girdles, both Aaron and his sonnes: and shalt put the bonnets on them, and the Priests office shall be theirs for a perpetual = state: thou shalt also fill the hands of Aaron, and the hands of his sonnes.

10 After, thou shalt present the calves before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and Aaron and his sonnes shall = put their hands upon the head of the calves.

11 So thou shalt kill the calves before the Lord, at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

12 Then thou shalt take of the blood of the calves, and put it upon the hoines of the altar with thy finger, and shalt poure all the rest of the blood at the foot of the altar.

13 ¶ Also thou shalt take all the fatte that covereth the inward, and the kail that is on the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fatte that is upon them, and shalt burne them by on the altar.

14 But the flesh of the calves, & his kinne, and his dung shalt thou burne with fire without the holle: it is a = sinne offering.

15 ¶ Thou shalt also take one ramme, and Aaron and his sonnes shall put their hands upon the head of the ramme.

16 Then thou shalt kill the ramme, and take his blood, and sprinkle it round about upon the altar.

17 And thou shalt cut the ramme in pieces, and wash the inward of him and his legges, and shalt put them upon the pieces thereof, and upon his head.

18 So thou shalt burne the whole ramme

22 Also thou shalt take of the Rammes the fat, and the rumpe, each the fat that couereth the inward, and the kalle of the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder, (for it is the ramme of consecration.)

23 And one loafe of bread, and one cake of bread tempered with oyle, and one wafer, out of the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the Lord.

24 And thou shalt put all this in the handes of Aaron, and in the hands of his sonnes, and shalt shake them to and fro before the Lord.

25 Again, thou shalt receive them of their hands, and burne them upon the altar besides the burnt offering for a sweete savour before the Lord: for this is an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

26 Likewise thou shalt take the breast of the ramme of the consecration, which is for Aaron, and shalt shake it to and fro before the Lord, and it shall be thy part.

27 And thou shalt sanctifie the breast of the shaven offering, and the shoulder of the beaue offering, which was shaken to and fro, and which was beaue of the ramme of the consecration, which was for Aaron, and which was for his sonnes.

28 And Aaron and his sonnes shall haue it by a statute for ever, of the children of Israel: for it is an beaue offering, and it shall be an beaue offering of the children of Israel, of their peace offerings, even their beaue offering to the Lord.

29 ¶ And the holy garments, which ap-pertaine to Aaron, shall bee his sonnes after him, to be anoynted therein, and to be consecrated therein.

30 That sonne that shall be Priest in his stead, shall put them on seven dayes, when hee commeth into the Tabernacle of the Congregation to minister in the holy place.

31 ¶ So thou shalt take the ramme of the consecration, and lyeke his flesh in the holy place.

32 ¶ And Aaron and his sonnes shall eat the flesh of the Ramme, and the bread that is in the basket, at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

33 ¶ So they that eat these things, whereby their atonement was made, to consecrate them, and to sanctifie them: but a stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy things.

34 ¶ Now it ought of the flesh of the consecration, as of the bread remaine unto the morning, then thou shalt burne the rest with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is an holy thing.

35 ¶ Therefore shalt thou doe thus unto Aaron and unto his sonnes, according to all things, which I haue commanded thee:
seven dayes shalt thou consecrate them,

36 And shalt offer every day a calfe for a sinne offering, for reconciliation: and thou shalt cleanse the altar, when thou shalt offered upon it for reconciliation, and shalt anoynt it to sanctifie it.

37 Seven dayes shalt thou cleanse the altar, and sanctifie it, so the altar shall be most holy: and whatsoever toucheth the altar, shall be holy.

38 ¶ Now this is that which thou shalt present upon the altar: even two lambs of one yeere olde, day by day continually.

39 The one lambe thou shalt present in the morning, and the other lambe thou shalt present at euen.

40 And with the one lambe, a tenth part of fine flour mingled with the fourth part of an eph of beaten oyle, and the fourth part of an Eph of wine, for a drinke offering.

41 And the other lambe thou shalt present at euen: thou shalt doe thereto according to the offering of the morning, according to the drinke offering thereof, to be a burnt offering for a sweete savour unto the Lord.

42 This shall be a continuall burnt offering in your generations at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the Lorde, where I will make appointment with you, to speake there unto thee.

43 ¶ There I will appoint with the children of Israel, and the place shall be sanctified by my glory.

44 And I will sanctifie the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the altar: I will sanctifie also Aaron and his sonnes to be my Priests.

45 And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God.

46 ¶ Then shall they know that I am the Lorde their God, that brought them out of the land of Egypt, that I might dwell among them: I am the Lorde their God.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Behold, I have called by name Bezaleel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, whom I have filled with the spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, in all manner of workmanship:

to find out curious works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, also in the art to set stones, to carve in timber, & to work in all manner of workmanship.

And behold, I have spoken with him: Aholiab the son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan, & in the hearts of all that are well hearted, have I put wisdom, to make all that I have commanded thee:

That is the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the Ark of the Testimony, and the Mercy seat that shall be thereupon, with all instruments of the Tabernacle:

Also the Table, and the Instruments thereof, and the pure Candlestick, with all his Instruments, and the altar of perfume:

Like also the Altar of burnt offering, with all his Instruments, & the Laver with his foot:

Also the garments of the ministraton, and the holy garments for Aaron the Priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the Priests office:

And the anointing oyle, and sweet perfume for the Sanctuary, according to all that I have commanded thee, shall they do.

Afterward the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, and say, Standfastly keep ye my Sabbaths: for it is a sign between me and you in your generations, that ye may know that I the Lord do sanctify you.

Ye shall therefore keep the Sabbath: for it is holy unto you: he that defileth it, shall die the death: therefore whosoever worketh therein, the same person shall be cut off from among his people.

Six days shall men work, but in the seventh day is the Sabbath of the help rest to the Lord: whosoever doeth any work in the Sabbath day, shall die the death.

Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, that they may observe the rest throughout their generations for an everlasting Covenant.

It is a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever: for in six days the Lord made the heaven and the earth, and in the seventh day he ceased and rested.

Thus the Lord had made an end of commanding unto Moses upon mount Sinai, he gave him two Tables of the Testimony, even tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 The Israelites impute their delivrance unto calf. 2 God is appeased by Moses prayer. 3 Moses breaketh the Tables, as he thought the idolaters. 4 Moses asks for the people.

When the people saw, that Moses tarried long ere he came down from the mountaine, the people gathered themselves together against Aaron, and said unto him, Up, make us gods to goe before us: for of this Moses (the man that brought us out of the land of Egypt) we know not what is become of him.

And Aaron said unto them, Blot out the golden earrings, which are in the eares of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me.

Then all the people plucked from them their golden earrings, which were in their eares, and they brought them unto Aaron.

Also received them at their hands, and fashioned it with the graving tool, and made of it a molten calf: then they sayd,

These bee thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt.

When Aaron saw that, he made an altar before it: and Aaron proclaimed, saying, Tomorrow shall be the day of the Lord.

So they rose up by the next day in the morning, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings: also the people late them down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

Then the Lord sayd unto Moses, Get thee down: for the people which thou hast brought out of the land of Egypt, hath corrupted their wayes.

They are frowne turned out of the way, which I commanded them: for they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have offered thereon, saying, These bee thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt.

Against the Lord sayd unto Moses, I have seene this people, and behold, it is a stiff necked people.

Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may waxe hot against them, for I will consume them: but I will make of thee a mighty people.

But Moses prayed unto the Lord his God, and sayd, O Lord, why doth thy wrath waxe hot against thy people, which thou hast brought out of the land of Egypt, with great power, and with a mighty hand?

Wherefore shall the Egyptians say, and the heathen, because thou hast brought them out of the land of Egypt, and to consume them from the earth: turne from thy fierce wrath, and change thy minde from this evil toward thy people.

Remember, O Abraham, Isaac, and Israel thy servants, to whom thou sweardest by thine owne selfe, and saydest unto them, I will multiply your seed as the stars.

a The root of idolatry is, when men thinke that God is not a hand, except they see him: carnall b Thinking they would be their forgoers, lary, then to signify their mol precious worth.

c Such is the rage of idolatry, that they have no cost to satisfy their wicked desires.

d They smelt of their leaves of Egypt, where they law calves, oxen, & serpents worshipped.

14. When the Lord changed his mind from the evil, which he threatened to do unto his people.

15. So Moses returned and came down from the mountain with the two Tables of the Testament in his hand. The Tables were written on both sides, even on the one side and on the other were they written.

16. And these Tables were the works of God, and this writing was the writing of God written in the Tables.

17. And when Aaron heard the noise of the people, as they shouted, he said unto Moses, There is a noise of war in the hole.

18. And he answered, It is not the noise of them that have the victory, nor the noise of them that are overcome; but it doth heare the noise of singing.

19. Now, as soon as he came neerer unto the hole, he saw the calf, and the dancing: so Moses wrath was kindled, and he cast the Tables out of his hands, and brake them in pieces beneath the mountain.

20. And he brake the Calf, and crushed it under his feet, and burnt it with fire, and ground it into powder, and scattered upon the water, and made the children of Israel drink of it.

21. And Moses said unto Aaron, What did this people unto thee, that thou hast brought upon me a great sin upon thee?

22. Then Aaron answered, Let not the wrath of my Lord be kindled against this people, but they are come to me in foolishness.

23. And they said unto me, Give us a God, to go before us: for we have no part in him, because we have not chosen him: neither do we know what he shall do unto us, nor what we shall say: for we are afraid.

24. Then I said unto them, Whosoever hath gold, let him take it out, and let them make it unto a God, and let them wear it.

25. And Moses therefore knew that the people were naked, for Aaron had made them naked unto their shame among their enemies.

26. And Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who is for the Lord? let him come to me. And all the children of Israel came to him.

27. Then he said unto them, The Lord hath said, The Lord is with him that is true, and will give him his share, and will make him a great people: and every man that is false, will he destroy.

28. So the children of Israel came to him, and said, We have sinned against the Lord, and have taken a golden calf, and have made us an idol, and have worshipped it: and we have done as thou hast said.

29. And Moses said unto them, The Lord hath said, I will forgive this sin, and will not destroy you: but ye have made a calf, and have worshipped it: and ye have done as I have said.

30. And Moses said unto them, The Lord hath said, I will forgive this sin, and will not destroy you: but ye have made a calf, and have worshipped it: and ye have done as I have said.

31. And Moses said unto them, The Lord hath said, I will forgive this sin, and will not destroy you: but ye have made a calf, and have worshipped it: and ye have done as I have said.

32. And Moses said unto them, The Lord hath said, I will forgive this sin, and will not destroy you: but ye have made a calf, and have worshipped it: and ye have done as I have said.

33. And Moses said unto them, The Lord hath said, I will forgive this sin, and will not destroy you: but ye have made a calf, and have worshipped it: and ye have done as I have said.

34. And Moses said unto them, The Lord hath said, I will forgive this sin, and will not destroy you: but ye have made a calf, and have worshipped it: and ye have done as I have said.

to the Lord, if I may pacifie him for your sinne.

31. And when they went againe unto the Lord, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sinne, and have made them gods of gold.

32. Therefore now if thou pardon their sinne, thy mercy shall appeare: but if thou wilt not, I pray thee, cut me out of thy booke, which thou hast written.

33. Then the Lord said to Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, I will put him out of my booke.

34. Therefore now, bring the people unto the place which I commanded thee: behold, mine Angel shall go before thee, but yet in the day of my visitation I will visit their sinne upon them.

35. And the Lord plagued the people, because they had sinned against him: and he said, I will visit their sinne upon them.

n So much he esteemed the glory of God, that he preferred it even to his owne salvation. o I will make it known that he was neuer predestinate in mine eternal counsell to life everlasting. p This declareth how rigorous a sinne idolatry is, seeing that at Moses prayer God would not fully remit it.

32. And afterward all the children of Israel came neere, and he charged them with all that the Lord had sayd unto him in mount Sinai.

33. So Moses made an end of communing with them, and had put a covering upon his face.

34. But when Moses came before the Lord to speake with him, he took off the covering, until he came out: then he came out, and sheweth unto the children of Israel that which he was commanded.

35. And the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, when the Lord had said unto him, that which he was commanded: therefore Moses put the covering upon his face, until he went to speake with God.

¶ When Moses assembled all the Congregation of the children of Israel, and sayd unto them, These are the wordes which the Lord hath commanded that ye should doe them:

1. ¶ Sixe dayes thou shalt worke, but the seventh day shalt be unto you the holy Sabbath of rest unto the Lord: whosoever doeth any worke therein, shall die.

2. ¶ Ye shall kindle no fire throughout all your habitations upon the Sabbath day.

3. ¶ Against Moses saide unto all the Congregation of the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded, saying,

4. ¶ Take from among you an offering unto the Lord: whosoever is of a willing heart, let him bring this offering to the Lord, namely, gold, and silver, and brasse:

5. ¶ Also blew like, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linnen, and goats hair,

6. ¶ And rams skines dyed red, and baggers skines with Schittim wood:

7. ¶ Also oyle for light, and spices for the annoying oyle, and for the sweet incense,

8. ¶ And our stones, and stones to be set in the Ephod, and in the breast plate.

9. ¶ And all the wise hearted among you shall come and make all that the Lord hath commanded:

10. ¶ That is, the Tabernacle, the pavilion thereof, and his covering, and his tables, and his boards, his barres, his pillars, and his sockets.

11. ¶ The Ark, and the barres thereof, the Mercie seat, and the vaille that covereth it.

12. ¶ The Table, and the barres of it, and all the instruments thereof, and the shew bread.

13. ¶ Also the candlestick of light, and his instruments, and his lamps with the oyle for the light.

14. ¶ Likewise the Altar of perfume, and his barres, and the annoying oyle, and the sweet incense, and the vaille of the doore at the entering in of the Tabernacle.

15. ¶ The Altar of burnt offering with his brasen grate, his barres, and all his instruments, the Laver, and his foot.

16. ¶ The hangings of the court, his pillars, and his sockets, and the vaille of the gate of the court.

17. ¶ The pins of the Tabernacle, and the pins of the court with their cords.

18. ¶ The ministering garments to minister in the holy place, and the holy garments for Aaron the Priest, and the garments of his sonnes, that they may minister in the Priests office.

19. ¶ Then all the Congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

20. ¶ And every one whose heart was encouraged him, every one, whose spirit made him willing, came and brought an offering to the Lord, for the work of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and for all his use, and for the holy garments.

21. ¶ Both men and women, as many as were free hearted, came and brought, namely, gold, and silver, and brasse, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linnen, and goats hair, and rams skines dyed red, and baggers skines, and Schittim wood, and oyle for light, and spices for the annoying oyle, and for the sweet incense, and stones to be set in the Ephod, and in the breast plate, and stones, and all the wise hearted among you shall come and make all that the Lord hath commanded.

offred an offering of gold unto the Lord :

23 Euery man also, which had blew silke, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linnen, and goates haire, and rammes skins dyed red, and badgers skins, brought of them.

24 All that offered an oblation of siluer and of brass, brought the offering unto the Lord : and euery one that had oblation wood for any manner of worke of the ministration, brought it :

25 And all the women that were wise hearted, did spinne with their handes, and brought of the spun worke, even the blew silke, and the purple, the scarlet, and the fine linnen.

26 Likewise all the women, whose hearts were moued with knowledge, spun goates haire,

27 And the rulers brought onie stones, and stones to be set in the Ephod, and in the breast plate :

28 Also spicer, and oyle for light, and for the anointing oyle, and for the sweet perfume.

29 Euery man and woman of the children of Israel, whose hearts moued them willingly to bring for all the worke which the Lord had commanded them to make : by the hand of Moyses, brought a free offering to the Lord.

30 When Moyses said vnto the children of Israel, Behold, the Lord hath called by name Bezaleel the sonne of Uri, the sonne of Iur, of the tribe of Iudah, 31 And hath filled him with an excellent spirit of wisdom, of understanding, and of knowledge, and in all manner worke.

32 To finde out curious worke, to worke in gold, and in siluer, and in brass, 33 And in graving stones to set them, and in carving of wood, euen to make any manner of fine worke.

34 And hee hath put in his heart that he may teach other : both hee, and Aholiab the sonne of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan :

35 Then hath he filled with wisdom of heart to worke all manner of cunning, and broyered, and nerbleworke : in blew silke, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linnen, and weaving, euen to do all manner of worke, and subtil inuention.

CHAP. XXXV.

5 The great readiness of the people, inasmuch that he commanded them to cast. 6 The curtaine made. 19 The coverings. 23 The board. 13 The barres. 35 And the vails

Then brought Bezaleel, and Aholiab, I and all cunning men to whom the Lord gaue wisdom and understanding to know howe to worke all manner worke for the seruice of the Sanctuary, according to all that the Lord had commanded.

2 For Moyses had called Bezaleel, and Aholiab, and all the wise hearted men, in whose hearts the Lord had giuen wisdom, euen as many as their hearts encouraged to come vnto that worke to worke it.

3 And the rulers of Israel brought for the worke of the seruice of the Sanctuary, to make it : also they brought still vnto him free gifts euery morning.

4 So all the wise men, that brought all the holy worke, came euery man from his worke which they wrought.

5 And Moyses to Moyses, saying, The people bring too much, and more then enough for the use of the worke which the Lord hath commanded to be made.

6 Then Moyses gaue a commandement, and they caused it to be proclaimed thorowout the hoste, saying, Let neither man nor woman prepare any more worke for the oblation of the Sanctuary. So the people were stayed from offering.

7 For the skint they had, was sufficient for all the worke to make it, and too much.

8 All the cunning men therefore among the workemen, made for the Tabernacle reume curtaines of fine twined linnen, and of blew silke, and purple, and scarlet : Cherubims of broyered worke made they vpon them.

9 The length of one curtaine was twenty and eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtaine foure cubites : and the curtaines were all of one cut,

10 And he coupled fine curtaines together, and other fine coupled he together.

11 And he made stringes of blew silke by the edge of one curtaine in the selledge of the coupling : likewise he made on the side of the other curtaine, in the selledge in the second coupling.

12 Little stringes made he in the one curtaine, and little stringes made he in the edge of the other curtaine, which was in the second coupling : the stringes were set one against another.

13 After, he made little raches of gold, and coupled the curtaines one to another with the raches : so was it one Tabernacle.

14 All hee made curtaines of goates haire for the couering vpon the Tabernacle : hee made them to the number of cleven curtaines.

15 The length of one curtaine had thirty cubites, and the breadth of one curtaine foure cubites : the cleven curtaines were of one cut.

16 And he coupled fine curtaines by themselves, and sixe curtaines by themselves :

17 And hee made fifty stringes vpon the edge of one curtaine in the selledge in the coupling, and little stringes made he vpon the edge of the other curtaine in the second coupling.

18 He made also fifty raches of brass to couple the couering that it might be one.

19 And hee made a couering vpon the pavilion of rammes skins dyed red, and a couering of badgers skins above.

20 Likewise he made the board for the Tabernacle of sycamore wood to stand vp.

21 The length of a board was foure cubites, and the breadth of a board was a cubite and an halfe.

22 One board had two ternons, set in order as the feet of a ladder, one against another : thus made he for all the board of the Tabernacle.

23 So he made sixty boards for the south side of the Tabernacle, euen full boards.

24 And two sockets of silver made he under the threety boards, two sockets under one board for his two corners, & two sockets under another board for his two corners.

25 Also for the other side of the Tabernacle toward the North, hee made threety boards.

26 And their sixty sockets of silver, two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

27 Likewise toward the West side of the Tabernacle he made six boards.

28 And two boards made he in the corners of the Tabernacle, for either side.

29 And they were ioynted beneath, and likewise were made flue above with a ring: thus he did to both in both corners.

30 So there were eight boards, and their sixtens sockets of silver, under every board two sockets.

31 Also hee made barres of Shittim wood, one for the boards in the one side of the Tabernacle.

32 And five barres for the boards in the other side of the Tabernacle, and five barres for the boards of the Tabernacle on the side toward the West.

33 And hee made the midstest barre to shoot through the boards, from the one end to the other.

34 Hee overlaid also the boards with golde, and made their rings of golde for places for the bars, and couered the barres with golde.

35 Moreover he made a vaile of blew, lilke, and purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linnen: with Cherubims of wyppered worke made he it.

36 And made thereunto foure pillars of Shittim, and overlaid them with golde, whose footes were also of golde, and he cast for them foure sockets of silver.

37 And he made an hanging for the Tabernacle door of blew lilke, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linnen, and needle worke.

38 And the five pillars of it with their hookes, and overlaid their chapiters & their fillets with golde, but their fute sockets were of brasse.

1 The Arke. 6 The Mercie seat. 10 The Table. 17 The Candlestick. 25 The Altar of incense.

After this Bezalel made the Arke of Shittim wood, two cubits and an halfe long, and a cubit and an halfe broad, and a cubit and an halfe hie:

2 And overlaid it with fine gold within and without, and made a crowne of golde to it round about.

3 And cast for it foure rings of golde for the foure corners of it: that is, two rings for the one side of it, and two rings for the other side thereof.

4 Also hee made bars of Shittim wood, and couered them with gold.

5 And put the barres in the rings, by the sides of the Arke, to beare the Arke.

6 And he made the Mercie seat of pure gold: two cubits and an halfe was the length thereof, and one cubit & an halfe the breadth thereof.

7 And he made two Cherubims of gold, upon the two ends of the Mercie seat: euen of worke beaten with the hammer made hee them.

8 One Cherub on the one end, and another Cherub on the other end: of the Mercie seat made he the Cherubims, at the two ends thereof.

9 And the Cherubims spread out their wings on high, and covered the Mercie seat with their wings, and their faces were one toward another: toward the Mercie seat were the faces of the Cherubims.

10 Also he made the Table of Shittim wood: two cubits was the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and an halfe the height of it.

11 And hee overlaid it with fine golde, and made thereto a crowne of golde round about.

12 Also hee made thereto a border of an hand breadth round about, and made upon the border a crowne of gold round about.

13 And hee cast for it foure rings of golde, and put the rings in the foure corners that were in the foure feet thereof.

14 Against the border were the rings, as places for the barres to beare the Table.

15 And hee made the barres of Shittim wood, and couered them with gold to beare the Table.

16 Also hee made the instruments for the Table of pure golde: dishes for it, and spoone cups for it, and goblets for it, and coverings for it, whereunto it should bee couered.

17 Likewise he made the Candlestick of pure golde: of worke beaten out with the hammer made he the Candlestick: and his shaft, and his branch, his bowles, his knops, and his flowers were of one piece.

18 And sixe branches came out of the sides thereof: three branches of the Candlestick out of the one side of it, and three branches of the Candlestick out of the other side of it.

19 In one branch three bowles made like almonds: a knop and a flower: and in another branch three bowles made like almonds, a knop and a flower: and so throughout the sixe branches that proceeded out of the Candlestick.

20 And upon the Candlestick were foure bowles after the fashion of Almonds, the knops thereof, and the flowers thereof.

21 That is, under euery two branches a knop made thereof, and a knop under the second branch thereof, and a knop under the thirde branch thereof, according to the sixe branches coming out of it.

22 These knops and their branches were of the same: it was all one beaten worke of pure gold.

23 And he made for it seven lampes with the limiters, and furnished them thereof of pure gold.

24 Of a talent of pure golde made he it with all the instruments thereof.

25 Furthermore he made the perfuming altar

26 And he covered it with pure gold, both the top & the sides thereof round about, and the horns also, and made unto it a crown of gold round about.

27 And he made two rings of gold for it, under the crown thereof, in the two corners of the two sides thereof, to put bars in it for to beare it therewith.

28 Also hee made the bars of Shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold.

29 And he made the holy anoynting oile, and the sweet pure incense after the Apocaries art.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 The altar of burnt offerings. 2 The brazen Laver. 3 The Court. 24 The summe of what the people offered.

Also he made the Altar of the burnt offering of Shittim wood: five cubits was the length thereof, & five cubits the breadth thereof: it was square, and three cubits high.

2 And hee made unto it horns in the four corners thereof: the horns thereof were of the same, and he overlaid it with brasse.

3 And he made of the instruments of the altar, the altarpans, and the basins, and the basins, the fleshhooks, and the censers: all the instruments thereof made he of brasse.

4 Whereover hee made a brazen grate wrought like a net to the Altar, under the compass of it beneath in the midst of it.

5 And cast four rings of brasse for the four ends of the grate to put bars in.

6 And he made the bars of Shittim wood, and covered them with brasse.

7 The which bars he put into shearings on the sides of the altar to beare it withall, and made it hollow within the boards.

8 Also he made the Laver of brasse, and the footstool of brasse of the glasses of the women that did assemble and came together at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

9 Finally hee made the court on the Southside full South: the hangings of the court were of fine twisted linnen, hanging an hundred cubits.

10 Their pillars were twenty, and their brazen sockets twenty: the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets were of silver.

11 And on the Southside the hangings were an hundred cubits: their pillars twenty, and their sockets of brasse twenty, the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.

12 On the Northside also were hangings of fifty cubits, their ten pillars with their ten sockets: the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.

13 And toward the East side, full East, were hangings of fifty cubits.

14 The hangings of the one side were fifteen cubits, their five pillars, & their five sockets.

15 And of the other side of the court gate on both sides were hangings of fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three sockets.

16 All the hangings of the court round about were of fine twisted linnen.

17 But the sockets of the pillar were of brasse: the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver, and the covering of their chapters of silver: and all the pillars of the court hooded about with silver.

18 Hee made also the hanging of the gate of the court of needle woole, blew silk and purple, and tharles, and fine twisted linnen, even twenty cubits long, and five cubits in height and breadth, & like the hangings of the court.

19 And their pillars were four with their four sockets of brasse: their hooks of silver, and the covering of their chapters, & their fillets of silver.

20 But all the pillars of the Tabernacle and of the court round about were of brasse.

21 These are the parts of the Tabernacle, I mean, of the Tabernacle of the Testimony, which was appointed by the commandment of Moses for the office of the Levites by the hand of Ithamar sonne to Aaron the Priest.

22 So Bezalel the son of Uri the sonne of Hur of the tribe of Judah, made all that the Lord commanded Moses.

23 And with him Aholiab sonne of Ahimach of the tribe of Dan, a cunning workman and an embroiderer, and a worker of needle-woole in blew silk, and in purple, and in scarlet, and in fine linnen.

24 All the gold that was occupied in all the worke wrought for the holy place (which was the gold of the offering) was nine and twenty talents, and seven hundred and thirty shekels, according to the shekel of the Sanctuary.

25 But the silver of them that were numbered in the Congregation, was an hundred talents, & a thousand seven hundred seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary.

26 A portion for a man, that is halfe a shekel after the shekel of the Sanctuary, for all them that were numbered from twenty yeere old and above, among six hundred thousand, and three thousand, and five hundred and fifty men.

27 Whereover, there were an hundred talents of silver, to cast the sockets of the Sanctuary, and the sockets of the vail, an hundred sockets of an hundred talents, a talent for a socket.

28 But he made the hooks for the pillars of a thousand seven hundred & twenty and five shekels, and overlaid their chapters, and made fillets about them.

29 Also the brasse of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand, and four hundred shekels.

30 Whereof he made the sockets to the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the brazen altar, and the brazen grate which was for it, with all the instruments of the altar.

31 And the sockets of the court round about, and the sockets of the court gate, and all the pins of the Tabernacle, and all the pins of the court round about.

CHAP. XXXIX.

The apparel of Aaron and his sons. 32. All that the Lord commanded was made and finished. 41. Moses built the people.

1. And they made garments of ministration to minister in the Sanctuary, of blue silk, and purple, and scarlet: they made also the holy garments for Aaron, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

2. So he made the Ephod of gold, blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

3. And they did beat the golde into thin plates, and cut it into wires, to worke it in the blue silk and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, with broyered worke.

4. Of the which they made shoulders to couple together: for it was closed by the two edges thereof.

5. And the broyered gird of his Ephod that was upon him, was of the same stuffe, and of like worke: even of golde, of blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

6. And they brought two Onix stones closed in ouches of golde, and graven as signets are graven, with the names of the children of Israel.

7. And put them on the shoulders of the Ephod, as stones for a remembrance of the children of Israel, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

8. Also he made the brestplate of broyered worke like the worke of the Ephod: to wit, of golde, blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9. They made the brestplate double, and it was square, an hand breadth long, and an hand breadth broad: it was also double.

10. And they filled it with foure rowes of stones. The order was thus, a Rubie, a Topaze, and a Carbuncle in the first row:

11. And in the second row, an Emeraude, a Saphire, and a Diamond:

12. Also in the third row, a Turkeis, and Achate, and an Hyematite:

13. Likewise in the fourth row, a Chrysolite, an Onix, and a Jasper: closed and set in ouches of golde.

14. So the stones were according to the names of the children of Israel, even twelue: after their names, graven like signets, every one after his name according to the twelue tribes.

15. After, they made upon the brestplate chains at the ends, of weathen worke and pure golde.

16. They made also two bosses of golde, and two gold rings, and put the two rings in the two corners of the brestplate.

17. And they put two weathen chaines of golde in the two rings, in the corners of the brestplate.

18. Also the two other ends of the two weathen chaines they fastened in the two bosses, and put them on the shoulders of the Ephod, upon the forefront of it.

19. Likewise they made two rings of golde, and put them in the two other corners of the brestplate upon the edge of it, which was on the inside of the Ephod.

20. They made also two other golden rings, and put them on the two sides of the Ephod, beneath on the inside of it, & out against his coupling about the broyered gird of the Ephod.

21. Then they fastened the brestplate by his rings unto the rings of the Ephod, with a lace of blue silk, that it might be fast upon the broyered gird of the Ephod, and that the brestplate should not be loosed from the Ephod, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

22. Moreover, he made the robe of the Ephod of women worke, altogether of blue silk.

23. And the hole of the robe was in the middes of it, as the collar of an habergeon, with an edge about the collar, that it should not rent.

24. And they made upon the skirts of the robe pomegranates, of blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen twined.

25. They made also a belt of pure golde, and put the belles betweene the pomegranates upon the skirts of the robe round about betweene the pomegranates.

26. A bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate round about the skirts of the robe to minister in, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

27. After, they made coats of fine linen, of women worke for Aaron and for his sonnes.

28. And the miter of fine linen, and goodly bonnets of fine linen, and linen breeches of fine twined linen.

29. And the girdle of fine twined linen, and of blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, even of needle worke, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

30. Finally, they made the plate for the holy robe of fine golde, and wrote upon it a superscription like to the graving of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

31. And they tied unto it a lace of blue silk to fasten it on his hypo the miter, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

32. Thus was all the worke of the Tabernacle, even of the Tabernacle of the Congregation finished: to all that the Lord had commanded Moses: so did they.

33. Afterward they brought the Tabernacle unto Moses, the Tabernacle, & all his instruments, his tables, his boards, his barres, and his pillars, and his lockers,

34. And the covering of Rams skins dyed red, and the covering of Badgers skins, and the covering of hyssop,

35. The Arke of the Testimonie, and the barres thereof, and the Mercyseat,

36. The Table, with all the instruments thereof, and the shewbread,

37. The pure candlesticks, the lamps thereof, even the lamps set in order, and all the instruments thereof, and the oyle for light, 41 Finally, the ministring garments to serve in the Sanctuary, and the holy garments for Aaron the Priest, and his sonnes garments to minister in the Priests office.

42 According to every point that the Lord commanded Moses, so the children of Israel made all the worke.

43 And Moses beheld all the worke, and behold, they had done it as the Lord had commanded: so had they done: and Moses blessed them.

CHAP. XL

2 The Tabernacle with the appurtenances is reared up. 34 The glory of the Lord appeareth in the cloud covering the Tabernacle.

Then the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 In the first day of the first moneth, in the very first of the first moneth shalt thou see by the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation:

3 And thou shalt put therein the Arke of the Testimonie, and cover the Arke with the baile.

4 Also thou shalt bring in the Table, and set it in order as it doth require: thou shalt also bring in the candlesticks, and light his lampes.

5 And thou shalt set the incense Altar of gold before the Arke of the Testimonie, and put the hanging at the doore of the Tabernacle.

6 Moreover, thou shalt set the burnt offering Altar before the doore of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

7 And thou shalt set the Laver betweene the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the Altar, and put water therein.

8 Then thou shalt appoint the Court rounde about, and hang by the hanging at the Court gate.

9 After, thou shalt take the anoynting oyle, and anoynt the Tabernacle, and all that is therein, and hallow it with all the instruments thereof, that it may be holy.

10 And thou shalt anoint the Altar of the burnt offering, and all his instruments, and shalt sanctifie the Altar, that it may be an Altar most holy.

11 Also thou shalt anoynt the Laver, and his foot, and shalt sanctifie it.

12 Then thou shalt bring Aaron and his sonnes into the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and wash them with water.

13 And thou shalt put upon Aaron the holy garments, and shalt anoynt him, and sanctifie him, that he may minister unto me in the Priests office.

14 Thou shalt also bring his sonnes, and clothe them with garments.

15 And shalt anoint them as thou diddest anoynt their father, that they may minister unto me in the Priests office: for their anoynting makes them: that the Priesthood shall be inheriting unto them throughout their generations.

16 So Moses did according to all that the Lord had commanded him: so did he.

17 Thus was the Tabernacle reared up by the first day of the first moneth in the second year.

18 Then Moses reared by the Tabernacle and fastened his sockets, and let up the boards thereof, and put in the barres of it, and reared up his pillars.

19 And he spread the covering over the Tabernacle, and put the covering of that covering on the above it, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

20 And he took and put the Testimonie in the Arke, and put the barres in the rings of the Arke, and let the Testimonie on his upon the Arke.

21 And he brought also the Arke into the Tabernacle, and hanged by the covering baile, and covered the Arke of the Testimonie, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

22 Furthermore he put the Table in the Tabernacle of the Congregation in the Northside of the Tabernacle, without the baile.

23 And he set the bread in order before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

24 Also he put the Candlesticks in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and set against the Table toward the Southside of the Tabernacle.

25 And he lighted the lampes before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

26 Moreover, he set the golden altar in the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the baile.

27 And burnt sweete incense thereon, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

28 Also he hanged by the baile at the doore of the Tabernacle.

29 After, he set the burnt offering Altar without the doore of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and offered the burnt offering and the sacrifice thereon, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

30 Likewise he set the Laver betweene the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the Altar, and put water therein to wash with.

31 So Moses and Aaron, and his sonnes washed their hands and their feet thereat.

32 When they went into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and when they approached to the Altar, they washed, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

33 Finally, he reared by the court rounde about the Tabernacle and the Altar, a hanging by the baile at the Court gate: so Moses finished the worke.

34 Then the cloude covered the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the glory of the Lord filled the Tabernacle.

35 So Moses could not enter into the Tabernacle.

The third booke of Moses, called Leuiticus.

THE ARGUMENT.

God daily by most singular benefices declared himselfe to be mindful of his Church: so he would not that they should have any occasion to trust either in themselves, or to depend upon others, either for lacke of temporall things, or ought that belonged to his diuine seruice and religion. Therefore he ordained diuers kinds of oblations and sacrifices, to allure them of forgiveness of their offences (if they called them true faith and obedience.) Also he appointed their Priests and Leuites, their apparel, office, conuocation and portion: he shewed what feasts they should observe, and in what times. Moreover, he declared by these sacrifices and ceremonies, that the reward of sinne is death, and that without the blood of Christ the innocent Lambe there can be no forgiveness of sinnes. And because they should giue no place to their owne iniquities (which thing God most detesteth, as appeareth by the terrible example of Nadab and Abihu) he prescribed euen to the least things, what they should doe, as what beasts they should offer and eate: what diseases were contagious & to be avoided; what order they should take for all manner of filthines and pollution to purge it: whose companie they should flee: what marriages were lawfull and what pollicke lawes were profitable. Which things declared, he promised fauour and blessing to them that keepe his lawes, and threatened his curse to them that transgressed them.

CHAP. I.

2. Of burnt offering for particular persons. 3. 4. and 14. The manner to offer burnt offerings, as well of bullockes, as of sheepe and birds.

NOW to the Lord called Moyses, and spake vnto him out of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, saying,

2. Speak vnto the children of Israel, and thou shalt say vnto them, If any of you offer a sacrifice vnto the Lord, yett shall offer your sacrifice of cattell, as of oxen, and of the sheepe,

3. If his sacrifice be a burnt offering of the heere, hee shall offer a male without blemish, presenting him of his owne voluntarie will at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the Lord.

4. And hee shall put his hand vpon the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be accepted to the Lord, to be his atonement.

5. And hee shall kill the bullocke before the Lord, and the Priest's Arons sonnes shall offer the blood, and shall sprinkle it round about vpon the altar, that is by the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

6. Then shall hee lay the burnt offering, and cut it in pieces.

7. So the sonnes of Aaron the Priest shall put fire vpon the altar, and lay the wood in vnder vpon the fire.

8. When the Priest's Arons sonnes shall lay the pieces in order, the head and the haire vpon the wood, that is in the fire which is vpon the altar.

9. But the inward thereof and the legs thereof he shall wash in water, and the Priest shall burne all on the altar: for it is a burnt offering, an oblation made by fire, for a sweete savour vnto the Lord.

10. And if his sacrifice for the burnt offering be of the flocke, of the sheepe, or of the goates, he shall offer a male without blemish,

37. But if the cloud ascendeth not, then they journeyed, so not till the day that it ascendeth.

38. For the cloud of the Lord was vpon the Tabernacle by day, and fire was in it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel throughout all their journeys.

b Thus the presence of God preferred and guided them night and day till they came to the land promised.

11. And hee shall kill it on the North side of the altar, before the Lord, and the Priest's Arons sonnes shall sprinkle the blood there round about vpon the altar.

12. And he shall cut it in 3 pieces, separating his head and his haire, and the Priest shall lay them in order vpon the wood that is in the fire which is in the altar.

13. But he shall wash the inward parts, and the legges with water, and the Priest shall offer the whole, and burne it vpon the altar: for it is a burnt offering, an oblation made by fire for a sweete savour vnto the Lord.

14. And if his sacrifice be a burnt offering to the Lord, of the turtles, then hee shall offer his sacrifice of the turtle doves, or of the young pigeons.

15. And the Priest shall bring it vnto the altar, and wring the neck of it alunder, and burne it on the altar: and the blood thereof shall be shed vpon the side of the altar.

16. And he shall plucke out his maw with his feathers, and cast them before the altar on the East part in the place of the ashes.

17. And he shall cleane it with his wings, but not diuided alunder: and the Priest shall burne it vpon the altar vpon the wood that is in the fire: for it is a burnt offering, an oblation made by fire for a sweete savour vnto the Lord.

CHAP. II.

1. The manner offering a after three sorts: of fine flour, of wheat, and of bread baked, and of oyle in the ear.

2. And when any will offer a meate offering vnto the Lord, his offering shall be of fine flour, and he shall put oyle vpon it, and put incense thereon.

3. And shall bring it vnto Arons sonnes the Priest's, & he shall take thence his hand full of the flour, & of the oyle with all the incense, the Priest shall burne it for a memorial vpon the altar: for it is an offering made by fire for a sweete savour vnto the Lord.

4 ¶ If thou bring also a meate offering baken in the oven, it shall be an unleavened cake of fine flour mingled with oyle, or an unleavened wafer anointed with oyle.

5 ¶ But if thy meate offering be an oblation of the frying panne, it shall be of fine flour unleavened, mingled with oyle.

6 And thou shalt part it in pieces, and poure oyle thereon: for it is a meate offering.

7 ¶ And if thy meate offering be an oblation made in the cauldron, it shall be made of fine flour with oyle.

8 After, thou shalt bring the meate offering (that is made of these things) unto the Lord, and shall present it unto the Priest, and he shall bring it to the altar.

9 And the Priest shall take from the meate offering a memoriall of it, and shall burne it upon the altar: for it is an oblation made by fire for a sweete savour unto the Lord.

10 But that which is left of the meate offering, shall be Aarons and his sonnes: for it is a most holy of the offerings of the Lord made by fire.

11 All the meate offerings which ye shall offer unto the Lord, shall be made without leaven: for ye shall neither burne leaven nor bone in any offering of the Lord made by fire.

12 ¶ In the oblation of the first fruites ye shall offer them unto the Lord, but they shall not be burnt upon the altar for a sweete savour.

13 ¶ All the meate offerings also shalt thou season with salt, neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meate offering, but upon all thine oblations thou shalt offer salt.

14 ¶ If then thou offer a meate offering of the first fruites unto the Lord, thou shalt offer for thy meate offering of the first fruites, eares of come dried by the fire, and wheate beaten out of the sgreene eares.

15 After, thou shalt put oyle upon it, & lay incense thereon: for it is a meate offering.

16 And the Priest shall burne the memoriall of it, even of that that is beaten, and of the oyle of it, with all the incense thereof: for it is an offering unto the Lord made by fire.

CHAP. III.

1 The manner of peace offerings, and heafts for the same. 17 The sacrifices may neither eat for nor blood.

¶ If he will offer of the young, (whether it be male or female) hee shall offer such as is without blemish before the Lord.

2 And shall put his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation: and Aarons sonnes the Priests shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

3 So he shall offer part of the peace offerings as a sacrifice made by fire unto the Lord, even the fat that covereth the inward parts, and all the fat that is upon the inward parts.

4 Yet shall also take away the two kidneys, the fat that is on them, and upon the flanks, and the fat on the liver with the kidneys.

5 And Aarons sonnes shall burne it on the altar, with the burnt offering which is upon the wood, that is upon the fire: this is a sacrifice made by fire for a sweete savour unto the Lord.

6 ¶ If his oblation be a peace offering, whether it be male or female, hee shall offer it without blemish.

7 If hee offer a lambe for his oblation, then he shall bring it before the Lord.

8 And lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and shall kill it before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and Aarons sonnes shall sprinkle the blood thereof round about upon the altar.

9 After, of the peace offerings he shall offer an offering made by fire unto the Lord: he shall take away the fat thereof, and the rumpe altogether, hard by the backe bone, and the fat that covereth the inward parts, & all the fat that is upon the inward parts.

10 Also he shall take away the two kidneys, with the fat that is upon them, and upon the flanks, and the hall upon the liver with the kidneys.

11 Then the Priest shall burne it upon the altar, as the meate of an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

12 ¶ If his offering be a goat, then shall he offer it before the Lord.

13 And shall put his hand upon the head of it, and kill it before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the sonnes of Aarons shall sprinkle the blood thereof upon the altar round about.

14 Then he shall offer thereof his offering, even an offering made by fire unto the Lord, the fat that covereth the inward parts, and all the fat that is upon the inward parts.

15 Also he shall take away the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and upon the flanks, and the hall upon the liver with the kidneys.

16 So the Priest shall burne them upon the altar, as the meate of an offering made by fire for a sweete savour: all the fat is the Lords.

17 This shall be a perpetual ordinance for your generations, throughout all your dwellings, so that ye shall eat neither fat nor blood.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The offering for sins done of ignorance, for the Priest, 13 The Congregation, 25 The rulers, 27 And the people in generall.

¶ When the Lord spake unto Moses,

2 ¶ Spake unto the children of Israel, saying, All ye shall sinne through ignorance, in any of the commandments of the Lords, (which I have not to be done) but shall doe contrary to any of them.

3 If the Priest that is anointed do sin (according to the sinne of the people) then shall he offer for his sinne which he hath sinned, a young bullocke without blemish unto the Lord for a sinne offering.

|| Or, the children are the sinners.

c In the offering it is different, either male or female, but burnt offerings only the male here can be offered as but in the offering the might: all was consumed with fire, as the peace offering but a part. d The burnt offering was consumed of the offering made by fire, by the inward parts, the flesh, the breast, and two chanes, the marrow, the Priest, the rest he offered.

6. Then the Priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle all the blood seven times before the Lord, before the vail of the Sanctuary.

7. The Priest also shall put some of the blood before the Lord, upon the hornes of the Altar of Sweet incense, which is in the Tabernacle of the Congregation: then shall he pour at the rest of the blood of the bullocke at the foot of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

8. And he shall take away all the fat of the bullocke for the sinne offering: to wit, the fat that covered the inward, and all the fat that is about the inward.

9. Hee shall take away also the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and upon the flaukes, and the kail upon the liver with the kidneys.

13. And if the whole Congregation of Israel shall sinne through ignorance, and the thing be hid from the eyes of the multitude, and haue done against any of the commandments of the Lord which should not be done, and haue offended:

14. When the sinne which they haue committed shall be known, then the Congregation shall offer a yong bullocke for the sinne, and bring him before the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

15. And the Elders of the Congregation shall put their hands upon the head of the bullocke before the Lord, and he shall kill the bullocke before the Lord.

16. Then the Priest that is anoynted, shall bring of the bullockes blood into the tabernacle of the Congregation.

17. And the Priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the Lord, even before the vail.

18. Also he shall put some of the blood upon the hornes of the altar, which is before the Lord, that is in the Tabernacle of the Congregation: then shall hee pour all the rest of the blood at the foot of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

19. And he shall take all his fat from him, and burne it upon the altar.

20. And the Priest shall doe with this bullocke, as he did with the bullocke for his sin: so shall hee doe with this: so the Priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them.

21. For he shall carie the bullocke without the holte, and burne him as hee burned the first bullocke: for it is an offering for the sinne of the Congregation.

22. And when a ruler shall sinne, and doe through ignorance against any of the commandments of the Lord his God, which should not be done, and shall offend,

23. If one shew unto him his sinne, which he hath committed, then shall hee bring for his offering, an he goat without blemish,

24. And shall lay his hand upon the head of the he goat, and kill it in the place where hee should kill the burnt offering before the Lord: for it is a sinne offering.

25. Then the Priest shall take of the blood of the sinne offering with his finger, and put it upon the hornes of the burnt offering altar, and shall pour the rest of his blood at the foot of the burnt offering Altar.

26. And shall burne all his fat upon the altar, as the fat of the peace offering: so the Priest shall make an atonement for him, concerning his sinne, and it shall be forgiven him.

27. Likewise if any of the people of the land shall sinne through ignorance in doing against any of the commandments of the Lord, which should not be done, and shall offend,

28. If one shew him his sinne which hee hath committed, then shall hee bring for his offering a hee goat without blemish for his sinne which hee hath committed,

Ald if any haue sinned, that is, if he haue heard the voice of an oath, and he can be a witness, whether he hath seene or knowen of it, if he doe not utter it, hee shall beare his iniquitie :

2 Either if one touch any vncleane thing, whether it be a carion of an vncleane beast, or a carion of vncleane cattell, or a carion of vncleane creeping things, and is not ware of it, yet he is vncleane, and hath offended :

3 Either if he touch any vncleannesse of man (whatsoever vncleannesse it be, that he is defiled with) and is not ware of it, and after cometh to the knowledge of it, he hath sinned :

4 Either if any sweare, and pronounce with his lips to do euill, or to do good (whatsoever it be that a man shall pronounce with an oath) and it be hidde from him, and after knoweth that hee hath offended in one of these points,

5 When hee hath sinned in any of these things, then hee shall confesse that hee hath sinned therein.

6 Therefore shall hee bring his trespass offering vnto the Lord for his sinne which he hath committed, euen a female from the flock be it a lambe, or a hee goate, for a sinne offering, and the Priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sinne.

7 But * if hee bee not able to bring a sheepe, hee shall bring for his trespass which hee hath committed, two turtle doves, or two yong pigeons vnto the Lord, once for a sinne offering, and the other for a burnt offering.

8 So hee shall bring them vnto the Priest, who shall offer the sinne offering first, and wiping the nocke of it asunder, but not pluck it cleane off.

9 And hee shall sprinkle of the blood of the sinne offering vpon the side of the altar, and the rest of the blood shall hee shew at the tooke of the altar : for it is a sinne offering.

10 Also hee shall offer the second for a burnt offering, as the manner is : so shall the Priest make an atonement for him, (for his sinne which hee hath committed) and it shall be forgiven him.

11 * But if hee be not able to bring two turtle doves, or two yong pigeons, then hee shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an Ephah of fine flour for a sinne offering, hee shall put none oyle thereto, neither put any incense thereon : for it is a sinne offering.

12 Then shall hee bring it to the Priest, and the Priest shall take his handfull of it, for the remembrance thereof, and burne it vpon the altar with the offerings of the Lord made by fire : for it is a sinne offering.

13 So the Priest shall make an atonement for him, as touching his sinne that hee hath committed in one of these points, and it shall be forgiven him and hee remaine shall be the Priest, as the meate offering.

14 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

15 If any person transgresseth and sinne through ignorance, by taking away things consecrated vnto the Lord, hee shall then bring for his trespass offering vnto the Lord a ram without blemish out of the flocke, worth two shekels of silver * by thy estimation after the shekel of the Sanctuary for a trespass offering.

16 So hee shall restore that wherein hee hath offended, in taking away of the holy thing, and shall put the sixt part more thereto, and giue it vnto the Priest : to the Priest shall make an atonement for him with the ramme of the trespass offering, and it shall be forgiven him.

17 * Also if any sinne and * do against any of the Commandements of the Lord, which ought not to be done, and know not, and sinne, and beare his iniquitie,

18 Then shall he bring a ramme without blemish out of the flocke, in thy estimation worth * two shekels for a trespass offering vnto the Priest : and the Priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his ignorance wherein hee erred, and was not ware : so it shall be forgiven him.

19 This is the trespass offering for the trespass committed against the Lord.

cake for an house offering unto the Lord, and it shall be the Priest's that sprinkled the blood of the peace offerings.

15 Also the flesh of his peace offerings, for thanksgiving, shall be eaten the same day that it is offered: he shall leave nothing thereof until the morning.

16 But if the sacrifice of his offering be a woman, or a free offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offereth his sacrifice: and so in the morning the residue thereof shall be eaten.

17 But as much of the offered flesh as remaineth unto the third day, shall be burnt with fire.

18 For if any of the flesh of his peace offerings be eaten in the third day, hee shall not be accepted that offereth it, neither shall it be reckoned unto him, but shall be an abomination: therefore the person that eateth of it, shall beare his iniquitie.

19 The flesh also that toucheth any unclean thing, shall not be eaten, but burnt with fire: but of this flesh all that be cleane shall eat thereof.

20 But if any eate of the flesh of the peace offerings that pertaineth to the Lord, having his uncleanesse upon him, even the same person shall be cut off from his people.

21 Moreover, when any toucheth any unclean thing, as the uncleanness of man, or of an unclean beast, or of any filthy abomination, and eate of the flesh of the peace offerings, which pertaineth unto the Lord, even that person shall be cut off from his people.

22 Again the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Speake unto the children of Israel, and say, Ye shall eate no fat of beevies, nor of sheepe, nor of goates:

24 Yet the fat of the dead beast, and the fat of that, which is tame with beastes, shall be occupied to any use, but yee shall not eate of it.

25 For whosoever eateth the fat of the beast, of the which he shall offer an offering made by fire to the Lord, even the person that eateth, shall be cut off from his people.

26 Neither shall yee eate any blood, either of foule, or of beast in all your dwellings.

27 Every man that eateth any blood, even the same person shall be cut off from his people.

28 And the Lord talked with Moses, saying,

29 Speake unto the children of Israel, and say, He that offereth his peace offerings unto the Lord, shall bring his gift unto the Lord of his peace offerings:

30 His hands shall bring the offerings of the Lord made by fire: even the fat with the breast shall he bring, that the breast may be shaken to and fro before the Lord.

31 Then the Priest shall burne the fat upon the altar: and the breast shall be Aarons and his sonnes.

32 And the right shoulder shall yee give unto the Priest for an house offering, of your peace offerings.

33 The same that offereth the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat, among the sonnes of Aaron, shall have the right shoulder for his part.

34 For the breast shaken to and fro, and the shoulder lifted up, have I taken of the children of Israel, even of their peace offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the Priest, and unto his sonnes by a statute for ever from among the children of Israel.

35 This is the anointing of Aaron, and the anointing of his sonnes, concerning the offerings of the Lord made by fire, in the day when hee presented them to serve in the Priests office unto the Lord.

36 The which portions the Lord commanded to give them in the day that he anointed them from among the children of Israel, by a statute for ever in their generations.

37 This is also the law of the burnt offering, of the meat offering, and of the sin offering, and of the trespass offering, and of the consecrations, and of the peace offerings:

38 Which the Lord commanded Moses in the mount Sinai, when hee commanded the children of Israel to offer their gifts unto the Lord in the wilderness of Sinai.

CHAP. VIII

13 The anointing of Aaron, and his sonnes, with the sacrifice concerning the same.

Afterward the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Take Aaron and his sonnes with him, and the garments and the anointing oyle, and a bullocke for the sinne offering, and two rammes, and a basket of unleavened bread.

3 And assemble all the companie at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

4 So Moses did as the Lord had commanded him, and the company was assembled at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

5 Then Moses sayd unto the company, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded to doe.

6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sonnes, and washed them with water, 7 And put upon him the coate, and girded him with a girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the Ephod on him, which hee girded with the bordered garbe of the Ephod, and bound it unto him therewith.

8 After, he put the breast plate thereon, and put in the breast plate the Urim and the Thummim.

9 Also hee put the miter upon his head, and put upon the miter on the forefront the golden plate, and the holy crowne, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

10 Nowe Moses had taken the anointing oyle, and anointed the Tabernacle, and all that was therein, and sanctified them, 12 And he powred of the anoynting oyle vpon Aarons head, and anoynted him, to sanctifie him.

13 After, Moyses brought Aarons sonnes, and put coats vpon them, and girded them with girdles, & put bonnets vpon their heads, as the Lord had commanded Moyses.

14 Then he brought the bullocke for the sinne offering, and Aaron and his sonnes put their hands vpon the head of the bullocke for the sinne offering.

15 And Moyses slew him, and tooke the blood, which hee put vpon the hornes of the altar round about with his finger, and purged the altar, and powred the rest of the blood at the foot of the altar: so he sanctified it, to make reconciliation vpon it.

16 Then he tooke all the fat that was vpon the inward, and the kail of the liuer, and the two kidneis with their fat, which Moyses burned vpon the altar.

17 But the bullocke and his hide, and his flesh, and his dung, hee burnt with fire without the holte, as the Lord had commanded Moyses.

18 Also hee brought the ramme for the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sonnes put their hands vpon the head of the ramme.

19 So Moyses killed it, and sprinkled the blood vpon the altar round about.

20 And Moyses cut the ramme in peeces, and burnt the head with the peeces, and the fat,

21 And washed the inward, and the legs in water: so Moyses burnt the ramme every whit vpon the altar: for it was a burnt offering for a sweet sauour, which was made by fire vnto the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moyses.

22 After, hee brought the other ram, the ramme of consecrations, and Aaron and his sonnes laid their hands vpon the head of the ramme.

23 Which Moyses slew, and tooke of the blood of it, and put it vpon the lappe of Aarons right eare, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, & vpon the great toe of his right foot.

24 Then Moyses brought Aarons sonnes, and put of the blood on the lappe of their right eares, and vpon the thumbe of their right handes, and vpon the great toes of their right feet, and Moyses sprinkled chere of the blood vpon the altar round about.

25 And hee tooke the fat and the rumpe, and all the fat that was vpon the inward, and the kail of the liuer, and the two kidneis with their fat, and the right shoulder.

26 Also hee tooke of the baskett of the unleavened bread that was before the Lord, one unleavened cake, and a cake of oyled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and vpon the right shoulder.

27 So hee put all in Aarons hands, and in his sonnes hands, and shooke it to and fro before the Lord.

28 After, Moyses tooke them out of their hands, and burnt them vpon the altar for a burnt offering: for these were consecrations for a sweet sauour which were made by fire vnto the Lord.

29 Likewise Moyses tooke the hest of the ramme of consecrations, and shooke it to and fro before the Lord: for it was Moyses' portion, as the Lord had commanded Moyses.

30 Also Moyses tooke of the anoynting oyle, and of the blood which was vpon the altar, and sprinkled it vpon Aaron, vpon his garments, and vpon his sonnes, and on his sonnes garments with him, so hee sanctified Aaron, his garments, and his sonnes, and his sonnes garments with him.

31 Afterward Moyses said vnto Aaron and his sonnes, Seeke the flesh at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and there eat it with the bread that is in the baskett of consecrations, as I commanded, laying, Aaron and his sonnes shall eat it.

32 But that which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread, shall ye burne with fire.

33 And ye shall not depart from the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation seven dayes, vntill the dayes of your consecrations bee at an end: for seven dayes, said the Lord, shall hee consecrate you.

34 As he hath done this day: so the Lord hath commanded to doe, to make an atonement for you.

35 Therefore shall ye abide at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation day and night, seven dayes, and shall keepe the watch of the Lord, that yee die not: for so I am commanded.

36 So Aaron and his sonnes did all things which the Lord had commanded by the hand of Moyses.

And in the eighth day Moyses called Aaron and his sonnes, and the Elders of Israel:

2 Then hee said vnto Aaron, Take thee a yong calfe for a sinne offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, both without blemish, and bring them before the Lord.

3 And vnto the children of Israel thou shalt speake, saying, Take yee an hee goat for a sinne offering, and a calfe, and a lambe, both of a yeece olde, without blemish, for a burnt offering.

4 Also a bullocke, and a ramme for peace offerings, to offer before the Lord, and a meat offering mingled with oyle: for to day the Lord will appeare vnto you.

5 Then they brought that which Moyses commanded before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and all the assembly stood neere and stood before the Lord.

7 Then Moses said vnto Aaron, Draw neere to the altar, and offer thy inne offering, and thy burnt offering, and make an atonement for thee and for the people: offer also the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them, as the Lord hath commanded.

8 ¶ Aaron therefore went vnto the altar, and killed the calfe of the sinne offering, which was for himselfe.

9 And the sonnes of Aaron brought the blood vnto him, and he dypt his finger in the blood, and put it vpon the hornes of the altar, and powdered the rest of the blood at the foote of the altar.

10 But the fat and the kidneys, and the kal of the liuer of the sinne offering, he burnt vpon the altar, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

11 The flesh also and the hide hee burnt with fire without the holte.

12 After, he slew the burnt offering, and Aarons sonnes brought vnto him the blood, which hee sprinkled round about vpon the Altar.

13 Also they brought the burnt offering vnto him with the pieces thereof, and the head, and he burnt them vpon the altar.

14 Likewise hee did wash the inwardes and the legs, & burnt them vpon the burnt offering on the altar.

15 ¶ Then he offered the peoples offering, and tooke a goat, which was the sinne offering for the people, and slew it, and offered it for sinne, as the first:

16 So he offered the burnt offering, and prepared it, according to the maner.

17 He presented also the meat offering, and filled his hand thereof, and beside the burnt sacrifice of the morning, hee burnt this vpon the altar.

18 He slew also the bullocke, & the ramme for the peace offerings, that was for the people, and Aarons sonnes brought vnto him the blood, which hee sprinkled vpon the altar round about.

19 Altho the fat of the bullocke, and of the ramme, the rumpe, and that which couereth the inwardes and the kidneys, and the kal of the liuer.

20 So they laid the fat vpon the breasts, and he burnt the fat vpon the altar.

21 But the breasts and the right shoulder Aaron tooke to and fro before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

22 So Aaron lift up his hand toward the people, and blessed them, and came downe from offering of the inne offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings.

23 After, Moses and Aaron went into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and came out, and blessed the people, and the glorie of the Lord appeared to all the people.

24 And there came a fire out from the Lord, & consumed vpon the altar the burnt offering and the fat: which when all the people saw, they gaue thanks, and fell on their faces.

But Nadab and Abihu, the sonnes of Aaron, tooke either of them his censur, and put fire therein, and put incense thereupon, and offered strange fire before the Lord, which he had not commanded them.

2 Therefore a fire went out from the Lord, and deuoured them: so they died before the Lord.

3 Then Moses said vnto Aaron, This is it that the Lord spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come neere me, and before all the people I will be glorified: but Aaron held his peace.

4 And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan the sonnes of Elziel, the vncle of Aaron, and said vnto them, Come neere, carrie your brethren from before the Sanctuarie out of the holte.

5 Then they went and carryed them in their coates out of the holte, as Moses had commanded.

6 After Moses said vnto Aaron, and vnto Eleazar and Itamar his sonnes, ¶ Couer not your heads, neither rent your clothes, lest ye die, and lest wrath come vpon all the people: but let your brethren, all the house of Israel beholde the burning which the Lord hath kindled.

7 And doe not yett out from the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, lest ye die: for the anoynting oyle of the Lord is vpon you: and they did according to Moses commandement.

8 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Aaron, saying,

9 Thou shalt not drinke wine neyther drinke, thou, nor thy sonnes with thee, when yett come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, lest ye die: this is an ordinance for euer throughout your generations.

10 That ye may put difference betweene the holy and the vnholy, and betweene the cleane and the vncleane.

11 And that ye may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the Lord hath commanded them by the hand of Moses.

12 ¶ Then Moses said vnto Aaron and vnto Eleazar & to Itamar his sonnes that were left, Take the meate offering that remaineth of the offerings of the Lord, made by fire, and eate it without leauen beside the altar: for it is most holy.

13 And ye shall eate it in the holy place, because it is thy duetie and thy sonnes duetie of the offerings of the Lord, made by fire: for so I am commanded.

14 Also the shaken breast and the heeme shoulder shall ye eate in a cleane place: thou and thy sonnes, and thy daughters with thee: for they are giuen as thy duetie and thy sonnes duetie of the peace offerings of the children of Israel.

2 Of beasts, fishes, and birds, which be cleane & which be vncleane.

After, the Lord spake vnto Moses and Aaron, saying vnto them,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, These are the beasts which ye shall eat, among all the beasts that are on the earth.

3 Whosoever parteth the hoofe, and is clouen footed, and cheweth the cud among the beasts, that shall ye eat:

4 But of them that chew the cud, or deuide the hoofe onely, of them ye shall not eat: as the camell, because he cheweth the cud, and diuideth not the hoofe, hee shall be vncleane to you.

5 Likewise the cony, because he cheweth the cud and diuideth not the hoofe, hee shall be vncleane to you.

6 Also the hare, because hee cheweth the cud, and diuideth not the hoofe, hee shall be vncleane to you.

7 And the swine, because he parteth the hoofe and is clouen footed, but cheweth not the cud, hee shall be vncleane to you.

8 Of their flesh shall ye not eat, & their carkeis shall ye not touch: for they shall be vncleane to you.

9 ¶ These shall ye eat, of all that are in the waters: whatsoeuer hath finnes and 19 The stoike also, the heron after his kind, and the lapwing, and the bakke:

20 And euery foule that creepeth and goeth vpon all foure, such shall be an abomination vnto you.

21 Per these shall ye eat: of euery foule that creepeth & goeth vpon all foure, which I haue their feete and legs all of one to leape withall vpon the earth,

¶ Or, haue no bow-
ings on their feete.

22 Of them ye shall eat these, the grahopper after his kind, and the heolean after his kinde, the bargot after his kind, and the bagab after his kind.

f These were certaine kindes of grahoppers, which are not now properly knowne.

23 But all other foules, that creep and haue foure feete, they shall be abomination vnto
you.

24 For by such ye shall be polluted: whosoeuer toucheth their carkeis, shall be vncleane vnto the eueniug.

25 Whosoever also beareth of their car-keis, shall wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntill euen.

g Out of the campe.

26 Euery beast that hath clawes diuided, and is not clouen footed, nor cheweth the cud, such shall be vncleane vnto you:
euery one that toucheth them, shall be vncleane.

¶ Or, hath not his foote clouen in two.

27 And whatsoeuer goeth vpon his pawes among all manner beastes that goeth on all foure, such shall be vncleane vnto you:
whoso doth touch their carkeis, shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

28 And he that beareth their carkeis, shall wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntill the euen: for such shall be vncleane vnto you.

29 ¶ Also these shall be vncleane to you among the things that creep and moue vpon the earth, the weasel, and the mouse, and the frog after his kinde:

h The greene frogge that sitteth on the bushes.

30 Also the rat, and the lizard, and the chameleon, and the scellio, and the mofle.

¶ Or, Crocodile.

31 These shall be vncleane to you among all that creep: whosoever doth touch them when they be dead, shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

32 Also whatsoeuer any of the dead car-keis of them doth fall vpon, shall be vncleane, whether it be vessell of wood, or ray-ment of skin, or sacke: whatsoeuer vessell it bee that is occupied, it shall be put in the water as vncleane vntill the euen, and so bee purified.

i As a bottell

33 But euery earthen vessell wherinto any of them falleth, whatsoeuer is therein shall be vncleane, and ye shall breake it.

Chap. 6. 2. 8.

34 All meate also that shall be eaten, if any such water come vpon it, shall be vncleane:
and all drinke that shall be drunke in all such vessels shall be vncleane.

35 And every thing that their carkeis fall vpon shall be vncleane: the fornace or the pot shall be broken: for they are vncleane, and haue vncleane vnto you.

36 Yet the fountaines and welles where there is plenty of water shall be cleane: but that which toucheth their carkeis shall be vncleane.

37 And if there fall of their dead carkeis vpon any seede, which beth to be sowne, it shall be vncleane.

38 But if any water be powred vpon the seed, and there fall of their dead carkeis thereon, it shall be cleane vnto you.

39 If also any beast, whereof ye may eat, die, he that toucheth the carkeis thereof shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

40 And her that eateth of the carkeis of it, shall wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntill the euen: he also that beareth the carkeis of it, shall wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntill the euen.

41 Every creeping thing therefore that creepeth vpon the earth shall be an abomination, and not be eaten.

42 What soeuer goeth vpon the breast, and whatsoeuer goeth vpon all foure, or that hath many feete among all creeping things that creepeth vpon the earth, yee shall not eate of them, for they shall be abomination.

43 Yee shall not pollute your selues with any thing that creepeth, neither make your selues vncleane with them, neither defile your selues thereby: yee shall not, I say, be defiled by them.

44 For I am the Lord your God: be sanctified therefore, and be holy, for I am holy, & defile not your selues with any creeping thing, that creepeth vpon the earth.

45 For I am the Lord that brought you out of the land of Egypt, to bee your God, and that you should be holy, for I am holy.

46 This is the lawe of the beastes and of foules, and of every liuing thing that moueth in the waters, and of every thing that creepeth vpon the earth:

47 That there may bee a difference betwene the vncleane and cleane, and betwene the beast that may be eaten, and the beast that ought not to be eaten.

CHAP. XII.

2 A lewe home women should be purged after their deliuerance.

And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, 2 Spake vnto the children of Israel, and say, When a woman hath brought forth seede, and borne a man child, she shall be vncleane seven dayes, like as shee is vncleane when shee is put apart for her discharge.

3 And in the eight day, the foreskinne of the childes flesh shall be circuncised.

4 And she shall continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirtie dayes: shee shall touch no hallowed thing, nor come into the Sanctuary, vntill the time of her purifying be out.

5 But if she beare a maide child, then she shall be vncleane two weekes, as when shee hath ber disease: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying threeweke and fixe dayes.

6 Now when the dayes of her purifying are out, (whether it bee for a sonne or a daughter) shee shall bring to the Priest a lambe of one yeere olde for a burnt offering, and a yong pigeon or a turtle doue for a sinne offering, vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

7 Who shall offer it before the Lord, and make an atonement for her: so shee shall be purged of the issue of her blood. This is the lawe for her that hath borne a male or female.

8 But if shee bee not able to bring a lambe, shee shall bring two turtles, or two yong pigeons: the one for a burnt offering, and the other for a sinne offering, and the Priest shall make an atonement for her: so shee shall be cleane.

CHAP. XIII.

2 What considerations the Priest ought to obserue in iudging the leprosie, 29 The blacke spot or scabbe, 47 and the leproie of the garment.

Reouer the Lord spake vnto Moses, and to Aaron, saying,

2 The man that shall haue in the skinne of his flesh a swelling of a scab, or a white spot, so that in the skinne of his flesh it bee like the plague of leprosie, then hee shall be brought vnto Aaron the Priest, or vnto one of his sonnes the Priests.

3 And the Priest shall looke on the sore in the skinne of his flesh: if the haire in the sore be turned into white, and the sore seeme to bee lower then the skinne of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosie: therefore the Priest shall looke on him, and pronounce him vncleane.

4 But if the white spot bee in the skinne of his flesh, and seeme not to bee lower then the skin, nor the haire thereof be turned into white, then the Priest shall shut vp him that hath the plague, seven dayes.

5 After, the Priest shall looke vpon him the seuenth day: and if the plague leeme to him to abide still, and the plague growe not in the skinne, the Priest shall shut him vp yet seven dayes more.

6 Then the Priest shall looke on him againe the seuenth day, and if the plague be darke, and the sore growe not in the skinne, then the Priest shall pronounce him cleane, for it is a scab: therefore hee shall wash his clothes, and be cleane.

7 But if the scab growe more in the skin, after that hee is seene of the Priest, for to be purged, hee shall be seene of the Priest yet againe.

8 Then the Priest shall consider, and if the scab growe in the skin, then the Priest shall pronounce him vncleane: for it is leprosie.

9 When the plague of leprosie is in a man, hee shall be brought vnto the Priest,

10 And the Priest shall see him: and if the swelling be white in the skinne, and haue made the haire white, and there bee raw flesh in the swelling,

11 It is an olde leprosie in the skinned of his flesh; and the Priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up, for he is unclean.

12 Also if the leprosie breake out in the skinned, and the leprosie cover all the skinned of the plague, from his head, even to his feet, where so ever the Priest looketh.

13 Then the Priest shall consider: and if the leprosie cover all his flesh, hee shall pronounce the plague to be cleane, because it is all turned into whitenesse: so he shall be cleane.

14 But if there be raw flesh on him when he is seene, he shall be unclean.

15 For the Priest shall see the raw flesh, and declare him to be unclean: for the raw flesh is unclean, therefore it is the leprosie.

16 And if the raw flesh change and be turned into white, then hee shall come to the Priest.

17 And the Priest shall behold him: and if the sore be changed into white, then the Priest shall pronounce the plague cleane, for it is cleane.

18 ¶ The flesh also in whose skinned there is a bile, and is healed,

19 And in the place of the bile there be a white swelling, or a white spot somewhat reddish, it shall be seene of the Priest.

20 And when the Priest seeth it, if it appear lower then the skinned, and the haire thereof be changed into white, the Priest then shall pronounce him a unclean: for it is a plague of leprosie, broken out in the bile.

21 But if the Priest looke on it, and there be no white haire therein, and if it be not lower then the skinned, but bee darker, then the Priest shall shut him up seven dayes.

22 And if it spread abroad in the flesh, the Priest shall pronounce him unclean, for it is a sore.

23 But if the spot continue in his place, and grow not, it is a burning bile: therefore the Priest shall declare him to be cleane.

24 ¶ If there be any flesh in whose skin there is an sore burning, and the quicke flesh of the burning haue a white spot somewhat reddish or pale,

25 Then the Priest shall looke upon it: and if the haire in that spot be changed into white, and it appear lower then the skinned, it is a leprosie broken out in the burning: therefore the Priest shall pronounce him unclean: for it is the plague of leprosie.

26 But if the Priest looke on it, and there be no white haire in the spot, and be no lower then the other skinned, but bee darker, then the Priest shall shut him up seven dayes.

27 After, the Priest shall looke on him the seventh day: if it be grown abroad in the skinned, then the Priest shall pronounce him unclean: for it is the plague of leprosie.

28 And if the spot abide in his place, not growing in the skinned, but is darker, it is a swelling of the burning: the Priest shall therefore declare him cleane, for it is the dying up of the burning.

29 ¶ If also a man or woman hath a sore on the head, or in the beard,

30 Then the Priest shall see the sore: and if it appear lower then the skinned, and there be in it a small yellow haire, then the Priest shall pronounce him unclean: for it is a blacke spot, and leprosie of the head or of the beard.

31 And if the Priest looke on the sore of the blacke spot, and if it seeme not lower then the skinned, nor haue any blacke haire in it, then the Priest shall shut up him that hath the sore of the blacke spot, seven dayes.

32 After, in the seventh day the Priest shall looke on the sore: and if the blacke spot grow not, and there be in it no yellow haire, and the blacke spot seeme not lower then the skinned,

33 Then hee shall be shaven, but the place of the blacke spot shall be not shaven: but the Priest shall shut up him, that hath the blacke spot, seven dayes more.

34 And the seventh day the Priest shall looke on the blacke spot: and if the blacke spot grow not in the skinned, nor seeme lower then the other skinned, then the Priest shall cleane him, and he shall wash his clothes, and be cleane.

35 But if the blacke spot grow abroad in the flesh after his cleaning, 36 Then the Priest shall looke on it: and if the blacke spot growe in the skinned, the Priest shall not seeke for the yellow haire: for he is unclean.

37 But if the blacke spot seeme to him to abide, and that blacke haire growe therein, the blacke spot is healed, hee is cleane, and the Priest shall declare him to be cleane.

38 ¶ Furthermore if there be many white spots in the skinned of the flesh of man or woman, 39 Then the Priest shall consider: and if the spots in the skinned of their flesh be somewhat darke and white withall, it is but a white spot broken out in the skinned; therefore he is cleane.

40 And the man whose haire is fallen off his head, and is balde, is cleane.

41 And if his head lose the haire on the forehead, and bee balde before, hee is cleane.

42 But if there be in the balde head, or in the balde forehead a white reddish sore, it is a leprosie springing in his balde head, or in his bald forehead.

43 Therefore the Priest shall looke upon it, and if the rising of his sore be white reddish in his balde head, or in his balde forehead, appearing like leprosie in the skinned of the flesh, 44 Hee is a leper and unclean: therefore the Priest shall pronounce him altogether unclean: for the sore is in his head.

45 The leper also in whom the plague is, shall haue his clothes rent, and his head bare, and shall put a covering upon his lips, and shall cry, I am unclean, I am unclean.

46 As long as the disease shall be upon him, he shall be polluted, for hee is unclean: hee shall

50 Then the Priest shall see the plague, and shut vp it that hath the plague, seven dayes,

51 And shall looke on the plague the seuenth day : if the plague growe in the garment, or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in the skinne, or in any thing that is made of skinne, that plague is a fretting leprosie and vncleane.

52 And hee shall burne the garment, or the warpe, or the woofe, whether it be woollen, or linnen, or any thing that is made of skinne, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosie, therefore it shall be burnt in the fire.

53 If the Priest yet see that the plague growe not in the garment, or in the woofe, or in the warpe, whether it be of skinne it be,

54 Then the Priest shall command them to wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shall shut it vp seven dayes more.

55 Again the Priest shall looke on the plague, after it is washed: and if the plague haue not changed his colour, though the plague spread no further, it is vncleane: thou shalt burne it in the fire, for it is a fret inward, whether the spot be in the bare place of the whole, or in part thereof.

56 And if the Priest see that the plague be darker, after that it is washed, he shall cut it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warpe, or out of the woofe.

57 And if it appeare still in the garment, or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in any thing made of skin, it is a spreading leprosie: thou shalt burne the thing wherein the plague is, in the fire.

58 If thou hast washed the garment, or the warpe, or the woofe, or whatsoeuer thing of skinne it be, if the plague be departed therefrom, then shall it be washed the second time, and be cleane.

4 Then shall the Priest command to take for him that is cleansed, two sparrows aline and * cleane, and cedar wood, and a scarlet lace, and hyssope.

5 And the Priest shall command to kill one of the birds ouer * pure water in an earthen vessel.

6 After, hee shall take the liue sparrowe with the cedar wood, and his scarlet lace, and the hyssope, and shall dip them and the liuing sparrowe in the blood of the sparrowe slaine ouer the pure water,

7 And hee shall sprinkle vpon him that must bee cleansed of his leprosie, seven times, and cleanse him, and shall let goe the liue sparrowe into the broad field.

8 Then be that shall be cleansed, shall wash his clothes, and shall waite off all his haire, and wash himselfe in water, so hee shall be cleane: after that shall hee come into the holte, but shall tary without his tent seven dayes.

9 So in the seuenth day hee shall haue off all his haire, both his head and his beards, and his eye browes: euen all his haire shall hee shauie, and shall wash his clothes, and shall wash his flesh in water: so hee shall be cleane.

10 Then in the eight day hee shall take two bee lambs without blemish, and an ewe lambe of a yeere olde without blemish, and thre tenth deales of fine flower for a meate offering mingled with oyle, and a pint of oyle.

11 And the Priest that maketh him cleane, shall lay the man which is to bee made cleane, and those things before the Lord, at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

12 Then the Priest shall take one lambe, and offer him for a trespass offering, and the pint of oyle, and * shake them to and fro before the Lord.

13 And he shall kill the lambe in the place where the sinne offering and the burnt offering are slaine, euen in the holy place: for as the sinne offering is the Priests, so is the trespass offering: for it is most holy.

14 So the Priest shall take of the blood of the trespass offering, and put it vpon the lapp of the right eare of him that shall be cleansed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, and vpon the great toe of his right foot.

15 The Priest shall also take of the pint of oyle, and powre it into the palme of his left hand.

16 And the Priest shall dippe his * right finger in the oyle that is in his left hand, and sprinkle of the oyle with his finger, seven times before the Lord.

the Priest's hand, hee shall put upon the head of him that is to bee cleansed: so the Priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord.

19 And the Priest shall offer the sinne offering, and make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed of his uncleanness: then after shall he kill the burnt offering.

20 So the Priest shall offer the burnt offering, and the meat offering upon the altar: and the Priest shall make an atonement for him: so he shall be cleane.

21 But if he be poore, and is not able, then he shall bring one Lambe for a trespass offering, and a tenth deale of fine flour mingled with oyle, for a meate offering, with a plate of oyle.

23 And hee shall bring them the right day for his cleansing unto the Priest at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the Lord.

24 Then the Priest shall take the lambe of the trespass offering, and the pinte of oyle, and the Priest shall shake them to and fro before the Lord.

25 And he shall kill the lambe of the trespass offering, and the Priest shall take the blood of the trespass offering, and put it upon the lappe of his right eare that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumbe of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foote.

26 Also the Priest shall put of the oyle into the palle of his owne left hand.

27 So the Priest shall wash his right finger, & sprinkle of the oyle that is in his left hand, seven times before the Lord.

28 Then the Priest shall pur of the oyle that is in his hand, upon the lappe of the right eare of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumbe of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foote: upon the place of the blood of the trespass offering.

29 But the rest of the oyle that is in the Priest's hand, hee shall put upon the head of him that is to be cleansed, to make an atonement for him before the Lord.

30 Also hee shall present one of the turtle doves, or of the young pigeons, as he is able:

31 Such, I say, as he is able, the one for a sinne offering, and the other for a burnt offering: with the meat offering: so the Priest shall make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed before the Lord.

32 This is the Lawe of him which hath the plague of leprosie, who is not able in his cleansing to offer the whole.

33 ¶ The Lord also spake unto Moses, and to Aaron, saying,

34 When ye be come unto the land of Canaan which I give you in possession, if I send the plague of leprosie in an house of the land of your possession,

35 Then hee that sweeth the house, shall come and tell the Priest, saying, We thinke there is like a plague of leprosie in the house.

36 Then the Priest shall command them to empty the house before the Priest goe in to it to see the plague, that all that is in the house be not made unclean, and then shall the Priest goe in to see the house,

37 And hee shall marke the plague: and if the plague bee in the wall of the house, and that there bee deepe spots, greenish or reddish, which seeme to bee lower then the wall,

38 Then the Priest shall goe out of the house to the doore of the house, and shall cause to shut up the house seven dayes.

39 So the Priest shall come againe the seventh day: and if he see that the plague be increased in the walls of the house, 40 Then the Priest shall command them to take away the stones wherem the plague is, and they shall cast them into a foule place without the cite.

41 Also hee shall cause to scrape the house within round about, and powre the dust, that they haue yared off, without the cite in an unclean place.

42 And they shall take other stones, and put them in the places of those stones, and shall take other mortar, to plaister the house with.

43 But if the plague come againe, and breake out in the house, after that hee hath taken away the stones, and after that hee hath scraped and plaistered the house,

44 Then the Priest shall come and see: and if the plague growe in the house, it is a fretting leprosie in the house: it is therefore unclean.

45 And he shall breake downe the house, with the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the matter of the house, and he shall carie them out of the cite into an unclean place.

46 Whomever he that goeth into the house all the while that it is shut up, he shall be unclean untill the even.

47 He also that sleepeth in the house, shall wash his clothes: hee likewise that eateth in the house, shall wash his clothes.

48 But if the Priest shall come and see that the plague hath spread no further in the house after the house be plaistered, the Priest shall pronounce that house cleane, for the plague is healed.

49 Then shall he take to purifie the house, two sparrows, and cedar wood, and scarlet lace, and hyssope.

50 And he shall kill one Sparrow ouer pure water in an earthen vessel.

51 And shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssope, and the scarlet lace with the live Sparrow, and dip them in the blood of the flaine Sparrow, and in the pure water, and sprinkle the house seven times:

52 So shall hee cleanse the house with the blood of the Sparrow, and with the pure water, and with the live Sparrow, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssope, and with the scarlet lace.

53 Afterward he shall let goe the live Sparrow out of the towne into the broad field:

55 And of the leprosie of the garment, and of the house,

56 And of the swelling, and of the scab, and of the white spot,

57 This is the law of the leprosie to teach * when a thing is vncleane, and when it is cleane.

CHAP. XV.

2. 19 The maner of purging the vncleane issue, both of men and women. 31. The children of Israel must be separate from all vncleane thing.

Moreouer the Lord spake vnto Moses, and to Aaron, saying,

2 Speake vnto the chylde of Israel, and say vnto them, Whosoever hath an issue from his flesh, is vncleane, because of his issue.

3 And this shall be his vncleannesse in his issue: when his flesh annoyeth his issue, or if his flesh be stopped from his issue, this is his vncleannesse.

4 Every bed whereon he lieth that hath the issue, shall be vncleane, and every thing whereon he sitteth shall be vncleane.

5 Whosoever also toucheth his bed, shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

6 And be that sitteth on any thing whereon hee late that hath the issue, shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

7 Also hee that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue, shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

8 If he also that hath the issue, spit vpon him that is cleane, he shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

9 And what * saddle soeuer hee rideth vpon, that hath the issue, shall be vncleane.

10 And whosoever toucheth any thing that was vnder him shall be vncleane vntill the euen: and he that beareth those things shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

11 Likewise whosoever hee toucheth that hath the issue (and hath not washed his hands in water) shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

12 * And the vessell of earth that hee toucheth, which hath the issue, shall be broken: and every vessell of wood shall be rinsed in water.

13 But if he that hath an issue, be * cleansed of his issue, then shall he count him seven dayes for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and wash his flesh in pure water: so shall hee be cleane.

14 Then the eight day he shall take vnto him two turtle doves, or two yong pigeons, and come before the Lord at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and shall giue them vnto the Priest.

15 And the Priest shall make of the one of them a sinne offering, and of the other a burnt offering: so the Priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord, for his issue.

16 Also if any mans issue of seed depart from him, he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be vncleane vntill the euen.

17 And every garment, and every skinne whereupon shall be issue of seed, shall be euen washed with water, and be vncleane vnto the euen.

18 If he that hath an issue of seed, doe lie with a woman, they shall both wash themselves with water, and be vncleane vntill the euen.

19 * And when a woman shall haue an issue, and her issue in her flesh shall be blood, shee shall put apart seven dayes: and whosoever toucheth her, shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

20 And whatsoeuer he lieth vpon in her separation, shall be vncleane, and every thing that he sitteth vpon, shall be vncleane.

21 Whosoever also toucheth her bed, shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vntill the euen.

22 And whosoever toucheth any thing that shee lay vpon, shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vnto the euen.

23 So that whether hee touch her bed, or any thing whereon shee hath lied, he shall be vncleane vnto the euen.

24 And if a man lie with her, & the flowers of her separation * touch him, he shall be vncleane seven dayes: and all the whole bed whereon he lieth, shall be vncleane.

25 Also when a womans issue of blood runneth long time belides the time of her * flowers, or when shee hath an issue longer then her flowers, all the dayes of the issue of her vncleannesse, she shall be vncleane, as in the time of her flowers.

26 Every bed whereon she lieth (as long as her issue lasteth) shall be to her as her * bed of her separation: and whatsoeuer she lieth vpon, shall be vncleane, as her vncleannesse when she is put apart.

27 And whosoever toucheth these things, shall be vncleane, and shall wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be vncleane vnto the euen.

28 But if she be cleansed of her issue, then she shall * count her seven dayes, and after, she shall be cleane.

29 And in the eight day she shall take vnto her two turtles, or two yong pigeons, and bring them vnto the Priest at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

30 And the Priest shall make of the one a sinne offering, and of the other a burnt offering, and the Priest shall make an atonement for her before the Lord, for the issue of her vncleannesse.

31 Thus shall ye * separate the chylde of Israel from their vncleannesse, that they die not in their vncleannesse, if they defile my Tabernacle that is among them.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Priest might not at all times come into the most holy place. 2 The Scape goats. 3 The purging of the Sanctuary. 4 The cleansing of the Tabernacle. 5 The Priest cleanse the sinnes of the people. 6 The feast of cleansing sinnes.

Aftermore the Lord spake unto Moses, after the death of the two sonnes of Aaron, when they came to offer before the Lord, and died:

2 And the Lord said unto Moses, Speake unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the holy place within the vail, before the Mercieseat, which is upon the Arke, that he die not: for I will appeare in the cloud vpon the Mercieseat.

3 After this for shall Aaron come into the holy place: even with a young bullocke for a sinne offering, and a ramme for a burnt offering.

4 He shall put on the holy linnen coate, and shall haue linnen breeches vpon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linnen girdle, and shall couer his head with a linnen mitre: these are the holy garments: therefore shall hee wash his flesh in water, when he doeth put them on.

5 And he shall take of the Congregation of the children of Israel, two hee goats for a sinne offering, and a ramme for a burnt offering.

6 Then Aaron shall offer the bullocke for this sinne offering, and make an atonement for himselfe, and for his house.

7 And he shall take the two hee goats, & present them before the Lord at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

8 Then Aaron shall cast lots ouer the two hee goats: one lot for the Lord, and the other lot for the Scape goat.

9 And Aaron shall offer the goat, vpon which the Lords lot shall fall, and make him a sinne offering.

10 But the goat, on which the lot shall fall to be the Scape goat, shall be presented aliuie before the Lord, to make reconciliation by him, and to let him go (as a Scape goat) into the wilderness.

11 Thus Aaron shall offer the bullocke for his sinne offering, and make a reconciliation for himselfe, and for his house, and shall kill the bullocke for his sinne offering.

12 And he shall take a censer full of burning coales from off the altar before the Lord, and his hand full of sweet incense beaten small, and bring it within the vail,

13 And shall put the incense vpon the fire before the Lord, that the cloud of the incense may couer the Mercieseat that is vpon the Testimony: so he shall not die.

14 And he shall take of the blood of the bullocke, and shall sprinkle it with his finger vpon the Mercieseat: Eastward: and before the Mercieseat shall hee sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times.

15 Then shall he kill the goat that is the peoples sinne offering, & bring his blood within the vail, and do with that blood, as he did with the blood of the bullocke, and shall sprinkle it vpon the Mercieseat, and before the Mercieseat.

16 So shall he purge the holy place from the uncleannesse of the children of Israel, and from their trespasses of all their sinnes: so shall hee also for the Tabernacle of the Congregation: placed with them, in the midst of their uncleannesse.

17 And there shall be no man in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, when he goeth in to make an atonement in the holy place, untill he come out, and haue made an attonement for himselfe, and for his household, and for all the Congregation of Israel.

18 After, he shall goe out vnto the altar that is before the Lord, and make a reconciliation vpon it, and shall take of the blood of the bullocke, and of the blood of the goat, and put it vpon the hornes of the altar round about:

19 So shall hee sprinkle of the blood vpon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and shallow it from the uncleannesse of the children of Israel.

20 Likewise hee hath made an end of purging the holy place, and the Tabernacle of the Congregation, & the altar, then hee shall bring the linc goat:

21 And Aaron shall put both his hands vpon the head of the linc goat, and confesse ouer him all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their trespasses, in all their sinnes, putting them vpon the head of the goat, and shall send him away (by the hand of a man appointed) into the wilderness.

22 So the goat shall beare vpon him all their iniquities into the land that is not inhabited, and he shall let the goat go into the wilderness.

23 After, Aaron shall come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and put off the linnen clothes, which hee put on when he went into the holy place, and leaue them there.

24 He shall wash also his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his owne rayment, and come out, and make his burnt offering, and the burnt offering of the people, and make an atonement for himselfe, and for the people.

25 And the fat of the sinne offering shall hee burne vpon the altar.

26 And hee that carried forth the goat, called the Scape goat, shall wash his clothes, and wash his flesh in water, and after that shall come into the holie.

27 Also the bullocke for the burnt offering, and the goat for the sinne offering (whose blood was brought to make a reconciliation in the holy place) shall one carry out without the holie to be burnt in the fire, with their skinned, and with their flesh, and with their dung.

28 And he that burneth them shall wash his clothes, and wash his flesh in water, and afterward come into the holie.

CHAP. XVII.

4 All sacrifices must be brought to the doore of the Tabernacle. 7 To devils may they not offer. 10 They may not eate blood.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto Aaron, and to his sonnes, and to all the children of Israel, and say unto them, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded, saying,

3 Whosoever he be of the house of Israel, that killeth a bullocke, or lambe, or goat in the hoste, or that killeth it out of the hoste,

4 And bringeth it not unto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation to offer an offering unto the Lord before the Tabernacle of the Lord, blood shall be imputed unto that man: hee hath shedde blood, wherefore that man shall be cut off from among his people.

5 Therefore the children of Israel shall bring their offerings, which they would offer abroad in the feldes, and present them unto the Lord at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation by the Priest, and offer them for peace offerings unto the Lord.

6 Then the Priest shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar of the Lord before the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and burne the fat for a sweete savour unto the Lord.

7 And they shall no more offer their offerings unto devils, after whom they have gone: a whoring; this shall be an ordinance for ever unto them in their generations.

8 Also thou shalt say unto them, Whosoever he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers which sojourn among them, that offereth a burnt offering of sacrifice,

9 And bringeth it not unto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation to offer it unto the Lord, even that man shall be cut off from his people.

10 Likewise whosoever hee be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among them, that eateth any blood, I will even set my face against that person that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people:

11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it unto you to offer upon the Altar, to make an atonement for your souls: for this blood shall make an atonement for the soule.

12 Therefore I say unto the children of Israel, None of you shall eate blood, neither the stranger that sojourneth among you, shall eate blood.

13 Whosoever, whosoever he be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among them, which by hunting take any beast or foule that may be eaten, he shall pour out the blood thereof, and cover it with dust:

14 For the life of all flesh is his blood, it is joyed with his life: therefore I say unto the children of Israel, Per shall eate the blood of no flesh: for the life of all flesh is the blood thereof: whosoever eateth it, shall be cut off.

15 And every person that eateth it, which dieth alone, or that which is come with beasts, whether it be one of the same country, or a stranger, he shall both wash his clothes, and wash himself in water, and be unclean unto the even: after hee shall be a cleane.

16 But if hee wash them not, nor wash his flesh, then shall hee beare his iniquity.

20 Likewise the man that lieth with his fathers wives wife, and uncovereth his uncles shame: they shall bear their iniquity, and shall die a childless.

21 So the man that taketh his brothers wife, committeth filchiness, because her hath uncovered his brothers shame: they shall be childless.

22 And he that keepeth these things, all ordinances and all judgments, and doe them, that the land, whither I bring you to dwell therein, shall not cut you out.

23 Therefore ye shall not make in the manner of this nation, which I said out before you: for they have committed all these things: therefore I abhorred them.

24 But I have said unto you, Ye shall inherit their land, and I will give it unto you to possess it, even a land that floweth with milke and honey: I am the Lord your God, which have separated you from other people.

25 Therefore shall ye put difference betweene cleane beasts and uncleane, and betweene cleane soules and cleane: neither shall ye defile yourselves with beasts and soules, nor with any creeping thing, that the ground bringeth forth, which I have separated from you as unclean.

26 Therefore shall ye be holy unto mee: for I the Lord am holy, and I have separated you from other people, that ye should be mine.

27 And if a man or woman have a spirit of divination, or soothsaying in them, they shall die the death, they shall hang them to death, their blood shall be upon them.

CHAP. XXI.

28 For whom the Priests may Lament. 6 How pure the Priests ought to be, both in themselves, and in their Family.

And the Lord saide unto Moses, Speake unto the Elders the sonnes of Aaron, and say unto them, Let none be defiled by the dead among his people,

But by his kinsman that is next unto him: as by his mother, or by his father, or by his brother, or by his sisters, or by his brothers.

3 But by his sister a mayne, that is next unto him, which hath not had a husband: for her he may lament.

4 He shall not lament for the Prince among his people to pollute himselfe.

5 They shall not make bald partes upon their head, nor shave off the lockes of their beards, nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

6 They shall be holy unto their God, and not pollute the Name of their God: for the sacrifices of the Lord made by fire, and the bread of their God they doe offer: therefore they shall be holy.

7 They shall not take to wife a widow, or one polluted, neither shall they marry a woman divorced from her husband: for such one is holy unto the Lord.

8 Thou shalt sanctifie him therefore, for he offereth the bread of thy God: he shall be holy unto thee: for I the Lord, which sanctifie you am holy.

9 If a daughters daughter fall to play the whore, she polluteth her father: therefore shall she be burnt with fire.

10 And the he Priest among his brethren, (upon whose head the anoynting oyle was poured, and hath consecrated his hand to put on the garments) shall not uncover his head, nor rent his clothes.

11 Neither shall he goe to any dead body, nor make himselfe unclean by his father, or by his mother.

12 Neither shall he goe out of the Sanctuary, nor pollute the holy place of his God: for the crown of the anoynting oyle of his God is upon him: I am the Lord.

13 And he that taketh a maid unto his wife: 14 As a widow, or a divorced woman, or a polluted, or an harlot, these shall he not marry, but shall take a mayd of his owne people to wife.

15 Neither shall he defile his seed among his people: for I am the Lord which sanctifie him.

16 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

17 Speake unto Aaron, and say, Whosoever of thy seed in their generations hath any blemishes, shall not preale to offer the bread of his God:

18 For whosoever hath any blemish, shall not come neere: as a man blinde or lame, or that hath a flat nose, or that hath any misshapen member,

19 Or a man that hath a broken foote, or a broken hand,

20 Or a crooked backe, or bleare eyes, or hath a blemish in his eye, or bee scurful, or scabbed, or hath his stones broken.

21 None of the seed of Aaron the Priest that hath a blemish, shall come neere to offer the sacrifices of the Lord made by fire, having a blemish: he shall not preale to offer the bread of his God.

22 The head of his God, even of the most holy, and of the holy shall he care:

AND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, The feasts of the Lord, which ye shall call the holy assemblies, these are my feasts:

1. Seven days ye shall worship before the Lord in the seventh day shall be the Sabbath of rest, an holy convocation: ye shall do no manner of work, it is the Sabbath of the Lord in all your dwellings.

2. These are the feasts of the Lord, and holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons.

3. In the first month, and in the fourteenth day of the month at evening shall be the passover of the Lord.

4. And on the fifteenth day of this month shall be the feast of unleavened bread unto the Lord: seven days ye shall eat unleavened bread.

5. In the first day ye shall have an holy convocation: ye shall do no manner of work therein.

6. And ye shall offer sacrifices made by fire unto the Lord seven days, in the seventh day shall be an holy convocation: ye shall do no manner of work therein.

7. And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Ye shall keep the feast of the first fruits of your harvest unto the Lord, that it may be acceptable unto you: the immolation of the feasts shall be the first fruits of your harvest unto the Lord.

8. And that day when ye make the harvest, shall ye prepare a heave offering of the first fruits of your harvest unto the Lord: and ye shall do no manner of work therein.

9. And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Ye shall keep the feast of the first fruits of your harvest unto the Lord, that it may be acceptable unto you: the immolation of the feasts shall be the first fruits of your harvest unto the Lord.

10. And that day when ye make the harvest, shall ye prepare a heave offering of the first fruits of your harvest unto the Lord: and ye shall do no manner of work therein.

Levit. 23. 12. John 7. 37.

Exod. 29. 18. p Or, a day wherein the people are stayed from all works.

20 And thou shalt not sow thy seed, nor cut thy vintage.

21 That which groweth of it, ye shall eat of the harvest, thou shalt not reap, neither gather the grapes that thou hast left unplanted: for it shall be a year of rest unto the land.

22 And the rest of the land shall be meat for you, even for thee, and for thy servant, and for the maid, and for the hired servant, and for the stranger that sojourneth with thee.

23 And for thy cattle, and for the beasts that are in thy land, shall all the increase thereof be meat.

24 And thou shalt number seven Sabaths of years unto thee, even seven times seven years: and the space of the seven Sabaths of years shall be unto thee nine and four years.

25 Then thou shalt cause to blow the trumpet of the Jubile in the tenth day of the seventh month: in the day of the reconciliation shall ye make the trumpet blow, throughout all your land.

26 And ye shall hallow that year, even the seventh year, a jubile of liberty in the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be the Jubile unto you, and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and every man shall return unto his family.

27 The seventh year shall be a year of Jubile unto you: ye shall not sow, neither reap that which groweth of it, neither gather the grapes thereof, that are left unplanted.

28 For it is the Jubile, it shall be holy unto you: ye shall eat of the increase thereof out of the field.

29 In the year of this Jubile, ye shall return every man unto his possession.

30 And when thou shalt ought to thy neighbour, or direct at thy neighbour's hand, ye shall not oppress one another.

31 But according to the number of years after the Jubile thou shalt buy of thy neighbour: also according to the number of the years of the revenues, he shall sell unto thee.

32 According to the multitude of years, thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years, thou shalt abate the price thereof: for the number of years doth he sell unto thee.

33 Oppress not ye: therefore any man his neighbour, but thou shalt fear thy God: for I am the Lord your God.

34 Wherefore ye shall hate every mine of dishonest gain: keep ye Levites, and do their laws, and ye shall dwell in the land I have given you.

35 And the land shall give her fruit, and ye shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety.

36 And if ye shall say, What shall we eat the seventh year, for we shall not sow nor gather in our increase?

37 I will send my blessing upon you in these years, and shall bring down plenty of fruit for you.

38 And ye shall have the eighth year, and eat of the old fruit until the ninth year:

until the fruit thereof come, ye shall eat the old.

39 All the land shall not be sold to be cut off from the family: for the land is mine, and ye be but strangers and sojourners with me.

40 Therefore in all the land of your possession ye shall grant a redemption for the land.

41 If thy brother be impoverished, and sell his possession, then his redeemer shall come, even his nearest kinsman, and buyout that which his brother sold.

42 And if he have no redeemer, but that gotten and found to buy it out,

43 Then shall he count the prices of his sale, and restore the overplus to the man, to whom he sold it: so shall he return to his possession.

44 But if he cannot get sufficient to restore to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him that hath bought it, until the year of the Jubile: and in the Jubile it shall come out, and he shall return unto his possession.

45 Likewise if a man sell a dwelling house in a walled city: he may buy it out againe within a whole year after it is sold: within a year may he buy it out.

46 But if it be not bought out within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city, shall be established, & as cut off from the Jubile: to him that bought it, throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the Jubile.

47 But the houses of strangers, which have no houses round about them, shall be esteemed as the field of the country: they may be bought out againe, and shall go out in the Jubile.

48 Notwithstanding, the cities of the Levites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Levites redeem at all seasons.

49 And if a man purchase of the Levites, the house that was sold, and the city of their possession shall go out in the Jubile: for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.

50 But the field of the suburbs of their cities shall not be sold: for it is their perpetual possession.

51 Wherefore, if thy brother be impoverished, and fallen in decay with thee, thou shalt relieve him, and as a stranger and sojourner, so shall he live with thee.

52 Thou shalt take no usury of him, nor vengeance: but thou shalt fear thy God, that thy brother may live with thee.

53 Thou shalt not give him thy money to usury, nor lend him thy viaticum for increase.

54 I am the Lord your God, which have brought you out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

55 If thy brother also that dwelleth by thee, be impoverished, and be sold unto thee, thou shalt not compel him to serve as a bond servant.

42. For they are my seruants, whome I brought out of the land of Egypt: they shall not be sold as bondmen are sold.

43. Thou shalt not rule ouer him cruelly, but shalt feare thy God.

44. Thy bond seruant also, and thy bond maide, which thou shalt haue, shall bee of the heathen that are round about you: of them shall ye buy seruants and maidens.

45. And moreover of the children of the strangers, that are sojourners among you, of them shall ye buy, and of their families that are with you, which they begat in your land: these shall be your possession.

46. So ye shall take them as inheritance for your children after you, to possesse them by inheritance, yee shall be their labours for euer: but ouer your brethren the children of Israel ye shall not rule one ouer another with crueltye.

Ye shall make you none idols nor graven image, neither reare you up any pillar, neither shall ye set any image of stone in your land to bow downe to it: for I am the Lord your God.

2 Ye shall keepe my Sabbaths, and reverence my Sanctuaries: I am the Lord.

3 If ye walke in mine ordinances, and keepe my Commandments, and doe them,

4 I will then send you raine in due season, and the land shall bring forth her increase, and the trees of the field shall giue their fruite.

5 And your threshing shall reach vnto the vintage, and the vintage shall reach vnto sowing time, and you shall eat your bread in plenteousnesse, and dwell in your houses safely.

6 And I will send peace in the land, and ye shall sleepe and none shall make you afraid: also I will rid you of all beasts out of the land, and the sword shall not goe thorow your land.

7 Also ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you vpon the sword.

8 And thus of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight, and your enemies shall fall before you vpon the sword.

9 For I will haue respect vnto you, and make you increase, and multiply you, & establish my Covenant with you.

10 Ye shall eat also old store, and carie out olde because of the new.

11 And I will set my Tabernacle among you, and my soule shall not lothe you.

12 Also I will walke among you, and I will be your God, and yee shall be my people.

13 I am the Lord your God which haue brought you out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their bondmen, and I haue broken the bonds of your yoke, and made you goe free.

14 But if ye will not obey me, nor doe all these Commandments,

15 And if ye shall despise mine ordinances, either if your soules abhorre my lawes, so that ye will not doe all my Commandments, but breake my Covenant,

16 Then will I also doe this vnto you, I will appoint ouer you fearefulness, a consumption, and the burning ague to consume the eyes, and make the heart deafe, and you shall loue your seede in vaine: for your enemies shall eat it.

17 And I will set my face against you, and ye shall fall before your enemies, and they that hate you, shall reigne ouer you, and ye shall see when none pursueth you.

18 And if yee will not for these things obey mee, then will I punish you: seven times more according to your sinnes.

19 And I will breake the pride of your power, & I will make your heauen as yron, and your earth as brasse.

36 And upon them that are left of you, will send even a faintnesse into their hearts in the land of their enemies, and the sound of a leafe shaken shall chaile them, and they shall flee as fleeing from a wind, and they shall fall, no man pursuing them.

as before, & weak, though some pursue them and yet shall not be able to stand before you entirely: & the strength of many of us is such,

40 Then they shall confesse their iniquitie, and the wickedness of their fathers for their trespass, which they have trespassed against mee, and also because they have walked subornely against me.

41 Therefore I will waite stubbornly against them, and bring them into the lande of their enemies: so then their uncircumcised hearts shall bee humbled, and then they shall willingly bear the punishment of their iniquitie.

42. Then I will remember my covenant with Isaac, and my covenant also with Jacob, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember. I will remember the land.

43 "The land also in the meantime shall be left of them, and shall enjoy her Sabbaths while the lieth waste without them, but they shall willingly suffer the punishment of their iniquities; because they despised my lawes, and because their soule abhorred mine admonitions.

44 Yet notwithstanding this, when they shall be in the land of their enemies,* I will not cast them away, neither will I abhorre them, to destroy them utterly, nor to break my covenant with them: for I am the Lord their God:

48 But I will remember for them the covenant of old when I brought them out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heaven: then that I might be their God: I am the Lord.

46. These are the ordinances, and the judgments, and the laws, which the Lord made between him, & the children of Israel in mount Sinai, by the hand of Moses.

noted, so shall the Priest value him.

9 And if he be a beast whereof men bring an offering unto the Lord, all that one giveth of such unto the Lord shall be holy.

10 Hee shall not alter it nor change it, a good for a bad, nor a bad for a good: and if he change beast for beast, then both this and that, which was changed for it, shall bee a holy.

11 And if it be any unclean beast, of which men doe not offer a sacrifice unto the Lord, hee shall then present a beast before the Priest.

12 And the Priest shall value it, whether it bee good or bad: and as thou valuest it, which as the Priest, so shall it be.

13 But if hee will buy it againe, then he shall give the fifth part of it more, above thy valuation.

14 If also when a man shall dedicate his house to bee holy unto the Lord, then the Priest shall value it, whether it bee good or bad, and as the Priest shall price it, so shall the value be.

15 But if he be sanctified it, will redeem his house, then hee shall give thereto the fifth part of money more then thy estimation, and it shall be his.

16 If also a man dedicate to the Lord any ground of his inheritance, then shall thou estimate it according to the seed thereof: an homer of barley seed shall be at fiftie shekels of silver.

17 If hee dedicate his felds immediately from the year of Jubilee, it shall be worth as thou dost estimate it.

18 But if he dedicate his felds after the Jubilee, then the Priest shall reckon him the money according to the years that remaine unto the year of Jubilee, and it shall be abated by thy estimation.

19 And if hee that dedicated it, will re-deeme the feld, then hee shall put the fifth part of the price, that thou esteemedst it at, there-unto, and it shall remaine his.

20 And if hee will not redeeme the feld, but the Priest sell the felds to another man,
it shall be redeemed no more.

21 But the feld shall be holy to the Lord, when it goeth out in the Jubilee, as a feld separate from common uses: the possession thereof shall be the Priest's.

22 If a man also dedicate unto the Lord a feld, which he hath bought, which is not of the ground of his inheritance,

23 Then the Priest shall set the price to him, as thou esteemedst it, unto the year of Jubilee, and he shall give the price the same day, as a thing holy unto the Lord.

24 But in the year of Jubilee, the feld shall returne unto him, of whom it was bought: to him, I say, whose inheritance the land was.

25 And all thy valuation shall be according to the shekel of the Sanctuary: a she-kel contained twenty geras.

26 If also withstanding the first borne of the beastes, because it is the Lords first borne, none shall dedicate such, be it bullocke or heepe: for it is the Lords.

27 But if it be an unclean beast, then he shall redeeme it by the valuation, and give the fifth part more thereto: and if it bee not redeemed, then it shall be sold, according to thy estimation.

28 If also withstanding, nothing separate from the common use, that a man hath separate unto the Lord of all that he hath (whether it be man or beast, or land of his inheritance) may be sold nor redeemed: for every thing separate from the common use, is most holy unto the Lord.

29 Nothing separate from the common use, which shall be separate from man, shall be redeemed, but it is the Lords.

30 Also all the title of the land, both of the felds of the grounds, and of the fruit of the trees is the Lords: as holy to the Lord.

31 But if a man will redeeme any of his title, he shall add the fifth part thereto.

32 And every title of bullock, or of heepe, or of all that goeth under the yoke, the tenth shall be holy unto the Lord.

33 We shall not loose it if hee goeth to bad, neither shall he change it: els if he change it,
both it, and that it was changed withall, shall be holy, and it shall not be redeemed.

34 These are the commandments which the Lord commanded by Moses unto the children of Israel in mount Sinai.

The fourth booke of Moses called Numbers.

THE ARGUMENT

Orasmuch as God hath appointed that his Church in this world shall be under the cross, both because they should learne not to put their trust in worldly things, and also because they should see that other things be better, he did use straight way bring his people after their departure out of Egypt, and the land which he promised them, but led them to and fro for the space of forty years, and kept them in continual exercises, before they enjoyed it, to wise their faith, & to teach them to forget the world and to depend on him, which will do greatly profite to discipline the wicked and the hypocrites from the faithfull and true servants of God, who loved him with true heart, whereas the others preferring their carnall affections to Gods glory, and seeking religion to serve their purpose, murmured when they lacked to content their lusts, and desired them whom God had appointed rulers over them, by reason whereof they provoked Gods terrible judgments against them, and are for sooth as a most terrible example for all persons how they should love God, and preferre their owne lusts to his will, or despise his ministration, knowing that God is true in his promise, and governeth his Church by his holy Spirit,

Againe, when they fall not to such inconsiderations, or else, suppose him quickly by interceptions, and therefore he comforted his grace, and there, he brought them out of the wilderness and then made them fight against their enemies. And so the people all over the world, who he taken away the afflictions, by dividing among all the tribes, which the Lord which they had chosen, and which he had promised, as a reward best to his godly wisdom.

2 Moses and Aaron with the twelve princes of the tribes are appointed of the Lord to number them, that every tribe may be knowne. 49 These gates and cover the * candlestick of light with his lampes, and his censers, * and his bosome dishes, and all the oyle vessels thereof, which they occupy about it.

10 And they shall put it, and all the instruments thereof in a covering of badgers skins, and put it upon the barres.

11 Also upon the golden altar they shall spread a cloth of blue like, and cover it with a covering of badgers skins, and put to the barres thereof.

12 And they shall take all the instruments of the ministry wherewith they minister in the Sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue like, and cover them with a covering of badgers skins, and put them on the barres.

13 Also they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth upon it.

14 And shall put upon it all the instruments thereof, which they occupy about it: the censers, the bosome dishes, and the bosome, and the bosome, even all the instruments of the altar: and they shall spread upon it a covering of badgers skins, and put to the barres of it.

15 And when Aaron and his sonnes have made an ende of covering the * Sanctuary, and all the instruments of the Sanctuary, at the removing of the host, afterward the sonnes of Kohath shall come to deare it, but they shall not touch any holy thing, least they die. This is the charge of the sonnes of Kohath in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

16 And to the office of Eleazar & sonne of Aaron the High Priest pertained the oyle for the light, and the * sweet incense, & the * daily meate offering, and the * anointing oyle, with the oversight of all the Tabernacle, and of all that therein is, both in the Sanctuary, and in all the instruments thereof.

17 And the Lord spake unto Moses, and to Aaron saying,

18 Per shall not cut off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Leuites:

19 But thus doe unto them, that they may live and not die, when they come neere to the most holy things: let Aaron and his sonnes come and appoint them, every one to his office, and to his charge.

20 But let them not go in, to see when the Sanctuary is golden by, least they die.

21 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

22 Take also the summe of the sonnes of Gerſhon, every one by the houses of their fathers throughout their families:

23 From thirty yeere old and above, unto fiftie yeere olde shall thou number them, all that enter into the assembly for to doe service in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

24 This shall be the service of the families of the Gerſhonites, to stand and to beare.

25 They shall beare the curtains of the Tabernacle, & the Tabernacle of the Congregation, his covering, and the covering of badgers skins: that is on his upon it, and the baile of the * boord of the Tabernacle of the Congregation:

the of the Congregation:

26 The curtains also of the Court, and the baile of the railing in of the gate of the Court, which is neere the Tabernacle and neere the altar round about, with their cordes, and all the instruments for their service, and all that is made for them: so shall they serve.

27 At the commandment of Aaron and his sonnes, shall all the service of the sonnes of the Gerſhonites be done, in all their charges, and in all their service, and ye shall appoint them to keepe all their charges.

28 This is the service of the families of the sonnes of the Gerſhonites in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and their watch shall be under the * baule of Aſaphar the sonne of Aaron the High Priest.

29 And thou shalt number the sonnes of Merari by their families, and by the houses of their fathers:

30 From thirty yeere olde and above, even unto fiftie yeere olde shall thou number them, all that enter into the assembly, to doe the service of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

31 And this is their office and charge according to all their service in the Tabernacle of the Congregation: the * boords of the Tabernacle with the barres thereof, and his pillars, and his sockets, 32 And the pillars round about the Court, with their sockets, and their pinnes, and their cordes, with all their instruments, even for all their service: and by * name ye shall reckon the instruments of their office and charge.

33 This is the service of the families of the sonnes of Merari, according to all their service in the Tabernacle of the Congregation under the hand of Aſaphar the sonne of Aaron the High Priest.

34 And then Moses and Aaron and the princes of the Congregation numbered the sonnes of the Kohathites, by their families and by the houses of their fathers, 35 From thirtie yeere olde and above, even unto fiftie yeere olde, all that enter into the assembly for the service of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

36 So the * numbers of them throughout their families were two thousand, seven hundred and fiftie.

37 These are the numbers of the families of the Kohathites, all that serve in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, which Moses and Aaron did number according to the commandment of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

38 Also the numbers of the sonnes of Gerſhon throughout their families and houses of their fathers, 39 From thirty yeere olde and upwards, even unto fiftie yeere olde: all that enter into the assembly, for the service of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

40 So the numbers of them by their families, and by the houses of their fathers were two thousand seven hundred and thirtie.

47 From thirty years old and upward, even to fiftie years old, every one that came to doe his duty, office, service and charge in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

48 So the numbers of them were eight thousand, five hundred and fourscore.

49 According to the commandment of the Lord by the hand of Moses did Aaron number them, every one according to his service, and according to his charge. Thus were they of that tribe numbered, as the Lord commanded Moses.

CHAP. V.

2 The leprous and the polluted shall be cast forth. 6 The purging of sinnes. 15 The trial of the suspected wife.

¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Command the children of Israel, that they put out of the hoste every leper, and every one that hath an issue, and whatsoever is defiled by the dead.

3 Both male and female shall ye put out: out of the hoste shall ye put them, that they defile not their tents among whom I dwell.

4 And the children of Israel did so, and put them out of the hoste, even as the Lord had commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

5 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Speake unto the children of Israel, When a man or woman shall commit any sinne that men commit, and transgresse against the Lord, when that person shall trespass,

7 Then they shall confesse their sinne which they have done, and shall restore the damage thereof with his principall, and put the fifth part of it more thereto, and shall give it unto him, against whom he hath trespassed.

8 But if the man have no kinsman, to whom he should restore the damage, the damage shall be restored to the Lord by the Priests use, besides the Rame of the atonement, whereby he shall make atonement for him.

9 And every offering of all holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring unto the Priest, shall be his.

10 And every mans beloved things shall be his: that is, whatsoever any man giueth the Priest, it shall be his.

11 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

12 Speake unto the children of Israel, A dowry shall be for them, if any mans wife be defiled, and commit a trespass against him,

13 So that another man be taken her flesh, and it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and kept close, & yet she be defiled, and there be no witness against her, neither she taken with the manner,

14 If he be moved with a leuous spirit, so that he is leuous over his wife, which is defiled, or if he have a leuous minde, so that he is leuous over his wife, which is not defiled,

15 Then shall the man bring his wife to the Priest, and bring her offering with her, the tenth part of an Ephah of barley meal, but he shall not put oyle upon it, nor put incense thereon: for it is an offering of jealousy, an offering for a remembrance, calling the sinne to a mind.

16 And the Priest shall bring her, and let her be defiled the Lord.

17 Then the Priest shall take the holy water in an earthen vessel, and of the dust that is in the floore of the Tabernacle, even the Priest shall take it and put it into the water:

18 After, the Priest shall set the woman before the Lord, and uncover the womans head, and put the offering of the memoriall in her hands: it is the leuous offering, and the Priest shall haue bitter, and curdled water in his hand.

19 And the Priest shall charge her by an othe, and say unto the woman, If so man haue lien with thee, neither thou hast turned to uncleannesse from thine husband, be free from this bitter and curdled water.

20 But if thou hast turned from thine husband, and so art defiled, and some man hath lien with thee beside thine husband, 21 ¶ Then the Priest shall charge the woman with an othe of cursing, and the Priest shall say unto the woman ¶ The Lord make thee to be accursed and despicable for the othe among the people, and the Lord cause thy thigh to rot, and thy belly to swell.

22 And that this curdled water may goe into thy bowels, to cause thy belly to swell, and thy thigh to rot. Then the woman shall answer, Amen, Amen.

23 After, the Priest shall mixe these curses in a vesse, and shall blot them out with the bitter water.

24 And shall cause the woman to drinke the bitter and curdled water, and the curdled water, mixed into bitterness, shall enter into her.

25 ¶ Then the Priest shall take the leuous offering out of the womans hand, and shall shake the offering before the Lord, and offer it upon the altar.

The lawe of the conſecration of the Nazaries. 24 The manner to bleſſe the people.

And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying, 2 Speake vnto the children of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them, When a man or a woman doeth ſeparate themſelues to be a Nazarie, to ſeparate himſelfe vnto the Lord,

3 He ſhall abſtaine from wine and ſtrong drinke, & ſhall drinke no ſowre wine, nor ſowre drinke, nor ſhall drinke any liquor of grapes, neither ſhall eat ſweet grapes nor dried.

4 As long as his abſtinenſe endureth, ſhall hee eat nothing that is made of the wine of the vine, neither the kernels, nor the huſk.

5 While he is ſeparate by his vow, the razor ſhall not come vpon his head, vntill the dayes be out, in the which he ſeparateth himſelfe vnto the Lord, he ſhalbe holy, and ſhall let the locks of the haire of his head grow.

6 During the time that hee ſeparateth himſelfe vnto the Lord, hee ſhall come at no dead body.

7 He ſhall not make himſelfe vncleane at the death of his father, or mother, brother, or ſiſter: for the conſecration of his God is vpon his head.

8 All the dayes of his ſeparation he ſhall be holy to the Lord.

9 And if any die ſuddenly by him, or he beare, then the head of his conſecration ſhall be defiled, and he ſhall ſhane his head in the day of his cleauiſing: in the ſeventh day he ſhall ſhane it.

10 And in the eighth day he ſhall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons to the Priest, at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

11 Then the Priest ſhall prepare the one for a ſinne offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and ſhall make an atonement for him, becauſe hee ſinned by the head: ſo ſhall hee ſhall ſhane his head the ſame day.

12 And he ſhall conſecrate vnto the Lord the dayes of his ſeparation, and ſhall bring a lambe of a yeere old for a treſpaſſe offering, and the ſix dayes ſhalbe ſcruy: for his conſecration was deſiled.

13 ¶ This then is the lawe of the Nazarie: when the time of his conſecration is out, he ſhall come to the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

14 And he ſhall bring his offering vnto the Lord, an hee lambe of a yeere olde without blemiſh for a burnt offering, and a hee lambe of a yeere old without blemiſh for a ſinne offering, and a ramme without blemiſh for peace offerings.

15 And a baskett of unleaueued bread, of cakes of fine flour, mingled with oyle, and waſkers of unleaueued bread, anoynted with oyle with their meate offering, & their drinke offerings.

16 ¶ The which the Priest ſhall bring beſore the Lord, and make his ſinne offering and his burnt offering.

17 He ſhall prepare alſo the ramme for a peace offering vnto the Lord, with the baskett of unleaueued bread, & the Priest ſhall make his meate offering, and his drinke offering.

18 And the Nazarie ſhall ſhane the head of his conſecration at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and ſhall take the haire of the head of his conſecration, and put it in the ſer, which is vnder the peace offering.

19 Then the Priest ſhall take the ſhoulder of the ram, and an unleaueued cake out of the baskett, and a waſker unleaueued, and put them vpon the hands of the Nazarie, after he hath ſhauen his conſecration.

20 And the Priest ſhall ſhake them to & fro beſore the Lord: this is an holy thing for the Priest, beſides the ſhaken bread, and beſides the beaue ſhoulder: ſo afterward the Nazarie may drinke wine.

21 This is the lawe of the Nazarie, which he hath vowed, and of his offering vnto the Lord for his conſecration, beſides that that he is able to bring: according to the vow which hee vowed, ſo ſhall hee do after the lawe of his conſecration.

22 ¶ And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

23 Speake vnto Aaron & to his ſonnes, ſaying, Thus ſhall ye bleſſe the children of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them,

24 ¶ The Lord bleſſe thee, and keepe thee,

25 ¶ The Lord make his face ſhine vpon thee, and be mercifull vnto thee, 26 ¶ The Lord lift up his countenance vpon thee, and giue thee peace.

1 Or, captains.

2 When the princes of Israel, heads of the houses of their fathers (they were the Princes of the tribes, who were over them that were numbered) offered.

3 And brought their offering before the Lord, six covered charrets, and twelve open: one charret for two princes, and for every one an ore, and they offered them before the Tabernacle.

4 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 5 Take these of them, that they may be to do the service of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and thou shalt give them unto the Levites, to every man according unto his office.

6 So Moses took the charrets and the oxen, and gave them unto the Levites:

7 Two charrets and four open bee gave to the sonnes of Gerson, according unto their office.

8 And four charrets and eight open bee gave to the sonnes of Merari, according unto their office, under the hand of Ithamar the sonne of Aaron the Priest.

9 But to the sonnes of Kohath bee gave none, because the charge of the Sanctuary belonged to them, which they did beare upon their shoulders.

10 The princes also offered in the dedication for the Altar in the day that it was anointed: then the Princes offered their offering before the Altar.

11 And the Lord sayd unto Moses, One prince one day, and another prince another day shall offer their offering, for the dedication of the Altar.

12 So then on the first day did Nathson the sonne of Amminadab of the tribe of Judah offer his offering.

13 And his offering was a silver charger of an hundred and thirtie shekels weight, a silver bowle of twentie shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour, mingled with oyle for a meat offering.

14 An incense cup of golde of tenne shekels full of incense.

15 A young bullocke, a ramme, a lambe of a yere old for a burnt offering.

16 An bee goat for a sinne offering.

17 And for a peace offering, two bullocks, five rammes, five bee goats, and five lambs of a yere old: this was the offering of Nathson the sonne of Amminadab.

18 The second day Nathaneel the sonne of Zuar, prince of the tribe of Issachar did offer:

19 And he offered for his offering a silver charger of an hundred and thirtie shekels weight, a silver bowle of twentie shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour, mingled with oyle, for a meat offering.

20 An incense cup of golde of tenne shekels, full of incense.

28 An bee goat for a sinne offering.

29 And for a peace offering, two bullocks, five rammes, five bee goats, five lambs of a yere old: this was the offering of Eliab the sonne of Ahiezer.

30 The fourth day Elisur the sonne of Deuel prince of the children of Reuben offered.

31 His offering was a silver charger of an hundred and thirtie shekels weight, a silver bowle of twentie shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour mingled with oyle, for a meat offering.

32 A golden incense cup of ten shekels, full of incense.

33 A young bullocke, a ramme, a lambe of a yere old for a burnt offering.

34 An bee goat for a sinne offering.

35 And for a peace offering, two bullocks, five rammes, five bee goats, five lambs of a yere old: this was the offering of Elisur the sonne of Deuel.

36 The fifth day Shelumiel the sonne of Zurhaddai, prince of the children of Simeon offered.

37 His offering was a silver charger of an hundred and thirtie shekels weight, a silver bowle of twentie shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour mingled with oyle, for a meat offering.

62 An hee goat for a sinne offering,

63 And for a peace offering, two bullocks, five rammes, five hee goats, five lambes of a yere old: this was the offering of Elishama the sonne of Ammihud.

64 The eight day offered Gamiel the sonne of Debazur, prince of the children of Sapanach.

65 His offering was a silver charger of an hundred and thirtie shekels weight, a silver bowl of leuenie shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour, mingled with oyle for a meat offering,

66 A golden incense cup of ten shekels, full of incense,

67 A yong bullocke, a ramme, a lambe of a yere old for a burnt offering,

68 An hee goat for a sinne offering,

69 And for a peace offering, two bullocks, five rammes, five hee goats, five lambes of a yere old: this was the offering of Gamiel the sonne of Debazur.

70 The ninth day Abdon the sonne of Sidon prince of the children of Benjamin offered.

71 His offering was a silver charger of an hundred and thirtie shekels weight, a silver bowl of leuenie shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour mingled with oyle for a meat offering,

72 A golden incense cup of ten shekels, full of incense,

74 An hee goat for a sinne offering,

75 And for a peace offering, two bullocks, five rammes, five hee goats, five lambes of a yere old: this was the offering of Abdon the sonne of Sidon.

76 The tenth day Abizer the sonne of Amishadai prince of the children of Dan offered.

77 His offering was a silver charger of an hundred and thirtie shekels weight, a silver bowl of leuenie shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour mingled with oyle for a meat offering,

78 A golden incense cup of ten shekels, full of incense,

79 A yong bullocke, a ramme, a lambe of a yere old for a burnt offering,

80 An hee goat for a sinne offering,

81 And for a peace offering, two bullocks, five rammes, five hee goats, five lambes of a yere old: this was the offering of Abizer the sonne of Amishadai.

82 The eleventh day Bagiel the sonne of Ocran, prince of the children of Aser offered.

83 His offering was a silver charger of an hundred and thirtie shekels weight, a silver bowl of leuenie shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour mingled with oyle, for a meat offering.

84 A golden incense cup of ten shekels, full of incense,

85 A yong bullocke, a ramme, a lambe of a yere old for a burnt offering,

86 An hee goat for a sinne offering,

87 And for a peace offering, two bullocks, five rammes, five hee goats, five lambes of a yere old: this was the offering of Bagiel the sonne of Ocran.

88 The twelfth day Abira the sonne of Enan, prince of the children of Naphtali offered.

89 His offering was a silver charger of an hundred and thirtie shekels weight, a silver bowl of leuenie shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour, mingled with oyle for a meat offering,

90 A golden incense cup of ten shekels, full of incense,

91 A yong bullocke, a ramme, a lambe of a yere old for a burnt offering,

92 An hee goat for a sinne offering,

93 And for a peace offering, two bullocks, five rammes, five hee goats, five lambes of a yere old: this was the offering of Abira the sonne of Enan.

94 This was the dedication of the Altar by the princes of Israel, when it was anointed: twelve chargers of silver, twelve silver bowls, twelve incense cups of gold,

95 Every charger containing an hundred and thirtie shekels of silver, and every bowl leuenie: all the silver vessel contained two thousand, and some hundred shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary.

96 Twelve incense cups of gold full of incense, containing ten shekels every cup, after the shekel of the Sanctuary: all the golde of the incense cups was an hundred and twentie shekels.

97 All the bullocks for the burnt offering were twelve bullocks, the rammes twelve, the lambes of a yere old twelve, with their meate offerings, and twelve hee goats for a sinne offering.

98 And all the bullocks for the peace offerings were four and twentie bullocks, the rammes thirtie, the hee goats thirtie, the lambes of a yere old thirtie: this was the dedication of the Altar, after that it was anointed.

99 And when Moses went into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, to speake with God, hee heard the voyce of one speaking vnto him from the Altar, that was vpon the Ark of the Testimonie: betweene the two Cherubims, and hee spake to him.

3 And Aaron did so lighting the lampes thereof towards the forefront of the Candlestick, as the Lord had commaunded Moses.

4 And this was the worke of the Candlestick, even of golde beaten out with the hammer, both the shaft, and the floures thereof: was beaten out with the hammer: according to the pattern, which the Lord had shewed Moses, so made he the Candlestick.

5 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

6 Take the Leuites from among the children of Israel, and purifie them.

7 And thus shalt thou doe vnto them, when thou purifiest them, Sprinkle water of purification vpon them, & let them shau all their flesh, and wash their clothes: so they shall be cleane.

8 Then they shall take a yong bullocke with his meat offering of fine flour, mingled with oyle, and another yong bullocke shalt thou take for a sinne offering.

9 Then thou shalt bring the Leuites before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and assemble all the Congregation of the children of Israel.

10 Thou shalt bring the Leuites also before the Lord, & the children of Israel shall put their hands vpon the Leuites.

11 And Aaron shall offer the Leuites before the Lord, as a shakte offering of the children of Israel, that they may execute the seruice of the Lord.

12 And the Leuites shall put their hands vpon the heads of the bullocks, & make thou the one a sinne offering, and the other a burnt offering vnto the Lord, that thou mayst make an atonement for the Leuites.

13 And thou shalt let the Leuites before Aaron and before his sonnes, and offer them as a shakte offering to the Lord.

14 Thus shalt thou separate the Leuites from among the children of Israel, and the Leuites shall be mine.

15 And afterward shall the Leuites goe in, to serue in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and thou shalt purifie them, and offer them, as a shakte offering.

16 For they are freely given vnto mee from among the children of Israel, for such as open any wounde: for all the first borne of the children of Israel haue I taken them vnto mee.

17 For all the first borne of the children of Israel are mine, both of man and of beast: since the day that I smote every first borne in the land of Egypt, I sanctified them for my selfe.

18 And I haue taken the Leuites for all the first borne of the children of Israel,

19 And haue given the Leuites as a gift vnto Aaron, and to his sonnes from among the children of Israel, to do the seruice of the children of Israel in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel, that there bee no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come nether vnto the Sanctuary.

20 ¶ Then Moses and Aaron and all the Congregation of the children of Israel did with the Leuites, according vnto all that the Lord had commaunded Moses concerning the Leuites: so did the children of Israel vnto them.

21 So the Leuites were purified, and washed their clothes, and Aaron offered them as a shakte offering before the Lord, and Aaron made an atonement for them to purifie them.

22 And after that, went the Leuites in to doe their seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, before Aaron and before his sonnes: as the Lord had commaunded Moses concerning the Leuites, so they did vnto them.

23 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

24 This also belongeth to the Leuites: from sine and twentie yeere old & upward, they shall goe in, to execute their office in the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

25 And after the age of fiftie yeere, they shall cease from executing the office, and shall serue no more:

26 But they shall minister with their brethren in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, to keepe things committed to their charge, but they shall doe no seruice: thus shalt thou doe vnto the Leuites touching their charges.

¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second yeere, after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 The children of Israel shall also celebrate the Passouer at the time appointed therunto.

3 In the fourteenth day of this month at euen, ye shall keepe it in his due season: according to all the ordinances of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof shall ye keepe it.

4 Then Moses spake vnto the children of Israel, to celebrate the Passouer.

5 And they kept the Passouer in the fourteenth day of the first month at euen, in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that the Lord had commaunded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

6 ¶ And certaine men were defiled by a dead man, that they might not keepe the Passouer the same day: and they came before Moses, and before Aaron the same day.

7 And those men sayd vnto him, We are defiled by a dead man: wherefore are we kept back that we may not offer an offering vnto the Lord in the time therunto appointed among the children of Israel?

22 ¶ Then the standard of the hoste of the children of Ephraim went forward according to their armies, and over his band was Elishama the sonne of Ammihud.

23 And over the band of the tribe of the sonnes of Manasseh was Gamliel the sonne of Pedasur.

24 And over the band of the tribe of the sonnes of Benjamin was Abidan the sonne of Gideon.

28 ¶ These were the remoouings of the children of Israel according to their armies, when they marched.

29 ¶ After, Moses said unto Hobab the sonne of Reuel the Midianite, the father in lawe of Moses, Will thou goe into the place, of which the Lord saide, I will give it you: Come thou with vs, and wee will doe thee good: for the Lord hath promised good unto Israel.

30 And he answered him, I will not goe: but I will depart to mine owne countrey, and to my kindred.

31 Then hee said, I pray thee, leaue vs not: for thou knowest our camping places in the wilderness: therefore thou mayest be our guide.

32 And if thou goe with vs, what goodnesse the Lord shall shewe vnto vs, the same will we shew vnto thee.

33 ¶ So they departed from the mount of the Lord, three dayes iourney, and the Arke of the couenant of the Lord went before them in the three dayes iourney, to search out a resting place for them.

34 And the cloud of the Lord was vpon them by day, when they went out of the campe.

35 And when the Arke went forward, Moses said, Rise up, Lord, and let thine enemies be scattered, and let them that hate thee, flee before thee.

36 And when it ceased, he said, Returne, O Lord, to the thousands of Israel.

CHAP. XI.

1 The people murmured, and is punished with fire. 4 The people lusteth after flesh. 6 They loathe Manna. 11 The weak faith of Moses. 16 The Lord denieth the burden of Moses to seruants of the Ancients. 31 The Lord sendeth Quails. 33 Their lust is punished.

VVhen the people became murmurers, it displeased the Lord: and the Lord heard it, therefore his wrath was kindled, and the fire of the Lord burnt among them, and consumed the utmost part of the host.

2 Then the people cried vnto Moses: and when Moses prayed vnto the Lord, the fire was quenched.

3 And hee called the name of that place Taberah, because the fire of the Lord burnt among them.

4 ¶ And a number of people that was among them, fell a lusting, and turned away, and the children of Israel also wept, and said, Who shall give vs flesh to eat?

5 We remember the fish which wee did eate in Egypt for nought, the cucumbers, and the peasons, and the leekes, and the onions, and the garlickes.

6 But now our soules are dried away, we can fee nothing but this M.A.N.

7 ¶ The M.A.N. also was as Coxander seed, and his colour like the colour of Solum.

8 The people went about and gathered it, and ground it in millies, or beat it in mortars, and baked it in a cauldron, and made cakes of it, and the taste of it was like vnto the taste of fresh ople.

9 And when the dew fell downe vpon the hoste in the night, the M.A.N. fell with it.)

10 ¶ Then Moses heard the people weepeth round about their families, euerie man in the doore of his tent: and the wrath of the Lord was grievously kindled: also Moses was grieved.

11 And Moses said vnto the Lord, Therefore haue thou I bereed thy servant: and why haue I not found fauour in thy sight, seeing thou hast put the charge of all this people vpon me?

12 Wane I conceived all this people? or haue I begotten them, that thou shouldst say vnto me, Carie them in thy bosome (as a nurse beareth the sucking child) vnto the land, for the which thou I warrest vnto their fathers?

13 Where should I haue flesh to give vnto all this people? for they weep vnto mee, saying, Giue vs flesh, that wee may eate.

14 I am not able to beare all this people alone: for it is too heauie for me.

15 Therefore if thou deale thus with me, I pray thee, if I haue found fauour in thy sight, kill mee, that I beholde not my misery.

16 ¶ Then the Lord said vnto Moses, Gather vnto me twentie men of the Elders of Israel, whom thou knowest, that they are the Elders of the people, and gouernours ouer them, and bring them vnto the Tabernacle of the Congregation, & let them stand with thee.

17 And I will come downe, and talke with thee there, and take of the Spirit, which is vpon thee, and put vpon thee, and they shall beare the burthen of the people with thee: so thou shalt not beare it alone.

21. And Moses said, O Lord, pardon their iniquity, and forgive their sin, lest thou destroy this people.

22. And the Lord said, I will pardon their iniquity, and forgive their sin, as thou hast said.

23. And the Lord said unto Moses, Is the Lord's hand shortened? thou shalt see now whether my word shall come to pass unto thee or no.

24. So Moses went out, and told the people the words of the Lord, and gathered them round about the Tabernacle.

25. Then the Lord came down in a cloud, and spake unto him, and took of the Spirit that was upon him, and put it upon the seventy ancient men: and when the Spirit rested upon them, then they prophesied, and did not cease.

26. But there remained two of the men in the host: the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad, and the Spirit rested upon them, (for they were of them that were written, and went not out unto the Tabernacle) and they prophesied in the host.

27. Then there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad & Medad doe prophesie in the host.

28. And Joshua the sonne of Nun the servant of Moses, one of his young men, answered, and says, My lord Moses, forbid them.

29. But Moses says unto him, Enuist thou for my sake? yea, would God that all the Lords people were Prophets, and that the Lord would put his Spirit upon them.

30. And Moses returned into the host, he and the Elders of Israel.

31. Then there went forth a wind from the Lord, and brought quail from the Sea, and let them fall upon the campe, a day's journey on this side, and a day's journey on the other side, round about the host, and they were about two cubits above the earth.

32. Then the people arose, all that day, and all the night, and all the next day, and gathered the quail: hee that gathered the least, gathered ten homers, and they laid them abroad for their use round about the host.

33. And the third day the Lord sent a flock of quail, and covered the campe, and the people gathered it up, as they were used to do.

34. So the name of the place was called Bibroth-shaivah: for there they buried the people that fell a dying.

35. From Bibroth-shaivah the people sought their journey to Dathor, and about the wilderness of the south.

36. And the Lord said unto Moses, I will send a plague upon the people, because they have despised my word, and have not kept my commandments.

37. And the Lord said unto Moses, I will send a plague upon the people, because they have despised my word, and have not kept my commandments.

38. And the Lord said unto Moses, I will send a plague upon the people, because

The spies are sent to Canaan

Numbers. They cause the people to murmur

21 Calch compassed the people against the dis- covering of the spies.
 Then answered the people, saying, We have sinned against the Lord, and stretched in the wilderness: and the Lord hath spoken unto Moses, saying,

2. And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
 3. Send thou men out to search the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel: of every tribe of their fathers shall ye send a man, such as are at leaders among them.
 4. Then Moses sent them out of the wilderness of Paran at the commandment of the Lord: all those men were heads of the children of Israel.

5. And their names are these: of the tribe of Ruben, Shammua the sonne of Zaccur:

6. Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the sonne of Hori:

7. Of the tribe of Iudah, Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh:

8. Of the tribe of Iudah, Igal the sonne of Joseph:

9. Of the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea the sonne of Nun:

10. Of the tribe of Benjamin, Balthi the sonne of Rauphor:

11. Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddei the sonne of Sodi:

12. Of the tribe of Issachar, Iosaph the sonne of Achi:

13. Of the tribe of Dan, Amiel the sonne of Gemalli:

14. Of the tribe of Aser, Serhur the son of Michael:

15. Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nafthi the sonne of Asaph:

16. Of the tribe of Gad, Gadiel the sonne ofuchi:

17. These are the names of the men, which Moses sent to spy out the land: and Moses called the name of Iosaph the sonne of Aser, Iehoshua.

18. So Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and sayd unto them, Go by this way toward the South, and go up into the mountains.

19. And consider the land, what it is, and the people that dwell therein, whether they be strong or weak, either few or many.

20. Also what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad: and what cities they be that they dwell in, whether they dwell in tents, or in walled towns:

21. And what the land is, whether it be fat or lean, whether there be trees therein, or not. And be of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land (for then was the time of the first ripe grapes).

22. So they went up, and searched out the land, from the wilderness of Sin unto Rehob, to go to Hamath.

23. And they ascended toward the South, and came unto Hebron, where were Abimelech, and Shimon, and Calmai, the sonnes of Anak. And Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.

24. Then they came to the river of Euphrates, and cut down thence a branch with one cluster of grapes: and they bare it upon a burre between two, and brought of the pomgranates, and of the figs.

25. That place was called the river of Euphrates, because of the cluster of grapes, which the children of Israel cut downe thence.

26. Then after four dayes, they turned againe from searching of the land.

27. And they went & came to Moses and to Aaron, and unto all the Congregation of the children of Israel, in the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh, and brought forth, and to all the Congregation tidings, and showed them the fruit of the land.

28. And they tolde him, & sayd, We came unto the land, whither thou hast sent us, and surely it floweth with milke and hony: and here is the fruit of it.

29. Nevertheless, the people be strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled, and exceeding great: and moreover we saw the sonnes of Anak there.

30. The Amalekites dwell in the South country, and the Kenites, & the Jebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the mountains, and the Canaanites dwell by the Sea, and by the coast of Iordan.

31. Then Caleb stilled the people, & sayd, I have been up at once, and possesse it: for undoubtedly we shall overcome it.

32. But the men that were up with him, sayd, We were not able to goe up against the people: for they are stronger then we.

33. And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched for the children of Israel, saying, The land which we have gone through to search it out, is a land that eateth the inhabitants thereof: for all the people that we saw in it, are men of great stature.

34. For there we saw giants, the sonnes of Anak, which come of the giants, so that we were in our sight like grasshoppers: and so we were in their sight.

CHAP. XIII.

1. The people murmur against Moses, so they would have stoned Caleb and Ioshua. 2. Moses pacifieth God by his prayer. 3. The people that would enter into the land contrary to Gods will, are slain.

1. Then all the Congregation lifted up their voice, and cried: and the people wept that night.

2. And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses & Aaron: and the whole assembly sayd unto them, Would God we had died in the land of Egypt: or in this wilderness: would God we were dead.

3. Wherefore now hath the Lord brought us into this land to fall upon the sword? our wives & our children make a prey: were it not better for us to returne into Egypt?

4. And they layde one to another, Let us make a captivite, and returne into Egypt.

5. Then Moses and Aaron stood up before all the assembly of the Congregation of the children of Israel.

6. And Ioshua the sonne of Nun, and Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh, two of them that searched the land, rent their clothes.

7. And they spake unto all the assembly of the children of Israel, saying, The land which we

8. If the Lord love us, he will bring us into this land, and give it us, which is a land that floweth with milk and honey.

9. But rebel not yet against the Lord, neither fear ye the people of the land: for they are but bread for ye: their high is departed from them, and the Lord is with us, fear them not.

10. And all the multitude say, (Some them with stones: but the glory of the Lord appeared in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, before all the children of Israel.)

11. And the Lord said unto Moses, How long will this people provoke me, and how long will it be ere they believe in me, for all the signs which I have shewed among them?

12. I will smite them with the pestilence, and destroy them, and will make thee a great nation and mightier than they.

13. But Moses said unto the Lord, (When the Egyptians shall hear it, (for thou broughtest this people from among them.)

14. Whereby shall I say to the inhabitants of the land, (for they have heard thee, O Lord, art among this people, and that thou, O Lord, art mine: face to face, and that thy cloud standeth over them, and that thou goest before them day by day in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night.)

15. What shall I say to the people among men: to the heathen which have heard the fame of thee, shall they say,

16. Because the Lord was not able to bring this people into the land, which he swore unto them, therefore hath he slain them in the wilderness.

17. And now, I beseech thee, let the power of my Lord be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying,

18. The Lord is slow to anger, of great mercie, and forgiving iniquity, and misdeeds: not making the wicked innocent: and visiting the wickedness of the fathers upon the children, in the third and fourth generation.

19. O merciful, I beseech thee, unto the iniquity of this people, according to thy greatness, and as thou hast forgiven this people from Egypt, even until now.

20. And the Lord hearkned unto Moses, according to the request.

21. Forwithstanding, as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the Lord.

22. For all those men which have sinned my glory, and my miracles which I did in Egypt, and in the wilderness, and have tempted me this generation, and have not obeyed my voice,

23. Certainly they shall not see the land, whereof I swore unto their fathers: neither shall any that provoke me thence.

24. But my servant Caleb, because he hath followed me, and hath followed me full, even him will I bring into the land, where he went, and his seed shall inherit it.

25. And the Amalekites and the Canaanites I will smite in the valley: whence thou shalt come, and get thee into the wilderness by the way of the sea.

26. And Moses, the Lord spake unto Moses, and to Aaron, saying,

27. How long shall I suffer this wicked multitude to murmur against me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against me.

28. Tell them, As I live (saith the Lord) I will surely be unto you, even as ye have spoken in mine ears.

29. Your carriages shall fall into this wilderness, and all you that were counted through all your numbers, from twenty years old and above, which have murmured against me.

30. Ye shall not come into the land, for the which I lifted up mine hand, to make you dwell therein, save Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh, and Joshua the sonne of Nun.

31. But your children, (which yet I have sould as a prey) them will I bring in, and they shall know the land, which ye have refused to enter.

32. And when your carriages shall fall in this wilderness, and

33. And your children shall wander in the wilderness forty years, and shall bear your iniquities, until your carriages be wasted in the wilderness.

34. After the number of the dayes, in the which ye sinned upon the land, shall ye wander forty years, one yeere for one day, for your iniquity, for forty yeeres, and ye shall know the land.

35. I will cast my lot of promise.

36. The Lord hath sayd, Certainly I will doe it to all this wicked company, who are gathered together against me: for in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.

37. And the men which Moses had sent to search the land, (which, when they came againe, made all the people to murmur against him, and brought up a slander upon the land)

38. When those men that did bring up that vile slander upon the land, shall die by a plague before the Lord.

39. But Joshua the sonne of Nun, and Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh, of those men that went to search the land, shall live.

40. And when Moses said these sayings unto all the children of Israel, and the people forewent greatly.

41. And they arose up early in the morning, and gate them up into the top of the mountaine, saying, Loc. we be ready to go up to the place, which the Lord hath promised: for we have sinned.

42. But Moses stood before the Lord, saying, yet thus the commandments of the Lord: I will not to come well to passe.

43. Doe not yet (saith the Lord to Moses) I will not yet be overthundered by your enemies, for I have sinned.

44. For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and ye shall fall by the sword: for ye are so much as ye are turned away from the Lord, the Lord

C. H. A. P. XV.
The offerings which the Israelites should offer when they came into the land of Canaan. 30 The punishment of him that broke the Sabbath.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 2 And say unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come up to the land of your habitation, which I gave unto you,

3 And will make an offering by fire unto the Lord, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice, to fulfill a vow, or a free offering, or in your feasts, to make a sweet savour unto the Lord of the herd, or of the flock.

4 When thou shalt offer a burnt offering unto the Lord, being a meate offering of a fourth part of fine flour, mingled with the fourth part of an hin of oyle.

5 And thou shalt prepare the fourth part of an hin of wine to be poured on a lamb, appointed for the burnt offering, or any offering.

6 And for a ramme, thou shalt for a meate offering, prepare two tenths of fine flour, mingled with the third part of an hin of oyle.

7 And for a bullock offering, thou shalt offer the third part of an hin of wine, for a sweet savour unto the Lord.

8 And when thou preparest a bullock for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice to fulfill a vow, or a peace offering to the Lord,

9 When thou shalt offer with the bullock a meate offering of three tenths of fine flour, mingled with half an hin of oyle.

10 And thou shalt bring for a drink offering half an hin of wine, for an offering made by fire of a sweet savour unto the Lord.

11 Thus shall it be done for a bullock, or for a ram, or for a lamb, or for a kid.

12 According to the number, that prepare to offer, so shall ye do to every one, according to their number.

13 All that are bove of the country, shall doe these things, that, to offer an offering made by fire of sweet savour unto the Lord.

14 And if a stranger sojourneth with you, or whosoever he among you in your generations, and will make an offering by fire of a sweet savour unto the Lord, as ye doe, so he shall doe.

15 One ordinance shall be both for you of the congregation, and also for the stranger that dwelleth with you, even an ordinance for ever in your generations, as ye are, so shall the stranger be before the Lord.

16 One Law, and one manner shall I make both for you, and for the stranger that sojourneth with you.

17 And the Lord spake unto Moses,

18 Saying, Unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come into the land, to which I bring you,

19 And when ye have eat of the bread of the land, ye shall offer an heave offering unto the Lord.

20 Ye shall offer by a cake of the first of your dough for a heave offering: as the heave offering of the barn, so ye shall lift it up.

21 Of the first of your dough ye shall give unto the Lord an heave offering in your generations.

22 And if ye have erred, and not observed all these commandments, which the Lord hath spoken unto Moses,

23 Remember that the Lord hath commanded you be the hands of Moses, from the first day that the Lord commanded Moses, and henceforward among your generations:

24 And if so be that ought be committed ignorantly of the congregation, then all the congregation shall give a bullock for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour unto the Lord, with the meate offering and drinke offering thereof according to the manner, and an heave goat for a meate offering.

25 And the Priest shall make an atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them for it is ignorance: and they shall bring their offering by an offering made by fire unto the Lord, and their skins offering before the Lord for their guiltance.

26 Then it shall be forgiven all the congregation of the children of Israel, and the stranger that dwelleth among them, for all the people were in ignorance.

27 But if any one person sin through ignorance, then he shall bring a heave goat of a year old, as a burnt offering.

28 And the Priest shall make an atonement for his ignorant person, when he sinneth by ignorance before the Lord, to make reconciliation for him; and it shall be forgiven him.

29 As for the Levites among the children of Israel, and the stranger that dwelleth among them, shall have both one Law, who so have done in ignorance.

30 For the person that hath sinned by presumption, whether he be born in the land, or a stranger, the same shall be smitten by the Lord: therefore that person shall be cut off from among his people.

31 Because he hath despised the word of the Lord, and hath broken his commandment, that precept shall be surely cut off: his iniquity shall be his sin.

32 And when the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man that gathered sticks upon the Sabbath day.

33 And they that found him gathering sticks, brought him unto Moses and Aaron, and unto the congregation.

34 And when they had laid him down, they laid hands on him, and would have slain him.

35 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, The man that hath gathered sticks, shall be cut off from among his people.

36 And when the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man that gathered sticks upon the Sabbath day.

37 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, The man that hath gathered sticks, shall be cut off from among his people.

38 And when the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man that gathered sticks upon the Sabbath day.

36 And all the Congregation brought him without the host, and stoned him with stones, and he died, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

37 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

38 Speak unto the children of Israel, and bid them that they make them fringes upon the borders of their garments throughout their generations, and put upon the fringes of the borders a ribband of blue like,

39 And yee shall have the fringes, that when ye looke upon them, ye may remember all the commandments of the Lord, and do them: and that ye seeke not after your owne heart, nor after your owne eyes, after the which ye go: in doing.

40 That yee may remember and doe all my commandments, and be holy unto your God.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The rebellion of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, 31 Korah and his company perish. 41 The people the next day murmure. 49 Fourteen thousand & seven hundred are slain for murmuring.

Now Korah the sonne of Izhar, the sonne of Kohath, the sonne of Levi went apart with Dathan, and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab, and On the sonne of Bealech, the sonnes of Ruben.

2 And they rose up against Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and thirtie captains of the assembly, famous in the Congregation, and men of renowne.

3 And he gathered themselves together against Moses, and against Aaron, and said unto them, Ye take too much upon you, heeding all the Congregation to you: every one of them, and the Lord is among them: wherefore then lift ye up your voices above the Congregation of the Lord?

4 But when Moses heard it, he fell upon his face.

5 And he spake to Korah and unto all his companie, saying, To morrow the Lord will shew who is his, and who is holy, and who ought to hearken unto his voice, and whom he hath chosen, he will cause to come neere to him.

6 This doe therefore, Take your censers both Korah, and all his companie,

7 And put incense in them, before the Lord to morrow: and the man whom the Lord doth chuse, the same shall be holy: ye take too much upon you, ye sonnes of Levi.

8 Again Moses said unto Korah, Heare, I pray you, the sonnes of Levi.

9 Seemeth it a small thing unto you, that the God of Israel hath separated you from the multitude of Israel, to take you neere to himselfe to doe the service of the Tabernacle of the Lord, and to stand before the Congregation, and to minister unto them?

10 The Lord hath taken thee to him, and al the brethren the sonnes of Levi with thee, and seeke ye the office of the high Priest also?

11 For which cause, thou, and all thy company are gathered together against: I Lord: and what is Aaron that ye murmur against him?

12 And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab: who answered, We will not come up.

13 Is it a small thing? thou hast brought us out of a land that floweth with milke and hony, to kill us in the wilderness, except thou make thyselfe lord and ruler over us also?

14 Also thou hast not brought us unto a land that floweth with milke and hony, neither given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt thou put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up.

15 Then Moses waxed very angry, and said unto the Lord, Looke not unto their offering: I have not taken so much as an asse from them, neither have I hurt any of them.

16 And Moses said unto Korah, Be thou and all thy company before the Lord: both thou, they, and Aaron to morrow:

17 And take every man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring ye every man his censer before the Lord, two hundred and thirtie censers: thou also and Aaron, every one his censer.

18 So they tooke every man his censer, and put fire in them, & layd incense thereon, and stood in the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation with Moses and Aaron.

19 And Korah gathered all the multitude against them unto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation: then the glory of the Lord appeared unto all the Congregation.

20 And the Lord spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying,

21 Separate your selves from among this Congregation, that I may consume them at once.

22 And they fell upon their faces, & said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, hath not one man only sinned, and wilt thou be wroth with all the Congregation?

23 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

24 Speake unto the Congregation, and say, Get you away from about the Tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.

25 Then Moses rose up, and went unto Dathan and Abiram, and the Elders of Israel followed him.

26 And he spake unto the Congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, & touch nothing of theirs, lest ye perish, in all their finnes.

27 So they gate them away from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan and Abiram on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out and stood in the doore of their tents with their wives and their sonnes, and their little children.

28 And Moses sayde, Whereby yee shall know that the Lord hath sent me to doe all these works, for I have not done them of mine owne minde.

f Thus they spake contemptuously, preferring Egypt to Canaan.

g Wilt thou make them, that searched the land, believe that they saw not that which they saw?

h At the doore of the Tabernacle.

i All that were of their faction.

|| Or, of every creature.

29 If these men die the common death of all men, as if they be visited after the visitation of all men, the Lord hath not sent me.

30 But if the Lord make a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up with all that they have, and they go downe quick into the pit, then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the Lord.

31 And alsoone as he had made an end of speaking all these words, even the ground claued asunder that was under them,

32 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up with their families, and all the men that were with Korah, and all their goods.

33 So they and all that they had, went downe alive into the pit, and the earth covered them: so they perished from among the Congregation.

34 And all Israel that were about them, fled at the cry of them: for they said, Let vs flee, lest the earth swallow vs up.

35 But there came out a fire from the Lord, and consumed the two hundred and fiftie men that offered the incense.

36 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

37 Speake unto Eleazar the sonne of Aaron the Priest, that hee take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter the fire beyond the altar: for they are hallowed,

38 The censers, I say, of these sinners that destroyed themselves: and let them make of them braid plates for a covering of the altar: for they offered them before the Lord, therefore they shall be holy, and they shall be for a signe unto the children of Israel.

39 Then Eleazar the Priest tooke the brazen censers, which they that were burnt, had offered, and made braid plates of them for a covering of the Altar.

40 It is a remembrance unto the children of Israel, that no stranger which is not of the seede of Aaron, come neere to offer incense before the Lord, that hee bee not like Korah and his companie, as the Lord said to him by the hand of Moses.

41 But on the morrowe all the multitude of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, Ye haue killed the people of the Lord.

42 And when the Congregation was gathered against Moses & against Aaron, then they turned their faces toward the Tabernacle of the Congregation: and behold, the cloude covered it, and the glorie of the Lord appeared.

43 Then Moses and Aaron were come before the tabernacle of the Congregation.

44 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

45 Get you up from among this Congregation: for I will consume them quickly: then they fell upon their faces.

46 And Moses laid unto Aaron, Take thy censer, and put fire therein of the altar, and put therein incense, and goe quickly into the Congregation, and make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from the Lord: the plague is begun.

47 Then Aaron tooke as Moses commanded him, and ran into the midst of the Congregation, and behold, the plague was begun among the people, and hee put in incense, and made an atonement for the people.

48 And when hee stood betwixt the dead, and them that were alive, the plague was stayed.

49 So they died of this plague fourteene thousand and seven hundred, beside them that died in the conspiracy of Korah.

50 And Aaron went againe unto Moses before the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the plague was stayed.

CHAP. XVII.

2 The twelve rods of the twelve princes of the tribes of Israel, & Aarons rod budded, & beareth blossomes, 10 for a testimony against the rebellious people.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Speake unto the children of Israel, and take of every one of them a rod, after the house of their fathers, of all their princes according to the families of their fathers, even twelue rods: and thou shalt write euery mans name upon his rod.

3 And write Aarons name upon the rod of Leui: for every rod shall be for the head of the house of their fathers.

4 And thou shalt put them in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, before the Arke of the Testimony, where I will declare my selfe to you.

5 And the mans rod, whom I will choose, shall blossom: and I will make cease from me the murmurings of the children of Israel, which grudge against you.

6 Then Moses spake unto the children of Israel, & all their princes came him a way, one rodde for euery prince, according to the houses of their fathers, even twelue rods, and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

7 And Moses laied the rods before the Lord in the Tabernacle of the Testimony.

8 And when Moses on the morrowe went into the Tabernacle of the Testimony, behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Leui was budded, and brought forth buds, and brought forth blossomes and bare ripe almonds.

9 Then Moses brought out all the rods from before the Lord unto all the children of Israel: and they looked upon them, & tooke euery man his rod.

10 And the Lord sayde unto Moses, Bury Aarons rod againe before the Testimony to be kept for a token to the rebellious children, and thou shalt cause their murmurings to cease from me, that they die not.

11 So Moses did as the Lord had commanded him: so did he.

12 And the children of Israel spake unto Moses, saying, Behold, we are dead, we perish, we are all lost.

Levites, & The Priests part of the offerings, 20 God is their portion, 26 The Levites have the tithes, and offer the tithes thereof to the Lord.

And the Lord spake unto Aaron, Thou and thy sonnes and thy fathers house with thee, shall bear the iniquity of the Sanctuary: both thou and thy sonnes with thee shall bear the iniquity of your Priests office.

And being alid with thee thy brethren of the tribe of Levi, of the family of thy father, which shall be toynd with thee, and minister unto thee: but thou and thy sonnes with thee shall minister before the Tabernacle of the Testimonie:

And they shall keepe thy charge, even the charge of all the Tabernacle: but they shall not come neere the instruments of the Sanctuary, nor to the Altar, lest they die, both they and you.

And they shall be toynd with thee, and keepe the charge of the Tabernacle of the Congregation for all the service of the Tabernacle: and no stranger shall come neere unto you.

Wherefore shall ye keepe the charge of the Sanctuary, and the charge of the Altar: so there shall fall no more wrath upon the children of Israel.

For loe, I have taken your brethren the Levites from among the children of Israel, which as a gift of yours, are given unto the Lord, to doe the service of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

But thou, & thy sonnes with thee shall keepe your Priests office for all things of the altar, and within the vail: therefore shall ye strive: for I have made your Priests office an office of service: therefore the stranger that cometh neere shall die.

Again the Lord spake unto Aaron, Behold, I have given thee the keeping of mine offerings, of all the hallowed things of the children of Israel: unto thee I have given them for the anointings sake, and to thy sonnes for a perpetual ordinance.

This shall be thine of the most holy things, reserved from the fire: all their offering of all their meat offering, & of all their sinne offering, and of all their trespass offering, which they bring unto me, that shall be smelt holy unto thee, and to thy sonnes.

In the most holy place shalt thou eat it: every male shall eat of it: it is holy unto thee.

This also shall be thine: the heave offering of their gift, with all the heave offerings of the children of Israel: I have given unto thee, and to thy sonnes and to thy daughters with thee, to be a due offering: all the cleane in thine house shall eat of it.

All the fat of the oyle, and all the fat of the wine, and of the wheate, which they shall offer unto the Lord for their first fruits, I have given them unto thee.

And the first ripe of all that is in their land, which they shall bring unto the Lord, shall be thine: all the cleane in thine house shall eat of it.

Every thing separate from the com-monds in Israel, shall be thine.

All that hath opened the matrix of any flesh, which they shall offer unto the Lord of man or beast, shall be thine: but the first borne of man shalt thou redeem, and the first borne of the unclean beast shalt thou redeem.

And those that are to be redeemed, shalt thou redeem from the age of a month, according to the estimation, for the money of five shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs.

But the first borne of a cowe, or the first borne of a sheepe, or the first borne of a goat shalt thou not redeem: for they are holy: thou shalt sprinkle their blood at the altar, and thou shalt burne their fat: it is a sacrifice made by fire for a sweet savour unto the Lord.

And the flesh of them shall be thine, as the shaks beate, and as the right shoulder shall be thine.

All the heave offerings of the holy things which the children of Israel shall offer unto the Lord, have I given thee, & thy sonnes and thy daughters with thee, to be a due offering: ever it is a perpetual covenant of salt betwixt thee and thy sonnes with thee.

And the Lord sayde unto Aaron, Thou shalt have none inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any part among them: I am thy part and thine inheritance among the children of Israel.

For behold, I have given the children of Levi all the tenth in Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they serve the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

Neither shall the children of Israel any more come neere the Tabernacle of the Congregation, lest they lustre mine, & die.

But the Levites shall doe the service in the Tabernacle of the congregation, & they shall bear their sinne: it is a law for ever in your generations, that among the children of Israel they possesse none inheritance.

For the tithes of the children of Israel, which they shall offer as an offering unto the Lord, I have given the Levites for an inheritance: therefore I have said unto them, Among the children of Israel ye shall possesse none inheritance.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

Speake also unto the Levites, and say unto them, When ye shall take of the children of Israel the tithes which I have given you of them for your inheritance, then shall ye take an heave offering of that same for the Lord, even the tenth part of the tithes.

And your heave offering shall be reckoned unto you, as the come of the barn, or as the abundance of the winepress.

So ye shall also offer an heave offering unto the Lord of all your tithes, which ye shall receive of the children of Israel, and ye shall give thereof the Lords heave offering to Aaron the Priest.

Ye shall offer of all your gifts all the Lords heave offerings: of all the fat of the same shall ye offer the holy things thereof.

1 The sacrifice of the red cow. 2 The sprinkling water. 3 He that toucheth the dead. 4 The man that dieth in a tent.

5 And the Lord spake to Moses, and to Aaron, saying,

6 This is the ordinance of the Law, which the Lord hath commanded, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel that they bring thee a red cow without blemish, wherein is no spot, upon the which never came yoke.

7 And ye shall give her unto Eleazar the Priest, that he may bring her without the hothe, and cause her to be slain before his face.

8 Then shall Eleazar the Priest take of her blood with his finger, and sprinkle it before the Tabernacle of the Congregation seven times.

9 And cause the cow to be burnt in his sight: with her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, and her dung, shall he burne her.

10 Then shall the Priest take Cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet lace, and cast them in the midst of the fire where the cow burneth.

11 When shall the Priest wash his clothes, and he that wash his flesh in water, and then come into the hothe, and the Priest shall be unclean unto the euen.

12 Also he that burneth her, shall wash his clothes in water, and wash his flesh in water, and be unclean untill euen.

13 And a man that is cleane, shall take up the ashes of the cow, and put them without the hothe in a cleane place: and it shall be kept for the Congregation of the children of Israel for a sprinkling water: it is a signe of cleansing.

14 Therefore he that gathereth the ashes of the cow, shall wash his clothes, and remaine unclean untill euen: and it shall be unto the children of Israel, and unto the stranger that dwelleth among them, a statute for euer.

15 He that toucheth the dead body of any man, shall be unclean euen seven dayes.

16 Wee shall purifie himselfe therewith the third day, and the seventh day he shall be cleane: but if he purifie not himselfe the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be cleane.

17 Whosoever toucheth the corpse of any man that is dead, and purged not himselfe, defileth the Tabernacle of the Lord: & that person shall be cut off from Israel, because the sprinkling water was not sprinkled upon him: he shall be unclean, and his uncleanness shall remaine still upon him.

18 And to the him, when a man diech in a tent: all that come into the tent, & all that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven dayes.

19 And all the vessels that be open, which have no covering fastened upon them, shall be unclean.

20 Also whosoever toucheth one that is slain with a sword in the field, or a dead person, or a bone of a dead man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven dayes.

21 Therefore for an unclean person, they shall take of the burnt ashes of the signe of firing, and pure water shall be put thereto in a vessel.

22 And a cleane person that take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it upon the tent, and upon all the vessels, and on the persons that were therein, and upon him that touched the bone, or the statue, or the dead, or the grave.

23 And the cleane person shall sprinkle upon the unclean the third day, and the seventh day, and he shall purifie himselfe the seventh day, and wash his clothes, and wash himselfe in water, and shall be cleane at euen.

24 But the man that is unclean, and purifieth not himselfe, that person shall be cut off from among the Congregation, because he hath defiled the Sanctuary of the Lord: and the sprinkling water hath not bene sprinkled upon him: therefore shall he be unclean.

25 And it shall be a perpetual Law unto them, that he that sprinkled the sprinkling water, shall wash his clothes: also he that toucheth the sprinkling water, shall be unclean untill euen.

26 And whosoever the unclean person toucheth, shall be unclean: and the person that toucheth him, shall be unclean untill the euen.

8 Take the rod, and gather thou and thy brother Aaron the Congregation together, & spake thou unto the rock before their eyes, and it shall give forth his water, and thou shalt bring them water out of y<sup>e</sup> rocks: so thou shalt give the Congregation their beaulty drinks.

9 Then Moses took the rod from before the Lord, as he had commanded him.

10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the Congregation together before the rock, and Moses layd unto them, heare now, ye rebels: shall we bring you water out of this rock?

11 Then Moses lift up his hand, & with his rod he smote the rock twice, and the water came out abundantly: so the Congregation, and their beaulty drank.

12 Again the Lord spake unto Moses, and to Aaron, Because ye have not sanctified mee in the presence of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this Congregation into the land which I have given them.

13 This is the water of y<sup>e</sup> Meribah, because the children of Israel throve with the Lord, and he was sanctified in them.

14 Then Moses sent messengers from Kadesh unto the king of Edom, saying, Thus saith thy brother Israel, Thou knowest all the travail that we have had,

15 Now our fathers went downe into Egypt, and we dwelt in Egypt a long time, where the Egyptians handled us euill, and our fathers.

16 But when we cryed unto the Lord, he heard our voyce, and sent an Angell, and hath brought vs out of Egypt, and behold, we are in the citie Kadesh, in thine utmost border.

17 I pray thee that we may passe through thy country: we will not goe through the fieldes nor the vineyards, neither will wee drinke of the water of the Welles: we will goe by the Kings way, and neither turne unto the right hand nor to the left, untill we be past thy borders.

18 And Edom answered him, I Thou shalt not passe by me, lest I come out against thee with the sword.

19 Then the children of Israel said unto him, Wee will goe up by the hie way: and if I and my cattell drinke of thy water, I will then pay for it: I will onely (without any harme) goe through on my feete.

20 He answered againe, Thou shalt not goe through. Then I Edom came out against him with much people, and with a mighty power.

21 Thus Edom denied to give Israel passage through his country: wherefore Israel turned away from him.

22 And when the children of Israel with all the Congregation departed from Kadesh, they came into the mount Hor.

23 And the Lord spake unto Moses and to Aaron in the mount Hor neere the coast of the land of Edom, saying,

24 Aaron shall bee gathered unto his people: for he shall not enter into the land, which I have giuen unto the children of Israel, because ye disobeyed my commandment at the water of y<sup>e</sup> Meribah.

25 Take Aaron and Eleazar his sonne, and bring them up into the mount Hor, 26 And cause Aaron to put off his garments, & put them upon Eleazar his sonne: for Aaron shall be gathered to his fathers, and shall die there.

27 And Moses did as the Lord had commanded: and they went up into the mount Hor, in the sight of all the Congregation.

28 And Moses put off Aarons clothes, and put them upon Eleazar his sonne: so Aaron died there in the top of the mount: and Moses and Eleazar came downe from all the mount.

29 When all the Congregation saw that Aaron was dead, all the house of Israel wept for Aaron thirtie dayes.

3 Israel vniuersally king Arad. 6 The serpsents are sent for the rebellion of the people. 24. 33 Sabon and Og are overcome in battell.

When King Arad the Canaanite, which dwelt toward y<sup>e</sup> South, heard tell that Israel came by the way of the spies, then fought hee against Israel, and tooke of them prisoners.

2 So Israel bowed a bow unto the Lord, and said, If thou wilt deliuer and giue this people into mine hand, then I will utterly destroy their citie.

3 And the Lord heard the voyce of Israel, and deliuered them the Canaanites: and they utterly destroyed them and their citie, and called the name of the place y<sup>e</sup> Boznab.

4 After, they departed from the mount Hor by the way of the red Sea, to compass the land of Edom: and the people were sore grieved because of the way.

5 And the people spake against God and against Moses, saying, Wherefore haue ye brought vs out of Egypt, to die in the wilderness? for here is neither bread nor water, and our soule lotheth this light bread.

6 Wherefore the Lord sent fierie serpsents among the people, which sting the people: so that many of the people of Israel died.

7 Therefore the people came to Moses, and saide, Wee haue sinned: for wee haue spoken against the Lord, and against thee: pray to the Lord, that he take away the serpsents from vs: and Moses prayed for the people.

8 And the Lord said unto Moses, Make thee a fierie serpent, and set it up: for a signe, that as many as are bitten, may looke vpon it, and liue.

9 So Moses made a serpent of brass, and set it up for a signe: and when a serpent had bitten a man, then he looked to the serpent of brass, and liued.

18 The Princes digged this Well, the captaynes of the people digged it, euen the Languiers, with their stauers. And from the wilderness they came to Mattanah.

19 And from Mattanah to Babaliel, and from Babaliel to Bamoth.

20 And from Bamoth in the balley, that is in the plaine of Moab, to the top of Peilah that looketh toward Ieshimon.

21 And then Israel sent messengers vnto Sihon king of the Amoyites, saying,

22 Let me goe thorow the land: we will not turne aside vnto the fieldes, nor into the vineyards, neither drinke of the waters of the Well: we will goe by the kings way, vntill we be past thy country.

23 But Sihon gaue Israel no licence to passe thorow his country, but Sihon assembled all his people, and went out against Israel into the wilderness: and he came to Iabor, and fought against Israel.

24 But Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and conquered his land, from Arnon vnto Iabor, euen vnto the children of Ammon: for the border of the children of Ammon was strong.

25 And Israel tooke all these cities, and dwelt in all the cities of the Amoyites in Ieshimon, and in all the villages thereof.

26 For Ieshimon was the citie of Sihon the king of the Amoyites, which had fought before time against the king of the Moabites, and had taken all his land out of his hand, euen vnto Arnon.

27 Wherefore they that spake in proverbs, say, Come to Ieshimon, let the citie of Sihon be built, and repaired:

28 For a fire is gone out of Ieshimon, and a flame from the citie of Sihon, & hath consumed Ar of the Moabites, and the lords of Bamoth in Arnon.

29 And he to thee, Moab: O people of Chemosh, thou art undone: he hath suffered his sonnes to be purged, and his daughters to be in chastitie to Sihon the king of the Amoyites.

30 Their empire also is lost from Heshbon vnto Dibon, and were hane destroyed them vnto Heshbah, which reacheth vnto Ieshimon.

31 And thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amoyites.

32 And Israel sent to search out Hazer, and they tooke the towines belonging thereto, and rooted out the Amoyites that were there.

33 And they turned and went vp toward Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan came out against them, he, and all his people to fight at Endor.

34 Then the Lord sayde vnto Moses, Feare him not: for I haue deliuered him into thine hand: & all his people, and his land: and thou shalt doe to him, as thou didst vnto Sihon the King of the Amoyites, which dwelt at Heshbon.

35 They smote him therefore, and his sonnes, and all his people, until there was none left him: so they conquered his land.

2 And now Balak the sonne of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amoyites.

3 And the Moabites were also afraid of the people, because they were many: & Moab fled against the children of Israel.

4 Therefore Moab said vnto the Elders of Midian, Now shall this multitude lick by all that are round about vs, as an ore licketh vp the grasse of the field: and Balak the sonne of Zippor was king of the Moabites at that time.

5 And hee sent messengers therefore vnto Balaam the sonne of Beor to Pethor (which is by the river of the land of the children of his tolke) to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, which couer the face of the earth: & lie ouer against me.

6 Come now therefore, I pray thee, and curse me this people: (for they are stronger then I) so it may be that I shall be able to smite them, & to drine them out of the land: for I know that he whom thou blest, is blessed, and he, whom thou cursest, shall be cursed.

7 And the Elders of Moab, and the Elders of Midian departed saying, The reward of the footplaye in their hand, and they came vnto Balaam, and told him the words of Balak.

8 And he answered them, Carry here this night, and I will giue you an answer, as the Lord shall lay vnto me. So the Elders of Moab abode with Balaam.

9 Then Balaam came vnto Balaam, and said, Behold, now am I with thee.

10 And

10 And Balaam saide vnto God, Balak the sonne of Zippor, King of Moab hath sent vnto me, saying,

11 Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, and covered the face of the earth: come now, curse them for my sake: so it may be that I shall be able to overcome them in battle, and I will curse them.

12 And God said vnto Balaam, I will not hearken vnto thee: for thou hast stood upon the degree, for they are blessed.

13 And Balaam rose vp in the morning, and said vnto the princes of Balak, Returne vnto your land: for the Lord hath refused to giue me leave to go with you.

14 And the princes of Moab rose vp, and went vnto Balak, and said, Balaam hath refused to come with vs.

15 And Balak yet sent againe more princes and more honourable then they.

16 And he came to Balaam, and saide to him, Thus saith Balak the sonne of Zippor, Be not thus stayed, I pray thee, from coming vnto me.

17 For I will promote thee vnto great honour, and will doe whatsoeuer thou shalt vnto me: come therefore, I pray thee, curse this people.

18 And Balaam answered, and saide vnto the seruants of Balak, If Balak would giue me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot goe beyond the word of the Lord my God, to doe lesse or more.

19 But now, I pray you, tarry here this night, that I may wit, what the Lord will say vnto me more.

20 And God came vnto Balaam by night, and said vnto him, If the men come to call thee, rise vp, and goe with them: but onely what thing I say vnto thee, that shalt thou doe.

21 And Balaam rose vp early, and sated his asse, & went with the princes of Moab.

22 And the watch of God was kindled, because he went: and the Angel of the Lord stood in the way to be against him, as he rode vpon his asse, and his two seruants were with him.

23 And when the asse sawe the Angel of the Lord stand in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand, the asse turned out of the way and went into the field, but Balaam smote the asse, to turne her into the way.

24 Againe the Angel of the Lord stood in a path of the vineyardes, hauing a wall on the one side, and a wall on the other.

25 And when the asse sawe the Angel of the Lord, shee thrust her sette into the wall, and baste Balaams foot against the wall: wherefore he smote her againe.

26 Then the Angel of the Lord went further, and stood in a narrowe place, where was no way to turne, either to the right hand or to the left.

27 And when the asse sawe the Angel of the Lord, shee lay downe vnder Balaam: then the Balaam was very wroth, & smote the asse with a staffe.

28 Then the Lord opened the mouth of the asse, and shee sayde vnto Balaam, What haue I done vnto thee, that thou hast smitten me now three times?

29 And Balaam sayd vnto the asse, Because thou hast mocked mee: I would there were a sword in mine hand, for now would I kill thee.

30 And the asse said vnto Balaam, Am not I thine asse, which thou hast ridden vpon since the first time vnto this day? haue I died at any time to doe thus vnto thee? to morrow, I die.

31 And the Lord opened the eyes of Balaam, & hee sawe the Angel of the Lord standing in the way with his sword drawn in his hand: then he bowed himselfe, and fell flat on his face.

32 And the Angel of the Lord saide vnto him, Wherefore hast thou now smitten thine asse three times? Beholde, I came out to withstand thee, because thy way is not straight before me.

33 But the asse sawe mee, and turned from mee now three times: for if, if he had not turned from me, surely I had euen now slaine thee, and saved her alive.

34 Then Balaam sayd vnto the Angel of the Lord, I haue sinned: for I wist not that thou stoodest in the way against mee: now therefore if it displease thee, I will turne home againe.

35 But the Angel saide vnto Balaam, Go with the men: but what I say vnto thee, that shalt thou speake. So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

36 And when Balak heard that Balaam came, he went out to meete him vnto a citie of Moab, which is in the border of Arnon, euen in the utmost coast.

37 Then Balak said vnto Balaam, Did I not send for thee to call thee? & therefore camest thou not vnto mee? am I not able in deed to promote thee vnto honour?

38 And Balaam made answer vnto Balak, I oe, I am come vnto thee, and can I now say any thing at all? the word that God putteth in my mouth, that shall I speake.

39 So Balaam went with Balak, and they came vnto the citie of Moab.

40 Then Balak offered bullockes, and sheepe, and sent thereof to Balaam, and to the princes that were with him.

41 And on the morrow Balak tooke Balaam, and brought him vp into the high places of Baal, that thence he might see the utmost part of the people.

6 So when he returned vnto him, ſo he ſtood by his burnt offering, he, and all the princes of Moab.

7 Then he uttered his parable, and ſaid, Balak the king of Moab hath brought me from I Aram out of the mountains of the Eaſt, ſaying, Come, curſe Iacob for my ſake: come, and deſect Iſrael.

8 Woe ſhall I curſe, where God hath not curſed: or how ſhall I deſect, where the Lord hath not deſected?

9 For from the top of the rockes I did ſee him, and from the billes I did beholde him: loe, the people ſhall dwell by themſelues, and ſhall not be reckoned among the nations.

10 Who can tell the duſt of Iacob, and the number of the fourth part of Iſrael: Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my laſt end be like his.

11 Then Balak ſaid vnto Balaam, What haſt thou done vnto me? I took thee to curſe mine enemies, and behold, thou haſt bleſſed them altogether.

12 And hee answered, and ſaid, Woe
I not take heed to ſpeake that which the Lord hath put in my mouth?

13 And Balak ſayd vnto him, Come, I pray thee, with mee vnto another place, whence thou maieſt ſee them, and thou ſhalt ſee but the third part of them, and ſhalt not ſee them all: therefore curſe them out of that place for my ſake.

14 And he brought him into the ſpecophim to the top of Pilgab, and built ſeuen altars, and offered a bullocke, and a ramme on every altar.

15 After, he ſaid vnto Balak, Stand here by thy burnt offering, and I will meete the Lord yonder.

16 And the Lord mer Balaam, and put an anſwer in his mouth, & ſaid, Goe againe vnto Balak, and ſay thus.

17 And when he came to him, behold, he ſtood by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with him: ſo Balak ſaid vnto him,
What hath the Lord ſaid?

18 And he uttered his parable, and ſayd, Riſe vp, Balak, and heare: hearken vnto me, thou ſonne of Zippor.

19 God is not as man, that he ſhould lie, neither as the ſonne of man that he ſhould repent: hath he ſaid, and ſhall he not do it:
and hath he ſpoken, and ſhall he not accompliſh it?

20 Behold, I haue receiued commandement to bleſſe: for he hath bleſſed, and I cannot alter it.

21 He ſeeth none iniquitie in Iacob, nor ſeeth no transgression in Iſrael: the Lord his God is with him, and the ioyfull ſpout of a King is among them.

22 God brought them out of Egypt: the ſtrength is as an ſcorpion.

23 For there is no ſtrength in Iacob, nor displaying in Iſrael: according to this time it ſhall be ſaid of Iacob and of Iſrael,
What hath God wrought?

24 Behold, the people ſhall riſe vp as a Lion, and liſt himſelfe as a young Lion: he ſhall not lie downe, till he eate of the ſkull, and ſhall be like the lion of the ſonne.

25 Then Balak ſaid vnto Balaam,
Neither curſe, nor bleſſe them at all.

26 But Balaam and werred, and ſayd vnto Balak, Loſt not I thee ſaying, All that the Lord ſpeaketh, that muſt I doe?

27 And againe Balak ſayd vnto Balaam, Come, I pray thee, I will bring thee vnto another place, it is he will ſpeak vnto thee:
thou maieſt therefore curſe them for my ſake.

28 So Balak brought Balaam vnto the top of Peor, that looketh toward Jeruſalem.

29 Then Balaam ſayd vnto Balak, Make me here ſeuen altars, and prepare me here ſeuen bullockes, and ſeuen rammes.

30 And Balak did as Balaam had ſayd, and offered a bullocke and a ramme, on eu-ery altar.

5 Balaam propheticall of the great proſperitie that ſhould come vnto Iſrael: 17 Alſo of the com-ming of Chriſt. 20 The deſtruction of the Amale-kites, and of the Kenites.

W Hen Balaam ſaw that it pleaſed the Lord to bleſſe Iſrael, then hee went not, as certaine times before, to ſee diuina-tions, but ſet his face toward the wilderneſſe.

2 And Balaam liſt vp his eyes, and looked vpon Iſrael, which dwelt according to their tribes, and the Spirit of God came vpon him.

3 And he uttered his parable, and ſaid, Balaam the ſon of Beor hath ſaid, and the man, whole eyes were ſhut vp, hath ſayd,

4 He hath ſaid, which heard the wordes of God, and ſaw the viſion of the Almighty, and ſitting in a crumme, had his eyes opened:

5 How goodly are the tents of Iac-ob, and thine habitations, O Iſrael!

6 As the halleyes, are they ſtreched ſooth, as gardens by the riuers ſide, as the Aloe trees, which the Lord hath planted, as the Cedars beſide the waters.

7 The water ſpouteth out of his burhet, and his ſeed ſhalbe in many waters: and his King ſhalbe higher then Agag, and his kingdome ſhalbe exalted.

8 God brought him out of Egypt: his ſtrength ſhalbe as an ſcorpion: he ſhall ear the nations his enemies, and buſie their bones, and ſhoot them thorow with his ar-rowes.

9 He coucheth & lieth downe as a young Lion, and as a Lion: who ſhall ſtirre him vp, bleſſed is he that bleſſeth thee, and curſed is he that curſeth thee.

10 Then Balak was very angry with Balaam, and ſmote his handes together:
ſo Balak ſaid vnto Balaam, I ſent for thee to curse mine enemies, and behold thou hast blessed them more than I thought.

11 Therefore now flee unto thy place: I thought the high places would honour thee, but the Lord hath rejected thee back to confusion.

12 Then Balaam answered Balak, SAY I will also thy challenges, which thou sentest unto me, saying,

13 If Balak would give me his house full of silver and golde, I cannot passe the commandment of the Lord, to do either good or bad of mine owne minde: what the Lord shall command, that same I will speake.

14 And now beholde, I goe vnto my people: come, I will & advertise thee what this people shall doe to thy folk in the latter dayes.

15 And he uttered his parable, and sayd, Balaam the sonne of Beor hath layde, and the min shall erre from their path, sayn:

16 He hath sayd that heate the words of God, and hath the knowledge of the most high, and know the tuition of the Almighty, and falling in a trance had his eyes opened:

17 I shall see him, but not nether: I shall behold him, but not nere: there shall come a flower of thistles, with a thistle shall rise of Israel, and shall smite the corners of Moab, and destroy all the corners of Moab.

18 And Edom shall be possession, and their shall be a possession to their enemies: but Iacob shall bee victorious.

19 He said that shall have dominion, shall be of Moab, and shall destroy the remnant of the city.

20 And when he looked on Amalek, he uttered his parable, and sayd, Amalek was the first of the nations: but his latter end shall come to destruction.

21 And he looked on the Kenites, and uttered his parable, and sayd, Strong is thy dwelling place, and put thy nest in the rocks.

22 Nevertheless, the Kenites shall be spoiled, until Ashtar carry thee away captive.

23 Again he uttered his parable, and sayd, Alas, who shall line when God doeth this?

24 The hippes also shall come from the coastes of Chetim, and subdue Assur, and shall subdue Eber, and he also shall come to destruction.

25 Then Balaam rose vp, and went and returned to his place: and Balak also went his way.

CHAP. XXV.

1 The people commeth fornication with the daughters of Moab. 2 Phinehas killeth Zimri & Cozbi. 3 God maketh his covenant with Phinehas. 4 God's command to kill the Midianites.

NOW whilste Israel abode in Midian, the people began to commit whoredome with the daughters of Moab:

2 Which called the people unto the sacrifice of their gods, and the people ate, and bowed downe to their gods.

3 And Israel coupled himselfe vnto Baal Peor: wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel.

4 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Take all the heads of the people, and hang them vp before the Lord: against the Sunne, that the imagination of the Lords wrath may be turned from Israel.

5 Then Moses laid vnto the Iunges of Israel, Every one day his men that were turned vnto Baal Peor.

6 And beholde, one of the children of Israel came and brought vnto his brethren a Midianitish woman in the lap of clothes, and in the sight of all the Congregation of the children of Israel, who wept before the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

7 And when Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar the sonne of Aaron the Priest saw it, hee rose vp from the midst of the Congregation, and tooke a spear in his hand,

8 And followed the man of Israel into the tent, and thrust them both thorow with the man of Israel, and the woman, who were bellying: to the plague ceased from the children of Israel.

9 And there died in that plague four and twentieth thousand.

10 Then the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

11 Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar, the sonne of Aaron the Priest, hath turned mine anger away from the children of Israel, because hee was zealous for my sake among them: therefore I haue not consumed the children of Israel in my zealousie.

12 And Moses sayd vnto him, Behold, I give vnto him my Covenant of peace, 13 And he shall haue it, and his seed after him, when the Covenant of the Priestries office for ever, because he was zealous for his God, and hath made an atonement for the children of Israel.

14 And the name of the Altarite thus flaine, which was killed with the Midianitish woman, was Zimri the sonne of Salu, yonger of the familie of the Gimeonites.

15 And the name of the Midianitish woman that was slaine, was Cozbi the daughter of Zur, who was head ouer the people of his fathers house in Midian.

16 And againe the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

17 Here the Midianites, I smite them:

18 For they trouble you with their wiles wherewith they haue beguiled you, as concerning Moab, and as concerning their sister Cozbi the daughter of a prince of Midian, which was slaine in the day of the plague because of Peor.

CHAP. XXVI.

3 The daily sacrifice. 9 The sacrifice of new sheepe. 11 Of the Month, 16 Of the Passouer. 26 Of the first fruits.

A And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, 2 Command the children of Israel, and say vnto them, Ye shall observe to offer vnto mee in their due season mine offering, and a new heere, for my sacrifices made by fire for a sweet savour vnto mee.

3 And thou shalt say vnto them, This is the offering made by fire, which ye shall offer vnto the Lord, two lambes of a yeere old without spot, daily, for a continual burnt offering.

4 One lambe shalt thou prepare in the morning, and the other lambe shalt thou prepare at euen.

5 And the tenth part of an Ephah of fine flour for a meate offering mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oyle.

6 This shall be a daily burnt offering, as was made in the mount Sinai for a sweet saviour: it is a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.

7 And the drinke offering thereof, the fourth part of an hin for one lambe: in the holy place shalt thou poyne the drinke offering vnto the Lord.

8 And the other lambe thou shalt prepare at euen: as the meate offering of the morning, and as the drinke offering thereof shalt thou prepare the same for an offering made by fire of sweet saviour vnto the Lord.

9 But on the Sabbath day, thou shalt offer two lambes of a yeere old, without spot, and two tenth deales of fine flour for a meate offering mingled with oyle, and the drinke offering thereof.

10 This is the burnt offering of every Sabbath, beside the continual burnt offering, and drinke offering thereof.

11 And in the beginning of your moeths, ye shall offer a burnt offering vnto the Lord, two young bullocks, and a ram, and seven lambes of a yeere old without spot. 12 And three tenth deales of fine flour for a meate offering mingled with oyle for one bullocke: and two tenth deales of fine flour for a meate offering mingled with oyle for one lambe.

13 And a tenth deale of the flour mingled with oyle for a meate offering vnto one lambe, for a burnt offering of sweet saviour: it is an offering made by fire vnto the Lord.

14 And their drinke offerings shall be, half an hin of wine vnto one bullocke, and the third part of an hin vnto a ram, and the fourth part of an hin vnto a lambe: this is the burnt offering of every moeth, throughout the moeths of the yeere.

15 And on her goats for a burnt offering vnto the Lord shall be prepared, besides the continual burnt offering, and his drinke offering.

16 All the fourteenth day of the first moeth in the Passouer of the Lord.

17 And in the fifteenth day of the same moeth in the feast: seven dayes shall bullocks be offered vnto the Lord.

18 In the first day shall be an holy communion, ye shall haue sabbath rest therein.

19 But ye shall offer a sacrifice made by assembly, fire shall be burnt offering vnto the Lord, two young bullocks, one ram, and seven lambes of a yeere old: for that they be without blemish.

20 And their meate offering shall be of fine flour mingled with oyle: three tenth deales for one bullocke, and two tenth deales for one lambe.

21 One tenth deale shalt thou prepare for every lambe, even for the seven lambes.

22 And on her goats for a burnt offering, to make an atonement for you.

23 Ye shall prepare this beside the burnt offering in the morning, which is a continual burnt offering.

24 After they haue so shall ye prepare throughout all the seven dayes for the maintenance of the offering made by fire for a sweet saviour vnto the Lord: it shall be none beside the continual burnt offering and drinke offering thereof.

25 And in the seventh day ye shall haue an holy communion, wherein ye shall doe meate and drinke.

26 All on the day of your first fruits, when ye bring a new meate offering vnto the Lord, according to your manner ye shall haue an holy communion, and ye shall haue seven bullocks, seven lambs, and seven kids from the Passouer.

27 But ye shall offer a burnt offering for her to Whose a sacrifice is made vnto the Lord, two young bullocks, a ram, and seven lambes of a yeere old.

28 And their meate offering of fine flour mingled with oyle, three tenth deales vnto one bullocke, two tenth deales to a ram.

29 And one tenth deale vnto every kid, throughout the seven dayes.

30 And on her goats to make an atonement for you.

among the Congregation of the Lord.

17 And therefore, * slay all the males among the children; and kill all the women that haue known man by carnall copulation.

18 But all the women children that haue not known carnall copulation, keepe aliuie for your selues.

19 And yee shall remaine without the holie seuen dayes, all that haue killed any person, and all that haue touched any dead, and purifie both your selues and your prisoners the third day and the seventh.

20 Also yee shall purifie every garment, and all that is made of skins, and all worke of goats haire, and all things made of wood.

21 And Eleazar the Priest sayde vnto the men of warre, which went to the battell, This is the ordinance of the lawe which the Lord commanded Moses.

22 As for golde, and siluer, brasse, yron, tinne, and lead:

23 Euen all that may abide the fire, ye shall make it goe through the fire, and it shall bee cleane: yet it shall bee purified with the water of purification: and all that suffereth not the fire, ye shall carie to passe by the water.

24 Yee shall wash also your clothes the seventh day, and yee shall bee cleane: and afterward ye shall come into the host.

25 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

26 Take the summe of the praye that was taken, both of persons and of cattell, thou and Eleazar the Priest, and the chief fathers of the Congregation.

27 And diuide the praye betweene the soldiers that went to the warre, and all the Congregation.

28 And thou shalt take a tribute vnto the Lord of the men of warre, which went out to battell: one portion of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the beastes, and of the asses, and of the sheepe.

29 Ye shall take it of their halfe, and giue it vnto Eleazar the Priest, as an heave offering of the Lord.

30 Out of the halfe of the children of Israel thou shalt take one, taken out of fiftie, both of the persons, of the beastes, of the asses, and of the sheepe, euen of all the cattell: and thou shalt giue them vnto the Levites, which haue the charge of the Tabernacle of the Lord.

31 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest did as the Lord had commanded Moses.

32 And a boote to wit, the rest of the pray which the men of warre had spoyle, was five hundred threente and five thousand sheepe,

33 And threente and two thousand beastes,

34 And threente and one thousand asses,

35 And two and thirty thousand persons: all of women that had a hen by so man.

36 And the halfe, to wit, the part of them that went out to warre, touching the number of sheepe, was three hundredth and seuen and thirte thousand, and five hundredth.

37 And the Lords tribute of the sheepe, was five hundredth and threente and five;

38 And the beastes were five and thirte thousand, whereof the Lords tribute was threente and five.

39 And the asses were thirte thousand and five hundredth, whereof the Lords tribute was threente and one:

40 And of persons threente thousand, whereof the Lords tribute was two and thirte persons.

41 And Moses gaue the tribute of the Lords offering vnto Eleazar the Priest, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

42 And of the halfe of the children of Israel, which Moses diuided from the men of warre, 43 (For the halfe that pertained vnto the Congregation, was three hundred thirte and seuen thousand sheepe & five hundredth,

44 And five and thirte thousand beastes,

45 And thirte thousand asses, and five hundredth,

46 And threente thousand persons)

47 Moses, I say, took of the halfe that pertained vnto the children of Israel, one taken out of fiftie, both of the persons, and of the cattell, and gaue them vnto the Levites, which haue the charge of the Tabernacle of the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

48 And when the capitaines which were ouer thousands of the host, the capitaines ouer the hundreds, and the capitaines ouer the hundreds came vnto Moses:

49 And sayde to Moses, Thy seruants haue taken the summe of the men of warre which are vnder: our anubyste, and there lacketh not one man of vs.

50 We haue therefore brought a present vnto the Lorde, what euery man found of shewels of gold, bracelets, and chains, rings, earrings, and ornaments of the legs, to make an atonement for our soules before the Lord.

51 And Moses & Eleazar the Priest took the golde of them, and all wrought shewels.

52 And all the golde of the offering that they offered vp to the Lord (of the capitaines ouer thousands and hundreds) was threente thousand seuen hundredth and fiftie shekels.

53 (For the men of warre had spoyle, euery man for him selfe)

54 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest took the golde of the capitaines ouer the thousands, and ouer the hundreds, and brought it into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, for a memoriall of the children of Israel before the Lord.

8 Two and fourtie journeyes of Israel are numbered. 9 They are comanded to keepe the Canaanites
These are the journeyes of the children of Israel, which went out of the land of Egypt according to their bands vnder the hand of Moses and Aaron.

2 And Moses wrote their going out by their journeyes according to the commandement of the Lord: in these are the journeyes of their going out.

3 Now they * departed from Rameses the first month, even the fifteenth day of the first month, on the morrow after the Passover: and the children of Israel went out with an high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians.

4 (For the Egyptians buried all their first borne, which the Lord had smitten among them: upon their * gods also the Lord did execution.)

5 And the children of Israel remooued from Rameses, and pitched in Succoth.

6 And they departed from * Succoth, and pitched in Etham, which is in the edge of the wilderness.

7 And they remooued from Etham, and turned againe vnto * Pi-hahiroth, which is before Baal-zephon, and pitched before Higdal.

8 And they departed from before Hahiroth, and * went through the middes of the Sea into the wilderness, and went three dayes journey in the wilderness of Etham, and pitched in Parah.

9 And they remooued from Parah, and came vnto * Elim, and in Elim were twelue fountains of water, and twentie palme trees, and they pitched there.

10 And they remooued from Elim, and camped by the red sea.

11 And they remooued from the red sea, and lay in the * wilderness of Sin.

12 And they tooke their journey out of the wilderness of Sin, and set by their tents in Dophkah.

13 And they departed from Dophkah, and lay in Alush.

14 And they remooued from Alush, and lay in * Rephidim, where was no water for the people to drinke.

15 And they departed from Rephidim, and pitched in the * wilderness of Sinai.

16 And they remooued from the desert of Sinai, and pitched * in Kibroth Hatta-uah.

17 And they departed from Kibroth Hat-

18 And they departed from Dabar, and pitched in Rithmah.

19 And they departed from * Rithmah, and pitched at Rimmon Paraz.

20 And they departed from Rimmon
Paraz, and pitched in Libnah.

21 And they remooued from Libnah, and pitched in Rissah.

22 And they journeyed from Rissah, and pitched in Rehelathah.

23 And they went from Rehelathah, and pitched in mount Shapher.

24 And they remooued from mount Sha-pher, and lay in Paradah.

25 And they remooued from Paradah, and pitched in Haheloch.

26 And they remooued from Haheloch, and lay in Tabath.

27 And they departed from Tabath, and pitched in Tarah.

28 And they remooued from Tarah, and pitched in Hithkah.

29 And they went from Hithkah, and pitched in Hahmonah.

30 And they departed from Hahmonah, and lay in Haheroth.

31 And they departed from Haheroth, and pitched in Bene-iaakan.

32 And they remooued from Bene-iaa-kan, and lay in Hoz-hagidgad.

33 And they went from Hoz-hagidgad, and pitched in Iorbarthah.

34 And they remooued from Iorbarthah, and lay in Ethonah.

35 And they departed from Ethonah, and lay in Ezion-gaber.

36 And they remooued from Ezion-gaber, and pitched in the * wilderness of Zin, which is Kadesh.

37 And they remooued from Kadesh, and pitched in mount Hoz, in the edge of the land of Edom.

38 (And Aaron the Priest went vp into mount Hoz at the commandement of the Lord, and died there in the fortieth yeere after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the first day of the fifth moneth.)

39 And Aaron was an hundred & thirtie mount Hoz.

40 And * King Arad the Canaanite, which dwelt in the South of the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the children of Israel.

41 And they departed from mount * Hoz, and pitched in Zalmonah.

42 And they departed from Zalmonah, and pitched in Dimon.

43 And they departed from Dimon, and pitched in Dibo.

44 * And they departed from Dibo, and pitched in Ierabba in the borders of Moab.

45 And they departed from Ierabba, and pitched in Dibon-gad.

46 And they remooued from Dibon-gad, and lay in Almon-diblahaim.

47 And they remooued from Almon diblahaim, and pitched in the mountaines of Abarim before Hesebo.

48 And they departed from the moun-taines of Abarim, and pitched in the plaine of Moab, by Iorden toward Iericho.

49 And they pitched by Iorden, from Beth-jeshimath vnto * Abel-hittun, in the plaine of Moab.

ye shall give unto the Levites, from the wall of the city without shall be a thousand cubits round about.

And ye shall measure without the city of the East side, two thousand cubits: and of the South side, two thousand cubits: and of the West side, two thousand cubits: and of the North side, two thousand cubits: and the city shall be in the midst: this shall be the measure of the suburbs of their cities.

And of the cities which ye shall give unto the Levites, there shall be five cities for refuge, which ye shall appoint, that he which killeth may flee thither: and to them ye shall add two and forty cities more.

All the cities which ye shall give to the Levites, shall be eight and forty cities: them shall ye give with their suburbs.

And concerning the cities which ye shall give, of the possession of the children of Israel: of many ye shall take more, and of few ye shall take less: according to his inheritance, which he inheriteth.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come over Jordan into the land of Canaan,

Ye shall appoint you cities, to be cities of refuge for you, that the slayer, which slayeth any person unawares, may flee thither.

And these cities shall be for you a refuge from the avenger, that he which killeth, die not, until he stand before the Congregation in judgement.

And of the cities which ye shall give, five cities shall ye have for refuge.

Ye shall appoint these: on this side Jordan, and ye shall appoint three cities in the land of Canaan which shall be cities of refuge.

These five cities shall be a refuge for the children of Israel, and for the stranger, and for him that dwelleth among you, that ever one which killeth any person unawares, may flee thither.

And if one smite another with an instrument of iron that hee die, he is a murderer, and the murderer shall die the death.

Also if hee smite him by casting a stone, wherewith he may be slain, and he die, he is a murderer, and the murderer shall die the death.

Or if he smite him with an hand weapon of wood, wherewith he may be slain, if hee die, he is a murderer, and the murderer shall die the death.

The revenger of the blood himselfe shall slay the murderer: when hee meeteth him, he shall slay him.

But if he thrust him of hate, or hurle at him by laying of wait, that he die,

Or if he smite him through enmity with his hand, that he die, or that smite him shall die the death: for he is a murderer: the revenger of the blood shall slay the murderer when hee meeteth him.

But if hee pushed him unadvisedly, and not of hatred, nor cast upon him any thing, without laying of wait,

Or if hee smite him with his hand, that hee die, or that smite him shall die the death: for he is a murderer: the revenger of the blood shall slay the murderer when hee meeteth him.

Then the Congregation shall judge between the slayer and the avenger of blood according to their lawes.

And the Congregation shall deliver the slayer out of the hand of the avenger of blood: and the Congregation shall restore him unto the city of his refuge, whither hee was fled: and hee shall abide there unto the death of the high Priest, which is anointed with the holy oyle.

But if the slayer come without the borders of the city of his refuge, whether he was fled,

And the revenger of blood finde him without the borders of the city of his refuge, and the avenger of blood slay the murderer, hee shall be guiltlesse.

Because hee should have remained in the city of his refuge, until the death of the high Priest: And after the death of the high Priest, the slayer shall returne to the land of his possession.

So these things shall be a lawe of judgement unto you, throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

Whosoever killeth any person, the judge shall slay the murderer, though witnesses: but one witness shall not testify against a person, to cause him to die.

Whosoever ye shall take no recompense for the life of the murderer, which is worthy to die: but he shall be put to death.

Also ye shall take no recompense for him that is fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come againe, and dwell in the land, before the death of the high Priest.

So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye shall dwell: for blood defileth the land: and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it.

Defile not therefore the land which ye shall inhabit, for I dwell in the midst thereof: for I the Lord dwell among the children of Israel.

An order for the marriages of the daughters of Zelophehad. The inheritance could not be given from one tribe to another.

Then the chiefe fathers of the familie of the sonnes of Silead, the sonne of Machir, the sonne of Manasse, of the families of the sonnes of Joseph, came, and spake before Moses, and before the princes, the chiefe fathers of the children of Israel,

And said, The Lord commanded my lord to give the land to inherit by lot to the children of Israel: and my Lord was commanded by the Lord, to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother unto his daughters.

If they be married to any of the sonnes of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of our fathers, and shall be put unto the inheritance of the tribe whereof they shall be: so shall it be taken

4 And when the Iubile of the children of Israel cometh, then shall their inheritance be put into the inheritance of the tribe wherof they shall bee: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 Then Moses commanded the children of Israel, according to the word of the Lord, saying, The tribe of the sonnes of Joseph haue said well.

6 This is the thing that the Lord hath commanded, concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, They shall bee wiues, to whom they thinke best, onely to the familie of the tribe of their father shall they marry:

7 So that not the inheritance of the children of Israel remoue from tribe to tribe, for euery one of the children of Israel shall toyn himselfe to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And euery daughter that possesseth any inheritance of the tribes of the children of Israel, shall befall vnto one of the familie of the tribe of her father: that the children of Israel may enjoy euery man the inheritance of their fathers.

9 Neither shall the inheritance go about from tribe to tribe: but euery one of the tribes of the children of Israel shall stick to his owne inheritance.

10 And the Lord commanded Moses, to bid the daughters of Zelophehad.

11 For Gadlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Sheilah, and Noah the daughters of Zelophehad were married vnto their fathers brothers sonnes.

12 They were wiues to certain of the families of the sonnes of Manasse the sonne of Joseph: so their inheritance remained in the tribe of the familie of their father.

13 These are the commandments and lawes which the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses, vnto the children of Israel in the plaine of Moab by Iordan toward Jericho.

The fift booke of Moses, called

* Deuteronomie.

THE ARGUMENT.

* That is, a second lawe: so called because the Law, which God gaue in mount Sinai, is here repeated, as though it were a new Law; and this booke is a commentarie or exposition of the ten commandments.

THE wonderfull loue of God toward his Church is liuely set forth in this booke. For albeit through their ingratitude and sundry rebellions against God, for the space of forty yeeres, Deut. 9.7. they had deserved to haue bene cutt off from the number of his people, and for euery he had bene deprived of the vse of his holy Word and Sacraments: yet hee did but preferre his Church, euen for his owne mercies sake, and would still haue his Name called vpon among them. Wherefore he bringeth them into the land of Canaan, destroyeth their enemies, giueth them their country, to wnes and goods, and exhorteth them by the example of their fathers (whose infidelity, idolatry, adulteries, murmurings and rebellion, he had most sharply punished) to feare and obey the Lord, to imbrace and keepe his Law without adding thereto, or diminishing therefrom. For by his Word hee would be knowne to be their God, and they his people: by his Word hee would governe his Church, and by the same they should learne to obey him: by his word he would disforme the false prophet from the true, light from darkness, ignorance from knowledge, and his owne people from all other nations and infidels: teaching them thereby to refuse and detest, destroy and abolish whatsoever is not agreeable to his holy will, seeme it otherwise neuer so good or precious in the eyes of man. And for this cause God promised to raise vp kings and gouernours, for the setting forth of his Word, and preservation of his Church: giuing vnto them an especial charge for the executing thereof: whom therefore he willeth to exercise themselves diligently in the continuall study and meditation of the same: that they might learne to feare the Lord, loue their subiects, abhorre couetousnesse & vice, and whatsoever offendeth the Maiestie of God. And as he had tofore instructed their fathers in all things appertaining both to his spirituall seruice, & also for the maintenance of that society which is between men: so he prescribeth here a new, such lawes and ordinances, which either concerne his diuine seruice, or are necessary for a common weale: appointing vnto euery Rate and degree, their charge and duty: as well how to rule & liue in the feare of God, as to worth friendship toward their neighbours, and to preserve that order which God hath established among men: threatening withall, most horrible plagues to them that transgress his commandments, and promising all blessings and felicitie, to such as obseue and obey them.

CHAP. I.

2 A briefe rehearse of things done before from Moses vnto Kadesh-barnea. 32 Moses reproveth the people for their incredulitie. 44 The Israelites are ouercome by the Amorites, because they fought against the commandment of the Lord.

These be the words which Moses spake vnto all Israel, on this side Iordan in the wilderness, in the plaine ouer against the red Sea, betwixt Paran and Tophel, and Lavan and Hazereth, and Di-zahab.

a In the country of Moab.
b So that the wilderness was betwene the sea & this plaine of Moab.

king

king of the Amorites which dwelt in Jericho, and Og king of Bashan, which dwelt in Ashteroth in Gilead.

On this side Jordan in the land of Shinar began Moses to declare this thing, saying,

6 The Lord our God spake unto us in Horeb, saying, Ye have dwelt long enough in this mount.

7 Turne you and depart, and goe unto the mountain of the Amorites, and unto all places north thereunto: in the plaine, in the mountaine, or in the valley: both Southward, and to the Sea side, to the land of the Canaanites, and unto Lebanon: even unto the great river, the river Euphrat.

8 Behold, I have set the land before you: go in and possess that land which the Lord swore unto your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give unto them and to their seed after them.

9 And I spake unto you the same time, saying, I am not able to beare you my selfe alone.

10 The Lord your God hath multiplied you: and beholde, ye are this day as the starres of heauen in number.

11 (The Lord God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you, as he hath promised you)

12 Where can I alone beare your cumbrance, and your charge, and your strife?

13 Bring you men of wisdome and of understanding, and known among your tribes, and I will make them rulers over you.

14 Then ye answered me, and said, The thing is good that thou hast commanded us to doe.

15 So I tooke the chiefe of your tribes: wise and known men, and made them rulers over you, captaynes over thousands, and captaynes over hundreds, and captaynes over fiftie, and captaynes over ten, and officers among your tribes.

16 And I charged your iudges the same time, saying, Heare the controversies betweene your brethren, and iudge righteously betweene every man and his brother, and be stranges that is with him.

17 See shall have no respect of person in iudgement, but shall heare the small as well as the great: for shall not feare the face of many for the iudgement is Gods: and the cause that is too hard for you, bring unto me, and I will heare it.

18 Also I commanded you the same time all the things which ye should doe.

19 When we departed from Horeb, and went thowen all that great and terrible wilderness (as ye have seene by the way of the mountain of the Amorites, as the Lord our God commanded us: and we came to Kadesh-barnea.

20 And I sayd unto you, Ye are come unto the mountain of the Amorites, which the Lord our God doth give unto us.

21 Beholde, the Lord our God hath layd the land before thee: go up and possess it, as the Lord the God of the fathers hath sayde unto thee: feare not, neither be discouraged.

22 ¶ Then ye came unto me every one, and sayd, We will sende men before us to search vs out the land, and to bring vs word againe, what way wee must goe by, and unto what cities we shall come.

23 So the saying pleased me well, and I tooke twelve men of you, of every tribe one.

24 ¶ Also departed, and went by into the mountaine, and came unto the river Euphrat, and searched out the land.

25 And tooke of the fruit of the land in their handes, and brought it unto us, and brought vs word againe, and sayd, It is a good land, which the Lord our God doth give us.

26 Notwithstanding, ye would not goe up, but were disobedient unto the commandment of the Lord your God.

27 And murmured in your tents, a sayd, Because the Lord hated us, therefore hath he brought us out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, and to destroy us.

28 Whither shall wee goe by? our brethren have discouraged our hearts, saying, The people is greater, and taller then we, the cities are great and walled up to heauen: and moreover wee have seene the finnes of the Anakims there.

29 But I sayd unto you, Dread not, nor be afraid of them.

30 The Lord your God, who goeth before you, he shall fight for you, according to all that he did unto you in Egypt before your eyes.

31 And in the wilderness, where thou hast seene how the Lord thy God bare thee, as a man doth beare his sonne, in all the way which ye have gone, untill ye came unto this place.

32 Yet for all this ye did not beleieve the Lord your God.

33 ¶ Also went in the way before you, to search you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, that ye might see what way to goe, and in a cloud by day.

34 Then the Lord heard the voyce of your wordes, and was wroth, and swore, saying,

35 Surely there shall not one of these men of this forward generation see that good land, which I swore to give unto your fathers.

36 Save Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh: hee shall see it, and to him will I give the land that he hath troden upon, and to his children, because he hath constantly followed the Lord.

37 ¶ Also the Lord was angry with me for your sakes, saying, Thou also shalt not goe in thither.

38 But Iohns the sonne of Amm which standeth before thee, he shall goe in thither: he shall encourage him: for hee shall come thither to inherit it.

39 Moreover, your children, which ye saye should bee a praye, and your sonnes, which in that day had no knowledge betweene good and evil, they shall goe in thither, and unto them will I give it.

41 Then ye answered and sayd unto me, We have sinned against the Lord, we will goe by, and fight, according to all that the Lord our God hath commanded vs: and we armed upon every man to the warre, & were ready to goe vnto the mountaine.

42 But the Lord said vnto me, Say vnto them, Goe not by, neither fight, (for I am not among you) lest ye fall before your enemies.

43 And when I told you, ye would not heare, but rebelled against the commandment of the Lord, and were presumptuous, and went by into the mountaine.

44 Then the Amorites which dwelt in that mountaine came out against you, and chased you (as bees doe to doe) and destroyed you in Seir, even vnto Horeb.

CHAP. II.

4 Israel is forbidden to fight with the Edomites, 9 Moabites, 19 and Ammonites. 33 Sihon king of Heshbon is discomfited.

Then we turned, and tooke our journey into the wilderness, by the way of the red Sea, as the Lord spake vnto mee: and wee compassed mount Seir a long time.

2 And the Lord spake vnto me, saying, 3 Ye have compassed this mountaine long enough: turne you forthward.

4 And warne thou the people, saying, Ye shall goe throughe the coast of your brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir, and they shall be afraid of you: take ye good heed therefore.

5 Ye shall not prouoke them: for I will not giue you of their land so much as a foote breadth, because I haue giuen mount Seir vnto Esau for a possession.

6 Ye shall buy meate of them for money to eat, and ye shall also purchase water of them for money to drinke.

7 For the Lord thy God hath blessed thee in all the works of thine hand: hee knoweth the making thine of this great wilderness, and the Lord thy God hath bene with thee this foure yere, and thou hast lacked nothing.

8 And when we were departed from our brethren the children of Esau which dwelt in Seir, through the way of the plaine from Esau, and from Arnon-gader, wee turned and went by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

9 Then the Lord sayd vnto mee, Thou shalt not here Moab, neither prouoke them to battell: for I will not giue thee of their land for a possession, because I haue giuen it vnto the children of Lot for a possession.

10 The Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims.

11 They also were taken for Giants as the Anakims: whom the Moabites call Emims.

12 The Hittims also dwelt in Seir before time, whom the children of Esau chased out and destroyed them before them, and dwelt in their stead: as Israel shall doe vnto the land of his possession, which the Lord hath giuen them.

13 Now rise up, sayd I, and get you ouer the river Zered: and were went ouer the river Zered.

14 The space also wherein wee came from Kadesh-barnea, vntill wee were come ouer the river Zered, was eight and thirtie yeeres, vntill all the generation of the men of warre were wasted out from among the holte, as the Lord swore vnto them.

15 For in the daye the hand of the Lord was against them, to destroy them from among the holte, till they were consumed.

16 As when all the men of warre were consumed and dead from among the people:

17 Then the Lord spake vnto mee, saying,

18 Thou shalt goe throughe the coast of Moab this day:

19 And thou shalt come neere ouer against the children of Ammon: but shalt not lay siege vnto them, nor moue warre against them: for I will not giue thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession: for I haue giuen it vnto the children of Lot for a possession.

20 That also was taken for a land of Giants: for Giants dwelt therein aforetime, whom the Ammonites call Jammunims.

21 A people that was great and many, and tall as the Anakims: but the Lord destroyed them before them, and they succeeded them in their inheritance, and dwelt in their stead.

22 As hee did to the children of Esau which dwelt in Seir, when hee destroyed the Hittims before them, and they possessed them, and dwelt in their stead unto this day.

23 And the Quenims which dwelt in Bashan even vnto Azzah, the Gogymims, which came out of Capthor, destroyed them, and dwelt in their stead.

24 Rise up therefore, sayd the Lord, take your journey, and passe ouer the river Arnon: behold, I haue giuen vnto Sihon king of the Amorites, king of Heshbon, and his lands: beginne to possesse it, and prouoke him to battell.

25 The day will I begin to send the feare and thy dread vpon all people vnder the whole heauen: which shall heare thy name, and shall tremble and quake before thee.

26 When I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemah vnto Sihon king of Heshbon, with wordes of peace, saying, a This declareth mans nature, who will doe that which God forbiddeth, and will not doe that which he commandeth, y Signifying, that man hath no strength, but when God is at hand to helpe him, x Because ye rather shewed your hypocrisie, then true repentance: rather lamenting the losse of your brethren, then repenting for your sinnes, a They obeyed, after that God had chastised them, b Eight and thirtie yere, as verse 14.

c This was the second time: for before they had caused the Israelites to returne, Num. 20. 11, Gen. 36. 8.

d And giuen thee means wherewith thou mayest make recompence: also God will direct thee by his providence, as he hath done, Or, wilderness.

Or, liège, e Which were the Moabites, and Ammonites.

27 C Let me passe through thy land : I will goe by the hie way : I will neither turne into the right hand nor to the left.

28 Thou shalt sell me meat for money for to eat, and shall give me water for money for to drinke : onely I will goe through on my foot.

29 (As the shepherds of Elam which dwell in Sene, & the Shepherds which dwell in Ar, did unto mee) until I bee come over Jordan, into the land which the Lord your God giueth vs.

30 But Sihon the King of Heshbon would not let vs passe by him : for the Lord thy God had hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, because hee would deliuer him into thine hands, as appeareth this day.

31 And the Lord saide vnto me, Beholde, I haue begun to giue Sihon, and his land before thee : begin to possesse and inherit his land.

32 Then came out Sihon to meete vs, himselfe with all his people to fight at Jahaz.

33 But the Lord our God deliuered him vnto our power, and we smote him, and his women, and all his people.

34 And wee took all his cities the same time, and destroyed euery cite, men, and women, and children : we leaue nothing remaine.

35 Onely the cattell wee took to our selues, and the spoile of the cities which wee tooke.

36 From Arzer, which is by the bankes of the riuer of Arnon, and from the cite that is vpon the spurs, euen vnto Gilead : there was not one cite that escaped vs : for the Lord our God deliuered vs all by force.

37 Onely vnto the land of the children of Ammon thou camest not, nor vnto any place of the riuer Iabbok, nor vnto the cities in the mountaine, nor vnto whatsoever the Lord our God forbade vs.

CHAP. XII.

3 The king of Bashan is slaine 11 The bigness of his bed. 16 The Reubenites and Gadites are commanded to goe ouer Iorden armed before their brethren. 21 Iosua is made captaine. 27 Moses is permitted to see the land, but not to enter, albeit he desired.

Then we turned, and went by by the way of Bashan : and Og king of Bashan came out against vs, he, and all his people to fight at Edrei.

2 And the Lord said vnto me, Feare him not, for I will deliuer him, and all his people, and his land into thine hands, and thou shalt doe vnto him as thou didst vnto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.

3 So the Lord our God deliuered also vnto our hands, Og the king of Bashan, and all his people : and we smote him, until none was left him aliue.

4 And wee took all his cities the same time, neither was there a cite which wee took not from them, euen the citie of cities, and all the countrey of Argob, the kingdome of Og in Bashan.

5 All these cities were fenced with high walles, gates and barres, besides vnwalled townes a great many.

6 And we ouerthrew them as wee did vnto Sihon king of Heshbon, destroying euery city with men, women, and children.

7 But all the cattell and the spoile of the cities wee took for our selues.

8 Thus wee took at that time out of the hand of two kings of the Amorites, the land that was on this side Iorden from the riuer of Arnon vnto mount Hermon :

9 (Which Hermon the Sidonians call Sirion, but the Amorites call it Shenir.)

10 All the cities of the plaine, and all Gilead, & all Bashan vnto Balchad, & Chet, cities of the kingdome of Og in Bashan.

11 For onely Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of the giants, whose bed was a bed of yron : is it not at Rabbah among the children of Ammon : the length thereof nine cubits, and foure cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man.

12 And this land, which we possessed at that time, from Arzer, which is by the riuer of Arnon, and halfe mount Gilead, and the cities thereof gaue I vnto the Reubenites, and Gadites.

13 And the rest of Gilead and all Bashan, the kingdome of Og, gaue I vnto the halfe tribe of Manasseh : euen all the countrey of Argob with all Bashan, which is called, The land of giants.

14 For the sonne of Manasseh took all the countrey of Argob, vnto the coastes of Geshuri, & of Gasharith : and called them after his owne name, Bashan, Manasseh Iair vnto this day.

15 And I gaue part of Gilead vnto Gad.

16 And vnto the Reubenites & Gadites I gaue the rest of Gilead, and vnto the riuer of Arnon, halfe the riuer & the borders, euen vnto the riuer Iabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon.

17 The plaine also and Iorden, and the borders from Chinnereth euen vnto the Sea of the plaine, to wit, the salt Sea vnder the springs of Pilgah Eastward.

18 And I commanded you the same time, saying, The Lord your God hath giuen you this land to possesse it : ye shall goe armed before your brethren the children of Israel, all men of warre.

19 Your wives onely and your children, and your cattell, (for I know that ye haue much cattell) shall abide in your cities, which I haue giuen you.

20 Until the Lord haue giuen rest vnto your brethren as vnto you, and that they also possesse the land, which the Lord your God hath giuen them beyond Iorden : then shall ye returne euery man vnto his possession, which I haue giuen you.

21 And I charged Iosua the same time, saying, Thine eyes haue seene all that the Lord your God hath done vnto these two kings : so shall the Lord doe vnto all the kingdomes whither thou goest.

22 Per shall not feare them: for the Lord your God, he shall fight for you.

23 And I besought the Lord the same time, saying,

24 O Lord God, thou hast begun to shew thy seruant thy greatness and thy mightie hand: for where is there a God in heauen or in earth, that can doe like thy workes, and like thy power?

25 I pray thee let mee goe ouer, and see the good lande that is beyond Iordan, that goodly mountaine and Lebanon.

26 But the Lord was angry with me for your sakes, and would not heare me: and the Lord sayd vnto me, Let it suffice thee, speake no more vnto me of this matter.

27 Get thee vp into the toppes of Pisgab, and lift vp thine eyes eastward, & southward, and southward, and Eastward, and beholde it with thine eyes, for thou shalt not goe ouer this Iordan:

28 But charge Iosua, and encourage him, and bolden him: for he shall goe before this people, & he shall binde for inheritance vnto them the land which thou shalt see.

29 So wee abode in the valley ouer against Beth-peor.

CHAP. III.

1 An exhortation to observe the lawes without adding thereto or diminishing. 6 Therein sheweth our wisdom. 9 We must teach it to our children. 15 No image ought to be made to worship. 28 Threatnings against them that forsake the law of God. 37 God chose the Jews because he loved their fathers. 43 The times cities of refuge.

NOW therefore hearken, O Israel, vnto the ordinances and to the lawes which I teach you: that ye may live and goe in, and possesse the land which the Lord God of your fathers giueth you.

2 Ye shall put nothing vnto the word which I command you, neither shall ye take ought therewith, that ye may keepe the commandments of the Lord your God which I command you.

3 Your eyes haue seene to hat the Lord God because of Baal peor: for all the men that followed Baal peor, the Lord thy God hath destroyed euerie one from among you.

4 But ye that did cleaue vnto the Lord your God, are aliuie euerie one of you this day.

5 Beholde, I haue taught you ordinances, and lawes, as the Lord my God commanded me, that ye should do euen so with in the land whither ye go to possesse it.

6 Keepe them therefore, and do them: for that is your wisdom, and your understanding in the sight of the people, which shall heare all thine ordinances, and shall say, Truly this people is wise, and of understanding, and a great nation.

7 For what nation is so great, vnto whom the gods come to nerre vnto them, as the Lord our God is a nerre vnto vs, in all that we call vnto him for?

8 And what nation is so great, that hath ordinances and lawes so righteous, as all the law, which I set before you this day?

9 But take heede to the selfe, and keepe the lawe diligently, that thou forget not the things which thine eyes haue seene, and that they depart not out of thine heart all the dayes of thy life: but teach them thy sonnes, and thy sonnes sonnes:

10 Forget not the day that thou stoodest before the Lord thy God in Horeb, when the Lord sayd vnto me, Gather me the people together, and I will cause them to heare my wordes, that they may learne to feare me all the dayes that they shall liue vpon the earth, and that they may teach their children:

11 Then came you nere and stood vnder the mountaine, and the mountaine burnt with fire vnto the mids of heauen, and there was darkenesse, cloudes and mist.

12 And the Lord spake vnto you out of the mids of the fire, and ye heard the voyce of the wordes, but saw no similitude, saw a voyce.

13 Then he declared vnto you his commandment which he commanded you to do, euen the ten Commandments, and wrote them vpon two Tables of stone.

14 And the Lord commanded me that same time, that I should teach you ordinances and lawes, which ye should observe in the land, whither ye goe to possesse it.

15 Take therefore good heede vnto you: & leues that ye saw no image in the day that the Lord spake vnto you in Horeb out of the mids of the fire:

16 That ye corrupt not your selues, and make you a graven image or representation of any figure: whether a bee the likeness of male or female.

17 The likeness of any beast that is on earth, or the likeness of any feathered foule that lieth in the aire.

18 Or the likeness of any thing that creepeth on the earth, or the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth.

19 And lest thou lift up thine eyes vnto heauen, and when thou seest the sunne and the moone and the starres with al the host of heauen, shouldest be drayn to worship them and serue them, which the Lord thy God hath distributed to all people vnder the whole heauen.

20 But the Lord thy God hath taken you and brought you out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be vnto him a people and inheritance, as appeareth this day.

21 And the Lord was angry with me for your wordes, and saue that I should not go ouer Iordan, and that I should not goe in vnto that good land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee for an inheritance.

22 For I must die in this lande, and shall not goe ouer Iordan: but ye shall go ouer, and possesse that good land.

23 Take heed vnto your selues, lest ye forget the covenant of the Lord your God which he made with you, and lest ye make you any graven image, or likeness of any thing, as the Lord thy God hath charged thee.

24 For the Lord thy God is a consuming fire, and a leuous God.

25 Remember thou shalt beget children and childrens children, and shall haue remained long long in the land, if see a corrupt your selves, and make any graven image or likeness of any thing, and worke euill in the sight of the Lord thy God, to prouoke him to anger, 26 I call heauen and earth to record against you this day, that ye shall shortly perish from the land, inuentsu you goe ouer Jordan to possesse it: ye shall not prolong your dayes therein, but shall shortly be destroyed.

27 And the Lord shall scatter you among the people, and ye shall bee left few in number among the nations, whither the Lord shall bring you.

28 And there ye shall serue gods, euen the worke of mans hand, wood, and stone, which neither see, nor heare, nor care, nor smell.

29 But if from thence thou shalt seeke the Lord thy God, thou shalt finde him, if thou seeke him with all thine heart, and with all thy soule.

30 When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come vpon thee, & at the length, if thou returne to the Lord thy God, and be obedient vnto his voice, 31 (For the Lord thy God is a mercifull God) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers, which he sware vnto them.

32 For inquire now of the dayes that are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man vpon the earth, and aske from the one end of heauen vnto the other, if ther came to passe such a great thing as this, or whether any such like thing hath bene heard.

33 Did euer people heare the voyce of God speaking out of the midst of a fire, as thou hast heard, and liued?

34 Did euer God assayed to gore and take him a nation from among nations, by tentations, by signes, and by wonders, and by warre, and by a mightie hand, and by a stretched out arme, and by great feare, according vnto all that the Lord your God did vnto you in Egypt before your eyes?

35 Unto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest know, that the Lord hee is God, and that there is none but he alone.

36 Out of heauen he made thee heare his voyce to instruct thee, and vpon earth hee shewed thee his great fire, and thou heardest his voyce out of the midst of the fire.

37 And because hee loued thy fathers, therefore he chose their seede after them, and hath brought thee out of Egypt in his light, by his mightie power, 38 To thrust out nations greater and mightier then thou before thee, to bring thee in, and to giue thee their land for inheritance: as appeareth this day.

39 Understand therefore this day, and consider in thine heart, that the Lord hee is God in heauen above, and vpon the earth beneath: there is none other.

40 Thou shalt heare therefore his ordinances, and his commandementes which I command thee this day, that it may goe well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy dayes vpon the earth, which the Lord thy God giueth thee for euer.

14 Then Moses separated three cities on this side of Jordan toward the sunne rising:

42 That the slayer should flee thither, which had killed his neighbour at bywaters, and hated him not in time past, might flee, I say, vnto one of those cities, and liue.

43 That is, Bezer in the wilderness, in the plaine country of the Reubenites: and Ramoth in Gilead among the Gadites, and Golan in Bashan among them of Manasse.

44 So this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel.

45 These are the witnesses, and the ordinances, and the lawes which Moses declared to the children of Israel after they came out of Egypt,

46 On this side Jordan, in the valley ouer against Beth peor, in the land of Edom king of the Amozites, which dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel slote, after they were come out of Egypt.

47 And they possessed his land, and the land of Og king of Bashan, two kings of the Amozites, which were on this side Jordan toward the sunne rising.

48 From Arer, which is by the banke of the river Arnon, euen vnto Mount Siann, which is Hermon.

49 And all the plaine by Jordan Eastward, euen vnto the Sea of the plaine, vnder the skyings of Shugab.

CHAP. V.

5 Moses is the meane betwene God and the people. 6 The law is reported. 23 The people are afraid at Gods voice. 29 The Lord wisheth that the people would feare him. 32 They must neither decline to the right hand nor left.

Then Moses called all Israel, and said vnto them, Heare, O Israel, the ordinances and the lawes which I propose to you this day, that ye may learne them, and take heede to obserue them.

2 The Lord our God made a covenant with vs in Horeb.

3 The Lord made not this covenant with our fathers onely, but with vs, euen with vs all here at this day.

4 The Lord talked with you face to face in the mount, out of the midst of the fire,

5 (At that time I stood betwene the Lord and you, to declare vnto you the word of the Lord: for ye were afraid at the sight of the fire, and went not vp into the mount) and he said,

6 I am the Lord thy God, which haue brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

7 Thou shalt haue none other gods before my face.

8 Thou shalt make thee no graven image, or any likeness of that that is in heauen above, or which is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters vnder the earth.

9 Thou shalt neither bow thy selfe vnto them, nor serue them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquities of the fathers vpon the children, euen vnto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me:

11 Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vaine: for the Lord will not hold him guiltles, that taketh his Name in vaine.

12 Keepe the Sabbath day, to sanctifie it, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee.

13 Sixe dayes thou shalt labour, and shalt doe all thy worke.

14 But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: thou shalt not doe any worke therein, thou, nor thy sonne, nor thy daughter, nor thy manseruant, nor thy maide, nor thine ore, nor thine asse, neither any of thy cattel, nor the stranger that is within thy gates: that thy man seruant and thy maide may rest as well as thou.

15 For remember that thou wast a seruant in the land of Egypt, and that the Lord thy God brought thee out thence by a mighty hand and a stretched out arme: therefore the Lord thy God commanded thee to obserue the Sabbath day.

16 Honour thy father and thy mother, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee, that thy dayes may be prolonged, and that it may goe well with thee upon the land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee.

17 Thou shalt not kill.

18 Neither shalt thou commit adulterie.

19 Neither shalt thou steale.

20 Neither shalt thou beare false witness against thy neighbour.

21 Neither shalt thou count thy neighbours wife, neither shalt thou desire thy neighbours house, his field, nor his man seruant, nor his maide, his ore, nor his asse, nor ought that thy neighbour hath.

22 These words the Lord spake vnto al your multitude in the mount out of the mids of the fire, the cloud and the darknesse, with a great voice, and added no more thereto: and wrote them vpon two tables of stone, and deliuered them vnto mee.

23 And when yee heard the voyce out of the mids of the darknesse, (for the mountaine did burne with fire) then yee came to mee, all the chiefs of your tribes, and your Elders:

24 And yee sayde, Beholde, the Lord our God hath shewed vs his glorie & his greatness, and wee haue heard his voyce out of the mids of the fire: wee haue seene this day that God doth talke with man, and wee liueth.

25 Now therefore, why should wee die? for this great fire will consume vs: it woe heare the voyce of the Lord our God any more, wee shall die.

26 For what is flesh as these men, that heard the voyce of the liuing God, speaking out of the mids of the fire as wee haue, and liued?

27 Goe thou nere, and heare all that the Lord our God saith: and declare thou vnto vs al that the Lord our God saith vnto thee, and we will heare it, and doe it.

28 Then the Lord heard the voyce of your words, when yee spake vnto mee: and the Lord said vnto mee, I haue heard the voyce of the words of this people, which they haue spoken vnto thee: they haue wel said, all that they haue spoken.

29 Oh that there were such an heart in them to feare mee, and to keepe all my commandements alway: that it might goe well with them, and with their children for euer.

30 Goe, say vnto them, Returne you into your tents.

31 But stand thou here with me, and I will tell thee all the commandements, and the ordinances, and the lawes, which thou shalt teach them: that they may doe them in the land which I giue them to possess it.

32 Take heede therefore, that yee doe as the Lord your God hath commanded you: euerie not asidde to the right hand nor to the left, 33 But walke in all the wayes which the Lord your God hath commanded you, that ye may liue, and that it may goe well with you: and that yee may prolong your dayes in the land which yee shall possess.

CHAP. VI.

1 An exhortation to feare God, and keepe his commandements, 5 Which is to loue him with all thine heart. 7 The same must be taught to the posteritie. 16 Not to tempt God, 25 Righteousnes is contained in the law.

These now are the commandements, ordinances, & lawes, which the Lord your God commanded me to teach you: that yee might doe them in the land whither yee goe to possess it:

1 That thou mightest feare the Lord thy God, and keepe all his ordinances, and his commandements which I commanded thee, thou, and thy sonne, and thy sonnes sonne all the dayes of thy life, euen that thy dayes may be prolonged.

2 Heare therefore, O Israel, and take heede to doe it, that it may goe well with thee, and that yee may encrease mightily in the land that floweth with milke and home, as the Lord God of thy fathers hath promised thee.

3 Heare, O Israel, the Lord our God is Lord onely,

4 And thou shalt loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy might.

5 And these words which I commanded thee this day, shalt thou heare.

6 And thou shalt reuerence them continually vnto thy children, and shalt talke of them when thou tarrest in thine house, and as thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest downe, and when thou risest up.

7 And thou shalt binde them for a signe vpon thine hand, and shalt haue them as frontleske betwixt thine eyes.

8 Also thou shalt write them vpon the 4 postes of thine house, and vpon thy gates.

9 And when the Lord thy God hath brought thee into the land, which hee sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Iacob, to giue to thee, with great and goodly cities which thou buildest it not,

10 And houses full of all manner of goods, which thou filledst not, and wels digged, which

14. Yet shall not make after other gods, after any of the gods of the people which are round about you.

15. For thou and thy God is a jealous God among you: lest the wrath of the Lord thy God be kindled against thee, & destroy thee from the face of the earth.

16. If thou shalt not tempt the Lord your God, as ye did tempt him in Saffah:

17. But ye shall keep diligently the commandments of the Lord your God, and his testimonies, and his ordinances which he hath commanded thee.

18. And thou shalt doe that which is right and good in the sight of the Lord: that thou mayest prosper, and that thou mayest go in, and possesse that good land which the Lord sware unto thy fathers.

19. To cast out all thine enemies before thee, as the Lord hath said.

20. When the Lord thy God shall aske thee in time to come, saying, What meane these testimonies, and ordinances, and Lawes, which the Lord our God hath commanded you?

21. Then thou shalt say unto thy sonne, We were Pharaohs bondmen in Egypt: but the Lord brought vs out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

22. And the Lord shewed signes and wonders great and euill upon Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his household, before our eyes.

23. And he brought vs out from thence, to bring vs in, and to give vs the land which he sware unto thy fathers.

24. Therefore the Lord hath commanded vs, to doe all these ordinances, and to feare the Lord our God, that it may goe cuer well with vs, and that hee may preserve vs aliuie as at this present.

25. Whereouer, this shall bee our righteousnesse before the Lord our God, if we take heede to keepe all these commandments, as he hath commanded vs.

CHAP. VII.

1. The Israelites may make no covenant with the Gentiles. 5. They must destroy the idoles. 8. The election dependeth on the free love of God. 19. The experience of the power of God ought to confirme vs. 25. To aske all occasion of idolatrie.

When the Lord thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it: and shall roote out many nations before thee: the Hittites, and the Girgathites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier then thou,

2. And the Lord thy God shall give them before thee, then thou shalt smite them: thou shalt utterly destroy them: thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor have compassion on them,

3. Neither shalt thou make marriages with them, neither give thy daughter unto his sonne, nor take his daughter unto thy sonne.

4. For they will cause thy sonne to turne away from mee, and to serve other gods: then will the wrath of the Lord be kindled against you, and destroy thee suddenly.

5. But thus ye shall deale with them, ye shall overthrow their altars, and breake downe their pillars, and ye shall cut downe their groves, and burne their graven images with fire.

6. For thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy God, the Lord thy God hath chosen thee, to bee a precious people unto himselfe, above all people that are upon the earth.

7. The Lord did not let his love upon you, nor chuse you, because ye were more in number then any people: for ye were the fewest of all people.

8. But because the Lord loved you, and because hee would keepe the othe which hee had swoyne unto your fathers, the Lord hath brought you out by a mighty hand, and delivered you out of the house of bondage from the hands of Pharaoh King of Egypt.

9. That thou mayest knowe, that the Lord thy God, he is God, the faithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercie unto them that love him and keepe his commandments, even to a thousand generations.

10. And rewardeth them to their face that hate him, to bring them to destruction: hee will not deferre to reward him, that hateth him, to his face.

11. Keepe thou therefore the commandments, and the ordinances, and the lawes, which I command thee this day to do them.

12. For if you hearken unto these lawes, and observe and doe them, then the Lord thy God shall keepe with thee the covenant, and the mercie which hee sware unto thy fathers.

13. And he will love thee, and blesse thee, and multiply thee: he will also blesse the fruit of thy wombe, and the fruit of thy land, thy corne and thy wine, and thine oyle, and the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheepe in the land which hee sware unto thy fathers to give thee.

14. Thou shalt be blessed above all people: there shall be neither male nor female barren among you, nor among your cattell.

15. Whereouer, the Lord will take away from thee all iniquities, and will put none of the euill diseases of Egypt (which thou knowest) upon thee, but will send them upon all that hate thee.

16. Thou shalt therefore consume all people which the Lord thy God shall give thee: & thine eye shall not spare them, neither shalt thou serve their gods, for that shall bee thy destruction.

17. If thou say in thine heart, These nations are more then I, how can I cast them out?

mayest walke in his wayes, and feare him.

7 For the Lord thy God brought thee into a good land, a land in the which are riuers of water and fountains, and * depths that spring out of valleys and mountains:

8 A land of wheat & barley, and of vineyards, and figtrees, and Pomegranates: a land of oyle olive and hony:

9 A land wherein thou shalt eate bread without fear, neither shalt thou lacke any thing therein: a land * whose stones are ypson, and out of whose mountains thou shalt dig brasse.

10 And when thou hast eaten and filled thy selfe, thou shalt * blesse the Lord thy God for the good land which he hath giuen thee.

11 Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God, nor keeping his commandements, and his lawes, and his ordinances which I command thee this day:

12 Lest when thou hast eaten and filled thy selfe, and hast built goodly houses and dwelt therein,

13 And thy beasts, and thy sheepe are increased, and thy silver and golde is multiplied, and all that thou hast is increased,

14 Then thine heart * be lifted up, and thou forget the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage,

15 Altho was thy guide in the great and terrible wilderness (wherein were fierce fer-rents, and scorpions, and drought, where was no water, * who brought forth water for thee out of the rocke of flint:

16 Altho fed thee in the wilderness with * M A N, which thy fathers knewe not) to humble thee, and to proue thee, that he might doe thee good at thy latter end.

17 Beware lest thou say in thine heart, My power, and the strength of mine owne hand hath prepared me this abundance.

18 But remember the Lord thy God:
for it is hee which * giueth thee power to get substance to establish his covenant which he sware vnto thy fathers, as appeareth this day.

19 And if thou forget the Lord thy God, and walke after other gods, and serue them and worship them, I * certifie vnto you this day, that ye shall surely perish.

20 As the nations which the Lord destroyed before you, so ye shall perish, because ye would not bee obedient vnto the voyce of the Lord your God.

3 Understand therefore that this day the Lord thy God is hee which goeth ouer before thee as a consuming fire: he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them downe before thy face: so thou shalt cast them out and destroy them suddenly, as the Lord hath sayd vnto thee.

4 Awake not thou in thine heart (after that the Lord thy God hath cast them out before thee) sayi. g. For my righteousnesse the Lord hath brought mee in, to possesse this lande: but for the wickednesse of these nations the Lord hath cast them out before thee.

5 For thou enterest not to inherite this lande for thy righteousnesse, or for thy vpright heart: but for the wickednesse of those nations the Lord thy God doeth cast them out before thee, and that he might performe the worde which the Lord thy God swaie vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Izhak and Iaakob.

6 Understand therefore, that the Lord thy God gueth thee not this good land, to possesse it for thy righteousnesse: for thou art a stiffnecked people.

7 Remember, and forget not, how thou prouokedst the Lord thy God to anger in the wilderness: since the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, vntill yee came vnto this place, yee haue rebelled against the Lord.

8 Also in Horeb ye prouoked the Lord to anger, so that the Lord was wroth with you, even to destroy you.

9 When I was gone vp into the mount, to receiue the Tables of stone, the Tables, I say, of the Covenante which the Lord made with you: and I abode in the mount fourty dayes and fourtie nights, and I neither ate bread nor yet dranke water:

10 When the Lord deliuered mee two Tables of stone, written with the finger of God, and in them was contayned according to all the wordes which the Lord had sayd vnto you in the mount out of the mids of the fire, in the day of the assembly.

11 And when the fourty dayes and fourty nights were ended, the Lord gaue mee the two Tables of stone, the Tables, I say, of the Covenante.

12 And the Lord sayd vnto mee, Arise, get thee downe quickly from hence: for thy people which thou hast brought out of Egypt, haue corrupted their wayes: they are fowle turned out of the way, which I commanded them: they haue made them a molten image.

13 Furthermore, the Lord spake vnto me, saying, I haue seene the people, and behold, it is a stiffnecked people.

14 Let mee alone, that I may destroy them, and put out their name from vnder heauen, & I will make of thee a mightie nation, and greater then they be.

15 So I returned and came downe from the mount (and the mount burne with fire, and the two Tables of the Covenants were in my two hands).

16 Then I looked, and beholde, yee had sinned against the Lord your God: for yee had made you a molten calfe, and had turned quickly out of the way which the Lord had commanded you.

17 Therefore I tooke the two Tables, and cast them out of my two hands, & brake them before your eyes.

18 And I fell downe before the Lord forty dayes, & forty nights, as before: I neither ate bread nor dranke water, because of all your finnes, which yee had committed, in doing wickedly in the sight of the Lord, in that ye prouoked him to wrath.

19 (For I was afraid of the wrath and indignation, wherewith the Lord was moued against you, even to destroy you) yet the Lord heard me at that time also.

20 Likewise the Lord was very angry with Aaron, even to destroy him: but at that time I prayed also for Aaron.

21 And I tooke your sinne, I meane the calfe which yee had made, & burnt him with fire, and stamped him, & ground him small, even vnto very dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the riuer, that descended out of the Mount.

22 Also in Taberah, and in Massah, and in Kibroth haraauah ye prouoked the Lord to anger.

23 Likewise when the Lord sent you from Kadesh-barnea, sayi. g. Goe vp, and possesse the lande which I haue giuen you, then yee rebelled against the Commandment of the Lord your God, and defensed him not, nor hearkened vnto his voice.

24 Yee haue bene rebellious vnto the Lord, since the day that I knew you.

25 Then I fell downe before the Lord forty dayes, & forty nights, as I fell downe before, because the Lord had sayd, that hee would destroy you,

26 And I prayed vnto the Lord, & sayd, O Lord God, destroy not thy people, & thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, whom thou hast brought out of Egypt by a mighty hand.

27 Remember thy seruants Abraham, Izhak, and Iaakob: looke not to the stubbornnesse of this people, nor to their wickednesse, nor to their sinne.

28 Let the country whence thou broughtest them, say, Because the Lord was not able to bring them into the lande which hee promised them, or because hee hated them, hee caried them out, to slay them in the wilderness.

29 Yet they are thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out by thy mighty power, & by thy stretched out arme.

commandmentes, which I commaund you walke in all his wayes, and to cleaue vnto

him,

23 Then will the Lord cast out all these nations before you, and ye shall possesse great nations, and mightier then you.

coast shall be from the wilderness and from Lebanon, and from the riuier, even the riuier

25 No man shall stande against you: for the Lord your God shall call the feare and dread of you vpon all the land that ye shall treade vpon, as he hath sayd vnto you.

26 Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse:

27 The blessing, if ye obey the comman-dementes of the Lord your God, which I commaund you this day:

28 And the curse, if ye will not obey the commandmentes of the Lord your God, but turne out of the way, which I commaund you this day, to go after other gods, which ye haue not knowne.

29 When the Lord thy God therefore hath brought thee into the lande, whither you goest to possesse it, then thou shalt put the blessing vpon mount Gerizim, and the curse vpon mount Ebal.

1 Destroye the ordinances and the lawes, which ye shall obserue and doe in the land (which the Lord your God) of the fathers giueth thee to possess it) as long as ye liue vpon

2 Ye shall utterly destroy all the places wherof the nations which ye shall possesse, tree.

3 And ye shall ouerthrow their altars, and breake downe their pillars, and burne their groves with fire: and ye shall betweene the graven images of their gods, and abolish their names out of that place.

4 Ye shall not do vnto the Lord your God,

5 But ye shall seeke the place which the Lord your God shall chuse out of all your tribes to put his name there, and there to dwell, and thither shall thou come.

6 And ye shall bring thither your burnt offerings, & your sacrifices, and you tithes, and the offering of your handes, and your tithes, and your free offerings, and the first borne of your kine, and of your sheepe.

dwell in the land, which the Lord your God hath giuen you to inherit, and when he hath giuen you a rest from all your enemies round about, and ye dwell in safety,

11 When there shall be a place which the Lord your God shall chuse to cause his name to dwell there, thither shall ye bring all that 15 Notwithstanding thou mayest kill and eat flesh in all thy gates, whatsoever thine heart desireth, according to the blessing of the Lord thy God which he hath given thee: both the unclean and the cleane may eat thereof, as of the roe bucke, and of the hart.

16 Onely yee shall not eat the blood, but poure it upon the earth as water.

17 Thou mayest not eat within thy gates the fytie of thy come, nor of thy wine, nor of thine oyle, nor of the first born of thy kine, nor of thy sheepe, neither any of thy vowes which thou vowest, nor thy tree offerings, nor the offering of thine hands:

18 But thou shalt eat it before the Lord thy God in the place which the Lord thy God shall chuse, thou and thy sonne, and thy daughter, and thy servant, and thy mayde, and the Levite that is within thy gates: and thou shalt rejoyce before the Lord thy God, in all that thou putteth thine hand to.

19 Beware, that thou forsake not the Levite, as long as thou livest upon the earth.

20 When the Lord thy God shall enlarge thy border, as he hath promised thee, and thou shalt say, I will eat flesh, (because thine heart longeth to eat flesh) thou mayest eat flesh, whatsoever thine heart desireth.

21 If the place which the Lord thy God hath chosen to put his Name there, be farre from thee, then shalt thou kill of the bullocks, and of thy sheepe which the Lord hath given thee, as I have commanded thee, and thou shalt eat in thy gates, whatsoever thine heart desireth.

22 When as the roe bucke and the hart is eaten, so shalt thou eat them: both the unclean and the cleane shall eat of them alike.

23 Onely be sure that thou eat not the blood: for the blood is the life, and thou mayest not eat the life with the flesh.

24 Therefore thou shalt not eat it, but poure it upon the earth as water.

25 Thou shalt not eat it, that it may goe well with thee, and with thy children after thee, when thou shalt doe that which is right in the sight of the Lord:

26 But thine holy things which thou shalt, and thy vowes which thou shalt take up, and come unto the place which the Lord shall chuse.

27 And thou shalt make thy burnt offerings of the flesh, and of the blood upon the altar of the Lord thy God, and the blood of thine offerings shall be poured upon the altar of the Lord thy God, and thou shalt eat the flesh.

28 Take heed, and heare all these words which I command thee, that it may goe well with thee, and with thy children after thee for ever, when thou doest that which is good and right in the sight of the Lord thy God.

29 When the Lord thy God shall destroy the nations before thee, whither thou goest to possess them, and thou shalt possess them and dwell in their land.

30 Beware, least thou bee taken in, & share after them, after that they be destroyed before thee, and least thou atke after their gods, saying, I have done these nations serve their gods, that I may do so likewise:

31 Thou shalt not do unto the Lord thy God: for all abomination, which the Lord hateth, have they done unto their gods: for they have burned both their things and their daughters with fire to their gods.

32 Therefore whatsoever I command you, take heed you do it: thou shalt put nothing thereto, nor taking ought therefrom.

5 The incenses to idolatry must be flaine, (some they neuer hold, 6 So neere of kindred or friendship, 12 Or great multitude on power.)

1 If there arise among you a prophet or a dreamer of dreames, (and give thee a signe or wonder,

2 And the signe and the wonder which he hath told thee, come to passe) saying, Let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them,

3 Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of the prophet, or unto that dreamer of dreames: for the Lord your God is proueth you, to knowe whether yee loue the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soule.

4 He shall walke after the Lord your God and feare him, and shall keepe his commandments, and hearken unto his voyce, and ye shall serve him, and cleane unto him.

5 But that prophet, or that dreamer of dreames, he shall be flaine, because he hath spoken to turne you away from the Lord your God (which brought you out of the land of Egypt, and deliuered you of the house of bondage) to thrust thee out of the way, wherein the Lord thy God commanded thee to walke: so shalt thou take the evill away forth of the middes of thee.

6 If thy brother, the sonne of thy mother, or thine owne sonne, or thy daughter, or the wife, that lyeth in thy bosome, or thy friend, which is as thine owne soule, intille thee secretly, saying, Let us goe and serve other gods (which thou hast not known, thou, I say, nor thy fathers)

7 Any of the gods of the people which are round about you, neere unto thee, or farre off from thee, from the one end of the earth unto the other:

8 Thou shalt not consent unto him, nor heare him, neither shall thine eye pite him, nor shew mercie, nor keepe him secret.

9 But thou shalt enen kill him: thine hande shall be first upon him to put him to death, and then the hands of all the people.

3 If a stranger thou mayest require it: but that which thou hast with thy brother, thine hand shall remit:

1 The punishment of the idolaters. 9 Hard controversies are brought to the priest & the iudge. 13 The consumer must die. 15 The election of the king. 16, 17 What things he ought to avoyd, 18 and what he ought to embrace.

¶ Thou shalt offer unto the Lord thy God no bullocke nor sheepe wherein is a blemish, or any evil favoured thing: for that is an abomination unto the Lord thy God.

2 ¶ If there be found among you in any of the cities, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, man or woman that hath wrought wickednes in the sight of the Lord thy God, in transgressing his covenant,

3 And hath gone and served other gods, and worshipped them: as the sunne, or the moone, or any of the hosts of heaven, which I have not commanded,

4 And it be solde unto thee, and thou shalt blasphem it: then shalt thou inquire diligently: and if it be true, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought in Israel,

5 Then shalt thou bring forth that man, or that woman (which have committed that wicked thing) unto thy gates, whether it be man or woman, and shalt stone them with stones till they die.

6 ¶ At the mouth of two or three witnesses shall he that is worthy of death, die: but at the mouth of one witness he shall not die.

7 The hands of the witnesses shall be first upon him to kill him: and afterward the hands of all the people, so thou shalt take the wicked away from among you.

8 ¶ If there rise a matter too hard for thee in judgement betweene blood & blood, betwene plea & plea, betwene plague and plague, in the matters of controversie within thy gates, then shalt thou arise, and goe by unto the place which the Lord thy God shall chuse,

9 And thou shalt come unto the Priests of the Levites, and unto the iudge that shall be in those dayes, and aske, & they shall shew thee the sentence of judgement.

10 And thou shalt doe according to that thing which they of that place (which the Lord hath chosen) shew thee, and thou shalt observe to doe according to all that they informe thee.

11 According to the law which they shall teach thee, and according to the judgement which they shall tell thee, shalt thou doe: thou shalt not decline from the thing which they shall shew thee, neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

12 And that man that will doe presumptuously, not hearkning unto the Priest (that standeth before the Lord thy God), to minister there: or unto the iudge, that man shall die, and thou shalt take away evil from Israel.

13 So all the people shall heare and feare, and doe no more presumptuously.

14 ¶ When thou shalt come unto the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, and shalt possesse it, and dwell therein, if thou say, I will set a king over me, like as all the nations that are about me,

17 And the Lord thy God will take vengeance well spoken.

18 I will rase them up a Prophet from among their brethren like vnto thee, and will put my words in his mouth, and hee shall speake vnto them all that I shall command him.

19 And whosoever will not hearken vnto my words, which hee shall speake in my Name, I will requite it of him.

20 But the prophet that shall presume to speake a word in my Name, which I haue not commanded him to speake, or that speaketh in the name of other gods, euen the same prophet shall die.

21 And if thou thinkest in thine heart, how that we know the word which the Lord hath not spoken?

CHAP. XXI.
The exhortation of the Priest when the Israelites go to battell. 5 The exhortation of the officers shewing who should goe to battell. 10 Peace must first be proclaimed. 19 The trees that beare fruit, must not be destroyed.

When thou shalt goe forth to warre against thine enemies, and shalt see houses and charites, and people more then thou, be not afraid of them: for the Lord thy God is with thee, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt.

2 And when ye are come neere unto the battell, then the Priest shall come forth to speake unto the people.

3 And shall say unto them, Heare, O Israel: ye are come this day unto battell against your enemies: let not your hearts faint, neither feare, nor bee amazed, nor a dread of them.

4 For the Lord your God is with you, to fight for you against your enemies, and to save you.

5 And let the officers speake unto the people, saying, What man is there that hath built a new house, and hath not dedicated it: let him goe and returne to his house, lest hee die in the battell, and another man dedicate it.

6 And what man is there that hath planted a vineyard, and hath not eaten of the fruit: let him goe and returne againe unto his house, lest hee die in the battell, and another man eat the fruit.

7 And what man is there that hath betrothed a wife, and hath not taken her: let him goe and returne againe unto his house, lest hee die in the battell, and another man take her.

8 And let the officers speake further unto the people, and say, Who is afraid and faint hearted, let him goe and returne unto his house, lest his brethren heart faint like his heart.

9 And after that the officers have made an end of speaking unto the people, they shall make captaines of the arme to governe the people.

10 When thou comest neere unto a city to fight against it, thou shalt offer it peace.

11 And if it answer thee againe peaceably, and open unto thee, then let all the people that is found therein, be tributaries unto thee, and serve thee.

12 But if it will make no peace with thee, but make warre against thee, then thou shalt besiege it.

13 And the Lord thy God shall deliver it into thine hands, and thou shalt smite all the males thereof with the edge of the sword.

14 Only the women, and the children, and the cattell, and all that is in the cite, even all the people thereof shalt thou take unto thy selfe, and shalt eat the spoyle of thine enemies, which the Lord thy God hath given thee.

15 Thus shalt thou doe unto all the cities, which are a great way off from thee, which are not of the cities of these nations here.

16 But of the cities of this people, which the Lord thy God shall give thee to inherit, thou shalt save no person alive.

17 But shalt utterly destroy them: to wit, the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee.

5 Also the Priestes the sonnes of Levi, whome the Lord thy God hath chosen to minister, and to blesse in the name of the Lord shall come forth, and by their wayde shall all strife and plague be trien.

6 And all the Elders of that cite that came nere to the slaine man, shall wash their handes ouer the heifer that is beheaded in the halley:

7 And thou shalt reffuse, and say, Our hands haue not shed this blood, neither haue our eyes seene it.

8 ¶ O Lord, be mercifull vnto thy people Israel whom thou hast redeemed, and lay no innocent blood to the charge of thy people Israel: and the blood shall bee forgiven them.

9 And thou shalt take away the cry of innocent blood from thee, when thou shalt doe that which is right in the sight of the Lord.

10 ¶ When thou shalt goe to warre against thine enemies, and the Lord thy God shall deliuer them into thine hands, and thou shalt take them captiues,

11 And shalt see among the captiues a beautiful woman, and hast a desire vnto her, and wouldest take her to thy wife,

12 Then thou shalt bring her home to thine house, and there shall haue her head, and pare her nailes,

13 And she shall put off the garment that she was taken in, and shee shall remaine in thine house, and bewaile her father and her mother a moneth long: and after that shalt thou goe in vnto her, and marrie her, and shee shall be thy wife.

14 And if thou haue no fauour vnto her, then thou mayest let her goe whither shee will, but thou shalt not sell her for money, nor make merchandise of her, because thou hast humbled her.

15 ¶ If a man haue two wives, one looued, and another hated, and they haue borne him children, both the looued and also the hated: if the first borne bee the sonne of the hated,

16 Then when the time cometh, that he appointeth his sonnes to bee heirs of that which he hath, he may not make the sonne of the beloved first borne before the sonne of the hated, which is the first borne:

17 But hee shall acknowledge the sonne of the hated for the first borne, and giue him double portion of all that hee hath: for hee is the first of his seruages, and to him belongeth the right of the first borne.

18 ¶ If any man haue a sonne that is stubborne and disobedient, which will not hearken vnto the voyce of his father, nor the voyce of his mother, and they haue chastened him, and hee would not obey them,

19 When shall his father and his mother take him, and hying him out vnto the Elders of his cite, and vnto the gates of the place where he dwelleth,

20 And shall lay vnto the Elders of his cite, This our sonne is stubborne and disobedient, and hee will not obey our admonition: he is a rotator, and a dunkeard.

21 Then all the men of his cite shall stone him with stones vnto death: so thou shalt take away euill from among you: that all Israel may heare it, and feare.

22 ¶ If a man also haue committed a treaspasse worthy of death, and is put to death, and thou hanged him on a tree,

23 His body shall not remaine all night vpon the tree, but thou shalt burie him the same day: for the curse of God is on him that is hanged. Deile, not therefore thy land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee to inherit.

1 He commandeth to haue care of our neighbors goods. 5 The woman may not weare mens apparell, nor man the womans. 6 Of the damme and her young birds. 8 Why they should haue battlemints. 9 Not to mixe diuers kinds together. 13 Of the wife not being found a virgin. 23 The punishment of a heuery.

1 ¶ Thou shalt not see thy brothers ore nor his sheepe goe astray, and withdraue thy life from them, but shalt bring them againe vnto thy brother.

2 And if thy brother bee not neere vnto thee, or if thou knowe him not, then thou shalt bring it into thine house, and it shall remaine with thee, vntill thy brother seeke after it: then shalt thou deliuer it to him againe.

3 In like manner shalt thou doe with his asse, and so shalt thou doe with his rayment, and shalt so be with all last things of thy brother, which he hath lost: if thou hast found them, then shalt thou withdraue thy life from them.

4 ¶ Thou shalt not see thy brothers asse which pertaineth unto the man, neither shall a man put on a womans raiment: for all that doth, are abomination unto the Lord thy God.

7. ¶ If thou find a birds nest in the way, in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be young of egges, and the damme sitting upon the pong, or upon the egges: thou shalt not take the damme with the young.

thou shalt make a battlement on thy roofe:
that thou lay not blood upon thine house, if

12. ¶ Thou shalt not weare a garment of divers sorts, as of woollen & linnen together.

13. ¶ Thou shalt make thee hangings upon the four quarters of thy vesture, inderewith thou coverest thy selfe.

14. ¶ If a man take a wife, and when hee hath lien with her, hate her,

15. ¶ And lay a slanderous thinge unto her charge, and bring up an evil name upon her, and say, I tooke this wife, and when I came to her, I found her not a maide.

16. ¶ Then shall the father of the maide and her mother take and bring the signes of the maide virginite unto the Elders of the city to the gate.

17. ¶ And the maidens father shall say unto the Elders, I gave my daughter unto this man to wife, and hee hath hated her:

18. ¶ And for, hee layeth slanderous thinges unto her charge, saying, I found not thy daughter a maide: loe, these are the tokens of my daughters virginite: & they shall spread the verities before the Elders of the cite.

19. ¶ Then the Elders of the cite shall take that man and chastise him.

20. ¶ And shall condemne him in an hundred shekels of silver, and give them unto the father of the maide, because hee hath brought up an evil name upon a maide of Israhel, and she shall be his wife, and hee may not put her away all his life.

21. ¶ But if this thing be true, that the maide be not found a virgin,

22. ¶ Then they that bring forth the maide to the doore of her fathers house, and the men of her cite shall beat her with stones to death: for shee hath wrought folly in Israhel, by playing the whoore in her fathers house: so thou shalt put away from among you.

23. ¶ If a man see found lying with a woman married to a man, then they shall die even both thairse: to wit, the man that lay with the wife, and for the wife: so thou shalt put away evil from Israhel.

24. ¶ If a maide be betrothed unto an husband, and a man finde her in the towne, and lie with her,

25. ¶ Then shall ye bring them both out unto the gates of the same cite, and shall stone them with stones to death: the maide because shee cried not, being in the cite, and the man, because hee hath humbled his neighbours wife: so thou shalt put away from among you.

26. ¶ But if a man finde a betrothed maide in the field, and force her, and lie with her, then the man that lay with her, shall die alone:

27. ¶ And unto the maide thou shalt doe nothing, because there is in the maide no fault of death: for as when a man riseth against his neighbour and woundeth him to death, it is this matter.

28. ¶ For hee found her in the field: she betrothed maide cried, and there was no man to succour her.

29. ¶ If a man finde a maide that is not betrothed, and take her, and lie with her,
and they be found,

30. ¶ Then the man that lay with her, shall give unto the maidens father fifty shekels of silver: and shee shall be his wife, because hee hath humbled her: hee cannot put her away

2 ¶ And when she is departed out of his house and gone her way, and marrie with another man,

3 ¶ And if the latter husband hate her, and write her a letter of diuorcement, and put it in her hand, and send her out of his house, or if the latter man die which tooke her to wife:

4 ¶ Then her first husband, which sent her away, may not take her againe to bee his wife, after that she is defiled: for that is abomination in the sight of the Lord, and thou shalt not cause the land to sinne, which the Lord thy God doth giue thee to inherit.

5 ¶ When a man taketh a new wife, hee shall not goe a warfare, neither shall hee be charged with any businesse, but shall bee free at home one yeere, and reioyce with his wife which he hath taken.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 The people are exhorted to observe the commandements. 10 The whole people from the least to the lowest are comprehended under Gods covenant. 19 The punishment of him that flattereth himselfe in his wickedness. 24 The cause of Gods wrath against his people.

These are the wordes of the covenant, which the Lorde commanded Moyses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, beside the covenant which hee had made with them in Horeb.

2 ¶ And Moyses called all Israel, & said unto them, Ye have seene all that the Lord did before your eyes in the lande of Egypt unto Pharaoh, & unto all his servants, and unto all his land,

3 The great tentations which thine eyes have seene, those great miracles and wonders:

4 Yet the Lord hath not given you an heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and eares to heare, unto this day.

5 And I have led you fourtie yeers in the wilderness: your clothes are not waxed olde upon you, neither is thy shoe waxed olde upon thy foot.

6 Ye have eaten no bread, neither drunk wine, nor strong drink, that ye might know, how that I am the Lord your God.

7 After, ye came unto this place, and Sihon king of Moab, and Og king of Bashan come out against vs: unto battell, and we slew them.

8 And tooke their land, & gave it for an inheritance unto the Rubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the halfe tribe of Manasse.

9 Keepe therefore the wordes of this covenant, and doe them, that ye may prosper in all that ye shall doe.

10 Ye stand this day every one of you before the Lord your God: your heads of your tribes, your Elders and your officers, even all the men of Israel:

11 Your children, your wives, and thy stranger that is in thy campe, fro the west of thy wood, unto the waters of thy river.

12 That thou shouldest passe into the covenant of the Lord thy God, and into his oath which the Lord thy God maketh with thee this day, 13 For to establish thee this day a people unto himselfe, and that he may bee unto thee a God, as he hath said unto thee, and as he hath sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

14 Neither make I this covenant, and this oath with you only.

15 But I will with him that standeth here with vs this day before the Lorde our God, as with him that is not here with vs this day.

16 For ye knowe how we have dwelt in the land of Egypt, and how we passed thorough the mids of the nations which ye passed by.

17 And ye have seene their abominations, and their idoles (wood, and stone, silver and gold) which were among them.

18 That there should not bee among you man nor woman, nor familie, nor tribe, which should turne his heart away this day from the Lord our God, to goe and serve the gods of their nations, and that there should not bee among you any roote that bringeth forth gall and wormewood.

19 So that when he heareth the wordes of this curse, hee bleesse himselfe in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, although I walke according to the wickednes of mine owne heart, thus adding drunkennesse to thirst.

20 The Lord will not be mercifull unto him, but then the wrath of the Lord and his ielousie shall smoke against that man, and every curse that is written in this booke, shall light upon him, & the Lord shall put out his name from under heaven.

21 And the Lord shall separate him into euill out of all the tribes of Israel, according unto all the curses of the covenant, that is written in the booke of this Law.

22 So that the generation to come, even your children, that shall rise vy after you, & the stranger that shall come from a farre land, shall say, when they shall see the plagues of this land, and the diseases thereof, wherewith the Lord shall smite it:

23 For all that land shall burne with hyssop, and salt: it shall not be sown, nor bring forth, nor any grasse shall grow therein, like as in the ouerthrowing of Sodome, and Gomorah, Admah, & Seboim, which the Lord overthrew in his wrath and in his anger.

24 When shall all nations say, Wherefore hath the Lord done thus unto this land: how fierce is this great wrath?

25 And they shall answer, Because they haue forsaken the covenant of the Lorde God of their fathers, which hee had made with them, when hee brought them out of the land of Egypt.

26 And went and serued other gods, and worshipped them: such gods which they knew not, and which had given them nothing.

27 Therefore the wrath of the Lord waxed hot against this land, to bring upon it euery curse that is written in this booke.

28 And the Lord hath rooted them out of their lande in anger, and in wrath, and in great great indignation, and hath cast them into another land, as appeared this day.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Mercy shewed when they repented. 6 The Lord doth circūcise the heart. 11 An excuse of ignorance is taken away. 15. 19 Life and death is set before them. 20 The Lord is their life which obey him.

NOW when all these things shall come vpon thee, either the blessing or the curse which I haue set before thee, and thou shalt turne into thine heart, among all the nations, whether the Lord thy God hath diuined thee,

2 And shalt returne vnto the Lord thy God, and obey his voyce in all that I commaund thee this day: thou, and thy children with all thine heart and with all thy soule,

3 Then the Lord thy God will cause thy captiues to returne, and haue compassion vpon thee, and will returne, to gather thee out of all the people, where the Lord thy God hath scattered thee.

4 Though thou werest cast vnto the remotest part of heauen, from thence will the Lord thy God gather thee, and from thence will he take thee,

5 And the Lord thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possess it, and hee will shewe thee fauour, and will multiply thee about thy fathers.

6 And the Lord thy God will circūcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seede, that thou mayest loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, that thou mayest liue.

7 And the Lord thy God will lay all these curses vpon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, and that persecute thee.

8 Returne thou therefore, and obey the voyce of the Lord, and do all his commandments, which I commaund thee this day.

9 And the Lord thy God will make thee plenteous in euery worke of thine hand, in the fruite of thy body, and in the fruite of thy cattell, and in the fruite of the land for thy wealth: for the Lord will turne againe and reioyce ouer thee to doe thee good, as hee reioyced ouer thy fathers.

10 Because thou shalt obey the voyce of the Lord thy God, in keeping his commandments, & his ordinances, which are written in the booke of this Law, when thou shalt returne vnto the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule.

11 For this commandment which I commaund thee this day, is not hid from thee, neither to feare it.

12 It is not in heauen, that thou shouldst say, woe shall we go vp for vs to heauen, and bring it vs, and cause vs to heare it, that we may doe it?

13 Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldst say, woe shall we goe ouer the sea for vs, and bring it vs, and cause vs to heare it, that we may doe it?

14 But the word is very neere vnto thee, even in thy mouth and in thine heart, so to doe it.

15 Beholde, I haue set before thee this day life and good, death and euill, 16 In that I commaund thee this day, to loue the Lord thy God, to walke in his wayes, and to keepe his commandments, and his ordinances, and his lawes, that thou mayest liue and be multiplied, & that the Lord thy God may blesse thee in the land, whither thou goest to possess it.

17 But if thine heart turne away, so that thou wilt not obey, but shalt bee seduced and worship other gods, and serue them,

18 I pronounce vnto you this day, that yee shall surely perish, yee shall not prolong your dayes in the land, whither thou passest ouer Iordain to possess it.

19 I call heauen and earth to receiue this day against you, that I haue set before you life and death, blessing and cursing. Therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seede may liue, 20 By louing the Lord thy God, by obeying his voyce, and by cleauing vnto him: for he is thy life, & the length of thy dayes: that thou mayest dwell in the land which the Lord swore vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Ishaac, and Iacob, to giue them.

CHAP. XXXI.

2. 7 Moses preparing himselfe to die, appointeth Iosua to rule the people. 9 Hee giueth the Law to the Levites, that they should reade it to the people. 19 God giueth them a song as a witness betwene him and them. 23 God confirmeth Iosua. 29. Moses warneth them that they will rebel after his death.

Then Moses went and spake these words vnto all Israel,

2 And said vnto them, I am an hundred and twentie yeere olde this day: I can no more goe out and in: also the Lord hath said vnto me, Thou shalt not goe ouer this Iordain.

3 The Lord thy God he will go ouer before thee: hee will destroy those nations before thee, and thou shalt possess them. Iosua, hee shall goe before thee, as the Lord hath sayd.

4 And the Lord shall doe vnto them, as hee did to Sihon, and to Og kings of the Amorites, and vnto their land, whome hee destroyed.

5 And the Lord shall giue them before you, that yee may doe vnto them according vnto euery commandment, which I haue commanded you.

6 I blinke vp your hearts therefore, and be strong: head not nor be affraid of them: for the Lord thy God himselfe doeth with thee: hee will not faile thee, nor forsake thee.

7 And Moses called Iosua, and said vnto him in the sight of all Israel, Bee of a good courage and strong: for thou shalt goe with these people vnto the land which the Lord hath sworn vnto their fathers, to giue them, and thou shalt giue it them to possess.

8 And

8 And the Lorde himselfe saith: go before thee: he will be with thee: hee will not faile thee: neither forsake thee: feare not therefore, nor be discouraged.

9 And Moses wrote this Law, and delivered it unto the Priestes the Ionnes of Lewi, (which bare the Arke of the Covenant of the Lorde) and unto all the Elders of Israel.

10 And Moses commanded them, saying, Every seventh yeere when the yeere of freedom shall bee in the feast of the Tabernacles:

11 When all Israel shall come to appeare before the Lorde thy God in the place which hee shall chuse, thou shalt reade this Law before all Israel that they may heare it.

12 Gather the people together: men, and women, and children, and the stranger that is within thy gates, that they may heare, and that they may learne, and feare the Lorde your God, and keepe, and observe all the words of this Law.

13 And that their children which have not knownen it, may heare it, and learne to feare the Lorde your God, as long as ye live in the land; whither ye goe over Jordan to possesse it.

14 And when the Lorde sayde unto Moses, Behold, thy dayes are come, that thou must die: Call Ioshua, and stande ye in the Tabernacle of the Congregation that I may give him a charge. So Moses and Ioshua went, and stood in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

15 And the Lorde appeared in the Tabernacle, in the pillar of a cloude: and the pillar of the cloude stood over the doore of the Tabernacle.

16 And the Lorde sayde unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleepe with thy fathers; and this people will rise up, and goe a whoring after the Gods of a strange lande (whither they goe to dwell therein) and will forsake me, and breake my covenant which I have made with them.

17 Wherefore my wrath will waite hote against them at that day, and I will forsake them, and will hide my face from them: then they shall be consumed, and many adversities and tribulations shall come upon them: so then will they say, Acc not these troubles come upon me, because God is not with me?

18 But I will surely hide my face in that day, because of all the evill, which they shall commit, in that they are turned unto other gods.

19 Now therefore write ye this song for you, and teach it the children of Israel: put it in their mouthes, that this song may bee my witnesse against the children of Israel.

20 For I will bring them into the lande (which I sware unto their fathers) that floweth with milke and hony, and they shall eat, and fill themselves, and waxe fatte: then shall they turne unto other gods, and serve them, and continue mee, and breake my covenant.

21 And then when many adversities and tribulations shall come upon them, this song shall answer them to their face as a witnesse: for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouthes of their posteritie: for I know their imagination, which they goe about even now, before I have brought them into the land which I sware.

22 And Moses therefore wrote this song the same day, and taught it the children of Israel.

23 And God gave Ioshua the sonne of Nun a charge, and said, Be strong, and of a good courage: for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land, which I sware unto them, and I will be with thee.

24 And when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this Law in a booke, untill he had finished them,

25 Then Moses commanded the Levites, which bare the Arke of the Covenant of the Lorde, saying,

26 Take the booke of this Law, and put ye it in the side of the Arke of the Covenant of the Lorde your God, that it may be there for a witnesse against thee.

27 For I know thy rebellion and thy stiff necke: beholde, I being yet alive with you this day, ye are rebellious against the Lorde: how much more then after my death?

28 Gather unto me al the Elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speake these words in their audience, and call heaven and earth to record against them.

29 For I am sure that after my death ye will utterly be corrupt, and turne from the way, which I have commanded you: therefore evill will come upon you at the length, because ye will commit evill in the sight of the Lorde, by provoking him to anger through the worke of your hands.

30 Thus Moses spake in the audience of all the Congregation of Israel the words of this song, untill he had ended them.

The Booke of Joshua.

THE ARGUMENT.

IN this booke the holy Ghost setteth most lively before our eyes the accomplishment of Gods promise, who as he promised by the mouth of Moses, that a Prophet should be raised up vnto the people like vnto him, whom he willeth to obey, Deut. 34. 10. to be s<sup>e</sup>ewed himselfe here true in his promise, as at all other times, and after the death of Moses his faithfull servant, hee raised up Joshua to be ruler and gouernor ouer his people, that neither they should be discouraged for lacke of a captaine, nor haue occasion to distrust Gods promises hereafter. And because that Ioshua might be confirmed in his vocation, and the people also might haue none occasion to grudge, as though hee were not appointed of God: hee is adorned with most excellent gifts and graces of God; both to gouerne the people with counsel, and to defend them with strength, that he lacked nothing which either belonged to a valiant captaine, or a faithfull minister. So he ouercommeth all difficulties, and bringeth them into the land of Canaan: the which according to Gods ordinance he diuideth among the people and appointeth their borders: he establisheth lawes and ordinances, & putteth them in remembrance of Gods manifold benefits, assuring them of his grace and fauour, if they obey God, and contrariwise of his plagues and vengeance if they disobey him. This historie doth represent Iesus Christ the true Joshua, who leadeth vs into eternall felicity, which is signified vnto vs by this land of Canaan. From the beginning of the Genesis to the end of this booke are contained 3576. yeres. For from Adam vnto the flood are 1656. from the flood vnto the departure of Abraham out of Caldea, 423. and from thence to the death of Ioseph 290. So that the Genesis containeth a 389. Exodus 140. the other three bookes of Moses 40. Joshua 27. So the whole make 3576. yeres.

CHAP. I.

1 The Lord encourageth Joshua to invade the land. 4 The borders & limits of the land of the Israelites. 5 The Lord promisseth to assist Joshua, if he obey his word. 11 Joshua commandeth the people to prepare themselves to passe ouer Iordan, and exhorteth the Reubenites to execute their charge.

a The beginning of this booke dependeth on I last Chapter of Deut. which was written by Ioshua as a preparation to his historie.

Now after the death of Moses the seruant of the Lord, the Lord spake vnto Joshua the sonne of Nun, Moses minister, saying,

1 And the Lord sayd vnto him, This is the land which I sware vnto Abraham, to Isaac and to Iacob, saying, I will giue it vnto thee: for I haue caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not goe ouer thither.

2 And Moses the seruant of the Lord died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the Lord.

3 And he buried him in a valley in the land of Moab over against Beth peor, but no man knoweth of his sepulchre vnto this day.

4 Moses was now an hundred & thentie yeres old when he died: his eye was not dimmed, nor his naturall force abated.

5 And the children of Israel toot for Moses in the plaine of Moab thirtie dayes: to the dayes of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended.

6 And Joshua the sonne of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom: for Moses had put his handes vpon him. And the children of Israel were obedient vnto him, and did as the Lord had commanded Moses.

7 But there arose now a Prophet since in Israel vnto Moses (whom the Lord knewe face to face)

8 In all the miracles & wonders which the Lord sent him to doe in the land of Egypt before Pharaoh and before all his seruants, and before all his land.

There shall not a man be able to touch not leave thee nor forsake thee.

6 Be strong and of a good courage: for into this people have thou divide the land:
for an inheritance, which I gave unto their fathers to give them.

7 Only be thou strong, for of a most valiant courage, that thou mayest observe and doe according to all the Law which Moses my servant hath commanded thee: thou shalt not turne away from it to the right hand, nor to the left, that thou mayest prosper with whatsoever thou goest.

8 Let not this booke of the Law depart out of thy mouth, but meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe and do according to all that is written therein: for then shalt thou make thy wayes prosperous, and then shalt thou have good success.

9 Have I not commanded thee, saying,
Be strong, and of a good courage, feare not,
nor be discouraged: for I the Lord thy God will be with thee, whithersoever thou goest.

10 Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,

11 Pass ye now the Jordan, and command the people saying, Prepare you, brethren: for after three dayes yee shall passe over this Jordan, to goe in to possess the land, which the Lord your God giveth you to possess it.

12 And unto the Reubenites, & to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Manasse saith Joshua, saying,

13 Remember the word, which Moses the servant of the Lord commanded you, saying, The Lord your God hath given you this land, and hath given you this land.

14 For your wives, your children, and your cattell shall remaine in the land, which Moses gave you on this side Jordan: but ye shall passe over before your brethren armed, all that be men of warre, & shall helpe
them.

15 Until the Lord have given your brethren rest, as well as to you, and until they also shall possess the land, which the Lord your God giveth them: then shall ye returne unto the land of your possession and shall possess it, which land Moses the Lord's servant gave you on this side Jordan, toward the sunne rising.

16 Then they answered Joshua, saying,
All that thou hast commanded us, we will do, and whithersoever thou sendest vs, we will go.

17 As we obeyed Moses in all things, so will we obey thee: onely the Lord thy God be with thee, as he was with Moses.

18 Whosoever shall rebel against thy commandment, and will not obey thy words in all that thou commandest him, let him be put to death: onely be strong, and of good courage.

CHAP. II.

1. Joshua sendeth men to spy Jericho upon Rahab king, as she receiveth the God of Israel.

the king sent a spy to spy the land: as the spies returned, they said, we have found a strong city.

2. Then Joshua the sonne of Nun sent out of his spies two men to spy secretly, saying, Go view the land, and also Jericho:
and they went, and came into an harlots
house, named Rahab, and lodged there.

3. Then report was made to the king of Jericho, saying, Behold, there came in hither to us spies, of the children of Israel, to spy out the country.

4. And the king of Jericho sent unto Rahab, saying, Telling thus the men that are come to thee, & which are entered into thine house: for they be come to search out all the land.

5. (But the woman had taken the two men, and hid them) therefore said she thus,
There came men unto me, but I wist not whence they were.

6. And when they shut the gate in the darkes, the men went out, whether the men were I wote not: followe mee after them quickly, for ye shall overthrow them.

7. But she had brought them up to the roofof the house, and hid them with the stalkes of flax which she had spread abroad upon the roofof.

8. And certaine men pursued after them, the way to Jordan, unto the floods, and as soone as they which pursued after them, were gone out, they shut the gate.

9. And before they were asleepe, she came up into them upon the roofof.

10. And she said unto the men, I know that the Lord hath given you the land, and that the feare of you is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land feare because of you.

11. For we have heard, howe the Lord dried up the waters of the red sea before you, when ye came out of Egypt: what you did unto the two Kings of the Amarites, that were on the other side Jordan, unto Sihon and to Og, whom ye utterly destroyed.

12. And when we heard it, our hearts did faint, and there remained no more courage in any because of you: for the Lord your God, he is the God in heauen above, and in earth beneath.

13. Now therefore, I pray you, sweare unto mee by the Lord, that as I have shewed you mercy, ye will also shew mercy unto my fathers house, and give mee a true colour.

14. And that ye will doe a time my father and my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters, and all that they have: and that ye will deliver our houses from death.

15. And y men answered her, Our life for you is as our death, if we doe not thus and thus:
and when the Lord hath given us the land, we will doe as mercifully to you, as ye have done unto us.

16. Then shee made them downe by a covenant unto her: for shee had made them swear, and shee directed them to the land whither they went.

CHAP. III.

1 Joshua commaunded them to depart when the Arke remoueth: 7. The Lord promised to exalte Joshua before the people: 9. Joshua exhortation to the people: 10. The waters part asunder: 11. The people passe.

¶ Then Joshua rose very early, and they remoued from Shittim, and came to Iordan, hee, and all the children of Israel, and lodged there, before they went ouer.

2 And after three dayes the officers went throughout the hoste.

3 And commaunded the people, saying, When ye see the Arke of the couenant of the Lord your God, and the Priests of the Levites bearing it, ye shall depart from your place, and go after it.

4 Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure: ye shall not come nether vnto it, that ye may knowe the way, by the which ye shall goe: for ye haue not gone this way in times past.

5 ¶ When Joshua had sayd vnto the people, whosoever ye felicitie say to morrowe the Lord will do wonders among you.

6 Also Joshua spake vnto the Priests, saying, Take up the Arke of the Couenant, and go ouer before the people: for they tooke by the Arke of the Couenant, and went downe to the river.

7 ¶ When the Lord sayd vnto Joshua, This day will I beginne to magnifie thee in the sight of all Israel, which shall knowe, that as I was with Moses, so will I be with thee.

8 ¶ When thou shalt therefore commaund the Priests that beare the Arke of the couenant, saying, When ye are come to the brink of the waters of Iordan, ye shall stand still: in Iordan.

9 ¶ Then Joshua sayd vnto the children of Israel, Come hither, and heare the wordes of the Lord your God.

10 And Joshua sayd, Verily ye shall knowe that the liuing God is among you, and that hee will certainly cast out before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hivites, & the Perizzites, and the Girgathites, & the Amorites, and the Iebusites.

11 Behold, the Arke of the Couenant of the Lord of all the world passeth before you into Iordan.

12 Now therefore take from among you twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, out of euery tribe a man.

13 And as soone as the soles of the feete of the Priests (that beare the Arke of the Lord God the Lord of all the world) shall stay in the waters of Iordan, the waters of Iordan shall be cut off: for the waters that come from above, shall stand still vpon an heape.

14 ¶ Then when the people were departed from their tents to goe ouer Iordan, the Priests bearing the Arke of the couenant, went before the people.

15 And as they that bare the Arke came vnto Iordan, & the feete of the Priests that bare the Arke were dipped in the brink of the water (* for Iordan useth to fill all his bankes all the time of harvest)

16 ¶ Then the waters that came downe from above, stayed and rose vpon an heape, and departed farre from the cite of Adam, that was beside Zarethan: but the waters that came downe toward the Sea of the wilderness, ouer the salt Sea, failed: & were cut off: so the people went right ouer against Jericho.

17 But the Priests that bare the Arke of the Couenant of the Lord, stood dry within Iordan: ready prepared, and all the Israelites went ouer thus, vntill all the people were gone cleane ouer thorn Iordan.

¶ CHAP. IIII. ¶ When Joshua was come to Gilgal, the waters returned to their old course. 1. The waters return to their old course. 2. The waters return to their old course. 3. The waters return to their old course.

¶ 13 D. when all the people were wholly gone ouer Iordan (after the Lord had spoken vnto Joshua, saying,

¶ 14 Take you twelve men out of the people, out of euery tribe a man.

¶ 15 And commaund you them, saying, Take you hence out of the midst of Iordan, out of the place, where the Priests stood in a readiness, twelve stones, which ye shall take away with you, and leaue them in the flowing, where you shall lodge this night.

Olives, according unto the word of the Lord, which he commanded Ioshua.

28 And Ioshua burnt it, and made it an heap for ever, and a witness unto this day.

29 And the King of Acher hanged on a tree, unto the evening. And as soon as the sunne was downe, Ioshua commanded that they should take his carckets holme from the tree, and cast it at the entering of the gate of the cite, and lay thereon a great heape of stones, that remaineth unto this day.

30 ¶ Then Ioshua built an Altar unto the Lord God of Israel, in mount Ebal.

31 As Moses the servant of the Lord had commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the booke of the Law of Moses, an altar of whole stone, over which no man had lift an yron: and they offered thereon burnt offerings unto the Lord, and sacrificed peace offerings.

32 And he wrote there upon the stones, a rehearsal of the Lawe of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel.

33 And all Israel (and their Elders, and officers, and their Judges stood on this side of the arke, on that side, before the Priests of the Levites, which bare the Arke of the Covenant of the Lord) as well the stranger, as he that is borne in the countrey: halfe of them were over against mount Gerizim, and halfe of them over against mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the Lord had commanded before, that they should dread the people of Israel.

34 Then afterward he read al the words of the Law, the blessings and cursings, according to all that is written in the booke of the Law.

35 There was not a word of al that Moses had commanded, which Ioshua read not before all the Congregation of Israel, as well before the women and the children, as the stranger that was comeniant among them.

CHAP. IX.

1 Diners Kings assemble themselves against Ioshua. 3 The craft of the Gibeonites. 15 Ioshua maketh a league with them. 23 For their craft they are condemned to perpetual slavery.

¶ And when all the Kings that were beyond Jordan, in the mountaines and in the valleys, & by all the coastes of the great Sea over against Lebanon (as the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, & the Jebusites) heard thereof,

3 They gathered themselves together to fight against Ioshua, and against Israel with one accord.

¶ But the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Ioshua had done unto Jericho and to Ai.

14 And therefore they wrought craftily: for they went, and rained themselves embassadors, and took olive laces upon their asses, and old bottles for wine, both rent and bound up.

¶ And old shoes and cleaved upon their feete: and the rayment upon them was old, and all their provision of bread was dried, and moulded.

6 And they came unto Ioshua, into the host to Edgah, and said unto him, and unto the men of Israel, We be come from a farre countrey: now therefore make a league with us.

7 Then the men of Israel said unto the Hivites, It may bee that thou dwellest among us: howe then can I make a league with thee?

8 And they said unto Ioshua, We are thy servants. Then Ioshua said unto them, Altho we seee and whence come ye?

9 And they answered him, From a verie farre countrey thy servants are come for the name of the Lord thy God: for we have heard his name and all that hee hath done in Egypt.

10 And all that hee hath done to the two Kings of the Amorites that were beyond Jordan, to Sihon king of Hesbon, & to Og king of Bashan, which were at Hitharoth.

11 Wherefore our Elders, and al the inhabitants of our countrey spake to us, saying, Take victuals: & with you for the journey, and goe to meete them, and lay unto them, We are your servants: now therefore make ye a league with us.

12 This our bread was tooke it hot with us for victuals out of our houses, the day we departed to come unto you: but now behold, it is drye, and it is moulded.

13 Also these bottles of wine which were filled, were new, and loe, they be rent, & these our garments and our shoes are old, by reason of the exceeding great journey.

14 And the seven men accepted their tale concerning their victuals, and counselled not with the mouth of the Lord.

15 So Ioshua made peace with them, and made a league with them, that he would suffer them to live: altho the Princes of the Congregation swore unto them.

16 But at the end of three dayes, after they had made a league with them, they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them.

17 And the children of Israel tooke their journey, & came unto their cities the third day, and their cities were Gibeon, and Bethrah, and Beeroth, and Riath-earim.

18 And the children of Israel sware them not, because the Princes of the Congregation had sware unto them by the Lord God of Israel: wherefore al the Congregation murmured against the Princes.

19 Then all the Princes said unto all the Congregation, We have sware unto them by the Lord God of Israel: now therefore we may not touch them.

20 But this wee will doe to them, and let them live, lest the wrath be upon us because of the oath which we sware unto them.

21 And the Princes said unto them againe, Let them live, but they shall hewe wood, and draw water unto all the Congregation, as the Princes appoint them.

22 Ioshua then called them, and talked with them, and said, Wherefore have ye beguiled

24 And they answered Joshua, and said, Because it was tolde thy seruants, that the Lord thy God had commanded his seruant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the lande out of your sight, therefore we were exceeding feare afraid for our liues at the presence of you, and haue done this thing.

25 And behold now, we are in thine hand: doe as it seemeth good and right in thine eyes to doe vnto vs.

26 Euen so did he vnto them, and deliuered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, that they slew them not.

27 And Joshua appointed them that same day to be hewers of wood, and drawers of water for the Congregation, and for the Altar of the Lord vnto this day, in the place which he should chuse.

CHAP. X.

1 Five kings make warre against Gibeon, whom Joshua discomfith. 11 The Lord rained bailestones and slew many. 12 The Sunne standeth at Joshua prayer. 26 The five Kings are hanged. 29 Many more cities and Kings are destroyed.

NOWE when Adoni zedek King of Ierusalem had heard how Joshua had taken Ai and had destroyed it, (for as hee had done to Iericho, and to the king thereof, so hee had done to Ai and to the king thereof) and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them,

2 Then they feared exceedingly: for Gibeon was a great citie, as one of the royall cities: for it was greater then Ai, and all the king thereof were mightie.

3 Wherefore Adoni zedek King of Ierusalem sent vnto Ioham king of Iebdon, and vnto Piram King of Iarmuth, and vnto Iapia King of Lachish, and vnto Debir King of Eglon, saying,

4 Come ye vnto me, and helpe me; that we may smite Gibeon: for they haue made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel.

5 Therefore the five Kings of the Amorites, the King of Ierusalem, the King of Iebdon, the King of Iarmuth, the King of Lachish, and the King of Eglon gathered themselves together, and went up, they with all their hostes, and besieged Gibeon, and made warre against it.

6 And the men of Gibeon sent vnto Joshua, euen to the hoste to Gilgal, saying, Withdraw not thine hand fro thy seruants: come vp to vs quickly, and save vs, and helpe vs: for all the Kings of the Amorites which dwell in the mountaines, are gathered together against vs.

7 So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he, and all the people of warre with him, and all the men of might.

8 And the Lord sayde vnto Joshua, Feare them not: for I haue giuen them in to thine hand: none of them shall stand against thee.

9 Joshua therefore came vnto them suddenly: for hee went by from Gilgal all the night.

10 And the Lord discomfited them before Israel, and slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth vp to Beth hezon, and smote them to Azekah and to Gakkedah.

11 And as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Beth hezon, the Lord cast downe great stones from heauen vpon them, vntill Azekah, and they dyed: they were more that died with the hailstones, then they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword.

12 And when spake Joshua to the Lord, in the day when the Lord gaue the Amorites before the children of Israel, and hee said in the sight of Israel, Sunne, stay thou in Gibeon, and thou Moone, in the valley of Aialon.

13 And the Sunne abode, and the Moone stood still, vntill the people auenged themselves vpon their enemies: (Is not this written in the booke of? Iudges?) so the Sunne abode in the midst of the heauen, and halsted not to goe downe for a whole day.

14 And there was no day like that before it, nor after it, that the Lord fought for Israel.

15 After Joshua returned and all Israel with him vnto the campe to Gilgal.

16 But the five Kings fled and were hid in a cave at Gakkedah.

17 And it was told Joshua, saying, The five Kings are found hid in a cave at Gakkedah.

18 Then Joshua said, Roulle great stones vpon the mouth of the cave, and set men by it for to keepe them.

19 But stand ye not still: follow after your enemies, and smite all the hindmost, suffer them not to enter into their cities: for the Lord your God hath giuen them into your hand.

20 And when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an ende of slaying them with an exceeding great slaughter till they were consumed, and the rest that remained of them were entered into the walled cities, 21 Then all the people returned to the campe, to Joshua at Gakkedah in a peare: no man moved his tongue against the children of Israel.

22 After, Joshua said, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out thence five Kings vnto me forth of the cave.

23 And they did so, and brought out thence five Kings vnto him forth of the cave, euen the King of Ierusalem, the King of Iebdon, the King of Iarmuth, the King of Lachish, and the King of Eglon.

24 And when they had brought out those kings vnto Joshua, Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said vnto the chiefe of the men of warre, which went with him, Come neere, let your feete vpon the neckes of these Kings: and they came neere and set their feete vpon their neckes.

25 And Ioshua sayde unto them, Feare not, nor be faint hearted, for he strong and of a good courage: for thus will the Lord doe with your enemies, against whom ye fight.

26 So then Ioshua smote them, and flew them, and hanged them on fine trees, and they hanged still upon the trees untill the evening.

27 And at the going downe of the sunne, Ioshua gave commaundement, that they should take downe off the trees, and cut them into the cause (wherein they had bene hit) and they layde great stones upon the causes mouth, which remaine untill this day.

28 ¶ And that same day Ioshua rooke + Mahkehab, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof destroyed he with them: all the soules that were therein, he let none remaine: for he had done unto the king of Mahkehab as he had done unto the king of Jericho.

29 Then Ioshua went from Mahkehab, and all Israel with him unto Libnah, and fought against Libnah.

30 And the Lord gave + it also, and the king thereof into the hand of Israel: and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the soules that were therein: he let none remaine in it: for he did unto the king thereof, as he had done unto the king of Jericho.

31 ¶ And Ioshua departed from Libnah, and all Israel with him unto Lachish, and besieged it, and assaulted it.

32 And the Lord gave + Lachish into the hand of Israel, which rooke it the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the soules that were therein: according to all as he had done to Libnah.

33 ¶ And when Ioshua king of Gazer came by to helpe Lachish: but Ioshua smote him and his people, untill none of his remaine.

34 ¶ And from Lachish Ioshua departed unto Eglon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged it, and assaulted it.

35 And they rooke it the same day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the soules that were therein: hee utterly destroyed the same day according to all that he had done to Lachish.

36 Then Ioshua went by from Eglon, and all Israel with him unto Debayn, and they fought against it.

37 And when they had taken + it, they smote it with the edge of his sword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the soules that were therein: he left none remaining, according to all as he had done to Eglon: for he destroyed it utterly, and all the soules that were therein.

38 ¶ So Ioshua returned, and all Israel with him to Debir, and fought against it.

39 And when he had taken + it, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the soules that were therein, hee let none remaine: as hee did to Debayn, so did he to Debir, and to the king thereof, as he had also done to Libnah, and to the king thereof.

40 ¶ So Ioshua smote all the hill countreys, and the mount countreys, and the valleys, and the hill lines, and all their kings, and let none remaine, but utterly destroyed every soule, as the Lord God of Israel had commanded.

41 And Ioshua smote them from Baderbarnes, even unto Gabbon, and all the countrey of Goshen, even unto Gibeon.

42 And all their kings and their land did Ioshua take at + one time, because the Lord God of Israel fought for Israel.

43 Afterward, Ioshua sent all Israel with him returned unto the campe in Gilgal.

CHAP. XII.

2 Divers kings and cities, and countreys overcome by Ioshua. 15 Ioshua did all that Moses had commanded him. 20 God hadenriched his enemies hearts that they might be destroyed.

¶ And when Ioshua king of Hazer had heard this, then hee + sent to Jobab king of Gidon, and to the king of Shinaron, and to the king of Achahab.

2 And unto the kings that were by the flood in the mountaynes and plaines toward the Southside of Chinneroth, and in the valleys, and in the borders of Day Westward,

3 And unto the Canaanites, both by East, and by West, and unto the Amorites, and Hittites, and Perizzites, and Jebusites in the mountaynes, and unto the Iouites under Hermon in the land of Shiph.

4 And they came out and all their hostes with them, many people as the land that is on the sea shore, for multitude, with horses and charets exceeding many.

5 So all these kings met together, and came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, for to fight against Israel.

6 ¶ Then the Lord said unto Ioshua, Be not afraid for them: for to morrow about this time will I deliver them all slain before Israel: thou shalt + hough their hostes and burne their charets with fire.

7 Then came Ioshua and all the men of warre with him against them by the waters of Merom suddenly, and fell upon them.

8 And the Lord gave them into the hand of Israel: and they smote them, and chased them unto great Sidon, and unto Mikethphothaim, and unto the valley of Shiph Eastward, and smote them untill they had none remaining of them.

9 And Ioshua did unto them as the Lord bade him: hee houghed their hostes, and burnt their charets with fire.

10 ¶ At that time also Ioshua turned backe, and rooke Hazer, and smote the king thereof with the sword: for Hazer beforetime was the head of all these kingdomes.

11 Moreover, they smote all the perions that were therein with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying all, leaving none alive, and he burnt Hazer with fire.

12 So all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them did Ioshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the Lord had commanded.

14 And all the people of their cities, and the cattell, the children of Israel took for their prey, but they smote every man with the edge of the sword, untill they had destroyed them, not leaving one alive.

15 As the Lord had commanded Moses his servant, so did Moses command Joshua, and so did Joshua: hee left nothing undone of all that the Lord had commanded Moses.

16 So Joshua took all this land of the mountaines, and all the South, and all the land of Goshen, and the lowe countrey, and the plain, and the mountaine of Israel, and the low countrey of the same.

17 From the mount Palak, that goeth by to Seir, even unto Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon, under mount Hermon: and all their kings hee tooke, and smote them, and slew them.

18 Joshua made warre long time with all these kings.

19 Neither was there any city that made peace with the children of Israel: save those Hittites that inhabited Sidon: all other they tooke by battell.

20 For it came of the Lord, to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battell, to the intent that they should destroy them utterly, & shew them no mercy, but that they should bring them to nought: as the Lord had commanded Moses.

21 And that time when came Joshua, & destroyed the Anakims out of the mountaines: as out of Hebron, out of Debir, out of Anab, and out of all the mountaines of Judah, and out of all the mountaines of Israel: Joshua destroyed them utterly with their cities.

22 There was no Anakim left in the land of the children of Israel: only in Gizzah, in Gath, and in Ashdod were they left.

23 So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the Lord had sayd unto Moses: and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel: according to their portions through their tribes: then the land was at rest without warre.

and there remaineth according which land to be possided:

2 This is the land that remaineth; all the regions of the Hittites, and all Gethur,

3 From Gethur which is in Egypt, even unto the borders of Arnon Northward: this is counted of the Canaanites, even five Lordships of the Hittites, the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Gethurites, and the Kenites, and the Kizzites:

4 From the South, all the land of the Canaanites, and the cause that is beside the Amorians, unto Ayek, and to the borders of the Amorites:

5 And the land of the Gihlites, and all Lebanon, toward the Sunne rising from Bahal-gad under mount Permon, untill one come to Hamath.

6 All the inhabitants of the mountaines from Lebanon unto Hethyphothaim, and all the Amorians, I will cast them out from before the children of Israel: onely divide thou it by lot unto the Israelites, to inherit, as I have commanded thee.

7 Now therefore divide this land to inherit unto the nine tribes, and to the halfe tribe of Manasseh.

8 For with halfe thereof, the Reubenites, and the Gadites have received their inheritance, which Moses gave them beyond Jordan Eastward, even as Moses the servant of the Lord had given them,

9 From Arer that is on the bank of the river Arnon, and from the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plaine of Moab unto Dibon,

10 And all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, unto the borders of the children of Ammon,

11 And Gilead, and the borders of the Geshurites and of the Maachabites, and all mount Permon, with all Bashan unto Salchah:

12 All the kingdom of Og in Bashan, which reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei, (who remained of the rest of the giants) for these did Moses smite, and cast them out.

13 But the children of Israel expelled not the Geshurites, nor the Maachabites: but the Geshurites and the Maachabites dwell among the Israelites even unto this day.

14 Onely unto the tribe of Levi hee gave none inheritance: but the sacrifices of the Lord God of Israel are his inheritance, as he layd unto him.

15 ¶ Moses then came unto the tribe of the children of Reuben inheritance, according to their families.

16 And their coast was from Arer, that is on the bank of the river Arnon, & from the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plaine that is by Moab:

17 Heshbon with all the cities thereof, that are in the plaine: Dibon and Bamoth-baal, and Beth-baal-meon:

18 And Jazazeh, and Kedemoth, & Mephaah:

19 Kiriathaim also, and Sibmah, and Zerithah in the mount of Atrak:

20 And Beth-peor, and Amonoth-pisgab, and Beth-leshamoth:

21 And all the cities of the plaine: and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses smote with the princes of Moab, Eui, and Rekem, and Zur, and Dur, and Reba, the dukes of Sihon, dwelling in the country.

22 And Balaam the sonne of Beor the soothsayer, did the children of Israel slay with the sword, among them that were slain.

23 And the border of the children of Reuben was Jordan with the coast. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben, according to their families, with the cities and their villages.

24 ¶ Also Moses gave inheritance unto the tribe of Gad, even unto the children of Gad according to their families.

25 And their coastes were Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead and Heshbon, the land of the children of Ammon unto Arer, which is before Rabbah:

26 And from Heshbon unto Ramoth, Mityeh, and Beronim: and from Mahanaim unto the borders of Debir:

27 And in the valley of Beth-aram, and Beth-nimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, unto Jordan and the borders even unto the Sea coast of Ginnereth, & beyond Jordan Eastward.

28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad, after their families, with the cities and their villages.

29 ¶ Also Moses gave inheritance unto the halfe tribe of Manasseh: and this belonged to the halfe tribe of the children of Manasseh according to their families.

30 And their border was from Mahanaim, even all Bashan, to wit, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the townes of Jair which are in Bashan, threetye Cities.

31 And halfe Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were given unto the children of Machir the sonne of Manasseh, to halfe of the children of Machir after their families.

32 These are the heritages, which Moses did distribute in the plaine of Moab beyond Jordan, toward Jericho Eastward.

33 ¶ But unto the tribe of Levi Moses gave none inheritance: for the Lord God of Israel is their inheritance, as he layd unto them.

distributed to them.

2 * By the lot of their inheritance, as the Lord had commanded by the hand of Moses, to give to the nine tribes, and the half tribe.

3 For Moses had given inheritance unto two tribes and a half tribe beyond Jordan: but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them.

4 For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with the suburbs of the same for their beasts and their substance.

5 * As the Lord had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did when they divided the land.

6 ¶ When the children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gilgal, and Caleb the sonne of Jephunneh the Kenizite sayd unto him, Thou knowest what the Lord sayde unto Moses the man of God, concerning me and thee in Kadesh barnea.

7 Forty yeere olde was I, when Moses the servant of the Lord sent mee from Kadesh barnea to espie the lande, and I brought him word againe, as I thought in mine heart.

8 But my brethren that went up with me, discouraged the heart of the people: yet I followed still the Lord my God.

9 Wherefore Moses sware the same day, saying, Certainly the land whercon thy feet have troden, shall be thine inheritance, and thy childrens for ever, because thou hast followed constantly the Lord my God.

10 Therefore behold now, the Lord hath kept me alive, as he promised: this is the fourtie and fifth yeere since the Lord spake this thing unto Moses, while the children of Israel wandered in the wilderness: and now loe, I am this day fourscore and five yeere old.

11 And yet am I strong at this time, as I was when Moses sent me: as strong as I was then, so strong am I now, either for warre, or for government.

12 Nowe therefore give mee this mountaine whereof the Lord spake in that day (for thou heardst in that day, how the Anakims were there, and the cities great and walled): if to see the Lord will bee with me, that I may drine them out, as the Lord sayd.

13 Then Joshua blessed him, and gave unto Caleb the sonne of Jephunneh, Hebron for an inheritance.

14 * Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the sonne of Jephunneh the Kenizite, unto this day: because he followed constantly the Lord God of Israel.

15 And the name of Hebron was before time, Kirjath arb: which Arba was a great man among the Anakims: thus the lande ceased from warre.

CHAP. XV.

The lot of the children of Judah, & the names of the cities and villages of the same. 1. Caleb's portion. 2. The rest of the tribe.

This then was the lot of the tribe of the children of Judah by their families: over to the border of Edom and the wilderness of Sin, Southward on the South coast.

2 And their South border was the salt Sea coast, from the point that looketh Southward.

3 And it went out on the Southside toward Beersheba, and went along to Beersheba, and went along to Beersheba, and went up to Adar, and set a compass to Beersheba.

4 From thence went it along to Azmon, and reached unto the river of Egypt, and the end of that coast was on the Westside: this shall be your South coast.

5 All the East border shall bee the salt Sea, unto the end of Jordan: and the border on the North quarter from the point of the Sea, and from the end of Jordan.

6 And this border goeth up to Beth begla, and goeth along by the Northside of Beth-arabah: so the border from thence goeth up to the stone of Bohan the sonne of Reuben.

7 Again this border goeth up to Debir from the valley of Achor, and Northward, turning toward Gilgal, that lieth before the going up to Guzin, which is on the Southside of the river: also this border goeth up to the waters of En-hamech, and endeth at En-rogel.

8 Then this border goeth by to the valley of the sonne of Hinnom, on the Southside of the Jebusites: the same is Jerusalem: also this border goeth up to the toppe of the mountaine that lieth before the valley of Hinnom Westward, which is by the end of the valley of the Giants Northward.

9 So this border compasseth from the top of the mountaine unto the fountain of the water of Shephoth, and goeth out to the cities of mount Ephraim: this border diaveth to Baalah, which is Kirjath-earim.

10 Then this border compasseth from Baalah Westward unto mount Seir, and goeth along unto the side of mount Ebron, which is Bethel on the Northside: so it cometh downe to Beth-hamech, and goeth to Elnah.

11 Also this border goeth out, unto the side of Ekron Northward: and this border diaveth to Shicron, and goeth along to mount Baalah, and stretcheth unto Jabneel: and the endes of this coast are to the Sea.

12 And the West border is to the great Sea: so this border shall be the boundes of the children of Judah round about, according to their families.

13 ¶ And unto Caleb the sonne of Jephunneh did Joshua give a part among the children of Judah, as the Lord commanded him: even Kirjath arb of the father of Anak, which is Hebron.

14 And Caleb drave thence three families of Anak, Heber, and Shimon, and Shimon, the sonne of Anak.

15 And he went up thence to the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir heretofore was Kiriaz-sepher.

16 Then Caleb said, He that smiteth Kiriaz-sepher, and taketh it, even to him will I give Achish my daughter to wife.

17 And Othniel the sonne of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb took it: and he gave him Achish his daughter to wife.

18 And as he went in to him, the mooned him as at her father's field: and she lighted off her side, and Caleb sayde unto her, What wilt thou?

19 Then she answered, I give me a blessing: for thou hast given mee the South country: I give mee also springs of water. And he gave her the springs above, and the springs beneath.

20 This shall bee the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families.

21 And the bound cities of the tribe of the children of Judah, toward the coasts of Edom southward were Hebron, and Eder, and Iamur.

22 And Kiriaz, and Dimonah, & Adadah,

23 And Keder, and Hazor, and Ithnan,

24 Zib, and Tirmah, and Bealoth,

25 And Hazor, Gadath, and Berioth, Beiton (which is Hazor).

26 Anan and Shema, and Goladab,

27 And Bezer, Gaddah, and Wehmon, and Beth-palet,

28 And Hazar-shual, and Beer-sheba, and Bizithiah,

29 Baalah, and Jim, and Azem,

30 And Eleadah, & Cheili, & Dannah,

31 And Ziklag, and Gudmanna, & Dan-lanah,

32 And Lebaoth, and Shilhim, and Ait, and Rimmon: all their cities are twenty and nine with their villages.

33 In the low country were Eshthol, and Jorah, and Anah,

34 And Zanoah, and Eganaim, Tapnah, and Enam,

35 Jarmuth, and Adullam, Socoh, and Aikhal,

36 And Shbarah, and Dithaim, and Gederah, and Gederothaim: foureteene cities with their villages.

37 Senan, & Masabah, & Migdal gad,

38 And Uleam, and Buseh, & Jokheri,

39 Lachish, and Bokerath, and Eglon,

40 And Gathon, Labiniam, & Kirshub,

41 And Gederoth, Beth-dagon, & Naamah, and Bakkedah: nineteene cities with their villages.

42 Lehnah, and Ether, and Ahan,

43 And Imethah, and Anah, and Bezi,

44 And Kiriaz, & Arub, and Barshah: nine cities with their villages.

45 Ekron with her townes and her villages,

46 From Ekron, even unto the Sea, all that lieth about Ashdod with their villages.

47 Ashdod with her townes and her villages, unto the river of Egypt, & the great Sea was their coast.

48 And in the mountaines were Shamir, and Tattir, and Socoh,

49 And Dannah, and Kiriaz Dannah (which is Dhar).

50 And Anah, and Ashermod, and Anim,

51 And Goshen, and Holon, and Gilah: eleven cities with their villages.

52 Arab, and Dannah, and Eshem,

53 And Janum, and Beth-tappuah, and Appekah,

54 And Dannah, & Kiriaz-arba (which is Dehon), and Jor: nine cities with their villages.

55 Dagon, Carmel, and Ziph, & Iutrah,

56 And Yireel, and Iohdeam, & Zanoah,

57 Kain, Gibeah, & Timnah: ten cities with their villages.

58 Halhul, Beth-zur, and Geday,

59 And Gadarah, and Beth-anath, and Etchen: five cities with their villages.

60 Kiriaz-baal, which is Kiriazhe-rim, and Raddah: two cities with their villages.

61 In the wilderness were Beth-arabah, Edoth, and Bezerah, 62 And Gibbar, & the Citie of salt, and En-gedi: five cities with their villages.

63 Fewer theselt, the Jebusites that were the inhabitants of Jerusalem, could not the children of Judah cast out, but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Judah at Jerusalem unto this day.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The lot or part of Ephraim. 10 The Canaanites dwell among them.

AND the lot fell to the children of Joseph from Jordan by Jericho unto the water of Jericho Eastward, and to the wilderness that goeth by from Jericho by the mount Beth-el:

2 And goeth out from Beth-el to Luz, and runneth along unto the borders of Achitathoth,

3 And goeth downe Westward to the coast of Naphtali, unto the coast of Beth-horon the nether, and to Gezer: and the ends thereof are at the Sea.

4 So the children of Joseph, Manasseh, and Ephraim, took their inheritance.

5 All the borders of the children of Ephraim according to their families, even the borders of their inheritance on the East-side, were Atroth-addar, unto Beth-horon the upper.

6 And this border goeth out to the Sea unto Michmethah on the North-side, & this border returneth Eastward unto Eanath-hilloh, and passeth it on the East side unto Janohah,

7 And goeth downe from Janohah to Atroth, and Maarath, and cometh to Jericho, and goeth out at Jordan,

8 And this border goeth from Tappuah Westward unto the river Kanah, and the ends thereof are at the Sea: this is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim by their families.

9 And the separate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh: all the cities with their villages.

that dwell in Seir, but the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites unto this day, and stand under tribute.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The portion of the half tribe of Manasseh. 2 The daughters of Zelophehad. 3 The Canaanites are become tributaries. 4 Manasseh and Ephraim require a greater portion of heritage.

This was also the lot of the tribe of Manasseh: for he was the first borne of Joseph to wit, of Joseph the first borne of Manasseh, and the father of Gilead: now because he was a man of warre, he had Gilead and Bashan.

2 And also of the rest of the sonnes of Manasseh by their families, even of the sonnes of Abiezer, and of the sonnes of Peleth, and of the sonnes of Azziel, and of the sonnes of Shechem, and of the sonnes of Isephar, and of the sonnes of Sheumida: these were the males of Manasseh, the sonne of Joseph according to their families.

3 But Zelophehad the sonne of Heber the sonne of Gilead, the sonne of Joseph, the sonne of Manasseh, had no sonnes but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Shalah, and Noah, Hoglah, and Melchah, and Tirzah.

4 Which came before Eleazar the Priest, and before Joshua the sonne of Nun, and before the Princes, saying, The Lord commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren: therefore according to the commandement of the Lord, he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

5 And there fell ten portions to Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead & Bashan, which is on the other side of Jordan.

6 Because the daughters of Manasseh did inherit among his sonnes: and Manasseh's other sonnes had the land of Gilead.

7 So the borders of Manasseh were from Asher to Michmish that lieth before Shechem, and this border goeth on the right hande, euen unto the inhabitants of En Tappuah.

8 The lande of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah beside the border of Manasseh belongeth to the sonnes of Ephraim.

9 Altho this border goeth downe unto the River Kanah Southward to the river: these cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh: and the border of Manasseh is on the Southside of the river, and the endes of it are at the Sea.

10 The South pertaineth to Ephraim, and the North to Manasseh, and the Sea is his border; and they met together in Asher Southward, and in Issachar Eastward.

11 And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher, Berthean, and her townes, and Ibleam, and her townes, and the inhabitants of Doi with the townes thereof, and the inhabitants of En Doi with the townes thereof, and the inhabitants of Chanaan with her townes, and the inhabitants of Beersheba with the townes of the same, euen three countreys.

12 Yet the children of Manasseh could not destroy those cities, but the Canaanites dwelled still in that land.

13 Nevertheless, when the children of Israel were strong, they put the Canaanites under tribute, but cast them not out wholly.

14 Then the children of Joseph spake unto Joshua, saying, Why hast thou given me but one lot, and one portion to inherit, seeing I am a great people, for as much as the Lord hath blessed me hitherto?

15 Joshua then answered them, If thou be much people, get thee up to the wood, and cut trees for thy selfe there in the lande of the Perizzites, and of the Gittites, if mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee.

16 Then the children of Joseph said, The mountaine will not be enough for us, and all the Canaanites that dwell in the low countrey haue charrets of yron, as well they in Beeth-bean, and in the townes of the Canaanites, as they in the valley of Jezreel.

17 And Joshua spake unto the house of Joseph, to Ephraim, & to Manasseh, saying, Ye are a great people, and haue great power, and shall not haue one lot.

18 Therefore the mountaine shall be thine: for it is a wood, and thou shalt cut it down: and the endes of it shall be thine. And thou shalt call out the Canaanites, though they haue yron charrets, & though they be strong.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The Tabernacle set in Shiloh. 2 Certaine are sent to divide the lande to the other seven tribes.

3 The lot of the children of Benjamin.

4 The whole Congregation of the children of Israel came together at Shiloh: for they set up the Tabernacle of the Congregation there, after the land was subject unto them.

5 Now there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes, to whom they had not divided their inheritance.

6 Therefore Joshua says unto the children of Israel, How long are ye so slacke to enter and possesse the land which the Lord God of your fathers hath given you?

7 Give from among you six euey tribe three men, that I may send them, and that they may rise, and walke through the land, and distribute it according to their inheritance, and returne to me.

8 And that they may divide it unto them into seven parts: (Judah shall abide in his coast at the South, and the house of Joseph shall stand in their coasts at the North.)

9 He shall describe the land therefore into seven partes, and shall bring them hither to me, and I will cast lots for you here before the Lord our God.

10 But the Levites shall haue no part among you: for the Priesthood of the Lord is their inheritance: also Gad and Reuben and half the tribe of Manasseh haue receiued their inheritance beyond Jordan Eastward, which Moses the seruant of the Lord gaue them.

11 Then the men arose, and went their way: and Joshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Depart; and you through the land, and I describe it, and returne to mee, that I may beere cast lots for you before the Lord in Beth-el.

9 So the men departed, & passed through the land, and returned in by certain wayes seven parts in a booke, and returned to Joshua into the campe at Shiloh.

10 Then Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the Lord, and there Joshua divided the land unto the children of Israel, according to their portions.

11 And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came forth according to their families, and the coast of their lot lay betweene the children of Judah, and the children of Joseph.

12 And their coast on the Northside was from Jordan, and the border went up to the line of Jericho on the North part, and went up through the mountains westward, and the endes thereof are in the wilderness of Beth-ueni.

13 And this border goeth along from thence to Luz, even to the Southside of Luz (the same is Beth-el) and this border descendeth to Atorah-addar, neere the mount, that lieth on the South side of Beth-honon the nether.

14 So the border turneth, and compasseth the corner of the sea Southward, from the mount that lieth before Beth-honon Southward: and the endes thereof are at Kiriat-baal (which is Kiriat-earim) a citie of the children of Judah: this is the West quarter.

15 And the Southquarter is from the end of Kiriat-earim, and this border goeth out to Elestward, and cometh to the fountain of the waters of Jericho.

16 And the border descendeth at the end of the mountaine, that lieth before the valley of Ben-hinnom, which is in the valley of the Giants Southward, and descendeth into the valley of Jemmon by the side of Jebus Southward, and goeth downe to En-rogel.

17 And compasseth from the North, and goeth south to En-nemeth, and stretcheth to Gethioth, which is toward the going by into Adummim, and goeth downe to the Stone of Boanah the home of Heuben.

18 So it goeth along to the side over against the plaine Southward, and goeth down into the plaine.

19 After, this border goeth along to the side of Beth-hoglah Southward: and the endes thereof, that is, of the border, reach to the point of the salt Sea Southward, and to the end of Jordan Southward, this is the South coast.

20 Also Jordan is the border of it on the East side: this is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin by the coast thereof from above according to their families.

21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families, are Jericho, and Beth-hoglah, and the valley of Keiz.

22 And Beth-arabah, & Jemmanim, and Beth-el.

23 And Atim, and Parah, and Ophrah,

24 And Ophrah, Immanuel, and Ophni, and Gabar: these cities with their villages.

25 Gibeon, and Ramah, and Berach,

26 And Gibeon, & Bethphage, & Beth,

27 And Bethan, and Belet, and Tamarah,

28 And Zelah, Eleph, and Bethul, (which is Jerusalem) Gibeon, and Kiriat: fourteen cities with their villages: this is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families.

29 The portion of Simeon, 10 Of Zebulun, 17 Of Issachar, 24 Of Asher, 32 Of Naphtali, 40 Of Dan, 49 The 10 Tribes of Israel.

And the second lot came out to Simeon, and for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families: and their inheritance was in the midst of the inheritance of the children of Judah.

2 Some they had in their inheritance, Berithaba, and Becha, and Belahab,

3 And Hazer-shual, & Balah, and Azim,

4 And Etioles, and Bethul, and Bethmah,

5 And Shilag, and Beth-mareboth, and Hazer-shual,

6 And Beth-lehach, and Shaphan: thirteen cities with their villages.

7 Also Remmon, and Ether, and Azim: three cities with their villages.

8 And all the villages that were round about these cities, unto Baalathbeer, and Ramah Southward: this is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families.

9 One of the portion of the children of Judah came the inheritance of the children of Simeon: for the part of the children of Judah was too much for them: therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance within their inheritance.

10 Also the third lot arose for the children of Zebulun according to their families: and the coastes of their inheritance came to Saris, 11 And their border goeth by Elestward, turne to Hazerah, and stretcheth to Dabbath, and meeteth with the river that lieth before Joknean.

12 And turneth from Saris Eastward toward the sunne rising unto the border of Chisloth-rabai, and goeth out to Daberah, and ascendeth to Iaphia, 13 And from thence goeth along Eastward toward the sunne rising to Githaypher, to Ittah-kazin, and goeth South to Remmon, and turneth to Nech.

14 And this border compasseth it on the North side to Hannathon, & the ends thereof are in the valley of Jezrah-el.

15 And Kattah, and Babilath, & Shimon, and Balah, and Beth-eben: twelve cities with their villages.

16 This is the inheritance of the children of Zebulun according to their families: that is, these cities and their villages.

17 The fourth lot came out to Issachar, even for the children of Issachar according to their families.

18 And their coast was Jezreel, & Chesulloch, n Which was not wholly in the tribe of Benjamin, but part of it was also in the tribe of Judah.

a According to Isaahs prophesie, that he should be scattered among the other tribes, Gen. 49-7.

Galat.

And out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in the land of the tribe of Dan.

These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger, that sojourned among them, that whosoever killed any person ignorantly, might flee thither, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stood before the Congregation.

CHAPTER XXI.

The cities given to the Levites, 48 in number eight and forty. 44 The Lord according to his promise gave the children of Israel rest.

Then came the principall fathers of the Levites unto Eleazar the Priest, and unto Joshua the sonne of Nun, and unto the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel.

And spake unto them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, The Lord commanded by the hand of Moses, to give us cities to dwell in, with the suburbs thereof for our cattell.

So the children of Israel gave unto the Levites, out of their inheritance as the commandment of the Lord, these cities with their suburbs.

And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites: and the children of Aaron the Priest, which were of the Levites, had by lot, out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin: thirtene cities.

And the rest of the children of Kohath, had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the halfe tribe of Manasse, tenne cities.

Also the children of Gerson had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the halfe tribe of Manasse in Bashan thirtene cities.

The children of Merari according to their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Simeon, twelue cities.

So the children of Israel gave by lot unto the Levites these cities with their suburbs, as the Lord had commanded by the hand of Moses.

And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, their cities which are here named.

And they were the childrens of Aaron being of the families of the Kohathites, and of the sonnes of Levi, (for thies was the first lot.)

So they gave them Kirjath-arba in the land of Judah, which is Beeroth in the mountain of Judah, with the suburbs of the same round about it.

Also the land of the city, and the villages thereof, gave they to Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh to be his possession.

Also they gave him in the land of Issachar, the city of Timnathah, with her suburbs, and in the land of Naphtali, the city of Kedesh, with her suburbs.

And in the land of Gad, the city of Ramoth-gad, with her suburbs, and

And Asher with her suburbs, and Tirsah with her suburbs, Beth-shean with her suburbs: nine cities out of those two tribes.

All the cities of the children of Aaron Priests, were thirtene cities with their suburbs.

But to the families of the children of Kohath of the Levites, which were the rest of the children of Kohath (for the cities of their lot were out of the tribe of Ephraim)

They gave them the city of refuge for the slayer, Shechem with her suburbs in mount Ephraim, and Gezer with her suburbs.

And out of the halfe tribe of Manasse, Canaan with her suburbs, and Gath-rimon with her suburbs: two cities.

All the cities for the other families of the children of Kohath were twene with their suburbs.

Also unto the children of Gerson of the families of the Levites, they gave out of the halfe tribe of Manasse, the city of refuge for the slayer, Golan in Bashan with her suburbs, and Becherah with her suburbs: two cities.

And out of the tribe of Issachar, Rimoth with her suburbs, Dabesh with her suburbs.

And out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh with her suburbs, and Ramoth with her suburbs: foure cities.

And out of the tribe of Simeon, the city of refuge for the slayer, Beeroth in Gath with her suburbs, and Ramoth with her suburbs: three cities.

All the cities of the Gersonites according to their families, were thirtene cities with their suburbs.

Also unto the families of the children of Merari the rest of the Levites, they gave out of the tribe of Simeon, Timnathah with her suburbs, and Karath with her suburbs.

Also in the land of Simeon, Beeroth with her suburbs: foure cities.

And out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer with her suburbs, and Jahaz with her suburbs.

And out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth-gad with her suburbs, and Getheron with her suburbs: foure cities.

And out of the tribe of Gad they gave l They are here called the rest, because they are left numbered, and Merari was the youngest brother, Gen. 46.11. m Bezer and Ramoth were the cities of refuge under the Merarites and beyond Jordan, Chap. 20.8.

Reuben and Gad sent to their possessions. Joshua. They are reprov'd for building for a city of refuge for the slayer, Ramoth in Gilead with her suburbs, and Mahanaim with her suburbs,

39. Hebron with her suburbs, and Jazer with her suburbs: four cities in all.

40. So at the cities of the children of Ephraim, according to their families (which were the rest of the families of the Levites) were by their lot twelve cities.

41. And all the cities of the Levites which were in the possession of the children of Israel, were eight and forty with their suburbs.

42. These cities lay every one severally with their suburbs round about them: so were all these cities.

43. And so the Lord gave unto Israel all the land, which he had sworn to give unto their fathers: and they possessed it, & dwelt therein.

44. Also the Lord gave them rest round about, according to all that he had sworn unto their fathers: and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them: for the Lord delivered all their enemies into their hand.

45. There failed nothing of all the good things which the Lord had said unto the house of Israel, but all came to pass.

CHAPTER XXII.

1. Reuben, Gad, and the half tribe of Manasse are sent again to their possessions. 10. They build an altar for a memorial. 15. The Israelites reprove them. 21. Their answer for defence of the same.

Then Joshua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasse,

2. And said unto them, Ye have kept all that Moses the servant of the Lord commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you:

3. Ye have not forsaken your brethren this long season unto this day, but have diligently kept the commandment of the Lord your God:

4. And now the Lord hath given rest unto your brethren as he promised them: therefore now return ye and goe to your tents to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the Lord hath given you beyond Jordan.

5. But take diligent heed to do the commandment and Law which Moses the servant of the Lord commanded you: that ye love the Lord your God, and walk in all his wayes, and keep his Commandments, and cleave unto him, and serve him with all your heart, and with all your soul.

6. So Joshua blessed them, & sent them away, and they went unto their tents.

7. And upon one half of the tribe of Manasse Moses had given a possession in Bashan: and unto the other half thereof gave Joshua among their brethren on this side Jordan according to their lot: when Joshua sent them away unto their tents, and blessed them.

8. Thus he spake unto them, saying, Return with much riches unto your tents, and with a great multitude of cattle, with silver and with gold, with beasts and with men, and with great abundance of rayment: beside the words of your enemies with you.

9. And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasse returned, and departed from the children of Israel from Shiloh (which is in the land of Canaan) to goe into the country of Gilead to the land of their possession, which they had obtained, according to the word of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

10. And when they came unto the borders of Jordan (which are in the land of Canaan) then the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasse, built there an altar by Jordan, a great altar to lay to.

11. And when the children of Israel heard say, Behold, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasse, have built an altar in the forefront of the land of Canaan upon the borders of Jordan at the passage of the children of Israel:

12. When the children of Israel heard it, then the whole Congregation of the children of Israel gathered them together at Shiloh to go up to a warfare against them.

13. Then the children of Israel sent unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasse, into the land of Gadad, Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar the Priest.

14. And with him trane princes, of every chief house a prince, according to all the tribes of Israel: for every one was chief of their fathers households among the thousands of Israel.

15. And so they went unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasse, unto the land of Gilead, and spake unto them, saying,

16. Thus saith the whole Congregation of the Lord, What transgression is this that ye have transgressed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from the Lord, in that ye have builded you an altar for to rebel this day against the Lord?

17. Have we too little for the wickedness of Peor, wherof we are not cleansed yet in this day, though a plague came upon the Congregation of the Lord?

18. Ye also are turned away this day from the Lord: and seeing ye rebel to day against the Lord, turn to morrow he will be wroth with all the Congregation of Israel.

19. ## The booke of Iudges.

THE ARGUMENT.

Albeit there is nothing that more prouoketh Gods wrath, then mans ingratitude, yet is there nothing to displeasure him so much, as that he turne backe Gods loue from his Church. For now when the Israelites were carried into the land of Canaan, and sawe the truth of Gods promise performed, in field of acknowledging his great benefits, and giuing thanks for the same, they fell to most horrible oblation of Gods graces, contrary to their solemn promise made vnto Joshua, and so prouoked his vengeance (as much as in them stood) to their utter destruction. Whereof as they had most euident signs by the manifestie of their state: (for he suffered them to bee most cruelly vexed and tormented by tyrants: he pulled them from libertie, and cast them into slavery, so the intensity might seele their owne miseries, and to call vnto him and be deliuered,) so they that his mercies were for euer, he raised vp foemen to time such as should deliuer them, and when they of his mercies and grace, if they would turne to him by true repentance, And these deliuerers the Scripture calleth Iudges, because they were executors of Gods iudgements, not chosen of the people, nor by succession, but raised vp as it seemed best to God for the gouernance of his people. They were fourteene in number besides Joshua, and gouerned from Joshua vnto Saul, the first King of Israel, Iotha and these vnto the time of Saul, ruled 777. yeeres. In this booke there many notable points are set forth, but two especially first, the one is that the Church of God hath her maintenance of her religion against idolatry, and superstition, which are great dangers that common wealth is in, when as God giueth not a Magistrate to rectifie his people in the practice of religion, and by true faith.

1 After Joshua was dead, Judah was constituted captaine. 6 Adoni-bezek is taken. 24 The request of Achish. 16 The children of Reuben. 28 The Canaanites are made tributaries. 35 Samson is destroyed.

2 After that Joshua was dead, the children of Israel asked the Lord, saying, Whom shall we set before us against the Canaanites, to fight first against them?

3 And the Lord sayde, Iudah shall goe by: beholde, I haue giuen the land into his hand.

4 And Iudah sayde vnto Simeon his brother, Come up with mee into my lot, that wee may fight against the Canaanites: and I likewise will goe with thee into thy lot: so Simeon went with him.

5 Then Iudah went vp, and the Lord deliuered the Canaanites in the hands of Iudah, and they slew of them in Bezek ten thousand men.

6 And they found Adoni-bezek in Bezek: and they fought against him, and slew the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

7 But Adoni-bezek fled, and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off the thumbs of his hands, and of his feet.

8 And Adoni-bezek said, Seventy kings had the thumbs of their hands, and of their feet cut off, gathered bread vnder my table: as I haue done, so shall they reward me: so they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

9 (Now the children of Iudah had fought against Jerusalem, and had taken it, and smitten it with the edge of the sword, and had set the city on fire.)

10 And afterward also the children of Iudah went downe to fight against the Canaanites that dwelt in the mountaine, and in the South, and in the lowe country.

11 And Iudah went against the Canaanites, that dwelt in Bethim, which was their strong hold: and they slew it, and they slew Shephai, and Athai, and Gathai.

12 And from thence he went to the inhabitants of Debir, and the name of Debir in old times was Kirjath-sepher.

13 And Caleb sayde, he that smiteth Kirjath-sepher, and taketh it, euen to him will I giue Achish my daughter to wife.

14 And Othniel the sonne of Kenaz, Calebs younger brother, tooke it: to whom hee gaue Achish his daughter to wife.

15 And when he came to him, he mounted him to aske of her father a field: and shee lighted off her ass, and Caleb said vnto her, What wilt thou?

g Reade Ios. 15. 18.

12 And forsooke the Lord God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, even the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed unto them, and provoked the Lord to anger.

13 So they forsooke the Lord, and served Baal and Ashtaroth.

14 And the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and hee delivered them into the hands of Idozers, and spoiled them, and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about them, so that they could no longer stand before their enemies.

15 Wherefore they went out, the hand of the Lord was sore against them, as the Lord had said, & as the Lord had sworn to say: so he punished them sore.

16 Therefore standing, the Lord rayled by Judges, which delivered them out of the hands of their oppressors.

17 But yet they would not obey their Judges: for they went a whoring after other gods, & worshipped them, and turned quickly out of the way, wherein their fathers walked, obeying the commandments of the Lord: they did not so.

18 And when the Lord had raised them by Judges, the Lord was with the Judge, and delivered them out of the hands of their enemies all the dayes of the Judges, (for the Lord had compassion of their groanings, because of them that oppressed them and tormented them)

19 Yet when the Judge was dead, they returned, and did worse then their fathers, in following other gods, to serve them and worshipped them: they ceased not from their owne iniquities, nor from their rebellious way.

20 Therefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and hee said, Because this people hath transgressed my covenant, which I commanded their fathers, and hath not obeyed my voice.

21 Therefore will I no more cast out before them any of the nations, which Joshua left when he died.

22 That though they I may procure Israel, whether they will keepe the way of the Lord, to walke therein, as their fathers kept it, or not.

23 So the Lord left those nations, and drove them not out immediately, neither delivered them into the hands of Joshua.

CHAP. III.

1 The Canaanites were left to trie Israel 9 Othniel delivered Israel. 21 Ehud killeth king Eglon. 31 Shamgar killeth the Philistines.

These now are the nations which the Lord left, that hee might procure Israel by them (even as many of Israel as had not known all the warres of Canaan.

2 Onely to make the generations of the children of Israel to know, and to teach them warre, which doubtlesse their predecessors knew not)

3 Five princes of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Edonians, and the Hittites that dwelt in mount Lebanon, from mount Baal-hermon untill one come to Hamath.

4 And these remained to plague Israel by them, to wit, whether they would obey the commandments of the Lord, which hee commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

5 And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

6 And they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sonnes, and served their gods.

7 So the children of Israel did wickedly in the sight of the Lord, and forgate the Lord their God, and served Baalim, and Ashtaroth.

8 Therefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and hee sold them into the hands of Chushan-rishathaim King of Aram-naharaim, and the children of Israel served Chushan-rishathaim eight yeres.

9 And when the children of Israel cried unto the Lord, the Lord stirred up a saviour to the children of Israel, and hee saved them, even Othniel the sonne of Kenaz, Gileads younger brother.

10 And the spirit of the Lord came upon him, and hee judged Israel, and hee went out to warre: and the Lord delivered Chushan-rishathaim King of Aram into his hand, and his hand prevailed against Chushan-rishathaim.

11 So the land had rest fourtie yeres, and Othniel the sonne of Kenaz died.

12 Then the children of Israel againe committed wickednesse in the sight of the Lord: and the Lord & strenghtened Eglon King of Moab against Israel, because they had committed wickednesse before the Lord.

13 And hee gathered unto him the children of Ammon, and Amalek, and went and smote Israel, and they possessed the cite of palme trees.

14 So the children of Israel served Eglon King of Moab eightene yeres.

15 But when the children of Israel cried unto the Lord, the Lord stirred them up a saviour, Ehud the sonne of Gera, the sonne of Jemini, a man layne of his right hand: and the children of Israel sent a present by him unto Eglon King of Moab.

16 And Ehud made him a dagger with two edges, of a cubit length, and hee did steele it under his raiment upon his right thigh.

17 And hee presented the gift unto Eglon King of Moab (and Eglon was a very fat man)

18 And when hee had now presented the present, hee sent away the people that bare the present,

19 But he turned againe from the quarters, that were by Gilgal, and said, I have a secret errand unto thee, O King. And hee kept silence: and all that stood about him, went out from him.

20 Then Ehud came unto him, (and hee sat alone in a Summer parter, which hee had) and Ehud said, I have a message unto

21 And Ehud put forth his left hand, andooke the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly, 22 So that the haft went in after the blade, and the fat closed about the blade, so that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly, but the blood came out.

23 Then Ehud gaue him out into the porch, and shut the doores of the parlour vpon him, and locked them.

24 And when hee was gone out, his seruants came: who seeing that the doores of the parlour were locked, they said, Surely hee doeth his easement in his Summer chamber.

25 And they taried till they were ashamed: and seeing he opened not the doores of the parlour, theyooke the key, and opened them, and behold, their lord was fallen dead on the earth.

26 So Ehud escaped, while they taried, and was thrust the quarries, and escaped vnto Bethra.

27 And when he came home, hee blew a trumpet in mount Ephraim, and the children of Israel went downe with him from the mountaine, and he went before them.

28 Then said hee vnto them, Follow me: for the Lord hath deliuered your enemies, even Moab into your hand. So they went downe after him, andooke the passages of Iordan toward Moab, and suffered not a man to passe oner.

29 And they slew of the Moabites the same time about ten thousand men, all I fed men, and all were warriors, and there escaped not a man.

30 So Moab was subdued that day vnder the hand of Israel: and the land had rest fourescore yeeres.

31 And after him was Shamgar the sonne of Anath, which slew of the Philistines six hundred men with an oxe goad, and he also deliuered Israel.

CHAP. II.

1 Israel sinned, and are giuen into the hands of Iabin. 4 Deborah iudgeth Israel, and exhorteth Barak to deliuer the people. 15 Sisera fleeth, 17 and is killed by Iael.

And the children of Israel began againe to doe wickedly in the sight of the Lord, when Ehud was dead.

2 And the Lord tooke them into the hand of Iabin king of Canaan, that reigned in Hazor, whose chiefe captaine was called Sisera, which dwelt in the house of the Gentiles.

3 Then the children of Israel cried vnto the Lord: (for hee had nine hundred charrets of yron, and thentie yeeres he had vexed the children of Israel very sore.)

4 And at that time Deborah a prophetesse the wife of Lapidoth iudgeth Israel.

5 And this Deborah dwelt vnder a palme tree, betwene Ramah & Beth-el in mount Ephraim, and the children of Israel came vnto her for iudgement.

6 Then shee sent and called Barak the sonne of Abinoam out of Kedesh of Naphtali.

And said vnto him, Hath not the Lord God of Israel commanded, saying, So and so, toward mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali, and of the children of Zebulun?

7 And I will draw vnto thee to the I Kithon Sisera, the captaine of Iabins armie with his charrets, and his multitude, and will deliuer him into thine hand.

8 And Barak said vnto her, If thou wilt go with me, I will goe: but if thou wilt not goe with me, I will not goe.

9 Then shee answered, I will surely goe with thee, but this iourney that thou takest, shall not bee for thine honour: for the Lord shall sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose and went with Barak to Kedesh.

10 And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh, and he went vp on his feete with ten thousand men, and Deborah went vp with him.

11 Now Heber the Kenite, which was of the children of Hobab the father in law of Moses, was departed from the Kenites, and pitched his tent vntill the plaine of Zaanan, which is by Kedesh.

12 Then they shewed Sisera, that Barak the sonne of Abinoam was gone vp to mount Tabor.

13 And Sisera called for all his charrets, even nine hundred charrets of yron, and all the people were with him from Harosheth of the Gentiles, vnto the river Kithon.

14 Then Deborah said vnto Barak, Arise: for this is the day that the Lord hath deliuered Sisera into thine hand. Is not the Lord gone out before thee: so Barak went downe from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him.

15 And the Lord destroyed Sisera and all his charrets, and all his hoste with the edge of the sword before Barak, so that Sisera lighted downe off his charret, and fled away on his feete.

16 But Barak pursued after the charrets, and after the hoste vnto Harosheth of the Gentiles: and all the hoste of Sisera fell vpon the edge of the sword: there was not a man left.

17 When Sisera fled away on his feete to the tent of Iael the wife of Heber the Kenite: (for peace was betwene Iabin the king of Hazor, and betwene the house of Heber the Kenite)

18 And Iael went out to meete Sisera, and said vnto him, Turne in, my lord, turne in to me: feare not. And when he had turned in vnto her into her tent, shee couered him with a mantle.

19 And he said vnto her, Giue me, I pray thee, a little water to drinke: for I am thirsty. And she opened a bottle of milke, and gaue him drinke, and couered him.

20 Again, hee said vnto her, Stand in the doore of the tent, & when any man doeth come and enquire of thee, saying, Is any man here? thou shalt say, Nay.

21 Then Iael rebuers wife took a mallet of the tent, andooke an hammer in her hand, and went softly vnto him, and smote the

CHAP. V.

1 The song and thanksgiving of Deborah and Barak, after the victory.

Then sang Deborah, and Barak, the sonne of Abinon the same day, saying,

2 Praise ye the Lord for the avenging of Israel, and for the people that offered themselves willingly.

3 Heare ye kings, hearken ye princes: I even I will sing unto the Lord: I will sing psalme unto the Lord God of Israel.

4 Lord, when thou wentest out of Seir, when thou departedst out of the field of Edom, the earth trembled, and the heavens rained, the cloudes also dropped water.

5 The mountaines melted before the Lord, as did that Sinai before the Lord God of Israel.

6 In the dayes of Shamgar the sonne of Anath, in the dayes of Jael the high wayes were unoccupied, and the travellers walked through bywayes.

7 The towne were not inhabited: they decayed, I say, in Israel, untill I Deborah came up, which role up a mother in Israel.

8 They chose new gods: then was warre in the gates. Alas there a shield or spear seeme among foure thousand of Israel.

9 Spine heart is set on the gouernours of Israel, and on them that are willing among the people: maye ye the Lord.

10 Speake ye that ride on white asses, ye that dwell by Siddin, and that walke by the way.

11 For the noise of the archers appeied among the drawres of water: there shall they rehearse the righteousness of the Lord, his righteousness of his towne in Israel: then did the people of the Lord go downe to the gates.

12 Up Deborah, by, arise, & sing a song: arise Barak, and lead: thy captiuitie captiue, thou sonne of Abinon.

13 For they that remaine, haue domination ouer the mightie of the people: the Lord hath giuen mee dominion ouer the strong.

14 Of Ephraim their root arose against Amalek: and after thee, Ben-iamin shall fight against the people, O Amalek: of Gad came rulers, & of Zabulon they that handled the pen of the writer.

15 And the Princes of Issachar were with Deborah, and Issachar, and also Barak: he was set on his feet in the halley: for the diuisions of Reuben were great thoughts of heart.

16 Altho abode then among the shep-folds, to heare the blearing of the flockes: for the diuisions of Reuben were great thoughts of heart.

17 Gilead abode beyond Jordan: and why dorh Dan remaine in ships: Aher late on the sea shore, and taried in his decayed places.

18 But the people of Zabulon and Naphtali haue leoparded their liues into the death in the hie places of the field.

19 The kings came and fought: then fought the kings of Canaan in Canaan by the water of Megiddo: they receiued no gaine of money.

20 They fought from heauen, even the stars in their courses fought against Sisera.

21 The riuier Kishon swept them away, that ancient riuier the riuier Kishon. O my soule, thou hast marched valiantly.

22 Then were the horse bootes broken with the oft beating together of their mightie men.

23 Curse ye Meroz: (sayd the Angel of the Lord) curse the inhabitants thereof, because they came not to helpe the Lord, to helpe the Lord against the mightie.

24 Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite shall be blessed above other women: blessed shall she be above women dwelling in tents.

25 She asked water, & she gaue him milke: she brought forth a butter in a lordly dish.

26 She put her hand to the nalle, and her right hand to the workmans hammer: with the hammer smote the Sisera: she smote off his head, after he had wounded and pierced his temples.

27 He boten him downe at her feete, he fell downe, & lay still: at her feete he boten him downe, and fell: and when he had smite downe, he lay there dead.

28 The mother of Sisera looked out at a window, and cryed thow art the latteste, why is his charret so long a coming: why tary the wheeles of his charets?

29 Her wise Ladies answered her: Yea, shee answered her selfe with her owne words.

30 Want they not gotten, and they diuide the spoyle: euery man hath a maid or two. Sisera hath a pray of diuers coloured garments, a praye of lunny colours made of needie worke: of diuers colours of needie worke on both sides, for the cheefe of the spoyle.

31 So let all thine enemies perish, O Lord: but they that loue him, shall be as the sunne when he riseth in his might. And the land had rest foure yeeres.

against Israel, * and because of the Midianites the children of Israel made them dens in the mountains, and came, and strong holdes.

3 When Israel had sown, then came vp the Midianites, the Amalekites, and they of the East, and came vpon them,

4 And camped by them, and destroyed the fruit of the earth, euen till thou come vnto Azrah, and left no food for Israel, neither sheepe, nor ore, nor ass.

5 For they went vp, and their cattel, and came with their tents as grasshoppers in multitude: so that they and their camels were without number: and they came into the land to destroy it.

6 So was Israel exceedingly impouersished by the Midianites: therefore the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lord.

7 And when the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lord because of the Midianites,

8 The Lord sent vnto the children of Israel a Prophet, who said vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I haue brought you vp from Egypt, and haue brought you out of the house of bondage,

9 And I haue delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and haue cast them out before you, and giuen you their land.

10 And I said vnto you, I am the Lord your God: feare not the gods of the Amorites in whose land you dwell: but you haue not obeyed my voyce.

11 And the Angel of the Lord came, & sat vnder the oke which was in Ophrah, that pertained vnto Joash the father of the Gertes, and his sonne Gideon threshed wheate by the winnepsell, to hide it from the Midianites.

12 Then the Angel of the Lord appeared vnto him, and said vnto him, The Lord is with thee, thou valiant man.

13 To whom Gideon answered, * Ah my Lord, if the Lord be with vs, why then is all this come vpon vs? and where be all his miracles which our fathers tolde vs of, and sayde, Did not the Lord bring vs out of Egypt: but now the Lord hath forsaken vs, and deliuered vs into the hande of the Midianites.

14 And the Lord looked vpon him, and sayd, See in this thy might, and thou shalt saue Israel out of the handes of the Midianites: haue I not sent thee?

15 And he answered him, Ah my Lord, whereby shall I saue Israel? beholde, my father is poore in Samsech, and I am the least in my fathers house.

16 Then the Lord sayd vnto him, I will therefore be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites, as one man.

17 And he answered him, I pray thee, if I haue found fauour in thy sight, then shew me a signe, that thou talkest with me.

18 Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come vnto thee, and bring mine offering, and lay it before thee. And he sayd, I will tarie until thou come againe.

19 Then Gideon went in, and made crable a kiln, and unleaueued bread of an Ephah of flour, and put the flesh in a basket, and put the broth in a pot, and brought it out vnto him vnder the ore, and burnt it.

20 And the Angel of God said vnto him, Take the flesh & the unleaueued bread, and lay them vpon the stone, and poure out the broth: and he did so.

21 And when the Angel of the Lord put forth the end of the staffe that hee held in his hande, and touched the flesh and the unleaueued bread: and there arose by fire out of the stone, and consumed the flesh and the unleaueued bread: so the Angel of the Lord departed out of his sight.

22 And when Gideon perceived that it was an Angel of the Lord, Gideon then sayde, Alas, my Lord God: for because I haue seene an Angel of the Lord face to face, I shall die.

23 And the Lord said vnto him, Peace be vnto thee: feare not, thou shalt not die.

24 Then Gideon made an altar there vnto the Lord, and called it, Jehouah shalom: vnto this day it is in Ophrah, of the father of the Gertes.

25 And the same night the Lord sayd vnto him, Take thy fathers yong bullocke, and another bullocke of seuen yeeres olde, and destroy the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut downe the groue that is by it,

26 And build an altar vnto the Lord thy God vpon the top of this rocke, in a plaine place: and take the second bullocke, and offer a burnt offering with the wood of the groue, which thou shalt cut downe.

27 Then Gideon tooke tenne men of his seruants, and did as the Lord haue him: but because he feared to doe it by day for his fathers household, and the men of the citie, he did it by night.

28 And when the men of the citie arose early in the morning, beholde, the altar of Baal was broken, and the groue cut downe that was by it, and the second bullocke offered vpon the altar that was made.

29 Therefore they layde one to another, What hath done this thing? and when they inquired and asked, they sayd, * Oweene the sonne of Joash hath done this thing.

30 Then the men of the citie layde vnto Joash, Being out thy sonne, that hee may die: for he hath destroyed the altar of Baal, and hath also cut downe the groue that was by it.

31 And Joash said vnto all that stood by him, Will ye plead Baals cause? or will ye plead mine? he that will contend for him, let him die by the morning. If he be God, let him plead for himselfe against him that hath cast downe his altar.

32 And in that day was Gideon called Jerubbahal, that is, Let Baal please for himselfe, because hee hath broken downe his altar.

33 Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and they of the East, were gathered together, and went and pitched in the valley of Israel.

28. ch. 13.

35. And he sent messengers throughout all the land, which also was lounded with him, and he sent messengers unto Acher, and to Sechim, and to Shaphan, and they came up to meet him.

36. And when Acher came unto him, he said unto him, I am thy servant, as thou hast said.

37. Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the threshing place: if the dew come on the fleece only, and it be dry upon all the earth, then shall Acher say, that thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said.

38. And in the morning he set his servants on the mountain, to smite the fleece together, and having the dew out of the fleece, and filled a bough of water.

39. And in the morning he set his servants on the mountain, to smite the fleece together, and having the dew out of the fleece, and filled a bough of water.

40. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

41. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

42. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

43. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

44. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

45. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

46. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

47. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

48. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

49. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

50. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

51. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

52. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

53. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

54. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

55. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

56. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

57. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

58. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

59. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

60. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

61. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

62. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

63. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

64. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

65. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

66. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

67. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

68. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

69. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

70. And when he saw that the dew was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

7. When the Lord gave unto Gideon, by these three hundred men that lapped, will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into thine hand: and let all the other people go every man unto his place.

8. So the people took radishes & with them, and their trumpets, and he sent all the rest of Israel, every man unto his tent, and retained for these hundred men: and the host of Midian was beneath him in a valley.

9. And the same night the Lord said unto him, Arise, & get thee down into the host: for I have delivered it into thine hand.

10. But if thou fear to go down, then take thou with thee thy servant, down to the host.

11. And thou shalt hearken unto what they say, and so shall thine hand be strong to go down into the host. Then went he down, and Gideon his servant unto the outside of the souldiers that were in the host.

12. And the Midianites, and the Amalekites, and all they of the East, lay in the valley like grasshoppers in multitude, and their camels were without number, as the sand which is by the sea side for multitude.

13. And when Gideon was come, behold, a man told a dream unto his neighbour, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and lo, a cake of barley bread tumbled from a bough into the host of Midian, and came unto a troop, and smote it that it fell, and overthrew it, that the tent fell down.

14. And his fellow answered, said, This is nothing else save the word of Gideon the sonne of Joash a man of Israel: for into his hand hath God delivered Midian and all the host.

15. And when Gideon heard the dream, he told, and the interpretation of the same, he was wakened, and returned unto the host of Israel, and said, Thy God for the Lord hath delivered into your hand the host of Midian.

16. And he divided the three hundred men into three bands, & gave every man a trumpet in his hand with empty pitchers, and lamps within the pitchers.

17. And he said unto them, Look on me, and doe likewise, when I come to the side of the host, even as I doe, so doe you.

18. And when I blow with a trumpet and all that are with me, blow ye with trumpets also on every side of the host, and say, For the Lord, and for Gideon.

19. So Gideon & the hundred men that were with him, came unto the outside of the host, in the beginning of the middle watch, and they raised up the watchmen, and they blew with their trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands.

20. And the three companies blew with trumpets and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands, to blow withall: and they cried, The sword of the Lord, and of Gideon.

21. And they stood, every man in his place round about the host: and all the host leaped, and cried, and fled.

CHAP. VII.

1. The Lord commanded Gideon to send away a great part of his company. 2. The Midianites are discomfited by a wonderful sign. 3. Gideon and Zeob are slain.

1. When Jerubbaal (who is Gideon) rose up early, and all the people that were with him, and pitched beside the well of Harod, so that the host of the Midianites was on the floodside of them in the valley by the hill of Seboim.

2. And the Lord said unto Gideon, The people that are with thee, are too many for me, to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel make their name against me, and say, Gideon hath slain me.

3. Now therefore proclaim in the audience of the people, and say, Altho his time is come, yet he is not yet come, and depart early from among them. And there remained of the people which were in mount Seboim, two and threescore thousand: ten thousand remained.

4. And the Lord said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many, bring them down into the water, and I will try them for thee there: and of whom I say unto thee, This man shall go with thee, the same shall go with thee: and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This man shall not go with thee, the same shall not go.

5. So he brought down the people into the water. And the Lord said unto Gideon, As many as lap the water with their tongues, as a dogge lappeth, them put by themselves, and every one that shall bowe downe his knees to drink, put him down.

6. And the number of them that lapped by putting their hands to their mouths, were three hundred men: but all the remnant of the people kneeled downe upon their knees to drink water.

7. When the Lord gave unto Gideon, by these three hundred men that lapped, will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into thine hand: and let all the other people go every man unto his place.

8. So the people took radishes & with them, and their trumpets, and he sent all the rest of Israel, every man unto his tent, and retained for these hundred men: and the host of Midian was beneath him in a valley.

9. And the same night the Lord said unto him, Arise, & get thee down into the host: for I have delivered it into thine hand.

10. But if thou fear to go down, then take thou with thee thy servant, down to the host.

11. And thou shalt hearken unto what they say, and so shall thine hand be strong to go down into the host. Then went he down, and Gideon his servant unto the outside of the souldiers that were in the host.

12. And the Midianites, and the Amalekites, and all they of the East, lay in the valley like grasshoppers in multitude, and their camels were without number, as the sand which is by the sea side for multitude.

13. And when Gideon was come, behold, a man told a dream unto his neighbour, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and lo, a cake of barley bread tumbled from a bough into the host of Midian, and came unto a troop, and smote it that it fell, and overthrew it, that the tent fell down.

18. And when I blow with a trumpet and all that are with me, blow ye with trumpets also on every side of the host, and say, For the Lord, and for Gideon.

19. So Gideon & the hundred men that were with him, came unto the outside of the host, in the beginning of the middle watch, and they raised up the watchmen, and they blew with their trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands.

20. And the three companies blew with trumpets and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands, to blow withall: and they cried, The sword of the Lord, and of Gideon.

21. And they stood, every man in his place round about the host: and all the host leaped, and cried, and fled.

29 Then Jerubbaal the sonne of Joash went and dwelt in his own house.

30 And Edeon had seventy sonnes & begotten of his body: for he had many wives. 31 And his concubine that was in Shechem, bare him a sonne also, whose name he called Abimelech.

32 So Edeon the sonne of Joash died in a good age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Joash his father in Daphn, of the father of the Amozites.

33 Now when Edeon was dead, the children of Israel turned away, and went a whoring after Baalim, and made a Baal-berith their god.

34 And the children of Israel remembered not the Lord their God, which had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side.

35 Therefore, I shewed they mercede on the house of Jerubbaal, of Edeon, according to all the good which he had shewed unto Israel.

CHAP. IX.

1 Abimelech reproveth the king done, and putteth his brethren to death. 7 Iotham propoeth a parable. 23 Heard between Abimelech and the Shechemites. 24 Gaal conspireth against him, and is overcome. 33 Abimelech is wounded to death by a woman.

Then Abimelech the sonne of Jerubbaal went to Shechem unto his mother's brethren, and communed with them, and with all the familie, and house of his mothers father, saying,

2 Say, I pray you, in the audience of all the men of Shechem, whether is better for you, that all the sonnes of Jerubbaal, which are thienty persons, reigne over you, either that one reigne over you? Remember also, that I am your bone, and your flesh.

3 Then his mothers brethren spake of him in the audience of all the men of Shechem, all these words: and their hearts were moved to follow Abimelech: for they say, he is our brother.

4 And they gave him seventy pieces of silver out of the house of Baal-berith, wherewith Abimelech hired him and light fellows, which followed him.

5 And he went unto his fathers house at Daphn, and slew his brethren the sonnes of Jerubbaal, about seventy persons upon one stone: yet Joash the youngest sonne of Jerubbaal was left: for he was in the house.

6 And all the men of Shechem gathered together with all the house of Shillo, and came and made Abimelech king in the plain, where the stone was erected in Shechem.

7 And when they told it to Iotham, he went and stood in the toppe of mount Gerizim, and lift up his voice, and cryed, and said unto them, Hearken unto me, you men of Shechem, that God may hearken unto you.

8 The trees went forth to anoint a king over them, and layde unto the olive tree, Reigne thou over vs.

9 But the olive tree sayde unto them, Should I leave my earnest, wherewith by me they honour God and man, and go to advance me above the trees?

10 Then the trees sayd to the figge tree, Come thou, and be king over vs.

11 But the figge tree answered them, Should I forsake my sweetnesse, and my good fruit, and go to advance me above the trees?

12 Then sayd the trees unto the Cane, Come thou, and be king over vs.

13 But the Cane sayd unto them, Should I leave my wine, wherewith I cheer God and man, and go to advance me above the trees?

14 Then said all the trees unto the bramble, Come thou, and reigne over vs.

15 And the bramble sayd unto the trees, If ye will indeed anoint me king over you, come, and put your trust under my shadow: and if not, the fire shall come out of the bramble, and consume the cedars of Lebanon.

16 Now therefore, if ye doe truly and uncorruptly to make Abimelech king, and if ye have dealt well with Jerubbaal and with his house, and have done unto him according to the delivering of his hands,

17 For my fathers sould, for you, and adventured his life, and delivered you out of the hands of Philistim.

18 And ye are risen up against my fathers house this day, and have slaine his children about seventy persons upon one stone, and have made Abimelech the sonne of his maid-servant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother.

19 If ye then have dealt truly and purely with Jerubbaal, and with his house this day, then I rejoyce in with Abimelech, and let him rejoyce with you.

20 But if not, let a fire come out from Abimelech, and consume the men of Shechem, and the house of Shillo: also let a fire come forth from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Shillo, and consume Abimelech.

21 And Iotham ran away, and fled, and went unto Beer, and dwelt there for feare of Abimelech his brother.

22 So Abimelech reigned three years over Israel.

23 But God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech, and the men of Shechem: and the men of Shechem brake their promise to Abimelech.

24 That the cruelty toward the seventy sonnes of Jerubbaal and their blood might come and bee layde upon Abimelech their brother, which had slaine them, and upon the men of Shechem, which had ayded him to kill his brethren.

c By this parable he declareth, that those that are not ambitious, are most worthy of honour & that the ambitious will be their honour both to their owne destruction and others.

Or, shall be or brier.

f Abimelech shall destroy the nobles of Shechem, † Ebr. he cast his life farre from him.

g That he is your king, and you have sinned at it.

h Because the people consented with the king in shedding innocent blood, therefore God destroyed both the one and the other.

25 So the men of Shechem set men in wait for him in the tops of the mountains: who robbed all that passed that way by the: and it was told Abimelech.

26 Then Gaal the sonne of Eber came with his brethren, and they went to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.

27 Therefore they went out into the fields, and gathered in their grapes, and trode them, and made merry, and went into the house of their gods, and did as a feaster, and called Abimelech.

28 Then Gaal the sonne of Eber said, who is Abimelech? and who is Shechem, that we should feare him? Is hee not the sonne of Jerubbaal? and Zebul is his officer: Serue rather the men of Hamor the father of Shechem: for why should we feare him?

29 How would God this people were under mine hand: then would I put away Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.

30 And when Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the sonne of Eber, his wrath was kindled.

31 Therefore he sent messengers unto Abimelech, saying, Behold, Gaal the sonne of Eber and his brethren be come to Shechem, and behold, they haue fortified the city against thee.

32 Now therefore arise by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lie in wait in the field.

33 And rise early in the morning as soone as the sunne is up, and assault the city: and when hee and the people that is with him, shall come out against thee, do to him: what thou canst.

34 So Abimelech rose up, and all the people that were with him by night: and they lay in wait against Shechem in foure bands.

35 Then Gaal the sonne of Eber went out, and stood in the entring of the gate of the cite: And Abimelech rose up, and the folke that were with him, from lying in wait.

36 And when Gaal saw the people, hee sayd to Zebul, Beholde, there come people downe from the tops of the mountaines: and Zebul sayd unto him, The shadowe of the mountaines seeme men vnto thee.

37 And Gaal spake againe, and sayd, See there come folke downe & by the middle of the land, and another band cometh by the way of the plaine of Shechem.

38 Then sayd Zebul vnto him, Where is now thy mouth, that sayd, Who is Abimelech, that we should feare him? Is not this the people that thou hast despised? See our nowe, I pray thee, and fight with them.

39 And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

40 But Abimelech pursued him, and he fled before him, and many were hurt, wounded, euen vnto the entring of the gate.

41 And Abimelech dwelt at Armon; and Zebul thrust out Gaal and his brethren, that they should not dwell in Shechem.

42 And on the morrow, the people went out into the field: which was told Abimelech.

43 And he took the people, and diuided them into three bands, and layd wait in the fields, and looked, and behold, the people were come out of the cite, and he rose by against them, and smote them.

44 And Abimelech, and the bands that were with him, rushed toward, and stood in the entring of the gate of the cite: and the two other bands ran vpon all the people that were in the field, and slew them.

45 And when Abimelech had fought against the city all that day, he took the city, and slew the people that was therein, and destroyed the city, and towre: left in it.

46 And when all the men of the towre of Shechem heard it, they rushed into the hold of the house of the god: Berith.

47 And it was told Abimelech, that all the men of the towre of Shechem were gathered together.

48 And Abimelech gave him by to mount Gatmon, hee and all the people that were with him: and Abimelech rose aces with him, and cut downe boughs of trees, and took them, and bare them on his shoulder, and sayd vnto the folke that were with him, Behold haue ye seene me do, make haste, and do like me.

49 Then all the people also cut downe euery man his bough, and followed Abimelech, and put them to the hold, and set the hold on fire with them: so all the men of the towre of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women.

50 Then went Abimelech to Tedy, and beliggd Tedy, and took it.

51 But there was a strong towre within the cite, and thither fled all the men and women, and all the chiefe of the cite, and shut it to them, and went by to the top of the towre.

52 And Abimelech came vnto the towre and fought against it, and went hard vnto the doore of the towre, to set it on fire.

53 But a certaine woman cast a piece of a millstone vpon Abimelechs head, & brake his braine pan.

54 Then Abimelech called hastily his page that bare his harness, and sayde vnto him, Draw thy sword, and slay me, that men say not of me, A woman slew him. And his page thrust him through, and he died.

55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed euery man vnto his owne place.

56 Thus God rended the wickednes of Abimelech, which he did vnto his father, in slaying his seventy brethren.

57 Also the wickednes of the men of Shechem did God bring vpon their heads. So vpon them came the curse of Jotham the sonne of Jerubbaal.

After Abimelech there arose to defend the house of I Dabba, a man of Issachar, which dwelt in Ephraim in mount Ephraim.

2 And he deluged Israel there and thenceforth, a sign, and was buried in Ephraim.

3 And after him arose Japh the Gileadite, and judged Israel two and twentieth years.

4 And he had thirty concaves that rode on thirty asse colles, and they had thirty cities, which are called Japhoth-aiir unto this day, and are in the land of Gilead.

5 And Japh died, and was buried in Rammon.

6 And the children of Israel brought victuals againe in the sight of the Lord, and served Baalim and Ashtaroth, and the gods of Hamon, and the gods of Sidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines, and forsooke the Lord, and served not him.

7 Therefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hands of the Philistines, and into the hands of the children of Ammon:

8 Who from that yeere began and oppressed the children of Israel eighteen yeeres, even all the children of Israel that were beyond Jordan, in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.

9 Whereover, the children of Ammon went over Jordan to fight against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim: so that Israel was sore tormented.

10 Then the children of Israel cried unto the Lord, saying, We have sinned against thee, even because we have forsaken our stone gods, and have served Baalim.

11 And the Lord said unto the children of Israel, Did not I deliver you from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines?

12 The Sidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Moabites did oppress you, and ye cryed to mee, and I saved you out of their hands.

13 Yet ye have forsaken me, and served other gods: wherefore I will deliver you no more.

14 Go, and crye unto the gods which ye have chosen: let them save you in the time of your tribulation.

15 And the children of Israel sayd unto the Lord, We have sinned: doe thou unto us whatsoever please thee: onely we pray thee to deliver us: this day.

16 Then they put away the strange gods from among them, and served the Lord: and his soule was grieved for the misery of Israel.

17 Then the children of Ammon gathered themselves together, and pitched in Gilead: and the children of Israel assembled themselves, and pitched in Bethpeh.

18 And the people and princes of Gilead sayd one to another, Whosoever will begin the battell against the children of Ammon, the same shall bee head over all the inheritance of Gilead.

CHAP. XI.

1 Iphtah being chased away by his brethren, was after made captaine over Israel. 30 He maketh a rash vow. 31 He vanquisheth the Ammonites, 39 and sacrificeth his daughter according to his vow.

Then Gilead begate Iphtah, and Iphtah the Gileadite was a valiant man, but the sonne of an harlot.

2 And Gileads wife bare him concaves, and when the womans children were come to age, they thrust out Iphtah, and sayd unto him, Thou shalt not inherite in our fathers house: for thou art the sonne of a strange woman.

3 Then Iphtah fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of Tob: and there gathered idle fellows to Iphtah, & went out with him.

4 And in processe of time the children of Ammon made warre with Israel.

5 And when the children of Ammon fought with Israel, the Elders of Gilead went to see Iphtah out of the land of Tob.

6 And they sayd unto Iphtah, Come and bee our Captaine, that wee may fight with the children of Ammon.

7 Iphtah then answered the Elders of Gilead, Did not ye hate me, and expell me out of my fathers house: how then come you unto mee now in time of your tribulation?

8 Then the Elders of Gilead sayd unto Iphtah, Therefore wee turne againe to thee now, that thou mayest goe with us, and fight against the children of Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

9 And Iphtah sayd unto the Elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home againe to fight against the children of Ammon, if the Lord give them before me, shall I be your head?

10 And the Elders of Gilead sayde to Iphtah, The Lord be witness betwene us, if we doe not according to thy word.

11 Then Iphtah went with the Elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captaine over them: and Iphtah rehearsed all his wordes before the Lord in Bethpeh.

12 And when Iphtah sent messengers unto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to doe with mee, that thou art come against me, to fight in my land?

13 And the king of the children of Ammon answered unto the messengers of Iphtah, Because Israel tooke my land, when they came by from Egypt, from Arnon unto Jabbok, and unto Jordan: now therefore restore those lands: quickly.

14 Yet Iphtah sent messengers againe unto the king of the children of Ammon, 15 And sayd unto him, Thus saith Iphtah, Israel tooke not the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon.

16 But when Israel came by from Egypt, and walked through the wilderness unto the red Sea, then they came to Kadeth.

King of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, goe thorow thy land: but the king of Edom would not consent: and also they sent unto the king of Moab, but he would not: therefore Israel abode in Cadeth.

18 Then they went thorow the wilderness, and compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the East side of the land of Moab, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, and came not within the coast of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab.

19 Also Israel sent messengers unto Sihon the King of the Amorites, the King of Heshbon, and Israel sayd unto him, Let us passe, wee pray thee, by thy land unto our place.

20 But Sihon consented not to Israel that he should goe thorow his coast: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Jahaz, and fought with Israel.

21 And the Lord God of Israel gave Sihon & all his folke into the hands of Israel, and they smote him: so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country.

22 And they possessed * all the coast of the Amorites, from Arnon unto Jabbok, and from the wilderness even unto Jordan.

23 Now therefore the Lord God of Israel hath cast out the Amorites before his people Israel, and shouldest thou possesse it?

24 Cloudst not thou possesse that which Chemosh thy god giveth thee to possesse? Go whomsoever the Lord sueth God dwelleth out before us, them will we possesse.

25 * And art thou now farre better then Balak the sonne of Bizzay, king of Moab: did hee not strive with Israel, and fight against them,

26 When Israel dwelt in Heshbon and in her townes, and in Aroer and in her townes, and in all the cities that are by the coastes of Arnon, three hundred yeeres: why didst yee not then reconer them in that space?

27 Wherefore, I have not offended thee: but thou dost me wrong to warre against me. The Lord thy Judge be iudge this day betwene the children of Israel, and the children of Ammon.

28 Howbeit the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not unto the wordes of Iphthah, which he had sent him.

29 ¶ Then the Spirit of the Lord came upon Iphthah, and he passed over to Gilead and to Danasah, and came to Jissey in Gilead, and from Jissey in Gilead hee went unto the children of Ammon.

30 And Iphthah vowed a vow unto the Lord, and sayd, If thou shalt deliver the children of Ammon into mine hands, 31 Then that thing that cometh out of the doores of mine house to mee, when I come home in peace from the children of Ammon, shall be the Lords, and I will offer it for a burnt offering.

32 And so Iphthah went unto the children of Ammon to fight against them, and the Lord delivered them into his hands.

33 And hee smote them from Aroer, even untill thou come to Dimin, thence to the city, and so forth to the vineyards, with an exceeding great slaughter. Thus the children of Ammon were humbled before the children of Israel.

34 ¶ Now when Iphthah came to Jissey unto his house, behold, his daughter came out to meeete him with timbrels and daunces, which was his onely child: he had none other sonne, nor daughter.

35 And when he saw her, hee rent his clothes, and sayd, Alas my daughter, thou hast brought mee love, and art of them that trouble mee: for I have opened my mouth unto the Lord, and cannot goe backe.

36 And she sayd unto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth unto the Lord, doe with mee as thou hast promised, seeing that the Lord hath avenged thee of thine enemies the children of Ammon.

37 Also she said unto her father, Do thus much for me: suffer me two moneths, that I may goe to the mountaines, and bewaile my virginity, I and my fellows.

38 And hee sayd, Goe: and hee sent her away two moneths: so shee went with her companions, and lamented her virginity upon the mountaines.

39 And after the ende of two moneths, shee turned againe unto her father, who did with her according to his vow which hee had vowed, and shee had knowne no man. And it was a custome in Israel:

40 The daughters of Israel went yeere by yeere to lament the daughter of Iphthah the Gileadite, foure dayes in a yeere.

2 And Iphthah said unto them, I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon, and when I called you, yee welcomed me not out of their hands.

3 So when I saw that yee delivered me not, I put my life in mine hands, and went upon the children of Ammon: so the Lords delivered them into mine hands. Wherefore then are yee come upon me now to fight against me?

4 Then Iphthah gathered all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim: and the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they sayd, See Gileadites are runnagates of Ephraim: among the Ephraimites, and among the Danaites.

¶ Also the Gileadites tooke the passages of Jordan before the Ephraimites, and when the Ephraimites that were escaped, sayd, Let mee passe, then the men of Gilead sayd unto him, Art thou an Ephraimite?

1 Israel for their wickednes is oppressed of the Philistines. 2 The Angel appeareth to Manoahs wife. 16 The Angel commandeth him to sacrifice unto the Lord. 24 The birth of Samson.

At the children of Israel continued to becomme wickednes in the sight of the Lord, and the Lord delivered them into the hands of the Philistines foure yeere.

2 Then there was a man in Zoah of the family of the Danites, named Manoah, whose wife was barren, and bare not.

3 And the Angel of the Lord appeared vnto the woman, and sayd vnto her, Behold now, thou art barren, and bearest not: but thou shalt conceive, and beare a sonne.

4 And now therefore beware: that thou drinke no wine nor strong drinke, neither eat any vncleane thing.

5 For loe, thou shalt conceive and beare a sonne, and no raiour shall come on his head: for the childe shall be a Nazarite vnto God from his birth: and he shall beginne to saue Israel out of the hands of the Philistines.

6 Then the wife came, & told her husband, saying, A man of God came vnto me, and the fashion of him was like the fashion of the Angel of God, exceeding fearefull, but I asked him not whence he was, neither told he me his name:

7 But he sayd vnto me, Beholde, thou shalt conceive & beare a sonne, and now thou shalt drinke no wine nor strong drinke, neither eat any vncleane thing: for the childe shall be a Nazarite to God from his birth to the day of his death.

8 Then Manoah prayed to the Lord, and sayd, I pray thee, my Lord, let the man of God, whom thou sentest come again now, vnto vs, and teach vs what we shall do vnto the childe when he is borne.

9 And God heard the voyce of Manoah, and the Angel of God came againe vnto the wife, as she sat in the field: but Manoah her husband was not with her.

10 And the wife made haste, and rais, and shewed her husband, and said vnto him, Beholde, the man hath appeared vnto me, that came vnto me to day.

11 And Manoah aroise, & went after his wife, and came to the man, & said vnto him, Art thou the man that spakest vnto the woman: and he said, Yea.

12 Then Manoah said, How let thy saying come to passe: but how that we order the childe, and do vnto him?

13 And the Angel of the Lord sayd vnto Manoah, The woman must beware of all that I sayd vnto her.

14 She may eat of nothing that cometh of the vine tree: shee shall not drinke wine nor strong drinke, nor eat any vncleane thing: let her obserue all that I haue commanded her.

15 Manoah then sayde vnto the Angel of the Lord, I pray thee, let vs retaine thee, vntill wee haue made ready a kid for thee.

16 And the Angel of the Lord sayd vnto Manoah, Though thou make me abide, I will not eat of thy bread, & if thou wilt make a burnt offering, offer it vnto the Lord: for Manoah knew not that it was an Angel of the Lord.

17 Againe Manoah sayd vnto the Angel of the Lord, What is thy name, that when thy saying is come to passe, we may honour thee?

18 And the Angel of the Lord sayd vnto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, which is secret?

19 Then Manoah tooke a kidde with a meat offering, and offered it vpon a stone vnto the Lord: and the Angel did wonderfull, whyles Manoah and his wife looked on.

20 For when the flame came vp toward heauen from the altar, the Angel of the Lord ascended vp in the flame of the altar, & Manoah and his wife beheld it, and fell on their faces on the ground.

21 (So the Angel of the Lord did no more appeare vnto Manoah and his wife.) Then Manoah knew that it was the Angel of the Lord.

22 And Manoah sayde vnto his wife, He shall surely die, because we haue kepte God.

23 But his wife sayd vnto him, If the Lord would kill vs, he would not haue receiued a burnt offering and a meat offering of our hands, neither would he haue shewed vs all these things, nor would now haue told vs any such.

24 And the wife bare a sonne, and called his name Samson: and the childe grew, and the Lord blessed him.

25 And the Spirit of the Lord began to strengthen him in the holte of Dan, betwene Zoah and Etyraol.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Samson desireth to have a wife of the Philistines. 6 He killeth a lion. 13 He propoundeth a riddle. 19 He killeth thirty. 30 His wife forsaketh him, and taketh another.

NOW Samson went down to Timnath, and sawe a woman at Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines.

2 And he came by & tolde his father and his mother, and sayd, I have seene a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines: now therefore giue me her to wife.

3 Then his father and his mother sayde vnto him, Is there a wife among the daughters of thy brethren, & among all my people, that thou wilt goe to take a wife of the uncircumcised Philistines? And Samson sayd vnto his father, Giue me her, for she pleasech me well.

4 But his father and his mother knewe not that it came of the Lord, that he should seke an occasion against the Philistines: for at that time the Philistines reigned ouer Israel.

5 Then went Samson and his father and his mother downe to Timnath, & came to the vineyardes of Timnath: and beholde, a yong lion roared vpon him.

6 And the spirit of the Lord came vpon him, and he tare him, as one should haue rent a kid, and had nothing in his hand, neither tolde he his father nor his mother what he had done.

7 And he went downe, and talked with the woman which was beautifull in the eyes of Samson.

8 And with in a few dayes, when he returned, he to receiue her, hee went aside to see the carkets of the lyon: and beholde, there was a swaine of bees, and honey, in the body of the lion.

9 And he tooke therof in his hands, and went eating, and came to his father and to his mother, and gaue vnto them, and they did eate: but he tolde not them, that he had taken the honey out of the body of the lion.

10 So his father went downe vnto the woman, and Samson made there a feast: for he sold the yong men to do.

11 And when they saw him, they brought thirty companions to be with him.

12 Then Samson sayd vnto them, I will now put forth a riddle vnto you: and if you can declare it me within seuen dayes of the feast, and finde it out, I will giue you thirty sheetes, and thirty change of garments.

13 But if yee cannot declare it me, then shall yee giue mee thirty sheetes and thirty change of garments. And they answered him, Put forth thy riddle, that wee may heare it.

14 And he sayd vnto them, Out of the eater came meate, and out of the strong came sweetnes: and they could not in three daies expound the riddle.

15 And when the seuenth day was come, they sayd vnto Samsons wife, Entice thine husband, that he may declare vs the riddle, least we burne thee and thy fathers house with fire. haue ye called vs, to spoile vs?

Is it not so?

16 And Samsons wife wept before him, and sayd, Surely thou hast me, and lovest me not: for thou hast put forth a riddle vnto the children of my people, and hast not tolde it me. And he sayd vnto her, Beholde, I haue not tolde it my father, nor my mother, and shall I tell it thee?

17 Then Samsons wife went before him seuen dayes, while their feast lasted: and when the seuenth day came, he tolde her, because shee was importunate vpon him, so shee tolde the riddle to the children of her people.

18 And the men of the city sayd vnto him the thirteenth day before the sun went downe, What art thoue then haue? and what is stronger then a lion? Then sayd he vnto the, If ye had not plowed with my beifer, yet had not found out my riddle.

19 And the spirit of the Lord came vpon him, and he went downe to Ashkelon, and slew thirty men of them, and shooled them, and gaue change of garments vnto them, which expounded the riddle: and his wrath was kindled, and he went vp to his fathers house.

20 Then Samsons wife was given to his companion, whom hee had used as his friend.

2 And her father sayd, I thought that thou hadst hated her: therefore gaue I her to thy companion. Is not her younger sister fairer then shee? take her, I pray thee, in stead of the other.

3 Then Samson sayd vnto them, How am I more blameles then the Philistines: therefore will I do them displeasure.

4 And Samson went out, and tooke three hundred foxes, & tooke firebrands, and turned their taile to taile, & put a firebrand in the mow betwene two tailes.

5 And when hee had set the brands on fire, he sent them out into the standing corne of the Philistines, and burnt by doo the ricks and standing corne with the vineyards and olives.

6 Then the Philistines sayd, Who hath done this? And they answered, Samson the sonne in law of the Timnath, because hee had taken his wife, and giuen her to his companion. Then the Philistines came up, and burnt her and her father with fire.

1 Samson carteth away the gates of Azah. 2 He was deceiued by Delilah. 3 He pulleth down the buist vpon the Philistines, & dieth with them.

1 Then went Samson to Azah, and sawe there an harlot, and went in vnto her. 2 And it was told to the Azahites, Samson is come hither. And they went about and made waite for him all night in the gate of the cite, and were quiet all the night, saying, Abide I till the morning early, and wee shall kill him.

3 And Samson slept till midnight, and arose at midnight, and tooke the doores of the gates of the cite, and the two postes, and lift them away with the barres, and put them vpon his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of the mountaine that is before Hebron.

4 And after this hee loued a woman by the sister of Doeg, whose name was Delilah.

5 Vnto whom came the Princes of the Philistines, and sayd vnto her, Entice him, and let wherein his great strength lieth, and by what meane we may overcome him, that we may binde him, and punish him, and euer one of vs shall giue thee eleven hundred shekels of siluer.

6 And Delilah said to Samson, Tell me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and wherewith thou mightest be bound to doe thee hurt.

7 Samson then answered vnto her, If they binde me with seven Greene cordes, that were neuer dyed, then shall I be weak, and be as an other man.

8 And the Princes of the Philistines brought her seven Greene cordes that were not dyed, and shee bound him therewith.

9 And she had men lying in waite with her in the chamber. Then she said vnto him, The Philistines bee vpon thee, Samson. And hee brake the cordes, as a sheepe of towne is broken, when it is feeblye: so his strength was not knowne.

10 After Delilah saide vnto Samson, See, thou hast mocked me, & told me lies. I pray thee now, tell me wherewith thou mightest be bound.

11 Then he answered her, If they binde mee with newe ropes that neuer were occupied, then shall I be weak, and be as another man.

12 Delilah therefore tooke newe ropes, and bound him therewith, and sayde vnto him, The Philistines bee vpon thee, Samson: (and men lay in waite in the chamber) and hee brake them from his armes, as a sheepe.

13 Afterward Delilah sayde to Samson, Wherto thou hast beguiled me, and told me lies: tell me how thou mightest be bound. And hee said vnto her, If thou platted my euen locks of mine head with the thredes of the wooll.

14 And she fastened it with a pinne, and sayde vnto him, The Philistines bee vpon thee, Samson. And hee awoke out of his sleep and went away with the pin of the webbe and the wooll.

15 Againe she sayd vnto him, Nowe canst thou say, I loue thee, when thine heart is not with me? Thou hast mocked mee these three times, and hast not tolde mee wherein thy great strength lieth.

16 And because shee was importunate vpon him with her wordes continually, and vexed him, his soule was pained vnto the death.

17 Therefore shee tolde her all his heart, and sayde vnto her, There neuer came razor vpon mine head: for I am a Nazarite vnto God from my mothers wombe: therefore f Though her falshood tende to make him loose his life, yet his affection so blinded him that he could not beware.

g It is impossible if we giue place to our wicked affections, but at length we shall be destroyed.

i Thus his immoderate affections toward a wicked woman caused him to lose Gods excellent gifts, and become slave vnto them, whom he should haue ruled.

therefore if I be shaven, my strength will go from me, and I shall be weak, and be like all other men.

18 And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent, and called for the princes of the Philistines, saying, Come up once againe: for he hath shewed mee all his heart. Then the Princes of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought the money in their hands.

19 And shee made him sleepe upon her knees, and shee called a man, and made him to shave off the seven lockes of his head, and she began to bere him, and his strength was gone from him.

20 Then she said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And hee awoke out of his sleepe, and thought, I will goe out now as at other times, and shake my selfe, but hee knew not that the Lord was departed from him.

21 Therefore the Philistines tooke him, and put out his eyes, and brought him downe to Azrah, & bound him with fetters: and he did grind in the prison house.

22 And the haire of his head beganne to growe againe after it was shaven.

23 Then the Princes of the Philistines gathered them together for to offer a great sacrifice unto Dagon their god, and to rejoyce: for they said, Our God hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hands.

24 Also when the people sawe him, they praised their God: for they sayde, Our God hath delivered into our hands our enemy and destroyer of our countrey, which hath slaine many of vs.

25 And when their hearts were merrie, they sayde, Call Samson, that he may make vs pastime. So they called Samson out of the prison house, and hee was a laughing stocke unto them, and they set him betwene the pillars.

26 Then Samson sayd unto the servant that led him by the hand, Leade me, that I may touch the pillars that the house standeth upon, and that I may leane to them.

27 (Nowe the house was full of men and women, and there were all the Princes of the Philistines: also upon the roofo were about three thousand men and women that beheld while Samson played.)

28 Then Samson called unto the Lord, and sayd, O Lord God, I pray thee, thinke upon mee, & O Lord God, I beseech thee, strengthen me at this time onely, that I may bee at once a avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.

29 And Samson laide holde on the two middle pillars wherupon the house stood, and on which it was bozne up, on the one with his right hande, and on the other with his left.

30 Then said Samson, Let me loke my life with the Philistines: and he bowed him with all his might, and the house fell upon the Princes, and upon all the people that were therein. So the dead which he slew at his deaht were more then they which he had slaine in his life.

1 Michahs mother according to her sinne made her sonne two idols. 2 He made his sonne a Priest for his idols. 3 And after he had made a Levite.

There was a man of mount Ephraim, a sonne of this land, whose name was Michah.

2 And he said unto his mother, The eleven hundred shekels of silver that were taken from thee, for the which thou cursedst, and spakest it, even in mine hearing, behold, the silver is with mee, I took it. Then his mother sayde, Blessed bee my sonne of the Lord.

3 And when hee had restored the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, his mother sayd, I had dedicate the silver to the Lord of mine hand for my sonne, to make him a grauen and molten image. Now therefore I will give it thee againe.

4 And when hee had restored the money unto his mother, his mother tooke two hundred shekels of silver, and gave them to a Levite the founder, which made therof a grauen and molten image, and it was in the house of Michah.

5 And this man Michah had an house of gods, and made an Ephod, and a Teraphim, and consecrated one of his sonnes, whose name was his Priest.

6 In those dayes there was no king in Israel, but every man did that, which seemed good in his owne eyes.

7 There was also a young man out of Beth-lehem Judah, of the familie of Judah, whose name was a Levite, and sojourned there.

8 And the man departed out of the citie, even out of Beth-lehem Judah, to dwell wheresoever he could finde a place: and as he journeyed, hee came to mount Ephraim to the house of Michah.

9 And Michah sayd unto him, Whence comest thou? And the Levite answered him, I come from Beth-lehem Judah, and go to dwell where I may finde a place.

10 Then Michah sayd unto him, Dwell with mee, and bee unto mee a father and a Priest, and I will give thee thre shekels of silver by yere, and a tice of apparell, and be to mee thy meate and drinke. So the Levite went in.

11 And the Levite was content to dwell with the man, and the young man was unto him as one of his owne families.

12 And Michah consecrated the Levite, and the young man was his Priest, and was in the house of Michah.

13 Then said Michah, Now I know that the Lord will be good unto mee, seeing I have a Levite to my Priest.

CHAP. XVIII.

11 Then came the five hundredth and take the gods and the Priests of Michah away. 17 They destroy Lesh. 28 They build it again. 30 and so up idoles.

1 At those times there was no King in Israel, and at the same time the tribe of Dan sought them an inheritance to dwell in: for unto that time all their inheritance had not fallen unto them among the tribes of Israel.

2 Therefore the children of Dan sent of their familie, five men out of their coastes, even men expert in warre, out of Zorah and Eshtai, to viewe the lande, and search it out, and said unto them, Goe, and search out the land. Then they came to mount Ephraim, to the house of Michah, and lodged there.

3 When they were in the house of Michah, they knew the voice of the young man the Leuite: and being turned in chaire, they said unto him, Altho brought thee hither: or what maketh thou in this place: and what hast thou to doe here?

4 And he answered them, Thus & thus dealeth Michah with mee, and hath hired me, and I am his Priest.

Against they said unto him, Alke countell now of God, that we may knowe whether the way which we goe, shall bee prosperous.

6 And the Priest said unto them, Goe in peace: for the Lord guideth your way which ye goe.

7 Then the five men departed and came to Lesh, and saw the people that were therein, which dwelt careless, after the manner of the Idonians, quiet and sure, because no man made any trouble in the land, or blimped any dominion: also they were farre from the Idonians, and had no business with other men.

8 So they came againe unto their brethren, to Zorah and Eshtai: and their brethren said unto them, What have ye done?

9 And they answered, Arise, that we may goe up against them: for wee have seene the land, and surely it is very good, and doe wee sit still? be not slouthfull to goe and enter to possess the land:

10 (If ye will goe, ye shall come unto a careless people, and the country is large) for God hath given it into your hand. It is a place which doth lacke nothing that is in the world.

11 When there departed thence of the familie of the Danites, from Zorah and from Eshtai, five hundred men appointed with instruments of warre.

12 And they went up, and pitched in Kirjath-tearim in Judah: whereto they called that place, I Whanah Dan unto this day: and it is behinde Kirjath-tearim.

13 And they went thence unto mount Ephraim, and came to the house of Michah.

14 Then answered the five men, that went to see out the country of Lesh, and said unto their brethren, I knowe ye not, that there is in their houses an Ephod, and Teraphim, and a grauen & a molten image? Some therefore consider what ye haue to doe.

15 And they turned thitherward & came to the house of the young man the Leuite, even unto the house of Michah, and saluted him peaceably.

16 And the five hundred men appointed with the weapons of warre, which were of the children of Dan, stood by the entering of the gate.

17 Then the five men that went to spy out the land, went in thither, and tooke the grauen image and the Ephod, and the Teraphim, and the molten image: and the Priest stood in the entering of the gate with the five hundred men that were appointed with weapons of warre.

18 And the other went into Michahs house, and set the grauen image, the Ephod and the Teraphim, and the molten image. Then said the Priest unto them, What doe ye?

19 And they answered him, Holde thy peace: lay thine hand upon thy mouth, and come with vs to see our father and Priest. Whether is it better that thou shouldst bee a Priest unto the house of one man, or that thou shouldst bee a Priest unto a tribe and to a familie in Israel?

20 And the Priests heart was glad, and he tooke the Ephod and the Teraphim, and the grauen image, and went among the people.

21 And they turned and departed, and put the children, and the castell, and the substance: before them.

22 When they were farre off from the house of Michah, the men that were in the houses neere to Michahs house gathered together, & pursued after the children of Dan.

23 And cried unto the children of Dan: who turned their faces, and came unto Michah, what aileth thee that thou makest an outcry?

24 And he said, Ye haue taken away my gods, which I made, and the Priest, & got your wayes: and what haue I more? howe then say ye unto me, What aileth thee?

25 And the children of Dan said unto him, Let not thy voice bee heard among vs, lest & angrie fellowes runne upon thee, and thou lose thy life with the lawes of thine house.

26 So the children of Dan went their wayes: and when Michah sawe that they were too strong for him, he turned and went backe unto his house.

27 And they tooke the things which Michah had made, and the Priest which he had, & came unto Lesh, unto a quiet people and without mistrust, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the cite with fire.

28 And there was none to helpe, because Lesh was farre from Zidon, and they had no business with other men: also it was in the valley that lieth by Beth-rehob. After, they built the cite and dwelt therein.

29 And called the name of the cite Dan, after the name of Dan their father, which was

8 And hee arose by early the fifth day to depart: and the yong womans father said, Comfort thine heart. I pray thee: and they taried untill after midday, and they both did eate.

9 Afterward when the man arose to depart with his concubine and his servant, his father in lawe, the yong womans father said unto him, Behold now, the day is draweth toward euen: I pray you, tarie all night: behold, I the same goe to rest: lodge here, that thine heart may be merie, and to morrow get you early upon your way, and goe to thy tent.

10 But the man would not tarie, but arose and departed, and came over against Jebus, (which is Jerusalem) and his two asses laden, & his concubine was with him.

11 When they were nere to Jebus, the day was late spent, and the servant sayde unto his master, Behold, I pray thee, and let us turne into this cite of the Jebusites, and lodge all night there.

12 And his master answered him, Cites will not turne into the cite of strangers: that are not of the children of Israel, but we will goe forth to Gibeah.

13 And he said unto his servant, Come, and let us draw nere to one of these places, that we may lodge in Gibeah this night.

14 So they went forward upon their way, and the same went downe upon them nere to Gibeah, which is in Benjamin.

15 Then they turned thither to goe in, and lodge in Gibeah: and when he came, he late him downe in a street of the cite: for there was no man thatooke them into his house to lodge in.

16 And behold, there came an old man from his worke out of the ficke at euen, and the man was of mount Ephraim, but dwelt in Gibeah: and the men of the place were the children of Benjamin.

17 And when he had lift by his eyes, he saw a waiting man in the streetes of the cite: then this old man said, Callesther good thou, and whence comest thou?

18 And he answered him, He came from Beth-lehem Judah, unto the side of mount Ephraim: from thence am I: and I went to Beth-lehem Judah, and goe now to the house of the Lord: and no man receiveth me to house.

19 Although we have straw and provender for our asses, and also bread and wine for mee and thine handmaide, and for the boy that is with thy servant: we lacke nothing.

20 And the old man said, Peace be with thee: as for all that thou lackest, shall thine hoste wish me: onely abide not in the street all night.

21 So hee brought him into his house, and gave fodder unto the asses: and they washed their feet, and did eate and drinke.

22 And as they were making their hearts merie, behold, the men of the cite, 2 wicked men, beset the house round about, and smote at the doore, and spake to this old man, the master of the house, saying, Bring forth the man that came into thine house, that we may know him.

23 And this man the master of the house went out unto them, and said unto them, Stay, my brethren, doe not so wickedly, I pray you: seeing that this man is come into mine house, doe not this violence.

24 Behold, here is my daughter, a virgin, and his concubine: them will I bring out now, and humble them, and doe with them what seemeth you good: but to this man doe not this violence.

25 But the men would not hearken to him: therefore the man tooke his concubine, and brought her out unto them: and they knew her, and abused her all the night unto the morning: and when the day beganne to shine, they let her goe.

28 And they that lay in waile hastened, and brake forth toward Gibeath, and the embowments of the Beniamites were along, and smote all the citie with the edge of the sword.

29 Also the men of Israel had appointed a certaine time with the embowments, that they should make a great flame, and smoke rise up out of the citie.

30 And when the men of Israel retired in the battell, Benjamin began to smite any hill of the men of Israel about thirte persons: for they sayd, Surely they are stricken downe before us, as in the first battell.

31 But when the flame began to arise out of the citie, as a pillar of smoke, the Beniamites looked backe, and beholde the flame of the citie began to ascend up to heaven.

32 Then the men of Israel turned againe, & the men of Benjamin were stricken: for they saw that the citie was on fire.

43 Then the men of Israel returned into the children of Benjamin, & smote them with the edge of the sword from the men of the citie unto the head, and all that came to hand: also they set on fire all the cities that they could come by.

CHAP. XXI

The Israelites sware that they would marry their daughters to the Beniamites: no. They say that of Jacob's children, and gave their virgins to the Beniamites. In the Beniamites sale the daughters of Shiloh.

Deceit, the men of Israel: where in his daughter into the Beniamites to wife.

2 And the people came unto the house of God, and abode there till even before God, and lifted up their voices, and wept with great lamentation.

3 And said, Lord God of Israel, why is this come to passe in Israel, that this day one tribe of Israel should want?

4 And on the morrow the people rose up and made them an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

5 Then the children of Israel said, Gidon is among all the tribes of Israel, that came not up with the Congregation unto the Lord: for they had made a great othe concerning him that came not up to the Lord to Shiloh, saying, Let him die the death.

6 And the children of Israel were say to the Beniamites their brethren, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day.

7 Wherefore shall we doe, say we unto them that remaine, seeing we have sware by the Lord, that we will not give them of our daughters to wives?

8 And they sayd, There are any of the tribes of Israel that came not up to Shiloh to the Lord: and behold, there cometh out of Jacob children unto the point, and in the Congregation.

9 For when the people were gathered, to the house of God, the Beniamites were not there.

10 Therefore the Congregation sent the three hundred thousand men of the sword, and commanded them, saying, Go, and smite the Beniamites of Jacob round about the camp of the Beniamites, both men and children.

11 And this is the name of the man that was the first of the men that have been in men.

12 And they found among the inhabitants of Judah, fifteen hundred and thirty men, and they brought them into the house of David, which is in the land of Canaan.

13 And when the people of Benjamin were in the house of David, and the children of Benjamin that were in the house of Benjamin, and called them peaceably into them.

14 And Benjamin came again at that time, and they gave them wives which they had taken of the women of Judah, and these were the children of Benjamin that were in the house of Benjamin, and called them peaceably into them.

15 And the people were in the house of Benjamin, because the Lord had made a way in the house of Benjamin.

16 Therefore the others of the congregation said, How shall we do for wives for the remnant of the women of Benjamin that are left?

17 And they said, There must be some inheritance for them that be of the house of Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel.

18 And when the men of Benjamin were in the house of Benjamin, and the children of Benjamin that were in the house of Benjamin, and called them peaceably into them.

19 Therefore the men of Benjamin, and the children of Benjamin that were in the house of Benjamin, and called them peaceably into them.

12. And Naomi answered unto Ruth her daughter in law, It is best, my daughter, that thou goe out with his maids, that they find thee not in another field.

13. Then she kept her by the maids of Boaz, to gather into the end of barley harvest, and of wheate harvest, and dwelt with her mother in law.

CHAP. III.

1. Naomi greeteth Ruth comforted. 2. She sheweth Boaz's fate, as the acknowledgment of his love to her kinship.

Afterwards Naomi her mother in law laid unto her, My daughter, shall not I seek rest for thee, that thou maiest prosper?

2. Boaz also is not Boaz our kinsman, with whose maids thou wast: behold, he hath married barley to night in the floor.

3. Glad thy self therefore, and anoint thee, and put thy garments upon thee, and get thee down to the floor: let not the handmaid know of thee, until she have left eating and drinking.

4. And when her shall sleepe, marke the place where he layeth him downe, and goe and uncover the place of his feet, and lay thee downe, and he shall tell thee what thou shalt doe.

5. And she answered her, All that thou biddest me, I will doe.

6. So she went downe unto the floor, and did according to all that her mother in law had her.

7. And when Boaz had eaten and drunken, and cheered his heart, he went to lie downe at the end of the beere of wine, and she came softly, and uncovered the place of his feet, and lay downe.

8. And at midnight the man was stirred, and caught hold: and loe, a woman lay at his feet.

9. Then he said, Who art thou? And she answered, I am Ruth thine handmaide: wherein therefore be the toings of thy garments, for thou shalt be as one of thy servants, until thou art the kinsman.

10. Then said hee, Blessed be thou of the Lord, my daughter: thou hast obtained more goodness in the latter end, then at the beginning, in as much as thou followedst not young men, where they were rich.

11. And now, my daughter, feare not: I will doe to thee all that thou requirdest: for all the cite of my people doth know, that thou art a virtuous woman.

12. And now, it is true, that I am thy kinsman, notwithstanding there is a kinsman nearer then I.

13. Tarry to night, and when morning is come, if hee will doe the dutie of a kinsman unto thee, well, let him doe the kinsmans dutie: but if he will not doe the kin-mans part, then will I doe the dutie of a kinsman, as the Lord saith: hee will the same thing.

14. And she lay at his feet until the morning: for shee wrote before one could know another: for he said, Let no man know, that a woman came into the floor.

15. Also hee said, Bring the three sheaves that thou hast upon thee, and hold it. And when shee held it, he measured six measures of barley, and laid them on her, and she went into the cite.

16. And when shee came to her mother in law, she said, Who art thou, my daughter? And shee told her all that the man had done to her.

17. And said, These six measures of barley gave he me: for he laid to me, Thou shalt not come empty unto thy mother in law.

18. Then said shee, My daughter, it will, until thou know how the thing will fall: for the man will not be in rest, until he hath imagined the matter these three dayes.

Then went Boaz up to the gate, and lay there, and behold, the kinsman of whom Boaz had spoken, came by: and he said, Hee, such out, come, sit downe here. And hee turned, and sat downe.

2. Then hee took ten men of the Elders of the cite, and said, Sit ye downe here. And they sat downe.

3. And hee said unto the kinsman, Naomi, that is come againe out of the countrey of Moab, will sell a parcel of land, which was our wifes Elimelechs.

4. And I thought to advertise thee, saying, Buy it before the witnesses, and before the Elders of my people. If thou wilt redeeme it, redeeme it: but if thou wilt not redeeme it, tell mee: for I know that there is none, besides thee to redeeme it, and I am after thee. Then hee answered, I will redeeme it.

5. Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must also buy it of Ruth the Moabitess the wife of the dead, to keepe by the name of the dead upon his inheritance.

6. And the kinsman and I wored, I cannot redeeme it, lest I destroy mine owne inheritance: redeeme my right to thee, for I cannot redeeme it.

7. Now this was the manner beforetime in Israel, concerning redeeming and changing, for to stablish all things: a man did plucke off his shoe, and gave it his neighbor, and this was a sure witness in Israel.

8. Therefore the kinsman said to Boaz, Buy it for thee: and hee drew off his shoe.

9. And Boaz said unto the Elders, and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelechs, and all that was Chilion and Mahlon, of the hand of Naomi.

The first booke of Samuel.

THE ARGUMENT.

According as God had ordained, Deut. 17. 14. that when the Israelites should be in the land of Canaan, he would appoint them a King: so here in this first booke of Samuel is declared the state of this people vnder their first King Saul, who not content with that order, which God had for a time appointed for the government of his Church, demanded a King, to the intent they might be as other nations, and in a greater assurance as they thought: not because they might the better thereby serue God, as being vnder the safeguard of him, which did represent Iesus Christ the true deliverer: there fore he gaue them a tyrant and an hypocrite to rule ouer them, that they might learne, that the person of a King is not sufficient to defend them, except God by his power protect and keepe them. And therefore hee punished the ingratitude of his people, and scolded them continually warres both at home and abroad. And because Saul, whom of nothing God had preferred to the honour of a King, did not acknowledge Gods mercie toward him, but rather disobeyed the word of God, and was not content of his glorie, he was by the voice of God put downe from his state, and Dauid the true figure of Messiah placed in his stead, whose patience, modestie, constancie, persecution by open enemies, faised friends, and dissembling flatterers, are left to the Church and euery member of the same, as a patterne and example to behold their state and vocation.

CHAP. I.

1 The genealogie of Elkanah father of Samuel. 2 His two wives. 3 Hannah was barren and prayed to the Lord. 4 Her answer to Eli. 5 Samuel is borne. 6 Shee doeth dedicate him to the Lord.

There was a man of one of the two: Ramathaim Zophim, of mount Ephraim, whose name was Elkanah, the sonne of Jeropham, the sonne of Eliah, the sonne of Tohu, the sonne of Suph, an Ephraimite.

2 And hee had two wives: the name of one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

3 And this man went vp out of his citie euerie yeere, to worship and to sacrifice vnto the Lord of Hostes in Shiloh, where were the two sonnes of Eli, Iophim and Phinehas Priests of the Lord.

4 And on a day, when Elkanah sacrificed, he gaue to Peninnah his wife and to all her sonnes and daughters portions,

5 But vnto Hannah hee gaue a worthie portion: for hee loued Hannah, and she had made her barren.

6 And her aduersarie, weene her fate, so much as shee was barren, because the Lord had made her barren.

7 And so did hee weep by yeere, and as oft as shee went vp to the house of the Lord, thus shee vexed her, that shee wept and did not eate.

8 Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thine heart troubled: am not I better to thee then tenne sonnes?

9 And Hannah told him after that shee had eaten and drunke in Shiloh, and that the Priest late vnto a steele by one of the posts of the Temple of the Lord.

10 And shee was troubled in her minde, and prayed vnto the Lord, and wept thus:

11 And shee vowed a vow, and said, O Lord of Hostes, if thou wilt looke on the trouble of thine handmaide, and remember mee, and not forget thine handmaide, but giue vnto thine handmaide a manchild, then I will giue him vnto the Lord all the dayes of his life, and there shall no razor come vpon his head.

13 And as she continued praying before the Lord, Eli marked her mouth.
14 For Hannah saith in her heart, her lips did move only, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had been drunken.

15 And Eli said unto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? Put away & thy drunkenness from thee.
16 Then Hannah answered & said, Nay, my lord, but I am a woman & troubled in spirit, I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my soule before the Lord.

17 Count not thine handmaide for a wicked woman: for of the abundance of my complaint and my griefe haue I spoken dishonestly.

18 Then Eli answered and sayd, See in peace, and the God of Israel grant thy petition that thou hast asked of him.

19 She layd againe, Let thine handmaide finde grace in thy sight: for the woman went her way, and did eat, and looked no more sad.

20 Then they rose by early, and worshipped before the Lord, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah. Now Elkanah knew Hannah his wife, and the Lord remembered her.

21 For in process of time Hannah conceived and bare a sonne, and she called his name Samuel, because, sayd she, I was after him of the Lord.

22 And the man Elkanah, and all his house went by to serve before the Lord the yearly sacrifice, and his wife.

23 But Hannah went in due for the first unto her husband, I will care in still the child be wanted, then I will bring him that he may appear before the Lord, and there abide for ever.

24 And Elkanah her husband saide vnto her, Doe what seemeth thee best: tarie in till thou hast weaned him: only the Lord accomplish his word. So the woman abode, and gaue her sonne sucke vntill she weaned him.

25 And when she had weaned him, she took him with her with three bullockes and an Ephah of flour, and a burrell of wine, and brought him unto the house of the Lord in Shiloh, and the child was 4 yong.

26 And they slew a bullocke, and brought the child to Eli.

27 And shee sayde, Oh my lord, as thy soule liueth, my lord, I am the woman that stood with thee here praying vnto the Lord.

28 I prayed for this child, & the Lord hath giuen me my desire which I asked of him.

29 Therefore also I haue giuen him vnto the Lord: as long as hee liueth he shall be giuen vnto the Lord: and hee worshipped the Lord there.

And Hannah prayed, and saide, Spirit be heard before thee in the day of mine prayer: for thou art in the Lord: my mouth is enlarged, and mine mouth is opened, because I have answered in thy salvation.

2 There is none holier as the Lord: yea, there is none besides thee, and there is no god like our God.

3 Speake, & no more presumptuously: let not arrogancie come out of your mouth: for the Lord is a God of knowledge, and by him enterpises are established.

4 The bold and the mighty men are broken, and the weak haue girded themselves with strength.

5 They that were full, are hired forth for bread, and the hungry are no more hired, so that the barren hath borne a sonne: and shee that had many children, is feeble.

6 The Lord killeth and maketh aliu: bringeth downe to the graue and raiseth vp.

7 The Lord maketh poore and maketh rich: bringeth low, and exalteth.

8 He raiseth vp the poore out of the dust, and lifteth vp the deegar from the dunghill to set them among Princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the Lordes, and he hath set the world vpon them.

9 We will keepe the decree of his Saintes, and the wicked shall keepe silence in darkness: for in his owne might shall no man bee strong.

10 The Lordes adversaries shall bee destroyed, and out of heauen shall he thunder vpon them: the Lord shall iudge the endes of the world, and shall giue power vnto his King, and exalt the home of his anointed.

11 And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house, and the child did minister vnto the Lord before Eli the Priest.

12 And the sonnes of Eli were wicked men, and knew not the Lord.

13 For the Priestes custome toward the people was: when any man offered sacrifice, the Priestes boy came, while the flesh was seething, and a fleshbooke with three teeth in his hand.

14 And thrust it into the kettle, or into the caldron, or into the panne, or into the pot: all that the fleshbooke brought vp, the Priest took for himselfe: thus they did vnto all the Israelites that came thither to Shiloh.

15 Pea, before they burnt the fatted, the Priestes boy came and sayd to the man that offered, Giue me flesh to roast for the Priest: for he will not haue hidden flesh of thee, but rathe.

16 And if any man sayde vnto him, Let them burne the fatted according to the custome, then take as much as thine heart desireth: then he would answer, No, but thou shalt giue it now: and if thou wilt not, I will take it by force.

17 Therefore the sinne of the yong men was very great before the Lord: for they abhorred the offering of the Lord.

18 And show Samuel being a yong child ministrer before the Lord, girded with a linen Ephod.

and brought it to him from years to years, when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

20 And Eli blessed Hannah and her wife, and says, The Lord give thee desire of this woman, for the petition that she asked of the Lord; and they departed unto their place.

21 And the Lord visited Hannah, so that she conceived and bare three sons, and two daughters. And the child Samuel grew before the Lord.

22 ¶ Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did unto all Israel, and how they lay with the women that assembled at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

23 And he sayd unto them, Why doe ye such things? for all this people I heare riuill reports of you.

24 Doe no more my sons; for it is no good report that I heare, which is, that ye make the Lords people to be reviled.

25 If one man sinne against another, the Judge shall iudge: but if a man sinne against the Lord, who will please for him? notwithstanding they obeyed not the voyce of their father, because the Lord would slay them.

26 ¶ (Some the child Samuel profited and grew, and was in fauour both with the Lord, and also with men.)

27 And there came a man of God vnto Eli, and said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Did not I plainly appeare vnto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaohs house?

28 And I chose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my Priest, to offer vpon mine altar, and to burn incense, and to weare an Ephod before mee, and I gave vnto the house of thy father all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israel.

29 Wherefore haue you wicked against my sacrifice and mine offering, which I commanded in my Tabernacle, and honouredst thy children aboue mee, to make your selues fat of the best frutes of all the offerings of Israel any people?

30 Wherefore the Lord God of Israel sayeth, I sayd that thine house and the house of thy father should walke before mee for euer: but now the Lord sayeth, It shall not be so: for them that honour mee, I will honour, and they that despise mee, shall be despised.

31 Beholde, the dayes come, that I will cut off thine arm, and the arme of thy fathers house, that there shall not be an olde man in thine house.

32 And thou shalt see thine enemy in the habitation of the Lord in all things wherewith God shall blasse Israel, and there shall not be an olde man in thine house for euer.

33 Nevertheless, I will not destroy euery one of thine from mine altar, to make thine eyes to faile, and to make thine heart doubtful: and all the multitude of thine house shall die, when they be men.

34 And this shall bee a signe vnto thee, that shall come vpon thy two sons whom thou and Phineas; in one day they shall be both.

35 And I will slay mee up a sacrifice, which that shall be according to mine heart, and according to my mind: and I will build him a sure house, and he shall walke before me, and shall be a priest.

36 And all that are left in thine house shall come and bowe downe to him for a piece of silver, and a modell of bread, and shall appoint mee, I say thee, to one of the Priests offices, that I may eat a modell of bread.

¶ CHAP. III.

1 There was no manifest vision at the time of Eli. 4 The Lord calleth Samuel three times, 11 And sheweth what shall come vpon Eli and his house, 18 The Lord declareth Samuel to Eli.

Now the child Samuel ministered vnto the Lord before Eli: and the word of the Lord was precious in those dayes: for there was no manifest vision.

2 And at that time, as Eli lay in his place, his eyes began to wane, because he could not see.

3 And yet the light of God went out, Samuel slept in the Temple of the Lords, where the light of God was.

4 Then the Lord called Samuel: and he said, Here I am.

5 And he came vnto Eli, and said, Here am I, for thou calledst me. But hee sayd, I called thee not: goe againe and sleepe. And he went and sleepe.

6 And the Lord called once againe, Samuel, and Samuel arose, and went to Eli, and said, I am here: for thou didst call me. And he answered, I called thee not, my sonne: goe againe and sleepe.

7 ¶ Thus did Samuel, before hee knewe the Lord, and before the word of the Lord was reuelled vnto him.

8 And the Lord called Samuel againe the third time, and he arose, & went to Eli, and sayd, I am here; for thou hast called me. Then Eli perceived that the Lord had called the child.

9 Therefore Eli said vnto Samuel, Go and sleepe: and if hee call thee, then say, Speake Lord, for thy seruant heareth. So Samuel went and slept in his place.

10 ¶ And the Lord came and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speake, for thy seruant heareth.

11 ¶ Then the Lord said to Samuel, Beholde, I will doe a thing in Israel, whereof whosoener shall heare, his two eares shall tingle.

12 In that day I will raise vp against Eli all things which I haue spoken concerning his house: when I begin, I will also make an end.

13 And I haue told him that I will iudge his house for euer, for the iniquitie wherewith hee knoweth, because his sonnes ran into a slander, and defiled their not.

14 Nowe therefore I haue (saue) vnto the house of Eli, that the wickedness of Eliens house, shall not be purged with sacrifice

14 Afterward Samuel kept until the morning, and opened the doors of the house of the Lord, and Samuel feared to them.

15 When Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel my sonne, And he answered, here I am.

16 Then he said, What is it, that the Lord hath unto thee? I pray thee, hide it not from me. God is not so, as thou sayest, if thou hide any thing from me, of all that hee hath said unto thee.

17 So Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him. Then he says, It is the Lord: let him do what seemeth him good.

18 And Samuel grew, and the Lord was with him, and let none of his words fall to the ground.

19 And all Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba knew that faithfull Samuel was the Lord's Prophet.

20 And the Lord appeared again in Shiloh: for the Lord revealed himselfe to Samuel in Shiloh by his word.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Israel is overcome by the Philistines. 2 They doe set the Arke, wherefore the Philistines doe fear. 3 The Arke of the Lord is taken. 4 Eli and his children doe. 5 The death of the wife of Phinehas the sonne of Eli.

And Samuel spake unto all Israel: And Israel went out against the Philistines to battell, pitched beside Beth-el: and the Philistines pitched in Aphek.

2 And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they turned the battell, Israel was smitten downe before the Philistines: who slew of the armie in the field about foure thousand men.

3 So when the people were come into the campe, the Elders of Israel saye, Wherefore hath the Lord smitten us this day before the Philistines? let us bring the Arke of the Covenant of the Lord out of Shiloh unto us, that when it cometh among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies.

4 Then the people sent to Shiloh and brought from thence the Arke of the Covenant of the Lord of hostes, who dwelleth betweene the Cherubims: and there were the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni, and Phinehas with the Arke of the Covenant of God.

5 And when the Arke of the Covenant of the Lord came into the hostes, all Israel shouted a mightie shout, so that the earth rang againe.

6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they sayd, What meaneth the sound of this mightie shout in the hostes of the Hebrewes? and they understood, that the Arke of the Lord was come into the hostes.

7 And the Philistines were afraid, and sayd, God is come into the hostes: therefore sayd they, What hath done this? for it hath not bene so heretofore.

8 And now we, who shall deliver us out of the hande of this mighty God?

these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness.

9 Be strong and play the men, O Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Egyptians, as they have served you: be valiant therefore, and fight.

10 And the Philistines fought, and Israel was smitten downe, and fled every man into his tent: and there was an exceeding great slaughter: for there fell of Israel thirtie thousand footmen.

11 And the Arke of God was taken, and the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas died.

12 And there came a man of Benjamin out of the armie, and came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes rent, and earth upon his head.

13 And when he came, loe, Eli sat upon a seat by the way side, waiting: for his heart was feared for the Arke of God: and when the man came into the cite to tell it, all the city cryed out.

14 And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he sayd, What meaneth this noise of the tumult? And the man came in halting, and told Eli.

15 (Now Eli was fourscore and eightene yeere old, and his eyes were dimme, that he could not see.)

16 And the man layd unto Eli, I came from the armie, and I fled this day out of the hostes: and he said, What thing is done, my sonne?

17 Then the messenger answered, and said, Israel is fled before the Philistines, and there hath ben also a great slaughter among the people: and moreover thy two sonnes, Hophni and Phinehas are dead, and the Arke of God is taken.

18 And when he had made mention of the Arke of God, Eli fell from his seat backward by the side of the gate, and his necke was broken, and he died: for he was an olde man and heavy: and he had judged Israel forty yeeres.

19 And his daughter in lawe Phinehas wife was with child neere her travell: and when she heard the report that the Arke of God was taken, and that her father in lawe and her husband were dead, she boomed her selfe, and travailed: for her paines came upon her.

20 And about the time of her death, the women that stood about her, layd unto her, Fear not: For thou hast borne a sonne: but she answered not, nor regarded it.

21 And she named the child Ichabod, saying, The glory is departed from Israel, because the Arke of God was taken, and because of her father in lawe and her husband.

22 She said againe, The glory is departed from Israel: for the Arke of God is taken.

CHAP. XV.

1 The Philistines beate the Arke into the house of Dagon, where idols fell downe before it. 2 The men of Ashdod are plagued. 3 The Arke is carried into Gath, and after into Ekron.

Psal. 78. 66.

d Though they had felt Gods power and were afraid thereof, yet they would farther trie him, which thing God turned to their destruction and his glory.

e The wicked, when they seele the hand of God, grudge and reiect him, where the godly humble themselves and crye for mercy.

a They thought by continuance of time the plague would haue ceased, & so would haue kept the Arke still.

Then the Philistims took the Arke of God, and caried it from Eben-eter vnto Ashdod.

2 Then the Philistims took the Arke of God, and brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon.

3 And when they of Ashdod rose the next day in the morning, behold, Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the ground before the Arke of the Lord, and they took vp Dagon, and set him in his place againe.

4 Also they rose vp early in the morning the next day, and beholds, Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the ground before the Arke of the Lord, and the head of Dagon, and the two palmes of his hands were cut off vpon the threshold: onely the stump of Dagon was left to him.

5 Therefore the Priests of Dagon, and all that come into Dagon's house: tread not on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod, vnto this day.

6 But the hand of the Lord was heauie vpon them of Ashdod, and destroyed them, and smote them with emerods, both Ashdod, and the coasts thereof.

7 And when the men of Ashdod saw this, they sayd, Let not the Arke of the God of Israel abide with vs: for his hand is layd vpon vs, and vpon Dagon our god.

8 Therefore they sent & gathered all the princes of the Philistims vnto them, and sayd, What shall we do with the Arke of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the Arke of the God of Israel bee caried about vnto Gath: and they caried the Arke of the God of Israel about.

9 And when they had caried it about, the hand of the Lord was against the citie with a very great destruction, and he smote the men of the citie both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret places.

10 Therefore they sent the Arke of God to Ekron: and as soon as the Arke of God came to Ekron, the Ekronites cryed out, saying, They haue brought the Arke of the God of Israel to vs, to slay vs & our people.

11 Therefore they sent, and gathered together all the princes of the Philistims, and sayd, Send away the Arke of the God of Israel, and let it returne to his owne place, that it slay vs not and our people: for there was a destruction and death throughout all the citie, and the hand of God was very sore there.

12 And the men that died not, were smitten with the emerods: and the crye of the citie went vp to heauen.

CHAP. VI.

1 The time that the Arke was with the Philistims which they sent againe with a gift. 12 It cometh to Beth-shemesh. 13 The Philistims offer golden emerods. 14 The men of Beth-shemesh are stricken for looking into the Arke.

So the Arke of the Lord was in the country of the Philistims seuen moneths.

2 And the Philistims called the Priests and the soothsayers, saying, What shall we do with the Arke of the Lord? tell vs whereby we shall send it home againe.

3 And they sayd, If you send away the Arke of the God of Israel, send it not away empty, but giue vnto it a <sup>a</sup> sinne offering: then shall ye be healed, and it shall be knowne to you, why his hand departed not from you.

4 Then sayd they, What shall be the sinne offering, which we shall giue vnto it? And they answered, Five golden emerods and five golden milt, according to the number of the princes of the Philistims: for our plague was on you all, and on your princes.

5 Therefore ye shall make the similitudes of your emerods, and the similitudes of your milt that destroy the land: so ye shall giue glory vnto the God of Israel, that hee may take his hand from you, & from your gods, and from your land.

6 Therefore they should you harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts: when he wrought wonderfully among them, did they not let them goe, and they departed?

7 Now therefore make a new cart, and take two milch kine, on whome there hath come no yoke: and tie the kine to the cart, and bring the calves home from them.

8 Then take the Arke of the Lord, and set it vpon the cart, and put the <sup>a</sup> iewels of golde which ye giue for a sinne offering, in a coffer by the side thereof, and send it away, that it may goe.

9 And take heed, if it go by the way of his owne coast to Beth-shemesh, it is <sup>a</sup> be that did vs this great euill: but if not, wee shall know then, that it is not his hand that smote vs, but it was a <sup>a</sup> chance that happened vs.

10 And the men did so: for they took two kine that gaue milke, and tied them to the cart, and shut the calves at home.

11 So they set the Arke of the Lord vpon the cart, and the coffer with the milt of golde, and with the similitudes of their emerods.

12 And the kine went the straight way to Beth-shemesh, and kept one path, and lowd as they went, and turned neither to the right hand nor to the left: also the Princes of the Philistims went after them, vnto the borders of Beth-shemesh.

13 Now they of Beth-shemesh were reaping their tobrake harvest in the valley, and they lift vp their eyes, and saw the Arke, and reioyced when they saw it.

14 And the cart came into the field of Jothua a Beth-shemite, and stood still there. There was also a great stone, and they claued the wood of the cart, and offered the kine for a burnt offering vnto the Lord.

15 And the Levites took down the Arke of the Lord, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the iewels of gold were, & put them on the great stone, and the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offering, and sacrificed sacrifices that same day vnto the Lord.

16 And when the five princes of the Philistims had seene it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

17 ¶ So these are the golden emerodes which the Philistines gave for a sin offering to the Lord: for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Ashkelon one, for Gath one, and for Ekron one.

18 And golden milt, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines, belonging to the five princes, both of walled townes, and of towne untalled, unto the great stone of Abel, wheron they set the Arke of the Lord: which stone remaineth unto this day in the field of Iodna the Beth-shemite.

19 And he smote of the men of Beth-shemeth, because they had looked in the Arke of the Lord: her slew euen among the people fiftie thousand men, and therefore and ten men: and the people lamented, because the Lord had slaine the people withy so great a slaughter.

20 Wherefore the men of Beth-shemeth said, Who is able to stand before this holy Lord God: and to whom shal he go from us?

21 And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjath-tearim, saying, The Philistines haue brought againe the Arke of the Lord: come ye downe, and take it by to you.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Arke is brought to Kirjath-tearim. 3 Samuel exhorteth the people to forsake their sinnes, and turne to the Lord. 10 The Philistines fight against Israel, and are overcome. 16 Samuel iudgeth Israel.

Then the men of Kirjath-tearim came, andooke up the Arke of the Lord, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hills: and they sanctified Eleazar his sonne, to keepe the Arke of the Lord.

2 (For while the Arke abode in Kirjath-tearim, the time was long, for it was twentie yeres) and all the house of Israel lamented after the Lord.

3 ¶ Then Samuel shoke vnto all the house of Israel, saying, If yet bee come againe vnto the Lord with all your heart, put away the strange gods from among you, and Ashtaroth, and direct your hearts vnto the Lord, and serue him onely, and he shall deliuer you out of the hand of the Philistines.

4 Then the children of Israel did put away Baalim and Ashtaroth, and serued the Lord onely.

5 And Samuel sayd, Gather all Israel to Mizpeh, and I will pray for you vnto the Lord.

6 And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and drew water, and poured it out before the Lord, and fasted the same day, and said there, We haue sinned against the Lord. And Samuel iudgeth the children of Israel in Mizpeh.

7 When the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the princes of the Philistines went up against Israel: and when the children of Israel heard that, they were afrayd of the Philistines.

8 And the children of Israel sayd to Samuel, Cease not to cry vnto the Lord our God for vs, that hee may saue vs out of the hand of the Philistines.

9 Then Samuel tooke a sucking lambe, and offered it altogether for a burnt offering vnto the Lord, and Samuel cried vnto the Lord for Israel, and the Lord heard him.

10 And as Samuel offered the burnt offering, the Philistines came to fight against Israel: but the Lord thundered with a great thunder that day vpon the Philistines, and scattered them: so they were slaine before Israel.

11 And the men of Israel went from Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them vntill they came vnder Beth-car.

12 Then Samuel tooke a stone, and pitched it betwene Mizpeh and Sichen, and called the name thereof, Eben-ezer, and he sayd, Vnto this day hath the Lord holpen vs.

13 ¶ So the Philistines were brought vnder, and they came no more againe into the coasts of Israel, and the hand of the Lord was against the Philistines all the dayes of Samuel.

14 Also the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel, were restored to Israel, from Ekron euen vnto Gath: and Israel deliuered the coasts of the same out of the hands of the Philistines: and there was peace betwene Israel and the Amorites.

15 And Samuel iudgeth Israel all the dayes of his life.

16 And went about yere by yere to Beth-el, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and iudgeth Israel in all those places.

17 Afterward he returned to Ramah: for there was his house, and there he iudgeth Israel: also he built an altar there vnto the Lord.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Samuel maketh his sonnes Iudges ouer Israel, who follow not his steps. 3 The Israelites aske a King. 11 Samuel declareth in what state they should bee vnder the King. 19 Notwithstanding they aske one still, and the Lord willet Samuel to grant vnto them.

When Samuel was now become old, hee made his sonnes Iudges ouer Israel.

2 (And the name of his eldest sonne was Joel, and the name of the second Abiah) euen Iudges in Beer-sheba.

3 And his sonnes walked not in his wayes, but turned aside after lucre, & tooke rewardes, and peruerred the iudgement.

4 Wherefore all the Elders of Israel gathered them together, and came to Samuel vnto Ramah.

5 And sayd vnto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy sonnes walke not in thy wayes: make vs now a king to iudge vs like all nations.

6 But the thing displeased Samuel, when they sayd, Giue vs a king to iudge vs: and Samuel prayed vnto the Lord.

7 And the Lord sayde vnto Samuel, heare the voyce of the people in all that they shall say vnto thee: for they haue not cast thee ther away, but they haue call me away, that I should not reigne ouer them.

8 As they haue euer done since I brought them out of Egypt euen vnto this day, (and haue forsaken mee, and serued other gods) euen so doe they vnto thee.

9 Now therefore hearken vnto their voice: howbeit yet I testifie vnto them, and shew them the manner of the king that shall reigne ouer them.

10 ¶ So Samuel tolde all the words of the Lord vnto the people that asked a king of him.

11 And he said, This shall be the manner of the king that shall reigne ouer you: hee will take your sonnes, and appoint them to his charettes, and to be his horsemen, and some shall run before his charet.

12 Also he will make them his captaynes ouer thousandes, and captaynes ouer fifties, and to eare his ground, and to reape his harvest, and to make instruments of warre, and the things that serue for his charettes.

13 He will also take your daughters, and make them Apocretaries, and Cookes, and Bakers.

14 And he will take your fields, and your vineyardes, and your best Oliue trees, and giue them to his seruants.

15 And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyardes, and giue it to his leuitiches, and to his seruants.

16 And hee will take your men seruants, and your maide seruants, and the chiefe of your yong men, and your asses, and put them to his worke.

17 He will take the tenth of your sheepe, and ye shall be his seruants.

18 And ye shall cry out at that day, because of your king, whom ye haue chosen you, and the Lord will not heare you at that day.

19 But the people would not heare the voice of Samuel, but did say, Nay, but there shall be a king ouer vs.

20 And we also will be like all other nations, and our king shall iudge vs, and got out before vs, and fight our battels.

21 Therefore when Samuel heard all the words of the people, he reheard them in the eares of the Lord.

22 And the Lord said to Samuel, I hearken vnto their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel layd vnto the men of Israel, Doe every man vnto his cite.

CHAP. IX.

3 Saul seeking his fathers ass, by the counsell of his seruants goeth to Samuel. 4 The Prophets called Seers. 5 The Lord reuelled to Samuel Sauls coming, commanding him to anoint him king. 22 Samuel bringeth Saul to the feast.

There was now a man of Beniamin, mightie in power, named Kish, the sonne of Abiel, the sonne of Zeror, the sonne of Berchoiah, the sonne of Abiah, the sonne of a man of Iemini.

2 And hee had a sonne called Saul, a goodly yong man and a faire: so that among the children of Israel there was none goodlier then he: from the shoulders yward he was biter then any of the people.

3 And the asses of Kish Sauls father were lost: therefore Kish sayd to Saul his sonne, Take now one of the seruants with thee, and arise, go and seeke the asses.

4 So hee passed throught mount Ephraim, and went throught the land of Shalishim, but they found them not. Then they went throught the land of Shalishim, and there they were not: hee went also throught the land of Iemini, but they found them not.

5 When they came to the land of Zuph, Saul sayd vnto his seruants that was with him, Come and let vs returne, lest my father leaue the care of asses, and take thought for vs.

6 And he sayd vnto him, Beholde now, in this cite is a man of God, and hee is an honourable man: all that hee sayeth, cometh to passe: let vs now goe together, if so be that hee can shew vs what way wee may goe.

7 Then sayd Saul to his seruants, Tell them, let vs goe: but what shall we bring vnto the man? For the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is no present to bring to the man of God: what haue we?

8 And the seruants answered Saul againe, and sayd, Beholde, I haue found about mee the fourth part of a shekel of silver: that will I giue the man of God, to tell vs our way.

9 (Before time in Israel, when a man went to seeke an answer of God, thus hee spake, Come, and let vs go to the Seer: for hee that is called now a Prophet, was in the olde time called a Seer.)

10 Then sayd Saul to his seruants, Tell sayd, come, let vs goe: so they went into the city where the man of God was.

11 ¶ And as they were going by the high way to the city, they found maidens that came out to draw water, and sayd vnto them, Is there here a Seer?

12 And they answered them, and sayd, Yea: loe, he is before you: make haste now, for hee came this day to the cite: for there is an offering of the people this day in the high place.

13 When ye shall come into the city: ye shall finde him straightway, yet hee come up to the hie place to eate: for the people will not eate before hee come, because hee will sacrifice: and then eate they that be bidden to the feast: now therefore goe vp: for euen now shall ye finde him.

14 Then they went vp into the city, and when they were come into the midwes of the cite, Samuel came out against them to goe vp to the hie place.

15 ¶ But the Lord had reuelled to Samuel secretly (a day before Saul came) saying,

16 To morrow about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Beniamin: him shalt thou anoint to be gouernour ouer my people Israel, that he may save my people out of the hands of the Philistines: for I haue looked vpon my people, and their cries are come vnto me.

17 When Samuel therefore saw Saul, the Lord and wered him, See, this is the man whom I spake to thee of, hee shall rule my people.

e To proue if they will forsake their wicked purpose.

1 Nahash the Ammonite warreth against Israel, who asketh help of the Israelites: & Saul promiseth help. 23 The Ammonites are slain. 24 The kingdome is renewed.

When Nahash the Ammonite came by, and besieged Jabesh Gilead: and all the men of Jabesh sayd unto Nahash, Make a covenant with vs, and we will be thy servants.

2 And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, On this condition will I make a covenant with you, that I may thrust out all your right eyes, and bring that shame upon all Israel.

3 To whom the Elders of Jabesh sayd, Give vs seven dayes respite, that we may send messengers unto all the coasts of Israel: and then if no man deliver vs, we will come out to thee.

4 Then came the messengers to Gibeah of Saul, and told these tidings in the ears of the people: and all the people lift up their voices and wept.

5 And behold, Saul came following the cartell out of the feld, and Saul saye, Alas! woe to this people, that they weep: and they tolde him the tidings of the men of Jabesh.

6 Then the Spirit of God came upon Saul, when he heard these tidings, and he was exceeding angry.

7 And tooke a yoke of oxen, and hewen them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the coasts of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, Whosoever cometh not forth after Saul, and after Samuel, shall hee be secure. And the hand of the Lord fell on the people, and they came out: with one consent.

8 And when he numbered them in Beth-lehem, the children of Israel were three hundred thousand men: and the men of Judah three thousand.

9 Then they sayd unto the messengers that came, So say unto the men of Jabesh Gilead, To morrow by then the Sunne shall be downe, yet shall have helpe. And the messengers came and shewed it to the men of Jabesh, which were glad.

10 Therefore the men of Jabesh said, To morrow we will come out unto you, and ye shall doe with vs all that please you.

11 And when the morning was come, Saul put the people in three bandes, and they came in upon the hoste in the morning watch, and slew the Ammonites untill the heat of the day: and they that remained, were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

12 Then the people sayd unto Samuel, Is this hee that sayd, Shall Saul reigne over vs, being: thold men that was may layd them.

13 But Saul sayd, There shall no man wis this day, say to day the Lord hath saved Israel.

14 Then sayd Samuel unto the people, Come, that wee may goe to Gilgal, and renew the kingdome there.

15 So all the people went to Gilgal, and made Saul king: where before the Lord in Gilgal: and there they offered peace offerings before the Lord: and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoyced exceedingly.

2. Then Saul chose him three thousand of Israel: a thousand were with Saul in Bethshann, and in mount Beth-el, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent every one to his tent.

3 And Jonathan smote the garrison of the Philistines, that was in the <sup>1</sup>hill: and it came to the <sup>2</sup>Philistines ears: and Saul blew the <sup>3</sup>trumpet throughout all the land, saying, <sup>4</sup>Deare, D ye Churches.

4. And all Israel heard say, Saul hath destroyed a generation of the Philistines: wherefore Israel was bad in abomination with the Philistines; and the people gathered together after Saul to Gilgal.

5. The Philistines also gathered themselves together to fight with Israel, their chariots and charioteers, and the thousand bolsters, for the people was like the sand which is by the sea-shore in multitude, & came by and pitched in Bethmahel Gathward from Bethmen.

6 And when the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait (for the people were in distress) the people hid themselves in caves and in holds, and in rocks, and in towers, and in pits.

7 And some of the Ephraim went over Jordan unto the land of Gad and Gilead, and Saul was yet in Gilgal, and all the people for feare followed him.

8: And he carried Menahem away, according unto the time that Sammel had appointed: but Saul came not to Gilgal, therefore the people were scattered from him.

9 And Saul says, Bring a burnt offering to me, and peace offerings: and he offered a burnt offering.

15 And Samuel arose, and gave him by Saul numbered the people that were founde with him, about six hundred men.

16 And Saul and Jonathan his sonne, and the people that were found with them,
had their abiding in Gilead of Benjamin:
but the Philistines pitched in Bethmah.

17 And there came out of the house of the Philistines a three hundred to destroy, one band turned unto the way of Ephraim unto the field of Beth-lehem.

18 And another band turned toward the way to Beth-lehem, and the third band turned toward the way of the coast that look-

19 Then was there no smith found any more all the land of Israel: for the Philistines sayd, Lest the Hebrews make them swords of speares.

20 Therefore all the Israelites went downe to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share, his mattocke, and his axe, and his wedding hook.

21 For they had a file for the share, and for the mattocke, and for the speere, and for the axe, and for to sharpen the goade.

22 And when the day of battell was come, there was neither sword, nor speere found in the handes of any of the people that were with Saul and with Jonathan: but only with Saul and Jonathan his sonne was there found.

23 And the garrison of the Philistines came out to the passage of Bethmah.

CHAP. XIII.

14 Jonathan and his armour bearer performs to fight. 24 Saul hindereth the people by saying, not to eat till morning. 32 The people sin with the blood. 38 Saul would put Jonathan to death.
45 The people deliver him.

Then on a day Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go out toward the Philistines garrison, that is toward the other side, but he told not his father.

2 And Saul taried in the house of Gilead under a pomegranate tree, which was in Beth-gan, and the people that were with him, were about six hundred men.

3 And Abiah the sonne of Ahiah, a Canaanite brother, the sonne of Ahiah, the sonne of Elah, was the Lordes Priest in Gilgal, and there an Ephod: and the people knew not that Jonathan was gone.

4 And in the day whereby Jonathan thought to go out to the Philistines garrison, there was a sharp frost on the one side, and a sharp rinde on the other: the name of the one was called Doreh, and the name of the other Gheon.

5 The one rinde stretched forth the sword toward the Philistines, and the other was from the sword toward Saul.

6 And Jonathan sayd to the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go out into the garrison of these Philistines:
it may be that the Lord will make with us: for it is I not hard to the Lord to save with many or with few.

7 And he that bare his armour, sayd unto him, Doe all that is in thine heart: for where I stretched thee: behold, I will stretch thee as thou hast desired.

8 Then said Jonathan, Behold, we go out unto these men, and will fight our selvs unto them.

9 If they say on this hill to us, He will be come to you, then we will stand still in our place, and not go to them.

10 But if they say, Come up unto us, then we will go up: for the Lord hath delivered them into our hand: and this shall be a signe unto us.

11 And they both stretched themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines saw. And the Canaanite came out of the house to see what they had done.

12 And the men of the garrison and Saul and his armour bearer, and his, came up to see the word which they had saying. And Jonathan delivered unto his armour bearer, Come up after me: for the Lord hath delivered them into the hand of Israel.

13 And Jonathan went up first, and his armour bearer went up after him, and his armour bearer after him: and some fell before Jonathan, and his armour bearer: and some after him.

14 And the first slaughter which Jonathan and his armour bearer made, was a bush of thorns, as it does within half an acre of land, where the Canaanites were.

15 And there was a trench in the hill, and in the field, and among all the people the garrison also, which that went out to fight, were among themselves: and the earth remained: for it was thicken with farr of God.

16 And the hundred of Saul in Gilead of Benjamin saw, and beheld, and multitude was distressed, and Saul and they went.

17 Therefore said Saul unto the people that were with him, Heavily now and heavily is gone from us. And whither? he saith, Behold, Jonathan and his armour bearer were not there.

18 And Saul gave unto Abiah, Priest under the Ark of God, for the Ark of God was with him, and the thimble of David.

19 And when Saul talked with his people,

the nose, that was in the hoofs of the Philistines head further abroad, and increased: therefore Saul said unto the Philistines, Draw thine hand.

30 And Saul was assembled with all the people that were with him, and they came to the battell, and behold, every mans sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture.

31 Moreover, the Chereths that were with the Philistines befouled them, and were come with them into all parties of the host, even they also turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan.

32 Also all the men of Israel which had bid themselves in mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines were fled, they followed after them in the battell.

33 And so the Lord saved Israel that day: and the battell continued to Beth-aven.

34 And at that time the men of Israel were pressed with hunger: for Saul charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth a foode till night, that I may be avenged of mine enemies: so none of the people tasted any sustenance.

35 And all they of the lande came to a wood, where honie lay upon the ground.

36 And the people came into the wood, and behold, the honie drooped, and no man moued his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the oath.

37 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod, that was in his hand, and digged it in an honie combe, and put his hand to his mouth, and his eyes received light.

38 Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father made the people to sweare, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth sustenance this day: and the people were faint.

39 Then said Jonathan, My father hath troubled the land: see now how mine eyes are made cleare, because I have tasted a little of this honie.

40 How much more, if the people had eaten to day of the spoyle of their enemies which they found: for had they not bene now a greater slaughter among the Philistines?

41 And they smote the Philistines that day, from Bethmach to Aitalon, and the people were exceeding faint.

42 So the people turned to the spoyle, and tooke sheepe, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground, and the people did eat them with the blood.

43 Then men told Saul, saying, Behold, the people finne against the Lord, in that they eat with the blood. And hee layd, Ye have trespassers: coule a great stone vnto me this day.

44 Againe Saul said, Go abroad among the people, and bid them bring me euery man his peece, and euery man his sheepe, and slay them here, and eate, and sinne not against the Lord in eating with the blood. And the people brought euery man his peece in his hand that night, and slew them there.

45 Then Saul made an Altar vnto the Lord, and that it was the first Altar that hee made vnto the Lord.

46 And Saul said, Let vs goe downe after the Philistines by night, and spoyle them vntill the morning shine, and let vs not leaue a man of them. And they sayde, Doe whatsoever thou thinkest best. Then sayde the Priest, Let vs draw neere hither vnto God.

47 So Saul asked of God, saying, Shall I goe downe after the Philistines, will thou deliuer them into the hands of Israel? But he answered him not at that time.

48 And Saul said, All ye chiefes of the people, come ye hither, and knowe, and see by whom this sinne is done this day.

49 For as the Lord lieth, which saith, Israel, though it be done by Jonathan my sonne, hee shall die the death. But none of all the people answered him.

50 Then hee said vnto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my sonne will be on the other side. And the people said vnto Saul, Doe what thou thinkest best.

51 Then Saul said vnto the Lord God of Israel, Giue a perfect lot. And Jonathan and Saul were taken, but the people elcaped.

52 And Saul said, Cast lot betwene me and Jonathan my sonne. And Jonathan was taken.

53 Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan tolde him, and said, I tasted a little honie with the end of my rod, that was in mine hand, and loe, I must die.

54 Againe Saul answered, God doe it and more also, vntill thou die the death, Jonathan.

55 And the people said vnto Saul, What Jonathan did, who hath so mightily deliuered Israel: God forbid. As the Lord lieth, there shall not one haire of his head fall to the ground: for he hath wrought with God this day. So the people deliuered Jonathan, that he died not.

56 Then Saul came by from the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their stone place.

57 And Saul helde the kingdome ouer Israel, and fought against all his enemies on euery side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines: and whithersoever he went, hee handled them as wicked men.

58 Hee gathered also an hoste, and smote Amalek, and deliuered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them.

59 Now the sonnes of Saul were Jonathan, and Ishui, and Malchishua: and the names of his two daughters, the elder was called Merab, and the younger was named Michal.

60 And the name of Sauls wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz: and the name of his chiefe captaine was Abner the sonne of Neri, Sauls uncle.

f God in his eternall counsell neuer changeth nor repenteth as verse 29. though he seemeth to vs to repent, when any thing goeth contrary to his temporall election.

g This is the nature of hypocrites, to be impudent against the truth, to condemne others, and iustifie themselves.

Afterward Samuel sayde vnto Saul, The Lord sent mee to annoynt thee King ouer his people, ouer Israel: now therefore obey the voice of the words of the Lord.

2 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, I remember what Amalek did to Israel, howe they laide waie for them in the way, as they came vp from Egypt.

3 Now therefore goe, and smite Amalek, and destroy ye al that pertaineth vnto them, and haue no compassion on them, but slay both man and woman, both infant and suckling, both oxe, and sheepe, both camell and ass.

4 And Saul assembled the people, and numbred them in Teltan, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Iudah.

5 And Saul came to a citie of Amalek, and hee set watch at the river.

6 And Saul said vnto the Kenites, Go, depart, and get you downe from among the Amalekites, leaue I destroy you with them: for ye shewed mercie to all the children of Israel, when they came by from Egypt: and the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

7 So Saul smote the Amalekites from Hauilah as thou comest to Shur, that is before Egypt.

8 And tooke Agag the King of the Amalekites aliue, and destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

9 But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best sheepe, and the oxen, and the fat deakes, and the lambs, and all that was good, and they would not destroy them: but euery thing that was vile and nought worth, that they destroyed.

10 Then came the word of the Lord vnto Samuel, saying,

11 Hee repented mee that I haue made Saul king: for hee is turned from mee, and hath not performed my Commandements. And Samuel was moued, and cried vnto the Lord all night.

12 And when Samuel arose early to meete Saul in the morning, one tolde Samuel, saying, Saul is gone to Carmel: and behold hee hath made him there a place, from whence hee returned, and departed, and is gone downe to Gilgal.

13 Then Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said vnto him, Blessed bee thou of the Lord. I haue fulfilled the Commandement of the Lord.

14 But Samuel sayde, What meanest thou the bleating of the sheep in mine eares, and the lowing of the oxen which I heare?

15 And Saul answered, They haue brought them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the sheepe, and of the oxen, to sacrifice vnto the Lord thy God, and the remnant haue we destroyed.

16 Againe Samuel said to Saul, Let me tell thee what the Lord hath said to mee this night. And hee said vnto him, Say on.

17 Then Samuel said, When thou wast a little in thine owne sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel: for the Lord anoynted thee King ouer Israel.

18 And the Lord sent thee on a iourney, and said, Doe, and destroy those sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them, vntill thou destroy them.

19 Now wherefore hast thou not obeyed the voyce of the Lord, but hast turned to the pray, and hast done wickedly in the sight of the Lord?

20 And Saul sayde to Samuel, Yea, I haue obeyed the voyce of the Lord, and haue gone the way which the Lord sent me. I haue brought Agag the King of Amalek, and haue destroyed the Amalekites.

21 But the people tooke of the spoyle, sheepe & oxen, and the chiefeest of the things which should haue bene destroyed, to offer vnto the Lord thy God in Gilgal.

22 And Samuel said, Vath the Lord as great pleasure in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as when the voyce of the Lord is obeyed? behold, to obey is better then sacrifice, and to hearken is better then the fat of rammes.

23 For rebellion is as the sinne of witchcraft, and transgression is wickednesse and idolatrie. Because thou hast cast away the word of the Lord, therefore hee hath cast away thee from being king.

24 Then Saul said vnto Samuel, I haue sinned: for I haue transgressed the commandement of the Lord, and thy words, because I feared the people, and obeyed their voyce.

25 Now therefore I pray thee, take away my sinne, and turne againe with me, that I may worship the Lord.

26 But Samuel said vnto Saul, I will not return with thee: for thou hast cast away the word of the Lord, and the Lord hath cast away thee, that thou shalt not bee King ouer Israel.

27 And as Samuel turned himselfe to goe away, hee caught the lap of his coate, and it rent.

28 Then Samuel sayde vnto him, The Lord hath rent the kingdome of Israel from thee this day, & hath giuen it to thy neighbour, that is better then thou.

29 For in dede the strength of Israel will not lie no longer: for hee is not a man that hee should repent.

30 Then bee said, I haue sinned: but honour mee, I pray thee, before the Elders of my people, and before Israel, and turne againe with me, that I may worship the Lord thy God.

31 ¶ So Samuel turned againe, and followed Saul: & Saul worshipped the Lord.

32 Then sayd Samuel, Bying ye hither to mee Agag the king of the Amalekites:
and Agag came vnto him pleasantly, and Agag sayd, Truly the bitterness of death is past.

33 And Samuel said, As thy sword hath made women childlesse, so shall thy mother bee childlesse among other women. And Samuel bewet Agag in pieces before the Lord in Gilgal.

34 ¶ So Samuel departed to Ramah, and Saul went vp to his house to Gibeah of Saul.

35 And Samuel came no more to see Saul: untill the day of his death: but Samuel mourned for Saul, and the Lord repenteth that he made Saul king ouer Israel.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Samuel is reproved of God, & is sent to anoint Dauid. 7 God regardeth the heart. 13 The spirit of the Lord cometh vpon Dauid. 14 The wicked spirit is sent vpon Saul. 19 Saul sendeth for Dauid.

The Lord then sayd vnto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourne for Saul, seeing
I haue cast him away from reigning ouer
Israel: fill thine home with oyle, and come,
I will send thee to Ishai the Bethlehemitte: for I haue prouided me a King among his sonnes.

2 And Samuel said, How can I goe: for if Saul shall heare it, he will kill me. Then the Lord answered, Take an heifer: with thee, and say, I am come: to doe sacrifice to the Lord.

3 And call Ishai to the sacrifice, and I will shew thee what thou shalt doe, and thou shalt anoint vnto mee him whome I name vnto thee.

4 So Samuel did that the Lord bade him, and came to Beth-lehem, & the Elders of the Towne were astonished at his coming, and said, Comest thou peaceably?

5 And he answered, Peas: I am come to doe sacrifice vnto the Lord: sanctifie your selues, and come with me to the sacrifice.
And he sanctified Ishai and his sonnes, and called them to the sacrifice.

6 And when they were come, he looked on Eliab, and sayde, Surely the Lords anointed is before him.

7 But the Lord said vnto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, nor on the height of his stature, because I haue refused him: for God seeth not as man seeth: for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord beholdeth the heart.

8 Then Ishai called Adinadab, & made him come before Samuel. And hee sayde, Neither hath the Lord cholen this.

9 Then Ishai made Shammah come.
And hee sayde, Neither yet hath the Lord cholen him.

10 Againe Ishai made his seven sonnes to come before Samuel: and Samuel sayde vnto Ishai, The Lord hath cholen none of these.

11 Finally, Samuel sayde vnto Ishai, & Are there no more children but these? And he sayde, There remained yet a little one be-hinde, that keepeth the sheepe. Then Samuel sayd vnto Ishai, & Send and set him:

for we will not sit here till hee be come hither.

12 And he sent and brought him in: and hee was ruddie, and of a good countenance, and comely visage. And the Lord sayd, Arise, and anoint him, for this is he.

13 Then Samuel took the horne of oile, and anointed him in the middes of his brethren. And the Spirit of the Lord came vpon Dauid, from that day forward: then Samuel rose vp, and went to Ramah.

14 But the Spirit of the Lord departed from Saul, and an euill spirit sent of the Lord vexed him.

15 And Sauls seruants sayde vnto him, Beholde now, the euill spirit of God vexeth
thee.

16 Let our Lord therefore command thy seruants, that are before thee, to seek a man, that is a cunning player vpon the harpe:
that when the euill spirit of God cometh vpon thee, hee may play with his hand, and thou mayest be eased.

17 Saul then sayde vnto his seruants, Shew me a man, I pray you, that can play well, and bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of his seruants, and sayd, beholde, I haue found a sonne of Ishai, a Bethlehemitte, that can play, and is strong, balliant, and a man of warre, and wise in matters, and a comely person, and the Lord is with him.

19 ¶ Wherefore Saul sent messengers vnto Ishai, and sayd, Send me Dauid thy sonne, which is with the sheepe.

20 And Ishai tooke an ass laden with bread, and a flagon of wine, and a kin, and sent them by the hande of Dauid his sonne vnto Saul.

21 And Dauid came to Saul, and stood before him: and hee loued him very well, and he was his armour bearer.

22 And Saul sent to Ishai, saying, Let Dauid now remaine with mee: for he hath found fauour in my sight.

23 And so when the euill spirit of God came vpon Saul, Dauid tooke an harpe and played with his hande, and Saul was refreshed, and was eased: for the euill spirit departed from him.

mies to battell, and came together to Shobchoch, which is in Iudah, and pitched betwene Shobchoch and Azekah, in the coast of Dammm.

2 And Saul, and the men of Israel assembled, and pitched in the valley of Elah, and put themselves in battell aray to mee-te the Philistines.

3 And the Philistines stood on a moun-taine on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountaine on the other side: so a valley was betwene them.

4 ¶ Then came a man betweene them both out of the tents of the Philistines, na-bites and an hand breadth.

5 And had an helmet of brass upon his head, and a brigandine upon him: and the weight of his brigandine was five thousand shekels of brass.

6 And he had bootes of brass upon his legs, and a shield of brass upon his shoulders.

7 And the shaft of his speare was like a weavers beame: and his speare head weyed sixe hundred shekels of yron: and one bearing a shield went before him.

8 And he stood, and cried against the host of Israel, and sayd unto them, Why are yee come to let your battell in aray: am not I a Philistin, and you seruants to Saul: chule you a man for you, and let him come downe to me.

9 If he be able to fight with me, and kill me, then will wee be your seruants: but if I ouercome him, and kill him, then shall yee be our seruants, and serue vs.

10 Also the Philistin sayde, I defie the hoste of Israel this day: giue me a man that we may fight together.

11 When Saul and all Israel heard those wordes of the Philistin, they were discouraged, and greatly afraid.

12 ¶ Now this David was the sonne of an Ephrathite of Beth-lehem Iudah, named Ishai, which had eight sonnes: and this man was taken for an olde man in the dayes of Saul.

13 And the three eldest sonnes of Ishai went and followed Saul to the battell: and the names of his three sonnes that went to battell, were Eliab the Eldest, and the next Abinabab, and the third Shamamah.

14 So David was the least: and the three eldest went after Saul.

15 David also went, but hee returned from Saul to serue his fathers sheepe in Beth-lehem.

16 And the Philistin dwelt neere in the morning and evening, and continued fortie dayes.

17 And Ishai said unto David his sonne, Take nowe for thy brethren an Ephah of this parched coine, and these ten cakes, and runne to the hoste to thy brethren.

18 Also carie these ten fresh cheeres vnto
the captaine, and looke howe thy brethren fare, and receiue their pledge.

19 ¶ When Saul and they, and al the men of Israel were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistins.

20 ¶ So David rose by early in the moning, and left the sheepe with a keeper, and tooke and went as Ishai had commanded him, and came with in the compasse of the hoste: and the hoste went out in aray, and shouted in the battell.

21 For Israel and the Philistins had put themselves in aray, armie against armie.

22 And David left the things which hee bare, vnder the handes of the keeper of the carriage, and came into the hoste, and came and asked his brethren howe they did.

23 And as he talked with them, behold, the man that was betweene the two armies, came vp, (whose name was Goliath the Phi-listin of Gath) out of the armie of the Philistins, and spake such wordes, and David heard them.

24 And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, ran away from him, and were fore afraid.

25 For every man of Israel sayde, Sawe ye not this man that commeth vp: euen to reule Israel is hee come vp: and to him that killeth him will the King giue great riches, and will giue him his daughter, yea, and make his fathers house a free in Israel.

26 ¶ Then David spake to the men that stood with him, and said, What haue I done to the man that killeth this Philistin, and taketh away the shame from Israel: for who is this vncircumcised Philistin, that he should reule the hoste of the liuing God:

27 And the people answered him after this maner, saying, Thus shall it be done to the man that killeth him.

28 And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake vnto the men, and Eliab was very angry with David, and said, Why came hest thou downe hither: and with whom hast thou left those fewe sheepe in the wil-dernesse: I knowe thy pride and the malice of thine heart, that thou art come downe to see the battell.

29 ¶ Then David said, What haue I now done: Is there not a cause?

30 And hee departed from him into the presence of another, and spake of the same maner, and the people answered him according to the former wordes.

31 ¶ And they that heard the wordes which David spake, reuerenced them before Saul, which caused him to be brought.

32 So David said to Saul, Let no mans heart faile him, because of him: thy seruants will go, and fight with this Philistin.

33 And Saul said to David, Thou art not able to goe against this Philistin to fight with him: for thou art a boy, and he is a man of warre from his youth.

34 And David answered vnto Saul, Thy seruants kept his fathers sheepe, and there came a lion, and likewise a beare, and tooke a sheepe out of the flocke.

35 And I went out after him and smote him, & tooke it out of his mouth: and when hee arose against mee, I caught him by the beard, and smote him, and slew him.

36 So thy seruants slew both the lion, and the beare: therefore this vncircumcised Phi-listin shall be as one of them, seeing hee hath railed on the hoste of the liuing God.

37 ¶ Moreover, David says, The Lord that deliuered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the beare, he will de-liuer mee out of the hand of this Philistin.
¶ Then Saul sayde vnto David, Goe, and the Lord be with thee.

38 And Saul put his raiment vpon Da-uid, & put an helmet of brass vpon his head, and put a brigandine vpon him.

39 ¶ Then girded David his sworde vpon his raiment, and began to goe: for hee neuer

u It seemeth that he had shot on the North side of the stone, lest the boy should have espied David.

26 And Saul said nothing that day: for he thought, Some thing had befallen him, though he were cleane: or because he was not purified.

27 For on the morrow which was the second day of the month, David's place was empty: as when Saul said unto Jonathan his sonne, wherefore comest thou the sonne of Ishai to meate, neither yesterday nor to day?

28 And Jonathan answered unto Saul, David required of me, that he might goe to Beth lechem.

29 For he saith, Let me go, I pray thee: for our familie offereth a sacrifice in the citie, and my brother hath sent for me: therefore now if I have founde favour in thine eyes, let me go, I pray thee, and let my brethren: this is the cause that he cometh not unto the kings table.

30 Then was Saul angry with Jonathan, and said unto him, Thou a sonne of the wicked, rebellious woman, why dost thou that thou hast choicen the sonne of Ishai to the confusion, and to the confusion and shame of thy mother?

31 For as long as the sonne of Ishai liveth upon the earth, thou shalt not be established: neither the kingdom, wherefore now send and let him into me, for he is a backslider.

32 And Jonathan answered unto Saul his father, and saith unto him, Therefore shall he die: what hath he done?

33 And Saul said a heare, as him to his son, wherefore Jonathan knowest that it was determined of thy father to slay David?

34 And Jonathan arose from the table at a great anger: and he eat and drinke no meate the second day of the month: for he was soley for David, and because his father had reviled him.

35 On the next morning therefore Jonathan went out into the field, as at the time appointed with David, and a little boy with him.

36 And hee sayde unto his boy, Runne now, take the arrowes which I shote: and as the boy runneth, let an arrowe be upon him.

37 And when the boy was come to the place where the arrow was shot, Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cryed after the boy, and sayde, Is not the arrowe beyond thee?

38 And Jonathan cryed after the boy, Make speed, for the arrowe is fallen: and Jonathan's boy answered him the arrowes, and came to his master.

39 But the boy knew nothing: onely Jonathan and David knew the matter.

40 Then Jonathan gave his bow and arrowes unto the boy that was with him, and said unto him, For, take them unto the citie.

41 As soone as the boy was gone, David arose out of a place that was toward the South, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himselfe three times: and they kissed one another, and wept both running, till David exceeded.

42 Therefore Jonathan sayd to David, Doe in peace: that which we have promised is in the name of the Lord, saying, We have beene betweene me and thee, and betweene my men and betweene thy men, and we have sworn.

43 And he arose and departed, and Jonathan went into the citie.

CHAP. XXI.

David fleeth to Nob, and to Achish the Philistine. The king hath commanded me a certain thing, and David hath done it. Let no man know whereabout I see thee, what I have commanded thee: and I have appointed my servants to such and such places.

Then came David to Achish, the Philistine, and Achish was appointed at the meeting of David, and said unto him, As thy arrow alone, and no man with thee.

And David sayd to Achish the Philistine, The king hath commanded me a certain thing, and David hath done it. Let no man know whereabout I see thee, what I have commanded thee: and I have appointed my servants to such and such places.

Now therefore if thou hast any under thine hand, give me five cakes of bread, as much cometh to hand.

And the Philistine answered David, and sayde, There is no common bread under my hand, but there is hallowed bread, if the young men have kept themselves at least from women.

David then answered the Philistine, and sayde unto him, Certainly women have bene separate from us these two or three dayes since I came out, and the bread of the young men were holy, though the men were prophane, and how much more then shall we be, who sanctified this day in our vessels?

So the Philistine gave him hallowed bread, for there was no bread there, save the hallowed bread that was taken from before the Lord, to put there bread there, the day that it was taken away.

And there was the same day one of the servants of Saul, hiding before the king, named Doeg the Gishite, the chiefest of Saul's hearthen.

And David sayd unto Achish, Is there not here under thine hand a heare as a woman? For I have neither brought any morsel nor my horses with me, because the kings business required haste.

And the Philistine, the same day, took David to the Bethinim, which is toward the hall of the Philistine, and he took him in a cloth behind the ephod, if thou wilt take that to thee, take it: for there is none other here: And David sayd, There is none to that, give me.

And David arose, and fled the same day from the presence of Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath.

And the servants of Achish sayd unto him, Is not this David the king of the lande? did they not sling into him in damiers, saying, David hath slain his brother.

11 Then the king sent to call Achish the Philistine, the son of Achish, and his fa-of Achish.

ye conspired against me, thou and the sons of Achish, as that thou hast given him a

Then they tolde David, saying, Behold, the Philistines fight against Keilah, and laye the barne.

2 Therefore David asked counsell of the Lord, saying, Shall I goe and smite these Philistines? And the Lord answered David, Goe and smite the Philistines, and take Keilah.

3 And Davids men sayd unto him, Wee, we bee afraid here in Iudah, how much more if we come to Keilah against the hoste of the Philistines?

4 Then David asked counsell of the Lord again. And the Lord answered him, and sayd, Arise, goe downe to Keilah: for I will deliver the Philistines into thine hands.

5 And David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattell, and smote thence with a great slaughter: Thus David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 And when Abiathar the sonne of Ahi-melych came to David to Keilah, he brought an Ephod with him.

7 And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah, and Saul sayd, God hath delivered him into mine hand: for he is shut in, seeing hee is come into a cite that hath gates and barres.

8 Then Saul called all the people together to warre, for to goe downe to Keilah, and besiege David and his men.

9 And David having knowledge that Saul imagined mischief against him, sayd to Abiathar the Priest, Bring the Ephod.

10 Then sayd David, O Lord God of Israel, thy servant hath heard, that Saul is about to come to Keilah to destroy the cite for my sake.

11 Will the lord of Keilah deliver mee up into his handes, and will Saul come downe as thy servant hath heard? O Lord God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant. And the Lord sayd, Hee will come downe.

12 Then sayd David, Will the lord of Keilah deliver mee up, and the men that are with mee, into the handes of Saul?
And the Lord sayd, They will deliver thee up.

13 Then David and his men, which were about five hundred, arose, and depared out of Keilah, and went whither they could. And it was told Saul, that David was fled from Keilah, and hee left off his pursue.

14 And David abode in the wilderness in holes, and remained in a mountaine in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God delivered him not into his hand.

15 And David saw that Saul was come out for to seek his life: and David was in the wildernes of Ziph in the wood.

16 And Jonathan Sauls sonne arose and went to David into the wood, and comforted him in God.

17 And sayd unto him, Feare not: for the hand of Saul my father shall not finde thee, and thou shalt be King over Israel, and I shall be next unto thee: and alld Sauls intents shall be against thee.

18 So they became made a covenant betwe the Lord and David did remaine in the wood: but Jonathan went to his house.

19 Then came up the Ziphites to Saul to Zibah, saying, Dost not David hide himselfe in the holes, in the wood, in the hill of Parhalah which is on the right side of Bethanien?

20 Then therefore, O King, come downe according to all that thine heart can devise, and we will halvee to deliver him into the kings hands.

21 Then Saul said, He ye blessed of the Lord: for ye have had compassion on me.

22 Soe, I pray you, and prepare yet better: know and ke his place where he is haun-teth, and who hath seen him there: for it is sayd to me, he is subtle and crafty.

23 See therefore, and know all the secret places where hee lieth hid, and come ye againe to me with the certaintie, and I will reward you: and he shall be burnt in the land.
I will reach him out throughout all the wildernes of Iudah.

24 Then they arose and went to Ziph before Saul, but David and his men were in the wilderness of Ziph, in the place on the right hand of Bethanien.

25 Saul also and his men went to seek him, and they told David: wherefore hee came downe unto a rock, and abode in the wildernes of Ziph. And when Saul heard that, he followed after David in the wildernes of Ziph.

26 And Saul and his men went on the one side of the mountaine, and David and his men on the other side of the mountaine:
and David went backe to get downe the presence of Saul: for Saul and his men were passed David and his men went about to take them.

27 But there came a messenger to Saul, saying, Waite then, and come: for the Philistines have invaded the land.

28 Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing David, and went against the Philistines. Therefore they called that place, Bela-hammachok.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 David had in a cave secreted Saul, 10 He showeth Saul his innocencie. 18 Saul acknowledgeth his fault. 21 He can feth David to fowne who how hee shall save him.

1 David was then there, and stood in a hole in the cave. And when Saul was there, Saul was returned from the Philistines, they told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of En-gebi.

2 Then Saul took there three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to En-gebi and his alien upon the rocks among the wild goats.

3 And because to the shepherds by the

5 And the men of Dan brought him into the house of the Lord, where the Lord dwelt. And he said unto them, Behold, I will deliver this man into your hands, and you shall do to him as it shall seem good to you. Then the men of Dan arose, and cut off the tay of Samuels garment.

6 And afterward Samuels was touched in his heart, because he had cut off the taype which was on Sauls garment.

7 And he said unto his men, The Lord keep me from doing that thing unto my master the Lord answered, I will mine hand upon him for he is the anointed of the Lord.

8 So Samuels overcame his servants with these words, and suffered them not to do against him: so Saul arose up out of the camp, and went away.

9 And Saul also arose after that, and went out of the camp, and cried after Samuels saying, Come join the king. Then when Samuels had beheld him, Saul inclined his face to the earth, and bowed himself.

10 And Samuels said to Saul, I have done more than an hour to mine eyes, that Saul said, Samuels shall be called against thee.

11 Behold, this day thine eyes have been kept, that the Lord had delivered thee this day into mine hands in the time of mine hand. I will not lay mine hand upon thee, for thou art the anointed of the Lord.

12 Wherefore my father Saul, Behold, I have kept the tay of the garment in mine hand: in which I cut off the tay of the garment: I killed thee not. Stand up and see, that there is neither guilt nor wickedness in me, neither have I sinned against thee, yet thou pursuest after my soul to take it.

13 The Lord be true between thee and me, and the Lord avenge me of thee, and let not mine hand be upon thee.

14 According as the old proverb is said, Blindedness proceedeth from the witch, but mine hand be not upon thee.

15 After whom is the king of Israel come out: after whom dost thou pursue: after a dead dog, and after a flea?

16 The Lord therefore be true, I will be between thee and me, and let him plead my cause, and I deliver me out of thine hand.

17 When Sauls had made an end of speaking these words to Samuels, Saul said, As this thy voice, my son Samuels? And Samuels lift up his voice, and wept.

18 And he said to Saul, How art thou righteous toward me, that thou hast removed me from my place, and I have removed thee from thy place, and thou hast severed this day, that thou hast been with me, forasmuch as the Lord had chosen me in thine hands, thou wast mine heir.

19 For who shall find his enemy, and let him depart at free: wherefore the Lord render thee good for that thou hast done unto me this day.

20 For now, Behold, I know that thou shalt be king, & that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in thine hand.

21 Where now therefore wilt thou be the Lord, that thou wilt not deliver my seed after me, and that thou wilt not establish my name out of my fathers house.

22 So Samuels went unto Saul, & Samuels went home: but Saul and his men went up unto the hill.

E H A P. XXV.

1 Samuel dieth. 2 Nabal and Abigail. 3 The Lord killeth Nabal. 4 Abigail and Abimelech. 5 Michal a concubine. 6 Pharaoh.

Then Samuels died, and all Israel assembled, and mourned for him, and buried him in his own house at Ramah. And Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ephraim.

2 Nabal was a man, who had his possession in Carmel, and the man was exceeding mightie, and had three thousand sheepe, and a thousand goates, and he was flourishing his sheepe in Carmel.

3 The name also of the man was Nabal, and for name of his wife Abigail, and shee was a woman of singular wisdom, & beautiful, but the man was churlish and evil conditioned, and was of the familie of Eloth.

4 And Saul heard in the wilderness, that Nabal did heare his sheepe.

5 Therefore Sauls sent ten young men, and Sauls boy into the young men, to go by to Carmel, and see to Nabal, and bid him in my name: how he doeth.

6 And thus shall you say to Nabal, Both thou and thine house, and all that thou hast, be in peace, wealth and prosperity.

7 Behold, I have heard, that thou hast sheeprs: now therefore send us some of thy sheeprs, and we will cut them up, and we will eat, and we will drink, and we will be merry, forasmuch as thou art flourishing in Carmel.

8 Like thy servants, and they will bring thee, whithersoever let these young men finde favour in thine eyes: (for we come in a good season) give, I pray thee, whatsoever cometh to thine hand unto thy servants, and to thy house Dauid.

9 And when Sauls young men came, they told Nabal all these words in the name of Dauid, and bidd their peace.

10 And Nabal answered Dauids servants, and sayd unto them, Dauid? and who is the name of Dauid? there be many servants now abroad, that shall away carry man from his master.

11 Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my flesh that I have killed for my sheeprs, and give it unto them, whom I know not where they be?

12 So Dauids servants turned their way, and went againe, and came, and told him all these things.

13 And Dauid said unto his men, Since they have refused to give, and they have killed every man his sheeprs: Dauid also stretched his sword. And about four hundred men went by after Dauid, and two hundred a horse by the 1 cartage.

14 Nowe one of the servants tolde Abigail Nabals wife, saying, Behold, Dauid sayd, Is this thy voyce, & my soune Dauid?

and Dauid sayd, It is my voyce, my lord,

g Hereby it appeareth, that the hypocrite persecuted Dauid against his owne conscience, and contrary to his promise.

18 And hee sayde, Wherefore doeth my lord thus persecute his seruant? for what haue I done? or what euill is in mine hand?

3 And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Bethshimon by the way side. Now David abode in the wilderness, and hee saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.

19 Nowe therefore I beleeue thee, let my lord the King heare the wordes of his seru-

4 (For Dauid had sent out spies, and vnderstoode that Saul was come in very hehne)

5 Then David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched, and when David beheld the place where Saul lay, and Abner the sonne of Ner which was his chiefe captaine, for Saul lay in the fort, and the people pitched round about him)

20 Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the Lord: for the king of Israel is come out to seeke a flea, as one would hunt a partridge in the moun-taines.

i As much as lay in them, they compelled him to idolatry, because they forced him to flee to the idolaters.

6 Then saide Dauid, and sayde to Abimelech the <sup>b</sup> Hittite, and to Abisai the sonne of Neraiad, brother to Ioaab, saying, Who will goe downe with mee to Saul to the holte? Then Abisai sayd, I will goe downe with thee.

7 So David and Abishai came downe to the people by night : and beholde, Saul lay sleeping within the fort, and his speare did sticke in the ground at his head, and Abner and the people lay round about him.

21 Then sayd Saul, I haue sinned: come againe, my sonne Dauid: for I will doe thee no more harme, because my soule was <sup>2</sup> precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I haue done foolishly, and haue erred exceedingly.

k Because thou savedst my life
this day.

8 ¶ Then sayd Abisai to Dauid, God hath closed thine enemies into thine hande this day: now therefore, I pray thee, let mee smite him once with a speare to the earth, and I will not smite him againe.

22 Then David answered, and said, Behold the Kings speare, let one of the young men come over and fetch it.

9 And David sayd to Abisai, Destroy him not: for who can lay his hand on the Lords Anointed, and be guiltlesse?

23 And let the Lord reward every man according to his<sup>1</sup> righteousness and faithfulness: for the Lord had delivered thee into mine handes this day, but I would not lay mine hand upon the Lordes Anointed.

1 Thus he protesteth his innocencie towards Saul, not defending his iniustice in the sight of God, in whose presencc none is righteous, Psal. 14. 3. & 130. 3.

IO HOPCOMER DAVID SAID, AS THE LORD liveth, either the Lord shall smite him, or his day shall come to die, or he shall descend into battell and perish.

24 And beholde, like as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes: so let my life be set by in thoyes of the Lord, that he may deliuer me out of all tribulation.

11 The Lord keepe me from laying mine hand vpon the Lordes Anointed: but, I pray thee, take now the speare that is at his head, and the pot of water, and let vs goe hence.

25 Then Saul sayd to Dauid, Blessed art thou my sonne Dauid: for thou shalt doe great things, and also pꝛeuaille. So Dauid went his way, and Saul returned to his place.

m To Gibeon of Benjamin.

12. So David took the spear & the por-of water from Gaius head, and they gate them away, and no man saw it, nor marked it, neither did any waite, but they were all sleepe: for the Lord had sent a dead sleepe upon them.

2 David fleeth to Achish king of Gath, who giveth him Ziklag. 8 David destroyeth certaine of the Philistines. 10 Achish is deceived by David.

13 Then David went into the other line, and stood on the top of an hill a farre off, a great space betweene them.

AD David sayd in his heart, I shall not see him againe: perishe one day by the hand of Saul: is it not better for me that I saue my selfe in the land of the Philistines, and that Saul may haue no hope of me to seke me any more in all the coastes of Israel, and so escape out of his hand?

a David distrusteth Gods protection, and therefore fleeth vnto the idolaters, who were enemies to Gods people.

14 And David cryed to the people, and to Abner the sonne of Ner, saying, + Dearest thou not Abner? Then Abner answered, and sayde, What art thou that cryest to the king?

2 Dauid therefore arose, and hee, and the six hundred men that were with him, went vnto Achish the sonne of Maach King of Gath.

b Thus God by his providence

15 And David sayd to Abner, Art not thou a man? and who is like thee in Israel: wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the King? for there came one of the folke in to destroy the king thy lord.

3 And David dwelt with Achish, at enemies hearts, and maketh them to favour his in 4 And it was tolde Saul that David was fled to Gath: so he sought no more for him.

c Let thine officers appoint me a place.

5 And David layd unto Achish, If I haue now found grace in thine eyes, let them giue mee a place in some other citie of the countrey, that I may dwell there: for why should thy servant dwell in the head citie of the kingdome with thee?

6 Then Achish gaue him Ziklag that same day: therefore Ziklag pertaineth vnto the Kings of Iudah vnto this day.

7 And the time that David dwelt in the countrey of the Philistins, was foure moneths and certaine dayes.

d These are the wicked Canaanites, whom God had appointed to be destroyed.

8 Then David and his men went by, and invaded the Geshurites, and the Gittites, and the Amalekites: for they inhabited the land from the beginning, from the way, as thou goest to Shur, euen vnto the land of Egypt.

9 Then David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman aliue, and tooke sheepe, and oxen, and asses, and camels, and apparell, and returned and came to Achish.

Or against whom.

10 And Achish sayde, Where haue yee bene a routing this day? And David answered, Against the South of Iudah, and against the South of the Jerahmeelites, and against the South of the Kenites.

e Which were a familie of the tribe of Iudah, 1. Chron. 2. 39.

11 And David spared neither man nor woman aliue, to bring them to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell on vs, and say, So did David, and so will bee his manner all the while that he dwelleth in the countrey of the Philistins.

Or, he doth surely abhorre his people.

12 And Achish beleued David, saying, He hath made his people of Israel utterly to abhorre him: therefore he shall bee my seruant for euer.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 David hath the chiefe charge promised about Achish. 8 Saul consulteth with a witch, and shee causeth him to speake with Samuel, 18 who declareth his ruine.

Now at that time the Philistins assembled their hands and army to fight with Israel: therefore Achish sayd to David, Be sure, thou shalt goe out with mee to the battell, thou, and thy men.

a Albeit it was a great griefe to David to fight against the people of God, yet such was his infirmity, he durst not denie him. Chap. 25. 1.

2 And David sayde to Achish, Surely thou shalt knowe what thy seruant can doe. And Achish sayde to David, Surely I will make thee keeper of mine head for euer.

b According to the commandment of God, Exod. 22. 18. Deut. 18. 10, 11.

3 Samuel was then dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah his owne citie: and Saul had put away the soothsayers, and the soothsayers out of the land.

4 Then the Philistins assembled themselves, and came, and pitched in Shunem, and Saul assembled all Israel, and they pitched in Gilboa.

5 And when Saul sawe the host of the Philistins, hee was afraid, and his heart was sore troubled.

6 Therefore Saul asked counsell of the Lord, and the Lord answered him not, neither by dreames, nor by Urim, nor yet by Prophets.

7 Then sayd Saul vnto his seruants, Seeke mee a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may goe to her, and aske of her. And his seruants sayde to him, Behold, there is a woman at Endor that hath a familiar spirit.

8 Then Saul changed himselfe and put on other raiment, and hee went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and hee sayde, I pray thee, coniecture vnto mee by the familiar spirit, and bring mee him by whome I shall name vnto thee.

9 And the woman sayde vnto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath destroyed the soothsayers, and the soothsayers out of the land: wherefore then seekest thou to take me in a snare to cause me to die?

10 And Saul sware to her by the Lord, saying, As the Lord liueth, no harme shall come to thee for this thing.

11 Then sayd the woman, Whom shall I bring vp vnto thee? And hee answered, Bring me by Samuel.

12 And when the woman sawe Samuel, she cryed with a loud voyce, and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceiued me? for thou art Saul.

13 And the king sayd vnto her, Bee not afraid: for what samest thou? And the woman sayde vnto Saul, I sawe gods ascending by out of the earth.

14 Then he sayd vnto her, What fashion is he of? And shee answered, An olde man cometh by lapped in a mantle: and Saul knewe that it was Samuel, and hee enclined his face to the ground, and bowed himselfe.

15 And Samuel sayd to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted mee, to bring mee by? Then Saul answered, I am in great distress: for the Philistins make warre against mee, and God is departed from mee, and answereth mee no more, neither by Prophets, neither by dreames: therefore I haue called thee, that thou mayest tell mee what I shall doe.

16 Then sayd Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou aske of mee, seeing the Lord is gone from thee, and is thine enemy?

17 Euen the Lord hath done to a him, as hee spake by mine hand: for the Lord will rent the kingdome out of thine hand, and giue it thy neighbour David.

18 Because thou obeydest not the voyce of the Lord, nor executedst his strict iudgement vpon the Amalekites, therefore hath the Lord done this vnto thee this day.

19 Whereouer the Lord will deliuer Israel with thee into the handes of the Philistins: and to morrow shalt thou and thy formes bee with mee, and the Lord shall giue gave the hosts of Israel into the hand of the Philistims.

20 Then Saul fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel, so that there was no strength in him: for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night.

21 Then the woman came unto Saul, and said that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, See, thine handmaid hath obeyed thy voice, and I have put my soule in mine hand, and have obeyed thy words which thou saydest unto me.

22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thine handmaide, and let me set a morsell of bread before thee, that thou mayest eat, and get thee strength, and goe on thy journey.

23 But he refused, and said, I will not eat: but his servants & the woman together compelled him, and he obeyed their voice: so he arose from the earth, and sat on the bed.

24 Now the woman had a fat calfe in the house, and she hastened, and killed it, and tooke floure, and kneaded it, and baked of it: unleavened bread.

25 Then she brought them before Saul, and besoug his servants: and when they had eaten, they stood up, and went away the same night.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 The Princes of the Philistims cause David to be sent backe from the battell against Israel, because they distrusted him.

2 The Philistims were gathered together with all their armies in Apphek: and the Philistines pitched by the fountain, which is in Jizreel.

3 And the princes of the Philistims were forty by hundreds, and thousands, but David & his men came behind with Achish.

4 Then sayde the princes of the Philistims, What doe these things here? And Achish sayde unto the princes of the Philistims, Is not this David the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who hath bene with me these dayes, & of these yeeres, and I have found nothing in him, since he dwelt with me unto this daye?

5 But the Princes of the Philistims were wroth with him, and the princes of the Philistims said unto him, Send this fellowe backe, that hee may goe againe to his place, whither thou hast appointed him, and let him not goe home with vs to battell, lest that in the battell hee be an adversarie to vs: for wherewith should hee obtaine the favour of his master? should it not bee with the heads of these men?

6 Is not this David of whom they sang in dances, saying, Saul slew his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

7 Then Achish called David, and said unto him, As the Lord liveth, thou hast bene upright and good in my sight: when thou comest out and in with me in the host, neither have I found euill with thee since thou camest to me unto this day, but I the princes doe not favour thee.

8 Therefore now returne, and goe in peace, that thou dispute not the princes of the Philistims.

9 And David said unto Achish, But what have I done? & what hath thou found in thy servant as long as I have bene with thee unto this day, that I may not goe and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?

10 Achish then answered, and said to David, I know thou pleasest mee, as an Angel of God: but the Princes of the Philistims have sayde, Let him not goe by with vs to battell.

11 Therefore now rise by early in the morning with thy maisters servants that are come with thee: and when ye be by early, as soon as ye have light, depart.

12 So David and his men rose by early to depart in the morning, and to returne into the land of the Philistims: and the Philistims went by to Jizreel.

CHAP. XXX.

1 The Amalekites burne Ziklag. 2 Davids two wives are taken prisoners. 3 The people would stone him. 4 He asketh counsell of the Lord, & pursuing his enemies, recovereth the pray. 5 He divideth equally. 6 And sendeth part to his friends.

1 When David and his men were come to Ziklag: the third day, the Amalekites had invaded upon the South, even unto Ziklag, and had smitten Ziklag, and burnt it with fire.

2 And had taken the women that were therein, prisoners, both small and great, and slew not a man, but carried them away, and went their wayes.

3 So David and his men came to the cite, and beheld, it was burnt with fire, and their wives, and their sonnes, and their daughters were taken prisoners.

4 Then David and the people that was with him, lift up their voices and wept, until they could weepe no more.

5 Davids two wives were taken prisoners also, Ahimelech the Gethite, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And David was in great sorrow: for the people intended to stone him, because the hearts of all the people were vexed every man for his sonnes and for his daughters: but David comforted himselfe in the Lord his God.

7 And David sayde to Abiathar the Priest Ahimelechs sonne, I pray thee, bring mee the Ephod. And Abiathar brought the Ephod to David.

8 Then David asked counsell at the Lord, saying, Shall I follow after this company? shall I overtake them? And he answered him, Follow: for thou shalt surely overtake them, and recover all.

9 So David and his six hundred men that were with him, went, and came to the river Besor, where a part of them abode.

10 And David and foure hundred men followed (for two hundred abode behind, being too wearie to goe over the river Besor).

11 And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and hee did eat, and they gave him water to drinke.

12 And they gave him a few figges, and two

This dissimulation cannot be excused: for it grieved him to goe against the people of God.

With them that fled vnto thee from Saul,

After that he departed from Achish. That is, destroyed the cite,

For these onely remained in the cite, when the men were gone to waste.

Thus we see, that in troubles and aduersitie we doe not consider Gods providence but like raging beasts forget both our owne ductie, and conserne Gods appointment ouer vs.

Though God seeme to leave vs for a time, yet if we trust in him, we shalbe sure to finde comfort. For God by his providence both provided for the necessity of the poore stranger, & made him a guide to David to accomplish his enterprise, two clusters of raffins: and when he had eaten, his spirit came to him againe: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water in thre dayes, and thre nights.

13 ¶ And Dauid sayd vnto him, To whome belongeth thou? and whence art thou? And hee sayde, I am a yong man of Egypt, and leruant to an Amalekite: and my maister left mee thre dayes agoe, because I fell sicke.

14 ¶ Hee roused vpon the South of Chereth, and vpon the coast belonging to Iudah, and vpon the South of Caleb, and we burnt Ziklag with fire.

15 ¶ And Dauid said vnto him, Canst thou bring mee to this companie? and hee sayd, I sweare vnto mee by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliuer me into the hands of my maister, and I will bring thee to this companie.

16 ¶ And when he had brought him thither, behold, they lay scattered abroad vpon all the earth eating and drinkeing, and dancing, because of all the great pray that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Iudah.

17 ¶ And Dauid smote them from the twilight, euen vnto the euening: of the next morning, so that there escaped not a man of them, save foure hundred yong men, which rode vpon camels, and fled.

18 ¶ And Dauid recovered all that the Amalekites had taken: and Dauid refused his two wives.

19 ¶ And they lacked nothing, small or great, some of daughters, of of the spoyle of all that they had taken away: Dauid recovered them all.

20 ¶ Dauid also tooke all the sheepe, and the oxen, and they draue them before his cattell, and said, This is Dauids may.

21 ¶ And Dauid came to the two hundred men that were too wearike for to followe Dauid: whom they had made also to abide at the riuer Besor: and they came to meete Dauid, and to meete the people that were with him: so when Dauid came neere to the people, he saluted them.

22 ¶ Then answered all the euill and wicked of the men that went with Dauid, and said, Because they went not with vs, therefore will we giue them none of the pray that we haue recovered, save to euery man his wife and his children: therefore let them carie them away and depart.

23 ¶ Then said Dauid, Ye shall not doe so, my brethren, with that which the Lord hath giuen vs, who hath preferred vs, and deliuered the companie that came against vs, into our hands.

24 ¶ For who will obey you in this matter? but as his part is that goeth downe to the battell, so shall his part be that tarrieth by the stiffe: they shall part alike.

25 ¶ So from that day forward he made it a statute & a law in Israel, vntill this day.

26 ¶ ¶ Callen Dauid therefore came to Ziklag, hee sent of the pray vnto the Elders of Iudah, and to his friends, saying, See, there is a blessing for you of the spoyle of the enemies of the Lord.

27 ¶ Sent to them of Beth-el, & to them of Shouh Ramoth, and to them of Iarce, 28 And to them of Arzer, and to them of Shiphmoth, and to them of Chemoas, 29 And to them of Rachab, and to them of the cities of the Ierahmeelites, & to them of the cities of the Benites,

30 And to them of Haymah, and to them of Chob-asban, and to them of Achach, 31 And to them of Hebron, and to all the places where Dauid and his men had haunted.

CHAP. XXXI.

¶ Saul killeth himselfe. 6 His children are slaine in the battell. 12 The men of Iabesh tooke downe his body which was hanged on the wall.

NOW the Philistines fought against Israel, and the men of Israel fled away from the Philistines, and they fell betwixt I wounded in mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines pressed sore vpon Saul and his sonnes, & slew Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Balchisua, Dauids sonnes.

3 And when the battell went sore against Saul, the archers and bowmen hit him, and he was sore wounded of the archers.

4 ¶ Then said Saul vnto his armour bearer, Draw out the sword, and thrust mee thorow therewith, least the vncircumcised come and thrust mee thorow and mocke mee: but his armour bearer would not, for he was sore afraid. Therefore Saul tooke a sword, and fell vpon it.

5 And when his armour bearer saw that Saul was dead, hee fell likewise vpon his sword, and died with him.

6 ¶ So Saul died, and his three sonnes, and his armour bearer, and all his men, that came day together.

7 ¶ And when the men of Israel that were on the other side of the valley, and they on the other side: Jordan saw that the men of Israel were put to flight, and that Saul and his sonnes were dead, then they left the cities, and ran away: and the Philistines came and dwelt with them.

8 ¶ And on the morrow, when the Philistines were come to spoyle them that were slaine, they found Saul and his three sonnes lying in mount Gilboa.

9 And they cut off his head, and stripped him out of his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines on every side, that they should publish it in the temple of their idols and among the people.

10 And they layde vp his armour in the house of Achisroch, but they hanged vp his body on the wall of Beth-han.

11 ¶ ¶ Callen the inhabitants of Iabesh Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul.

12 ¶ Then they arose (as many as were strong men) and went all night, and tooke the bodies of Saul, and the bodies of his sonnes from the wall of Beth-han, and came to Iabesh, and burnt them there.

13 And tooke their bones, and buried them vnder a tree at Iabesh, and fasted seven dayes.

g For others were in all ages had in most reuerence euen among the heathen.

h The wicked in their pompe and pleasures consider not the iudgement of God, which is then at hand to smite them.

i Some read, & vnto the morrow of the two euening: that is three dayes.

k Which the Amalekites had taken of others, & Dauid from them besides the goods of Ziklag.

l Under these are comprehended the cattell and goods, which appertained to euery man.

m Some referre these words to Dauid, that he alleaged an olde custome and law, as if it were written, It is both now, and hath beene euer.

The second booke of Samuel.

THE ARGUMENT.

His booke and the former bear the title of Samuel, because they containe the conception, natirity, and the whole course of his life, and also the liues and acts of two Kings, to wit, of Saul and Da-uid, whom he anointed and consecrated Kings by the ordinance of God. And as the first booke containeth those things, which God brought to passe among this people vnder the gouernement of Samuel and Saul: so this second booke declareth the noble acts of Dauid after the death of Saul, when he began to reigne, vnto the end of his kingdome: and how the same by him was wonderfully augmented alto his great troubles and dangers, which he sustained both within his house and without: what horrible and dangerous iniuries, plots, & rapiers, and treasons were wrought against him, partly by false counsellers, false friends, and flatterers, and partly by some of his owne children and people: and how by Gods assistance he overcame all difficulties, and enjoyed his kingdome in rest and peace: In the person of Dauid the Scripture setteth forth Christ Iesue, the chiefe King, who came of Dauid according to the flesh, and was persecuted on every side with outward and inward enemies, as well in his owne person, as in his members, but at length hee ouercometh all his enemies, and giveth his Church victorie against all power both spirituall and temporall: and so reigneth with them, King for euermore.

CHAP. I.

*It was told Dauid of Sauls death. 19. His answer how hee was to be slaine that brought the tidings.
 19. He lamenteth the death of Saul & Jonathan.*

AFTER the death of Saul, when Dauid was returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and had bene two dayes in Bethlag.

2 Behold, a man came the third day out of the hoste from Saul with his clothes rent, and earth vpon his head:
 and when he came to Dauid, hee fell to the earth, and did obeysance.

3 Then Dauid said vnto him, Whence comest thou? And hee said vnto him, Out of the hoste of Israel I am escaped.

4 And Dauid said vnto him, What is done? I pray thee, tell mee. Then hee said, That the people is fled from the battell, and many of the people are querethowen, and dead, and also Saul and Jonathan his sonne are dead.

5 And Dauid said vnto the yong man that told it him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his sonne be dead?

6 Then the yong man that told him, answered, As I came to mount Gilboa, behold, Saul leaned vpon his speare, and loe, the charrets and horsemen followed hard after him.

7 And when hee looked backe, he saw me, and called me. And I answered, Here am I.

8 And hee said vnto mee, What art thou?
 And I answered him, I am an Amalekite.

9 Then hee said vnto mee, I pray thee, come vpon mee, and slay mee: for anguish is come vpon mee, because my life is yet whole in me.

10 So I came vpon him, and slew him, and because I was sure that hee could not liue, after that hee had fallen. I tooke the crowne that was vpon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arme, and brought them hither vnto my lord.

11 Then Dauid tooke hold on his clothes, and rent them, and likewise all the men that were with him.

12 And they mourned and wept, and fa-reg untill euen, for Saul and for Jonathan his sonne, and for the people of the Lord, and for the house of Israel, because they were slaine with the sword.

13 ¶ Afterward Dauid sayde vnto the yong man that tolde it him, Whence art thou? And he answered, I am the sonne of a stranger an Amalekite.

14 And Dauid said vnto him, ¶ How wast thou not afraid, to put forth thine hand to destroy the Anointed of the Lord?

15 Then Dauid called one of his yong men, and said, Come hither, and fall vpon him.
 And hee smote him that hee died.

16 Then said Dauid vnto him, Thy blood bee vpon thine owne head: for thine owne mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I haue slaine the Lords anointed.

17 ¶ Then Dauid mourned with this lamentation ouer Saul, and ouer Jonathan his sonne.

18 (Altho hee hade them teach the children of Iudah to a shote, as it is written in the booke of I Iaher.)

19 O noble Israel, ¶ hee is slaine vpon thy high places: how are the mighty overthrowen?

20 ¶ Tell it not in Gath, nor publish it in the streetes of Ashkelon, lest the daughters of the Philistines reioyce, lest the daughters of the vncircumcised triumph.

21 See mountaines of Gilboa, vpon you be neither dew nor raine, nor be there fields of offerings: for there the shield of Saul, as though hee had not bene anointed with oyle.

22 The bow of Jonathan neuer turned backe, neither did the sword of Saul returne empty from the blood of the slaine, and from the fat of the mighty.

23 Saul and Jonathan were louely and pleasant in their liues, and in their deaths they were not divided: they were swifter then eagles, they were stronger then lions.

24 See daughters of Israel, weep for Saul, which clothed you in scarlet, with pleasures, and halowed ornaments of golde vpon your apparel.

25 How were the mighty slaine in the midst of the battell? O Jonathan, thou wast slaine in thine high places.

26 What is mee for thee, my brother Jonathan?

e After the lamentation hee examined him againe.

David King over Iudah, Ishboetheth. II. Samuel. Afhel flaine, Warre betweene

m Either toward their husbands, or their children.

nathan : very kind hast thou becom vnto me:
thy loue to mee was wonderful, passing the loue of a woman: how are the mightie o-uerthrowen, and the weapons of warre destroyed?

C H A P. II.

1. David is anointed King in Hebron: 9. Abner maketh Ishboetheth king ouer Israel. 15. The battell of the seruants of David and Ishboetheth. 32. The buriall of Afhel.

a By the means of the Priest, as 1. Sam. 2. 3. 2.
and 2. Sam. 5. 19.

After this, David asked counsell of the Lord, saying, Shall I goe vp into any of the cities of Iudah? And the Lord layde vnto him, Goe vp. And David said, Calling shall I goe? And he then answered, Vnto Iebion.

b Which citie
was also called Kiriah-arba,
Ioth 14. 15.

2. So David went by thither: & his two wives also, Abinoam the Gileadite, and Abigail Nabals wife the Carmelite.

c In the time of his persecution.

3. And David brought by the men that were with him, every man with his household, and they dwelt in the cities of Iebion.

1. Sam. 31. 13.

4. Then the men of Iudah came, and there they anoynted David King ouer the house of Iudah. And they tolde David, saying, That the men of Iabesh Gilead buried Saul.

d According to his promise, which is to recompence them
that are merciful.

5. And David sent messengers vnto the men of Iabesh Gilead, and said vnto them, Blessed are ye of the Lord, that ye haue shewed such kindnesse vnto your lord Saul, that you haue buried him.

e So that you shall not want a captaine and a defender.

6. Therefore now the Lord shew mercie and crueltie vnto you: and I will recompense you this benefite, because ye haue done this thing.

f Ouer the ele-
uen tribes,

7. Therefore now let your hands bee strong, and be ye valiant: albeit you master Saul be dead, yet neuertheless the house of Iudah hath anoynted me king ouer them.

g After this time was expired, he reigned ouer all the country 33.
yeeres, Chap. 5. 5.

8. But Abner the sonne of Ner, that was captaine of Sauls hoste, tooke Ishboetheth the sonne of Saul, and brought him to Bethanaim.

9. And made him king ouer Gilead, and ouer the Amorites, and ouer Izyrel, and ouer Ephraim, and ouer Benjamin, and ouer all Israel.

10. Ishboetheth Sauls sonne was fourtie yeeres olde when he began to reigne ouer Israel, and reigned two yeeres: but the house of Iudah followed David.

11. (And the time which David reigned in Iebion ouer the house of Iudah, was seuen yeeres and sixe monethes.)

12. And Abner the sonne of Ner, and the seruants of Ishboetheth the son of Saul went out of Bethanaim to Gibeon.

13. And Joab the sonne of Zeruiah, and the seruants of David went out and met one another by the pool of Gibeon: and they fate downe, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

h Let vs see how they can handle their weapons.

14. Then Abner said to Joab, Let the yong men now arise, and play before vs.
And Joab said, Let them arise.

15. Then there arose, & stode ouer twentie of Benjamin by number, which were termed to Ishboetheth the sonne of Saul, and thirtie of the seruants of David.

16. And euerie one caught his fellow by the heape, and thrust his sword into his fellowes side, so they fell downe together: wherefore the place was called Iphelah-bazurim, which is in Gibeon.

17. And the battell was exceeding thre that same day: for Abner and the men of Israel fell before the seruants of David.

18. And there were thre sonnes of Zeruiah there, Joab, and Abisai, and Afhel:
And Afhel was as light on foot as a wilde roe.

19. And Afhel followed after Abner, and in going, he turned neither to the right hand nor to the left from Abner.

20. Then Abner looked behinde him, and said, Art thou Afhel? And he answered, Yea.

21. Then Abner said, Turne thee eieher to the right hand, or to the left, & take one of the yong men, and take thee his weapons:
but Afhel would not depart from him.

22. And Abner said to Afhel, Depart from me: wherefore should I suite thee to the ground? How then should I bee able to hold vp my face to Ieab thy brother?

23. And when hee would not depart, Abner with the hinder end of the sheare smote him vnder the fifth rib, that the sheare came out behind him: and he fell downe there, and died in his place. And as many as came to the place where Afhel fell downe and died, stood still.

24. Joab also and Abisai pursued after Abner: and the sunne went downe, when they were come to the hill Ammah, that lyeth before Giah, by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

25. And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and were on an heape, and stood on the top of an hill.

26. Then Abner called to Joab, and said, Shall the sword deuoure for euer? knowest thou not, that it will be bitterness in the latter ende: how long then shall it bee, or thou bid the people returne from following their brethren?

27. And Joab said, As God liueth, it thou hadst not spoken, surely euen in the morning the people had departed euery one back from his brother.

28. So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither sought they any more.

29. And Abner and his men walked all that night thow the plaine, and went ouer Jordan, and passed thow the all Bethyon till they came to Bethanaim.

30. Joab also returned backe from Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of Davids seruants nineteene men and Afhel.

31. But the seruants of David had smitten of Benjamin, and Abners men, so that thre hundred and thre score men died.

32. And they tooke up Afhel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Beth leheim: and Joab and his men went all night, and when they came to Iebion, the day arose.

CHAP. III.

1 Long warre betwene the houses of Saul and David. 2 The children of David in Hebron. 3 Abner turneth from David. 27 Joab killeth him.

1 There was then a long warre betwene the house of Saul and the house of David: but David waxed stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker.

2 And unto David were children borne in Hebron: and his eldest sonne was Amnon of Ahinoam the Jezreelite.

3 And his second, was Chisaiab of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite: and the third, Absalom the sonne of Maacah, the daughter of Achish the king of Gethur.

4 And the fourth, Adoniah the sonne of Haggith, and the fifth, Shephania the sonne of Abithai.

5 And the sixth, Ithream by Hagiah: Davids wife: these were borne to David in Hebron.

6 And now while there was warre betwene the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner made all his power for the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine named Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. And Ith-beneth said to Abner, Abner, she hath thou gone in to my fathers concubines.

8 Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ith-beneth, and said, Am I a dogs head, which against Ithabab doe shew me this day unto the house of Saul thy father: for his brethren, and to his neighbours, and have not delivered thee into the hands of David: that thou chargest me this day with a fault concerning this woman?

9 So he said to Abner, and more also, except, as the Lord hath sworn to David, even so I doe to him.

10 To remove the kingdome from the house of Saul, that the throne of David may be established over Israel, and over Judah, even from Dan to Beer-sheba.

11 And he durst no more answer to Abner: for he feared him.

12 And then Abner sent messengers to David upon his behalf, saying, Whosoever is the land: who should also say, Make covenant with me, and behold, mine hand shall be with thee, to bring all Israel unto thee.

13 And David said, Well, I will make a covenant with thee: but one thing I require of thee, that is, that thou see not my face except thou bring Michal Davids daughter when thou comest to see me.

14 And then David sent messengers to Ith-beneth Sauls sonne, saying, Deliver me my wife Michal, which I married for an hundred shekels of the Philistines.

15 And Ith-beneth sent, & tooke her from her husband: Michal the sonne of Iath.

16 And her husband went with her, and came weeping beside her, unto Bahurim: then said Abner unto him, Goe, and returne. So he returned.

17 And Abner had a communication with the Elders of Israel, saying, Ye fought for David in times past, that hee might be your king.

18 Now then doe it: for the Lord hath chosen of David, saying, By the hand of my servant David, I will save my people Israel out of the hands of the Philistines, and out of the hands of all their enemies.

19 And Abner spake to Benjamin, and afterwards Abner went to speake with Benjamin in Hebron, concerning that Israel was content with, and the whole house of Benjamin.

20 So Abner came to David to Hebron, having twentie men with him, and David made a feast unto Abner, and to the men that were with him.

21 Then Abner layd unto David, I will rise up, and goe gather all Israel unto my lord king, that they may make a covenant with thee, and that thou mayest reigne over all that thine heart desireth. Then David let Abner depart, who went in peace.

22 And behold, the servants of David and Joab came from the campe, and brought a great weep with them: but Abner was not with David in Hebron: for hee had sent him away, and he departed in peace.

23 When Joab and all the hoste that was with him, were come, men tolde Joab, saying, Abner the sonne of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

24 Then Joab came to the king, & sayd, What hast thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee, why hast thou sent him away, and he is departed?

25 Thou knowest Abner the sonne of Ner: for he came to deceive thee, & to know thy outgoing and ingoing, and to knowe all that thou doest.

26 And when Joab was gone out from David, hee sent messengers after Abner, which brought him againe from the well of Bethai unknowing to David.

27 And when Abner was come againe to Hebron, Joab tooke him aside in the gate to speake with him peaceably, and smote him under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of Abner his brother.

28 And also when afterwarde it came to Davids eare, hee sayd, I and my kingdome are guiltlesse before the Lord for ever, concerning the blood of Abner the sonne of Ner.

29 Let the blood fall on the head of Joab, and on all his fathers house, that the house of Joab see never without some that have running issues, or leper, or that leathen on a staff, or that doth fall on the sword, or that lacketh bread.

30 (So Joab and Abithai his brother slew Abner, because he had slaine their brother Abner at Gibeon in battell)

31 And David sayde to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, Rent your clothes, and put on sackcloth, and mourne before Abner: and king David himselfe followed the bier.

32 And when they had buried Abner in Hebron, the king lift up his voyce, and wept beside the sepulchre of Abner, and all the people wept: 33 And the king lamented over Abner, and said, Died Abner as a noble man?

34 Those hands were not bound, nor thy feet tied in fetters of brass: but as a man fallen before wicked men, so didst thou fall. And all the people wept againe for him.

35 After which all the people came to caule Dauid eat: meat while it was yet day, but Dauid swore, saying, God be God to me and more also, if I eate bread or ought els, till the sunne be downe.

36 And all the people knew it, & it pleased them: as whatsoeuer the king did, pleased all the people.

37 For all the people and all Israel vnderstoode that day, how that it was not the kings desire that Abner the son of Neri was slaine.

38 And the king sayd vnto his seruantes, Knowe yee not, that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?

39 And I am this day awake and newly anointed king: and these men the sonnes of Zerubbab be too hard for me: the Lord reward the doer of euill according to his wickednes.

CHAP. III.

9 Baanah and Rechab slay Ish-boseth the son of Saul. 12 Dauid commandeth them to be slaine.

AND when Sauls sonne heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, then his hands were feeble, and all Israel was afraid.

2 And Sauls sonne had two men that were captaynes of bandes: the one called Baanah, and the other called Rechab, the sonnes of Rimmon a Beerothite of the children of Benjamin. (For Beeroth was reckoned to Benjamin.)

3 Because the Beerothites fled to Gethaim, and sojourned there vnto this day)

4 And Jonathan Sauls sonne had a son that was lame on his feet: he was five yeere old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Israel: then his nurse tooke him, and fled away. And as he made haste to flee, the child fell, and began to halt, and his name was Ghephiboseth.

5 And the sonnes of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah went and came in the heate of the day to the house of Ish-boseth (who slept on a bed at noone)

6 And beholde, Rechab and Baanah his brother came into the middes of the house, as they would haue wheat, and they smote him vnder the fifth rib, and fled.

7 For when they came into the house, he slept on his bedde in his bed chamber, and they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him, and tooke his head, and gare them away thorow the plaine all the night.

8 And they brought the head of Ish-boseth vnto Dauid at Hebron, and sayd to the king, Behold the head of Ish-boseth Sauls sonne thine enemy, who sought after thy life: and the Lord hath anenged my lord the King this day of Saul and of his seed.

9 Then Dauid answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sonnes of Rimmon

the Beerothite, and sayd vnto them, As the Lord lieth, who hath deliuered me out of all aduersities,

10 When one tolde me, and sayd, that Saul was dead, (thinking to haue brought good tidings) I tooke him, and slew him in the slag, who thought that I would haue giuen him a reward for his tidings:

11 How much more when wicked men haue slaine a righteous person in his house, and vpon his bed: shall I not now therefore requite his blood at your hand, and take you from the earth?

12 Then Dauid commanded his young men, and they slew them, and cut off their handes and their feet, and hanged them by ouer the mole in Hebron: but they tooke the head of Ish-boseth, and buried it in the sepulchre of Abner in Hebron.

CHAP. IV.

3 Dauid made king ouer all Israel. 7 Hea tooketh the fort of Zion. 19 Hee asketh counsel of the Lord. 20 and ouercometh the Philistines.

THEN came all the tribes of Israel to Dauid vnto Hebron, and said thus, Behold, we are thy bones and thy flesh.

2 And in time past when Saul was our King, thou leddest Israel in and out: and the Lord hath said to thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt bee a captain ouer Israel.

3 So all the Elders of Israel came to the King to Hebron: and king Dauid made a couenant with them in Hebron: before the Lord: and they anointed Dauid king ouer Israel.

4 ¶ Dauid was thirtie yeere olde when he beganne to reigne: and hee reigned fortie yeere.

5 In Hebron he reigned ouer Iudah fouen yeere, and fixe moneths: and in Ierusalem he reigned thirtie and thre yeeres ouer all Israel and Iudah.

6 ¶ The king also and his men went to Ierusalem vnto the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the lande: who spake vnto Dauid, saying, Except thou take away the blinde, and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: thinking that Dauid could not come thither.

7 But Dauid tooke the fort of Zion: this is the city of Dauid.

8 Nowe Dauid had sayd the same day, Whosoever smiteth the Jebusites, and getteth by to the gutters, and smiteth the lame and blinde, which Dauids soule hateth, I will pretere him: therefore they sayd, The blinde and the lame shall not come into that house.

9 So Dauid dwelt in that fort, & called it the city of Dauid, and Dauid built round about it, from Getho, and inward.

10 And Dauid prospered and grew: for the Lord God of hostes was with him.

11 ¶ Hiram also king of Tyrrus sent messengers to Dauid, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and maions for wallies: and they

They built David an house.

12 Then David knew, that the Lord had established him King over Israel, and that he had created his kingdom for his people Israel.

13 And David took him more concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after hee was come from Hebron, and more sonnes and daughters were borne to David.

14 And these be the names of the sonnes that were borne unto him in Jerusalem: Shamua, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Salomon,

15 And Ithar, & Eliphaz, and Phephay, and Iaphia, 16 And Elishama, & Eliada, & Eliphelet.

17 ¶ But when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David King over Israel, all the Philistines came up to seeke David: and when David heard, he went downe to a fort.

18 But the Philistines came, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

19 ¶ Then David asked counsell of the Lord, saying, Shall I goe by to the Philistines? wilt thou deliuer them into mine hands? And the Lord answered David, saying: for I will doubtlesse deliuer the Philistines into thine hands.

20 ¶ When David came to Baal perazin, and smote them there, and sayde, The Lord hath diuided mine enemies alunder before mee, as waters be diuided alunder: therefore hee called the name of that place, Baal perazin.

21 And there they left their images, and David and his men burnt them.

22 Again the Philistines came vp, and quied themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

23 And when David asked counsell of the Lord, he answered, Thou shalt not goe vp, but turne about behinde them, and come vp on them ouer against the mulberie trees.

24 And when thou hearest the noise of one going in the tops of the mulberie trees, then remoue: for then shall the Lord goe out before thee, to smite the hoste of the Philistines.

25 Then David did so as the Lord had commanded him, and smote the Philistines from Geba, vntill thou come to Bazer.

CHAP. VI.

3 The Arke is brought forth of the house of Abinadab, Vzzah is stricken and dieth, 14 David danceth before it, 16 And is therefore despised of his wife Michal.

A Haine David gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, euen thirtie thousand,

2 ¶ And David arose and went with all the people that were with him, from Baale of Iudah to bring vp from thence the Arke of God, whose name is called by the name of the Lord of Hostes, that dwelleth vpon it betwene the Cherubims.

3 And they put the Arke of God vpon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, that was in Gethai. And Uzzah and Ahio the sonnes of Abinadab did drive the new cart.

4 And when they brought the Arke of God out of the house of Abinadab, that was at Gethai, Ahio went before the Arke.

5 And David and all the house of Israel played before the Lord on all instruments made of siffe, and on harpes, and on Psalteries, and on tymbels, and on corymbes, and on cymbals.

6 ¶ And when they came to Bachon the sifting floore, Uzzah put his hand to the Arke of God, and helde it: for the oxen did shake it.

7 And the Lord was very wroth with Uzzah, and God smote him in the same place for his fault, and there he died by the Arke of God.

8 And David was displeased, because the Lord had smitten Uzzah: and he called the name of the place Perez Uzzah vntill this day.

9 Therefore David that day feared the Lord, and sayd, How shall the Arke of the Lord come to me?

10 So David would not bring the Arke of the Lord vnto him into the cite of David, but David carried it into the house of Obed-edom a Gittite.

11 And the Arke of the Lord continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite thre moneths, and the Lord blessed Obed-edom and all his household.

12 ¶ And one tolde king David, saying, The Lord hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, & all that he hath, because of the Arke of God: therefore David went and brought the Arke of God from the house of Obed-edom into the cite of David with gladnes.

13 And when they that bare the Arke of the Lord, had gone sixe paces, hee offered an oxe, and a fat beast.

14 And David danced before the Lord with all his might, and was girded with a linnen Ephod.

15 So David and all the house of Israel, brought the Arke of the Lord with shouting, and sound of trumpet.

16 And as the Arke of the Lord came into the cite of David, Michal Saulls daughter looked thow a window, and saw King David leape, and dance before the Lord, and she despised him in her heart.

17 And when they had brought in the Arke of the Lord, they set it in his place in the midst of the Tabernacle that David had pitched for it: then David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the Lord.

18 And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, hee blessed the people in the name of the Lord of Hostes.

19 And gave among all the people, euen among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to euery one a cake of bread, and a piece of flesh, and a bottle of wine: so all the people departed euery one to his house.

20 ¶ Then David returned to bless his house, and Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meete David, and sayde, How glorious was the King of Israel this day, which was vncouered to day in the eyes of the maydens of his seruantes,

14 f I will bee his father, and he shall be my sonne; and if he sinne, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the plagues of the children of men.

15 But my mercy shall not depart away from him, as I tooke it from Saul, whom I haue put away before thee.

16 And thine house shall be stablished and thy kingdom for euer before thee, euen thy throne shall be stablished for euer.

17 According to all these wordes, and according to all this vision, Nathan spake thus vnto Dauid.

18 Then king Dauid went in, and saide before the Lord, and sayde, O Lord God, I, O Lord God, and what to mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

19 And this was yet a small thing in thy sight, O Lord God, therefore hast thou spoken also of thy seruants house for a great while: but g both this apperteyne to thee, O Lord God?

20 And what can Dauid say more vnto thee? for thou, Lord God, knowest thy seruant.

21 For thy wordes sake, and according to thine owne heart hast thou done all these great things, to make them knowne vnto thy seruant.

22 Wherefore thinke thou altho great, O Lord God: for there is none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee, according to all that we haue heard with our eares.

23 And what one people in the earth is like thy people, like Israel? whose God went and redeemed them to himselfe, that they might be his people, and that he might make him a name, and doe for you great things, and terrible for thy land, O Lord, euen for thy people, whom thou redeemedst to thee out of Egypt, from the nations, and their gods?

24 For thou hast h redeemed to thy selfe thy people Israel to bee thy people for euer: and thou Lord art become their God.

25 Now therefore, O Lord God, confirme for euer the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy seruant and his house, and doe as thou hast sayd.

26 And let thy name bee magnified for euer by them that shall say, The Lord of hostes is the God ouer Israel: and let the house of thy seruant Dauid bee stablished for euer.

27 For thou, O Lord of hostes, God of Israel, hast reuelled vnto thy seruant, saying, I will build thee an house: therefore hath thy seruant bene holde to pray this prayer vnto thee.

28 Therefore now, O Lord God, for thou art God, & thy wordes be true, and thou hast told this goodnesse vnto thy seruant.

29 Therefore now let it please thee to blesse the house of thy seruant, that it may continue for euer before thee: for thou, O Lord God, hast i spoken it: and let the house of thy seruant bee blessed for euer with thy blessing.

CHAP. IX.

After this now, David smote the Philistines, and subdued them: & David tooke the bible of bondage out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab, and measured them with a corde, and cast them downe to the ground: hee measured them with two cordes to put them to death, and with one full corde to keepe them alive: so became the Moabites Davids servants, and brought gifts.

3 David smote also Hadadazer sonne of Rehob king of Sobah as he went to recover his border at the river & Euphrates.

4 And David tooke of them a thousand and seven hundredth horsemen, and twentieth thousand footmen, and David & destroyed all the chariots, but hee returned an hundredth chariots of them.

5 Then came the Aramites of Damascus to succour Hadadazer king of Sobah, but David slew of the Aramites two and twentieth thousand men.

6 And David put a garrison in Aram of Damascus: and the Aramites became servants to David, and brought gifts. And the Lord saved David wheresoever hee went.

7 And David tooke the shields of golde that belonged to the servants of Hadadazer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 And out of Betah, and Bercoth (cities of Hadadazer) king David brought exceeding much brasse.

9 Then Toi king of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the hoste of Hadadazer:

10 Therefore Toi sent Joab his sonne unto king David to salute him, and to rejoyce with him, because hee had foughte against Hadadazer, and beaten him (for Hadadazer had warre with Toi) who broughte with him vessels of silver, and vessels of golde, and vessels of brasse.

11 And king David did dedicate them unto the Lord with the silver and golde that hee had dedicate of all the nations which hee had subdued:

12 Of the Aram & Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoyle of Hadadazer the sonne of Rehob, king of Sobah.

13 So David gave a name after that hee returned, and had slaine of the Aramites in the valley of salt eightene thousand men.

14 And hee put a garrison in Edom: throughout all Edom put hee souldiers, & all they of Edom became Davids servants: and the Lord kept David & wheresoever hee went.

15 Thus David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgement and justice unto all his people.

16 And Joab the sonne of Seruiath was over the hoste, and Joabphat the sonne of Asubud was recorder.

17 And Zadok the sonne of Abitub, and Abimelech the sonne of Abiathar were the Priests, and Seraiah the Scribe.

18 And Benaiab the sonne of Jehoiada & the Cherethites, and the Gileadites, and Davids sonnes were chiefe rulers.

9 David restored all the landes of Saul to Mephibosheth the sonne of Jonathan. 10 He appointed Ziba to see to the profit of his lands.

And David sayd, Is there yet any man left of the house of Saul, that I may shew him mercy for Jonathans sake?

2 And there was of the household of Saul a servant whose name was Ziba, and when they had called him unto David, the king sayd unto him, Art thou Ziba? and he sayd, I thy servant am he.

3 Then the king sayd, Remaineth there yet none of the house of Saul, on whom I may shew the mercie of God? Ziba then answered the king, Jonathan hath yet a son lame of his feet.

4 Then the king sayd unto him, Where is he? and Ziba sayd unto the king, Behold, hee is in the house of Barzai the sonne of Ammiel of Lo-debar.

5 Then king David sent, and tooke him out of the house of Barzai the sonne of Ammiel of Lo-debar.

6 Now when Mephibosheth the sonne of Jonathan, the sonne of Saul was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David sayd, Mephibosheth: and he answered, Behold thy servant.

7 Then David sayd unto him, Feare not: for I will surely shew thee kindness for Jonathans thy fathers sake, and will restore thee all the fields of Saul thy father, and thou shalt eate bread at my table continually.

8 And hee bowed himselfe, & sayd, What is thy servant, that thou shouldest looke upon such a dead dog as I am?

9 Then the king called Ziba Davids servant, and sayd unto him, I have given unto thy masters sonne al that pertained to Saul and to all his house.

10 Thou therefore and thy sonnes and thy servants shall till the land for him, and bring in, that thy masters sonne may have food to eat. And Mephibosheth thy masters sonne shall eate bread alway at my table (now Ziba had sixtene sonnes, and twenty servants).

11 Then sayde Ziba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant doe, that Mephibosheth may eate at my table, as one of the kings sonnes.

12 Mephibosheth also had a yong sonne named Micha, and all that dwelled in the house of Ziba, were servants unto Mephibosheth.

13 And Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem: for hee did eate continually at the kings table, and was lame on both his feet.

2 Then said David, I will shew kindness vnto Hanan the sonne of Nabal, as his father shewed kindness vnto me. And David sent his servants to comfort him for his father. So Dauids seruants came vnto the land of the children of Ammon.

3 And the princes of the children of Ammon said vnto Hanan their Lord, & Thinekest thou that David doeth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters to thee? hath not David rather sent his seruants vnto thee, to search the citie, and to spie it out, and to ouerthrow it?

4 Therefore Hanan tooke Dauids seruants, and shaued off the halfe of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, & then to their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 (When it was told vnto David, hee sent to meete them (for the men were exceedingly ashamed) and the king said, Tarry at Jericho, until your beards be grown, then returne.

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they stanke in the sight of Dauid, the children of Ammon sent & hired the Aramites of the house of Rehob, and the Aramites of Zoba, twenty thousand footemen, and of king Shobach a thousand men, and of Ish tob thine thousand men.

7 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the hoste of the strong men.

8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put their arins in aray at the entering in of the gate: and the Aramites of Zoba, and of Rehob, and of Ish tob, and of Shobach, were by themselves in the field.

9 When Joab saw that the front of the battell was against him before and behind, he chose aliof the choise of Israel, and put them in aray against the Aramites.

10 And the rest of the people he deliuered into the hand of Abisai his brother, that he might put them in aray against the children of Ammon.

11 And he said, If the Aramites be stronger then I, thou shalt helpe me, and if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, I will come and succour thee.

12 Be strong & let vs be valiant for our people, and for the cities of our God, and let the Lord do that which is good in his eyes.

13 Then Joab, and the people that was with him, layned in battell with the Aramites, who fled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Aramites fled, they fled also before Abisai, and entered into the citie: so Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Ierusalem.

15 And when the Aramites saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered them together.

16 And Hadadezer sent, and brought out the Aramites that were beyond the River: and they came to Helam, and Shobach the captaine of the hoste of Hadadezer went before them.

17 When it was shewed David, then hee gathered all Israel together, and passed ouer Iordan, and came to Helam: and the Aramites set themselves in aray against David, and fought with him.

18 And the Aramites fled before Israel: and David destroyed a seuen hundred charrets of the Aramites, and foure thousand horsemen, and smote Shobach the captaine of his hoste, who died there.

19 And when all the kings, that were seruants to Hadadezer, sawe that they fell before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and serued them. And the Aramites feared to helpe the children of Ammon any more.

CHAPTER XI.

1 The citie Rabbah is besieged. 4. David commeth adulteris. 17 Uriah is slaine. 27 David marryeth Bath sheba.

1 And when the yeere was expired in the time when kings go forth to battell, David sent Joab, and his seruants with him, and all Israel, who destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah: but David remained in Ierusalem.

2 And when it was evening tide, David arose out of his bed, and walked vpon the roofof the kings palace: and from the roofof he saw a woman washing her selfe: and the woman was very beautifull to looke vpon.

3 And David sent and inquired what woman it was: and one said, Is not this Bath sheba the daughter of Eliam, wiife of Uriah the Iyrite?

4 Then David sent messengers, and tooke her away: and she came vnto him, and he lay with her: (now shee was purtised from her uncleanness) and she returned vnto her house.

5 And the woman conceived: therefore she sent and tolde David, and sayde, I am with child.

6 Then David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Iyrite. And Joab sent Uriah to David.

7 And when Uriah came vnto him, David demanded him how Joab did, and how the people fared, and how the warre prospered.

8 Afterward David layd to Uriah, So downe to thine house, and wash thy feet. So Uriah departed out of the kings palace, and the king sent a present after him.

9 But Uriah slept at the doore of the kings palace with all the seruants of his lord, and went not downe to his house.

10 Then they told David, saying, Uriah went not downe to his house: and David sayd vnto Uriah, Comest thou not from thy journey? why didst thou not goe downe to thine house?

11 Then Uriah answered David, The arke and Israel, and Iudah dwell in tents: and my lord Joab and the seruants of my lord abide in the open feldes: shall I then go into mine house to eat and drinke, and lie with my wife: by thy life, and by the life of thy soule, I will not do this thing.

12 Then David sayd vnto Uriah, Tarry yet this day, and to morrow I will send thee away. So Uriah abode in Ierusalem that day, and the morrow.

and wakke before him, and hee made him a dinner: and at even hee went out to lie on his couch with the servants of his lord, but went not home to his house.

14 And on the morrowe David wrote a letter to Iobab, and sent it by the hand of Acriah.

15 And he wrote thus in the letter, * But ye Acriah in the forefront of the strength of the battell, and recule ye backe from him, that he may be smitten, and die.

16 ¶ So when Iobab belleged the cite, hee assigned Acriah unto a place, where hee knew that strong men were.

17 And the men of the cite came out, and fought with Iobab: and there fell of the people of the servants of David, and Acriah the hitite also died.

18 Then Iobab sent and tolde David all the things concerning the warre.

19 ¶ And he charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an end of telling all the matters of the warre unto the king,

20 I And if the kings anger arise, so that he say unto thee, Wherefore approachedst thou unto the cite to fight? know yet not that they would hurle from the wall.

21 Also smote Abimelech sonne of Jerubbaeth? did not a woman cast a piece of a millstone upon him from the wall, and he died in Hebe? Altho went ye nigh the wall? Then say thou, Thy servant Acriah the hitite is also dead.

22 So the messenger went, and came and shewed David all that Iobab had sent him for.

23 And the messenger sayd unto David, Certainly the men prevailed against vs, and came out unto us into the field, but were purged then into the entering of the gate.

24 But the shooters shot from the wall against thy servants, and some of the Kings servants bee dead: and thy servant Acriah the hitite is also dead.

25 Then David said unto the messenger, Thus shalt thou say unto Iobab, Let not this thing trouble thee: for the sword de-voureth one as well as an other: make the battell more strong against the cite, and destroy it, and incourage thou him.

26 ¶ And when the wife of Acriah heard that her husband Acriah was dead, she mourned for her husband.

27 So when the mourning was past, David sent and tooke her into his house, and shee became his wife, and bare him a sonne: but the thing that David had done, & displeased the Lord.

CHAP. XII.

David reproveth by Nathan confesseth his sinne. 18 The child conceived in adultery, death. 24 Salomon is borne. 26 Rabba is taken. 31 The cannibals are grievously punished.

Then the Lord sent Nathan unto David, who came to him, and sayde unto him, There were two men in one cite, the one rich and the other poore.

2 The rich man had exceeding many sheepe and oxen:

3 But the poore had none at all save one little sheepe which he had bought, and nourished up: and it grew up with him, and with his chyliden also, and did eate of his owne mousels, and dwanke of his owne cup, and slept in his bosom, and was unto him as his daughter.

4 Now there came a stranger unto the rich man, who refused to take of his owne sheepe, and of his owne oxen to dyette for the stranger that was come unto him, but tooke the poore mans sheepe, and dyessed it for the man that was come to him.

5 Then David was exceeding wroth with the man, and sayd to Nathan, As the Lord liveth, the man that hath done this thing, I shall surely die.

6 And he shall restore the lambe & fourfold, because hee did this thing, and has no pittie thereof.

7 Then Nathan sayd unto David, Thou art the man. Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel, I anointed thee king over Israel, and delivered thee out of the hand of Saul,

8 And gave thee thy lords house, and thy lords wives into thy bosome, and gave thee the house of Israel, and of Iudah, and would make thee a great name: (if that had bene too little) have given thee a rich and such things.

9 Wherefore hast thou despised the commandment of the Lord, to doe evill in his sight? Thou hast killed Acriah the hitite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slaine him with the sword of the children of Ammon.

10 Now therefore the sword shall never depart from thine house, because thou hast despised me, and taken the wife of Acriah the hitite to be thy wife.

11 Thus sayth the Lord, Behold, I will raise up evill against thee out of thine owne house, and will take thy wives before thine eyes, and give them unto thy neighbour, and he shall lie with thy wives in the sight of this sunne.

12 For thou didst it secretly: but I will doe this thing before all Israel, and before the sunne.

13 Then David sayd unto Nathan, I have sinned against the Lord. And Nathan sayd unto David, The Lord also hath put away thy sinne, thou shalt not die.

14 Howbeit, because by this deepe thou hast caused the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child that is borne unto thee, shall surely die.

15 ¶ So Nathan departed unto his house: and the Lord strooke the child that Acriahs wife bare unto David, and it was sicke.

16 David therefore besought God for the child, and fasted, and went in, and lay all night upon the earth.

17 Then the Elders of his house arose to come unto him, and to cause him to rise from the ground: but he would not, neither did he eat meat with them.

18 So on the seventh day the child died: and the servants of David feared to tell him, that the child was dead: for they sayd, Behold, while the child was alive, wee spake unto him, and hee would not hearken unto our voyce: howe then shall 19 But when Dauid sawe that his seruants whisperd, Dauid perceiued that the child was dead: therefore Dauid sayd vnto his seruants, Is the child dead? And they sayd, he is dead.

20 Then Dauid arose from the earth, and washed and anointed himselfe, and changed his apparell, and came into the house of the Lord and worshipped, and afterward came to his owne house, and bade that they should let heare before him, and he did eate.

21 Then sayd = his seruants vnto him, What thing is this, that thou hast done? thou diddest fast and weepe for the child, while it was aliuē, but when the child was dead, thou didst rise vp, and eate meate.

22 And he sayd, while the child was yet aliuē, I fasted, and wept: for I sayd, why should I tell whether God will haue mercy on me, that the child may liue?

23 But nowe being dead, wherefore should I now fast? Can I bring him againe any more? I shall goe to him, but hee shall not returne to me.

24 And Dauid comforted Bath-sheba his wife, and went in vnto her, and lay with her, and the bare a sonne, and hee called his name Salomon: and the Lord loued him.

25 For the Lord had sent it by Nathan the prophet: therefore hee called his name Iedidiah, because the Lord loued him.

26 And when Ioab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and tooke the citie of the kingdom.

27 Therefore Ioab sent messengers to Dauid, saying, I haue fought against Rabbah, and haue taken the citie of waters.

28 Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and besiege the citie, that thou mayest take it, lest the victorie be attributed to me.

29 So Dauid gathered all the people together, and went against Rabbah, and besieged it, and tooke it.

30 And hee tooke their Kings crowne from his head, (which weighed a talent of golde, with precious stones) and it was set on Dauids head: and he brought away the spoile of the citie in exceeding great abundance.

31 And hee caried away the people that was therein, and put them vnder sawes and vnder yon harrowes, and vnder axes of yron, and cast them into the fire kilne: euen thus did he with all cities of the children of Ammon. Then Dauid and all the people returned vnto Ierusalem.

CHAP. XIII.

14 Amnon Dauids sonne deileth his sister Tamar. 19 Tamar is compassed by her brother Absalon. 29 Absalon there fore killeth Amnon.

Now after this so it was, that Absalon the sonne of Dauid hauing a faire sister, whose name was Tamar, Amnon the sonne of Dauid loued her.

2 And Amnon was so sore vexed that he fell sicke for his sister Tamar: for she was a virgin, and it seemed hard to Amnon to do any thing vnto her.

3 But Amnon had a friend called Jonadab, the sonne of Shimeah Dauids brother: and Jonadab was a very subtil man.

4 Who layd vnto him, Why art thou thus long to leaue from day to day? wilt thou not tell mee? Then Amnon answered him, I loue Tamar my brother Absalons sister.

5 And Jonadab sayd vnto him, Lye downe on thy bed, and make thy selfe sicke: and when thy father shall come to see thee, say vnto him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and giue mee meate, and let her dress meate in my bedde, that I may see it, and eate it of her hand.

6 So Amnon lay downe, and made himselfe sicke: and when the King came to see him, Amnon sayd vnto the King, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make mee a couple of cakes in my bedde, that I may receiue meate at her hand.

7 Then Dauid sent home to Tamar, saying, See now to thy brother Ammons house, and dress him meate.

8 So Tamar went to her brother Ammons house, and she lay downe: and she took flour and knead it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.

9 And shee took a painne, and powdered them one before him, but he would not eate. Then Amnon sayd, Cause vs euery man to drinke from him: so euery man went out from him.

10 Then Amnon sayde vnto Tamar, Bring the meate into the chamber, that I may eate of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.

11 And when she had set them before him to eate, heooke her, & sayd vnto her, Come, lie with me, my sister.

12 But she answered him, Nay, my brother, doe not force mee: for no such thing ought to bee done in Israel: commit not this folly.

13 And I, I whether shall I cause my shame to goe? and thou shalt bee as one of the footes in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, speake to the king, for he will not denie me vnto thee.

14 Wherefore, he would not hearken vnto her voyce, but being stronger then shee, forced her, and lay with her.

15 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly, so that the hatred wherewith hee hated her, was greater then the loue, wherewith hee had loued her: and Amnon sayd vnto her, Up, get thee hence.

16 And shee answered him, I There is no cause: this euill (to put me away) is greater then the other that thou diddest vnto me: but he would not heare her.

17 But called his seruant that serued him, and sayd, Put this woman now out from mee, and locke the doore after her.

18 And shee had a garment of diuers colours vpon her: for with such garments were the Kings daughters that zon, which is beside Ephraim, and Abalom called all the kings sonnes.

24 And Abalom came to the king, and said, Behold now, thy servants hath sheepe-shearers: I pray thee, that the king with his servants would goe with thy servant.
25 But the king answered Abalom,
I pray my sonne, I pray thee, let vs not go all left we be chargeable unto thee. For Abalom layd this upon him: howbeit he would not goe, but thankad him.
26 Then sayde Abalom, But, I pray thee, shall not my brother Amnon goe with vs? And the king answered him, why should he goe with thee?
27 But Abalom was instant upon him, and he sent Amnon with him, and all the kings children.
28 ¶ Now had Abalom commanded his servants, saying, Watch now wher Ammons heart is merie with wine, and when I say unto you, smite Amnon, kill him, feare not:
for have not I commanded you? be bolde therefore, and slay the men.
29 And the servants of Abalom did unto Amnon as Abalom had commaunded:
and all the kings sonnes arose and every man gat him up upon his mule, and fled.
30 ¶ And while they were in the way,
Hittites came to David, saying, Abalom hath slaine all the kings sonnes, and there is not one of them left.
31 Then the king arose, and tare his garments, and lay on the ground, and all his servants stood by with their clothes rent.
32 And Jonadab the sonne of Shimeah David's brother answered, saying, Let not my lord suppose that they have slaine all the young men the kings sonnes: for Amnon only dwelt, because Abalom had reported so, since he forced his sister Tamar.
33 Now therefore let not my lord the king take the thing to grievously, to thinke that all the kings sonnes are dead: for Amnon only is dead.
34 ¶ Then Abalom fled: and the young man that kept the watch, life by his clew, and looked, and beheld, there came much people by the way of the hill like a beehind him.
35 And Jonadab sayd unto the king, Behold, the kings sonnes come: as thy servant said, so it is.

36 And as soon as hee left speaking, behold, the kings sonnes came, and lift up their voyces, and wept: and the king also and all his servants wept exceedingly loe.
37 But Abalom fled away, and went to Talmai the sonne of Ammihur king of Gethur: and David mourned for his sonne every day.
38 ¶ So Abalom fled, and went to Gethur, and was there three yeeres.
39 And king David desired to go forth unto Abalom, because he was pacified concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

¶ Then Iosh the sonne of Jeruliah perceived that the kings heart was toward Abalom.
2 And Iosh sent to Tekoah, & brought thence a subtil woman, and sayd unto her,
I pray thee, saine thy selfe to mourne, and now put on mourning apparell, and a can-dout not thy selfe with oile: but bee as a wo-the dead.

3 And come to the king, and speake on this manner unto him, for Iosh taught her what she should say.
4 ¶ Then the woman of Tekoah spake unto the king, and fell downe on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and sayde,
I beseech, O king.
5 Then the king sayd unto her, What affect thee? and she answered, I am indeed a widow, and my husband is dead:
6 And thine handmaid had two sonnes, and they two strove together in the field:
(and there was none to part them) so the one smote the other, and slew him.
7 And behold the whole familie is risen against thine handmaid, and they sayd, Deliver him that smote his brother, that wee may kill him for the soule of his brother whom hee slew, that wee may destroy the house also: so they shal quench my sparkes which is left, and shall not leave to mine husband neither name nor posteritie upon
the earth.
8 And the king sayde unto the woman, Goe to thine house, and I will give a charge for thee.
9 Then the woman of Tekoah sayd unto the king, My lord, O king, this is treaspas-se on mee, and on my fathers house, and the king and his throne be grieved.
10 And the king sayd, Tying him to me that speaketh against thee, and he shal touch thee no more.
11 Then sayd she, I pray thee, let the king remember the Lord thy God, that thou wouldest not suffer many revengers of blood to destroy, lest they lay my soune. And hee answered, As the Lord liveth, there shall not one haire of thy soune fall to the earth.

12 Then the woman sayde, I pray thee, let thine handmaid speake a word to my lord the king. And he sayd, Say on.

g Why doest thou give contrary sentence in thy sonne Absaloms

13 Then the woman sayde, Wherefore then hast thou thought such a thing against the people of God, or why doest the king, as one which is faulter, speake this thing, that he will not bring againe his banished?

14 For we must needs die, and we are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up againe: neither doeth God spare any person, yet doeth hee appoint means, not to cast out from him, him that is expelled.

h Or, accept.
h God hath provided wayes (as sanctuaries) to save them oft times, whome man judgeth worthy death.
i For I thought they would kill this mine heire.

15 Nowe therefore that I am come to speake of this thing unto my lord the king, the cause is, that the people have made mee astray: therefore thine handmayde sayde, Now will I speake unto the king: it may be that the king will performe the request of his handmaid.

16 For the king will heare, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the man that would destroy mee, and also my sonne from the inheritance of God.

k Is of great wisdom to discern right fro wrong.

17 Therefore thine handmaid sayd, The word of my lord the king shall now be: & comfortable: for my ladye the king is even as an angel of God in hearing of good and bad: therefore the Lord thy God be with thee.

18 Then the king answered, and sayde unto the woman, Wilt thou not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall aske thee. And the woman sayd, Let my lord the king now speake.

l Hast thou not done this by the counsel of Iobab

19 And the king said, Is not the hand of Iobab with thee in all this? Then the woman answered, and said, As thy soule liveth, my lord the king, I will not turne to the right hand nor to the left, from ought that my lord the king hath spoken: for even thy servant Iobab had me, and he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid.

m By speaking rather in a parable then plainly.
n Or, none can hide ought from the king.
n I have granted thy request.

20 For to the intent that I should change the forme of speech, thy servant Iobab hath done this thing: but my lord is wise according to the wisdom of an Angel of God, to understand all things that are in the earth.

21 And the king sayd unto Iobab, Behold now, I have done this thing: go then, and bring the young man Absalom againe.

o Covering hereby his affection, & shewing some part of justice to please the people

22 And Iobab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himselfe, and thanked the king. Then Iobab sayd, This day thy servant knoweth, that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord the king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his servant.

23 And Iobab arose, and went to Gethur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

24 And the king saide, Let him turne to his owne house, and not see my face. So Absalom turned to his owne house, and saw not the kings face.

25 Now in all Israel was there none to be so much payed for beauty as Absalom: from the sole of the foot even to the top of his head there was no blemish in him.

26 And when he polled his head, (for at every yeere end he polled it: because it was too heavy for him, therefore he polled it) he weighed the haire of his head at two hundred shekels by the kings weight.

27 And Absalom had three sonnes, & one daughter named Tamar, which was a faire woman to looke upon.

28 And Absalom dwelt the space of two yeeres in Jerusalem, and saw not the kings face.

29 Therefore Absalom sent for Iobab to send him to the king, but he would not come to him: and when he sent againe, he would not come.

30 Therefore he said unto his servants, Behold, Iobab hath a field by my place, and hath barley therein: goe, and see it on fire: and Absaloms servants set the field on fire.

31 Then Iobab arose, and came to Absalom, unto his house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants burnt my field with fire?

32 And Absalom answered Iobab, Behold, I sent for thee, saying, Come thou hither, and I will send thee to the king for to say, Wherefore am I come from Gethur? It had bene better for mee, to have bene there still: now therefore let me see the kings face: and if there be any trespass in mee, let him kill me.

33 Then Iobab came to the king, and tolde him: and he called for Absalom, who came to the king, and bowed himselfe to the ground on his face before the king, and the king kissed Absalom.

After this, Absalom prepared him chariots and horses, and seditious men to runne before him.

2 And Absalom rose by early, and stood hard by the entering in of the gate: and every man that had any matter, and came to the king for judgement, him did Absalom call unto him, and sayd, Of what cite art thou: and he answered, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel.

3 Then Absalom said unto him, See, thy matters are good and righteous, but there is no man deputed of the king to heare thee.

4 Absalom sayd moreover, O that I were made iudge in the land, that every man which hath any matter or controuersie, might come to mee, that I might doe him iustice.

5 And when any man came neere to him, and did him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and tooke him, and kissed him.

6 And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel, that came to the king for judgement: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

7 And after forty yeeres, Absalom sayd unto the king, I pray thee, let me go to Hebron, and render my vow which I have vowed unto the Lord.

8 For thy servant bowed a bowe when I remained at Gethur, in Aram, saying, As the Lord shall bring me againe in Ierusalem to Jerusalem. I will leave the Arke.

9 And the king said unto him, Go in peace: thou be anile, and went to Hebron.

10 ¶ Then Abiathar sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, When ye have the sound of the trumpet, ye shall say, Abiathar reigneth in Hebron.

11 ¶ And with Abiathar went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, that were called: they went in their simplicity, knowing nothing.

12 Also Abiathar sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite Davids counsellor, from his citie Gilead, while hee offered sacrifices: and the counsel was great: for the people & increased still with Abiathar.

13 Then came a messenger to David, saying, The hearts of them of Israel are turned after Abiathar.

14 Then David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, Fly, and let ye be free: for we shall not escape from Abiathar: make speede to depart, lest hee come suddenly and take ye, and bring euill vpon ye, and smite the citie with the edge of the sword.

15 And the Kings servants layde vnto him, Beholde, thy servants are ready to doe according to all that my lord the King shall appoint.

16 So the King departed and all his household: after him, and the king left tenne concubines to keepe the house.

17 And the king went forth and all the people after him, and carried in a place farre off.

18 And all his servants went about him, and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelishtines, and all the Gittites, euen five hundred men which were come after him from Gath, went before the king.

19 Then said the king to Itraai the Gittite, wherefore comest thou also with vs? Returne and abide with the King, for thou art a stranger: depart thou therefore to thy place.

20 Thou camest yesterday, and shouldst I cause thee to wander to day and go vnto vs? I will goe whither I can: therefore returne thou, and carie againe thy brethren: mercy and truth be with thee.

21 And Itraai answered the King, and sayd, As the Lord liueth, and as my lord the king liueth, in what place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, euen there surely will thy servant be.

22 Then David said to Itraai, Come, and goe forward. And Itraai the Gittite went, and all his men, and all the children that were with him.

23 And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people went forward, but the king passed over the brooke Kidron: and all the people went out towards the way of the wilderness.

24 ¶ And loe, Zadok also was there, and all the Levites with him, bearing the Arke of the Covenant of God, and they let downe the Arke of God: and Abiathar went vpon him, and the people were all come out of the citie.

25 They said the king vnto Zadok, Carry the Arke of God againe into the citie: if I shall finde fauour in the eyes of the Lord, hee will bring mee againe, and I shall see both it, and the Tabernacle thereof.

26 But if he thus say, I haue no delight in thee, behold, here am I, let him doe to me as seemeth good in his eyes.

27 The king said againe vnto Zadok the Priest, Art not thou a Seer? returne into the citie in peace, and your two sonnes with you: to wit, Ahimaaz thy sonne, and Jonathan the sonne of Abiathar.

28 Beholde, I will tary in the fieldes of the wilderness until there come some word from you to be told me.

29 Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the Arke of God againe to Jerusalem, and they taried there.

30 And David went vpon the mount of Oliues, and wept as hee went vp, and had his head covered, and went barefooted: and all the people that was with him, had euery man his head covered, and as they went vp, they wept.

31 Then one tolde David, saying, Ahithophel is one of them that haue conspired with Abiathar: And David said, O Lord I pray thee, turne the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishnesse.

32 ¶ Then David came to the top of the mount where he worshipped God, and beholde, Iphai the Archite came against him with his coat arme, and having earth vpon his head.

33 Unto whom David sayd, If thou goe with me, thou shalt be a burthen vnto me.

34 But if thou returne to the citie, and say vnto Abiathar, I will bee thy servant, O king, (as I haue bene in times past thy fathers servant, so will I now be thy servant) then thou mayest bring me the counsel of Ahithophel to naught.

35 And hast thou not there with thee Zadok and Abiathar the Priests? therefore whatsoeuer thou shalt heare out of the Kings house, thou shalt shew to Zadok & Abiathar the Priests.

36 Beholde, there are with them their two sonnes: Ahimaaz Zadoks sonne, and Jonathan Abiathars sonne: by them also shall ye send me euery thing that ye can heare.

37 So Iphai Davids friend went into the citie: and Abiathar came into Jerusalem.

3 And the king said, But where is thy matters house? Then Shimei answered the king, Behold, he remaineth in Jerusalem: for he said, This day shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my father.

4 Then said the king to Shimei, Behold, thine are all that pertained unto Absalom: I beseech thee, let mee find grace in thy sight, my lord, O King.

5 And when king David came to Bahurim, behold, thence came out a man of the familie of the house of Saul, named Shimei the sonne of Gera: and he came out and curset.

6 And he cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David: and all the people, and all the men of warre were on his right hand, and on his left.

7 And thus sayd Shimei when he curset, Come forth, come forth thou: murderer and a wicked man.

8 The Lord hath brought upon thee all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned: and the Lord hath delivered thy kingdom into the hand of Absalom thy sonne: and behold, thou art taken in thy wickedness, because thou art a murderer.

9 Then sayd Abigail the sonne of Neriab unto the king, Altho boeth this dead dogge curse my lord the king: let mee goe, I pray thee, and take away his head.

10 But the king sayd, Altho have I to doe with you, yet I omnes of Neriah: for hee curseth, even because the Lord hath hid den him curse David: Altho dare then say, Altho fore hast thou done so?

11 And David sayd to Abigail, and to all his servants, Behold, my sonne, which came out of mine owne bowels, seeketh my life: then how much more now may this sonne of Neriab? Suffer him to curse: for the Lord hath hid den him.

12 It may be that the Lord will looke on Amies affliction, and doe mee good for his cursing this day.

13 And as David and his men went by the way, Shimei went by the side of the mountaine ouer against him, and curset as he went, and threw stones against him, and cast dust.

14 Then came the king and all the people, that were with him, wearie, and refreshed themselves there.

15 And Absalom, and all the people, the men of Israel came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him.

16 And when Hushai the Archite Davids friend was come by unto Absalom, Hushai sayd unto Absalom, God save the king, God save the king.

17 Then Absalom sayd to Hushai, Is this thy kindness to thy friend? Altho wentest thou not with thy friend?

18 Hushai then answered unto Absalom, Nay, but whome the Lord, and this people, and all the men of Israel chuse, his will I be, and with him will I dwell.

19 And moreover unto whom shall I doe service? not to his sonne? As I served before thy father, so will I serve thee.

20 Then sake Absalom to Ahithophel, Give counsell what we shall doe.

21 And Ahithophel sayd unto Absalom, Goe in to thy fathers concubines, which he hath left to keepe the house: and when all Israel shall heare that thou art abhorred of thy father, the handes of all that are with thee, shall be strong.

22 So they spread Absalom a tent upon the top of the house: and Absalom went in to his fathers concubines in the sight of all Israel.

23 And the counsell of Ahithophel which hee counselled in those dayes, was like as one had asked counsell at the oracle of God: so was all the counsell of Ahithophel both unto David and unto Absalom.

CHAP. XVII.

7 Ahithophels counsell is overthrowen by Hushai. 18 The Lords had so ordained. 19 The Priests fannes are hid in the well. 21 David goeth over Jordan. 23 Ahithophel hangeth himselfe. 27 They bring viaticles to David.

Whereover Ahithophel sayd to Absalom, Let mee chuse out twelve thousand men, and I will up and follow after David this night.

2 And I will come upon him: for he is weary, and weake handed: so I will feare him, and all the people that are with him, shall see, and I will smite the king onely.

3 And I will bring againe all the people unto thee, and when all shall returne, the man whom thou seest, being slaine, all the people shall be in peace.

4 And the saying pleased Absalom well, and all the Elders of Israel.

5 Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us heare likewise what he saith.

6 So when Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom sake unto him, saying, Ahithophel hath spoken thus: shall we doe after his saying, or no? tellethou.

7 Hushai then answered unto Absalom, The counsell that Ahithophel hath given, is not good at this time.

8 For sayd Hushai, thou knowest thy father and his men, that they be strong men, and are chased in minde, as a beare robbed of her whelpes in the fildes: altho thy father is a valliant warriour, and will not lodge with the people.

9 Behold, he is hid now in some cave, or in some place: and though some of them be overthrowen at the first, yet the people shall heare, and say, The people that follow Absalom, are overthrowen.

10 Then he said that is valliant, whose heart is as the heart of a lyon, shall quicke and faint: for all Israel knoweth, that thy father is valliant, and they which bee with him, stout men.

11 Therefore my counsell is, that all Israel be gathered unto thee, from Dan even to Beer: shes as the land of the Sea in number, and that thou go to battell in thine owne person.

12 So shall we come upon him in some place, where wee shall finde him, and we will upon him as the dewe falleth on the ground:

12 Moreover, if he be gotten into a citie, then shall all the men of Israel hang ropes to that citie, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there.

14 ¶ Then Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsell of Ahithophel is better then the counsell of Ahithophel: for the Lord had determined to destroy the good counsell of Ahithophel, that the Lord might bring evil upon Absalom.

15 ¶ Then said Ahithophel unto Zadok and to Abiathar the Priests, Of this and that manner did Ahithophel and the Elders of Israel counsell Absalom: and thus and thus have I counselled.

16 Now therefore send quickly, and shew David, saying, Earie not this night in the fields of the wilderness, but rather get thee over, lest the king be denoured, and all the people that are with him.

17 ¶ Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz adove by: En-rogel: (for they might not be seene to come into the citie) & a maide went, and told it them, and they went and shewed king David.

18 Nevertheless a yong man saw them, and told it to Absalom: therefore they both departed quickly, and came to a mans house in Babylon, who had a well in his court, into the which they went downe.

19 And the wife tooke and spread a covering over the welles mouth, and spread ground coare thereon, that the thing should not be knowne.

20 And when Absaloms servants came to the wife into the house, they said, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman answered them, They bee gone over the brooke of water. And when they had sought them, and could not finde them, they returned to Jerusalem.

21 And as soon as they were departed, the other came out of the well, and went and tolde king David, and said unto him, O, and get you quickly over the water: for such counsell hath Ahithophel given against you.

22 ¶ Then David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they went over Jordan: untill the dawning of the day, so that there lacked not one of them, that was not come over Jordan.

23 ¶ Now when Ahithophel saw that his counsell was not followed, he sadd his asse, and arose, and hee went home to his citie, and put his handhold in oyle, and hanged himselfe, and died, and was buried in his fathers graue.

24 ¶ When David came to Bethanath. And Absalom passed over Jordan, he, and all the men of Israel with him.

25 And Absalom made Amasa captain of the hoste in the stead of Joab: which Amasa was a mans sonne named Achis an Aethiopian, that went in to Abigail the daughter of Nabal, sister to Jerusha Joabs mother.

26 So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

27 ¶ And when David was come to Hebron, Shobi the sonne of Nahab out of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Baithar the sonne of Amiel out of Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite out of Rogel.

28 Brought beds and bales, and earthen vessels, and wheate, and barley, and flour, and parched coine, and beanes, and lentiles, and parched coine.

29 And they brought homie, and butter, and sheepe, and cheefe of kine for David and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they said, The people is hungry, and wearie, and thirstie in the wilderness.

CHAP. XVIII.

2 David divideth his armie into three parts. 9 Absalom is hanged, slaine, and cast into a pit. 33 David lamenteth the death of Absalom.

¶ Then David numbered the people that were with him, and set over them captaynes of thousands, and captaynes of hundreds.

2 And David sent forth the third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and the third part under the hand of Abishai Joabs brother the sonne of Neriah: and the other third part under the hand of Ittai, the Gittite: and the king said unto the people, I will goe with you my selfe also.

3 But the people answered, Thou shalt not goe forth: for if we flee away, they will not regard vs, neither will they passe for vs, though halfe of vs were slaine: but thou art now worth ten thousand of vs: therefore now it is better that thou succour vs out of the citie.

4 ¶ Then the king said unto them, What feareth you best, that will I doe. So the king stood by the gate side, and all the people came out by hundreds, and by thousands.

5 And the king commanded Joab and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, Entreate the yong man Absalom gently for my sake: and all the people heard when the king gave all the captaynes charge concerning Absalom.

6 So the people went out into the field to meete Israel, and the battell was in the mood of Ephraim.

7 Where the people of Israel were slaine before the servants of David: so there was a great slaughter that day, even of twentie thousand.

8 ¶ For the battell was scattered over all the countrey: and the wood denoured much more people that day, then did the sword.

9 ¶ Now Absalom met the servants of David, and Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule came under a great oke: and his head caught hold of the oke, and hee was taken up: so beruined the heauen & the earth: and the mule that was under him, went away.

10 And one that saw it, tolde Joab, saying, Beholde, I saw Absalom hanged in an oke.

11 ¶ Then Joab said unto the man that told

o God sheweth himselfe most liberal to him, when they seeme to be utterly desolate.

a For certaine of the Rubenites, Gailites, and of the halfe tribe, could not beare the insolencie of the sonne against the father, and therefore loyned with David,

b Signifying, that a good governour ought to be so deare unto his people, that they will rather lose their lives, then that ought should come unto him, c So called, because the Ephraimites, (as some say) fed their cattell beyond Jordan in this wood.

then diddest thou not there smite him to the 12 Then the man layde vnto Ioab, Though I should directue a thousand of silver in mine hand, yet would I not lay mine hand vpon the kings sonne: for in our bearing the king charged thee, and Abisai, and Ittai, saying, Beware lest any touch

13 If I had done it, it had bene & the danger of my life: for nothing can be hidde from the King: yea, thou thy selfe wouldest haue bene against me.

14 Then layde Ieab, I will not thus tarie with thee. And hee tooke three darts in his hand, and thrust them : thorow Abailon, while hee was yet alive in the mids of the oke.

15 And ten servants that bare Joabs armour, compassed about and smote Absalom, and slew him.

16 Then Joab & blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Hracl: for Joab held back the people.

17 And they took Abshalom, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and layed a mighty great heape of stones vpon him: and all Israel fled every one to his tent.

18 Now Abshalom in his life time had taken and reared him vnder a pillar, which is in the kings dale: for hee sayde, I haue not tyme to keepe my name in remembrance. and hee called the pillar after his owne name, and it is called vnto this day, Abshaloms place.

19 ¶ Then said Abimeaz the sonne of Zadok, I pray thee, let me runne, and heare the king tidings, that the Lord hath & deliuered him out of the hand of his enemies.

20 And Iob layde vnto him, Thou shalt not be the messenger to day, but thou shalt beare tidings another time, but to day thou shalt beare none: for the kings sonne is dead.

21 Then said Iſaiah to Uſſi, See, tell the king what thou haſt ſcene. And Uſſi bowed himſelfe vnto Iſaiah, and ranne.

22 Then said Ahimaaz the sonne of Zadok againe to Iobab, What I pray thee, if I also run after Cushite? And Iobab said, Wherefore hast thou wilt thou runne, my sonne, seeing thou hast no tidings to bring?

23 Yet what if I runne? Then hee said vnto him, Run. So Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plaine, and ouertwent Cush.

24 Now David sat between the two gates. And the watchman went to the top of the gate upon the wall, and lift up his eyes, and saw, and behold, a man came running alone.

25 And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the king said, If he be alone, I he bringeth tidings. And he came apace, and drew neere.

26 And the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman called unto the porter, and said, Behold, another man runneth alone. And the king said, He also bringeth tidings.

27 And the watchman said, I see the running of the foimoll is like the running of Ahimaaz the sonne of Zadoi. Then the king said, He is a good man, and commeth with good tidings.

28 And Ahimaaz called, and said unto the king, Peace be with thee, and he fell down to the earth upon his face before the king, and said, Blessed be the Lord thy God, who hath delivered up the men that lift up their hands against my lord the king.

29 And the king said, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the king's servant, and me thy servant, I sawe a great tumult, but I knew not what.

30 And the king said vnto him, Turne aside, and stand here: so he turned aside, and stood still.

31 And behold, Cushite came, and Cushite said, I Tidings my lord the king: for the Lord hath delivered thee this day out of the hand of all that rose against thee.

32 Then the king said vnto Cushi, Is the yong man Absolom safe? And Cushi answered, The enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise against thee to do thee hurt, be as that yong man is.

33 And the king was<sup>1</sup> mooued, and went by to the chamber ouer the gate, and wept:
and as hee went, thus hee said, O my sonne Absalom, my sonne, my sonne Absalom:

my sonne, my sonne.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Ioab encourageth the king. 8 David is restored. 23 Shimei is pardoned. 24 Mephibosheth meeteth the king. 39 Barzillai departeth. 41 Israel stirreth with Iudab.

AND it was told Joab, Behold, the king weepeth and mourneth for Absalom.

2 Therefore the victorie of that day was turned into mourning to all the people:
for the people heard say that day, The king sorroweth for his sonne.

3 And the people went that day into the citie secretly, as people confounded hide themselves when they flee in battell. 10

4 So the king hid his face, and the king cried with a lowde voyce, My sonne Absalom, Absalom my sonne, my sonne.

5 ¶ Then Iob came into the house to the king, and said, Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy seruants, which this day haue saued thy life, and the liues of thy sonnes and of thy daughters, and the liues of thy wiues, and the liues of thy concubines.

6 In that thou lovest thine enemies, and hatest thy friends: for thou hast declared this day, that thou regardest neither thy pitious no: seruants: therefore this day I perceive that if Absalom had liued: and wee all had died this day, that then it would haue: pleased thee well.

7 Now therefore by, come out, and speak : comfortably unto thy seruants : by I sweare by the Lord ; Except thou come out, there will not tarte one man with thee this

this night: and that will be worse unto thee, then all the evil that fell on thee from thy youth hitherto.

8 Then the King arose, and ate in the gate: and they told unto all the people, saying, Behold, the King doeth sit in the gate: and all the people came before the King: for Israel had fed every man to his tent.

9 ¶ Then all the people were at a strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The King saith he is out of the hand of our enemies, and hee delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines, and now he is fled out of the land for Abshalom.

10 And Abshalom, whom wee appointed our he, is dead in battell: therefore why are ye so slow to bring the King againe?

11 But King David sent to Zadok, and to Abiathar the Priests, saying, Speake unto the Elders of Iudah, and say, why are ye behinde to bring the King againe to his house? (for the saying of all Israel is come unto the King, even to his house.)

12 We are my brethren: my bones and my flesh are yet: wherefore then are yet the last that bring the King againe?

13 Also say ye to Amasai, Art thou not my bone and my flesh? God doe so to me & more also, if thou be not captain of the host to me for ever in the house of Iacob.

14 So he bowed the hearts of all the men of Iudah, as of one man: therefore they sent to the King, saying, Returne thou with all thy servants.

15 ¶ So the King returned, and came to Jordan. And Iudah came to Gihon, for to goe to meete the King, and to conduct him over Jordan.

16 ¶ And Shimei the sonne of Gera the sonne of Ishtai, which was of Babylon, halted and came downe with the men of Iudah to meete King David.

17 And a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Siba the servant of the house of Saul, and his sixtene sonnes and twentie servants with him, and they went over Jordan before the King.

18 And there went over a boate to carrie over the Kings household, and to doe him pleasure. Then Shimei the sonne of Gera fell before the King, when he was come over Jordan.

19 And said unto the King, Let not my lord impute it wickednesse unto mee, nor remember the thing that thy servant did wickedly when my lord the King departed out of Jerusalem: that the King should take it to his heart.

20 For thy servant doeth knowe, that I have done amiss: therefore behold, I am the first this day of all the house of Iacob, that am come to goe downe to meete my lord the King.

21 But Abiathar the sonne of Phineas answered, and said, Shall not Shimei die for this, because hee cursed the Lords anointed?

22 And David said, What have I to doe with you, ye sonnes of Shimei, that this day ye should bee adversaries unto mee? Shall there any man die this day in Israel: for doe not I knowe, that I am this day King over Israel?

23 Therefore the King sayde unto Shimei, Thou shalt not die: for the King swaere unto him.

24 ¶ And Mephibosheth the sonne of Saul came downe to meete the King, and had neither washed his feete, nor washed his beard, nor washed his clothes from the time the King departed, until hee returned in peace.

25 And when hee was come to Jerusalem, and met the King, the King said unto him, Wherefore weentest not thou with mee, Mephibosheth?

26 And hee answered, My lord the King, my servant decieved me: for thy servant said, I would have mine ass saddled to ride thereon, for to goe with the King, because thy servant is lame.

27 And he hath accused thy servant unto my lord the King: but my lord the King is as an Angel of God: doe therefore thy pleasure.

28 For all my fathers house were dead men before my lord the King, yet didst thou set thy servant among them that did ease at thyne owne table: what right therefore have I to crie yet any more unto the King?

29 And the King sayde unto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I have sayde, Thou, and Siba divide the lands.

30 And Mephibosheth said unto the King, Pardon him take al, seeing my lord the King is come home in peace.

31 ¶ Then Barzilai the Gileadite came downe from Rogelim, and went over Jordan with the King, to conduct him over Jordan.

32 Now Barzilai was a very aged man, even fourescore yeere olde, and hee had provided the King of sustenance, while hee lay at Mahanaim: for he was a man of very great substance.

33 And the King sayde unto Barzilai, Come over with mee, and I will feede thee with me in Jerusalem.

34 And Barzilai sayde unto the King, How long have I to live, that I should goe up with the King to Jerusalem?

35 I am this day fourescore yeere olde: and can I discern betweene good & euill? I have thy servant any taste in that I eat, or in that I drinke? Can I heare any more the voyce of singing men and women: wherefore then should thy servant bee any more a burden unto my lord the King?

36 Thy servant will goe a little way over Jordan with the King, & why will the King recompense it with such a reward?

37 I pray thee, let thy servant turne backe againe, that I may die in mine owne citie, and bee buried in the grave of my father & of my mother: but behold thy servant Chimham, let him goe with my lord the King, and doe to him what shall please thee.

38 And the King answered, Chimham shall goe with me, and I will doe to him that thou shalt be content with: and whatsoever thou

40 ¶ Then the King went to Gilgal, and Chunham went with him, and all the people of Iudah conducted the King, and also halfe the people of Israel.

41 And behold, all the men of Israel came to the King, and said vnto the King, Why haue our brethren the men of Iudah stolen thee away, and haue brought the king and his household, and all Dauids men with him oute Jordan?

42 And all the men of Iudah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is neere of kinne to vs: and wherefore now be ye angry for this matter? haue wee eaten of the Kings cost, or haue wee taken any bribes?

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Iudah, and said, We haue ten parts in the King, and haue also more right to Dauid then ye. Why then did ye despise vs, that our aduise should not be first had in restoring our King? And the words of the men of Iudah were these: then the words of the men of Israel.

CHAP. XX.

1 Sheba raiseth Israel against Dauid. 10 Iobab killeth Amasa traitorously. 22 The head of Sheba is deliuered to Iobab. 23 Dauids chiefe officers.

¶ Then there was come a wicked man, (named Sheba the sonne of Bichai, a man of Gemin) and he blew the trumpet, and said, We haue no part in Dauid, neither haue wee inheritance in the sonne of Ishai: every man to his tents, O Israel.

2 So every man of Israel went from Dauid, and followed Sheba the sonne of Bichai: but the men of Iudah claue fast vnto their King, from Jordan euen to Ierusalem.

3 When Dauid then came to his house to Ierusalem, the king tooke the ten women his concubines, that he had left behind him to keepe the house, and put them in ward, and fed them, but lay no more with them: but they were enclosed vnto the day of their death, liuing in widowhood.

4 ¶ Then said the King to Amasa, Assemble mee the men of Iudah within three dayes, and be thou here present.

5 So Amasa went to assemble Iudah, but hee tarried longer then the time which he had appointed him.

6 Then Dauid said to Abithai, Nowe shall Sheba the sonne of Bichai doe us more harme then did Absalom: take thou therefore thy Ioyds seruants, and follow after him, least hee get him walled cities, and escape vs.

7 And there went out after him Iobabs men, and the Cherethites and the Pelishtines, and all the mightie men: and they departed out of Ierusalem, to follow after Sheba the sonne of Bichai.

8 When they were at the great stone, which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them, and Iobabs garment, that he had put on, was girded vnto him, and vpon it was a sword girded, which hangd on his loynes in the sheath, and as hee went, it vied to fall out.

9 And Iobab said to Amasa, Art thou in I haunch my brother? And Iobab tooke Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kille him.

10 But Amasa tooke no heed to the sword that was in Iobabs hand: for therewith hee smote him in the fifth ribbe, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and I smote him not the second time: so hee died. Then Iobab and Abithai his brother followed after Sheba the sonne of Bichai.

11 And one of Iobabs mens stood by him, and said, Wee that fauoured Iobab, a hee that is of Dauids part, let him goe after Iobab.

12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the mids of the way: and when the man sawe that all the people stood still, hee remoued Amasa out of the way into the field, and cast a cloth vpon him, because hee said that every one that came by, stood still.

13 ¶ When hee was remoued out of the way, every man went after Iobab, to followe after Sheba the sonne of Bichai.

14 And hee went thowt all the tribes of Israel vnto Abel, and Bethmachab, and all places of Berzin: and they gathered together, and went also after him.

15 So they came, and besieged him in Abel, neere to Bethmachab: and they cast by a mount against the cite, and the people thereof stood on the rampier, and all the people that was with Iobab, destroyed and cast downe the wall.

16 Then cried a wise woman out of the cite, Heare, heare, I pray you, say vnto Iobab, Come thou hither, that I may speake with thee.

17 And when hee came neere vnto her, the woman said, Art thou Iobab? And hee answered, Yea. And she said to him, Heare the words of thine handmaide. And hee answered, I doe heare.

18 Then she sake thus, They sake in the olde time, saying, They should alke of Abel. And so haue they continued.

19 I am one of them, that are peaceable and faithfull in Israel: and thou goest about to destroy a cite, and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou denounce the impietie of the Lord?

20 And Iobab answered, and said, God forbid, God forbid it mee, that I should destroy a cite, or destroy it.

21 The matter is not so, but a man of mount Ephraim (Sheba the sonne of Bichai, by name) hath put by his hand against the King, euen against Dauid: deliuer vs him onely, and I will depart from the cite. And the woman said vnto Iobab, Behold, his head shall be thowen to thee ouer the wall.

22 Then the woman went vnto all the people with her wise doings, and they cutt off the head of Sheba the sonne of Bichai, and cast it to Iobab: then hee blew the trumpet, and they retired from the cite, every quere unto his tent: and Ioad, returned to Jerusalem unto the king.

23. ¶ Then Ioad was over all the hoste of Israel, and Beniah the sonne of Jehoiada over the Cherethites and over the Pelishtines.

24. And Adoram over the tribute, and Johabab the sonne of Ahima the recorder,

25. And Shobi was scribe, and Zadok and Abiathar the Priests.

26. And also Ira the hairite was chief about Dauid.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Three deare yeeres. 9 The vengeance of the sonnes of Saul lighteth on his sinen finnes, which are hanged. 15 Four great battels, which Dauid had against the Philistines.

¶ Then there was a famine in the dayes of Dauid, three yeeres together: and Dauid asked counsell of the Lord, and the Lord answered, Is it for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he slew the Gibeonites.

2. ¶ Then the king called the Gibeonites, and said unto them, (nowe the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but a remnant of the Amorites, unto whom the children of Israel had sowne: but Saul sought to slay them for his zeale toward the children of Israel and Judah)

3 And Dauid said unto the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you, and wherewith shall I make the attemperment, that yet may blesse the inheritance of the Lord?

4. ¶ The Gibeonites then answered him, We will have no silver nor gold of Saul, nor of his house, neither for vs shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he sayd, What yet shall say, that will I do for you.

5. ¶ Then they answered the king, The man that consumed vs, and that imagined euill against vs, so that we are destroyed from remaining in any coast of Israel.

6. ¶ Let leuen men of his sonnes be deliuered unto vs, and wee will hang them by vnto the Loyde in Gibeah of Saul, the Loyds chosen. And the king said, I will giue them.

7. ¶ But the king had compassion on Shephobeth the sonne of Jonathan the sonne of Saul, because of the Loyds othe, that was betwene them, even betwene Dauid and Jonathan the sonne of Saul.

8. ¶ But the king took the two sonnes of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom hee bare unto Saul, euen Armoni and Shephobeth, and the five sonnes of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom hee bare to Adriel, the sonne of Barzillai the Gheolathite.

9. ¶ And he deliuered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, which hanged them in the mountaine before the Lord: so they died all foure together, and they were slaine in the time of harvest: in the first dayes, and in the beginning of Barley harvest.

10. ¶ Then Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and hanged it vp for her vpon the rocks, from the beginning of harvest, untill water dropped vpon them from the heauen, and suffered neither the birds of the aire to light on them by day, nor beasts of the field by night.

11. ¶ And it was tolde Dauid what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah the concubine of Saul had done.

12. And Dauid went and tooke the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the citizens of Jabesh Gilead, which had stolen them from the street of Beththan, where the Philistines had hanged them, when the Philistines had slaine Saul in Gilboa.

13. So hee brought thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his sonne, and they gathered the bones of him that were hanged.

14. And the bones of Saul and of Jonathan his sonne buried they in the countrey of Benjamin in Zelah, in the grave of his father: and when they had performed all that the King had commanded, God was then appeased with the land.

15. ¶ Again the Philistines had warre with Israel: and Dauid went downe, and his seruants with him, and they fought against the Philistines, and Dauid slaine.

16. ¶ Then Ish-bonob which was of the sons of Harappah (the head of whose speare weyed three hundred shekels of brasse) euen hee being girded with a newe sworde, thought to haue slaine Dauid.

17. But Abisai the sonne of Neriah succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. ¶ Then Dauids men swore vnto him, saying, Thou shalt go no more out with vs to battell: lest thou quench the light of Israel.

18. ¶ And after this also there was a battell with the Philistines at Gobathen Gebethai the Gubathite siewe Gath, which was one of the townes of Harappah.

19. And there was yet another battell in God with the Philistines, where Elkanah the sonne of Isare-ogegim, a Berthehemite, slew Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose speare was like a weavers beame.

20. Afterward there was also a battell in Gath, where was a man of a great stature, and had on every hand fire fingers, and on euery foote fire toes, foure and twentie in number: who was also the sonne of Harappah.

21. And when hee reuiled Israel, Jonathan the son of Ahima the brother of Dauid slew him.

22. These foure were borne to Harappah in Gath, and died by the hand of Dauid and by the hands of his seruants.

CHAP. XXII.

a In token of the wonderful benefits, that he receiued of God, Psa. 124. b By the diuinitie of these

3 God's my strength, in his will I trust : my shield, and the bane of my salvation, my hit tower and my refuge : my Saviour, thou hast saved me from violence.

4 I will call on the Lord, who is worthy to be prayed : so shall I be safe from mine enemies.

5 For the pangues of death have compassed me : the floods of ungodliness have made me afraid.

6 The sorowes of the grave compassed me about, the snares of death overtook me.

7 But in my tribulation did I call upon the Lord, and cry to my God, and hee did heare my voyce out of his temple, and my cry did come into his eares.

8 Then the earth trembled and quaked : the foundations of the heaven mooved, and shook, because he was angry.

9 Smoke went out of his nostrils, and consuming fire out of his mouth : coles were kindled thereat.

10 He boweth the heavens also, and came down, and darkness was under his feet.

11 And hee rode upon Cherub and did flye, and he was seene upon the wings of the winde.

12 And hee made darkness a tabernacle round about him, even the gatherings of waters, and the cloudes of the ayre.

13 At the brightness of his presence the coles of fire were kindled.

14 The Lord thundered from heaven, and the most hit gave his voyce.

15 Hee shot arrowes also, and scattered them : to wit, lightning and destroyed them.

16 The channels also of the sea appeared, even the foundations of the world were discovered by the rebuking of the Lord, and at the blast of the breath of his nostrils.

17 He sent from above, and tooke me : hee drew me out of many waters.

18 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me : for they were too strong for me.

19 They prevented me in the day of my calamitie, but the Lord was my stay.

20 And brought mee forth into a large place : he delivered me, because he favoured me.

21 The Lord rewarded me according to my righteousness : according to the pureness of mine hands he recompensed me.

22 For I kept the wayes of the Lord, and did not wickedly against my God.

23 For all his lawes were before me, and his statutes : I did not depart therefrom.

24 I was upright also toward him, and have kept me from my wickedness.

25 Therefore the Lord did reward me according to my righteousness, according to my pureness before his eyes.

26 Alas the godly thou wilt shewe thy selfe godly : with the upright man thou wilt shewe thy selfe upright.

27 As the pure thou wilt shewe thy selfe pure, and with the sorrowd thou wilt shewe thy selfe sorrowd.

28 Thus thou wilt save the poore people : but thine eyes are upon the haughty to humble them.

29 Surely thou art my light, O Lord : and the Lord will lighten my darkness.

30 For by thee have I broken through an holke, and by my God have I leaped over a wall.

31 The way of God is incorrupt : the word of the Lord is tried in the fire : hee is a shield to all that trust in him.

32 For who is God besides the Lord : and who is mighty, save our God ?

33 God is my strength in battell, and maketh my way upright.

34 He maketh my feet like a hindes feet, and hath set me upon mine hit places.

35 He teacheth mine hands to fight, so that a bow of yballe is broken with mine armes.

36 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation, and thy loving kindness hath caused me to increase.

37 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, and mine heeles have not slid.

38 I have pursued mine enemies and destroyed them, and have not turned againe untill I had consumed them.

39 Yea, I have consumed them and thrust them through, and they shall not arise, but shall fall under my feet.

40 For thou hast girded me with power to battell, and them that arose against me, hast thou subdued under me.

41 And thou hast given me the neckes of mine enemies, that I might destroy them that hate me.

42 They looked about, but there was none to save them, even unto the Lord, but he answered them not.

43 Then did I beate them as small as the dust of the earth : I did tread them flat as the clay of the streets, and did spread them abroad.

44 Thou hast also delivered mee from the contentions of my people : thou hast preserved me to be the head over nations : the people which I knew not, do serve me.

45 Strangers shall see in subiection to me : as those as they heare, they shall obey me.

46 Strangers shall shinke away, and feare in their private chambers.

47 Let the Lord live, and blessed be my strength : and God, even the force of my salvation be praised.

48 It is God that giveth me power to revenge me, and subdue the people under me.

49 And rescue me from mine enemies : (thou hast lift me up from them that rose against me, thou hast delivered me from the cruel man.

50 Therefore I will praise thee, O Lord, among the nations, and will sing unto thy name.

51 Hee is the tower of salvation for his kings, and sheweth mercy to his anointed, even to David, and to his seed for ever.

number ye the people, that I may know the number of the people.

3 And Ioad layde vnto the King, The Lord thy God increase the people in Uniuersall fold more then they be, and that the eyes of my lord the King may see it: but woe doth my lord the King desire this thing?

24 And withstanding the king's word persuaded against Joab and against the captaines of the host: therefore Joab and the captaines of the host went out from the presence of the king: for number the people of Israel.

5 And they passed out Jordan, & pitched in Arcoer at the right side of the city that is in the midnes of the valley of Gad and toward Dan.

6 Then they came to Sidon, and to Tahthim-hodshi, so they came to Dan Jaan and so abode to Sidon.

7 And came to the fortress of I-Syke, and to all the cities of the Hittites and of the Canaanites, and went to seek the South of Judah even to Be'er-Saba.

8 ¶ So when they had gone about all the land, they returned to Jerusalem at the end of nine months, and ruled the people.

9 And Joab delivered the number unto the king: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand strong men that drew swords, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand.

IO Then Dauid's heart smote him, after that he had numb'd the people: and Dauid said vnto the Lord, I haue shaked the dingy in that I haue done: O Lord, I beseeech thee, take away the iniquitie of thy seruant: for I haue done very foolishly.

H And when David was by in the morning, the word of the Lord came unto the Prophet Gad, saying,

12. See, and say vnto Dauid, Thus saith the Lorde, I offer thee three things, whiche thou wilt of them I shall doe vnto thee.

13 So God came to Dauid, and said vnto him, and said vnto him, I will thinke that I see thee peeres famine come vpon thee in thy land, or wilt thou see thee moneths before thine enemies, they following thee, or that there be three dayes pestilence in the land:
now aduise thee, and see, what answer I shall giue to him that sent me.

14. ¶ And Dauid saye vnto God, I am in a wonderfull straffe: let vs fall now into the hand of the Lorde, (for his mercies are gleads and let me not fall into the hands of man.

11:17 So the Lord sent a pestilence in Israel, from the morning, even to the time appointed: and there died of the people from Dan, even to Beer-sheba seventy thousand men.

16 And when the Angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the Lord repented of the evil, and said to the Angel, that he should not destroy the people. It is sufficient to hold many cities in hand. And the Angel of the Lord was by the rising place of Achanah in the Valley.

17 And Dauid saide vnto the Lord,
(when he said the Angel that smote the people) he said, Becholt, I haue sinned, yet
I haue done it afore: I haue done, I haue done thy word: let thine hand, O Lord, ther, bee against me and against my father-house, for thou hast done right.

18 And God came the same day to Dauid, and layd vnto him, Arise up; feare an altar vnto the Lorde in the thursching doore of Beersheba. And Dauid said, I will.

19. And David (according to saying of the Lord) had commanded.

10 And Shimei looked on to the King and his servants coming toward him, and Shimei went out, and bowed himself before the King on his face to the ground.

21. Quid? Quidnam? In quo, quid? Quid est? Quid tulerit? Quid? Quid? Quid? Quid? Quid? Quid?
David answered, To buy the thyrsus, Horn of silver, his to build an Altar unto the Lord: that the plague may cease from the land.

Then Annah Thye wife Dams, Let my loyde the King take and offer what seemeth him good in his eyes: I beholde the oven for the burnt offering, and charred the instruments of the oven for meat.

23 And he things did befall him — as he King came unto the King: and Crispian said unto the King, To be Lord the Gode be fauor-able, whether I live and die, it is your will.

24. Then the King said unto Achish, What is it? but I will buy it of thee as a price, and will not offer burnt offering unto the Lord my God, of that which doth cost me nothing. So David bought a shield of brass, and the oven for: fifteen shekels of silver.

And David built an altar unto the Lord, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and the Lord was appeased toward the land, and the plague ceased from Israel.

● The first booke of the Kings.

THE ARGUMENT

BECAUSE the children of God should seek for no continuall rest and quietnesse in this world, the holy Ghost sheweth before our eyes in this booke, the varietie and change of things, which came to the people of Israel from the death of David, Salomon, and the rest of the Kings: vnto the death of Ahab, declaring how that flourishing kingdomes, except they be preferred by Gods protection, (who then fauoureth them when his Word is truly followed, vertue esteemed, vice punished, and concord maintained) fall to decay and come to nothing: as appeareth by the chiding of the kingdom vnder Roboam and Ieroboam, which before were but one people, and now by the full punishment of God were made two, wherof Iudah and Benjamin chide in Roboam: and this was called the earth, and hid themselves unto the king, and said, God save my lord king David for ever.

32 And King David said, Call me Joab: the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada. And they came before the king.

33 Then the king said unto them, Take with you the Jerusalem of your lord, and cause Salomon my sonne to ride upon mine own mule, and cause him to come to Gihon.

34 And let Joab the Priest and Nathan the Prophet anoint him there King over Israel, and blow ye the trumpet, and say, God save King Salomon.

35 Then come up after him, that he may come and sit upon my throne: and he shall be king in my stead: for I have appointed him to be prince over Israel, and over Judah.

36 Then Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, As he is, and the Lord God of my lord the king, I will do it.

37 As the Lord hath bene with my lord the king, so be with Salomon, and exalt his throne above the throns of my lord king David.

38 So Joab the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Gileadites went down, and caused Salomon to ride upon King Davids mule, and brought him to Gihon.

39 And Joab the Priest took an horn of myrrour out of the Tabernacle, and anointed Salomon: and they blew the trumpet, and all the people said, God save King Salomon.

40 And all the people came up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and danced with great joy, so that the earth was rung with the sound of them.

41 And Adonijah and all the guests that were with him, heard it: (and they had made an robe of eating,) and when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, What meaneth this noise and tumult in the city?

42 And as he yet spake, behold, Jonathan the sonne of Abiathar the Priest came: which he saw him, saying, Arise, thou, and Adonijah say, Come in: for thou art a worthy man, and hast done good things.

43 And Jonathan answered, and said, Adonijah, blessed our lord king David: for he hath made Salomon king.

44 And the king hath anointed him Joab the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Gileadites, and they have caused him to ride upon the king's mule.

45 And Joab the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, have anointed him here in Gihon: and they are gone up from thence to the altar, and the cite is moved: for ye have heard.

46 And Salomon also lifted up his voice, and said, Blessed be the Lord our God, who hath made me king.

47 And moreover the kings servants came to bless our lord king David, saying,

God make the name of Salomon more famous than thy name, and exalt his throne above the throns: therefore the king bowed upon the bed.

48 And thus says the king also, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who hath made good for me one to sit on my throne this day, even in my sight.

49 Then all the guests that were with Adonijah, were afraid, and rose up, and went every man his way.

50 And Adonijah fearing the presence of Salomon, arose, and went, and sought refuge on the houses of the altar.

51 And one told Salomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah doth leave king Salomon: for lo, he hath caught hold on the houses of the altar, saying, Let king Salomon leave me this day, that he will not slay his servant with the sword.

52 Then Salomon says, If he will turn himselfe a worthy man, he shall not: but he shall fall to the earth, but it touched not him, he shall live.

53 Then king Salomon sent, and they brought him from the altar, and he came, and did obedience unto king Salomon. And Salomon said unto him, Go to thine house.

CHAP. II.

1 David excheveth Salomon, and gives him a portion of the land, Barzillai, and Shimeon, 10 The death of David, 17 Adonijah excheveth Salomon, 25 He is slain, 35 Joab was placed in Ahithars house, 41 He is slain.

Then the dayes of Davids death were come: that he should die, and he charged Salomon his sonne, saying,

1 I give thee a part of all the earth: be strong therefore, and firm the life a man, and take heed to the charge of the Lord thy God, so walke in his wayes, and keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgements, and his testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moyses, that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest, and in every thing wherunto thou turnedst thee.

2 What the Lord may confirme his word which he hath said, saying, Arise thou, take heed to thy way, that thou walke therein, and thou shalt prosper, and thou shalt be a man of peace, and thou shalt not fall by the sword of the people, upon the throne of David thy father.

3 Thou knowest also what Joab the sonne of Ner hath done, and wher he hath slain the two captains of the host of Israel, Barzillai the Gileadite, and Abiathar the Priest, the sonne of Ahimelech, and thou shalt know that the Lord hath said, that thou shalt prosper, and thou shalt be a man of peace, and thou shalt not fall by the sword of the people, upon the throne of David thy father.

4 And thou shalt know that the Lord hath said, that thou shalt prosper, and thou shalt be a man of peace, and thou shalt not fall by the sword of the people, upon the throne of David thy father.

5 And thou shalt know that the Lord hath said, that thou shalt prosper, and thou shalt be a man of peace, and thou shalt not fall by the sword of the people, upon the throne of David thy father.

6 And thou shalt know that the Lord hath said, that thou shalt prosper, and thou shalt be a man of peace, and thou shalt not fall by the sword of the people, upon the throne of David thy father.

7 And thou shalt know that the Lord hath said, that thou shalt prosper, and thou shalt be a man of peace, and thou shalt not fall by the sword of the people, upon the throne of David thy father.

8 And thou shalt know that the Lord hath said, that thou shalt prosper, and thou shalt be a man of peace, and thou shalt not fall by the sword of the people, upon the throne of David thy father.

9 And thou shalt know that the Lord hath said, that thou shalt prosper, and thou shalt be a man of peace, and thou shalt not fall by the sword of the people, upon the throne of David thy father.

So they came to me: when I fled from Abiathar my brother.

¶ And behold, with thee is Shimai the Gera, the sonne of Jerimi, of Bethanien, which cursed me with an horrible curse in the day when I went to Bethanien: but he came downe to meete mee at Iudon, and I waxe to him by the way, saying, I will not stay thee with the sword.

¶ But thou shalt not count him innocent: for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou suggestest to doe vnto him: therefore thou shalt cause his honore head to go downe to the grave with a blood.

¶ So David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the cite of Dauid.

¶ And the daies which Dauid reigned vpon Israel were foure yeres: seven yeres reigned he in Hebron, and thirte and three yeres reigned he in Ierusalem.

¶ Then saie Salomon vpon the throne of Dauid his father: and his kingdome was established mightily.

¶ And Abiathar the sonne of Phineas came to Beth-sheba the mother of Salomon: and he saide, I commeth thou peaceably? And he saide, Peace.

¶ He saide moreover, I haue a suite vnto thee. And he saide, Say on.

¶ Then he saide, Thou knowest that the kingdome was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reigne: howbeit the kingdome is turned away, and is my brothers: for it came to him by the Law.

¶ Now therefore I aske thee one request: I reque thee not. And he saide vnto him, Say on.

¶ And he saide, Speake, I pray thee, vnto Salomon the king, (for hee will not say thee nay) that he give me A-biathar the Shunammite to wife.

¶ And Bath-sheba saide, Well, I will speake for thee vnto the king.

¶ And Bath-sheba therefore went vnto king Salomon, to speake vnto him for Adonijah: and the king rose to meete her, and bowed himselfe vnto her, and late downe on his throne: and hee caused a seate to bee set for the kings mother, and she sat at his right hand.

¶ Then she saide, I desire a small request of thee: say me not nay. Then the king saide vnto her, Akeay, my mother: for I will not say thee nay.

¶ She saide then, Let A-biathar the Shunammite bee giuen to Adonijah thy brother to wife.

¶ But King Salomon answered and saide vnto his mother, And why doest thou aske A-biathar the Shunammite for Adonijah? for him the kingdome also: for he is mine elder brother, and hath sayd vnto him both I will be the Priest, and I will be the sonne of Jerubael.

¶ Then King Salomon waxe by the Law, saying, God doe so to me and more also, if Adonijah hath not spoken this word against his owne life.

¶ Nowe therefore as the Lord threateth, who hath established me, and set me on the throne of Dauid my father, who also hath made me an house, as he promised, Adonijah shall surely die this day.

¶ And king Salomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada, and hee smote him that he died.

¶ Then the king layd vnto Abiathar the Priest, Goe to Anathoth vnto thine owne fields: for thou art unworthy of death: but I will not thinke this day kill thee, because thou barest the Arke of the Lord God before Dauid my father, and because thou hast suffered in all, wherein my father hath bene afflicted.

¶ So Salomon call out Abiathar from being Priest vnto the Lord, that he might fulfill the words of the Lord, which he spake against the house of Eli in Shiloh.

¶ Then tidings came to Joab: (for Joab had turned after Adonijah, but hee turned not after Salomon,) and Joab fled vnto the Tabernacle of the Lord, & caught hold on the corners of the altar.

¶ And it was told king Salomon, that Joab was fled vnto the Tabernacle of the Lord, and behold, he is by the altar. Then Salomon sent Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall vpon him.

¶ And Benaiah came to the Tabernacle of the Lord, & layd vnto him, Thus saith the king, Come out. And he saide, Nay, but I will die here. Then Benaiah brought the king worde againe, saying, Thus saide Joab, and thus hee answered me.

¶ And the king layd vnto him, Doe as he hath said, and slay him, and bury him, that thou mayest take away the blood, which Joab shed causelesse, from me and from the house of my father.

¶ And the Lord shall bring his blood vpon his owne head: for hee is more two men more righteous and better then he, and slew them with the sword, and my father Dauid knew not: to wit, Abner the sonne of Neri, captaine of the hoste of Israel, and Amasa the sonne of Iether, captaine of the hoste of Iudah.

¶ Their blood shall therefore returne vpon the head of Joab, and on the head of his seedes for ever: but vpon Dauid, and vpon his seede, and vpon his house, and vpon his throne shall there bee peace for ever from the Lord.

¶ And Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada went by, and smote him, and slew him, and hee was buried in his owne house in the wilderness.

¶ And the king put Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada in his roome ouer the hoste: and the king let Iadok the Priest in the roome of Abiathar.

¶ Afterward the king sent, and called Shimai, and layd vnto him, Build thee an house in Ierusalem, and dwell there, and depart not thence any whit.

¶ For that day that thou goest out, and passest ouer the river of Kidon, know assuredly, that thou shalt die the death: thy blood shall be vpon thine owne head.

¶ And Shimai saide vnto the king, The things

Or, as he walked thing is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy seruant doe. So Shimei dwelt in Ierusalem many dayes.

39 And after thre yeeres two of the seruants of Shimei fled away vnto Achish sonne of Pharaoh king of Gath: and they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy seruants be in Gath.

40 And Shimei arose, & saddled his asse, and went to Gath to Achish, to seeke his seruants: and Shimei went and brought his seruants from Gath.

41 And it was told Salomon that Shimei had gone from Ierusalem to Gath, and was come againe.

42 And the king sent and called Shimei, and sayd vnto him, Did not I make thee to sweare by the Lord, and protested vnto thee, saying, That day that thou goest out, and walkest any whither, know assuredly, that thou shalt die the death: And thou saydest vnto mee, The thing is good, that I haue heard.

43 Why then hast thou not kept the othe of the Lord, and the commandment wherewith I charged thee?

44 The king said also to Shimei, Thou knowest all the wickednes wherunto thine heart is prynced, that thou didst to Dauid my father: the Lord therefore shall bring thy wickednes vpon thine owne head.

45 And let king Salomon bee blessed, and the throne of Dauid stablished before the Lord for euer.

46 So the king commanded Benaiab the sonne of Jehoiada: who went out and smote him that he died. And the kingdom was stablished in the hand of Salomon.

CHAP. III.

1 Salomon taketh Pharaohs daughter to wife. 2 The Lord appeareth to him, & giveth him wisdom. 3 The pleasing of the two harlots, and Salomons sentence therein.

Salomon then made affinitie with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and tooke Pharaohs daughter, and brought her into the city of Dauid, vntill hee had made an end of building his owne house, and the house of the Lord, and the wall of Ierusalem round about.

2 Onely the people sacrificed in the high places, because there was no house built vnto the name of the Lord: vntill those dayes.

3 And Salomon loved the Lord, walking in the ordinances of Dauid his father: onely he sacrificed and offered incense in the high places.

4 And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there: for that was the chief high place: a thousand burnt offerings did Salomon offer vpon that altar.

5 In Gibeon the Lord appeared to Salomon in a dreame by night, and God sayd, Aske what I shall give thee.

6 And Salomon sayd, Thou hast shewed vnto thy seruant Dauid my father great mercie, I when hee walked before thee in truth, and in right conscience, and in uprightnesse of heart with thee: and thou hast kept for him this great mercie, and hast giuen him a sonne, to sit on his throne, as appeareth this day.

7 And now, O Lord my God, thou hast made thy seruant king in steade of Dauid my father: and I am but a yong childe, and know not how to goe out and in.

8 And thy seruant is in the midst of thy people, which thou hast chosen, euen a great people, which cannot bee told, nor numbered for multitude.

9 Give therefore vnto thy seruant an vnderstanding heart to iudge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to iudge this thy mighty people?

10 And this pleased the Lord well, that Salomon had desired this thing.

11 And God sayd vnto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thy selfe long life, neither hast asked riches for thy selfe, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies, but hast asked for thy selfe vnderstanding to heare iudgement,

12 Behold, I haue done according to the words: for, I haue giuen thee a wise and an vnderstanding heart, so that there hath bene none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall arise the like vnto thee.

13 And I haue also giuen thee that, which thou hast not asked, both riches and honoure, so that among the kings there shall be none like vnto thee all thy dayes.

14 And if thou wilt walke in my wayes, to keepe mine ordinances, and my commandments, as thy father Dauid did walke, I will prolong thy dayes.

15 And when Salomon awoke, beholds, it was a dreame, and hee came to Ierusalem: and stood before the Arke of the covenant of the Lord, and offered burnt offerings, and made peace offerings, and made a feast to all his seruants.

16 Then came two harlots vnto the king, and stood before him.

17 And the one woman sayd, O my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house, and I was deliuered of a childe with her in the house:

18 And the third day after that I was deliuered, this woman was deliuered also: and wee were in the house together: no stranger was with vs in the house, and wee twaine.

19 And this womans sonne died in the night: for hee overlay him.

20 And shee arose at midnight, and tooke my sonne from my side, while thine hand mayd slept, and layd him in her bosome, and layd her dead sonne in my bosom.

21 And when I rose in the morning to giue my sonne sucke, behold, hee was dead: and when I had well considered him in the morning, behold, it was not my sonne, but she had borne.

22 Then the other woman sayd, Nay, burne some thing, and thy sonne is dead: againe she sayd, Nay, but thy sonne is dead, and mine aliue: thus they spake before the king.

13 Then said the king, She saith, This child is my sonne, and the dead is thy sonne; and the other saith, Nay, but the dead is my sonne, and the living is my sonne.

24 Then the king sayd, = Bring mee a sword; and they brought out a sword before the king.

25 And the king sayd, Divide mee the living child in twaine, and give the one halfe to thyne, and the other halfe to the other.

26 Then spake the woman, whose the living child was, unto the king, for her compassion was kindled toward her sonne, and she sayd, O my lord, give her the living child; and say him not: but the other sayd, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it.

27 Then the king answered, and sayde, Give her the living child, and say him not: he is his mother.

28 And all Israel heard the iudgement, which the king had iudged, and they feared the king: for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to doe iustice.

The princes & officers under Salomon. 22 The furniture for his victuals. 26 The number of his horses. 32 His bookes and writings.

1 And king Salomon was king over all Israel.

2 And these were his princes, Azariah the sonne of Zadok the High Priest,

3 Eliphaz and Abiath the sonnes of Eliezer the seer, Jehoshaphat the sonne of Achub the recorder,

4 And Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada was over the port, and Zadok and Abiathar High Priests,

5 And Azariah the sonne of Bathan was over the officers, and Sabud the sonne of Naaman the Priest was the kings friend.

6 And Adishar was over the household: and Adoniram the sonne of Bada was over the tribute.

7 And Salomon had twelue officers over all Israel, which provided victuals for the king: and his household: & every man had a month in the yere to provide victuals.

8 And these are their names: the sonne of Hur in mount Ephraim.

9 The sonne of Dekar in Zabulon, and in Zabulon, and Beth-shechem, and Beth-leon and Beth-hanan:

10 The sonne of Heber in Gad, to whom pertained Socchoh, and all the land of Geder.

11 The sonne of Abinadab in all the region of Dor, which had Capach the daughter of Salomon to wife.

12 Baana the sonne of Ahitub in Tamar, and Belegdo, and in all Beth-shean, which is by Tartanah beneath Jersai, from Beth-shean to Abel-meholah, even till beyond euer againe Jokmeam:

13 The sonne of Ezer in Ramoth Gilead, and hee were the townes of Iair, the sonne of Manasseh, which were in Gilead, and under him was the region of Argob, which is in Bashan: cherekeore great cities with walles and barres of brasse.

14 Abinadab the sonne of Iddo had to Pashanum:

15 Abinadab in Naphtali, he tooke Bas-math the daughter of Salomon to wife:

16 Baauah the sonne of Iphai in Acher and in Aloth:

17 Jehoshaphat the sonne of Baruah in Machar:

18 Shimei the sonne of Elai in Benjamin:

19 Ezer the sonne of Uri in the country of Gilead, the land of Shimon king of the Amosites, and of Og king of Bashan, and was officer alone in the land.

20 Judah and Israel were many, as the sand of the sea in number, eating, drinking, and making merry.

21 And Salomon reigned over all kingdoms, from the Euphrates unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt, and they brought presents, and served Salomon all the dayes of his life.

22 And Salomons victuals for one day, were thirtie & the stores of fine flour, and cherekeore measures of meale:

23 Ten fat oxen, and twentie oxen of the pastures, & an hundred sheepe, beside harts, and bucks, and bugles, and fowle.

24 For he ruled in all the region on the other side of the river, from Tiphiah even unto Izzah, over all the kings on the other side of the river: and he had peace round about him on every side.

25 And Judah and Israel dwelt without feare, every man under his vine, and under his fig tree, from Dan even to Beer-sheva, all the dayes of Salomon.

26 And Salomon had foure thousand stables of horses for his charrets, and twelue thousand horsemen.

27 And these officers provided victual for king Salomon, and for all that came to king, Salomons table, every man his month, and they suffered to lack nothing.

28 Barley also and strawe for the horses & mules brought they unto the place where the officers were, every man according to his charge.

29 And God gave Salomon wisdom, and understanding exceeding much, and a large heart, even as the sand that is on the sea shore.

30 And Salomons wisdom exceeded the wisdom of all the children of the East, and all the wisdom of Egypt.

31 For he was wiser then any man: yea then were Eshan the G-rabite, then Heman, then Chalcol, then Darda the sonnes of Bahol: and hee was famous throughout all nations round about.

32 And Salomon spake three thousand & six hundred sayings; and his songs were a thousand and five.

33 And hee spake of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon, even unto the hyssop that springeth out of the wall: hee spake also of beasts and of fowles, and of creeping things, and of fishes.

34 And there came of all people to heare the wisdom of Salomon, from all kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisdom.

Chap. 4, 6.

And Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants unto Salomon, (for he had heard that they had anointed him king in the room of his father) because Hiram had loved David.

2 And Salomon sent to Hiram, saying, Thou knowest that David my father could not build an house unto the name of the Lord his God, for the warres which were about him on every side, untill the Lord had put them under the soles of his feete.

4 But now the Lord my God hath given me rest on every side, so that there is neither adversarie, nor euill to resist.

5 And beholde, I purpose to build an house unto the name of the Lord my God, as the Lord spake unto David my father, saying, Thy sonne, whom I will set upon thy throne for thee, he shall build an house unto my name.

6 Now therefore command, that they hew me cedar trees out of Lebanon, and my servants shall be with thy servants, and unto thee will I give the hire for thy servants, according unto all that thou shalt appoint: for thou knowest that there are none among vs, that can hew timber like unto the Sidonians.

7 And when Hiram heard the words of Salomon, he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be the Lord this day, which hath given unto David a wise son over this mighty people.

8 And Hiram sent to Salomon, saying, I have considered the things, for the which thou sentest unto me, and will accomplish all thy desire, concerning the cedar trees and figge trees.

9 My servants shall bring them downe from Lebanon to the sea: and I will convey them by sea in raftes unto the place that thou shalt shew me, and will cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receive them: now thou shalt doe me a pleasure to minister foode for my familie.

10 So Hiram gaue Salomon cedar trees, and three trees, euen his full desire.

11 And Salomon gaue Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat for food to his household, and twenty measures of beaten oyle. Thus much gaue Salomon to Hiram yeere by yeere.

12 And the Lord gaue Salomon wisdom as he promised him. And there was peace betwene Hiram and Salomon, and they two made a covenant.

13 And king Salomon raised a summe out of all Israel, and the summe was thirty thousand men:

14 Whom he sent to Lebanon, ten thousand a moneth by course: there were a moneth in Lebanon, and two moneths at home. And Adoniram was ouer the summe.

15 And Salomon had seuenie thousand that bare burdenes, and fourscore thousand maisons in the mountaine.

16 Besides the princes whom Salomon appointed ouer the worke, euen thre thousand and thre hundred, which ruled the people that wrought in the worke.

17 And the king commanded them, and they brought great stones and colly stones to make the foundation of the house, euen betwixt stones.

18 And Salomon wroughten, and the workemen of Hiram, & the maidens heued and prepared timber and stones for the building of the house.

C H A P. VI.

1 The building of the Temple, and the forme thereof. 12 The promise of the Lord to Salomon.

12 In the foure hundred and fourtie yeere (after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt) and in the fourth yeere of the reigne of Salomon ouer Israel, in the moneth 2<sup>d</sup>, (which is the second moneth) he built the house of the Lord.

2 And the house which king Salomon built for the Lord, was thirtie cubits long, and twenty broad, thirtie cubits high.

3 And the porch before the Temple of the house was twentie cubits long according to the breadth of the house, and thre cubits broad before the house.

4 And in the house hee made windowes, broad without and narrow within.

5 And by the wall of the house hee made galleries round about, euen by the wallies of the house round about the Temple, and the oracle, and made chambers round about.

6 The innermost gallery was five cubits broad, and the middlemost six cubits broad, and the third seven cubits broad, hee made rests round about without the house, that the beames should not be fastened in the wallies of the house.

7 And when the house was built, it was built of perfect stone, before it was brought, so that there was neither hammer, nor axe, nor any tooles of iron heard in the house while it was in building.

8 The doore of the middle chamber was in the right side of the house, and men went by with winding staire into the middlemost, & out of the middlemost into the third.

9 So he built the house and finished it, and heled the house, being wanted, with lining of cedar trees.

10 And he built the galleries upon all the wall of the house of fine cubits bright, and they were toynd to the house with beames of cedar.

11 And the word of the Lord came to Salomon, saying,

12 Concerning this house which thou buidest, if thou wilt walke in mine ordinances, and execute my iudgements, and keepe all my commandments, to walke in them, then will I performing unto thee my promise, which I promised to David thy father.

13 And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.

14 So Salomon built the house, and finished it,

14 And built the walls of the house within, with boordes of cedar tree from the pavement of the house unto the walls of the ceiling, and within he covered them with wood, and covered the floore of the house with planks of firre.

15 And hee built twentie cubites in the sides of the house with boordes of Cedar, from the floore to the wall, and hee prepared a place within for the oracle, even the most holy place.

16 But the house, that is, the temple before it, was fourtie cubits long.

17 And the Cedar of the house within was carved with knops, and graven with flowers: all was Cedar, so that no stone was seen.

18 And he prepared the place of the altar in the midst of the house within, to set the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord there.

19 And the plate of the oracle within was twentie cubites long, and twentie cubites broad, and twentie cubites high, and hee covered it with pure gold, and covered the altar with cedar.

20 So Salomon covered the house within with pure gold: and he set the place of the oracle with chaines of golde; and covered it with gold.

21 And hee overlaid all the house with golde, untill all the house was made perfect. And hee covered the whole altar that was before the oracle, with gold.

22 And within the oracle hee made two Cherubims of olive tree, ten cubits high.

23 The wing also of the one Cherub was five cubits, and the wing of the other Cherub was five cubits: from the uttermost part of one of his wings unto the uttermost part of the other of his wings, were ten cubits.

24 Also the other Cherub was of tenne cubits: both the Cherubims were of one measure and one like.

25 For the height of the one Cherub was ten cubits, and so was the other Cherub.

26 And hee put the Cherubims within the inner house, and the Cherubims stretched out their wings, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other Cherub touched the other wall: and their other wings touched one another in the midst of the house.

27 And hee overlaid the Cherubims with gold.

28 And hee carved all the wallies of the house round about with graven figures of Cherubims and of palm trees, and graven flowers within and without.

29 And the floore of the house hee covered with gold within and without.

30 And in the entering of the oracle hee made two boordes of olive tree: and the upper part and the postes were five square.

31 The two doores also were of olive tree, and hee grained them with graving of Cherubims and palm trees, and graven flowers, and covered them with golde, and layde thin golde upon the Cherubims and upon the palm trees.

32 And hee made for the doore of the Temple postes of olive tree four square.

33 But the two doores were of firre tree, the two sides of the one house were round, and the two sides of the other house were round.

34 And hee grained Cherubims, & palm trees, and carved flowers, and covered the carved works with golde finely wrought.

35 And he built the court within with three rowes of brewh stones, and one rowe of beames of cedar.

36 In the fourth yeere was the foundation of the house of the Lord in the month of Zilai.

37 And in the eleventh yeere in the month of Bul, (which is the right month) hee finished the house with all the furniture thereof, and in every point: so was hee seven yeere in building it.

CHAP. VIII.

The building of the house of Salomon. The excellent workmanship of Hiram in the pieces which he made for the Temple.

1 At Salomon was building his stone house: thirtie yeeres, and finished all his house.

2 Hee built also an house called the forest of Lebanon, an hundred cubites long, and fiftie cubites broad, and thirtie cubites high upon four rowes of cedar pillars, and cedar beames were layde upon the pillars.

3 And it was covered above with cedar upon the beames, that lay on the four and five pillars, sixteen in a rowe.

4 And y windows were in three rowes, and window was against window in three rankes.

5 And all the doores, and the five postes with the windows were four square, and window was over against window in three rankes.

6 And hee made a porch of pillars fiftie cubites long, and thirtie cubites broad, and the porch was before them, and before them were thirtie pillars.

7 Then hee made a porch for the throne, where hee indged, even a porch of iudgement, and it was fyled with cedar from pavement to pavement.

8 And in his house, where he dwelt, was an other hall more inward then the porch, which was of the same work. Also Salomon made an house for his daughter (whom he had taken to wife) like unto this porch.

9 All these were of costly stones, hewed by measures, and fyled with flaves within and without, from the foundation unto the roofe of an hand breadth, and on the outside to the great court.

10 And the foundation was of costly stones, and great stones, even of stones of ten cubites, and stones of eight cubites.

11 Above also were costly stones, squared by rule and boorde of cedar.

12 And the great court round about was with three rowes of brewh stones, and a rowe of cedar beames.

inner court of the house of the Lord, and to the porch of the house of the Lord.
13 ¶ Then King Solomon sent, and let one Ishmael out of Judah.

14 Hee was a widower some of the tribe of Manasse, his father being a man of Tyne, and wrought in brass: hee was full of wisdom, and understanding, and knowledge, to make all manner of worke in brass: hee came in King Solomon, and wrought all his worke.

15 And hee cast two pillars of brass: the height of a pillar was thirtie cubites, and a third of twelue cubites did compass it: either of the pillars.

16 And hee made two chapters of molten brass to sit on the tops of the pillars: the height of one of the chapters was five cubites, and the height of the other chapter was five cubites.

17 Hee made grates like networke, and twelue hundred like chains for the chapters that were on the toppe of the pillars, even leuen for the one chapter, and leuen for the other chapter.

18 And hee made the pillars and two towres of pomegranates round about in the one grate to cover the chapters that were upon the toppe. And thus did hee for the other chapter.

19 And the chapters that were on the toppe of the pillars were after a lillie worke in the porch, four cubites.

20 And the chapters upon the two pillars hee also adorne, lower against the bellie within the networke pomegranates: for two hundred pomegranates were in the two ranks above upon a richer of the chapters.

21 And hee set up the pillars in the porch of the Temple. And when hee had set up the right pillar, hee called the name thereof Boazim: and when hee had set up the left pillar, hee called the name thereof Boaz.

22 And upon the top of the pillars was work of lillies: for thus was the workmanship of the pillars finished.

23 ¶ And hee made a molten sea ten cubites wide from brimme to brimme, round in compass, and five cubites hie, and a line of thirtie cubites did compass it about.

24 And under the brimme of it were knops like twelve cucumbers compassing it round about, round in one cubite, compassing the sea: four about: and the two rowes of knops were cast, when it was molten.

25 It stood on twelue bulles, three looking toward the South, and three toward the North, and three toward the East, and three toward the West: and all their hinder parts were inward.

26 It was a hand breadth thicke, and the brimme thereof was like the waine of the brimme of a cuppe with flowers of lillies: it contained two thousand Bathes.

27 ¶ And hee made tenne bases of brass, one base upon four cubites long, and four cubites broad, and three cubites hie.

28 ¶ And the worke of the bases was on this manner, they had borders, and the borders were betweene the ledges:

29 And on the borders that were betweene the ledges, were lions, bulles, and Cherubims: and upon the ledges there was a base above: and beneath the lions and bulles, were additions made of four bases.

30 And every base had four twelue wheeles, and places of handles: and the four corners had 4 underletters: under the addition were underletters molten as the base of every addition.

31 And the mouth of it was within the chapter and above to measure by the cubite: for the mouth thereof was round made like a base, and it was a cubite and half a cubite, and within the mouth thereof were grates like networke, whose borders were four square, and not round.

32 And under the borders were four wheeles, and the arreters of the wheeles were to the base: and the height of a worke was a cubite and half a cubite.

33 And the fashion of the wheeles was like the fashion of a chariot wheele, their arreters, and their naves, and their spokes, and their spokes were all molten.

34 And four underletters were upon the four corners of one base: and the underletters thereof were of the base itselfe.

35 And in the toppe of the base was round compass of half a cubite hie round about: and upon the top of the base the ledge thereof and the borders thereof were like the same.

36 And upon the tables of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof hee had grave Cherubims, lions, and palme trees on the side of every one, and additions round about.

37 Thus made hee the ten bases, they had all one casting, one measure, and one life.

38 ¶ Then made hee ten caldrons of brass, one caldron contained fourtie bathes, and every caldron was four cubites, one caldron was upon one base throughout the tenne bases.

39 And hee set the bases, five on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and hee set the sea on the right side of the house Eastward toward the South.

40 ¶ And hee made caldrons, and belows, and basins: and hee made washed all the worke that hee made to King Solomon for the house of the Lord:

41 To wit, two pillars and two bowles of the chapters: that were on the top of the two pillars, and two grates to cover the two bowles of the chapters which were upon the top of the pillars.

42 And four hundred pomegranates for the two grates, even two towres of pomegranates for every grate to cover the two bowles of the chapters that were upon the pillars.

43 And the tenne bases, and ten caldrons upon the bases.

44 And the sea, and twelue bulles under that sea.

And potres, and basons, and basins: and all the vessels, which thy man made to king Salomon for the house of the Lord, were of beaten brass.

In the plains of Jordan did the king call them in to lay between Ameroth and Tadmor.

And Salomon left to weigh all the vessels because of the exceeding abundance, neither could the weight of the brass be counted.

Salomon made all the vessels, that pertained unto the house of the Lord, the golden altar, and the golden table, wherein the shewbread was.

And the candlesticks, five at the right side, and five at the left, before the oracle of pure gold, and the flowers, and the lamps, and the snuffers of gold.

And the bases, and the hooks, and the balms, and the thrones, and the altarpieces of pure gold, and the hinges of gold for the doors of the house within, even to the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, to wit, of the Temple.

So was finished all the works that king Salomon made for the house of the Lord, and Salomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated: the silver and the gold, and the vessels, and laid them among the treasures of the house of the Lord.

CHAP. VII.

The Arke is borne into the Temple. 10 A cloud filleth the Temple. 14 The King doth seth the people.

Then king Salomon assembled the Elders of Israel, chief men, the heads of the tribes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel unto him in Jerusalem, for to bring by the Arke of the Covenant of the Lord, from the cite of David, which is Zion.

And all the men of Israel gathered unto king Salomon at the Hall in the manner of Encampment, which is the Quency manner.

And all the Elders of Israel came, and the Priests took the Arke.

They bare the Arke of the Lord, and they bare the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tabernacle, shall into the Quency manner, as they bring up.

And king Salomon and all the Congregation of Israel, that were assembled unto him, were with him before the Arke, offering freze and beaze, which could not be told, nor numbered for multitude.

So the Priests brought the Arke of the Covenant of the Lord into his place, into the oracle of the house, into the most holy place, even under the wings of the Cherubims.

For the Cherubims stretched out their wings over the place of the Arke, and the Cherubims covered the Arke, and the bases thereof above.

And they were out the bases, that the ends of the bases might appear out of the Sanctuary before the oracle, but they were not seen without: and there they are unto this day.

Nothing was in the Arke save the two tables of stone which Moses had put there at Horeb: where the Lord made a covenant with the children of Israel, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

And when the Priests were come out of the Sanctuary, the cloud filled the house of the Lord.

So that the Priests could not stand to minister, because of the cloud: for the gloze of the Lord had filled the house of the Lord.

Then spake Salomon, The Lord said, that hee would dwell in the darke cloud.

I have built thee an house to dwell in, an habitation for thee to abide in: for ever.

And the king turned his face, and blessed all the Congregation of Israel: for all the Congregation of Israel stood there.

And he said, Blessed bee the Lord God of Israel, who spake with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying,

Since the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I have not said of all the tribes of Israel, to build an house that my name might bee therein: but I have chosen David to be over my people Israel.

And it was in the heart of David my father to build an house to the name of the Lord God of Israel.

And the Lord said unto David my father, whereas it was in thine heart to build an house unto my name, thou didest well: that thou wast forbidden.

But whereas thou hast not build the house, but thy sonne, that shall come out of thy loynes, hee shall build the house unto my name.

And the Lord hath made good his word that hee spake: and I am risen up in the count of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the Lord promised, and have build the house for the name of the Lord God of Israel.

And I have prepared therein a place for the Arke, wherein is the Covenant of the Lord which hee made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

Then Salomon stood before the altar of the Lord in the hope of all the Congregation of Israel, and stretched out his hands toward heave.

And said, O Lord God of Israel, there is no God like thee in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, that hath kept covenant & mercy with thy servants that walke before thee with all their heart.

Thou that hast sent with thy servant David my father, that thou hast promised him: for thou spakest with the mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as appeareth this day.

Therefore now, Lord God of Israel, keepe with thy servant David my father, that thou hast promised him, saying, Thou shalt not want a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel: in that

For it is like that the enemies, when they had the Arke in their hands, tooke away the rod of Aaron, and the

that thy children take he to their way, that they walke before mee, as thou hast walked in my light.

26 And now, O God of Israel, I pray thee, let thy word bee verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant Damiid my father.

27 Is it true indeed that God will dwell on the earth? behold, the heavens, and the heavens of heavens are not able to contain thee: how much more vnable is this house that I have built.

28 But haue thou respect vnto the prayer of thy seruants, and to his supplication, O Lord my God, to heare for cry and prayer, which thy seruants praye before thee this day.

29 That thine eyes may be open toward this house, night and day, euen toward the place whither thou hast said, * My name shall bee there: that thou mayest hearken vnto the prayer which thy seruants praye in this place.

30 Heare thou therefore the supplication of thy seruants, O of the people Israel, which pray in this place, O heare thou in the place of thine habitation, euen in heauen, and when thou hearest, haue merke.

31 When a man shall trespass against his neighbour, and shall sweare upon an oath to cause him to curse, and the swearer shall come before thine altar in this house,

32 Then heare thou in heauen, and doe and iudge thy seruants, that thou condemne the wicked to dying his way upon his death, and visit the righteous, to geue him according to his righteousnes.

33 When thy people Israel shall bee overthruen before the enemy, because they haue sinned against thee, and turne againe to thee, and * confesse thy name, and pray and make supplication vnto thee in this house,

34 Then heare thou in heauen, and be mercifull vnto the sinne of thy people Israel, and bring them againe vnto the land, which thou gauest vnto their fathers.

35 When heauen shalbe shut up, and there shall be no raine, because they haue sinned against thee, and shall pray in this place, and confesse thy name, and turne from their sinne, when thou dost aduert them,

36 Then heare thou in heauen, and pardon the sinne of thy seruants, and of thy people Israel, (when thou hast taught them the good way wherein they may walke) and geue raine vpon the land that thou hast giuen to thy people to inherite.

37 When thou shalt see famine in the land, when there shall bee pestilence, when there shall be blasting, mildew, grasshopper, or caterpillar, when their enemy shall begeth them in the 4 corners of their land, or any plague, or any sickness,

38 When their prayer, and supplication to thee shall bee made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when euery one shall know the plague in his owne heart, and stretch forth his hands in this house,

39 Heare thou then in heauen, in thy dwelling place, and be mercifull, and doe, and giue euery man according to all his wayes, as thou knowest his heart: (for thou only knowest the hearts of all the children of men.)

40 That they may feare thee as long as they liue in the land, which thou gauest vnto our fathers.

41 Moreover, as touching the stranger that is not of the people Israel, who shall come out of a farre country to thy famous lake,

42 (When they shall heare of thy great name, and of thy mightie hand, and of thy stretched out arme) and shall come and pray in this house,

43 Heare thou in heauen thy dwelling place, and so according to all that the stranger called for vnto thee: that all the people of the earth may know thy name, and feare thee, as doe thy people Israel: and that they may knowe that thy name is called vpon in this house which I haue built.

44 When thy people shall goe out to battell against their enemy by the way that thou shalt send them, and shall pray vnto the Lord, * toward the way of the cite which thou hast chosen, and toward the house that I haue built to thy name, 45 Heare thou then in heauen their prayer, and their supplication, and I iudge their cause.

46 If they sinne against thee (* for there is no man that sinneth not) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them vnto the enemies, so that they carie them away prisoners vnto the land of the enemies, either far or neere,

47 Yet if they turne againe vnto thee, when they be in the land, to the which they be carried away captiues, and returne and pray vnto thee in the land of their captiues, saying, * We haue sinned, we haue transgressed, and done wickedly,

48 If they turne againe vnto thee with all their heart, and with all their soule in the land of their enemies, which tooke them away captiues, and pray vnto thee toward the way of their land, which thou gauest vnto their fathers, and toward the cite which thou hast chosen, and the house which I haue built to thy name,

49 Then heare thou their prayer, & their supplication in heauen thy dwelling place, and I iudge their cause.

50 And be mercifull vnto thy people that haue sinned against thee, and vnto all their iniquities (wherein they haue transgressed against thee) and cause that they, which tooke them away captiues, may * haue pittie vpon them, and conuert them.

51 For thy people of the priests, and thine high priests, which thou broughtest out of Egypt from the midst of the yon foine.

52 Let thine eyes be open vnto the prayer of thy seruants, and vnto the prayer of thy people Israel, to hearken vnto them in all that they call for vnto thee.

53 For thou diddest separate them to thee from among all people of the earth for an inheritance, as thou saydest by the hand of thy seruants, when thou broughtest out our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God.

54 And when Salomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto the Lord, he arose from before the altar of the Lord, from kneeling on his knees, and stretching of his hands to heaven.

55 And God and blessed all the Congregation of Israel with a lowde voyce, saying,

56 Blessed bee the Lord that hath given rest unto his people Israel, according to all that hee promised: there hath not failed one word of all his good promise which hee promised by the hand of Moses his servant.

57 The Lord our God be with vs, as hee was with our fathers, that hee forsake us not, neither leave vs.

58 That he may bowe our hearts unto him, that wee may walke in all his wayes, and keepe his commandments, and his statutes, and his lawes, which hee commanded our fathers.

59 And these my wordes, which I have prayed before the Lord, hee receiue unto the Lord our God day and night, that hee defende the cause of his seruants, and the cause of his people Israel: alway as the matter requiereth.

60 That all the people of the earth may know, that the Lord is God, and none other.

61 Let your heart therefore be perfite with the Lord our God to walke in his statutes, and to keepe his commandments, as this day.

62 ¶ Then the King and all Israel with him offered sacrifice before the Lord.

63 And Salomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which hee offered unto the Lord, to wit, two & twentieth thousand heeres, and an hundred & twentieth thousand sheepe: so the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the Lord.

64 The same day did the King hallothe the middle of the court, that was before the house of the Lord: for there hee made burnt offerings, and the meate offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brazen altar that was before the Lord, was too little to receive the burnt offerings, and the meate offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.

65 And Salomon made at that time a feast, and all Israel with him, a verie great Congregation, euen from the entering in of Hamath unto the riuer of Egypt, before the Lord our God, seven daies and seven daies, euen fourteen daies.

66 And the eight day he sent the people away: and they thanked the king, and went unto their tents ioyous & with glad heart, because of all the goodnes that the Lord had done for Dauid his seruant, and for Israel his people.

CHAP. IX.

1 The Lord appeareth the second time to Salomon. 11 Salomon giueth cities to Hiram. 20 The Canaanites become tributaries. 28 Hee sendeth forth a naue for gold.

When Salomon had finished the building of the house of the Lord, and the Kings palace, and all that Salomon desired and minded to doe,

2 Then the Lord appeared vnto Salomon the second time, as hee appeared vnto him at Gibeon.

3 And the Lord said vnto him, I haue heard thy prayer and thy supplication, that thou hast made before me: I haue hallowed this house (which thou hast built) to put my name there for euer, and mine eyes, and mine heart shall be there perpetually.

4 And if thou wilt walke before me (as Dauid thy father walked in purenesse of heart, and in righteousnesse) to doe according to all that I haue commanded thee, and keepe my statutes, and my iudgements,

5 Then will I stablish the throne of thy kingdome vpon Israel for euer, as I promised to Dauid thy father, saying, ¶ Thou shalt not want a man vpon the throne of Israel.

6 But if ye and your children turne away from me, and will not keepe my commandments, and my statutes, (which I haue set before you) but goe and serue other gods, and worship them,

7 Then will I cut off Israel from the land, which I haue giuen them, and the house which I haue hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and Israel shall be a prowerbe, and a common talke among all people.

8 Euen this high house shall be so: euerie one that passeth by it, shall bee astonished, and shall hiss, and they shall say, ¶ Why hath the Lord done thus vnto this land and to this house?

9 And they shall answere, Because they forsooke the Lord their God, which brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and haue taken hold vpon other gods, and haue worshipped them, and serued them, therefore hath the Lord brought vpon them all this euill.

10 ¶ And at the ende of twentie yeeres, when Salomon had builded the two houses, the house of the Lord, and the Kings palace, 11 (For the which Hiram the king of Tyrus had brought to Salomon timber of cedar, and syc trees, and golde, and whatsoeuer hee desired) then King Salomon came to Hiram twentie cities in the land of Galil.

12 And Hiram came out from Tyrus to see the cities which Salomon had giuen him, and they pleased him not.

13 Therefore hee sayde, What cities are these which thou hast giuen me my brother? And he called them the land of Cabul vnto this day.

14 And Hiram had sent the King a present of talents of gold.

15 ¶ And this is the cause of the tribute why King Salomon raised tribute, to wit, to builde the house of the Lord, and his owne house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazer, and Megiddo, and Gezer.

16 Pharaoh King of Egypt had come vp, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and

20 All the people that were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, which were not of the children of Israel:

21 To wit, their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel were not able to destroy, those did Salomon make tributaries unto this day.

22 But of the children of Israel did Salomon make no bondmen: but they were men of warre and his servants, and his princes, and his captaines, and rulers of his charrets, and his horsemen.

23 These were the princes of the officers, that were over Salomons worke: even five hundred and fiftie, and they ruled the people that wrought in the worke.

24 ¶ And Sharaas daughter came by from the citie of David unto the house which Salomon had built for her: then did shee build a Pillar.

25 And thusse a yeere did Salomon offer burnt offerings and peace offerings upon the altar which hee built unto the Lord; and her burnt incense upon the altar, that was before the Lord, when hee had finished the house.

26 ¶ All the king Salomon made a naule of ships in Ezean gder, which is beside Tyre, and the bynke of the red Sea, in the land of Edom.

27 And Hiram sent with the nanie his servants, that were Harners, and had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Salomon, 28 And they came to Ophir, and set from thence four hundredeth and twentie talents of gold, and brought it to king Salomon.

CHAPTER X.

1 The Queene of Saba cometh to heare the wisdom of Salomon. 18 Hu royall throne. 23 His power and magnificence.

¶ And the Queene of Saba hearing the fame of Salomon (concerning the name of the Lord) came to proue him with hard questions.

2 And she came to Jerusalem with a beere great traine, and Camels that bare sweet odours, and gold exceeding much, and precious stones: and shee came to Salomon, and communed with him of all that was in her heart.

3 And Salomon declared unto her all her questions: nothing was hid from the king, which hee expounded not unto her.

4 Then the Queene of Saba laude all Salomons wisdom, and the house that he had built,

5 And the meate of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the order of his ministers, and their apparel, and his drinking vessels, and his burnt offerings, that he offered in the house of the Lord, and he was greatly astonished.

6 And shee laid unto the king, It was a true word that I heard in mine owne land of thy sayings, and of thy wisdom.

7 Howbeit I beleevd not this report, till I came, and had seene it with mine eyes: but loe, the one halfe was not tolde me: for thou hast more wisdom and prosperitie, then I have heard by report.

8 Happie are thy men, happie are these thy servants, which stand ever before thee, and heare thy wisdom.

9 Blessed be the Lord thy God, which allowed thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel, because the Lord loved Israel for ever, and made thee king, to doe equitie and righteousness.

10 And shee gave the king sixe scope talents of golde, and of sweete odours exceeding much, and precious stones. There came no more such abundance of sweete odours, as the Queene of Saba gave to king Salomon.

11 The nanie also of Hiram (that carried gold from Ophir) brought likewise great plenty of Amuggin trees from Ophir and precious stones.

12 And the king made of the Amuggin trees, pillars for the house of the Lord, and for the kings palace, and made harpes and psalteries for singers. There came no more such Amuggin trees, nor were any more seene unto this day.

13 And king Salomon came unto the Queene of Saba, whatsoever shee would aske, besides that, which Salomon gave her: of his kingly liberallitie: so shee returned and went to her owne countrey, both she, and her servants.

14 ¶ All the weight of gold, that came to Salomon in one yeere, was sixe hundredeth, three score and sixe talents of gold.

15 Besides that hee had of merchant men and of the merchandises of them that sold spices, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the princes of the countrey.

16 And king Salomon made two hundredeth targets of beaten gold, sixe hundredeth shekels of gold went to a target:

17 And three hundredeth shields of beaten gold, three pound of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the wood of Lebanon.

18 ¶ Then the king made a great throne of Iuorie, and covered it with the best gold.

19 And the throne had sixe steps, & the top of the throne was round behind, & there were sixe stapes on either side on the place of the throne, and two lions standing by the staves.

20 And there stood twelve lions on the sixe steps on either side: there was not the like made in any kingdome.

21 And all the Salomons drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the wood of Lebanon were of pure golde, none were of silver: for it was nothing nothing offered in the dayes of Salomon.

22 For the king had on the sea the name of Tyarish with the name of Tyram : once in three years came the name of Tyarish, and brought golde and silver, peacock, and apes, and peacocks.

23 So king Salomon exceeded all the kings of the earth both in riches and in wisdom.

24 And all the world sought to see Salomon, to heare his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

25 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and sapphire, and armour, and sweete odours, horses and mules, from year to year.

26 Then Salomon gathered together chariots and horsemen : and he had a thousand and foure hundred chariots, and twelue thousand horsemen, whom he placed in the chariot cities, & with the king at Ierusalem.

27 And the king gave silver in Ierusalem as stones, and gaue cedars as the wilde figge trees that growe abundantly in the plaine.

28 Also Salomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and fine linnen, the kings merchants received the linnen for a price.

29 There came up and went out of Egypt some chariot, worth five hundred shekels of silver : that is, one horse, an hundred and fiftie. And thus they brought horses to all the kings of the Iudites, and to the kings of Aram by their meanes.

CHAP. XI.

1 Salomon hath a thousand wives, and concubines, which bring him to idolatrie : 14 His God reaseth up adversaries against him. 43 He dieth.

14 King Salomon loved many outlandish women : both the daughter of Pharaoh, and the women of Habb, Ammon, Edom, Sidon and Heti,

2 Of the nations, whereof the Lord had sayd unto the children of Israel, "Goe not ye in to them, nor let them come in to you : for surely they will turne your hearts after their gods. To them, I say, did Salomon loyne in love.

3 And he had seven hundred wives, that were Ippines, and three hundred concubines, and his wives turned away his heart.

4 For when Salomon was olde, his wives turned his heart after other gods, so that his heart was not perfect with the Lord his God, as was the heart of David his father.

5 For Salomon followed Astartoth the god of the Sidonians, and Bilcom the Adomination of the Ammonites.

6 So Salomon wrought wickednes in the sight of the Lord, but continued not to follow the Lord, as did David his father.

7 Then did Salomon build an high place for Chemoth the adomination of Habb, in the mountaine that is ouer against Ierusalem, and unto Moloch the adomination of the children of Ammon.

8 And so did hee for all his outlandish wives, which burnt incense and offered unto their gods,

9 Therefore the Lord was angry with Salomon, because hee had turned his heart from the Lord God of Israel, which had appeared unto him to his wife.

10 And had given him a charge concerning this thing, that he should not follow other gods : but hee kept not that which the Lord had commanded him.

11 Wherefore the Lord sayd unto Salomon, Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant, and my statutes (which I commanded thee) I will surely rent the kingdome from thee, and will giue it to thy seruant.

12 Notwithstanding in thy dayes I will not doe it, because of David thy father, but I will rent it out of the hande of thy sonne :

13 Whereby I will not rent all the kingdome, but will giue one tribe to thy sonne, because of David my seruant, and because of Ierusalem which I haue chosen.

14 Then the Lord stirred up an adversary vnto Salomon, euen Hadad the Edomite, of the Kings feede, which was in Edom.

15 For when David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the hoste had smitten all the males in Edom, and was gone vp to burie the slaine,

16 (For sixe moneths did Joab remaine there, and all Israel, till he had destroyed all the males in Edom)

17 Then this Hadad fled, and certaine other Edomites of his fathers seruantes with him, to goe into Egypt, Hadad being yet a little child.

18 And they arose out of Midian, & came to Paran, and tooke men with them out of Paran, and came to Egypt vnto Pharaoh king of Egypt, which gaue him an house, and appointed him vittales, and gaue him land.

19 So Hadad found great fauour in the sight of Pharaoh, and hee gaue him to wife the sister of his owne wife, euen the sister of Tahpenes the Queene.

20 And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath his sonne, whom Tahpenes weined in Pharaohs house : and Genubath was in Pharaohs house among the sonnes of Pharaoh.

21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt, that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the hoste was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me depart, that I may goe to mine owne countrey.

22 But Pharaoh sayd vnto him, What hast thou lacked with mee, that thou wouldest thus goe to thine owne countrey ? And he answered, Nothing, but in any wise let me goe.

23 And God stirred him by another adversary, Rezon the sonne of Eliab, which fled from his lord Hadad, & was king of Zobab.

24 And he gathered men vnto him, and had bene captain ouer the company, when David slewe them. And they went to Damascus, and dwelt there, and they made him king in Damascus.

Prince all his life long for Dauid my ser-uants sake, whom I haue chosen, and who kept my commandements and my statutes.

35 ¶ But I will take the kingdome out of his sonnes hand, and will giue it vnto thee, euen the ten tribes.

36 And vnto his sonne will I giue one tribe, that Dauid my seruant may haue a light alway before me in Ierusalem the ci-tie which I haue chosen mee, to put my name there.

37 And I will take thee, and thou shalt reigne, & euen as thine heart desireth, and thalt be king ouer Israel.

38 And if thou hearken vnto all that I commaunde thee, and wilt walke in my wayes, and doe right in my sight to keepe my statutes and my commandements, as Dauid my seruant did, then will I be with thee, and build thee a sure house, as I built vnto Dauid, and will giue Israel vnto thee.

39 And I will for: this, afflict the seed of Dauid, but not for euer.

40 ¶ Salomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam, and Jeroboam arose, and fledde into Egypt vnto Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt vntill the death of Salmon.

41 And the rest of the wordes of Salmon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the booke of the acts of Salomon?

42 The time that Salomon reigned in Ierusalem ouer all Israel, was <sup>8</sup> foure score.

43 And Salomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the cite of Dauid his father: and Rehoboam his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XII.

1 Rehoboam succedeth Salomon. 8 He refuseth the counsell of the Ancients. 20 Jeroboam reigneth ouer Israel. 21 God commaundeth Rehoboam not to fight. 28 Jeroboam maketh golden calves.

¶ Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem, to make him King.

2 And when Jeroboam the sonne of Ne-bat heard of it (who was yet in Egypt, whither Jeroboam had fled from king Salomon, and dwelt in Egypt)

3 Then they sent and called him: and Jeroboam and all the Congregation of Israel came, and spake vnto Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grieuous:
nowe therefore make thou the grieuous ser-uitude of thy father, and his sore yoke which he put vpon vs, lighter, and we will serue thee.

5 And he said vnto them, Depart yet for three dayes, then come againe to mee. And the people departed.

6 And King Rehoboam tooke counsell with the old men that had stood before Salomon his father, while hee yet liued, & sayd, What counsell giue ye, that I may make an answer to this people?

7 And they spake vnto him, saying, If thou be a seruant vnto this people this day, and serue them, & answer them, and speake kinde wordes to them, they will bee thy ser-uants for euer.

8 But hee forsooke the counsell that the olde men had giuen him, and asked counsell of the yong men, that had bene brought vp with him, and waited on him.

9 And he sayd vnto them, What counsell giue ye, that wee may answer this people, which haue spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke, which thy father did put vpon vs, lighter?

10 Then the yong men that were brought up with him, spake vnto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say vnto the people, that haue spoken vnto thee, and sayde, Thy father hath made our yoke heauie, but make thou it lighter vnto vs: euen thus shalt thou say vnto them, My least part shalbe a bigger then my fathers loynes.

11 Nowe where as my father did burden you with a grieuous yoke, I will yet make your yoke heauier: my father hath chastised you with rods, but I will correct you with scourges.

12 ¶ Then Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the thirde day, as the King had appointed, saying, Come to mee againe

we againe the third day.

13 And the King answered the Hebrews saying, and let the old man come hither that he may shew you the vision which he hath seen.

14 And he came to them, and said the vision of the young man, saying, My father made you your gods graven, and I will make you like unto them: my father hath forsaken you with idols, but I will correct you with counsel, and shall not be as your fathers.

15 And the King hearkned unto him, and the people that he had made to be his servants, which the Lord had chosen, and which the Spirit had given, Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat.

16 So when all Israel saw that the King regarded them not, the people answered the King thus, saying, Our portion hath been in David, and we will have no portion in the house of Jeroboam. And he said, O people, now see to thing your house. David, who first prepared unto this thing.

17 Therefore came the children of Israel, which dwelt in the cities of Judah, and Jeroboam reigne still.

18 And when the King Rehoboam sent to desire the counsel of the tribes, and all Israel would have to be as they were, Jeroboam made incense to get him to the altar, to flee to Jericho.

19 And Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

20 And when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come thither, they that called him unto the assembly, and made him King, came out of all Israel, and gathered at the house of Dan, and there he stood in the tenth month.

21 And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered all the house of Judah by the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourty thousand of chosen men, which were good warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, and to bring the kingdom againe to Rehoboam the sonne of Salomon.

22 But the word of God came unto Achimiah the man of God, saying,

23 Speake unto Rehoboam the sonne of Salomon King of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and the remnant of the people, saying,

24 Thus saith the Lord God, I will not go up, nor fight against you, when the children of Israel be come downe upon you: for this thing is done by me. They obeyed therefore the words of the Lord, and returned, and departed, according to the word of the Lord.

25 And Jeroboam built a high altar in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein, and went from house to house, and built chapels.

26 And Jeroboam thought in his heart, that the king should returne to the house of David.

27 At the people got up, and to sacrifice in the house of the Lord at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turne againe to David, who is Rehoboam King of Judah: so shall they kill me, and go againe to Rehoboam King of Judah.

28 Therefore on the King took the counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, I have done this thing, for you are now too far from Jerusalem, which brought me up out of the land of Egypt.

29 And he stood on in Beth-el, and the altar that he had made in Beth-el, and the other that he had made in Dan.

30 And this thing turned to sinne, for the people went to worship of them, even to this day.

31 And he made on the house of his places, and made the houses of the houses of the people, which were not of the houses of Israel.

32 And Jeroboam made a feast the fifteenth day of the eighth month, like unto the feast that is in Judah, and offered on the altar. And he made in Beth-el, the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in the month which he had forged of his own heart, and made a silver calf, and went up to the altar, to burne incense.

33 And he offered upon the altar, which he had made in Beth-el, the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in the month which he had forged of his own heart, and made a silver calf, and went up to the altar, to burne incense.

34 Jeroboam is reprehended of the Prophet, and his hand drieth up. 35 The Prophet is seduced, and is killed of a lion. 36 The obstinacy of Jeroboam.

37 Behold, there came a man of God out of Judah, by the commandment of the Lord, unto Beth-el, and Jeroboam stood by the altar to offer incense.

38 And he cried against the altar by the commandment of the Lord, and said, O altar, thus saith the Lord, Thou shalt be destroyed, and thou shalt be broken downe, and thou shalt be made as dust. And upon thee shall be sacrificed the priests of the high places that burne incense upon thee, & they shall burne mens bones upon thee.

39 And he gave a signe the same time, saying, This is the signe, that the Lord hath spoken, Behold, the altar shall rent, and the altar that are upon it, shall fall out.

40 And when the King had heard the saying of the man of God, which he had cried against the altar in Beth-el, Jeroboam stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, I will not hearken unto him: for his hand which he put forth against him, dried up, and he could not pull it in againe to him.

41 The altar also clave asunder, and the altar fell out from the altar, according to the signe, which the man of God had given by the commandment of the Lord.

42 Then the King answered and said unto the man of God, I will give thee half of my kingdom, if thou wilt go with me, and make intercession for me, that this hand may be restored unto mee. And the man of God answered and said, I will not go with thee, for thou hast made the altar, and the Kings hand was withered, and became as it was afore.

43 Then the King laye into the man of God, Come now, I will give thee reward, if thou wilt go with me, and make intercession for me, that this hand may be restored unto mee.

44 But the man of God laye unto the King,

m So craftie are the carnall pleasures of princes, when they will make a religion to serve to their appetite.

n That is, a temple where others were built for idolatrie. o Because hee would be more binde the peoples devotion to his idolatry, he made a new holy day, besides those that the Lord had appointed in the Law.

34 Jeroboam is reprehended of the Prophet, and his hand drieth up. 35 The Prophet is seduced, and is killed of a lion. 36 The obstinacy of Jeroboam.

a That is, a Prophet. b Not that that was called Luz in Benjamin, but another of that name. c King 33. 27.

d By this signe, ye shall know that the Lord hath sent me. e Or, he poured out.

f The wicked rage against the Prophets of God, when they decline them Gods judgments. g Lev. mouth. h Though the wicked humble themselves for a time when they feele Gods judgments, yet after, they returne to their old malice, and declare that they are but vile hypocrites. i Or, take Justice.

And her feet as she came in at the house, her son, Jeroboam, thou son of Jeroboam: who hath it not thus the best to be, that thou art sent to thee with these things.

7 And Jeroboam, thus said the Lord God of Israel, Soothly as I have created thee from among the people, and have made thee prince over my people Israel.

8 And have sent the kingdom away from the house of David, and have given it thee, and thou hast not kept as my servant David, who kept my commandments, and followed me with all his heart, and did only that which was right in mine eyes.

9 But hast done evil above all that were before thee, (for thou hast gone & made thee other gods, and molten images to provoke me, and hast cast me behind thy back.)

10 Therefore doth the Lord say, I will bring still upon the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam him that is a pillar against the wall, as well him that is hurt by, as him that is left in Israel, and will sweep away the remnant of the house of Jeroboam, as a man sweepeth away dung, till it be all gone.

11 The dogs shall eat him of Jeroboam's flesh that dieth in the city, and the fowls of the air shall eat him that dieth in the field: for the Lord hath said so.

12 Thy brethren, and get thee to thine house: the women thy feet enter into the city, the child shall die.

13 And all Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him: for the house of Jeroboam shall come to the grave, because in him there is found some good thing, touching the Lord God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam.

14 Moreover, the Lord shall strike him by a King over Israel, which shall destroy the house of Jeroboam in that day: whosoever, saith now.

15 For the Lord hath said Israel, as when a reed is shaken in the water, and he shall be like Israel, out of this good land, which he gave to their fathers, I shall scatter them beyond the River, because they have made them groves, provoking the Lord to anger.

16 And he hath given Israel up, because of the sinnes of Jeroboam upon his sinne, and made Israel to sinne.

17 And Jeroboam wife also, and departed, and came to Tirzah, and when she came to the threshold of the house, the king man died.

18 And they buried him, and all Israel lamented him, according to the word of the Lord which he spake by the hand of the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite.

19 And the rest of Jeroboam's acts, how he warred, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

20 And the dates which Jeroboam reigned, were two and twenty years: & he slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria in his day.

21 And Rehoboam the son of Jeroboam reigned in Judah. Jeroboam was one and forty years old, when he began to reign, and reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem the city, which the Lord did choose out of all the cities of Israel, to put his name there: and his mother's name was Jezebel an Ammonite.

22 And Judah wrought wickedness in the sight of the Lord, and they provoked him more with their sinnes, which they had committed, when Achan spoiled their fathers' had more.

23 For then also made them like places, and images, and groves on every high hill, and under every green tree.

24 There were also high places in the land, they did according to all the abominations of the nations, which the Lord had said out before the children of Israel.

25 And in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came by against Jerusalem.

26 And took the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the King's house, and took away all: also he carried away all the shields of gold, which Solomon had made.

27 And King Rehoboam made for him brassen images, and committed them unto the hands of the chief of the people, which waited at the house of the Kings house.

28 And when the King went into the house of the Lord, the guard bare them, and brought them again into the guard chamber.

29 And the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

30 And there was warre betweene Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

31 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: his mother's name was Jezebel, an Ammonite. And Abiam his sonne reigned in his stead.

him better in Tirzah, and Elah his sonne began to reigne.

7 And also by the hand of Jehu the sonne of Nimri the Prophet, came the word of the Lord to Baasha, & to his house, that he should bee like the house of Jeroboam, even for all the wickednesses that hee did in the sight of the Lord, in provoking him with the works of his hands, and because he killed him.

8 In the five and twenty yeere of Ahab king of Judah began Elah the sonne of Baasha to reigne over Israel in Tirzah, & reigned two yeere.

9 And his servant Tibni, captaine of halfe his chariots, conspired against him, as hee was in Tirzah: thinking till hee was drunken in the house of Arza husband of his house in Tirzah.

10 And Tibni came and smote him, and killed him in the tenth and twentieth yeere of Ahab king of Judah, and reigned in his stead.

11 And when hee was king, and late on his throne, hee slew all the house of Baasha, not leaving thereof one to pike against a wall, neither of his kindred, nor of his friends.

12 And Tibni destroyed all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the Lord, which hee spake against Baasha by the hand of Jehu the Prophet.

13 For all the sinnes of Baasha, and sinnes of Elah his sonne, which they sinned, and made Israel to sinne, and provoked the Lord God of Israel with their doings.

14 And the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

15 In the seven and twentieth yeere of Ahab king of Judah did Tibni reigne seven dayes in Tirzah, and the people was then in camp against Gibeon, which belongeth to the Philistines.

16 And the people of the host that say, Tibni hath conspired, and hath also slain the king, therefore all Israel made Omri the captaine of the host king over Israel that same day, even in the host.

17 Then Omri went up from Gibeon, and all Israel with him, and they began to build Tirzah.

18 And when Tibni saw that the city was taken, hee went into the palace of the kings house, and burnt himselfe, and the kings house with fire, and so died.

19 For his sinnes which hee sinned, in doing that which is evil in the sight of the Lord, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sinnes which hee did, causing Israel to sinne.

20 And the rest of the acts of Tibni, and his treason that hee wrought, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

21 Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: for halfe the people followed Tibni the sonne of Omri to make him king, and the other halfe followed Omri.

22 But the people that followed Tibni, conspired against the people that followed

Tibni the sonne of Omri: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

23 In the one and thirtieth yeere of Ahab king of Judah began Omri to reigne over Israel, and reigned sixtie yeere. But yeere reigned he in Tirzah.

24 And he bought the mountaine of Samaria of one Shemer for two talents of silver, and built in the mountaine, and called the name of the city which hee built after the name of Shemer: for he was of the mountaine, Samaria.

25 But Omri did euill in the eyes of the Lord, and did worse then all that were before him.

26 For hee walked in all the way of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, & in his sinnes wherewith hee made Israel to sinne, in worshipping the Lord God of Israel with their vanities.

27 And the rest of the acts of Omri that hee did, and the strength that hee showed, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

28 And Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his sonne reigned in his stead.

29 Now Ahab the sonne of Omri began to reigne over Israel in the eight and thirtieth yeere of Ahab king of Judah: and Ahab the sonne of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria two and twenty yeere.

30 And Ahab the sonne of Omri did worse in the sight of the Lord then all that were before him.

31 For was it a light thing for him to walke in the sinnes of Jeroboam, the sonne of Nebat, except hee took Jezabel also the daughter of Eth-baal king of the Phoenicians to a wife, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him?

32 Also hee reared up an altar to Baal in the house of Baal which hee had built in Samaria.

33 And Ahab made a grove, and Ahab proceeded, and did provoke the Lord God of Israel more then all the kings of Israel that were before him.

34 In his dayes did Hiel the Bethelite build Jericho: hee layd the foundation thereof in Aharab his eldest sonne, and let up the gates thereof in his yongest sonne Segub according to the word of the Lord which hee spake by Joshua the sonne of Nun.

e To strengthen his faith against perfection, God promitteth to feed him miraculously.

I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there.

5 So he went and did according unto the word of the Lord: for he went, and remained by the river Cherith that is over against Jordan.

6 And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening, and he drank of the river.

7 And after a while the river dried up, because there fell no raine upon the earth.

8 ¶ And the word of the Lord came unto him, saying,

9 ¶ Up, and get thee to Zarephath, which is in Sidon, and remaine there: behold, I have commanded a widow there to sustaine thee.

10 So he arose, and went to Zarephath: and when hee came to the gate of the cite, behold, the widow was there: gathering sticks: and he called her, and sayd, Bring me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drinke.

11 And as she was going to fet it, he called to her, and sayd, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsell of bread in thine hand.

12 And she sayd, As the Lord thy God lieth, I have not a cake, but even an handful of meale in a barrell, and a little oyle in a cruse: and behold, I am gathering a few sticks for to goe in, and dress it for me and my sonne, that wee may eat it, and die.

13 And Elijah sayd unto her, Feare not, doe as thou hast sayde, but make mee thereof a little cake first of all, & bring it unto me, and afterwards make for thee and thy sonne.

14 For thus saith the Lord God of Israel, & The meale in the barrell shall not be wasted, neither shall the oyle in the cruse be diminished, unto the time that the Lord send raine upon the earth.

15 So he went, and did as Elijah sayd, and he did eat: so did he and her house for a certaine time.

16 The barrell of the meale wasted not, nor the oyle was spent out of the cruse, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by the hand of Elijah.

17 ¶ And after these things, the sonne of the wife of the house fell sick, and his sicknesse was so sore, that there was no breath left in him.

18 And she sayd unto Elijah, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? Art thou come unto me to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my sonne?

19 And hee sayd unto her, Give mee thy sonne: and hee tooke him out of her bosome, and carried him up into a chamber, where hee abode, and layed him upon his owne bed.

20 Then hee called unto the Lord, and sayd, O Lord my God, halt thou! punished alv the widows, with whom I sojourne, by killing her sonne?

21 And hee stretched himself upon the child three times, and called unto the Lord, and sayd, O Lord my God, I pray thee, let this child's soule come into him againe.

22 Then the Lord heard the voice of Elijah, and the soule of the child came into him againe, and hee revived.

23 And Elijah tooke the child, & brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him unto his mother, and Elijah sayd, Behold, thy sonne lieth.

24 And the woman sayde unto Elijah, Now I know that thou art a man of God, and that the word of the Lord in thy mouth is true.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Elijah is sent to Ahab, 13 Obadiah hideth an hundredth Prophets, 40 Elijah killeth all Baals prophets, 45 Hee obtaineth raine.

AFTER many dayes, the word of the Lord came to Elijah, in the third yeere, saying, God, shew the selfe unto Ahab, and I will send raine upon the earth.

2 And Elijah went to shew himselfe unto Ahab, and there was a great famine in Samaria.

3 And Ahab called Obadiah the governor of his house: (for Obadiah feared God greatly.)

4 For when Isebel destroyed the Prophets of the Lord, Obadiahooke an hundred Prophets, and hid them by fittes in a cave, and he fed them with bread and water.

5 And Ahab sayd unto Obadiah, Go into the land, unto all the fountains of water, and wrap up the rivers, if so be that we may finde grass to feed the horses and the mules alive, lest wee be requisite to the beasts.

6 And so they divided the land betwixt them to walke throug it. Ahab went the way by himselfe, & Obadiah went another way by himselfe.

7 ¶ And as Obadiah was in the land, behold, Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and sayd, Art not thou my lord Elijah?

8 And he answered him, Yea, so tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

9 And he said, What have I sinned, that thou wouldest deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me?

10 As the Lord thy God lieth, there is no nation as kingdome, whether my lord hath not sent to finde thee: and when they sayd, Hee is not here, heooke an othe of the kingdome and nation, if they had not found thee.

11 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

12 And when I am gone from thee, the Spirit of the Lord shall carie thee into some place that I doe not knowe: so when I come and call Ahab, if he cannot finde thee, thou wilt be his me: but I the servant fear the Lord from my youth.

13 ¶ Was it not told my lord, what I did when Isebel slew the Prophets of the Lord, how I hid an hundredth man of the Lords Prophets by fittes in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?

14 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, d As the troubles of the Saints of God are many, so his mercy is ever at hand to deliver them, Luke 4.35, 36.

e All this was to strengthen the faith of Elijah, to the intent that he should looke vpon nothing worldly, but only trust on Gods providence.

f Ebr. two.

f For there is no hope of any more fullness.

g God receiveth no benefits for the use of his, but he promitteth a most ample recompense for the same. h That is, till he had raine & food on the earth.

i Or, that he died. i God would try whether he had learned by his mercifull providence to make him her only stay and comfort.

k He was afraid lest Gods Name should have bene blasphemed and his ministers contemned, except he should have continued his mercies, as he had begun them, especially while he there remained.

15 And Elias saith here, that he may say me.

16 And Elias saith, As the Lord of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, I will surely find thee, if thou wilt say this day.

17 And when Ahab saw Elias, Ahab said unto him, Art thou here that troublest Israel?

18 And he answered, I have not troubled Israel, but thou, and thy fathers house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the Lord, and thou hast followed Baalim.

19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel, unto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred, and fifty, and the prophets of the groves four hundred, which eat at Jezebel's table.

20 And Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel.

21 And Elias came unto all the people, and said, How long will ye betweene two opinions? If the Lord be God, follow him, but if Baal be God, then go after him. And the people answered him not a word.

22 Then said Elias unto the people, I am only remaine a Prophet of the Lord: but Baals prophets are four hundred and fifty men.

23 Let them therefore give vs two bullocks, and let them build the one, and cut him in pieces, and lay him on the wood, and put no fire under, and I will prepare the other bullock, and lay him on the wood, and will put no fire under.

24 Then call ye on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the Lord: and then the God that answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered, and said, It is well spoken.

25 And Elias said unto the prophets of Baal, Chafe you a bullock, and prepare him first (for ye are many), and call on the name of your gods, but put on fire under.

26 So they took the one bullock, that was given them, and they prepared it, and called on the name of Baal, from morning till noon, saying, O Baal, heare vs: but there was no voice, nor any to answer: and they leapt upon the altar that was made.

27 And at noone Elias mocked them, and said, Cry loud: for he is a god: either he is talked of, or he hath his enemies, or he is in his misery, or it may be that he is sleepy, and must be awaked.

28 And they cryed loude, and cut themselves as their manner was, with knives, and lancets, till the blood gushed out upon them.

29 And when the midday was passed, and they had prophesied until the offering of the evening sacrifice, there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any that regarded.

30 And Elias said unto all the people, Come to me. And all the people came to him, and he repaired the altar of the Lord that was broken downe.

31 And Elias took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sonnes of Jacob, (unto whom the word of the Lord came, saying, * Israel shall be thy name.)

32 And with the stones he built an altar in the name of the Lord: and hee made a ditch round about the altar, as great as would containe two measures of seede.

33 And hee put the wood in order, and bewet the bullocke in pieces, and layd him on the wood.

34 And sayd, Fill foure bariels with water, and poure it on the burnt offering and on the wood. Again he sayd, Do so id again. And they did so the second time. And hee sayd, Doe it the third time. And they did it the third time.

35 And the water ran round about the altar: & he filled the ditch with water also.

36 And when they should offer the evening sacrifice, Elias the Prophet came, and sayd, Lord God of Abraham, Isaac and of Israel, let it be known this day, that thou art the God of Israel, and that I am the servant, & that I have done all these things at thy commandement.

37 Heare mee, O Lord, heare mee, and let this people knowe that thou art the Lord God, and that thou hast turned their heart againe: at the last.

38 Then the fire of the Lord fell, and consumed the burnt offering, and the wood, and the stones, & the dust, and licked up the water that was in the ditch.

39 And when all the people sawe it, they fell on their faces, & sayd, The Lord is God, the Lord is God.

40 And Elias said unto them, Take the prophets of Baal, let not a man of them escape. And they took them, & Elias brought them to the brooke Kishon, and slew them there.

41 And Elias said unto Ahab, Get thee up, eat and drinke, for there is a sound of much raine.

42 So Ahab went up to eat, & to drinke, and Elias went up to the top of Carmel: and hee crouched unto the earth, and put his face betwene his knees.

43 And sayd to his servant, Goe by now and looke toward the way of the Sea. And he went up, and looked, and sayd, There is nothing. Again he sayd, Goe againe: seven times.

44 And at the seventh time he sayd, Behold, there ariseth a little cloud out of the sea like a mans hand. Then he sayd, It is, and say unto Ahab, Make ready thy chariot, and get thee downe, that the raine stay thee not.

45 And in the meane while the heaven was blacke with clouds and wind, and there was a great raine. Then Ahab went up and came to Jezel.

46 And the hand of the Lord was on Elias, and hee grided by his loynes, and ranne: & before Ahab till he came to Jezel.

NOW thus saide Iezabel all that Elijah had done, and how he had slayd all the prophets with the sword.

2 Then Iezabel sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying, The gods doe so to me and more also, if I make not thy life like one of their liues by to morrow this time.

3 When hee saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beer sheba, which is in Iudab, and left his servant there.

4 But he went a dayes journey into the wilderness, and came and sate downe under a Juniper tree, and desired that hee might die, and sayde, It is now enough, O Lord, take my soule, for I am no better then my fathers.

5 And as he lay and slept under the Juniper tree, behold now, an Angel touched him, and sayd unto him, Up, and eat.

6 And when hee looked about, behold, there was a cake baken on the coales, and a pot of water at his head: so he did eat and drinke, and returned and slept.

7 And the Angel of the Lord came againe the second time, and touched him, and sayde, Up and eat: for thou hast a great journey.

8 Then hee arose, and did eat and drinke, and walked in the strength of that meate fourtie dayes and fourty nights, unto Mount the mount of God.

9 And there hee entered into a cave, and lodged there: and behold, the Lord spake to him, and sayd unto him, What dost thou here, Elijah?

10 And he answered, I have bene very zealous for the Lord God of hostes: for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, broken downe thine altars, and slaine thy prophets with the sword, and I onely am left, and they seek my life to take it away.

11 And he sayd, Come out, and stand by on the mount before the Lord. And behold, the Lord went by, and a mightie strong winde rent the mountaines, and brake the rocks before the Lord: but the Lord was not in the wind: and after the winde, came an earthquake: but the Lord was not in the earthquake.

12 And after the earthquake, came fire: but the Lord was not in the fire: and after the fire came a still and soft voyce.

13 And when Elijah heard it, he covered his face with his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering of the cave: and behold, there came a voyce unto him, and sayd, What dost thou here, Elijah?

14 And he answered, I have bene very zealous for the Lord God of hostes, because the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, cast downe thine altars, and slaine thy prophets with the sword, and I onely am left, and they seek my life to take it away.

15 And the Lord sayd unto him, Get thee by the wilderness into Damascus, and when thou comest thence, anoynt Hazael king over Syria.

16 And Jehu the sonne of Nimshi that thou anoynt king over Israel: and Elisha the sonne of Shaphat of Abel Beth Bach shall thou anoynt to be King over Iudab.

17 And him that escaped from the sword of Hazael, shall Jehu slay: and him that escaped from the sword of Jehu, shall Elisha slay.

18 Per will I leave seven thousand in Israel, even all the kness that have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth that hath not kissed him.

19 And hee departed thence, and found Elisha the sonne of Shaphat who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and was with the twelfth: and Elisha went towards him, and cast his mantle upon him.

20 And he left the oxen, and ranne after Elisha, and said, Let me, I pray thee, kiss my father, and my mother, and then I will follow thee. Elisha answered him, Get thee returne: for what have I done to thee?

21 And when he went backe againe from him, he tooke a couple of oxen, & slew them and sod their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eat: then he arose and went after Elisha and ministered unto him.

CHAP. XX.

1 Samaria is besieged. 13 The Lord promisseth the victory to Ahab by a Prophet. 31 The King of Syria made peace with Ben-hadad, and is reprooved thereof by the Prophet.

THEN Ben-hadad the king of Syria gathered all his armies, and two and thirtie Kings with him, with buyles and charrets, and went up and besieged Samaria, and fought against it.

2 And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel into the cite.

3 And sayd unto him, Thus sayeth Ben-hadad, thy sluier and thy godd is mine: also thy women and thy faire children are mine.

4 And the king of Israel answered, and sayd, My lord king, according to thy saying, I am thine, and all that I have.

5 And when the messengers came againe, they sayd, Thus commanded Ben-hadad, and sayd, Cather I shall send him thee, and command, thou shalt deliver me thy sluier and thy godd, and thy women, and thy children.

6 Or is it I will send my servants unto thee by to morrow this time: and they shall searche thine house, and the houses of thy servants: and whatsoever is pleasant in thine eyes, they shall take it in their hands, and bring it away.

7 Then the king of Israel sent for all the Elders of the land, and sayd, Take heed, I pray you, and see how hee seeketh mischief: for hee sent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my sluier, and for my godd, and I denied him not.

8 And all the Elders, and all the people sayd to him, Searchen not unto him, and say, hee shall not find thee.

9 Therefore he sayd unto the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king,

10 And the king of Israel said to the servant at the first time, that I will do, but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought him an answer.

11 And Ben-hadad sent unto him, and said, The gods do so to me and more also, if the *bank of Samaria be enough to all the people that follow me, for every man an handful.

12 And the king of Israel answered, and said, Tell him, Let not him that girdeth his loins, boast himself, as he that putteth it on.

13 And when hee heard that tidings, as hee was with the kings drinking in the pavilions, hee layde unto his servants, Bring forth your engines, and they set them against the cite.

14 And behold, there came a Prophet unto Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Wilt thou see me all this great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into thine hand this day, that thou mayest know, that I am the Lord.

15 And Ahab sayd, By whom? And hee said, Thus saith the Lord, By the servants of the princes of the provinces. We layde againe, Who shall order the battell? And hee answered, Thou.

16 And hee numbred the servants of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred, two and thirtie: and after them he numbred the whole people of all the children of Israel, even seven thousand.

17 And they went out at noone; but Ben-hadad did drinke, till he was drunken in the tents, both he, and the kings: for two and thirtie kings helped him.

18 So the servants of the Princes of the provinces went out first: and Ben-hadad sent out, and they shewed him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria.

19 And hee sayd, Call them: they bee come out for peace, take them alive: or whether they bee come out to fight, take them yet alive.

20 So they came out of the cite, so wke, the servants of the princes of the provinces, and the hosts which followed them.

21 And they slue every one his * enemy, and the Aramites fled, and Israel pursued them: but Ben-hadad the king of Aram escaped on a horse with his horsemen.

22 And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and charrets, & with a great slaughter slue hee the Aramites.

23 For there had come a Prophet to the king of Israel, and had said unto him, Goe, be of good courage, and consider, and take heed what thou doest: for when the peece is gone about, the king of Aram will come up against thee.

24 And then the servants of the King of Aram layd unto him, Their * gods are gods of the mountains, and therefore they overcome us: but let us fight against them in the plaine, and doubtlesse we shall overcome them.

25 And this doe, take the kings away every one out of his place, and place captives for them.

26 And number thy hoste an arme, like the arme that thou hast lost, with such bayles, & such charrets, and we will fight against them in the plaine, and doubtlesse we shall overcome them: and hee hearkened unto their voyce, and did so.

27 And after the peece was gone about, Ben-hadad numbred the Aramites, & went up to Aphek to fight against Israel.

28 And the children of Israel were numbred, and were all assembled and went against them, and the children of Israel pitched before them, like two little flocks of kids: but the Aramites filled the countrey.

29 And there came a man of God, and spake unto the king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Because the Aramites have sayde, The Lord is the God of the mountaines, and not God of the vallies, therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shall knowe that I am the Lord.

30 And they pitched one over against the other seven daies, and in the seventh day the battell was layned: and the children of Israel slew of the Aramites an hundred thousand footmen in one day.

31 But the rest fled to Aphek into the city: and there fell a wall upon seven and twenty thousand men that were left: and Ben-hadad fled into the cite, and came into a secret chamber.

32 And his servants said unto him, Behold now, we have heard say, that the kings of the house of Israel are mercifull kings: we pray thee, let us put sackcloth about our loines, and ropes about our heads, and goe out to the king of Israel: it may be that hee will save thy life.

33 Then they girded sackcloth about their loines, and put ropes about their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and sayd, Thy servant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let me live: and hee sayd, Is he yet alive? hee is my brother.

34 Now the men tooke diligent heede: if they could catch any thing of him, and made haste, and sayd, Thy brother * Ben-hadad. And he said, So saying him. So Ben-hadad came out unto him, and hee caused him to come up into the charret.

35 And Ben-hadad sayde unto him, The cities which my father tooke from thy father, I will restore, and thou shalt make streets for thee in * Damascus, as my father did in Samaria. Then sayd Ahab, I will let thee goe with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and let him goe.

36 Then a certaine man of the children of the Prophets sayde unto his neighbour by the commandement of the Lord, * Smite me, I pray thee. But the man refused to smite him.

37 Then said he unto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voyce of the Lord, behold, alsoone as thou art departed from me, a Lion shall slay thee. So when he was departed from him, a Lion found him, and slue him.

Or, at this time.

a Though Ahab tyrannie be condemned by the holy Spirit, yet he was not rigorous that he would take from another man his right without full recompense.

b Thus the wicked consider not what is iust and lawfull, but free inwardly, when they cannot haue their inordinate appetites satisfied.

e As though he said, Thou knowest not what it is to reigne. Command, and in-treat not, &c. let thine heart be merry.

37 Then he found another man, and said, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, and in smiting wounded him.

38 So the Prophet departed, & waited for the King by the way, and disguised himselfe with ashes upon his face.

39 And when the King came by, he cried vnto the King, and said, Thy seruant went into the midst of the battell: and behold, there went away a man, whom another man brought vnto me, & sayd, Keepe this man: if he be lost, and want, thy life shall goe for his life, or els thou shalt pay a talent of siluer.

40 And as thy seruant had here & there to doe, he was gone: and the King of Israel said vnto him, So shall thy iudgement bee: thou shalt giue sentence.

41 And hee hastened, and tooke the asses away from his face: and the King of Israel knew him that he was of the Prophets:

42 And he said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Because thou hast let goe out of thine handes a man whom I appointed to die, thy life shall goe for his life: and thy people for his people.

43 And the King of Israel went to his house heauie and in displeasure, and came to Samaria.

CHAP. XXI.

8 Jezabel commaundeth to kill Naboth for the vineyard that he refused to sell to Ahab. 19 Elias reproofeth Ahab, and he repenteth.

After these things Naboth the Izeelite had a vineyard in Izeel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

2 And Ahab spake vnto Naboth, saying, Giue me thy vineyard, that I may make me a garden of herbes thercof, because it is nere by mine house: and I will giue thee for it is a better vineyard then it is: or if it please thee, I will giue thee the worth of it in money.

3 And Naboth sayd to Ahab, The Lord keepe me from giuing the inheritance of my fathers vnto thee.

4 Then Ahab came into his house heauie and in displeasure, because of the worde which Naboth the Izeelite had spoken vnto him: for he had saide, I will not giue thee the inheritance of my fathers, and hee lay vpon his bed and turned his face, and would eate no bread.

5 Then Jezabel his wife came to him, and said vnto him, Why is thy spirit so sad, that thou eatest no bread?

6 And he said vnto her, Because I spake vnto Naboth the Izeelite, and sayde vnto him, Giue mee thy vineyard for money, or if it please thee, I will giue thee another vineyard for it: but he answered, I will not giue thee my vineyard.

7 Then Jezabel his wife said vnto him, Dost thou now gouerne the kingdome of Israel? yea, eate bread, and I bee of good cheere, I will giue thee the vineyard of Naboth the Izeelite.

8 So she wrote letters in Ahabs name, and sealed them with his seale, and sent the letters vnto the Elders, & to the nobles that were in his city dwelling with Naboth.

9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaime a fast, and let Naboth among the chiefe of the people,

10 And set two wicked men before him, and let them witness against him, saying, Thou hast blasphemed God, and the King: then carry him out, and stone him that he may die.

11 And the men of his city, euen the Elders and gouernours, which dwelt in his city, did as Jezabel had sent vnto them: as it was written in the letters, which she had sent vnto them.

12 They proclaimed a fast, and let Naboth among the chiefe of the people.

13 And there came two wicked men, and sat before him: and the wicked men witnessed against Naboth in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the King. Then they carried him away out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died.

14 Then they sent to Jezabel, saying, Naboth is stoned and is dead.

15 And when Jezabel heard that Naboth was stoned and was dead, Jezabel said to Ahab, Up, and take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Izeelite, which he refused to giue thee for money: for Naboth is not aliue, but is dead.

16 And when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he arose to goe downe to the vineyard of Naboth the Izeelite, to take possession of it.

17 And the word of the Lord came vnto Elias the Tisbite, saying,

18 Arise, goe downe to meete Ahab king of Israel, which is in Samaria: loe, hee is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone downe to take possession of it.

19 Therefore shalt thou say vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Hast thou killed, and also gotten possession? And thou shalt speake vnto him, saying, Thus saith the Lord, In the place where dogges licked the blood of Naboth, shall dogges lick thee: and thy blood also.

20 And Ahab sayd to Elias, Hast thou found mee, O mine enemy? And he answered, I haue found thee: for thou hast sold thy selfe to worke wickednesse in the sight of the Lord.

21 Behold, I will bring euill vpon thee, and will take away thy posteritie, and will cut off from Ahab him that is piftier against the wall, aswell him that is a spur vp, as him that is left in Israel.

22 And I will make thine house like the house of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the sonne of Ahisab, for the prouocation wherewith thou hast prouoked, and made Israel to sinne.

23 And also of Jezabel spake the Lord, saying, The dogges shall eate Jezabel, by the wall of Izeel.

24 The dogges shall eate him of Ahabs stocke, that dyeth in the citie: and him that dieth in the fieldes, shall the fowles of the aire eate.

As in that day, when thou shalt goe from chamber to chamber to hide thee.

26 And the king of Israel said, Take Michajah, and carie him vnto Azon the gouernour of the citie, and vnto Ioth the kings sonne.

27 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this man in the prison house, and feede him with bread of affliction, and with water of affliction, vntill I returne in peace.

28 And Michajah said, If thou returne in peace, the Lord hath not spoken by mee. And he said, Hearken all ye people.

29 So the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat the king of Iudah went vp to Ramoth Gilead.

30 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will change mine appaerell and will enter into the battell, but put thou on thine appaerell. And the king of Israel changed himselfe, and went into the battell.

31 And the king of Aram commanded his two and thirtie captains ouer his charrets, saying, Fight neither with small, nor great, saue onely against the king of Israel.

32 And when the captains of the Charrets saw Jehoshaphat, they said, Surely it is the king of Israel, and they turned to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat cried.

33 And when the captains of the charrets saw that he was not the king of Israel, they turned backe from him.

34 Then a certaine man dyed for a bodie, singhtly, and smote the king of Israel betwene the wyndes of his brigandine, wherfore hee said vnto his charret man, Turne thine hand and carie me out of the holte: for I am hurt.

35 And the battell increased that day, and the king stood still in his charret against the Aramites, and died at even: and the blood ranne out of the wound into the mids of the charret.

36 And there went a Proclamation throughout the holte about the going downe of the sunne, saying, Every man to his citie, and every man to his owne countrey.

37 So the king died, and was brought to Samaria, and they buried the king in Samaria.

38 And one washed the charret in the poole of Samaria, & the dogs licked up his blood (and they washed his armour) according vnto the word of the Lord which hee spake.

39 Concerning the rest of the actes of Ahab, and all that hee did, and the Iuorie house which hee built, and all the cities that hee built, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

40 So Ahab slept with his fathers, and Abaziah his sonne reigned in his stead.

41 And Jehoshaphat the sonne of Asa began to reigne vpon Iudah in the fourth yere of Ahab king of Israel.

42 Jehoshaphat was fine and thirtie yere old, when hee began to reigne, and reigned fine and twentie yere in Ierusalem. And his mothers name was Azubah the daughter of Shobi.

43 And hee walked in all the wayes of Asa his father, and declined not therefrom, but did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord. Nevertheless the high places were not taken away: for the people increased still and burnt incense in the high places.

44 And Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.

45 Concerning the rest of the actes of Jehoshaphat and his worthie deedes that hee did, and his battels which hee fought, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah?

46 And the Edomites, which remained in the dayes of his father Asa, hee put cleane out of the land.

47 There was then no king in Edom: the Deputie was king.

48 Jehoshaphat made ships of Charish to sayle to Ophir for golde, but they went not, for the ships were broken at Esion Gaber.

49 Then said Abaziah the sonne of Ahab vnto Jehoshaphat, Let my seruants go with thy seruants in the ships. But Jehoshaphat would not.

50 And Jehoshaphat did sleepe with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of Dauid his father, and Jehoram his sonne reigned in his stead.

51 Abaziah the sonne of Ahab began to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, the thirtie yere of Jehoshaphat king of Iudah, and reigned two yeres ouer Israel.

52 But hee did euill in the sight of the Lord, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne.

53 For hee serued Baal and worshipped him, and promoued the Lord God of Israel vnto wrath, according vnto all that his father had done.

r Let him be pined away with hunger, and be fed with a small portion of bread and water.

The second booke of the Kings.

THE ARGUMENT.

THIS second booke containeth the actes of the kings of Iudah and Israel: to wit, of Israel, from the death of Ahab vnto the last king Mofes, who was imprisoned by the king of Assyria, and his citie Samaria taken, and then troyed by the iust plague of God for their idolatrie and disobedience to God, Ierusalem taken, and also of Iudah, from the reigne of Iehoram sonne of Jehoshaphat vnto Zedekiah, who for contempting the Lords commandement by his Prophets, & neglecting his sundry admonitions by famine & other meanes, was taken by his enemies: Iaw his sonnes most cruelly slaine before his face, and his owne eyes put out, as the Lord had declared to him before by his Prophet Ieremie: & also by the vengeance of God for contempt of his word Ierusalem was destroyed, the Temple burnt, and hee and all through were led away captive into Babylon. In this booke are notable examples of Gods favour toward the righteous and people which obey the Prophets, and contrarie his wrath and punishment, of his plagues toward those common wretches which neglect his ministers, and doe not obey his commandments.

CHAP. I.

1 Eliſha ſaw a full ſilber ſtick, & conſulted with Baal-ſebeth. 2 Hee is reproved of Eliſha. 3 The ſpirits ſent forth were ſent to Eliſha, whereof one was borne with fire. 4 Eliſha ſaw the ſpirit of Baal-ſebeth, and Iehoram his brother ſuccedeſſor him.

Ben Doab rebelled againſt Iſrael after the death of Ahab: 2 And Eliſha ſell Iehoram the Lattice window in his upper Chamber which was in Samaria, ſo hee was ſeek: then hee ſent meſſengers to whom hee ſaid, Goe and inquire of Baal-ſebeth the god of Ekron, if I ſhall recover of this my diſtelle.

3 Then the Angel of the Lord ſaid to Eliſha the Liſſibite, Ariſe, and goe up to meete the meſſengers of the king of Samaria, and ſay unto them, As it is not becauſe there is no God in Iſrael, that ye go to enquire of Baal-ſebeth the god of Ekron?

4 Wherefore thus ſaith the Lord, When ſhalt not come downe from the bed on which thou art gone up, but ſhalt die the death. So Eliſha departed.

5 And the meſſengers returned unto him, in whom he ſaid, Why are ye now returned?

6 And they answered him, There came a man and met us, and ſaid unto us, Goe and returne unto the King which ſent you, and ſay unto him, Thus ſaith the Lord, As it is not becauſe there is no God in Iſrael, that thou ſendeſt to enquire of Baal-ſebeth the god of Ekron? Therefore thou ſhalt not come downe from the bed on which thou art gone up, but ſhalt die the death.

7 And hee ſaid unto them, What manner of man was he which came and met you, and told you theſe wordes?

8 And they ſaid unto him, Hee was an hairy man, and girded with a girdle of leather about his loynes. Then ſaid hee, It is Eliſha the Liſſibite.

9 Therefore the king ſent unto him a captain over ſixty ſixty his ſervants, who went up unto him, for becauſe, hee ſate on the top of a mountaine: and hee ſaid unto him, O man of God, the King hath commanded that thou come downe.

10 But Eliſha answered, and ſaid to the captain over the ſixty, If I ſee a man of God, let him come downe from the heauen, and denounce thee & thy ſixty. A ſo ſix came downe from heauen, and denounced him and his ſixty.

11 Againſt alſo hee ſent unto him another captain over ſixty, with his ſixty. Eliſha ſaith, and ſaid unto him, O man of God, thus the King commandeth, Come downe quickly.

12 But Eliſha answered, and ſaid unto the captain, when they threaten Gods iudgements against me, take this in mockerie, ſo therefore ſhall I be the more.

then, If I ſee a man of God, let him come downe from the heauen, and denounce thee and thy ſixty. A ſo ſix came downe from the heauen, and denounced him and his ſixty.

13 And againe he ſent the third captain over ſixty with his ſixty. And the third captain over ſixty went up, and came, & fell on his knees before Eliſha, and brought him, and ſaid unto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life and the life of theſe thy ſixty ſervants be precious in thy ſight.

14 Behold, three came firſt downe from the heauen: I denounce the two ſixties that came over ſixty with their ſixties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy ſight.

15 And the Angel of the Lord ſaid unto Eliſha, Goe downe with him, hee is afraid of his preſence. So hee aroſe, and went downe with him unto the king.

16 And he ſaid unto him, Thus ſaith the Lord, Becauſe thou haſt ſent meſſengers to enquire of Baal-ſebeth the god of Ekron, (was it not becauſe there was no God in Iſrael to inquire of his mouth?) therefore thou ſhalt not come downe off the bed, on which thou art gone up, but ſhalt die the death.

17 So hee died according to the word of the Lord, which Eliſha had ſpoken. And Iehoram beganne to reigne in his ſtead, in the ſecond yeere of Iehoram the ſonne of Iehoſaphat king of Iudah, becauſe hee had no ſonne.

18 Concerning the reſt of the actes of Eliſha, that hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſrael?

And in the ſix yeere of this Iehoram, Iehoſaphat died, and the Kingdome of Iudah was confirmed to his ſonne.

CHAP. II.

8 Eliſha denideſh the waters with his cloke. 11 He is taken up into heauen. 13 Eliſha taketh his cloake & dauidath Iordan. 20 The bitter and venomous waters are healed. 23 The children that mocke Eliſha, are rent in pieces with Beeres.

And when the Lord would take up Eliſha into heauen by a whirle wind, Eliſha went with Eliſha from Gilgal.

2 Then Eliſha ſaid to Eliſha, Say heere, I pray thee, for the Lord hath ſent mee to Beth-el. But Eliſha ſaid, As the Lord lieth, and as thy ſoule lieth, I will not leave thee. So they came downe to Beth-el.

3 And the children of the Prophets that were at Beth-el, came out to Eliſha, and ſaid unto him, Knoweſt thou that the Lord will take thy maſter from thyne head this day? And he ſaid, Yea, I knowe it: ſo hee ſaw peace.

4 Againe Eliſha ſaid unto him, Eliſha, tarry heere, I pray thee, for the Lord hath ſent mee to Jericho. But hee ſaid, As the Lord lieth, and as thy ſoule lieth, I will not leave thee. So they came to Jericho.

ſo be as the head, is to be the maſter, as to him the feete, is to be a ſcholler. 8 For the Lord had reſcued him from them.

i Meaning, that God would ſhew by effect, whether hee was a true Prophet or not. k Which humble my ſelfe before God and his ſervant.

l That is, ſpare my life, & let me not die as the other two.

m Thus the Lord giueth boldneſſe to him, that they feare not the threatnings of tyrants, which other wiſe of themſelves are afraid to doe Gods meſſage.

n Iehoſaphat going to battell againſt the Syrians, made him ſonne Iehoram King in the 17. yeere of his rignee: and in the 18. yeere, which was the ſecond yeere of his ſonne Iehoram the ſonne of Ahab reigned in Iſrael.

and in the ſix yeere of this Iehoram, Iehoſaphat died, and the Kingdome of Iudah was confirmed to his ſonne.

CHAP. II.

8 Eliſha denideſh the waters with his cloke. 11 He is taken up into heauen. 13 Eliſha taketh his cloake & dauidath Iordan. 20 The bitter and venomous waters are healed. 23 The children that mocke Eliſha, are rent in pieces with Beeres.

a Which was the place where the children of Iſrael were circumciſed after they came ouer Iordan, and had bene fourtie yeeres in the wilderneſſe, as Ioh. 6. 9.

b So called, becauſe they are begotten as it were anew by the heavenly doctrine.

c That is from being any more thine head: for ſo be as the head, is to be the maſter, as to him the feete, is to be a ſcholler. 8 For the Lord had reſcued him from them.

e Not onely at Bethel, but at Iericho and o- ther places were there prophets which had schol- ars, whom they instructed, and brought up in the true feare of God.

f To wit, of Jeri- den.

g Let thy spirit haue double force in me, be- cause of these dangerous times: or let me haue trust so much as the rest of the Prophets: or thy Spirit being di- uided into three parts, leaue mee haue two. Eccles. 4. 8. 3. iud. 3. 18. h Thus God hath left a testimonie in all ages (both before the Law, in the Law, and in the time of the Gospel) of our resurrection.

i The spirit of prophesie is gi- uen to him as it was to Elijah.

k Meaning, Eli- jah: for they thought his bod- dy had bene cast in some moun- taine.

l Because the fact was extraordina- ry, they doubted where he was be- come, but Eliha was assured that he was taken vp to God. 10r, killeth the inhabitants.

5 And the children of the Prophets that were at Iericho, came to Eliha, and said vnto him, Knowest thou that the Lord will take the matter from thine hand this day: and hee said, Yea, I know it: hold pee your peace.

6 Moreover, Eliha said vnto him, Ma- rie, I pray thee, turne: for the Lord hath sent me to meete thee here. As the Lord liueth, as thy soule liueth, I will not leave thee. So they went both together.

7 And fiftie men of the sonnes of the Pro- phets went, and stood on the other side afar off, and they two stood by Iordan.

8 And when Eliha made his cloke, & wrapt it together, and loose the waters, and they went plashed higher and higher, vnto they came went ouer on the dry land.

9 Now when they were passed ouer, Eliha said vnto Eliha, What I shall doe for thee before I be taken from thee. And Eliha said, I pray thee, Let thy Spirit bee double vpon me.

10 And hee said, Thou hast asked an hard thing: yet if thou see mee when I am taken from thee, then shalt haue it to: and if not, it shall not be.

11 And as they went walking and talk- ing, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and did separate them thence. So Eliha went vp by a whirle- wind into heauen.

12 And Eliha said it, and hee cried, My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the hostmen thereof: and hee saue him no more: and hee took his owne clothes, and rent them in two pieces.

13 And hee took by alld the cloke of Eliha that fell from him, and returned, and stood by the bankes of Iordan.

14 After hee tooke the cloke of Eliha, that fell from him, and loose the waters, and said, Where is the Lord God of Eliha? And so hee also, after hee had stricken the water, so that they were diuided this way and that way, went ouer, euen Eliha.

15 And when the children of the Pro- phets, which were at Iericho, saue him on the other side, they sayde, The spirit of Eliha doth rest on Eliha: and they came to meete him, and fell to the ground before him.

16 And said vnto him, Behold now these bee with thy seruants fiftie strong men: let them goe, wee pray thee, and lette thy ma- ster, if so bee the Spirit of the Lord hath taken him vp, and cast him vpon some moun- taine, or into some valley. But hee said, Ye shall not send.

17 Yet they were instant vpon him, till hee was ashamed: wherefore hee said, Send. So they sent fiftie men, which sought three dayes, but found him not.

18 Therefore they returned to him, (for hee tarried at Iericho) and hee said vnto them, Did not I say vnto you, doe not?

19 And the men of the cite said vnto Eliha, Behold, we pray thee: the situation of this cite is pleasant, as thou, my lord, saidst, but the waters naught, and the ground barren.

20 Then hee said, Being not a rich man, and put salt thereto. And they brought it to him.

21 And hee went vnto the spring of the waters, and cast there the salt, and sayde, Thus saith the Lord, I haue heale this barrenness: shall no more come thence, vnto the end of the ground.

22 So the waters were healed vntill this day, according to the word of Eliha which hee had spoken.

23 And hee went by from thence vnto Beth-el. And as hee was going by the way, little children came out of the cite, and mock- ed him, and said vnto him, Come by, thou bald head, come by, thou bald head.

24 And hee turned backe, and looked in them, and cursed them in the name of the Lord. And two beards came out of the forehead, and face in pieces two and fourtie children of them.

25 So hee went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence hee returned to Samaria.

C. H. A. P. III.
1 The reigne of Iehoram. 6 He and Jeho- shaphat goe to warre against Moab, which rebelled. 13 Eliha reprooueth him: 17 and giueth their boyle water. 24 The Moabites are overcome. 27 Their King sacrificeth his sonne.

NOW Iehoram the sonne of Ahab began to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, the eighteenth yere of Jehoashaphat king of Iu- dah, and reigned twelue yeres.

2 And hee was brought euill in the sight of the Lord, but not like his father: nor like his mo- ther: for hee took away the image of Baal that his father had made.

3 Nevertheless, hee cleaued vnto the sinnes of Iehoram, the sonne of Ahab, which made Israel to sinne, and departed not therefrom.

4 Then Achaz king of Moab had store of sheepe, and rendered vnto the King of Israel an hundred thousand lambs, and an hundred thousand rammes with the wool.

5 But when Ahab was dead, the king of Moab rebelled against the King of Israel.

6 Therefore king Iehoram went out of Samaria the same season, and numbred all Israel.

7 And went, and sent to Jehoashaphat King of Iudah, saying, The King of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou goe with me to battell against Moab: and be an- swered, I will goe vp: for I am, as thou art, my people, as thy people, and mine houses as thine houses.

8 Then said he, What may I doe to thee? And hee answered, The way of the wickedness of Chem.

9 So went the king of Israel and the king of Iudah, and the king of Edom, and when they had compassed the way three dayes, they had no water for the horses, and for the cattell that followed them.

10 Therefore the King of Israel said, that the Lord hath called these Kings, to giue them into the hand of Moab.

11. And Jehoshaphat sayde, Is there not here a prophet of the Lord, that we may inquire of the Lord by him? and one of the sons of Manasse answered, and said, There is within the house of Jehoshaphat, which poured water on the hands of Eli-

12. Then Jehoshaphat sayde, The word of the Lord is with him. Therefore the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom went downe to him.

13. And Eliha sayd unto the king of Israel, What haue I to do with thee? get thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel sayd vnto him, May: for the Lord hath called these three kings, to giue them into the hand of Edom.

14. Then Eliha sayd, As the Lords of hosts lieth, in whose light I stand, if it were not, that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Iudah, I would not haue looked toward thee, nor seen thee.

15. But now being mee a minstrell, And when the minstrell played, the hand of the Lord came vpon him.

16. And hee sayd, Thus saith the Lord, Make this valley full of ditches.

17. For thus saith the Lord, Ye shall neither see wind nor feele raine, yet the valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drinke, both ye and your cattell, and your beasts.

18. But this is a small thing in the sight of the Lord: for he will giue Abiah into your hand.

19. And ye shall smite every strong towne and every chiefe citie, and shall fell every faire tree, and shall stop all the fountaines of water, and marre every good field with stones.

20. And in the morning when the meate offering was offered, behold, there came water by the way of Edom: and the country was filled with water.

21. And when all the Moabites heard that the Kings were come up to fight against them, they gathered all that was able to put on harness, and upward, and stood in their border.

22. And they rose early in the morning, when the Sunne arose vpon the water, and the Moabites layne the water ouer against them, as red as blood.

23. And they sayde, This is blood: the Kings are surely slaine, and one hath smitten another: now therefore Abiah to the hoyle.

24. And when they came up to the hoyle of Israel, the Israelites rose up, and smote the Moabites, so that they lied before them, but they wounded them, and smote Abiah.

25. And they destroyed the cities: and on all the good field every man cast his stone, and filled them, and they stopp all the fountaines of water, & felled all the good trees:

26. And in a little barabath left they the stones thereof, whereby they went about to drinke, and smote it.

27. When the king of Edom saw that, hee was too sore for him, hee took: seven hundred men that drinke, to breake through vnto the king of Edom: but they could not.

27. Then hee took his eldest sonne, that should haue reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offering vpon the wall: so that Israel was sore grieved, and they departed from him, and returned to their country.

ther it seemed to be his owne sonne, whom hee offered to his gods to pacifie them, which barbarous cruelty mooued the Israelites hearts of pittie to depart.

CHAP. IIII.

4. God increaseth the oyle to the poore widow by Eliha. 13. Hee braueth for the Shunammite a son at Gods hand. 18. Hee dring. 23. Hee pacifieth him up againe. 40. Hee maketh forget the gattage, 43. And multiplieth the haues.

As one of the widues of the townes of the Prophets cryed vnto Eliha, saying, Thy seruant mine husband is dead, and thou knowest, that thy seruant didd take the Lords: and the crediting is come to take my two sonnes to be his bondmen.

2. Then Eliha sayd vnto her, Call that halfe I doe for thee: tel me, what hast thou at home? And hee sayd, Thine handmayd hath nothing at home, saue a pitcher of oyle.

3. And hee sayd, Go and borrow thee beseels abroad of all thy neighbours, empty beseels, and thare not.

4. And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the doore vpon thee and vpon thy sons, and poure out into all those vessels, and set afire those that are full.

5. So he departed from him, and shut the doore vpon her, and vpon her sonnes. And they brought to her, and she poured out.

6. And when the vessels were full, hee said vnto her sonne, Bring mee yet a vessel. And hee sayd vnto her, There are no more vessels. And the oyle ceased.

7. Then he came & told the man of God, And hee said, Goe, and sell the oyle, and pay them that thou art in debt vnto, and liue thou and thy children of the rest.

8. And on a time Eliha came to Shunamm, and there a woman of great estimation constrained him to eate bread: and as hee passed by he turned in thither to eate bread.

9. And hee sayd vnto her husband, Behold, I know now, that this is an holy man of God that passeth by us continually.

10. Let vs make him a little chamber, I pray thee, with walles, and let vs set him there a bed, and a table, and a stoole, and a candlestick, that hee may turne in thither when he cometh to vs.

11. And on a day he came thither, and turned into the chamber, and lay therein.

12. And sayd to Gehazi his seruant, Call hee that standeth before him: and when hee called her, he stood before him.

13. Then hee layde vnto him, Say vnto her now, Behold, thou hast had all this great care for vs, what shall wee doe for thee? Is there any thing to be spoken for thee to the King, or to the Captaine of the hoste: And hee answered, I dwell among mine owne people.

14 Again hee sayd, What is then to be done for her? Then Gehazi answered, In deed shee hath no sonne, and her husband is olde.

15 Then sayd he, Call her. And he called her, and she stood in the doore.

16 And he sayd, At this time appointed, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a sonne. And she said, Oh my lord, thou man of God, doe not lie unto thine hand-mayd.

17 So the woman conceived, and bare a sonne at that same season, according to the time of life, that Elifha had said unto her.

18 And when the child was grown, it fel on a day that he went out to his father, and to the reapers.

19 And he said to his father, Mine head ake's sore. Elifha sayd to his servants, Beare him to his mother.

20 And he tooke him, and brought him to his mother, and shee sat on her knees till noone, and died.

21 Then hee went by, and layd him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the doore upon him, and went out.

22 And when hee called to her husband, and said, Send with me, I pray thee, one of the young men and one of the asses: for I will haile to the man of God, and come againe.

23 And hee sayd, Wherefore wilt thou goe to him to day? It is neither a newe Moone nor Sabbath day. And hee answered, I shall be well.

24 Then hee sadden an ass, and said to her servants, Drive, and go forward: stay not for me to get by except I die there.

25 And so hee went, and came unto the man of God to mount Carmel. And when the man of God saw him, hee said, Behold the Shunammite.

26 Runne now, I say, to meete her, and say unto her, Art thou in health? is thine husband in health, and is the child in health? And she answered, Wee are in health.

27 And when shee came to the man of God unto the mountaine, shee caught him by his feet: and Gehazi went to her, to thrust her away: but the man of God sayd, Let her alone: for her soule is troubled within her, and the Lord hath hid it from me, and hath not told it me.

28 Then shee said, Did I desire a sonne of my lord? Did I not say, Deceiue me not?

29 Then hee sayd to Gehazi, Gird thy loynes, & take my staffe in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meete any, salute him not: and if any salute thee, answer him not: and lay my staffe upon the face of the child.

30 And the mother of the child sayd, As the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I will not leave thee. Therefore he arose, and followed her.

31 But Gehazi was gone before them, and had layd the staffe upon the face of the child, but he neither spake nor heard: wherefore hee returned to meete him, and told him, saying, The child is not waken.

32 And when came Elifha into the house, and beholds, the child was dead, and layd upon his bed.

33 Hee went in therefore, and shut the doore upon them twaine, and cried unto the Lord.

34 After hee went by, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his handes, and stretched himself upon him, and the flesh of the child waxed warme.

35 And he went from him, and walked by and downe in the house, & went by and layd himself upon him: then the child wakened, and opened his eyes.

36 Then hee called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite. So hee called her, which came in unto him. And hee layd unto her, Take thy sonne.

37 And hee came and fell at his feet, and bowed her selfe to the ground, and tooke up her sonne, and went out.

38 Afterward Elifha returned to Edrei, and a famine was in the land, and the children of the Prophets dwelt togeth. And hee said unto his servant, Get on y great pot, and seeke the portage for the children of the Prophets.

39 And one went out into the field, to gather heards, and found, as it were, a wild vine, and gathered thereof twelve gourdes his garment full, and came and shred them into the pot of portage: for they knew it not.

40 So they powred out for the men to eat: and when they had eate of the portage, they cried out, and said, O thou man of God, death is in the pot: and they could not eate thereof.

41 Then hee sayde, Bring meale. And hee cast it into the pot, and said, Potage out for the people, that they may eate: and there was more still in the pot.

42 And when came a man from Basilestha, and brought the man of God head of the first fruites, even twentie loaves of barley, and full eares of come in the bulke. And hee sayd, Give unto the people, that they may eate.

43 And his servant answered, How should I set this before an hundred men? Hee sayd againe, Give it unto the people, that they may eate: for thus saith the Lord, They shall eate, and there shall remaine.

44 So hee set it before them, and they did eate, and left over according to the word of the Lord.

CHAP. V.

1 Naaman the Syrian is healed of his leprosy. 16 Elifha refuseth his gifts. 27 Gehazi is punished with leprosy, because hee took money, and raiment of Naaman.

Now was there one Naaman captain of the hoste of the king of Aram, a great man, and honourable in the sight of his king, because that by him the Lord had delivered the Syrians. Hee also was a mighty man, and valiant, but a leper.

2 And the Syrians had gone out by the river,

And he had taken a little maid of the land of Israel, and her sister Naaman's wife.

And shee layde unto her mistress, Wouldst thou my lord were with thee? For he that is in Samaria, he would loose thee from him of his leprosie.

And she went in, and told him her lord, saying, Thus and thus hath the maid that is of the land of Israel.

And the king of Aram saide, See thy way thither, and I will sende a letter unto the king of Israel. And hee departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten change of raiments.

And he brought the letter to the king of Israel to this effect, Nowe when this letter is come unto thee, understande, that I have sent thee Naaman my servant, that thou mayest heale him of his leprosie.

And when the king of Israel had read the letter, he rent his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and give life, that hee doth sende to me, that I should heale a man from his leprosie? Wherefore consider, I pray you, and see howe hee seeketh squarell against me.

But when Elisha the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, he sent unto the king, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? Let him come now to me, and he shall knowe, that there is a Prophet in Israel.

Then Naaman came with his horses, and with his charers, and stood at the doore of the house of Elisha.

And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying, See, and wash thee in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come againe to thee, and thou shalt be cleansed.

But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and saide, Beholde, I thought with my selfe, hee will surely come out, and stand, and call on the Name of the Lord his God, and put his hand on the place, and heale the leprosie.

Are not Abanah and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better then all the waters of Israel? may I not wash mee in them, and bee cleansed? so he turned, and departed in displeasure.

But his servants came, and spake unto him, and said, Father, if the Prophet had commaunded thee a great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? how much rather then when hee saith to thee, Wash, and be cleane?

Then went hee downe and washed himselfe seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God, and his flesh came againe, like unto the flesh of a little child, and he was cleane.

And he returned againe to the man of God, he, & all the companie, and came and stood before him, and saide, Beholde, now I knowe that there is no God in all the world, but in Israel: nowe therefore, I pray thee, give a reward of thy servant.

But hee saide, As the Lord liveth, whom I stand, I will not receive it.

And hee would have constrained him to receive it, but he refused.

Whereupon, Naaman said, Behold there is no gift to be given to thy servant: two mules load of this earth: for thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt sacrifice, nor offering unto any other god, save unto the Lord.

For when the Lord be mercifull unto thy servant, that when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon, to worship there, and I stand with him, and I bowe my selfe in the house of Rimmon: when I doe bowe downe, I say, in the house of Rimmon, the Lord be mercifull unto thy servant in this point.

Unto whom hee sayd, See in peace, hee departed from him about halfe a dayes journey of ground.

And when the servant of Elisha the man of God saide, Beholde, my master hath shared this Aramite Naaman, receiving not those things at his hand that he brought: as the Lord liveth, I will runne after him, and take somewhat of him.

So Gehazi followed him, after Naaman. And when Naaman sawe him running after him, hee light down from the chariot to meet him, and said, Is all well?

And he answered, All is well: my master hath sent me, saying, Beholde, there be come to me, even now from mount Ephraim two young men of the children of the Prophets: give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two change of garments.

And Naaman saide, Dea, take two talents: and hee compelled him, and bound two talents of silver in two bagges, with two change of garments, and gave them unto two of his servants, that they might beare them before him.

And when hee came to the towne, hee tooke them out of their bagges, and layde them in the house, and sent away the men: and they departed.

Then he went in, and stood before his master. And Elisha saide unto him, Whence comest thou, Gehazi? And he said, Thy servant went no whither.

But hee saide unto him, Is not mine heart with thee when the man turned againe from his chariot to meete thee? Is this a time to take money, and to receive garments, and olives, and vineyards, and sheepe, and oxen, and men servants, and maid servants?

The leprosie therefore of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and to thy seede for ever. And hee went out from his presence a leper, white as snowe.

CHAP. VI.

Elisha maketh yrons for sinners about the water. He despiseth the king of Syria, and saith to the king of Israel, Who sending comes to take him, were kept fast in Samaria. Samaria is besieged and endureth extreme famine.

And the children of the Prophets layde unto Elisha, Beholde, here nowe is the place where wee dwell with thee, is too little for us.

So the Lord commaundeth that they that receive freely, should give also freely.

Hee feelth his conscience wounded in being present at idoles service, and therefore desireth God to forgive him, lest others by his example might fall to idolatrie: for as for his own part hee confesseth that he will never become any but the true God.

The Prophet did not approve his aile, but after the common manner of speech hee biddeth him farewell.

d The wicked conspire nothing so easily, but God can revile it to his servants, and cause their counsel to be disclosed.

e There is nothing so secret that thou canst go about, but he knoweth it, & discovereth it unto his King.

f Though it had bene nothing in mans judgement to have taken Elisha, yet the wicked ever doubt and thinke they are never able to prepare power enough, though it be but against one, or a few.

g For he was assured of Gods help, and that millions of Angels cased about the godly to deliver them.

h That he may behold howe thou hast prepared an arme to rescue vs.

i Meaning the Syrians his enemies which came downe thinking themselves sure of him.

k Thus he did being led by the Spirit of God, & nor because he sought his owne revengeance, but onely to set forth the elect of God.

2 Let vs now goe to Jordan, that we may take thence every man a beame, and make vs a place to dwell in. And he answered, Goe.

3 And one said, Touchstake, I pray thee, to goe with thy servants: and he answered, I will goe.

4 So he went with them, and when they came to Jordan, they cut downe wood.

5 And as one was felling of a tree, the yron fell into the water: then he cryed, and said, Alas maister, it was but borrowed.

6 And the man of God said, Elisha fell it: And he shewed him the place. Then he cut downe a piece of wood, and cast in it: ther, and he cauled the yron to swimme.

7 Then he said, Take it up to thee. And he stretched out his hand, and tooke it.

8 Then the king of Aram warred against Israel, and tooke counsell with his servants, and said, In such and such a place shall we campe.

9 Therefore the man of God sent unto the king of Israel, saying, Beware thou ges not over to such a place: for there the Aramites are come downe.

10 So the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God tolde him, and warned him of, & shued himselfe from thence, not once, nor twice.

11 And the heart of the king of Aram was troubled for this thing: therefore he called his servants, and said unto them, What ye not yethe mee, which of vs bewailed our counsell to the king of Israel?

12 Then one of his servants said, None, my lord. O king, but Elisha the Prophet that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel, even the wordes that thou speakest in thy private chamber.

13 And he said, For, and elsythe where hee is, that I may send and fetch him. And one told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan.

14 So he sent thither horses and charers, and a mightie host: and they came by night, and compassed the cite.

15 And when the servant of the man of God arose early to goe out, behold, an host compassed the cite with horses and charers. Then his servant said unto him, Alas maister, how shall we doe?

16 And he answered, A feare not: for they that be with us, are more then they that be with them.

17 Then Elisha prayed and said, Lord, I beseech thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the Lord opened the eyes of the servant, and he looked, and beholde, the mountaine was full of horses, and charers of fire round about Elisha.

18 So they came downe to him: but Elisha prayed unto the Lord, and said, Strike this people. I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them with blindness, according to the word of Elisha.

19 And Elisha said unto them, This is not the way, neither is this the cite: follow mee, and I will leave you to the man whom ye seek. But he led them to Samaria.

20 And when they were come to Samaria, Elisha said, Lords, open their eyes that they may see. And the Lord opened their eyes, and they saw, and beholde, they were in the mids of Samaria.

21 And the king of Israel said unto Elisha, When he hath them, I pray father, shall I smite them, shall I smite them?

22 And he answered, Thou shalt not smite them: dost thou not smite them that thou hast taken with thy sword, and with thy bowe: but set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drinke & goe to their matter.

23 And he made great preparation for them; and when they had eaten and drunken, he sent them away: and they went to their matter. So the bands of Aram came no more into the land of Israel.

24 But afterward Ben-hadad King of Aram gathered all his hoste, and went up, and beleaged Samaria.

25 So there was a great famine in Samaria: for loe, they beleaged it, untill an assle head was at foure score pieces of silver, & the fourth part of a cab of dones downe at three pieces of silver.

26 And as the king of Israel was going upon the wall, there cryed a woman unto him, saying, helpe, my lord, O king.

27 And he said, Seeing the Lord doeth not succour thee, howe should I helpe thee, with the shame of with the winnipeke?

28 Alas the king said unto her, Elisha asleth thee: And he answered, This woman said unto me, Give thy sonne, that we may eate him to day; and we will eate my sonne to morrow.

29 So we sod my sonne, and did eate him: and I laide to her the day after, Give thy sonne, that we may eate him, but she hath hid her sonne.

30 And when the king had heard the wordes of the woman, he rent his clothes, & (as shee went upon the wall, the people looked, and beholde, he had sackcloth with upon his flesh).

31 And he said, God doe so to me & more also, if the head of Elisha the sonne of Shaphat shall stand on him this day.

32 (Nowe Elisha sate in his house, and the Elders sate with them) And the king sent a man before him: but before the messenger came to him, hee said to the Elders, See ye not howe this man here comes? he hath sent to take away mine head: take heed when the messenger cometh, and thus hee shall doe, & handle him roughly at the doore: he is not the sound of his maisters feete behind him.

33 Whilster yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came downe unto him, and said, Beholde, this evil commeth of the Lord: O spondler I attend on the Lord as long time.

CHAP. VII.

Elisha propheseth plagues of swails and belly chagges to Samaria. 6 The Syrians forsake and have no man following them. 27 The price that would not believe the word of Elisha, is trodden to death.

THE

1 Then Elisha sayd, Behold ye the word of the Lord: thus saith the Lord, To morrow about this time a measure of fine flour shall be at a shekel, & two measures of barley at a shekel in the gate of Samaria.

2 Then a prince on whose hand the king leaned, answered the man of God, and sayd, Though the Lord would make widowers in the haven, could this thing come to passe? And he sayd, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not eat thereof.

3 Now there were foure leproous men at the entering in of the gate: and they sayd one to another, Let us be here until wee see.

4 If we say, we will enter into the citie, the famine is in the citie, and wee shall die there: and if we be here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let vs fall into the campe of the Aramites, if they save our lives, wee shall live: and if they kill vs, wee are but dead.

So they rose up in the twilight, to go to the campe of the Aramites: and when they were come to the utmost part of the campe of the Aramites, loe, there was no man there.

6 For the Lord had caused the campe of the Aramites to beare a noy of charrets, and a noy of horses, and a noy of a great arme, so that they layd one to another, Behold, the king of Israel hath hired against us the king of the Assyrians, and the king of the Egyptians to come upon vs.

7 Wherefore they arose, and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, when the campe as it was, and a fled for their lives.

8 And when these lepers came to the utmost part of the campe, they entered into one tent, and tooke a vinegar, and carried the same: and gods, and garments, and went away: after they returned, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it.

9 Then sayd one to another, One do not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace. If we say, still say light, some mischief will come upon vs. For the Lord is here: let vs now tell the king, his household.

10 So they came, and called unto the porters of the citie, and told them, saying, Allee came to the campe of the Aramites, and loe, there was no man there: neither worpe of man, but horses tyed, and asses tyed: and the tents as they were.

11 And the porters cryed and declared to the king his house within.

12 Then the king arose in the night, and sayde unto his servants, I will shew you now, what the Aramites have done unto vs. They know that we are afflicted, therefore they are gone out of the campe to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the citie, wee shall catch them alive, and get into the citie.

13 And one of his servants answered, and sayd, Let men sake now flue of the houses that remaine and are left in the citie: behold, they are even as all the multitude of Israel: they are left therein: behold, I say, they are as the multitude of the Jewelliers that are consumed, and we will send to see.

14 So they took two charets of horses, and the king sent after the hoste of the Aramites, saying, Go and see.

15 And they went after them into Jordan, and loe, all the way was full of clothes and bests, which the Aramites had cast from them in their halle: and the messengers returned, and told the king.

16 Then the people went out and spoyle the campe of the Aramites: so a measure of fine flour was at a shekel, and two measures of barley at a shekel, according to the word of the Lord.

17 And the king gave the Prince (on whose hand he leaned) the charge of the gate, and the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had sayde, which spake it when the king came downe to him.

18 And it came to passe, as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley at a shekel, and a measure of fine flour shall be at a shekel, to morrow about this time in the gate of Samaria.

19 But the Prince had answered the man of God, and sayd, Though the Lord would make widowers in the haven, could it come to passe? And he sayd, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not eat thereof.

20 And so it came unto him: for the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died.

1 THEN spake Elisha unto the woman, whose sonne he had restored to life, saying, As I and goe, thou and thine house, and sojourne where thou canst sojourne: for the Lord hath called for a famine, and it cometh also upon the land seven yeeres.

2 And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God, and went forth her and her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven yeeres.

3 And at the seven yeeres end the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines, and went out to call upon the king for her house and for her land.

4 And the king talked with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great acts that Elisha hath done.

5 And as he told the king, how hee had restored one dead to life, behold, the woman whose sonne hee had rayed to life, called upon the king for her house and for her land. Then Gehazi sayd, O my lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her sonne, whose sonne Elisha restored to life.

6 And when the king asked the woman, the talbe him: is the king appointed her an Eunuch, saying, Restore thou all that are hers, and all the fruits of her lande since the day shee left the lande, even vntill this time.

7 ¶ Then Elisha came to Damascus: Ben-hadad the king of Aram was sicke, and one tolde him, saying, The man of God is come hither.

8 And the king sayd vnto Hazeal, Take a present in thine hand, and goe meete the man of God, that thou mayest inquire of the Lord by him, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

9 ¶ So Hazeal went to meete him, and tooke the present in his hande, and of every good thing of Damascus, euen the burden of sacket camels, and came and stood before him, and sayde, Thy sonne Ben-hadad king of Aram hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

10 And Elisha sayd to him, Goe, and say vnto him, Thou shalt recover: howbeit the Lord hath shewed me, that he shall surely die.

11 And he looked vpon him stedfastly til Hazeal was ashamed, and the man of God wept.

12 And Hazeal sayde, Why weepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I knowe the euill that thou shalt do vnto the children of Israel: for their strong cities shalt thou let ouer, and their strong men shalt thou slay with the sword, and thou shalt dash their infants against the stones, and rent in pieces their women with child.

13 Then Hazeal sayde, What? is thy servant a dogge, that I should doe this great thing? And Elisha answered, The Lord hath shewed me, that thou shalt be king of Aram.

14 ¶ So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, who layde to him, What sayde Elisha to thee? And he answered, He tolde me that thou shouldst recover.

15 And on the morrow he tooke a cloth, and dypt it in water, and spread it on his face, and he died: and Hazeal reigned in his stead.

16 ¶ Now in the fifth yere of Ioram the sonne of Ahab king of Israel, and of Iehoshaphat king of Iudah, Iehoram the sonne of Iehoshaphat king of Iudah began to reigne.

17 He was two and thirtie yere old, when he began to reigne: and he reigned eight yere in Ierusalem.

18 And he walked in the wayes of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for the daughter of Ahab was his wife, and he did euill in the sight of the Lord.

19 But the Lord would not destroy Iudah for Dauds his seruants sake, as he had promised him to giue him a light, and to his children for euer.

20 ¶ In those dayes Zimri rebelled vnder the hand of Iudah, and made a king ouer themselues.

21 Therefore Ioram went to Zair, and all his chariots with him, and hee arose by night, and smote the Chonitres which were about him with the Captaines of the chariots, and the people fled into their tents.

22 So Zimri rebelled from vnder the hand of Iudah vnto this day: And Zimri rebelled at that same time.

23 Concerning the rest of the actes of Ioram, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah?

24 And Ioram kept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of Daud. And Abaziah his sonne reigned in his stead.

25 ¶ In the twelfth yere of Ioram the sonne of Ahab king of Israel did Abaziah the sonne of Iehoram king of Iudah begin to reigne.

26 ¶ Two and twentie yere olde was Abaziah when hee began to reigne, and hee reigned one yere in Ierusalem, and his mothers name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri king of Israel.

27 And hee walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did euill in the sight of the Lord, like the house of Ahab: for hee was the sonne in law of the house of Ahab.

28 And hee went with Ioram the sonne of Ahab to war against Hazeal king of Aram in Ramoth Gilead, and the Aramites smote Ioram.

29 And king Ioram returned to bee healed in Ierusalem of the wounds which the Aramites had giuen him at Ramoth, when hee fought against Hazeal king of Aram: and Abaziah the sonne of Iehoram king of Iudah went downe to see Ioram the sonne of Ahab in Ierusalem, because hee was sicke.

C H A P. IX.

1. Iohn a made king of Israel, 2. And Elisha tolde him the King thereof, 3. And Abaziah the wife called Athaliah the King of Iudah, 4. And conspired to rebel to be calld downe out of a window, and the dogges did eate her.

¶ When Elisha the Prophet called one of the children of the Prophets, and said vnto him, ¶ Bind the loynes, and take this borie of oyle in thine hand, and get thee to Ramoth Gilead.

2 And when thou comest thither, looke where a Iehu the sonne of Iehoshaphat, the sonne of Shunith, and goe and make him arise vp from among his brethren, and leade him to a secret chamber.

3 Then take the borie of oyle, and poure it on his head, and say, Thus saith the Lord, I haue anointed thee for king ouer Israel: then open the doore, and flee without any tarrying.

4 So the seruant of the Prophet gate him to Ramoth Gilead.

5 And when hee came in, behold, the captaines of the armie were sitting. And hee said, I haue a message to thee, O captaine. And Iehu said, Vnto which of all vs? And he answered, To thee, O captaine.

6 And hee arose, and went into the house, and hee poured the oyle on his head, and sayde vnto him, Thus sayeth the Lord God of Israel, I haue anointed thee for for king over the people of the Land, even as I will.

And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master: that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the Lord, of the hand of Jezabel.

For the words of the Lord which he spake unto Ioram, saying, I will cut off from Ahab, how that maketh water against the wall, as well him that is shut up, as him that is left in Ahab.

And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahiab.

And the dogs shall eat Jezabel in the field of Israel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled.

And when Jehu came out to the servants of his lord, and one said unto him, Is all well? wherefore came this? maddest thou to thee: and he said, unto them, Ye know the man, and what his tale was.

And they said, It is false, tell us it now. Then he said, Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I have anointed thee for king over Israel.

Then they made haste, and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the toppe of the staires, and blew the trumpet, saying, Jehu is King.

So Jehu the sonne of Jehoshaphat the sonne of Hanani conspired against Ioram, (howe Ioram kept Ramoth Gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael King of Aram.

And King Ioram returned to be healed in Israel of the wounds, which the Aramites had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Aram: and Jehu sayd, If he see your minde, let no man depart and escape out of the citie, to goe and tell in Israel.

So Jehu gate by into a charret, and went to Israel: for Ioram lay there, and Hazael king of Judah was come downe to the Ioram.

And the watchman that stood in the route in Israel, spied the company of Jehu as he came, and sayd, I see a company. And Jehoram sayd, Take a horseman, and send to mee them, that he may say, Is it peace?

So there went one on horsebacke to meete him, and sayd, Thus saith the King, Is it peace? And Jehu sayd, What hast thou to doe with peace? I turne behinde me. And the watchman tolde, saying, The messenger came to them, but he cometh not againe.

Then hee sent out an other on horsebacke, which came to them, and sayd, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu answered, What hast thou to doe with peace? turne behinde me.

And the watchman tolde, saying, He came to them also, but cometh not againe, and the marching is like the marching of Jehu the sonne of Hanani: for he marcheth suddenly.

21 ¶ Then Jehoram said, Make ready: and his chariot was made ready. And Jehoram king of Israel, and Ahaziah king of Judah went out either of them in his chariot against Jehu, and met him in the field of Naboth the Jezreelite.

22 And when Jehoram sawe Jehu, hee sayd, Is it peace, Jehu? and he answered, What's peace, whiles the whoeredownes of thy mother Iezabel, and her witchcraftes are yet in great number?

23 Then Jehoram turned his hand, and fled, and sayd to Ahaziah, O Ahaziah, there is treachery.

24 But Jehuooke a bowe in his hand, and smote Jehoram betwene the shoulders, that the arrowe went thorow his heart: and he fell downe in his charret.

25 Then said Iehu to Bidkar a captaine, Take and call him in some place of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for I remember that when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the Lord I laid this burden upon him.

26 Surely I have seene yesterday the blood of Naboth, & the blood of his sonnes, sayd the Lord, and I will render it thee in this field, sayth the Lord: now therefore take and call him in the field, according to the word of the Lord.

27 But when Ahaziah the king of Judah sawe this, hee fled by the way of the garden house: and Jehu purshed after him, and sayd, Smite him also in the charret: and they smote him (as hee going by to Gur, which is by Ibleam. And hee fled to Megiddo, and there died.

28 And his servants caried him in a charret to Jerusalem, & buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the citie of David.

29 ¶ And in the eleventh yeere of Ioram the sonne of Ahab, began Ahaziah to reigne over Judah.

30 And when Jehu was come to Israel, Iezabel heard of it, and painted her face, and tyed her head, and looked out at a window.

31 And when Jehu entred at the gate, she sayd, Had I sunne peace, which shewe his master?

32 And hee left by his eyes to the window, and sayd, What is on my side, who? Then two or three of her Eunuches looked unto him.

33 And he sayd, Cast her down: and they cast her down, and he sprinkled of her blood upon the wall, and upon the houses, and hee trode her under foote.

34 And when he was come in, hee did eat and drinke, and said, Alas! now poudest thou woman and burie her: for she is a kings daughter.

35 And they went to burie her, but they found no more of her then the skull, and the seere, and the palmes of her hands.

CHAP. X.

6 Iehu causeth the twenty sonnes of Ahab to be slaine, 14. and after that fourteen and two of Ahaziah brethren. 25 He killed also all the Priests of Baal. 35 After his death his sonne reigne in his stead.

Ahab had now sentie sonnes in Samaria. And Iehu wrote letters, & sent to Samaria vnto the rulers of Israel, and to the Elders, and to the bingers vp of Ahab's children, to this effect,

2 Nowe when this letter cometh to you, (for yee haue with you your masters sonnes, yee haue with you both charrets and horses, and a defended citie, and armour)

3 Consider therefore which of your masters sonnes is best and most meete, and let him on his fathers throne, and fight for your masters house.

4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and sayd, Behold, two kinges could not stand before him, how shall we then stand?

5 And hee that was gouernour of Ahab's house, and hee that ruled the citie, and the Elders, and the bingers vp of the childien sent to Iehu, saying, Allee are thy seruants, and will doe all that thou shalt bid vs: wee will make no thing: doe what seemeth good to thee.

6 ¶ Then hee wrote another letter to them, saying, If yee be mine, and will obey my voyce, & take the heads of the men that are your masters sonnes, and come to mee to Israel by to morrow this time. (Nowe the Kings sonnes, euen sentie persons, were with the great men of the citie, which brought them vp)

7 And when the letter came to them, they tooke the king sonnes, and slew the sentie persons, and laid their heads in baskets, and sent them vnto him to Israel.

8 ¶ Then there came a messenger, and tolde him, saying, They haue brought the heads of the kings sonnes. And he sayd, Let them lay them on two heapes at the entring in of the gate vntill the morning.

9 And when it was day, hee went out, and stood and sayd to all the people, See ye righteous: behold, I combred against my maker, and slewe him: but who slewe all these?

10 Know now that there shall fall vnto the earth nothing of the word of the Lorde, which the Lord spake concerning the house of Ahab: for the Lord hath brought to passe the things that hee saide: by his seruant Eliab.

11 So Iehu slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Israel, and all that were great with him, and his familiars, and his priests, so that hee let none of his remaine.

12 ¶ And hee arose, and departed, and came to Samaria. And as Iehu was in the way by an house where the shepherds dwelt.

13 He met with the shepherds of Ahab's king of Iudah, and sayd, Allee are ye: And they answered, Allee are the shepherds of Ahab's, and got downe to salute the children of the king, and the children of the sheperds.

14 And he sayd, Take them allee. And they tooke them allee, and slew them at the well beside the house where the sheps are house, euen two and fourtie men, and he left not one of them.

15 ¶ And when hee was departed thence hee met with Jehonadab the sonne of Rechab coming to meete him, and hee blessed him, and sayd to him, Is thine heart vpright, as mine heart is toward thine? And Jehonadab answered, Yea, doubtlesse, then giue mee thine hand. And when hee had giuen him his hand, hee took him vp to him into the charret.

16 And he sayd, Come with me, and see the place that I haue for the Lord: so they made him ride in his charret.

17 And when hee came to Samaria, hee slewe all that remained vnto Ahab in Samaria, till hee had destroyed him, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake to Eliab.

18 Then Iehu assembled all the people, and sayd vnto them, Ahab serued Baal a litle, but Iehu shall serue him much more.

19 Nowe therefore call vnto mee all the prophets of Baal, all his seruants, and all his priests, and let not a man bee lacking: for I haue a great sacrifice for Baal: who soeuer is lacking, hee shall not liue. But Iehu did it by a subtilty to destroy the seruants of Baal.

20 And Iehu sayde, Proclaime a solemne assembly for Baal. And they proclaimed it.

21 So Iehu sent vnto all Israel, and all the seruants of Baal came, and there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the house of Baal, and the house of Baal was full from end to end.

22 Then hee sayd vnto them that had the charge of the vestry, Bring forth vestments for all the seruants of Baal. And they brought them out in their clothes.

23 And when Iehu went, and Jehonadab the sonne of Rechab into the house of Baal, hee sayd vnto the seruants of Baal, Search diligently, and looke, lest there be here with you any of the seruants of the Lord, but the seruants of Baal onely.

24 And when they went in to make sacrifice and burnt offering, Iehu appointed fortye men without, and sayd, If any of the men whom I haue brought into your hands, escape, if his soule shall bee for his soule.

25 And when hee had made an ende of the burnt offering, Iehu sayd to the gardes, and to the captaines, See in, slay them, let not a man come out: And they smote them with the edge of the sword. And the gardes,

CHAP. XII.

6 Jehoshaphat maketh prouision for the repairing of the Temple. 16 He slayeth the king of Syria by a present from cunning against Ierusalem. 26 He is killed by two of his seruants.

1 In the seventh yeere of Iehu, Jehoshaphat began to reigne and reigned fourtie yeeres in Ierusalem, and his mothers name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

2 And Jehoshaphat did that which was good in the sight of the Lord all his time: for Jehoiada the Priest taught him.

3 But the high places were not taken away: for the people offered yet and burnt incense in the high places.

4 And Jehoshaphat saide to the Priests, All the filur of dedicate things that bee brought to the house of the Lord, that is, the money of them that are under the count, the money that every man is let at, and all the money that one offereth willingly, and bringeth into the house of the Lord,

5 Let the Priests take it to them, every man of his acquaintance: and they shall repaire the broken places of the house, where-fore any decay is found.

6 For in the thre and twentieth yeere of king Jehoshaphat the Priests had not mended that which was decayed in the temple.

7 Then king Jehoshaphat called for Jehoiada the Priest, and the other Priests, & said vnto them, Why repaire ye not the ruines of the Temple? shewe therefore receive no more money of your acquaintance, except ye deliuer it to repaire the ruines of the Temple.

8 So the Priests consented to receive no more money of the people, neither to repaire the decayed places of the Temple.

9 Then Jehoiada the Priest tooke a chest, and boyled an hole in the lid of it, & set it belide the altar, on the right side, as euery man cometh into the temple of the Lord. And the Priests that kept the doore, put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the Lord.

10 And when they saw there was much money in the chest, the Kings secretarie came vp, and the hie Priest, and put it vp after that they had told the money that was found in the house of the Lord.

11 And they gaue the money made ready into the hands of them, that undertooke the worke, and that had the ouersight of the house of the Lord: and they payed it out to the carpenters, and builders that wrought vpon the house of the Lord,

12 And to the masons and hewers of stone, and to buy timber and hewed stone, to repaire that was decayed in the house of the Lord, and for all that which was layed out for the reparation of the Temple.

13 Howbeit there was not made in the house of the Lord bowles of silver, instruments of musike, basins, cymbels, nor vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of the Lord.

14 But they gaue it to the workmen, which repaired therewith the house of the Lord.

15 Howouer, they reckoned not with the men, into whose hands they deliuered the money to bee bestowed on workmen: for they dealt faithfully.

16 The money of the trespass offering, and the money of the sin offerings was not brought into the house of the Lord: for it was the Priests.

17 Then came by Hazael king of Aram, and fought against Samaria and took it: and Hazael let his face to goe vp to Ierusalem.

18 And Jehoshaphat king of Iudah tooke all the hallowed things that Jehoshaphat, and Jehoram, & Ahaziah his fathers kings of Iudah had dedicated, and that he himselfe had dedicated, and all the golde that was found in the treasures of the house of the Lord, and in the kings house, and sent it to Hazael king of Aram, and hee departed from Ierusalem.

19 Concerning the rest of the actes of Ioshaphat, and all that hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah?

20 And his seruants arose & wrought treason, and slew Ioshaphat in the house of Millo, when hee came downe to Gilgal.

21 Then Jotham the sonne of Achaziah, and Jehozabab the sonne of Shomer his seruants smote him, and hee died: and they buried him with his fathers in the cite of Dauid. And Amaziah his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XIII.

1 In the thre and twentieth yeere of Ioshaphat the sonne of Achaziah king of Iudah, Jehoshaphat the sonne of Iehu began to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, and he reigned seentene yeere.

2 And hee did euill in the sight of the Lord, and followed the finnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne, and departed not therefrom.

3 And the Lord was angry with Israel, and deliuered them into the hand of Hazael, king of Aram, and into the hand of Benhadad the sonne of Hazael all his dayes.

4 And Jehoshaphat besought the Lord, and the Lord heard him: for he saw the trouble of Israel, wherewith the king of Aram troubled them.

6 Nevertheless they departed not from the finnes of the house of Jeroboam which made Israel sinne, but walked in them: even the grove also remained still in Samaria.

7 For he had left of the people to Jehoahaz but fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen, because the king of Aram had destroyed them, and made them like dust beaten to powder.

8 Concerning the rest of the actes of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his valiant deedes, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

9 And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria, and Joash his sonne reigned in his stead.

10 ¶ In the seven and thirtieth yeere of Joash king of Judah began Jehoash the sonne of Jehoahaz to enigne our Israel in Samaria, and reigned thirtene yeere.

11 And did euill in the sight of the Lord: for he departed not from all the finnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat that made Israel to sinne, but he walked therein.

12 Concerning the rest of the actes of Joash, and all that he did, his valiant deedes, and how he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

13 And Joash slept with his fathers, and Jeroboam late upon his seat: and Joash was buried in Samaria among the kings of Israel.

14 ¶ When Elisha fell sicke of his sickness wherof he died, Joash the king of Israel came home vnto him, and wept vpon his face, and sayde, O my father, my father, the charer of Israel, and the hostemur of the same.

15 Then Elisha sayd vnto him, Take a bow and arrowes. And heooke vnto him bow and arrowes.

16 And he said to the king of Israel, Put thine hand vpon the bowe. And hee put his hand vpon it. And Elisha put his hands vpon the kings hands.

17 And sayd, Open the window Eastward. And when hee had opened it, Elisha sayd, Shoot. And he shot. And he sayd, Behold the arrowe of the Lordes deliuerance, and the arrowe of deliuerance against Aram: for thou shalt smite the Aramites in Aphek, till thou hast consumed them.

18 Again hee sayd, Take the arrowes. And heeooke them. And hee sayd vnto the king of Israel, Smite the ground. And he smote thyle, and ceased.

19 Then the man of God was angry with him, and sayd, Thou shouldest haue smitten five or sixe times, so thou shouldest haue smitten Aram, till thou hadst consumed it, where nowe thou shalt smite Aram but thyle.

20 ¶ So Elisha dyed, and they buried him. And certaine bandes of the Moabites came into the land that yeere.

21 And as they were burying a man, behold, they sawe the souldiers: therefore they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elisha. And when the man was come, and touched the bones of Elisha, hee remoued and stood vpon his feet.

22 ¶ But Hazael king of Aram vered Israel all the dayes of Jehoahaz.

23 Therefore the Lord had mercie on the, and pitied them, and had respect vnto them because of his couenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Iacob, & would not destroy them, neither cast he them from him as yet.

24 So Hazael the king of Aram had and Ben-hadad his sonne reigned in his stead.

25 Therefore Jehoash the sonne of Jehoahaz returned, andooke out of the hand of Ben-hadad the sonne of Hazael the cities which he had taken away by warre out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father: for three times did Joash beate him, and destroyed the cities vnto Israel.

3 And hee did righte in the sight of the Lord, yet not like Dauid his father, but did according to all that Joash his father had done.

4 Notwithstanding the hie places were not taken away: for as yet the people did sacrifice and burnt incense in the hie places.

5 ¶ And when the kingdom was confirmed in his hand, hee slew his seruants which had killed the king his father.

6 But the children of those that did slay him, he slew not, according vnto that that is written in the booke of the Lawe of Moses wherein the Lord commanded, saying, The fathers shall not bee put to death for the children, nor the children put to death for the fathers: but every man shall bee put to death for his owne linne.

7 Hee slew also of Edom in the halley of salt ten thousand, andooke the cite of Beela by warre, and called the name thereof Jothkeel vnto this day.

Rehobah a month in Samaria.

14 For Menahem the son of Gadi went by from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Rehobah the sonne of Iahash in Samaria, and slew him, & reigned in his stead.

15 Concerning the rest of the actes of Rehobah, and the treason which he wrought before, they are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

16 When Menahem destroyed Tiphath, and all that were therein, and the coasts thereof from Tirzah, because they opened not to him, and hee smote it; and ript by all their women with child.

17 The nine & thirtieth yeere of Azariah king of Iudah, began Menahem the sonne of Gadi to reigne over Israel, and reigned ten yeeres in Samaria.

18 And hee did euill in the sight of the Lord, and departed not all his dayes from the sin of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne.

19 When Pul the king of Asshur came against the land, and Menahem came Pul a thousand talents of silver, that his hand might bee with him, and establish the kingdom in his hand.

20 And Menahem erected the money in Israel, that all men of substance should giue the king of Asshur fiftie shekels of silver a peece: so the king of Asshur returned and taried not there in the land.

21 Concerning the rest of the actes of Menahem, and all that hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

22 And Menahem slept with his fathers, and Pekahiah his sonne did reigne in his stead.

23 In the fiftieth yeere of Azariah king of Iudah, began Pekahiah the sonne of Menahem to reigne over Israel in Samaria, and reigned two yeeres.

24 And hee did euill in the sight of the Lord: for hee departed not from the finnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne.

25 And Pekah the sonne of Remaliah, his captaine conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria in the place of the kings palace, with Argob and Arieah, and with him fiftie men of the Gileadites; so hee killed him, and reigned in his stead.

26 Concerning the rest of the actes of Pekahiah, and all that hee did, behold, they are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

27 In the two and fiftieth yeere of Azariah king of Iudah, began Pekah the sonne of Remaliah to reigne over Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty yeeres.

28 And hee did euill in the sight of the Lord: for hee departed not from the finnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, that made Israel to sinne.

29 In the dayes of Pekah king of Israel came Tiglath Pileser king of Asshur, and took Iion, and Abel, Berch-maachab, and Iamoth, and Kebeh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galiliah, and all the land of Naphtali, and caried them away to Asshur.

30 And Hoshea the son of Elah wrought treason against Pekah the sonne of Remaliah, and smote him, & slew him, and reigned in his stead in the twentieth yere of Iotham the sonne of Azziah.

31 Concerning the rest of the actes of Pekah, and all that hee did, behold, they are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

32 In the second yere of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel began Iotham sonne of Azziah king of Iudah to reigne.

33 Five and twentie yeere olde was hee, when he began to reigne, and he reigned fixeene yeeres in Ierusalem, and his mothers name was Jerubah the daughter of Zadoh.

34 And hee did uprightly in the sight of the Lord: hee did according to all that his father Azziah had done.

35 But the high places were not put away: for the people yet offered and burnt incense in the high places: hee built the highest gate of the house of the Lord.

36 Concerning the rest of the actes of Iotham, and all that hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah?

37 In those dayes the Lord beganne to send against Iudah Rezin the king of Aram, and Pekah the sonne of Remaliah.

38 And Iotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of David his father, and Abaz his sonne reigned in his stead.

The fourteenth yere of Pekah the sonne of Remaliah, Abaz the sonne of Iotham king of Iudah began to reigne.

2 Twenty yeere olde was Abaz, when he began to reigne, and hee reigned fixeene yeere in Ierusalem, and did not uprightly in the sight of the Lord his God, like David his father.

3 But walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea, and made his sonne to goe thorow the fire, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel.

4 Also hee offered and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and vnder every greene tree.

5 Then Rezin king of Aram, and Pekah sonne of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Ierusalem to fight: and they besieged Abaz, but could not overcome him.

6 At the same time Rezin king of Aram restored Elath to Aram, and dyone the Jewes from Elath, so the Aramites came to Elath, and dwelt there unto this day.

7 Then Abaz sent messengers to Tiglath Pileser King of Asshur, saying, I am thy seruauit and thy sonne: come up, and deliuer mee out of the hand of the king of Assur, went out of the hand of the king of Israel which rose up against me.

8 And Ahaz cooke the silver and the gold that was found in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the kings house, and sent a present unto the king of Assur.

9 And the king of Assur contented him: and the king of Assur went up against Damascus, and when hee had taken it, hee casted the people away to Kir, and slew Rezin.

10 And king Ahaz went unto Damascus to meet Tiglath Pileser king of Assur: and when king Ahaz saw the altar that was at Damascus, he sent to Uriah the Priest the pattern of the altar, and the fashion of it, and all the workmanship thereof.

11 And Uriah the Priest made an altar in all points like to that which king Ahaz had sent from Damascus: so did Uriah the Priest against King Ahaz came from Damascus.

12 So when the King was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the King drew nether to the altar, and offered thereon.

13 And hee burnt his burnt offering, and his meate offering, and pouzed his drinke offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offering besides the altar.

14 And so it is by the brasen altar which was before the Lord, and brought it in farther before the house betweene the altar and the house of the Lord, and set it on the North side of the altar.

15 And King Ahaz commanded Uriah the Priest, and said, Upon the great altar set on fire in the morning the burnt offering, and in the euen the meate offering, and the kings burnt offering and his meate offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meate offering, and their drinke offerings: and pouze thereby all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice, and the brasen altar shall be for me to inquire of God.

16 And Uriah the Priest did according to all that king Ahaz had commanded.

17 And king Ahaz brake the borders of the bases, and tooke the caldrons from off them, and tooke downe the sea from the brasen oven that were under it and put it upon a pavement of stones.

18 And the base for the Sabbath (that they had made in the house) and the kings entrie without turned hee to the house of the Lord, because of the king of Assur.

20 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the cite of Daula, and Hezekiah his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XVII.

3 Hoshea king of Israel is taken, 4 and he and all his realm brought to the Assyrians: 18 for their adolatrie. 25 Lions destroy the Assyrians that dwelt in Samaria. 29 Every one worshippeth the God of his nation, 33 contrary to the commandment of God.

1 In the twelfth yeere of Ahaz king of Iudah I began Hoshea the sonne of Elah to reigne in Samaria over Israel, and reigned nine yeeres.

2 And hee did evil in the sight of the Lord, but not as the kings of Israel, that were before him.

3 And Shamanezer king of Assur came up against him, and Hoshea became his servant, and gave him presents.

4 And the king of Assur found treachery in Hoshea: for hee had sent messengers to the king of Egypt, and brought no present unto the king of Assur, as hee had done formerly: therefore the king of Assur shut him up, and put him in prison.

5 Then the king of Assur came up throughout all the land, and went against Samaria, and besieged it three yeeres.

6 ¶ In the ninth yeere of Hoshea, the king of Assur tooke Samaria, and caried Israel away to Assur, and put them in Galah, and in Gaboz by the river of Habor, and in the cities of the Medes.

7 For when the children of Israel sinned against the Lord their God, which had brought them out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and feared other gods,

8 And walked according to the fashions of the heathen, whome the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel, and after the manners of the kings of Israel, which they used,

9 And the children of Israel had done secretly things that were not upright before the Lord their God, and therefore all their cities had built high places, both from the tower of the watch, to the defended cite,

10 And had made them images and groves upon every hill, and under every greene tree,

11 And there burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen, whome the Lord had taken away before them, and wrought wicked things to anger the Lord.

12 And serned idoles: whereof the Lord had said unto them, * Pee shall doe no such thing.

13 Notwithstanding the Lord testified to Israel, and to Iudah by all the Prophets, and by all the Seers, saying, * Come from your euill wayes, and keepe my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law, which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my seruants the Prophets.

14 Nevertheless, they would not obey, but hardened their neckes, like to the necks of their fathers, that did not beleeue in the Lord their God.

15 And they refused his statutes and his covenant, that hee made with their fathers, and his testimonies (wherewith hee witnessed unto them) and they followed vanity, and became vaine, and followed the heathen that were round about them concerning whome, the Lord had charged them, mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall be robbed and spoiled of all their adventures.

15 Because they have done euill in my sight, and haue prouoked me to anger, since the time their fathers came out of Egypt until this day.

16 Whereouer Banasseth shed innocent blood exceeding much, till he replenished Ierusalem from corner to corner, beside his sinne wherewith hee made Iudah to sinne, and to doe euill in the sight of the Lord.

17 Concerning the rest of the actes of Banasseth, and all that hee did, and his sinne that hee sinned, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah?

18 And Banasseth slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his owne house, euen in the garden of Azra: and Amon his sonne reigned in his stead.

19 ¶ Amon was two and twentie yeere olde, when he began to reigne, and hee reigned two yeere in Ierusalem: his mothers name also was Jezibab the daughter of Iacariz of Iosiah.

20 And hee did euill in the sight of the Lord, as his father Banasseth did.

21 For he walked in all the way, that his father walked in, and serued the idoles that his father serued, and worshipped them.

22 And hee soughte the Lord God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the Lord.

23 And the seruants of Amon conspired against him, and slew the King in his owne house.

24 And the people of the lande slew all them that had conspired against King Amon, and the people made Iosiah his sonne King in his stead.

25 Concerning the rest of the actes of Amon, which hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah?

26 And they buried him in his sepulchre in the garden of Azra: and Iosiah his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXI.

King Manasseh reparaeth Ierusalem, 18 And Iosiah reparaeth the Temple, 28 Iosiah is killed of his ownie seruants, 29 Iosiah reparaeth Iosiah.

Manasseh was twelue yeere old when hee began to reigne, and reigned fiftie and six yeere in Ierusalem: his mothers name also was Sephoth daughter.

2 And hee did euill in the sight of the Lord, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel.

3 For he went backe and built the high places, which Ieremias his father had destroyed: and hee erected up altars for Baal, and made a groue, as did Ahab King of Israel, and worshipped all the hoste of heauen and serued them.

4 And hee built altars in the house of the Lord, of the which the Lord saide, * In Ierusalem will I put my Name.

5 And hee built altars for all the hoste of the heauen in the two courtes of the house of the Lord.

6 And hee caused his sonnes to passe through the fire: and gaue himselfe to witchcraft and sorcerie, and hee bled them that had familiar spirits, and were soothsayers, and did much euill in the sight of the Lord to anger him.

7 And hee set the image of the groue, that hee had made in the house, whereof the Lord had said to Dauid & to Solomon his sonne, * In this house, and in Ierusalem, which I haue chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my Name for ever.

8 Therefore will I make the feete of Israel moue any more out of the lande, which I gaue their fathers: so that they will obstrue and do all that I haue commanded them, and according to all the Law that my seruant Moyses commanded them.

9 For they obeyed not, but Banasseth led them out of the way, to doe more wickedly then did the heathen people, whom the Lord destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 Therefore the Lord spake by his seruants the Prophets, saying,

11 * Because that Banasseth king of Iudah hath done such abominations, and hath wrought more wickedly then all that the Amorites (which were before him) did, and hath made Iudah sinne also with his doles.

12 Therefore thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Behold, I will bring an euil vpon Ierusalem and Iudah, that who so heareth of it, both his eares shall tingle.

13 And I will stretch out Ierusalem the King of Amaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Ierusalem, as a man wipe a dish, which hee wipe, and turneth it upside downe.

14 And I will forsake the remnant of c From the time of Iosiah for the space of 124 years the Temple remained without reparation through the negligence of the priests. This declares that they that true a charge and execute it not, ought to have it taken from them.

d So God provided him of faithful servants, seeing he went about so zealously to set forth the works of God: e This was the copie that Moses left them, as appeareth, 2 Chron. 34. 14 which either by the negligence of the priests had bene lost, or ch by the wickedness of idolatrous kings had bene abolished. f Ebr. medid. Psal. 95. 8.

And let them deliver it into the hands of them that doe the worke, and haue the oversight of the house of the Lord: let them give it to them that worke in the house of the Lord, to reparaire the decayed places of the house:

6 To wit, vnto the artificers and carpenters and masons, and to buy timber, and hewed stone to reparaire the house.

7 Howbeit let no reckoning bee made with them for the money, that is delivered into their hand: for they deale faithfully.

8 And Hilkiah the high Priest said vnto Shaphan the chancellor, I haue found the booke of the Law in the house of the Lord: and Hilkiah gaue the booke to Shaphan, and he read it.

9 So Shaphan the chancellor came to the king, and brought him word againe, and said, Thy seruants haue gathered the money, that was found in the house, and haue deliuered it vnto the hands of them that doe the worke, & haue the oversight of the house of the Lord.

10 Also Shaphan the chancellor shewed the king, saying, Hilkiah the Priest hath deliuered mee a booke. And Shaphan read it before the king.

11 And when y king had heard the words of the booke of the Law, he rent his clothes.

12 Therefore the king commanded Hilkiah the Priest, and Ahikam the sonne of Shaphan, and Achboz the sonne of Bechaiah, and Shaphan the chancellor, and Asahiah the kings seruants, saying,

13 Go ye and enquire of the Lord for me, and for the people, and for all Iudah, concerning the wordes of this booke that is found: for great is the wrath of the Lord, that is kindled against vs, because our fathers haue not obeyed the wordes of this booke, to doe according vnto all that which is written therein for vs.

14 So Hilkiah the Priest, & Ahikam, and Achboz, and Shaphan, and Asahiah went vnto Iudah the Prophetesse the wife of Shaphan, the sonne of Achaz, the sonne of Harhas keeper of the wardrobe: (and she dwelt in Ierusalem in the Colledge) and they communed with her.

15 And she answered them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel. Tell the man that sent you to me, 16 Thus saith the Lord, Beholde, I will bring euill vpon this place, and on the inhabitants thereof, euen all the wordes of the booke which the King of Iudah hath read.

17 Because they haue forsaken mee, and haue burnt incense vnto other gods, so anger me with all the wordes of their hands: my wrath also shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.

18 But to the King of Iudah, who sent you to enquire of the Lord, so shall ye say vnto him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, The wordes which thou hast heard shall come to passe.

19 But because thou hast heard the word, and thou hast humbled thy selfe before the Lord, when thou hast heard what I spoke against this place, and against the inhabitants of the land, to wit, that it should bee destroyed, and accurst, and halt rent thy clothes, and wept before mee, I haue also heard it, sayeth the Lord.

20 Behold therefore, I will gather thee to thy fathers, & thou shalt be put in the grave in peace: and thine eyes shall not see all the euill, which I will bring vpon this place. Thus they brought the king word againe.

21 And the king read the Law before the people.

22 He maketh a couenant with the Lord. He putteth downe the idoles after hee had killed the Priests. He keepeth the Law. He destroyeth the conuener. He putteth downe the idols. He putteth downe the idols. He putteth downe the idols.

23 Then the king sent, and there gathered vnto him all the Elders of Iudah and of Ierusalem.

24 And the king went vp into the house of the Lord, with all the men of Iudah and all the inhabitants of Ierusalem with him, and the Priests and Prophets, and all the people both small and great: and he read in their eares all the wordes of the booke of the Couenant, which was found in the house of the Lord.

25 And the king stood by the pillar, and made a couenant before the Lord, that they should walke after the Lord, and keep his Commandements, and his testimonies, and his statutes with all their heart, & with all their soule, that they might accomplish the wordes of this Couenant written in this booke. And all the people stood to the Couenant.

26 Then the king commanded Hilkiah the high Priest and the Priests of the second order, and the keepers of the house to bring out of the Temple of the Lord all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the groue, and for althe harte of beemen, and he burnt them without Ierusalem in the fields of Kedron, and caried the powder of them into Beth-el.

27 And he came downe the Chemarims, whom the King of Iudah had soulders to burne incense in the high places, and in the cities of Iudah, and about Ierusalem, and al-together that burnt incense vnto Baal, to the Sunne and to the Moone, and to the planets, and to all the hoste of heauen.

28 And hee brought out of the groue from the Temple of the Lord without Ierusalem into the valley of Beniamin, and burnt it in the valley of Beniamin, and stamped to powder, and cast the dust thereof vpon the graues of the children of the people.

29 And he brake downe the houses of the Soothsayers, that were in the house of the Lord, where the women wore hangings for the groue.

30 Also hee brought out all the Priests out of the house of the Lord, and made them to stand before the Lord, and hee said, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, In both in contrary of the idoles, that ye had worshipped, them in their liues.

And as for the plates of the altars, he defiled the plates where the priests had burnt incense, even as he had done to the gates, and defiled the plates of the gates that were in the entrance of the gate of Jehoiach the governor of the city, which was at the left hand of the gate of the city.

9. And he defiled the plates of the plates of the altars, that were in the house of the Lord, and he defiled the plates of the altars, that were in the house of the Lord, and he defiled the plates of the altars, that were in the house of the Lord.

10. And he defiled also the plates of the altars, which were in the house of the Lord, and he defiled the plates of the altars, which were in the house of the Lord, and he defiled the plates of the altars, which were in the house of the Lord.

11. And he put down also the plates of the altars, which were in the house of the Lord, and he put down the plates of the altars, which were in the house of the Lord, and he put down the plates of the altars, which were in the house of the Lord.

12. And he also that were on the top of the chamber of the altars, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Pharaoh had made in the time of the house of the Lord, and the king brake down, and haled thence, and cast the dust of them in the house of the Lord.

13. And he also the king defiled the plates of the altars, which were in the house of the Lord, and he defiled the plates of the altars, which were in the house of the Lord, and he defiled the plates of the altars, which were in the house of the Lord.

14. And he brake the images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men.

15. Furthermore, the altar that was at Beth-el, and the high place made by Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne, both this altar, and also the high place brake he downe, and burnt the high place, and stamp it to powder and burnt the grove.

16. And as Josiah turned himselfe, hee spied the graves, that were in the mount, and sent &ooke the bones out of the graves, and burnt them vpon the altar, and polluted it, according to the worde of the Lord, that the man of God proclaimed, which cried the same words.

17. Then he said, What title is that which I see? And the men of the citie sayde vnto him, It is the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Judah, and tolde thee things that thou hast done to the altar of Beth-el.

18. Then sayd he, Let him alone: let none remoue his bones. So his bones were sawed with the bones of the Prophet that came from Samaria.

19. Josiah also tooke away all the houses of the high places, which were in the citie of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to anger the Lord, and did to them according to all the fables that he had done in Beth-el.

20. And he sacrificed all the priests of the high places, that were there, vpon the altar, and burnt mens bones vpon them, and returned to Jerusalem.

21. ¶ Then the king commanded all the people saying, Keepe the Passouer vnto the Lord your God, as it is written in the booke of this covenant.

22. And there was no Passouer holden like that from the dayes of the Judges that iudged Israel, nor in all the dayes of the kings of Israel, and of the kings of Judah.

23. And in the eighteenth yere of King Josiah was this Passouer celebrated to the Lord in Jerusalem.

24. Josiah also tooke away them that had familiar spirits, and the soothsayers, and the images, and the idoles, and all the abominations that were espied in the lande of Judah and in Jerusalem, to performe the wordes of the Lawe, which were written in the booke that Iehiakim the Priest found in the house of the Lord.

25. Likewise vnto him was there no king before him, that turned to the Lord with all his heart, and with all his soule, and with all his might, according to all the Law of Moses, neither after him arose there any like him.

26. Notwithstanding the Lord turned not from the fiercenes of his great wrath wherewith he was angry against Judah, because of all the provocations wherewith Pharaoh had provoked him.

27. Therefore the Lord sayd, I will put Judah also out of my sight, as I haue put away Israel, and will call off this citie Jerusalem, which I haue chosen, and the house wherof I sayd, My Name shall bee there.

28. Concerning the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

29. ¶ In his dayes Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt went by against the king of Assur to the river Berach, And king Josiah went against him, whom when Pharaoh saw, he slew him at Megiddo.

30. Then his seruants caried him dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his owne sepulchre. And the people of the lande tooke Jehoahaz the sonne of Josiah, and anoynted him, and made him king in his fathers stead.

31. ¶ Jehoahaz was thre and twenty yere olde when hee began to reigne, and reigned thre moneths in Jerusalem. His mothers name also was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

32. And hee did euill in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his fathers had done.

33. And Pharaoh Necho put him in bonds at Riblah in the lande of Hamath, while hee reigned in Jerusalem; and put the lande to a tribute of an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of golde.

34. ¶ And Pharaoh Necho made Sedechiah the sonne of Josiah king in stead of Josiah his father, and turned his name to Jehoahaz, & tooke Jehoahaz away, which was then

In his 3. dayes came Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babel vp, and Iehoiakim became his seruant three yeere: afterward he returned, and rebelled against him.

2 And the Lord sent against him bands of the Caldees, and bands of the Aramites, and bands of the Moabites, and bandes of the Ammonites, and hee sent them against Iudah, to destroy it, according to the word of the Lord, which hee spake by his seruants the Prophets.

3 Surely by the b commandement of the Lord came this vpon Iudah, that hee might put them out of his sight for the sinnes of Shabaoth, according to all that hee did,

4 And for the innocent blood that hee shed, (for hee filled Ierusalem with innocent blood) therefore the Lord would not pardon it.

5 Concerning the rest of the acts of Iehoiakim, and all that hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iudah?

6 So Iehoiakim slept with his fathers, and Iehoiachin his sonne reigned in his stead.

7 And the king of Egypt came no more out of his land: for the king of Babel had taken from the riuer of Egypt, vnto the riuer of Berath, all that pertained to the king of Egypt.

8 And Iehoiachin was eightene yeere olde when he began to reigne, and reigned in Ierusalem three moneths. His mothers name also was Nechusta, the daughter of Elnathan of Ierusalem.

9 And hee did euill in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his fathers had done.

10 In that time came the seruants of Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babel vp against Ierusalem: so the cite was besieged.

11 And Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babel came against the cite, and his seruants did besiege it.

12 Then Iehoiachin the king of Iudah came out against the king of Babel, he, and his mother, and his seruants, and his princes, and his eunuches: and the king of Babel tooke him in the eight yeere of his reigne.

13 And hee carried out thence all the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the kings house, and hee took all the vessels of golde, which Salomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the Lord, as the Lord had sayd.

14 And hee caried away all Ierusalem, and all the princes, and all the strong men of warre, euen ten thousand into captiuitie, and all the workemen, and cunning men: so none remained saving the poore people of the land.

15 And hee caried away Iehoiachin into Babel, and the kings mother, and the kings wiues, and his eunuches, and the mighty of the land caried hee away into captiuitie from Ierusalem to Babel.

16 And all the men of warre, euen ten thousand, and carpenters, and locksmiths a thousand: all that were strong, and apt to warre, did the king of Babel bring to Babel captiues.

17 And the king of Babel made Shabaoth his uncle king in his stead, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

18 Zedekiah was one and twentie yeere olde when hee began to reigne, and he reigned eleuen yeeres in Ierusalem. His mothers name also was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Lisan.

19 And hee did euill in the sight of the Lord, according to all that Iehoiakim had done.

20 Therefore certainly the wrath of the Lord was against Ierusalem and Iudah, until hee cast them out of his sight. And Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babel.

CHAP. XXV.

1. Ierusalem is besieged of Nebuchad-nezzar, & taken. 7. The sinnes of Zedekiah are layde before his eyes, & after are his owne eyes put out. 21. Ierusalem is brought to Babylon. 25. Gedaliah is slaine. 27. Iehoiachin is exiled.

And in the 9. ninth yeere of his reigne, A the 10. tenth moneth, and tenth day of the moneth, Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babel came, he, and all his hoste against Ierusalem, and pitched against it, and they builded forts against it round about it.

2 So the cite was besieged vnto the eleuenth yeere of king Zedekiah.

3 And the ninth day of the moneth the famine was sore in the cite, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

4 Then the cite was broken vp, and all the men of warre fled by night, by the way of the gate, which is betwene two walles that was by the kings garden: now the Caldees were by the city round about: and the king went by the way of the wilderness.

5 But the army of the Caldees pursued after the king, and tooke him in the deserts of Iericho, and all his hoste was scattered from him.

6 Then they tooke the king, and caried him vp to the king of Babel to Riblah, where they gaue iudgement vpon him.

7 And they slaine the souldiers of Zedekiah before

And he cut out the eyes of Sebuchad-negar king of Babel, and bound him in chains, and carried him to Babel.

And in the first moneth, and thirtieth day of the moneth, which was the nineteenth day of the moneth, Nebuchad-negar king of Babel, came Nabuzaradan a chiefe steward, and servant of the king of Babel, to Jerusalem.

And burnt the house of the Lord, and the kings house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the great houses burnt he with fire.

And all the armie of the Caldees that were with the chiefe steward, brake downe the walles of Jerusalem round about.

And the rest of the people that were left in the cite, and those that were fled and fallen to the king of Babel, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nabuzaradan chiefe steward carie away captiue.

But the chiefe steward left of the poore of the land to digge the vines, and to till the land.

Also the pillars of brasie that were in the house of the Lord, and the bases, and the basen Sea that was in the house of the Lord, did the Caldees brake, and caried the brasie of them to Babel.

The pots also, and the basennes, and the instruments of musique, and the incense dishes, and all the vessels of brasie that they ministred in, tooke they away.

And the silue pannes, and the basens, and all that was of gold, and that was of siluer, tooke the chiefe steward away.

Also the two pillars, one wee, and the bases, which Solomon had made for the house of the Lord: the brasie of all these vessels was without weight.

The height of the one pillar was eigheten cubites, and the chapter thereon was brasie, and the height of the chapter was with netwooke three cubites, and pomegranates upon the chapter round about, all of brasie: and likewise was the second pillar with the netwooke.

And the chiefe steward tooke Seraiah the chiefe Priest, and Zephaniah the second Priest, and the three keepers of the house.

And out of the cite hee tooke an Eunuich that had the oversight of the men of warre, and foure men of them that were in the kings presence, which were found in the cite, and Sapher captiue of the house, who mustered the people of the land a threescore men of the people of the land, that were found in the cite.

And Nabuzaradan the chiefe steward tooke them, and brought them to the king of Babel to Riblah.

And the king of Babel smote them, and slew them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. And Judah was caried away captiue out of his owne land.

Now these were the remanent people in the land of Judah, whom Nabuchad-negar king of Babel left, and made Gedaliah the sonne of Abiham the sonne of Geyaphan ruler ouer them.

Then when all the captiues of the house, and their men heard, that the king of Babel had made Gedaliah gouernour, they came to Gedaliah to Bethan, to wit, Johanan the sonne of Kareah, and Seraiah the sonne of Tanhumeth the seerophathie, and Jaazaniah the sonne of Baazbachi, they and their men.

And Gedaliah sware to them, and to their men, and said vnto them, Feare not to bee the seruants of the Caldees: dwell in the land, and serue the king of Babel, and ye shall be well.

But in the fourth moneth, when the sonne of Zedekiah the sonne of Eliashin of the Kings seide came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah, and he died, and so did hee the Iewes and the Caldees that were with him at Bethan.

Then all the people both small and great, and the captiues of the armie arose, and came to Egypt: for they were afraid of the Caldees.

Nowwithstanding in the seuen and thirtieth yeere after, Jehoiachin King of Iudah was caried away, in the twelfth moneth, and the seuen and twentieth day of the moneth, Cusi merodach king of Babel in the yeere that he began to reigne, did lift vp the head of Jehoiachin King of Iudah out of the prison.

And spake kindly to him, and set his throne about the throne of the Kings that were with him in Babel,

And changed his prison garments: and hee did continually eate bread before him, all the dayes of his life.

And his portion was a continuall portion giuen him by the King, euerie day a certaine, all the dayes of his life.

THE ARGUMENT.

The Iewes comprehended both these bookes in one, which the Grecians, because of the length, divide into two: and they are called Chronicles, because they note briefly the histories from Adam to their returne from their captiuitie in Babylon. But these are not those bookes of Chronicles, which are so often mentioned in the bookes of the Kings of Iudah and Israel, which did at large set forth the state of both the Kingdoms, and afterward perished in the captiuitie: but an abridgement of the same, and were gathered by Ezra, as the Iewes write, after their returne from Babylon. 9 All the Eastward bee inhabited unto the entering in of the wilderness from the river Euphrat: for they had much cattell in the land of Gilead.

10 And in the dayes of Sami they warred with the Hagarenes, which fell by their hands: and they dwelt in their tents in all the East parts of Gilead.

11 And the children of Gad fought over against them in the land of Bashan, unto Balcham.

12 Joel was the chiefeft, and Shapham the second, but Jaani and Shaphat were in Bashan.

13 And their brethren of the house of their fathers were Michal, and Weisumam, and Shiba, and Shual, and Isan, and Zia, and Uet, seven.

14 These bee the children of Abihah, the sonne of Isuri, the sonne of Jacob, the sonne of Gilead, the sonne of Michal, the sonne of Jeishaph, the sonne of Isahou, the sonne of Bui.

15 And the sonne of Abihah, the sonne of Gunt was cheefe of the household of their fathers.

16 And they dwelt in Gilead in Bashan, and in the townes thereof, and in all the labours of Sharon, by their borders.

17 All these were reckoned by genealogies, in the dayes of Joatham king of Iudah, and in the dayes of Jeroboam king of Israel.

18 These the sonnes of Reuben and of Gad, and of halfe the tribe of Manassch of those that were valiant men, able to beare shield and sword, and to draw a bow, exercised in warre, were foure and fiftie thousand, seven hundred, and threescore, that went out to the warre.

19 And they made warre with the Hagarenes, with Isetur, and Shaphin, and Shobab.

20 And they were holpen against them, and the Hagarenes were destroyed into their hand, and all that were with them: for they cryed to God in the battell, and hee heard them because they trusted in him.

21 And they led away their cattell, two thousand asse thowand, and two hundred and fiftie thousand sheepe, and two thousand asses, and of persons a hundred thowand.

22 For many fell downe wounded, because the warre was of God. And they dwelt in their strays untill the captivitie.

23 And the children of the halfe tribe of Manassch dwelt in the land, from Bashan unto Baal Beracan, and Gunt, and unto mount Sennar: for they inherited.

24 And these were the heads of the households of their fathers, even Gunt and Isai, and Etel and Azriel, and Jeremah, and Weisumam, and Shiba, strong men, valiant, and famous, heads of the households of their fathers.

25 But they transgressed against the God of their fathers, and went a whoring after the gods of the people of the land, whom God had destroyed before them.

b, the sonne of Bernat, the sonne of Ahi.

48 And their brethren the Levites were appointed unto all the service of the Tabernacle of the house of God.

49 But Aaron and his sonnes burnt incense upon the altar of burnt offering, and on the altar of incense, by all that was to doe in the most holy place, and to make an attonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commaundsonne.

54 And these are the dwelling places of them that were their suburbs and coasts, even of the sonnes of Aaron, for the families of the Kohathites, for the lot was theirs.

55 So they gave them a portion in the land of Judah, and the suburbs thereof round about it:

56 But the field of the city, and the villages thereof they gave to Gath the sonne of Nephthuneh.

57 And to the sonnes of Aaron they gave the cities of Judah for a refuge, even Hebron and Libna with their suburbs, and Jactis, and Eschemoa with their suburbs.

58 And a Hillen with her suburbs, and Debir with her suburbs.

Beth-hemeth with her suburbs.

60 And of the tribe of Benjamin, Ge-ba and her suburbs, and Almereth with her suburbs, and Anathoth with her suburbs: all their cities were thirteene cities by their families.

61 And unto the sonnes of Kohath the remnant of the familie of the tribe, even of the halfe tribe of the halfe of Manasseh, by lot, ten cities.

62 And to the sonnes of Gerson according to their families out of the tribe of Manasseh, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteene ci-to their families out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zabulun, by lot twelue cities.

64 Thus the children of Israel gave to the Levites cities with their suburbs.

65 And they gave by lot out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, and out of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, their cities, which they called by their names.

66 And they of the families of the sonnes of Kohath had cities, and their coasts out of the tribe of Ephraim.

67 And they gave unto them cities of refuge, Shechem in mount Ephraim, and her suburbs, and Geyer and her suburbs,

68 Tokmeam also and her suburbs, and Beth-hason with her suburbs,

69 And Aiaon and her suburbs, & Beth-

CHAP. VII.

1 The genealogie of Issachar, 6 Beniamin, 13 Naphtali, 14 Manasseh, 20 Ephraim,
30 and Asher.

And the sonsnes of Issachar were Tola and Ushai, Jaishub, and Shimon, four.

2 And the sonsnes of Tola, Uzzi, and Rephaiah, and Jeriel, and Rahmai, and Istham, and Shemuel, heads in the households of their fathers. Of Tola were valiant men of warre in their generations, whose number was in the dayes of David two & twentie thousand, and five hundred.

3 And the sonne of Uzzi was Izrahiah, and the sonsnes of Izrahiah, Michael, and Obadiah, and Joel, and Ashub, four men all princes.

4 And with them in their generations after the households of their fathers were bands of men of warre for battell, five and thirtie thousand: for they had many wives and children.

5 And their brethren among all the families of Issachar were valiant men of war, reckoned in all by their genealogies fourscore and seven thousand.

6 The sonsnes of Beniamin were Bela, and Becher, and Jediahel, three.

7 And the sonsnes of Bela, Ezbon, Uzi, and Uziel, and Jeremoth, and Iri, five heads of the households of their fathers, valiant men of war, and were reckoned by their genealogies two and twentie thousand and thirtie and four.

8 And the sonsnes of Becher, Samirah, and Joash, and Elerzer, and Eloenai, and Omri, and Jeremoth, and Abiah, and A-nahab, and Alameth: all these were the sonsnes of Becher.

9 And they were numbered by their genealogies according to their generations, and the chiefs of the houses of their fathers, valiant men of war, twentie thousand and two hundred.

10 And the sonsnes of Jeremoth were Eliah and the sonsnes of Eliah, Jeush, Jetham, and Chad, and Benasiah, and Jetham, and Jeush, and Chad, and Benasiah.

11 All these were the sonsnes of Jeremoth, chiefs of the houses, valiant men of war, leventene thousand and threescore and ching in battell array to the warre.

12 And Shuppim, and Huppim were the sonsnes of Iri, but Huppim was the sonne of another.

13 The sonsnes of Samirah, Jahiel, and Omri, and Jezer, and Shallum of the sonsnes of Bela.

14 The sonne of Uziel was Abiah, born like bare unto him, but his countenance of Asan bare Abiah the father of Elleah.

15 And Abiah tooke to wife the sister of Huppim and Shuppim, and the name of their sister was Paachah. And the names of the second sonsnes were Zeaphreah, and Jephreah had daughters.

16 And Paachah the wife of Abiah bare a sonne, and called his name Peresh, and the name of his brother was Shechem, and his sonsnes were Ulam and Rakem.

17 And the sonne of Ulam was Bedan.
These were the sonsnes of Gilead the sonne of Abiah, the sonne of Manasseh.

18 And his sister Shotech bare Isai, and Abier, and Abalah.

19 And the sonsnes of Shimon were Is-biah, and Shechem, and Lisai, and Isaem.

20 The sonsnes also of Shimon were Shuriah, and Bezer his sonne, and Je-bath his sonne, and his sonne Elabah, and Elabah his sonne.

21 And Jabab his sonne, and Shuriah his sonne, and Ezer, and Eled: and the men of Ezer that were borne in the land, some then, because they came downe to take away their cattell.

22 Therefore Ephraim their father mo-ned many dayes, and his brethren came to comfort him.

23 And when he went in to his wife, she conceaved, and bare him a sonne, and he called his name Peresh, because affliction was in his house.

24 And his daughter was Sheerah, which built Beeth-horon the nether, and the upper, and Uzzen-Sheerah.

25 And Rephah was his sonne, and Je-sheph, and Elah his sonne, and Isai his sonne.

26 Leadan his sonne, Amudon his sonne, Eltham his sonne.

27 Don his sonne, Jeboia his sonne.
28 And their possessions and their habitations were Beith-el, and the villages thereof, and Castward Asan, and Castward
Ezer with the villages thereof, Shechem also and the villages thereof, Uza and Uza, and the villages thereof.

29 And by the places of the children
Manasseh, Beeth-shan and her villages, Caanan and her villages, Shechem and her villages, Dos and her villages, in the dwelt the children of Joseph the sonne of Israel.

i Hitherto he hath described their genealogies before they went into captivity, and now he describes their history after their return.
b Meaning the Gibeonites, which served in the Temple, read Josh. 9. 23.

10 And at Danahel some fell to Dauid, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle, but they helped them against the princes of the Philistines by anointment sent them away, saying, We will fall to his master Saul: I for our heads.

20 As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Danahel, a Danah, and Jozabab, and Jephiah, and Michael, and Jozabab, and Eliah, and Ithai, heads of the thousands that were of Danahel.

21 And they helped Dauid against: that he might be: they were all valiant men, & were captains in the hoste.

22 For at that time day by day there came to Dauid to help him, untill it was a great hoste, like the hoste of God.

23 And there are the numbers of the captains that were armed to battell, and came to Dauid to Hebron to rurne the kingdome of Saul to him, according to the word of the Lord.

24 The children of Judah that bare shield and spear, were fixe thousand & eight hundred armed to the warre.

25 Of the children of Simeon valiant men of warre, fixe thousand an hundred.

26 Of the children of Levi foure thousand and fixe hundred.

27 And Jehoiada was the chiefe of them of Aaron: and with him three thousand and fixe hundred.

28 And Jotham a yong man very valiant, and of his fathers house: he came two and twentie captaines.

29 And of the children of Benjamin the children of Saul three thousand: for a great part of them unto that time kept the ward of the house of Saul.

30 And of the children of Ephraim twentie thousand, and eight hundred valiant men and famous men in the house of their fathers.

31 And of the halfe tribe of Danahel eightene thousand, which were appointed by name to come and make Dauid King.

32 And of the children of Issachar, which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to doe: the heads of them were two hundred, and all their brethren were at their commandement.

33 Of Iebulun that went out to battell, expert in warre, and in all instruments of warre, fiftie thousand: which could see the battell in aray: they were not of a double heart.

34 And of Naphtali a thousand captaines, and with them with shields, and speare seven hundred.

35 And of Dan expert in battell, eight hundred thousand and fixe hundred.

36 And of Acher that went out to the battell and were trained in the warres, fourtie thousand.

37 And of the other side of Jordan of the Reubenites, and of the Gadites, and of the halfe tribe of Danahel with all instruments of warre to fight with, an hundred and twentie thousand.

38 All these men of warre that could leade an armie, came with ioyfull heart to Hebron to make Dauid King over all Israel: and all the rest of Israel was of one accord to make Dauid King.

39 And there they were with Dauid three dayes, eating and drinking: for there Hebron had prepared for them.

40 Moreover, they that were nere them brought bread upon asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, even meat, flour, figges, and raisins, and wine and oyle, and beemes and cheepe abundantly: for there was ioy in Israel.

CHAP. XIII.

7 The Arke is brought againe from Kiriaeth-learim to Ierusalem: 8 Uzza dieth because hee touched it.

AND Dauid counselled with the captaines of thousands and of hundreds, and with all the gouernours.

2 And Dauid said to all the Congregation of Israel, If it seeme good to you, and that it please the Lord our God, wee will send to and fro vnto our brethren, that are left in all the land of Israel (for with them are the Priests, and on oxen, even meat, flour, figges, and raisins, and wine and oyle, and beemes and cheepe abundantly: for there was ioy in Israel.) that they may assemble themselves vnto vs.

3 And we will bring againe the Arke of our God to vs: for wee thought not vnto it in the dayes of Saul.

4 And all the Congregation answered, Let vs doe it: for the thing seemed good in the eyes of all the people.

5 So Dauid gathered all Israel together from Shihor in Egypt, even vnto the entering of Hamath, to bring the Arke of God from Kiriaeth-learim.

6 And Dauid went vp and all Israel to Baalath, in Kiriaeth-learim, that was in Judah, to bring vp from thence the Arke of God: the Lord that dwelleth betwene the Cherubims, where his Name is called on.

7 And they caried the Arke of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Aio guided the cart.

8 And Dauid and all Israel played before God with all their might, both with songs and with batens, and with bioles, and with timbrels and with cymbales and with trumpets.

9 And when they came vnto the thre-thing stone of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to holde the Arke, for the oxen did shake it.

10 But the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Uzza, and hee smote him, because hee laide his hand vpon the Arke: so hee died there before God.

11 And Dauid was angrie, because the Lord had made a breach in Uzza, and hee called the name of that place Perez Uzza vnto this day.

12 And Dauid feared God that day, saying, How shall I bring in to mee the Arke of God?

13 Therefore Dauid brought not the Arke to him into the citie of Dauid, but caused 14 So the Arke of God remained in the house of Obed Edom, even in his house three moneths: and the Lord blessed the house of Obed Edom, and all that he had.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Hiram sendeth wood and workmen to Dauid. 2 The names of his children. 3 By the counsell of God he goeth against the Philistims, & overcometh them. 4 God fighteth for him.

Then sent Hiram the king of Tyrus messengers to Dauid, and cedar trees, with masons and carpenters to build him an house.

3 Therefore Dauid knew that the Lord had confirmed him king over Israel, and that his kingdom was set up on him, because of his people Israel.

3 Also Dauid took more wives at Jerusalem, and Dauid begate more sonnes and daughters.

4 And these are the names of the children which hee had at Jerusalem. Shammua, and Obedab, Israhim, and Salomon.

5 And Yadab, Elisua, and Elpalet.

6 And Fogah, Stepheg, and Japhia.

7 And Elisama, and Seetia, and Eliphalet.

8 But when the Philistims heard that Dauid was anointed king over Israel, all the Philistims came up to seeke Dauid. And when Dauid heard, hee went out against them.

9 And the Philistims came and spread themselves in the valley of Kezaim.

10 Then Dauid asked counsell at God, saying, Shall I goe up against the Philistims, and will thou deliver them into mine hand? And the Lord said unto him, Goe up: for I will deliver them into thine hand.

11 So they came up to Baal perazim, and Dauid smote them there: and Dauid said, God hath divided mine enemies with mine hands, as waters are divided: therefore they called the name of that place, Baal perazim.

12 And there they had left their gods: and Dauid said, Let them even bee burnt with fire.

13 Again the Philistims came and spied themselves in the valley.

14 And when Dauid asked againe counsell at God, God said to him, Thou shalt not go up after them, but turne away from them, that thou mayest come upon them once against the mulberie trees.

15 And when thou hearest the noise of one going in the tops of the mulberie trees, then goe out to battell: for God is gone forth before thee, to smite the hoste of the Philistims.

16 So Dauid did as God had commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistims from Gibcon even to Gazer.

17 And the fame of Dauid went out into all lands, and the Lord brought the feare of him upon all nations.

And Dauid made him houses in the city of Dauid, and prepared a place for the Arke of God, and pitched for it a tent.

2 Then Dauid said, None ought to carie the Arke of God but the Leuites: for the Lord hath chosen them to beare the Arke of the Lord, and to minister unto him for ever.

3 And Dauid gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem to bring up the Arke of the Lord unto his place, which hee had appointed for it.

4 And Dauid assembled the sonnes of Aaron, and the Leuites.

5 Of the sonnes of Kobath, Aziel the chiefe, and his brethren five score.

6 Of the sonnes of Merari, Alatah the chiefe, and his brethren two hundred and twenty.

7 Of the sonnes of Gershom, Joel the chiefe, and his brethren an hundred and thirtie.

8 Of the sonnes of Elizaphan, Shemias the chiefe, and his brethren two hundred.

9 Of the sonnes of Debion, Elie the chiefe, and his brethren fourscore.

10 Of the sonnes of Aziel, Amminadab the chiefe, and his brethren an hundred and twelue.

11 And Dauid called Jadok and Abiathar the Priests, and of the Leuites, Aziel, Alatah, and Joel, Shemias, and Elie, and Amminadab:

12 And he sayd unto them, See are the chiefe fathers of the Leuites: I sanctifie your selves, and your brethren, and bring up the Arke of the Lord God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it.

13 For because ye were not there at the first, the Lord our God made a breach among vs: for we fought him not after due order.

14 So the Priests and the Leuites sanctified themselves to bring up the Arke of the Lord God of Israel.

15 And the sonnes of the Leuites bare the Arke of God upon their shoulders with the barres, as Moses had commanded, according to the word of the Lord.

16 And Dauid spake to the chiefe of the Leuites, that they should appoynt certaine of their brethren to sing with instruments of musicks, with viols and harpes, andymballes, that they might make a sound, and lift up their voyce with joy.

17 So the Leuites appointed Heman the sonne of Joel, and of his brethren Asaph the sonne of Berechiah, and of the sonnes of Merari their brethren, Ethan the sonne of Kubiah.

18 And with them their brethren in the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, Jaaziel, and Shemumoth, and Aziel, and Eliah, and Benaiah, Baseliah, and Perethiah, and Eliphah, and Elkanah, and Obed Edom, and Aziel the porters.

19 So Heman, Asaph and Ethan were fingers to make a sound withymballes of brasse, f With Zadok and the rest of the Priests,

t Declaring that after our dautie to God we are chiefly bound to our owne house, for the which as for all other things, we ought to pray vnto God, & in trust our families to praise his Name, at the presence of the Lord: for he commeth to see the sacrifice.

34 Then the Lord be to you, for his mercie sake, that he will be to you.

35 And the Lord be to you, for his mercie sake, that he will be to you.

36 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel for ever and ever: and let all people say, God be to you, and the Lord.

37 Then he left them before the Ark of the Lord, and he went up to his chamber: to minister continually before the Ark, which was to be done every day.

38 And David, Edoim and his brethren, threecore and eight: and David Edoim the sonne of Jeduthun, and Edoim were porters.

39 And Zadok the Priest, and his brethren the Priests were before the Tabernacle of the Lord, in the high place that was at Gibeon.

40 To offer burnt offerings vnto the Lord, by the burnt offering altar continually, in the morning and in the evening, even according vnto all that is written in the lawe of the Lord, which he commanded Israel.

41 And with them were Heman, & Jeduthun, and the rest that were chosen (which were appointed by names) to playe the Lord, because his mercie endureth for ever.

42 Then with them were Heman and Jeduthun, to make a sound with the cornets and with the cymbals, with excellent instruments of musick: and the sonnes of Jeduthun were at the gate.

43 And all the people departed: every man to his house: and Dauid returned to bless his house.

CHAP. XVII.

3 David is forbidden to build a house for the Lord: 12 Christ is promised under the figure of Solomon. 18 Dauid giveth thanks, 21 and prayeth vnto God.

Now afterwards when Dauid dwelt in his house, he sayd to Nathan the Prophet, Behold, I dwell in an house of cedars, but the Ark of the Lordes covenant remaineth under curtains.

2 Then Nathan sayd to Dauid, Do all that is in thine heart: for God is with thee.

3 And the same night euen the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 Go, and tell Dauid my servant, Thus sayth the Lord, Thou shalt not build me an house to dwell in:

5 For I have dwelt in no house, since the day that I brought out the children of Israel vnto this day, but I have bene from tent to tent, and from habitation to habitation.

6 Wherefore I have walked with all Israel, Iake I one worde to any of the Judges of Israel (whom I commanded to feede my people) saying, Why have yet not built me an house of Cedar trees?

7 Now therefore thus saith the Lord to my servant Dauid, Thus saith the Lord of hostes, I took thee from the sheep-chies, and from following the sheep, and thou hast been as a prince over my people Israel.

8 And I have bene with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and have destroyed all thine enemies out of the light, and thou hast bene as a name, like the name of the great men that are in the earth:

9 Also I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will place it, that they may dwell in their places: someone no more shall build the house of my people, I will dwell among them as at the beginning.

10 And since the time that I commanded Judges over my people Israel, and I will addre all thine enemies: therefore I say vnto thee, that the Lord will build thee an house.

11 And when thy dayes shall be fulfilled, to goe with thy fathers, then will I raise up the seed after thee, which shall bee of thy sonnes, and will stablish his kingdom.

12 He shall build me an house, and I will stablish his throne for ever.

13 I will be his father, and he shall be my sonne, and I will not take my mercie away from him, as I took it from him that was before thee.

14 But I will stablish him in mine house, and in my kingdom for ever, and his throne shall be established for ever.

15 According to all these wordes, and according to all this vision, so Nathan spake to Dauid.

16 And Dauid the King was in, and I saie before the Lord, and sayde, I know, O Lord God, and what is mine house? that thou hast wrought mee this:

17 Yet thou esteemest this a small thing, O God, hast also spoken concerning the house of thy servant for a great while, and hast regarded mee according to the estate of a man of thine degree, O Lord God.

18 Altho as can Dauid desire more of thee for the honour of thy servant, thy thou knowest thy servant.

19 O Lord, for thy servants sake, euen according to thine heart hast thou done all this great thing to declare all magnificence.

20 Lord, there is none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee, according to all that we have heard with our eares.

21 Wherefore, what one nation in the earth is like thy people Israel, whose God went to redeem them to be his people, and to make thy selfe a name, and to doe great and terrible things by calling out nations from before the people, whom thou hast destroyed out of the earth?

22 For thou hast chosen thy people Israel to be thine owne people for ever, and thou Lord art become their God.

23 Wherefore howe Lord, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, be confirmed for ever, and doe as thou sayest.

24 And let thy name be magnified and magnified for ever, that it may bee large, O Lord God of hostes, God of Israel, thy God.

27 And the rest of the people he put to death: the hand of Ammon he broke; and they put themselves in array against the children of Ammon.

28 And he said, If I can be too strong for me, then thou shalt succour me: and if the children of Ammon prevail against thee, then I will succour thee.

29 Be strong, and let us fight our own battell for the people, and for the cities of our God, and let the Lord do that which is good in his own sight.

30 So Joab and the people that was with him, came neere before the Ammonites unto the battell, and they stood before him.

31 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Ammonites fled, they fled also before Abihai his brother, and entered into the citie: so Joab came to Jerusalem.

32 And when the Ammonites saw that they were discomfited before Israel, they sent messengers and caused the Ammonites to come forth that were beyond the river: and Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

33 And when it was between David, hee gathered all Israel, and went over Jordan, and came unto them, and put himselfe in array against them: and when David had put himselfe in battell array to meete the Ammonites, they fought with him.

34 But the Ammonites fled before Israel, and David destroyed of the Ammonites seven thousand chariots, and fourty thousand footmen, and killed Shobach the captain of the host.

35 And when the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were before Israel, they made peace with David, and served him. And the Ammonites would no more succour the children of Ammon.

CHAP. XX.

1 Rabbah destroyed. 2 The Ammonites tormented. 3 The Philistines are thrust overcome with their giants.

And when the yeere was expired, in the autumn that kings got out a warfare, Joab carried out the strenging of the armie, and destroyed the countrey of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah (but David tarried at Jerusalem) and Joab smote Rabbah and destroyed it.

2 Then David tooke the crown of their king from off his head, and found in the weight of a talent of golde, with precious stones in it; and it was set on Davids head, and hee brought away the spoyle of the citie exceeding much.

3 And hee carried away the people that were in it, and cut them with sawes, and with harrowes of yon, and with axes: even thus did David with all the cities of the children of Ammon. Then David and all the people came againe to Jerusalem.

4 And after this also, there arose warre at Geyer with the Philistines: then Giddeon the Iudathite slew Gippai, of the children of Paraphath, and they were subdued.

5 And there was yet another battle with the Philistines: and Giddeon the sonne of Iudai slew Lahai, the brother of Gippai the Gierathite: which spoyle was the Iudathites booty.

6 And yet againe there was a battell at Gath, where was a man of a great stature, and his fingers were by three, com three and twentie, and was also the sonne of Paraphath.

7 And when hee sawe Israel, hee was the sonne of Githies Dauidis brother did slay him.

8 These were borne unto Paraphath at Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hands of his servants.

CHAP. XXI.

1 David caused the people to be numbered, and there was seven hundred thousand men of his possiblities.

2 And Satan stood by against Israel, and approached David to number Israel.

3 Therefore David sayd to Joab, and to the rulers of the people, See, and number Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan, and bring it to me, that I may know the number of them.

4 And Joab answered, The Lord encrease his people an hundred times so many as they be, O my lord the king: are they not all my lords servants? wherefore doest my lord require this thing? why should he be a cause of trespass to Israel?

5 Nevertheless the kings word prevailed against Joab. And Joab departed and went throughout all Israel, and returned to Jerusalem.

6 And Joab gave the number & summe of the people unto David: & all Israel were eleven hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred and seavente thousand men that drew sword.

7 But the Levites and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the kings word was adominable to Joab.

8 And God was displeased with this thing: therefore he smote Israel.

9 Then David sayd unto God, I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now I beseech thee, remove the iniquity of the servant: for I have done very foolishly.

10 And the Lord spake unto Gad Davids seer, saying,

11 See and tell David, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I offer thee three things; chuse thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

12 So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Take to thee

13 Either three yeeres famine, or three moneths to bee destroyed before thine adversaries, or the sword of thine enemies to take thee, or all the sword of the Lord and pestilence in the land three dayes, that the Angel of the Lord may destroy throughout all the coastes of Israel:

Dauid: thou therefore admit thee, what thou hast done against me, that I may forgive thee.

13 And Dauid said unto God, I am in a miserable state: let me not fall into the hand of the Lord: for his mercies are exceeding great, and let me not fall into the hand of man.

14 For the Lord sent a pestilence in Israel, and there fell of Israel seventeen thousand men.

15 ¶ And God sent the Angel into Jerusalem to destroy it. And as he was destroying, the Lord beheld, and repented of the evil, and said to the Angel that destroyed, It is not enough, let thine hand cease. Then the Angel of the Lord stood by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

16 And Dauid lift up his eyes, and saw the Angel of the Lord stand between the earth and the heaven with his sword drawn in his hand, and stretched out toward Jerusalem. Then Dauid and the Elders of Israel, which were clothed in sack, fell upon their faces.

17 And Dauid said unto God, Is it not I that commanded to number the people? It is even I that have sinned and have committed evil, but these people, what have they done? O Lord my God, I beseech thee, let thine hand be not up, and on my fathers' house, and not on the people for their destruction.

18 ¶ Then the Angel of the Lord commanded God to say to Dauid, that Dauid should get up, and set up an altar unto the Lord in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

19 So Dauid went up according to the saying of God, which he had spoken in the name of the Lord.

20 And Ornan turned about, and saw the Angel, and his four sons, that were with him, hid themselves, and Ornan threshed wheat.

21 And as Dauid came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw Dauid, and went out of the threshing floor, and bowed himself to Dauid with his face to the ground.

22 And Dauid said to Ornan, Give me the place of thy threshing floor, that I may build an altar therein unto the Lord: give is more for sufficient money, that the plague may be stayed from the people.

23 Then Ornan said unto Dauid, Take it to thee, and let my Lord the king do that which seemeth him good: for I give thee bullocks for burnt offerings, and threshing instruments for wood, and wheat for meat offering. I give it all.

24 And King Dauid said to Ornan, That is not my intent for sufficient money: for I will not take that which is thine for the Lord, nor offer burnt offerings without cost.

25 So Dauid gave to Ornan for that place — five hundred shekels of gold by weight.

26 So Dauid built there an altar unto the Lord, and offered burnt offerings, a peace offering, and called upon the Lord, and he answered him by fire from heaven upon the altar of burnt offering.

27 And when the Lord had spoken to the Angel, he put up his sword against him into his sheath.

28 At that time when Dauid saw that the Lord had heard him in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there.

29 (But the tabernacle of the Lord which Moses had made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering were at that season in the high places of Gibeon.)

30 And Dauid could not go before it to ask the counsel of God: for he was afraid of the sword of the Angel of the Lord.)

CHAP. XXII.

2 Dauid prepareth things necessary for the building of the Temple. 6 He commandeth his sonne Salomon to build the Temple of the Lord, which thing he himself was forbidden to do. 9 Vnder the figure of Salomon Christ is promised.

1 And Dauid said, This is the house of the Lord God, and this is the altar for the burnt offering of Israel.

2 And Dauid commanded to gather together the strangers that were in the land of Israel, and hee let masons to hew and polish stones to build the house of God.

3 Dauid also prepared much yron for the nails of the doores and of the gates, and for the topings, and abundance of brass casting weights.

4 And cedar trees without number: for the Sidonians and they of Tyre brought much cedar wood to Dauid.

5 And Dauid said, Salomon my sonne is young and tender, and wee must build an house for the Lord, magnificent, excellent, and of great fame and dignitie throughout all countreys. I will therefore now prepare for him. So Dauid prepared very much before his death.

6 Then hee called Salomon his sonne, and charged him to build an house for the Lord God of Israel.

7 And Dauid said to Salomon, My sonne, I purposed with my selfe to build an house to the name of the Lord my God,

8 But the word of the Lord came to me, saying, Thou hast shed much blood, and hast made great battels: thou shalt not build an house unto my name: for thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in thy fight.

9 Beholde, a sonne is borne unto thee, which shall be a man of rest: for I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: therefore his name is Salomon: and I will send peace and quietnesse upon Israel in his dayes.

10 He shall build an house for my name, and hee shall be my sonne, and I will be his father, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom upon Israel for ever.

11 Now therefore my sonne, the Lord shall be with thee, and thou shalt prosper, and thou shalt build an house to the Lord thy God, as he hath spoken of thee.

13 ¶ When thou shalt prosper, if thou take heed to observe the statutes and the judgments which the Lord commanded Moses for Israel: be strong and of good courage; feare not, neither be afraid.

14 ¶ For behold, according to my power, I have prepared for the house of the Lord an hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver, and of brass and of iron passing weight: for there was abundance: I have also prepared timber and stone, and thou mayest provide more thereto.

15 ¶ Moreover, thou hast workmen with thee, enow, I bewere of stone, and workmen for timber, and all men expert in every worke.

16 ¶ Of gold, of silver, and of brass, and of iron, there is no number: thy therefore, and be doing, and the Lord will be with thee.

17 ¶ David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his sonne, saying,

18 ¶ Is not the Lord your God with you, and hath given you rest on every side? he hath given thee the inhabitants of the land into mine hand, and the land is subdued before the Lord, and before his people.

19 ¶ Now let your hearts and your souls to seek the Lord your God, and arise, and build the Sanctuary of the Lord God to bring the Ark of the covenant of the Lord, and the holy vessels of God into the house built for the name of the Lord.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 David being older, ordeineth Solomon king. 2 He causeth the Levites to be numbered, and assigneth them to their offices. 13 Aaron and his sonnes are for the high Priest. 14 The sonnes of Moses.

So when David was old, and full of dayes, hee made Solomon his sonne king over Israel.

2 ¶ And he gathered together all the princes of Israel with the High Priests and the Levites.

3 ¶ And the Levites were numbered from the age of thirtie yeeres and above, and their number according to their summe was eight and thirtie thousand men.

4 ¶ Of these foure and twentie thousand were set to aduance the worke of the house of the Lord, & fixe thousand were ouercleers and Judges.

5 ¶ And foure thousand were porters, and foure thousand waited the Lord with instruments which he made to praise the Lord.

6 ¶ So David dividede offices unto them, to wit, to the sonnes of Levi, to Gerson, Kohath, and Merari.

7 ¶ Of the Gersonites were Lemai and Shimei.

8 ¶ The sonnes of Laadan, the chief was Jehiel, and Jehiam, and Jeck three.

9 ¶ The sonnes of Shimeel, Shemomiyah and Shimeel, and Shimeel, these were the chief fathers of Laadan.

10 ¶ Also the sonnes of Shimeel were Jahi, Jem, Jem, and Beriah: these were the sonnes of Shimeel.

11 ¶ And Jahiah was the chief, and Jahiah the second, but Jem and Beriah had not many sonnes; therefore they were to the families of their father, counted but as one.

12 ¶ The sonnes of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Vehon, and Gizzel, foure.

13 ¶ The sonnes of Amram, Aaron and Moyses: and Aaron was separated to sanctifie the most holy place, hee and his sonnes for ever to burne incense before the Lord, to minister to him, and to bless in his name for ever.

14 ¶ Moyses also the man of God, and his children were named with the name of Levi.

15 ¶ The sonnes of Moyses were Gershom, and Eliezer.

16 ¶ Of these sonnes of Gershom was Shubael the chief.

17 ¶ And the sonne of Eliezer was Rehabiah the chief: for Eliezer had none other sonnes; but the sonnes of Rehabiah were of the many.

18 ¶ The sonne of Izhar was Shelomiyah the chief.

19 ¶ The sonnes of Vehon were Jethai the first, Amariah the second, Zabaziel the third, and Jehamiah the fourth.

20 ¶ The sonnes of Gizzel were Shichab the first, and Jethiah the second.

21 ¶ The sonnes of Eliezer were Gashai and Hushi. The sonnes of Shabli, Elazar and Kish.

22 ¶ And Elazar died, and had no sonnes, but daughters, & their husbands the sonnes of Kish took them.

23 ¶ The sonnes of Hushi were Hushi and Ozer, and Jeremoth, three.

24 ¶ These were the sonnes of Levi according to the house of their fathers, even the chief fathers according to their offices, according to the number of names, and their summe that did the worke for the service of the house of the Lord from the age of thirtie yeeres and above.

25 ¶ For David said, The Lord God of Israel hath given rest unto his people, that they may dwell in Jerusalem for ever.

26 ¶ And also the Levites shall no more beare the Tabernacle and all the vessels for the service thereof.

27 ¶ Therefore according to the last words of David, the Levites were numbered from thirtie yeeres and above.

28 ¶ And their office was under the hand of the sonnes of Aaron, for the service of the house of the Lord in the sources, and chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and in the worke of the service of the house of God.

29 ¶ Both for the bread, and for the fine flour, for the meate offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for the trash things, and for the which was offered, and for all uncleanes and cle.

1 Rehoboth Dauts was forbidden to build the Temple, but wither Salomon and the people performed it, 8. concerning him to fear the Lord.

AND King Dauts assembled all the princes of Israel: the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the bands that served the king, and the captains of thousands, and the captains of hundreds, and the rulers of all the substance, a possession of the king, and of his houses, with the eunuchs, and the mighty, and all the men of power unto Jerusalem.

2 And king Dauts stood up upon his feet, and said, I care ye me, my brethren & my people: I purposed to have built an house of rest for the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord, and for a footstool of our God, and have made ready for the building.

3 But God saide unto me, Thou shalt not build an house for my name, because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed blood.

4 Yet is the Lord God of Israel chose me being all the house of my father, to be king over Israel for ever (for in Judah would he choose a prince, and of the house of Judah is the house of my father, & among the houses of my father he delighted in me to make me king over all Israel.)

5 And of all my houses (for the Lord hath chosen me many houses) he hath chosen Salomon my sonne to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the Lord over Israel.

6 And hee said unto me, Salomon thy sonne, he shall build mine house & my courts: for I have chosen him to be my sonne, and I will be his father.

The second booke of the Chronicles.

THE ARGUMENT.

THis second booke containeth briefly in effect that, which is comprehended in the two bookes of the Kings: that is, from the reigne of Salomon to the destruction of Ierusalem, and the carrying away of the people captiue into Babylon. In this story are certaine things declared and set forth more copiously then in the bookes of the Kings, & therefore serue greatly to the vnderstanding of the Prophets. But three things are here chiefly to be considered. First, that the goodly Kings, when they saw the plagues of God prepared against their country for sinne, had recourse to the Lord, and by earnest prayer were heard, and the plagues remoued. The second, howe it is a thing that greatly offendeth God, that such as reue him and professe his Religion, should ioyne in amitie with the wicked. And thirdly, how the good rulers succoured the Prophets of God, and were very zealous to set forth his Religion throughout all their dominions, & contrariwise the wicked hated his ministers, deposed them, and for the true religion and word of God, set vp idolatrie, and spurned God according to the fantasie of men. Thus haue we written the chief actes from the beginning of the world to the building againe of Ierusalem, which was the two and thirtieth yeere of Darius, and containe in the whole, three thousand six hundred, threescore and eighty seue yeeres and five moneths.

6 The offering of Salomon at Gibeon. 7 His prayer vnto God to giue him wisdom. 8 Which he giueth him and more. 9 The number of his chariots and horses. 10 And of his riches.

Dauid was confirmed in his kingdom: and the Lord his God was with him, and magnified him highly.

2 And Salomon make vnto all Israel, to the captiues of thousands, and hundredth, and to the Iudges, and to all: the gouernours in all Israel, euen the chiefe fathers.

3 So Salomon and all the Congregation with him went to the high place, that was at Gibeon: for there was a Tabernacle of the Congregation of God, which Moses the seruant of the Lord had made in the wilderness.

4 But the Arke of God had Dauid brought vp from Kirjath searim, when Dauid had made preparation for it: for he had pitched a tent for it in Ierusalem.

5 Wherever the brazen Altar, that Bezaleel the sonne of Uri, the sonne of Hur had made, did he set before the Tabernacle of the Lord: and Salomon and the Congregation sought it.

6 And Salomon offered there before the Lord vpon the brazen Altar, that was in the Tabernacle of the Congregation: euen a thousand burnt offerings offered he vpon it.

7 The same night did God appeare vnto Salomon, and sayde vnto him, Aske what I shall giue thee.

8 And Salomon sayde vnto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy vnto Dauid my father, and hast made mee to reigne in his stead.

9 Nowe therefore, O Lord God, let thy promise vnto Dauid my father be true:

for thou hast made mee King ouer a great people, like to the dust of the earth.

10 Giue mee now wisdom and knowledge, that I may gouerne and get in before this people: for who can Iudge this great people?

11 And God said to Salomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, riches, nor honour, nor the flutes of some enuies, neither yett as few long life, but hast asked for the wisdom and knowledge, that thou mightest Iudge my people, I will giue thee wisdom, and knowledge, and riches, and honour, as thou hast desired.

12 And wisdom and knowledge shall be granted vnto thee, and I will giue thee riches, and treasures and honour, so that there shall not be one like thee among the Kings which were before thee, neither after thee, that shall be like thee.

13 Then Salomon came from the place that was at Gibeon, to Ierusalem from before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and reigned ouer Israel.

14 And Salomon gathered the chariots and horsemen: and hee had a thousand and foure hundred chariots, and twelue thousand horsemen, whom hee placed in the chariot cities, and with the King at Ierusalem.

15 And the King gaue silver and gold of Ierusalem as stones, and gane cedar trees as the yulme figg trees, that are abundantly in the plaine.

16 Also Salomon had holies bought out of Egypt and sinners: the Kings of Egypt and sinners received the fine linen for a woman.

17 They came vp also and brought out of Egypt some chariots, six hundred wheels of silver, chariots, in a horse for an hundred silver, and sitters, and thus they brought horses to all the Kings of the Syrians, and to the Kings of Aram by their sennes.

CHAP. II.

The number of Solomon's workmen, in building the Temple. 1. Solomon's speech to Huram the king of Tyre for wood and workmen.

1 And Solomon determined to build an house for the Name of the Lord, and an house for his king's house.

2 And Solomon told out twenty thousand men to be hewers of stones in the mountain, and three thousand and a five hundred to oversee them.

3 And Solomon sent to Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou hast sent to Dania my father, and saidst, I send him cedar trees to build him an house to dwell in, so do to me.

4 Behold, I build an house unto the Name of the Lord my God, to sanctify it unto him, and to burn sweet incense before him, and for the continual showbread, and for the burnt offerings of the morning, and evening, on the Sabbath dayes, and in the new monthes, and in the solemn feastes of the Lord our God: this is a perpetual thing for Israel.

5 And the house which I build, is great: for great is our God above all gods.

6 Also to see then that can bee able to build him an house, when the beames, and the beams of beames can not containe him: who can I then that I should build him an house, but I do it to burne incense before him.

7 Send me now therefore a cunning man, that can worke in gold, in silver, in brasse, and in yew, and in purple, and in crimolins, and blue like, and that can graue in grauen, worke with the cunning men that are with me in Judah, and in Jerusalem, whom David my father hath prepared.

8 Send me also cedar trees, firre trees, and alumum trees from Lebanon: for I know that thy servants can skill to hew timber in Lebanon: and behold, my servants shall be with thee.

9 That they may prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I do build, is great and wonderfull.

10 And behold, I will give to thy servants the cutters and the hewers of timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oyle.

11 Then Hiram king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, because the Lord had loved his people, for he had made him king over them.

12 Hiram said moreover, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which made the heaven and the earth, and that hath given unto David the king, a cunning man that hath discretion, prudence, and understanding in building an house for the Lord, and a palace for his king.

13 Therefore, O Solomon, I have sent a wise man, and a cunning man, an art father and he hath made a woman of the thoughtes of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, and he can skill to worke in gold, in silver, in brasse, in yew, and in timber, in purple, in blue like, and in crimolins, and in crimolins, and can graue in all grauen worke, and bloyder in all bloyder worke that shall be given him, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of thy land David thy father.

14 Showe therefore the wheate and the barley, the oyle, and the wine, which my lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants.

15 And we will cut wood in Lebanon as much as thou shalt neede, and will bring it to thee in asses by the sea, and I paye for it, as thou mayest covenent with us.

16 And Solomon numbred all the strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the numbering that his father David had numbred them: and they were found an hundred and threescore and five thousand, and five hundred.

17 And he set twenty thousand of them to the burden, and threescore thousand to hew stones in the mountain, and three thousand and five hundred porterers to caule the people to worke.

CHAP. III.

1 The Temple of the Lords, and the porch are builded, with other thinges thereto belonging.

2 Solomon beganne to build the house of the Lords in Jerusalem, in Mount Sion, which had bene declared unto David his father, in the place that David prepared in the high place of the Jebusites.

3 And he beganne to build in the second month, and the second day in the fourth yere of his reigne.

4 And these are the measures, wherof Solomon grounden to build the house of God: the length of cubites after the first measure was threescore cubites, and the breadth threescore cubites.

5 And the porch, that was before the length in the front of the breadth was twentie cubites, and the height was an hundred and twenty, and he overlaid it with pure gold.

6 And the greater house bee filled with firs, trees which bee overlaid with good golde, and graven theron palme trees and choines.

7 And he overlaid the house with precious stone for beautie, and the golde was gold of Paraur.

8 The house, I say, the beames, postes, and holles theron, and he mooves theron overlaid with good golde, and graven theron upon the walls.

9 And he made also the bent of the most holy place: the length thereof was in the front the breadth of the house, twenty cubites, and the breadth thereof twenty cubites: and he overlaid it with the best golde, of life hundred talents.

10 And he overlaid the naves with firs, the hole of gold, and he overlaid the chambers with gold.

It is also written that he was of the tribe of Naphtali. 1. King 7.14. which may be understood that by reason of the confusion of tribes, which then began to be, they married in divers tribes, so that by her father he might be of Dan, and by her mother of Naphtali. Or, Simeon. Or, Issachar.

II. * And the wings of the Cherubim were twenty cubits long: the one wing was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house, and the other wing like cubits, reaching to the wing of the other Cherub.

12 Likewise the wing of the other Cherub was like cubits, reaching to the wall of the house, and the other wing like cubits, joining to the wing of the other Cherub.

13 The wings of the Cherubims were spread abroad twenty cubits : they stood on their feet, and their faces were toward the home.

14. ¶ He made also the vaille of blue silk, and purple, and crimolin, and fine linnen, and mought together thereon.

15 ¶ And he made before the house two pillars of fine and thirtie cubits high: and the chapter that was upon the top of each of them was five cubits.

16 We made also chaines for the Dacle and put them on the heads of the pylars and made an hundred pomegranates and put them among the chaines.

17 And he set up the pillars before the Temple, one on the right hand, & the other on the left, and called that on the right hand Tachin, and that on the left hand Boaz.

9 And he made the court of the Priests, and the great Court, and doozes for the Court, and overlaid the doozes thereof with brass.

10 And he let the Sea on the right line
Eastward toward the South.

II And Huram made spots, & bosses and balcons, and hee finished the work that he should make for King Salomon in the house of God.

13. To wit, two pillars, and the balustrades and the chapiters on the top of the two pillars, & two grates to cover the two houses of the chapiters, which were upon the top of the pillars :

13 And foure hundredeth pomegranates for the two gates, also rows of pomegranates for every gate to cover the two houses of the chambers, that were upon the pillars.

T4. He made also bales, and made calozons upon the bales :

16 Pots also and basins, and fleshhooks, and all these vessels made Huram his father to king Solomon for the house of the Lord of Shinar brass.

17 In the plaine of Jordan did the King cast them in clay betwene Succoth and Je-rich.

18. And Salomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of brass could not be reckoned.

19- And Salomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God: the golden altar also of the tables whereon the golden vessels.

20 They took the candlesticks with their lamps to burn them after the manner of the Diacle of pure gold :

24 And the flowers, and the lamps, and the snuffers of gold, which was fine gold :

22. And the bookes, and the balens, and the spoones, and the altars of pure golde: the entry also of the house and doores thereof within, euen of the most holy place: and the doores of the house, to wit, of the Temple were i of golde.

And he made an altar of brass threem cubits long, and twenty cubits broad, and ten cubits high.

2. And he made a molten Sea of ten cubits from brem to brem, round in compass, and five cubits high: and a line of thirty cubits in compass it about.

3 And under it was the fashion of oren, which did compass it round about, <sup>seeme</sup> in a cubite compassing the Sea about: two rowes of oren were cast when it was mol-

So D* was all the work finished that Salomon made for the house of the Lord; and Salomon brought in the things that David his father had dedicated with the silver and the gold, and all the vessels, and put them among the treasures of the house.

15 Then Saulon assembled the Chiefs of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel, only Jerusalem to bring up the Ark of the covenant of the Lord from the city of David, which is Zion.

And king Salomon and all the Congregation of Israel that were assembled unto him, were before the Arke, offering there sheep and bullocks, which could not bee told nor numbered for multitude.

3. 2. Sam. 7. 5.
So the Priests brought the Arke of the Covenant of the Lord unto his place, into the Place of the house, into the most holy place, even under the wings of the Cherubims.

4. 4. Ebr. that it was in thine heart.
For the Cherubims stretched out their wings over the place of the Arke, and the Cherubims covered the arke, and the barres thereof above.

5. And they drew out the barres, that the ends of the barres might bee seen out of the arke before the People, but they were not seen; without: and there they are unto this day.

6. b Meaning, the two Tables, which Moses gave at Mount Sinai, where the Lord made a Covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

7. And when the Priests were come out of the Sanctuary (for all the Priests that were present, were sanctified and did not wear by coult).

8. And the Levites the fingers of all sorts, of Saph, of Heman, of Jeduthan, and of their brethren, and of their brethren, being clad in fine linen, stood with cymbals, and with dales and harpes at the East end of the Altar, and with them an hundred and twentie priests blowing with trumpets;

9. And they were as one, blowing trumpets and singing, and made one sound to bee heard in playing and thanking the Lord, and when they lift up their voices with trumpets and with cymbals, and with instruments of musicks, and when they praised the Lord, singing, a For bee is good, because his mercie lasteth for ever: then the house, even the house of the Lord was filled with a sound.

10. So that the priests could not stand to minister, because of the cloud: for the glorie of the Lord had filled the house of God.

Then Salomon said, The Lord hath said, that he would dwell in the barke cloud:

2. And I have built thee an house to dwell in, an habitation for thee to dwell in forever.

3. And the king turned his face, and blessed all the Congregation of Israel, (for all the Congregation of Israel stood there.)

4. And he said, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who spake with his mouth unto

David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying,

5. Since the day that I brought my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no cite of all the tribes of Israel to build an house, that my Name might be there, neither chose I any man to bee a ruler over my people Israel.

6. But I have chosen Jerusalem, that my Name might be there, and have chosen David to be over my people Israel.

7. And it was in the heart of David my father to build an house unto the Name of the Lord God of Israel.

8. But the Lord said to David my father, whereas it was in thine heart to build an house unto my Name, thou dost well that thou wilt to number.

9. Notwithstanding thou shalt not build the house, but thy sonne which shall come out of thy loynes, he shall build an house unto my Name.

10. And the Lord hath performed his word that he spake: and I am stand in the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel, as the Lord promised, and have built an house to the Name of the Lord God of Israel.

11. And I have set the Arke there, wherein is the Covenant of the Lord, that hee made with the children of Israel.

12. And the king stood before the Altar of the Lord, in the presence of all the Congregation of Israel, and stretched out his hands.

13. (For Salomon had made a brazen scaffold and set it in the mids of the court, of fine cubites long, and fine cubites broad, and three cubites of height, and upon it he stood, and kneeled downe upon his knees before al the Congregation of Israel, and stretched out his hand toward heaven)

14. And said, O Lord God of Israel, there is no God like thee in heaven nor in earth, which keepeth covenant, and mercie unto thy servants, that walke before thee with all their heart.

15. Thou that hast kept with thy servant David my father, that thou hast promised him; for thou spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as thou spakest.

16. Therefore now Lord God of Israel, keepe with thy servants David my father, that thou hast promised him, saying, Thou shalt not want a man in my sight, that shall sit upon the throne of Israel: so that thy Sones take heed to their wayes, to walke in my Law, as thou hast walked before me.

17. And now, O Lord God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David.

18. As it true in deed that God will dwell with man on earth? Behold, the heavens, and the heavens of heavens are not able to containe thee: how much more unable is this house, which I have built?

this house day and night, even toward the place, wherof thou hast said, that thou wouldest put thy name there, that thou mayest hearken vnto the prayer, which thy seruant prayeth in this place.

21 Heare thou therefore the supplication of thy seruant, and of thy people Israel, which they pray in this place: and heare thou in the place of thine habitation, even in heauen, and when thou hearest, be mercifull.

22 ¶ When a man shall sinne against knowned against thee.

40 Now my God, I beseech thee, let thine eyes be open, and thine eares attend vnto the prayer that is made in this place.

41 ¶ Now therefore arise, O Lord God, to come into thy rest, thou, and the Ark of thy strength: O Lord God, let the Priests be

CHAP. VII.

1 The fire consumed the sacrifice. 2 The glory of the Lord filled the Temple. 3 He beareth his prayer. 4 And promise to exalt him and his throne.

A 20th when Salomon had made an end of praying, a fire came downe from heauen, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices: and the glorie of the Lord filled the house.

2 So that the Priests could not enter in to the house of the Lord, because the glorie of the Lord had filled the Lords house.

3 And when all the children of Israel saw the fire, and the glorie of the Lord come downe vpon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the earth vpon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the Lord, saying, For he is good, because his mercies reach for euer.

4 ¶ Then the king & all the people offered sacrifices

Statutes before the Lord.

And king Salomon offered a sacrifice of twelve thousand bullocks, and an hundred and thirtie thousand sheepe, for the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

6 And the Priests waited on their offices, and the Levites with the instruments of musick of the Lord, which king David had made to praise the Lord. Because his merry lute he ever: when David praised God: by them, the Priests also blew trumpets over against them: and all they of Israel sang by.

7 Moreover Salomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the Lord: for there hee had prepared burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the beaten altar which Salomon had made, was not able to receive the burnt offering, and the meate offering, and the fat.

8 And Salomon made a feast at that time of seven dayes, & all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the exiting in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt.

9 And in the eight day they made a sollemne assembly: for they had made the dedication of the altar seven dayes, and the feast seven dayes.

10 And the three and twentieth day of the seventh moneth, hee sent the people away into their tents, joyous and with glad heart because of the goodnesse that the Lord had done for David and for Salomon, and for Israel his people.

11 So Salomon finished the house of the Lord, and the kings house, and all that came into Salomons heart, to make in the house of the Lord: and he prospered in his house.

12 And the Lord appeared to Salomon by night, and said to him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place for my selfe to be an house of sacrifice.

13 If I shut the heauen that there bee no raine, or if I command the grasshopper to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people,

14 If my people, among whom my Name is called upon, doe humble themselves and pray, and seek my presence, and turne from their wicked wayes, then will I heare in heauen, and bee mercifull to their sinne, and will breake their land:

15 Then mine eyes shall be open, & mine eares attent unto the prayer made in this place.

16 For I have now chosen and sanctified this house, that my Name may be there for ever: and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually.

17 And if thou wilt walke before mee, as David thy father walked, to do according unto all that I have commanded thee, and shall observe my statutes and my judgments.

18 Then will I stablish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I made the covenant with David thy father, saying, Thou shalt not want a man to be ruler in Israel.

19 But if thou turne away, and forsake my statutes and my commandements which I have set before you, and shal goe and serve other gods, and worship them, 20 Then will I plucke them by out of my land which I have given them, and this house which I have sanctified for my Name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a poulder and a common take among all people.

21 And this house which is most hie, shall be an astonishment to every one that passeth by it, so that hee shall say, Why hath the Lord done thus to this land, and to this house?

22 And they shall and were, Because they forsooke the Lord God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and have taken holde on other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them, therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them.

CHAP. VIII.

2 The cities that Salomon built. 7 People that were made tributaries unto him. 12 His sacrifices. 17 He sendeth to Ophir.

And after thirtie yeere when Salomon had built the house of the Lord, and his owne house,

2 Then Salomon built the cities that Huram gave to Salomon, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there.

3 And Salomon went to Hamath Zobah, and overcame it.

4 And hee built Tadmor in the wilderness, and repaired all the cities of store which he built in Hamath.

5 And he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, cities defended with wailes, gates and barres:

6 Also Baalath, and all the cities of store that Salomon had, and all the charret cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and every pleasant place that Salomon had a minde to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the lands of his dominion.

7 And all the people that were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which were not of Israel,

8 But of their children which were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel had not consumed, even them did Salomon make tributaries untill this day.

9 But the children of Israel did Salomon make no servants for his worke: for they were men of warre, and his chiefes princes, and the captaynes of his charrets, and of his horsemen.

10 So these were the chiefes of the officers which Salomon had, even two hundred, and fiftie that bare rule over the people.

11 And then Salomon brought by the daughter of Hiram out of the cite of Tyre, into the house that hee had built for her: for hee said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel: for it is holy, because that the Ark of the Lord came unto it.

12 Then Salomon offered burnt offerings unto and their apparell, and his burnes offerings, which he offered in the house of the Lorde, and she was greatly astonished.

5 And she said to the King, It was a true word which I heard in mine owne land of thy sayings, and of thy wisdomme:

6 For when I desired to hear thy report, untill I came, and mine eyes had seene it:
and behold, the one half of thy great wise-dome was not told me; for thou exceedest the fame that I heard.

7 Happy are thy men, & happy are they thy seruants, which stand before thee alway and heare thy wisdomme.

8 Blessed bee the Lorde thy God, which loved thee, to set thee on his throne as king, in the steade of the Lorde thy God:
because thy God loveth Israel, to exalt it for ever, therefore hath hee made the king over them, to execute his good will and iustice.

9 Then shee gave the King sixe hundred talents of golde, & of sweete odours exceeding much, and precious stones: neither was there such sweet odours since, as the Queene of Sheba gave vnto king Salomon.

10 And the seruants also of Hiram, with the seruants of Salomon which brought golde from Ophir, brought Alagumum wood and precious stones.

11 And the king made of the Alagumum wood staires in the house of the Lorde, and in the Kings house, and harpes and viols for singers: and there was no such scene before in the land of Iudah.

12 And King Salomon gave to the Queene of Sheba, every pleasant thing that shee asked, besides for that which shee had brought vnto the king: so shee returned and went to her owne countrey, both she, and her seruants.

13 Also the weight of golde that came to Salomon in one yeere, was sixe hundred, therefore and sixe talents of golde.

14 Besides that which chapmen & merchants brought: and all the Kings of Arabia, and the princes of the countrey brought golde and silver to Salomon.

15 And King Salomon made two hundred targets of beaten golde, and a sixe hundred sheels of beaten golde went to one target.

16 And three hundred sheels of beaten golde: three hundred sheels of golde went to one sheeld, and the King put them in the house of the wood of Lebanon.

17 And the king made a great throne of purpise, and overlaid it with pure golde.

18 And the throne had sixe steppes, with a footstool of golde: fastened to the throne, and staves on either side on the place of the feete, and two Lyons standing by the staves.

19 And twelue Lyons stood there on the sixe steps on either side: there was not the like made in any kingdomme.

20 And all King Salomons drinke-ing vessels were of golde, and all the vessels of the house of the wood of Lebanon were of pure golde: for silver was nothing esteemed in the dayes of Salomon.

21 For the kings ships went to Tarshish with the seruants of Hiram, every three yeere once came the ships of Tarshish, and brought golde, and silver, purpise and apes, and peacocks.

22 So King Salomon excelled all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdomme.

23 And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Salomon, to heare his wis-dome that God had put in his heart.

24 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of golde, and raiment, armour, and sweet odours, horses, and mules from yeere to yeere.

10 And Salomon had four thousand chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in Jerusalem, and with the king at Jerusalem.

11 And he reigned over all the kings from the River even unto the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt.

12 And the king gave silver in Jerusalem, as stones, and gave cedar trees as the hyacinth trees that are abundant in the plain.

13 And they brought unto Salomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

14 Concerning the rest of the acts of Salomon first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the Prophet, and in the prophesie of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Ierobo the Seer against Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat?

15 And Salomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel fourty yeeres.

16 And Salomon slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. X.

1 The rigor of Rehoboam, 2 He followeth Ieroboam's counsel. 16 The people rebell.

1 Then Rehoboam went to Shechem: for to Shechem came all Israel to make him king.

2 And when Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat heard it, (which was in Egypt, whither hee had fled from the presence of Salomon the king,) he returned out of Egypt.

3 And they sent and called him: so came Ieroboam and all Israel, and communed with Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make thou the grievous servitude of thy father, and his sore yoke, that he put upon us, lighter, & we will serve thee.

5 And he sayde to them, Depart yet three dayes, then come againe unto mee. And the people departed.

6 And king Rehoboam rooke counsell with the olde men that had stood before Salomon his father, while he yet lived, saying, What counsell give ye that I may answer these people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou be kinde to this people, and please them, and speake lowing wordes to them, they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he left the counsell of the ancient men that they had given him, and rooke counsell of the young men that were brought up with him, and waited on him.

9 And he said unto them, What counsell give ye, that we may answer this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Make thy yoke lighter, thy father did put upon us, lighter?

10 And the young men that were brought up with him, spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake to thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heave, but make thou it lighter for vs: thus shalt thou say unto them, My lead part shall be bigger then my fathers yokes.

11 Some whereas my father did burden you with a grievous yoke, I will yet increase your yokes: my father hath chastised you with rods, but I will correct you with scourges.

12 Then Ieroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the thirde day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come againe to me the third day.

13 And the king answered them sharply: and king Rehoboam left the counsell of the ancient men.

14 And spake to them after the counsell of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke grievous, but I will increase it: my father chastised you with rods, but I will correct you with scourges.

15 So the king hardened not unto the people: for it was the ordinance of God, that the Loide might perforce him saying, which he had spoken: & by Ahijah the Shilonite to Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat.

16 So when all Israel saw that the king would not heare them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? for we have none inheritance in the sonne of Ithai. O Israel, every man to your tents: now see to thine owne house, David. So all Israel departed to their tents.

17 Nowbeit Rehoboam reigned over the children of Israel, that dwelt in the cities of Judah.

18 Then King Rehoboam sent Adoram that was over the tribute, and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he dyed: then king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 And Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

CHAP. XI.

1 Rehoboam is forbidden to fight against Ieroboam. 5 Cities which he build. 21 He hath eighty one wives, and therefore concubines, & by them eighty and twentie sonnes, and thre score daughters.

1 As when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and Benjamin ninetie thousand chosen men of warre to fight against Israel, and to bring the kingdome againe to Rehoboam.

2 But the worde of the Loide came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

3 Speake unto Rehoboam, the sonne of Salomon king of Judah, and to all Israel, that are in Judah, and Benjamin, saying,

4 Thus saith the Lord, Ye shall not goe up, nor fight against your brethren: returne every man to his house: for this thing is done of me. They obeyed therefore the word of the Lord, & returned from going against Rehoboam.

5 And Ieroboam dwelt in Jerusalem, & built strong cities in Judah.

6 He built also Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa,

7 And Beth-zur, & Shoco, & Adullam,

16 And after the Levites there came to Ierusalem of all the tribes of Israel, such as set their hearts to seeke the Lord God of Israel, to offer vnto the Lord God of their fathers.

f So long as they feared God, and set fourth his word, they profpered.

17 So they strengthened the kingdome of Iudah, and made Rehoboam the sonne of Salomon mighty, three yeere long : for three yeere they walked in the way of Dauid and Salomon.

18 And Rehoboam tooke him Baah-lah the daughter of Jerimoth the sonne of Dauid to wife, and Abihail the daughter of Eliah the sonne of Ithai.

19 Which bare him sonnes, Ierub, and Sheariah, and Zebad.

20 And after hee hee tooke Baahlah the daughter of Abiah which bare him Abi-ah, and Arhai, and Iiza, and Shelomith.

21 And Rehoboam loved Baahlah the daughter of Abiah above all his wiues and his concubines : for hee tooke eightene wiues, and threescore concubines, and begat eight and twentie sonnes, and threescore daughters.

reigned three yeere, 1. King.

sonne of Baahlah the chiefe ruler among his brethren : for he thought to make him king.

23 And he taught him : and dispersed all his sonnes throughout all the countreies of Iudah & Benjamin vnto every strong city :
and he gaue them abundance of vitaille, and defenced many wiues.

CHAP. XII.

1 Rehoboam forsaeth the Lords & is punished by Shishak. 5 Shemaiah reproveth him. 6 Hee troubleth himselfe. 7 God sendeth him succour. 9
Shishak taketh his treasures. 13 He reigneth death.
16 Abiah his sonne succeedeth him.

10 Or, when the Lord had established Rehobo-ams kingdome.
a For such is fin-conscience of the people, for the most part they fo-low the vices of their gouernours.

And when Rehoboam had established the kingdome and made it strong, hee forgotte the Lawe of the Lord, and all Israel with him.

2 Therefore in the fifth yeere of king Rehoboam, Shishak the king of Egypt came vp against Ierusalem (because they had transgressed against the Lord)

3 Which twelue hundred chariots, threescore thousand footmen, and the were without number, that came with him from Egypt, with the Lubims, & Suthians and the Ethiopians.

4 And hee tooke the strong cities which were of Iudah, and came vnto Ierusalem.

5 Then came Shemaiah the Prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Iudah that were gathered together in Ierusalem because of Shishak, and sayde vnto them Thus saith the Lord God hath forsaken me therefore haue I also left you in the hands of Shishak.

6 Then the princes of Israel, and the king humbled themselves, and sayd, The Lord is a just.

7 And when the Lord sawe that they humbled themselves, the word of the Lord came to Shemaiah, saying, They haue humbled themselves, therefore I will not destroy them, but I will lend them deli-uerance shortly, and my wrath shall not be poured out vpon Ierusalem by the hands of Shishak.

8 Nevertheless they shall be his seruants so shall they knowe my seruice, and the seruice of the kingdomes of the earth.

9 Then Shishak king of Egypt came vp against Ierusalem, and tooke the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the kings house : hee tooke euen all that hee caried away the shields of gold, which Salomon had made.

10 In steade whereof king Rehoboam made shields of brasse, and committed them to the hands of the chiefe of the garde, they waited at the doore of the kings house.

11 And when the king entred into the house of the Lord, the garde came and bare them & brought them againe vnto the garde chamber.

12 And because he humbled himselfe, the wrath of the Lord turned from him, that hee would not destroy all together. And also in Iudah the things prospered.

13 So king Rehoboam was strong in Ierusalem & reigned : for Rehoboam was one and forty yeere olde, when hee began to reigne, & reigned s seauenteen yeeres in Jerusalem, the city which the Lord had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put his name there. And his mothers name was Baamah an Ammonitess.

14 And hee did euill : for hee prepared not his heart to seeke the Lord.

15 The actes also of Rehoboam first and last, are they not written in the booke of Shemaiah the Prophet, & Iddo the seer, in rehearsing the genealogie : and there was warre alway betwene Rehoboam and Jeroboam.

16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of Dauid.
And Abiah his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XIII.

Lord, and ouercometh Ieroboam. 21 Of his wiues
and children.

the brethren serve of him Ieroboam beginning to reign over Judah.

He reigned three years in Jerusalem :
his mother's name also was Jeichalah the daughter of : Ariel of Simeon and there was war between Abiah and Ieroboam.

3 And Abiah let the battell in array with the army of valiant men of warre, even foure hundred thousand chosen men. Ieroboam also let the battell in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, which were strong and valiant.

4 And Abiah stood by upon mount Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, & said,
O Ieroboam, all Israel, heare you me.

Once ye not to know that the Lord
God of Israel hath given the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to him and to his sonnes by a covenant of salt.

6 And Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat the strumpet of Salomon the sonne of David is risen up, and hath rebelled against his lord :

7 And there are gathered to him a vaime men & struch, and made themselves strong against Ieroboam the sonne of Salomon :
for Ieroboam was a but a child and tender hearted, and could not resist them.

8 But therefore ye thinke that yee be able to resist against the kingdom of the Lord, which is in the hands of the sonnes of David, and ye be a great multitude, and the golden calves are with you which Ieroboam made you for gods.

9 I have ye not driven away the Priests of the Lord the sonnes of Aaron and the Levites, and have made you priests like the people of other countreys : whosoever cometh to ; consecrate with a young bullecke and seven rammes, the same may be a priest of them that are no gods.

10 But we belong unto the Lord our God, and have not forsaken him ; and the Priests
the sonnes of Aaron minister unto the Lord, and the Levites in their office.

11 And they burne unto the Lord every morning and every evening burnt offerings and sweete incense, and the bread is set in order upon the pure table, and the candlestick of gold with the lampes thereof, to burne every evening : for yee keepe the watch of the Lord our God : but yee have forsaken him.

12 And behold, this God is with vs as a captaine, and his Priests with the sounding trumpets, to crye an alarme against you. O ye children of Israel, fight not against the Lord God of your fathers : for yee shall not prosper.

13 But Ieroboam caused an ambush-ment to compass, and come behind them, when they were before Judah, and the ambushment behind them.

14 Then Judah looked, and behold, the battell was before and behind them, and they cried unto the Lord, & the Priests blew with the trumpets,

As it was appointed in the law, Exodus 29. 30. 1 Because the cause was good and approved by the Lord, they doubted not of success and victory. 2 Concerning the good counsel which of the Spirit of God, he thought to have overcome by deceit.

15 And the men of Judah gave a shout:
and when as the men of Judah shouted, God smote Ieroboam and also Israel before Abiah and Judah.

16 And y children of Israel fled before Judah, & God delivered them into their hand.

17 And Abiah & his people slew a great slaughter of them, so that there fell downe wounded of Israel two hundred thousand chosen men.

18 So the children of Israel were brought under at that time : and the children of Judah prevailed, because they staid upon the Lord God of their fathers.

19 And Abiah pursued after Ieroboam, and tooke cities from him, even Beth-el, and the villages thereof, and Jehonah with her villages, and Ephraim with her villages.

20 And Ieroboam recovered no strength againe in the dayes of Abiah, but the Lord plagued him, and he died.

21 So Abiah wonne mightie, and married fourteene wives, and begat two and twentie sonnes and sixtene daughters.

22 The rest of the acts of Abiah, and his maners and his sayings are writen in the booke of the Prophet Iddo.

CHAP. XIIII.

3 Afa destroyeth idolatrie and commandeth his people to serve the true God. 11 He prophesied unto God when he should goe to fight. 12 He obtaineth the victory.

4 A Abiah slept with his fathers, & they shuried him in the cite of David, and Afa his sonne reigned in his stead: in whose daies
the land was quiet ten yeere.

2 And Afa did that was good and right in the eyes of the Lord his God.

3 For hee tooke away the altars of the strange gods, & the high places, & brake downe
the images, and cut downe the groves,

4 And commanded Judah to seeke the Lord God of their fathers, and to doe according to the Law and the commandment.

5 And he tooke away out of all the cities of Judah the high places, & the images: therefore the kingdom was quiet before him.

6 Yee built also strong cities in Judah, because the land was in rest, and he had no warre in those yeeres: for the Lord had given him rest.

7 Therefore hee said to Judah, Let vs build these cities and make walls about, and towers, gates, and barres, whiles the land is before vs : because yee have sought the Lord our God, we have fought for him, and hee hath given vs rest on every side: so they built and prospered.

8 And Afa had an armie of Judah that bare shields & speares, three hundred thousand, and of Benjamin that bare shields and darts & bowes, two hundred & fourscore thousand: all these were valiant men.

9 And there came out against them
Zerah of Ethiopia with an host of ten hundred thousand, and three hundred chariots, and came unto Marashah.

10 Then Afa went out before him, and they set the battell in array in the valley of Zephathah beside Marashah.

11 And Afa cried unto the Lord his God,
and

12 ¶ So the Lord smote the Ethiopians before Asa and before Judah, and the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Asa and the people that was with him, pursued them unto Gerar: And the Ethiopians holde was overthrowen, so that there was no life in them: for they were destroyed before the Lord, and before his holie: and they carried away a mighty great spoile.

14 And they smote all the cities round about Gerar: for the feare of the Lord came upon them, and they spoiled all the cities, for there was exceeding much spoile in them.

15 Pea, and they hidde the tents of cattel, and carried away plenty of sheepe & camels, and returned to Jerusalem.

¶ CHAP. XV.
 1 The exhortation of Azariah. 2 Asa purgech his counrey of idolatry. 3 He sacrificeth with the people. 4 They swear together to serve the Lord. 5 He deposeth his mother for her idolatry.

¶ Then the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the sonne of Obed.

2 And he went out to meete Asa, & sayd unto him, O Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin, heare ye me. The Lord is with you, while ye bee with him: and if ye seeke him, he will be found of you, but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

3 Now for a long season Israel hath bene without the true God, and without Priest to teach, and without Law.

4 But whosoever returned in his affliction to the Lord God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of them.

5 And in that time there was no peace to him, that did goe out and got in: but great troubles were to all the inhabitants of the earth.

6 For nation was destroyed of nation, and cite of cite: for God troubled them with all adversitie.

7 Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands bee weak: for your worke shall haue a reward.

8 ¶ And when Asa heard these wordes, and the prophesie of Obed the Prophet, hee was encouraged, and tooke away the abominations out of all the land of Judah, and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken of mount Ephraim, and he renued the altar of the Lord, that was before the porch of the Lord.

9 And hee gathered all Judah & Benjamin, & the strangers that were out of Ephraim, and Danassah, and out of Simcon: for there fell many to him out of Israel, when they saw that the Lord his God was with him.

10 So they assembled to Jerusalem in the third moneth, in the fiftenth yeere of the reigne of Asa.

11 And they offered unto the Lord the time of the people, when they had brought even seven hundred bullocks, and seven thousand sheepe.

12 And they made a covenant to serve the Lord God of their fathers, with all their heart, and with all their soule.

13 And whosoever will not seeke the Lord God of Israel, shall be cut off, whether he were small or great, man or woman.

14 And they came unto the Lord with a lowde voice, & with shouting and with trumpets, and with cornets.

15 And all Judah rejoiced at the occasion: they had brought into the Lord with all their heart, and sought him with a whole voice, and hee was found of them. And the Lord guided them till round about.

¶ In the sixe and thirtieth yeere of the reigne of Asa came Baasha king of Israel up against Judah, and built Ramah to let none passe out or got in to Asa king of Judah.

2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the Lord, and of the kings house, and sent to Benhadad king of Aram that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

3 There is a covenant betweene me and thee, and betwene my father, and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold: come, & breake thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from mee.

4 And Benhadad hearkned unto king Asa, and sent the captaynes of the armies which hee had, against the cities of Israel. And they smote Iion, and Dan, & Abel-maun, and all the strong cities of Naphtali.

5 And when Baasha heard it, hee left building of Ramah, and let his towke keepe.

6 Then Asa the king tooke all Judah, and carried away the stones of Ramah, and

4 And Jehoshaphat sayd vnto the king of Israel, Aske counsell, I pray thee, at the mouth of the Lord this day.

5 Therefore the king of Israel gathered of 400 prophets four hundred men, and sayd vnto them, Shall we goe to Ramoth Gilead to battell, or shall I cease? And they sayd, Goe vpp: for God shall deliuer it into the kings hand.

6 But Jehoshaphat sayd, Is there here neuer a Prophet more of the Lord that wee might inquire of him?

7 And the king of Israel sayd vnto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, by whom we may aske counsell of the Lord, but I hate him: for he doeth not prophesie good vnto me, but alway euill: it is Michaiah the sonne of Imia. Then Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

8 And the king of Israel called an Eunuch, and sayd, Call quickly Michaiah the sonne of Imia.

9 And the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat king of Iudah sawe euer of them on his chaine clothed in their apparell: they sawe euen in the churbing floore at the entering in of the gate of Samaria: and at the prophets prophesied before them.

10 And Michaiah the sonne of Chenaanah made him boines of yron, and sayd, Thus sayth the Lord, Cullst thou shalt thou push the Aramites, untill thou hast consumed them.

11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Goe vpp to Ramoth Gilead, and prosper: for the Lord shall deliuer it into the hand of the king.

12 And the messenger that went to call Michaiah, spake to him, saying, Behold, the words of the Prophets declare good to the king with one accord: let thy word therefore, I pray thee, bee like one of theirs, and speake thou good.

13 And Michaiah sayd, As the Lord liueth, whatsoever my God sayth, that will I speake.

14 And hee came to the King, and the King sayd vnto him, Michaiah, shall we goe to Ramoth Gilead to battell, or shall I leave off? And he sayd, Goe vpp, and prosper, and they shall be deliuered into your hand.

15 And the king sayd vnto him, How oft shall I charge thee, that thou tell me nothing but truth in the Name of the Lord?

16 Then he sayd, I sawe all Israel scattered in the mountaines, as sheepe that haue no shepheard: and the Lord sayd, There haue no master: let them returne euery man to his house in peace.

17 And the king of Israel sayd to Jehoshaphat, Didst I not tell thee, that he would not prophesie good vnto me, but euill?

18 Again he said, Therefore heare ye the word of the Lord: I sawe the Lord sit vpon his throne, and all the host of heauen standing at his right hand and at his left.

19 And the Lord sayd, Altho shall I perswade Ahab king of Israel, that hee may goe vpp, and fall at Ramoth Gilead, yet one shall keepe him, and smite him, and that.

20 Then there came forth a lioun, and stood before the Lord, and said, I will perswade him. And the Lord said, Thou shalt be with him.

21 And he sayd, I will goe out, and be a false spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And hee sayd, Thou shalt perdwane, and shalt also perswade: goe forth and doe it.

22 Now therefore behold, the Lord hath put a false spirit in the mouth of these prophets, and the Lord hath determined to will against thee.

23 Then Michaiah the sonne of Chenaanah came neere, and smote Michaiah vnto the cheek, and sayd, For what may I see the spirit of the Lord from mee, to speak with thee?

24 And Michaiah sayd, Behold, thou shalt see that day, when thou shalt goe from chamber to chamber to lye there.

25 And the king of Israel sayd, Take ye Michaiah, and carie him to Azion the garnour of the cite, and to Iosabab the kings home.

26 And he, Thus sayeth the king, But this man in the prison house, and feede him with bread of affliction, and with water of affliction, untill I returne in peace.

27 And Michaiah sayd, If thou returne in peace, the Lord hath not spoken by mee. And hee sayd, Heare all ye people.

28 So the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat the king of Iudah went vpp to Ramoth Gilead.

29 And the king of Israel sayd vnto Jehoshaphat, I will change my selfe, and enter into the battell: but put thou on thine apparell. So the king of Israel changed himselfe, and they went into the battell.

30 And the king of Aram had commanded the captaines of the charers that were with him, saying, Fight you not with small nor great, but against the king of Israel onely.

31 And when the captaines of the charers sawe Jehoshaphat, they sayd, It is the king of Israel: and they compassed about him to fight. But Jehoshaphat cryed, and the Lord helped him, and mooued them to depresse from him.

32 For when the captaines of the charers sawe that he was not the king of Israel, they turned backe from him.

33 Then a certaine man diuine a bowe mightily, and smote the king of Israel betweene the ioynts: of the thigh: therefore he layd to his charer man, Turne thine hand, and carrie me out of the battell: for I am hurt.

34 And the battell increased that day, and the king of Israel stood still in his char against the Aramites: untill euen, and died at the time of the sunne going downe.

3. Wherefore, good things are found in thee, because thou hast taken away the grones out of the land, & hast prepared thine heart to seeke God.

4. So Iehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem, and returned and went & throve the people from Beer sheba to mount Ephraim, and brought them againe unto the Lord God of their fathers.

5. And he set Judges in the land throughout all the strong cities of Iudah, citie by citie.

8. Moreover, in Jerusalem did Iehoshaphat set of the Levites, and of the Priests, and of the chiefe of the families of Israel, for the iudgement and cause of the Lord: and they returned to Jerusalem.

9. And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye do in the feare of the Lord faithfully, and with a perfect heart.

10. And in every cause that shall come to you of your bretheren that dwell in their cities, betwene blood and blood, betwene law and precept, statutes and iudgements, ye shall iudge them, and admonish them that they trespass not against the Lord, that wrong come not upon you and upon your bretheren. Thus shall ye doe and trespass not.

5. And Iehoshaphat stood in the Congregation of Iudah and Jerusalem in the house of the Lord before the new court,

6. And said, O Lord God of our fathers, art not thou God in heaven? and reignest not throug all the kingdomes of the heathen: and in thine hand is power and might, and none is able to withstand thee.

7. Diddest not thou, our God, cast out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and gavest it to the seed of Abrahams thy friend for ever?

8. And they dwell therein, and have built thee a Sanctuary therein for thy Name, saying,

10. And now behold, the children of Ammon and Moab, and mount Seir, by whom thou wouldest not let Israel goe, when they came out of the land of Egypt: but they turned aside from them, and destroyed them not:

11. Behold, I say, they reward us, in coming to cast us out of thine inheritance, which thou hast caused us to inherit.

1 Declaring his faith and obedience to the world of the Lord, and giving thanks for the deliverance promised.

18 Then Jehoshaphat bowed down with his face to the earth, and all Iudah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before the Lord, worshipping the Lord.

19 And the Levites of the children of the Kohathites, and of the children of the Gershonites stood up to praise the Lord God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

20 And when they rose early in the morning, they went forth to the wilderness of Ephraim: and as they departed, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear ye me, O Iudah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem: put your trust in the Lord your God, and ye shall be assured: because his Prophets, and ye shall prosper.

21 And when he had consulted with the people, and appointed singers unto the Lord, and when they began to sing, he was in the beautiful Sanctuary, in going forth before the men of armies, and saying, Praise ye the Lord, for his mercy is for ever.

n This was a Psalm of thanksgiving which they used commonly to sing when they praised the Lord for his benefits, and was made by David, Psal. 136.

22 And when they began to shout and to praise, the Lord layed ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Iudah, and they slew one another.

o Meaning, the Idumeans, which dwelt in mount Seir.

23 For the children of Ammon, & Moab rose against the inhabitants of mount Seir, to slay and to destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to destroy another.

p Thus the Lord according to Jehoshaphat's prayer declared his power, when he delivered his, by causing their enemies to kill one another.

24 And when Iudah came toward Bethphage in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude: and behold, the earthen vessels were fallen to the earth, and none escaped.

25 And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoyle of them, they found among them in abundance both of substance, and also of bodies laden with precious jewels, which they took for themselves, till they could carry no more: they were three dayes in gathering of the spoyle: for it was much.

r He declareth hereby, that the works of God bring ever comfort or deliverance to his, and fear and destruction to his enemies.

26 And in the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Berachah: for there they blessed the Lord: therefore they called the name of that place, The valley of Berachah unto this day.

27 Then every man of Iudah and Jerusalem returned with Jehoshaphat their head, to go againe to Jerusalem with joy: for the Lord had made them to rejoice over their enemies.

28 And they came to Jerusalem with viols, and with harpes, and with trumpets, as unto the house of the Lord.

29 And the fear of God was upon all the kingdomes of the earth, when they had heard that the Lord had fought against the enemies of Israel.

30 So the kingdome of Jehoshaphat was quiet, and his God gave him rest on every side.

31 And Jehoshaphat reigned over Iudah, and was true and chaste yeere olde, when he began to reigne: and reigned five and twentie yeere in Jerusalem, and his mothers name was Athaliah the daughter of Achazib.

32 And he was in the way of his father, and departed not therefrom, that which was right in the sight of the Lord.

33 Doubtless the high places were not taken away: for the people had not repaired their hearts unto the God of their fathers.

34 Concerning the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat first and last, behold, they are written in the booke of Jehu the son of Hanani, which is mentioned in the booke of the kings of Israel.

35 And after this Jehoshaphat king of Iudah toyne himselfe with Achaziah king of Israel, who was given to doe evil.

36 And hee toyne with him to make ships to goe to Tarshish: and they made the ships in Ezion Gaber.

37 Then Eliezer the son of Dabshal of Beersheba prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because thou hast toyne with Achaziah, the Lord hath broken the works: and the ships were broken, that they were not able to goe to Tarshish.

Therefore when Athaliah the mother of Abashah sawe that her sonne was dead, she arose and destroyed all the Kings seede of the house of Judah.

But Jehoshaphat the daughter of the King, tooke Joash the sonne of Abashah, and kept him from among the Kings sonnes, that should be slaine, and put him and his nurse in the bed chamber: so Jehoshaphat the daughter of King Jehoram the wife of Jehoiada the Priest, for he was the sister of Abashah, hid him from Athaliah: so hee grew up.

And hee walked after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the sonne of Achaz king of Israel to fight against Hazael king of Sam at Ramoth Gilead: and the Aramites smote Ioram.

And he returned to be healed in Israel, because of the wounds wherewith they had wounded him at Ramah. When hee sought with Hazael king of Aram, from Hazael the sonne of Jehoram king of Judah went downe to see Jehoram the sonne of Achaz at Israel, because he was diseased.

And the destruction of Abashah came of God in that he went to Ioram: for when he was come, hee went forth with Jehoram against Iehu the sonne of Hanani, whom the Lord had anointed to destroy the house of Achaz.

Therefore when Iehu hercuted judgement upon the house of Achaz, and found the princes of Judah and the sonnes of the destruction of Abashah that stayed on Abashah, he slew them also.

And hee sought Abashah, and they caught him where he was hid in Samaria, and brought him to Iehu, and slew him, and buried him, because, sayn they, hee is the sonne of Jehoshaphat, which sought the Lord with all his heart. So the house of Abashah was not able to retrieve the house.

Therefore when Athaliah the mother of Abashah sawe that her sonne was dead, she arose and destroyed all the Kings seede of the house of Judah.

But Jehoshaphat the daughter of the King, tooke Joash the sonne of Abashah, and kept him from among the Kings sonnes, that should be slaine, and put him and his nurse in the bed chamber: so Jehoshaphat the daughter of King Jehoram the wife of Jehoiada the Priest, for he was the sister of Abashah, hid him from Athaliah: so hee grew up.

And hee was with them hidde in the house of God six yeeres, whiles Athaliah reigned ouer the land.

1. Joash the sonne of Abashah is made King. 2. Athaliah is put to death. 3. The Temple of Baal is destroyed. 4. Jehoiada appointeth ministers in the Temple.

And in the fourth yeere Jehoiada arrayed bold, and tooke the captaines of hundreders, to wit, Azariah the sonne of Jeroham, and Ishmael the sonne of Jehohanan, and Azariah the sonne of Obed, and Shaphan the sonne of Adaiab, and Elishaphat the sonne of Shurub in covenant with him.

And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chiefe fathers of Israel: and they came to Jerusalem.

And all the Congregation made a covenant with the King in the house of God:

the sonnes of David.

4 This is that ye shall doe. The third part of ye that come on the Sabbath of the Priest, and the Levites, shall be powers of the doores.

5 And another thirde part towarde the Kings house, and another thirde part at the gate of the foundation, and all the people shalbe in the courts of the house of the Lord.

6 But let none come into the house of the Lord save the Priestes, and the Levites that minister: they shall goe in, for they are holy dur all the people shal keepe the watch of the Lord.

7 And the Levites shall compasse the King round about, and every man with his weapon in his hand, and he that entereth in to the house shall bee slaine, and be you with the King, when he cometh in, and when he goeth out.

8 And the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the Priest had commanded, and tooke every man his men that came on the Sabbath, with the that went out on the Sabbath: for Jehoiada the Priest did not discharge the courtes.

9 And Jehoiada the Priest delivered to the captaines of hundredes, speeres, and shieldes, and bucklers which had bene Kings
Dauids, and were in the house of God.

10 And he caused all the people to stand (every man with his weapon in his hand) from the right side of the house, to the left side of the house by the altar: and by the house round about the King.

11 Then they brought out the Kings son, and put upon him the crowne, and gave him the testimonie, and made him King. And Jehoiada and his sonnes anointed him, and said, God save the King.

12 But when Abishah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, he came to the people into the house of the Lord.

13 And when he looked behold, the king stood by his pillar at the entering in, and the princes and the trumpets by the King, and all the people of the land rejoyced, and blew the trumpets, and the singers were with instruments of musike, and they that could sing psall: then Abishah rent her clothes, and sayd, Treason, treason.

14 Then Jehoiada the Priest brought out the captaines of hundredes that were governours of the hoste, & sayd unto them, Hear her fourth of the ranges, and be that followeth her, let him die by the sword:
for the Priest had said, Slay her not in the house of the Lord.

15 So they layd hands on her: and when she was come to the entering of the house gate
by the Kings house, they slew her there.

16 And Jehoiada made a covenant betweene him, and all the people, and the king, that they would be the Lords people.

17 And all the people went to the house of Baal, and destroyed it, and brake his altars and his images, and threw away them

the Priest of Baal before the altar.

18 And Jehoiada appointed officers of the house of the Lord, under the name of the Levites, and having many Dauids men distributed for the house of the Lord, to be brought offerings unto the Lord: as it is written in the law of Moses, when rejoycing singing by the appointment of Dauid.

19 And hee let passers by the gate of the house of the Lord, that none that was uncleane in any thing, should enter in.

20 And hee took the captaines of hundreds, and the noble men, and the governours of the people, and all the people of the land, and he caused the King to come out out of the house of the Lord, and they went through the big gate of the Kings house, and let the king upon the throne of the Kings dome.

21 Then all the people of the land rejoyced, and the cite was quiet: after that they had slain Abishah with the sword.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 The Lord repaired the house of the Lord:
after the death of Jehoiada hee fell in decay.

2 Hee flourisheth as a bush: Zecharias the Prophet is killed of his own servants.

3 Hee was slain seven years, when he began to reigne, and hee reigned fourteen years in Jerusalem, and his mothers name was the high of Beer-Sheba.

4 And Joash did uprightly in the sight of the Lord, all the dayes of Jehoiada the Priest.

5 And Jehoiada made him two wives, and hee begate lasses and daughters.

6 And afterwards it came into Joash minde to renow the house of the Lord.

7 And hee assembled the Priestes and the Levites, and sayd to them, Come out unto the cities of Judah, and gather of all Israel money to repaire the house of your God, seven years to peere, and haste the thing: but the Levites hastened not.

8 Therefore the King called Jehoiada the chief, and sayd unto him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and Jerusalem, the tithes of Singles the servant of the Lord, and of the Congregation of Israel, for the Tabernacle of the testimonie?

9 For I wicked Abishah, and her children brake by the house of God: and all the things that were dedicate for the house of the Lord, did they bestow upon Baalim.

10 Therefore the King commanded, and they made a chest, and let it at the gate of the house of the Lord without.

11 And they made proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring unto the Lord the tithes of Singles the servant of the Lord, layd upon Israel in the wilderness.

12 And all the princes and all the people rejoyced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had finished.

13 And when it was full, they brought the chest unto the Kings officers by the hande of the Levites: and when they saw that there was much silver, then the Kings

10 And the king and Jehoiada gave it to him as his labour and make in the house of the Lord, and hired workmen and carpenters to repair the house of the Lord: they gave also to workmen of iron and brass, to repair the house of the Lord.

11 And the workmen wrought, and the house was amended through their hands: and they restored the house of God to his state, and strengthened it.

12 And when they had finished it, they brought in the rest of the silver before the king and Jehoiada, and he made thereof vessels for the house of the Lord, even vessels to minister, both molten and beaten cups, and vessels of gold and of silver: and they offered burnt offerings in the house of the Lord continually all the days of Jehoiada.

13 But Jehoiada waxed old, and was full of days, and died. An hundred and thirty years old was he when he died.

14 And they buried him in the city of David with the Kings, because he had done good in Israel, and toward God and his house.

15 And after the death of Jehoiada, came the princes of Judah, and did recurrence to the king, and the king hearkened unto them.

16 And they left the house of the Lord: God of their Fathers served groves and images: and much came upon Judah and Jerusalem, because of this trespass.

17 And God sent prophets among them to bring them again to the Lord: and they made provocation among them, but they would not hear.

18 And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the sonne of Jehoiada the Priest, which stood above the people, and sayde unto them, Thus saith God, why transgredye ye the commandments of the Lord? surely ye shall not prosper: because ye have forsaken the Lord, he hath also forsaken you.

19 Then they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king, in the court of the house of the Lord.

20 Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his sonne. And when he died, he sayde, The Lord looke upon it, and require it.

21 And when the yeere was out, the house of Aham came up against him, & they came against Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoyle of them unto the king of Damascus.

22 And he bought the armie of Aham with a small company of men, yet the Lord brought a very great armie into their hand, because they had forsaken the Lord God of their fathers: and they gave sentence against Joash.

23 And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases) his owne servants conspired against him for the blood of the children of Jehoiada the Priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: & they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings.

24 And these are they that conspired against him, Jahaz the sonne of Shimon an Ammonite, and Jehozabab the sonne of Shimeith a Moabitess.

25 But his sonnes and the summe of the tax gathered by him, and the foundation of the house of God, behold, they are written in the story of the booke of the Kings. And Amaziah his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Amaziah putteth them to death which slew his father. 10 He sendeth backe them of Israel. 11 He cometh against the Edomites. 14 He falleth to idolatry. 17 And Joash King of Israel overthroweth Amaziah. 27 Hee is slaine by a conspuracie.

Amaziah was five and twenty yeere old, when he began to reigne, and he reigned nine and twenty yeere in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Jehoaddan, of Jerusalem.

2 And he did uprightly in the eyes of the Lord, but not with a perfect heart.

3 And when the kingdome was established unto him, he slew his servants that had slaine the king his father.

4 But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the Law, and in the booke of Moses, where the Lord commanded, saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his owne sinne.

5 And Amaziah assembled Judah, and made them captaines over thousands, and captaines over hundredes, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbred them from twenty yeere old & above, and founde among them three hundred thousand chosen men to goe forth to the warre, and to handle speare and bowell.

6 Hee hired also an hundred thousand Eubaitan men out of Israel for an hundred talents of silver.

7 But a man of God came to him, saying, O king, let not the armie of Israel goe with thee: for the Lord is not with Israel, neither with all the house of Ephraim.

8 If not, goe thou on, do it, make thy selfe strong to the battell, but God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath power to helpe, and to cast downe.

p That is, let vs erie the matter hand to hand: for he was offended, that the armie of the Israelites, whom he had in wages, and dismissed by the counsell of the Prophet, had destroyed certaine of the cities of Iudah. 2 King 14. 9.

of Israel: Then the man of God answered, The Lord is able to give thee more then this.

10 So Amaziah separated them, to wit, the armie that was come to him out of Ephraim, to returne to their place: wherefore their wrath was kindled greatly against Iudah, and they returned to their places with great anger.

11 Then Amaziah was encouraged, and led forth his people, and went to the salt valley, and smote of the children of Seir, ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand did the children of Iudah take alive, and caried them to the top of a rocke, and cast them downe from the top of the rocke, and they all burst to pieces.

13 But the men of the Gens, which Amaziah sent away, that they should not goe with his people to battell, fell vpon the cities of Iudah from Samaria vnto Berthogon, and smote three thousand of them, and tooke much spoile.

14 Now after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, hee bought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them vp to be his gods, and worshipped them, and burned incense vnto them.

15 Wherefore the Lord was wroth with Amaziah, and sent vnto him a Prophet, which said vnto him, Why hast thou sought the gods of the people, which were not able to deliuer their owne people out of thine hands?

16 And as he talked with him, he sayd vnto him, I haue thee made thee the kings counsellor: cease thou: why shouldest thou smite thee? And the Prophet ceased, but said, I know that God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not obeyed my counsell.

17 Then Amaziah king of Iudah tooke counsell, and sent to Joash the sonne of Jehoahaz, the sonne of Jehu king of Israel, saying, Come, let vs see one another in the face.

18 But Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Iudah, saying, The child that is in Lebanon, sent to the Cedar that is in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my sonne to wife: and the wilde beaust that was in Lebanon, went and trode downe the child.

19 Thou thinkest: loe, thou hast smitten Edom, and thine heart lifteth thee vp to brag: abide now at home: why dost thou prouoke to thine hurt, that thou shouldst fall, and Iudah with thee?

20 But Amaziah would not heare: for it was of God, that he might deliuer them into his hands, because they had sought the gods of Edom.

21 So Joash the king of Israel went by:

that the armie of the Israelites, whom he had in wages, and dismissed by the counsell of the Prophet, had destroyed certaine of the cities of Iudah. 2 King 14. 9.

and hee, and Amaziah king of Iudah, one another in the face at Berthogon, which is in Iudah.

22 And Iudah was put to the mort before Israel, and they slew thery man in tents.

23 But Joash the king of Israel tooke Amaziah king of Iudah, the sonne of Joash, the sonne of Jehoahaz, in Berthogon, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake downe the wall of Jerusalem, from the gate of Ephraim vnto the corner gate, four hundred cubites.

24 And hee tooke all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with: When Edom, and in the treasures of the kings house, and the children that were in bondage, and returned to Samaria.

25 And Amaziah the sonne of Joash king of Iudah liued after the death of Joash sonne of Jehoahaz king of Israel, thirtie yeere.

26 Concerning the rest of the acts of Amaziah first and last, are they not written in the booke of the kings of Iudah and Israel?

27 Now after the time that Amaziah was taken away from the Lord, they wrought treason against him in Jerusalem: and when he was fled to Lachish, they sent to Lachish after him, and slew him there.

28 And they brought him vpon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the cin of Iudah.

CHAP. XXVI.

1. Uzziah obeying the Lord, prospereth in his enterprises. 16 Hee waxeth proud and surfeits the Priests office. 19 The Lords plagaeth him. 20 The Priests drive him out of the Temple, and exclude him out of the Lords house. 21 His buriall, and his successor.

Then all the people of Iudah tooke Uzziah which was thirtie yeere old, and a Calde made him king in the stead of his father Amaziah.

2 Hee built a Church, and restored it to Iudah, after that the king had slept with his fathers.

3 Thirtie yeere old was Uzziah, when he began to reigne, and he reigned two and fittie yeere in Jerusalem, and his mothers name was Iecoliah of Jerusalem.

4 And hee did vngloughly in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his father Amaziah did.

5 And hee sought God in the dayes of Zachariah (which vnderstood the visions of God) and when as he soughte the Lord, God made him to prosper.

6 For he went forth and fought against the Philistines, and brake downe the wall of Gath, and the wall of Iadon, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities in Ashdod, and among the Philistines.

7 And God helped him against the Philistines, against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur baal and Hammunim.

8 And the Ammonites gaue gifts to Uzziah, and his name spread to the entering in of Egypt: for hee did most valiantly.

9. Wotouer

10. And hee built towres in Jerusalem, at the corner gates, and at the bulwark, and at the bulwark, and made them strong.

11. And hee built towres in the wilderness, and digged many cisterns: for he had sowed seed both in the valleys and plaines, in the mountains, and declivities of vines in the mountains; and in a Carmel: for hee loved husbandrie.

12. And hee had also an hoste of fighting men, that went out to warre by bands according to the count of the number under the hand of Isebel the scribe, and Baasiah the ruler, and under the hand of Ithanabab, one of the Kings captains.

13. The whole number of the chiefe of the families of the valiant men were two thousand and five hundred.

14. And under their hand was the armie for warre, three hundred and seven thousand, and five hundred, that fought valiantly to helpe the King against the enemy.

15. And Joatham prepared them chariots, and all the bowes, and shields, and speares, and helmets, and brigandines, and bowes, and arrows to sling.

16. He made also very artificiall engines in Jerusalem to be upon the towres and upon the corners, to shoot arrows, and great stones: and his name was Isebel sarre abazab, because God did helpe him marvellously, till he was mightie.

17. But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for hee transgressed against the Lord his God, and went into the Temple of the Lord to burne incense upon the Altar of incense.

18. And Azariah the Priest went in after him, and with him fourscore Priests of the Lord, valiant men.

19. And they withstood Azariah the king, and said unto him, "It perteineth not to thee, Azariah, to burne incense unto the Lord, but to the Priests, the sonnes of Aaron, that are consecrated for to offer incense: go forth of the Sanctuary: for thou hast transgressed, and thou shalt have none honour of the Lord God."

20. Then Azariah was wroth, and had incense in his hand to burne it: and while hee was wroth with the Priests, the leprosie tooke up in his forehead before the Priests in the house of the Lord beside the incense Altar.

21. And when Azariah the chiefe Priest with all the Priests looked upon him, behold, hee was leprous in his forehead, & they called him bald: so he departed thence: and hee was then compelled to goe out, because the Lord had smitten him.

22. And Azariah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt as a leper man house apart, because hee was cut off from the house of the Lord: and Joatham his sonne ruled over the Kings house, and iudged the people of the land.

23. Concerning the rest of the acts of Azariah, first and last, did Isaiah the Prophet prophesie of Amos wrote.

24. So Azariah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his father in the field of the buriall, which pertained to the Kings: for they said, Hee is a leper. And Joatham his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXVII.

1. Joatham reigned, and reigned much the Ammonites. 2. He reigned and death. 3. Abaz his sonne reigned in his stead.

Joatham was five and thentie yeere olde when he began to reigne, and reigned thirtene yeere in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Jerushah the daughter of Sadon.

2. And he did uprightly in the sight of the Lord according to all that his father Azariah did, save that hee entered not into the Temple of the Lord, and the people did yet corrupt their wayes.

3. Hee built the high gate of the house of the Lord, and hee built very much on the wall of the citie.

4. Moreover, hee built cities in the mountaynes of Iudah, and in the forests hee built palaces and towres.

5. And hee fought with the King of the children of Ammon, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same yeere an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheate, and ten thousand bushels of barley: this did the children of Ammon give him I say in the second yeere and the third.

6. So Joatham became mightie, because hee directed his way before the Lord his God.

7. Concerning the rest of the acts of Joatham, and all his warres and his wayes, loe, they are written in the booke of the Kings of Israel and Iudah.

8. He was five and thentie yeere olde when he began to reigne, and reigned thirtene yeere in Jerusalem.

9. And Joatham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the citie of Dauid: and Abaz his sonne reigned in his stead.

Abaz was thentie yeere olde when hee began to reigne, and reigned thirtene yeere in Jerusalem, and did not uprightly in the sight of the Lord, like Dauid his father.

2. But hee walked in the wayes of the Kings of Israel, and made even molten images for Baalim.

3. Moreover, hee burnt incense in the bulwark of Ben-hinnom, and burnt his sonnes with fire, after the abominations of the heathen whom the Lord had said out before the children of Israel.

4. Hee sacrificed also and burnt incense in the high places, and on hills, and under every greene tree.

5. Therefore the Lord his God deliuered him into the hand of the King of the Ammonites, and they smote him, and tooke of his, many prisoners, and brought them to Damascus: and her was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, which smote him with a great laughter.

6 For Rehah the sonne of Reimath slew in Iudah sixscore thousand in one day: all valiant men, because they had forsaken the Lord God of their fathers.

7 And Sichi a mighty man of Ephraim slew Obadiah the Kings sonne, and Azikah the gouernour of the house, and Elkanah the second after the king.

8 And the children of Israel took prisoners of their brethren, two hundred thousand of women, sonnes and daughters, and carried away much spoyle of them, and brought the spoyle to Samaria.

9 But there was a Prophet of the Lords, (whose name was Obed) and he went out before the hoste that came to Samaria, and said vnto them, Behold, because the Lord God of your fathers is wroth with Iudah, he hath delivered them into your hands, and yee haue slaine them in a rage, that reacheth vnto heauen.

10 And now my purpose is to keepe vnder the children of Iudah and Ierusalem, as seruants, and handmaides vnto you: but are not you such, that finnes are wroth you before the Lord your God?

11 Now therefore heare mee, and deliver the captiues againe, which yee haue taken prisoners of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the Lord is toward you.

12 Therefore certaine of the chiefe of the children of Ephraim, Asariah the sonne of Ichobanah, Berachiah the sonne of Bechiellemoth, and Iehizkiah the sonne of Ebalim, and Amalai the sonne of Hadlai, stood vp against them that came from the warre, 13 And said vnto them, Biting not in the captiues hither: for this shall be a sinne vpon vs against the Lord: yet intend to adde more to our finnes and to our trespass, though our trespass be great, and the fierce wrath of God is against Israel.

14 So the army left the captiues and the spoyle before the Princes and all the Congregation.

15 And the men that were named by name, rose vp and took the prisoners, and with the spoyle clothed all that were naked among them, and shayed them, and shodde them, and gaue them meate and gaue them drinke, and anoynted them and carried all that were feeble of them vpon asses, and brought them to Iericho the citie of Palme trees to their brethren: so they returned to Samaria.

16 At that time did king Ahaz send vnto the Kings of Assur to helpe him.

17 For the Domites came moreouer, and slew of Iudah, & carried away captiues.

18 The Philistines also invaded the citie in the lowe country, and towards the South of Iudah, and took Bechshemeth, and Alalon, and Gederoth & Chocho, with the villages thereof, and Linnah, with her villages, and Gime, with her villages: and they dwelt there.

19 For the Lord had humbled Iudah, because of Ahaz King of Israel: for he brought vengeance vpon Iudah & he grievously transgressed against the Lord.

20 And Tiglath Pileseer King of Assur came vnto him, who troubled him and did not strengthen him.

21 For Ahaz took a position out of the house of the Lord, and out of the Kings house, and of the Princes, and gaue vnto the King of Assur: yet it helped him not.

22 And in the time of his tribulation did he yet trespass more against the Lord, (this is king Ahaz)

23 For he sacrificed vnto the gods of Damascus, which plagued him, and he said, Because the gods of the Kings of Aram helped them, I will sacrifice vnto them, and they will helpe me: yet they were his ruin, and of all Israel.

24 And Ahaz gathered the vessels of the house of God, and brake the vessels of the house of God, and shut vp the doores of the house of the Lord, and made him altars in euery corner of Ierusalem.

25 And in euery citie of Iudah he made his places, to burn incense vnto other gods, and prouoked to anger the Lord God of his fathers.

26 Concerning the rest of his actes, and all his wayes first and last, behold, they are written in the booke of the Kings of Iudah and Israel.

27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the citie of Ierusalem, but brought him not vnto the sepulchres of the Kings of Israel: and Iehizkiah his sonne reigned in his stead.

3.5 Hezekiah repaired the Temple, and aduersified the Leuites of the corruption of Religion. 20 The Leuites: prepare the Temple. 20 The King and his princes sacrifice in the Temple. 25 The Leuites sing praises. 31 The oblation of the people.

Hezekiah began to reigne, when he was sixe and twentie yeere old, and reigned nine and twentie yeere in Ierusalem: and his mothers name was Abiah the daughter of Iechariah.

2 And he did wrightly in the sight of the Lord, according to all that David his father had done.

3 Wee opened the doores of the house of the Lord in the first yeere, and in the first moneth of his reigne, and repaired them.

4 And he brought in the Priests and the Leuites, and gathered them into the East streete.

5 And said vnto them, Heare me, ye Leuites: sanctifie now your selues, and sanctifie the house of the Lord God of your fathers, and carie forth the filth thereof out of the Sanctuary.

6 For our fathers haue trespassed, and done euill in the eyes of the Lord our God, and haue forsaken him, and turned away their faces from the Tabernacle of the Lord, and turned their backs.

7 They haue also shut the doores of the porch, and quenched the lampes, and haue neither burnt incense, nor offered burnt and offerings in the Sanctuaries unto the Lord.

9 ¶ Therefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Judah and Jerusalem; and he said unto them a wittering, a desolation, and an hilling, as you see with your eyes.

10 ¶ For, lo, our Fathers are fallen by the sword, and our sonnes, and our daughters, and our wives are in captivitie for the same cause.

11 ¶ Nowe: I purpose to make a covenant with the Lord God of Israel, that hee may remove away his fierce wrath from vs.

12 ¶ Nowe my sonnes, be not deceived: for the Lord hath chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and to be his ministers, and to burne incense.

13 ¶ Then the Levites arose, Shabath the sonne of Amasai, and Joel the sonne of Georah of the sonnes of the Kohathites: and also the sonnes of Merari, Kish the sonne of Abdi, and Gersiah the sonne of Iehalciel: and of the Gersonites, Joah the sonne of Zimmah, and Eden the sonne of Joah:

14 ¶ And of the sons of Elisaphan, Shumai, and Jehiel: and of the sonnes of Alaph, Zichariah, and Bantaniah:

15 ¶ And of the sonnes of Ieman, Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sonnes of Jeduthun, Shemarai, and Uzziel.

16 ¶ And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came according to the commandment of the king, and by the words of the Lord, for to cleanse the house of the Lord.

17 ¶ And the Priests went into the inner parts of the house of the Lord, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the Temple of the Lord, into the court of the house of the Lord, and the Levites took it, to carie it out unto the brooke Kidron.

18 ¶ They began the first day of the first month to sanctifie it, and the eight day of the month came they to the porch of the Lord: so they sanctified the house of the Lord in eight dayes, and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

19 ¶ Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and sayd, Alke have cleansed all the house of the Lord, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread table, with all the vessels there.

20 ¶ And all the vessels with king Ahaz had cast aside when hee reigned, and sanctified, have we prepared and sanctified: and behold, they are before the altar of the Lord.

21 ¶ And Hezekiah the king arose early, and gathered the Princes of the citie, and went up to the house of the Lord.

22 ¶ And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rammes, and seven lambs, and seven he goats, for a sinne offering for the king, house, and for the Sanctuary, and for Judah. And hee commanded the Priests the sonnes of Aaron, to offer these on the altar of the Lord.

23 ¶ And they slew the bullocks, and the Priests received the blood, and sprinkled it upon the altar: they slew also the rammes, and sprinkled the blood upon the altar, and they slew the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar.

24 ¶ Then they brought the hee goats for the sinne offering before the king, and the Congregation, and they layd their hands upon them.

25 ¶ And the Priests slew them, and with the blood of them they cleansed the altar to reconcile all Israel: for the king had commanded for all Israel the burnt offering and the sinne offering.

26 ¶ Hee appointed also the Levites in the house of the Lord with organes, with viols, and with harpes, according to the commandment of David, and hee the Kings Dore, and Sathan the Prophet: for the commandment was by the hande of the Lord, and by the hande of his Prophets.

27 ¶ And Hezekiah stode with the instruments of David, and the Priests with the trumpets.

28 ¶ And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the Altar: and when the burnt offering began, the song of the Lord became with the trumpets, and the instruments of David king of Israel.

29 ¶ And all the Congregation worshipped, singing a song, and they blew the trumpets: all this continued untill the burnt offering was finished.

30 ¶ And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were present with him, bowed themselves, and worshipped.

31 ¶ Then Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to passe the Lord with the words of David, and of Alaph the Seer: so they played with joy, and they bowed themselves and worshipped.

32 ¶ And Hezekiah spake, and sayde, Now ye have consecrated your selves to the Lord: come neere and bring the sacrifices and offerings of plays into the house of the Lord. And the Congregation brought sacrifices, and offerings of vespers, and every man that was willing in heart, offered burnt offerings.

33 ¶ And the number of the burnt offerings, which the congregation brought, was seaven rie bullocks, an hundred rammes, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the Lord.

34 ¶ And for sanctification hee brought bullocks, and three thousand sheepe.

35 ¶ But the Priests were too fewe, and were not able to slay all the burnt offerings: therefore their brethren the Levites did help them, till they had ended the worke, and untill other Priests were sanctified: for the Levites were more diligent in heart to sanctifie themselves, then the Priests.

36 ¶ And also the burnt offerings were many with the fat of the peace offerings, and the drink offerings of the burnt offering: so the service of the house of the Lord was set in order.

b Though they ought to haue done it in the first moneth, as Exodus 12. 18. Numb. 9. 3. yet, if any were not cleane, or els had a long iourney, they might deferre it vnto the second moneth, as Num. 9. 10. 11.

c From one ende of the land to the other, North and South. d In such sort and perfection as God had appointed. e He will haue compellion on them, and praeferre them.

f Submit your selues to the Lord, and rebell no more.

g God will not onely preface you, but through your repentance restore your brethren, which for their sinnes he gaue into the hands of the enemies.

h Though the wicked mocked the seruants of God, by whom he called them to repentance, as Gen. 19. 14. yet the word catcheth not to fructifie in the hearts of Gods elect.

i He sheweth the cause why some obey and some mocke at Gods calling, to wit, because his spirit is with some, and moueth their heart, and the other are left to themselves.

And Hezekiah sent to all Israel, and Iudah, and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the Lord at Jerusalem, to keepe the Passouer vnto the Lord God of Israel.

2 And the king and his princes, and all the Congregation had taken counsell in Jerusalem to keepe the Passouer in the second moneth.

3 For they coulde not keepe it at this time, because there were not Priests enow sanctified, neither was the people gathered to Jerusalem.

4 And the thing pleased the king, and all the Congregation.

5 And they decreed to make proclamation throughout all Israel from Beer-sheba euen to Dan, that they should come to keepe the Passouer vnto the Lord God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it of a great time, as it was written.

6 So the postes went with letters by the commission of the king and his princes, throughout all Israel and Iudah, and with the commandement of the king, saying, The children of Israel, turne againe vnto the Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will returne to the remnant that are escaped of you out of the hands of the kings of Asshur.

7 And be not ye like your fathers, a like your brethren, which trespassed against the Lord God of their fathers: and therefore he made them desolate as ye see.

8 Be not ye now stiffnecked like your fathers, but giue the hand to the Lord, and come into his Sanctuarie, which hee hath sanctified for euer, and serue the Lord your God, and the fiercenesse of his wrath shall turne away from you.

9 For if ye returne vnto the Lord, your brethren and your children shall finde mercie before him that led them captiues, and they shall returne vnto this land: for the Lord your God is gracious and mercifull, and wil not turne away his face from you, if ye conuert vnto him.

10 So the posts went from citie to citie throughout the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, euen vnto Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorne, and mocked them.

11 Nevertheless, diuers of Isser, and Manasseh, and of Zebulun submitted themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 And the hand of God was in Iudah, so that hee gaue them one heart to doe the commandement of the king, and of the rulers, according to the word of the Lord.

13 And there assembled to Jerusalem much people, to keepe the feast of the vnleavened bread in the second moneth, a very great assembly.

14 And they arose, and tooke away the altars that were in Jerusalem: and all those that incense tookes they away, and cast them into the brooke Kidron.

15 Afterward they slew the Passouer the fourteenth day of the second moneth: and the Priests and Levites were sanctified, and sanctified themselves, and brought the burnt offerings into the house of the Lord.

16 And they stood in their place after the manner, according to the Lawe of Moses the man of God: and the Priests spinkled the blood, received of the hands of the Levites.

17 Because there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified, therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the Passouer for all that were not cleane, to sanctifie it to the Lord.

18 For a multitude of the people, euen a multitude of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun had not sanctified themselves, yet did eate the Passouer: but as it was written: wherefore Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The Lord be mercifull towards him.

19 That preparer his whole heart to seeke the Lord God, the God of his fathers, though he be not cleane, according to the purification of the Sanctuarie.

20 And the Lord heard Hezekiah, and healed the people.

21 And the children of Israel that were present at Jerusalem, kept the feast of the vnleavened bread seven dayes with great ioy, and the Levites, and the Priests praised the Lord day by day, singing with loud instruments vnto the Lord.

22 And Hezekiah spake comfortably vnto all the Levites that had good knowledge vnto the Lord: and they did eate in that feast seven dayes, and offered peace offerings, and praised the Lord God of their fathers.

23 And the whole assembly tooke counsell to keepe it other seuen dayes. So they kept it seuen dayes with ioy.

24 For Hezekiah king of Iudah had giuen to the Congregation a thousand bullocks, and seuen thousand sheepe. And the princes had giuen to the Congregation a thousand bullocks, and ten thousand sheepe: and many Priests were sanctified.

25 And all the Congregation of Isser reioyced with the Priests and the Levites, and all the Congregation that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Iudah.

26 So there was great ioy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Salomon the sonne of Dauid king of Israel, there was not the like thing in Jerusalem.

27 Then the Priests and the Levites arose, and blessed the people, and their voyce was heard, and their prayer came up vnto Heauen, to his holy habitation.

Manasse was twelve years old, when he began to reign, and he reigned five and thirty years in Jerusalem:

3 And he did evil in the sight of the Lord, like the abominations of the heathen, "in whom the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel."

3. For he went back and built the high places, which Jehuiah his father had broken down: and he set up altars for Baalim, and made groves, and worshipped all the host of the heaven, and served them.

4. And he built altars in the house of the Lord, whereof the Lord had said, "In Jerusalem shall my Name be for ever."

5 And hee built altars for all the hoste of the heauen in the two courtes of the house of the Lord.

6. And hee caused his sonnes to passe throu the fire in the valley of Ben-hin-nom: hee gave himselfe to witchcraft, and to charming, and to sorcerie, and hee vied them that had familiar Spirits, and soothsayers:
he did verie much evil in the sight of the Lord to anger him.

7 We put also the carved image, which he had made, in the house of God: whereof God had said to Dauid, & to Salomon his sonne, In this house and in Ierusalem, whiche I haue chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my Name for ever.

8 Father will I make the force of I will to remove any stone out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers.
 that they take heed, and do all that I have commanded them, according to the Law and Statutes and Judgements by the hands of Moses.

9 So Banasiff made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to erre, and to howl most then the heathen, whom the Lord hath destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 ¶ And the Lord spake * to Achan and to his people, but they would not respond.

11 Therefore the Lord brought upon them the captaines of the hostes of the king of Assur, which tooke Sennacherib, and put him in fetters, and bound him in chaines, and carried him to Babel.

12 And when hee was in tribulation, he prayed to the Lord his God, a humble & bitulerie prayer before the God of his fathers:

13 And prayed unto him: and God was entreated of him, and heard his prayer, and brought him againe to Ierusalem into his kingdome: then Manasse knew that the Lord was God.

14. Now after this hee built a wall without the cite of David, on the east side of Sion in the valley, even at the entris of the fish gate, and compassed about Typhel, and called it very high, and put captaines of warre in all the strong cities of Judah.

15 And hee tooke away the strange gods and the images out of the house of the Lord, and all the altars that hee had built in the mount of the house of the Lord, and in Jerusalem: and cast them out of the citie.

16 And hee prepared the 1 altar of the Loyd, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings, and of thankes, and commanded Judah to serve the Lord God of Israel.

17 Nevertheless, the people did sacrifice still in the high places, but unto the Lord their God.

18 ¶ Concerning the rest of the actes of Mannabek, and his prayer vnto his God, and the words of the sheers, that spake to him in the Name of the Lord God of Israel, behold, they are written in the booke of the kinges of Israel.

19 And his prayer, and how God was in-treated of him, and all his shame, and his res-pails, and the places wherein he built high places, and let groves and images (before he was humble) behold, they are written in the book of the Iſaiah.

20. So Daniel slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house, and Amon his sonne reigned in his stead.

21. ¶ Amon was two and twentie yeere olde when hee began to reigne, and reigned two yeere in Ierusalem.

22 But her did enill in the sight of the Lord, as did Danaiell his father: for Among sacrificed to al the images, which Danaiell his father had made, and served them.

23 And hee humbled not himselfe before the Lord, as Manasseh his father had humbled himselfe; but the Ammonites trespassed more and more.

24. And his servants *conspired against him, and slew him in his owne house.

25 But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon: and the people of the land made Josiah his sonne king in his stead.

(when hee was yet a child) hee began to seeke after the God of David his father, and in the twelfth yeere he began to purge Iudah and Ierusalem from the high places and the grooves, and the carved images, and molten images.

4 And they brake downe in his sight the altars of Baalim, and hee caused to cut downe the images that were on high upon them: he brake also the grooves, and the carved images, and the molten images, and stamped them to powder, and strowed it upon the graves of them that had sacrificed unto them.

5 Also he burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and purged Iudah and Ierusalem.

6 And in the cities of Manasse, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Iaphath, with their manles they brake all round about.

7 And when he had destroyed the altars and the grooves, and had broken and stamped to powder the images, he cut downe all the idoles throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Ierusalem.

8 ¶ Then in the eighteenth yeere of his reigne when hee had purged the Land and the Temple, hee sent Shaphan the sonne of Azaliah, and Shasiah the Sonnetour of the cite, and Ioshah the sonne of Joahaz the Recorder, to repaire the house of the Lord his God.

9 And when they came to Iuliah the high Priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doore had gathered at the hand of Manasse, and Ephraim, and of all the residue of Israel, and of all Iudah and Benjamin, and of the inhabitants of Ierusalem.

10 And they put it in the hands of them that should doe the worke, and had the oversight in the house of the Lord: and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the Lord, to repaire and amend the house.

11 Then to the workmen and to the builders gave they it, to buy hewed stone and timber for couples and for beames of the houses, which the kings of Iudah had destroyed.

12 And the men did the worke faithfully, and the overseers of them were Iahath and Obadiah the Levites, of the children of Merari, and Zechariah, and Sheshullam, of the children of the Kohathites to let it forward: and of the Levites all that could skill of instruments of musike.

13 And they were out the bearers of burdens, and they that let forward all the workmen in every worke: and of the Levites were scribes, and officers and porters.

14 ¶ And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the Lord, Iuliah the Priest found the booke of the Law of the Lord given by the hand of Moses.

15 Therefore Iuliah answered, and said to Shaphan the chancelour, I have found the booke of the Lawe in the house of the Lord, and Iuliah gave the booke to Shaphan.

16 And Shaphan carried the booke to the king: and brought the king to see the same, saying, All that is committed to the charge of the Levites, that doe they.

17 For they have gathered the money that was found in the house of the Lord, and have delivered it into the hands of the overseers, and to the hands of the workmen.

18 Also Shaphan the chanceler declared to the king, saying, Iuliah the Priest hath given me a booke: and Shaphan read it before the king.

19 And when the king had heard the words of the Law, hee tare his clothes.

20 And the king commanded Iuliah and Aikam the sonne of Shaphan, and Abdon the sonne of Micah, and Shaphan the chancelour, and Aialah the kings servant, saying,

21 Go and enquire of the Lord for me, and for the rest in Iudah and Iudah, concerning the words of this booke that is found: in great is the wrath of the Lord that is fallen upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the Lord, to doe after all that is written in this booke.

22 Then Iuliah and they that the king had appointed, went to Iuliah the Prophet: the wife of Shallum, the sonne of Hotham, the sonne of Iahath keeper of the wardrobe (and the Priest in Ierusalem within the college) and they communed with her.

23 And she answered them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Call ye the man that sent you to me.

24 Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are written in the booke which they brought before the king of Iudah:

25 Because they have forsaken mee, and burnt incense unto other gods, to anger mee with all the worke of their hands, therefore shall my wrath fall upon this place, and shall not be quenched.

26 But to the king of Iudah: who sent you to enquire of the Lord, he shall yet say to him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, The words which thou hast heard, shall come to passe.

27 Now because thine heart did not melt, and thou didst humble thy selfe before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, I will blot thee off before mee, and raze thy clothes, and wept before me, I have heard it, saith the Lord.

28 Behold, I will gather thee to the fathers, and thou shalt bee put in thy grave in peace, and thine eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. ¶ Thus they brought the king word againe.

29 ¶ Then the king sent and gathered all the Elders of Iudah and Ierusalem.

30 And the king went up into the house of the Lord, and all the men of Iudah, and the inhabitants of Ierusalem: and the 24 So his servants took him out of that charer, and put him in the second charer which he had, and when they had brought him to Jerusalem, he died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his fathers: and all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Iofiah.

25 And Jeremiah lamented Iofiah, and all singing men and singing women mourned for Iofiah in their lamentations to this day, and made the same for an ordinance to the Israel: and befores, they are written in the Lamentations.

26 Concerning the rest of the acts of Iofiah and his goodnes, doing as it was written in the Law of the Lord.

27 And his deedes, first and last, befores, they are written in the booke of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 After Iofiah reigned Jehoahaz. 2 After Jehoahaz Iehoiakim. 3 After him Jehoahaz. 4 After him Zedekiah, 12. 17 on whose time all the people were carried away to Babel, for continuing the admonitions of the Prophets, 21 and were restored againe the seventeenth yeere after by King Cyrus.

Then the people of the land took Iehoiakim the sonne of Iofiah, and made him king in his fathers stead in Jerusalem.

2 Jehoahaz was three and twenty yeere old when he began to reigne, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

3 And the king of Egypt took him away at Jerusalem, and condemned the land in an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold.

4 And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and turned his name to Iehoiakim: and Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

5 Iehoiakim was three and twenty yeere old when he began to reigne, and he reigned eleven yeere in Jerusalem, and did euill in the sight of the Lord his God.

6 Against him came up Nebuchad nezzar king of Babel, and bound him with chaines to carie him to Babel.

7 Nebuchad nezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the Lord to Babel, and put them in his Temple at Babel.

8 Concerning the rest of the acts of Iehoiakim, and his abominations which hee did, and that which was found upon him, befores, they are written in the booke of the kings of Israel and Judah: and Iehoiakim his sonne reigned in his stead.

9 Iehoiachin was eight yeere old when he began his reigne, & he reigned three months and ten dayes in Jerusalem, and did euill in the sight of the Lord.

10 And when the yeere was out, King Nebuchad nezzar sent and brought him to Babel with the precious vessels of the house of the Lord, and he made Iehoiachin king of Judah and Jerusalem.

11 Iehoiachin was one and twenty yeere old when he began to reigne, and reigned eleven yeere in Jerusalem.

12 And hee was euill in the sight of the Lord his God, and his sinnes were found out: for the Lord stirred up the spirit of Zedekiah king of Iudah, and said by the mouth of the Lord, saying,

13 But Iehoiachin thought against Nebuchad nezzar, which had carried him to Iudah by God: and hee hardened his heart, and made his heart obstinate that hee would not returne to the Lord God of Israel.

14 All the chief of the priests also, and of the people compassed about Iehoiachin, saying to all the abominations of the heathen, and polluted the house of the Lord which hee had sanctified in Jerusalem.

15 Therefore the Lord God of Israel sent to them a by his messengers, saying early and sending: for he had compassion on his people, and on his habitation.

16 But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his wordes, and ruled his Prophets, until the wrath of the Lord was kindled against his people, and till there was no remede.

17 For hee broughte vpon them the King of the Caldeans, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and spared neither young man, nor virgin, ancient, nor aged: God gave all in to his hand.

18 And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the King, and of his princes: all these caried he to Babel.

19 And they burnt the house of God, and brake downe the wall of Jerusalem, and burned all the palaces thereof with fire, and of the precious vessels thereof to destroy all.

20 And they that were left by the sword, caried he away to Babel, and they were servants to him and to his sonnes, until the kingdomes of the Babelians had rule.

21 To fulfill the word of the Lord by the mouth of Ieremias, until the tyme had full of her Sabbaths: for all the dayes that she lay desolate, she kept Sabbath, to fulfill the word of the Lord.

22 But in the first yeere of Cyrus king of Persia, when the word of the Lord was spoken by the mouth of Ieremias, was fulfilled the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, and hee made a proclamation, saying, Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdomes of the earth hath the Lord God of heaven given me, and hee hath commanded me to build him an house in Jerusalem, that is in Iudah. Who is among you of all his people, with whom the Lord his God is, let him goe by.

23 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdomes of the earth hath the Lord God of heaven given me, and hee hath commanded me to build him an house in Jerusalem, that is in Iudah. Who is among you of all his people, with whom the Lord his God is, let him goe by.

24 God had so forewarned by his Prophets at one time before Cyrus was borne, 14. 44. 38. that Jerusalem should be built againe by Cyrus his anointed: so called him his sonne for a time to deliuer his Church.

m The people so much lamented the losse of this good King, that after when there was any great lamentation, it was spoken of as a proverbe, read Zechariah 12. 10. n Which some thinke Ieremie made; wherein hee lamenteth the state of the Church after this kings death.

3. King. 23. 30.

a For three months after the death of Iofiah, came Necho to Jerusalem, and so the plagues began, which Huldah, and the Prophets forewarned should come vpon Jerusalem. b To pay this as a yearly tribute.

c Because he and the people turned not to God by his first plague, hee brought a new vpon him, and at length rooted them out.

2. King. 24. 13. d Hee meant superstitious markes, which were found vpon his body when hee was dead, which thing declared how deeply idolatry was rooted in his heart, seeing hee bare the markes in his flesh.

e That is, hee began his reigne at eight yeere old, and reigned ten yeeres when his father was alive, and after his fathers death, which was the eighteenth yeere of his age, hee reigned alone three months and ten dayes.

The prayer of Manasseh king of the Jewes.

Manasseh king, God of our fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and of their righteous seed, which hast made heaven and earth with all their ornament, which hast bound the sea by the word of thy commandment, which hast shut up the deep, and sealed it by thy terrible and glorious flame, whom all do feare, and tremble before thy power: for the majesty of thy glory cannot be borne, and thine angry threatening toward sinners is unrepentable: but thy mercifull promise to unrighteous and uncharitable sinners is for ever. For thou art the most high Lord, of great compassion, long suffering, and most mercifull, and repentest for mans miseries. Thou O Lord, according to thy great goodness hast promised repentance and forgiveness to them that turne againe unto thee, and for thine infinite mercies hast appointed repentance unto sinners that they may be saved. Thou therefore O Lord, that art the God of the mit, hast not appointed repentance to the heathen, and Isaac, which have not sinned against thee, but thou hast appointed repentance unto me, that am a sinner: for I have sinned about the number of thy mercies O Lord, are multiplied: my transgressions are exceeding many; and I am not worthy to behold and see the heavens, for the multitude of mine iniquities. I am bowed downe with many woe bands, that I cannot lift up mine head, neither have any release. For I have provoked thy wrath, and by disobedience, and have multiplied offences. Now therefore I bow the knee of mine heart, beseeching thee of grace. I have sinned, O Lord, I have sinned, and I acknowledge my transgressions: but I humbly beseech thee, forgive me, O Lord, forgive me, and be mercifull unto me with my transgressions. Be not angry with me for ever by returning euill for euill, neither condemn me into the lower parts of the earth: For thou art the God, even thou God of Israel, thy servants were in me thou wilt shew all thy goodness: for thou wilt save me that am unworthy, according to thy great mercy: therefore I will praise thee for ever all the dayes of my life. For all the power of the heavens praise thee, and bring in the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

a Thou hast promised that repentance shall be the way for them to returne to thee.
b He speaketh this in comparison of himselfe, and those holy fathers which have their commendation in the Scriptures, so that in respect of himselfe he calleth their finnes nothing, but attributeth unto them righteousness.

Ezra.

THE ARGUMENT.

1. The Jewes are brought into the Church, and doeth not punish them, but to the intent they should see their owne misery, and by exercised vnder the cross, that they might contemne the world, and aspire unto the heavens: so after that he had stirred the Jewes, and kept them now in bondage twenty years in a strange country, among infidels and idolaters, he remembered his tender mercies and their infirmities: and therefore for his owne sake raised them up a deliverer, and moved both the heart of the chiefe ruler to pitee them, and also by him punished such, which had kept them in bondage. Notwithstanding, lest they should grow into a contempt of Gods great benefite, he kept them still in exercise, and raised domesticall enemies, which industrious as much as they can to hinder their most worthy enterprises: yet by the exhortation of the Prophets they went forward by life and laboure till their worke was finished. The author of this booke was Ezra, who was Priest and Scribe of the Law, Chap. 7. Hee returned to Ierusalem the sixt yeere of Darius, who succeeded Cyrus, that is, about fiftie yeeres after the returne of the first vnder Zerubbabel, when the Temple was built. Hee brought with him a great companie, and much treasures, with letters to the kings officers for all such things should be necessarie for the Temple: and at his coming hee reposed that which was amiss, and in things in good order.

CHAP. I.

1 Cyrus sendeth against the people that was in captivity, and reuoketh them their holy vessels.

NOW in the first yeere of Cyrus king of Persia (that the word of the Lord, spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah, might be accomplished) the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, and he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also thus saying, saying,
2 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The Lord God of heaven hath given me at the kingdome of the earth, and hee hath commanded me to build him an house in Ierusalem, which is in Iudah.

3 Altho he be among you of all his people with whom hee hath God: let him goe up to Ierusalem, which is in Iudah, and build the house of the Lord God of Israel: hee to the God which is in Ierusalem.

4 And every one that remaineth in any place (where hee soever hee is) let the men of his place reuel unto him with silver, and with golde, and with substance, and with cattle, and with a willing offering, for the house of God that is in Ierusalem.

5 When the chiefe fathers of Iudah and Benjamin, and the Priests and Leuites rose up, with all them whose spirit God had raised to goe up to build the house of the Lord which is in Ierusalem.

e If any through poverty were not able to returne, the kings commission was that he should be furnished with necessities, f Which they themselves should send toward the reparation of the Temple.

6 And

For he was chiefe monarch, and had power under his dominion, which this heauen king conferred on the living God.

g The Babylonians and the Caldeans gave them these presents: thus rather than the children of God should want for their necessities, he would stir up the heart of the very infidels to help them.

1. When the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in their cities, the people assembled themselves as one man into Jerusalem.

2. Then stood up Jehuza the sonne of Josadak, and his brethren the Priests, and Serubbabel the sonne of Shebaniel, and his brethren, and builded the Altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the Lawe of Moses, the man of God.

3. And they set the Altar upon his bases (for there was among them, because of the people of those countreys) therefore they offered burnt offerings thereon unto the Lord, even burnt offerings in the morning, and at even.

4. They kept also the feast of the Tabernacles, as it is written, and the burnt offering daily by number according to the custome day by day.

5. And afterward the continuall burnt offering both in the new moneths and in all the feast daies that were consecrate unto the Lord, and in all the oblations willingly offered unto the Lord.

6. From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings unto the Lord: but the foundation of the Temple of the Lord was not layd.

7. They gave money also unto the masons, and to the workemen, and meate and drinke and oyle unto them of Sion and of Tyne to bring them Cedar wood from Libanus unto the sea unto Japho, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus King of Persia.

8. And in the second yeere of their coming unto the house of God in Jerusalem in the second month began Serubbabel the sonne of Shebaniel, and Jehuza the sonne of Josadak, and the remnant of their brethren the Priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem, and appointed the Levites from twenty yeere olde and above, to set forward the worke of the house of the Lord.

9. And Jehuza stood with his sonnes and his brethren, and Kadmiel with his sonnes, and the sonnes of Judah together to set forward the workemen of the house of God, and the sonnes of Ikenadad with their sonnes, and their brethren the Levites.

10. And when the builders layd the foundation of the Temple of the Lord, they appointed the Priests in their apparell with trumpets, and the Levites the sonnes of Asaph with Cymbals, to praise the Lord, after the ordinance of David King of Israel.

11. Thus they sang when they gave praise and when they gave thanks unto the Lord, for he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the Lord, because the foundation of the house of the Lord was layd.

2 The building of this Temple is hindered, and how. 11 Letters to Artaxerxes, & the answers.

BUt the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard, that the children of the captivity builded the Temple unto the Lord God of Israel.

2 And they came to Zerubbabel, & to the chief fathers, and said unto them, We will build with you: for wee seeke the Lord your God, as ye doe, and we have sacrificed unto him, since the time of Ahasuerus king of Assyria, which brought us up hither.

3 Then Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief fathers of Israel, sayd unto them, It is not for you, but for vs to builde the house unto our God: for we our selves together will build it unto the Lord God of Israel, as King Cyrus the King of Persia hath commanded vs.

4 Wherefore the people of the land discouraged the people of Judah, and troubled them in building.

5 And they hired counsellors against them, to hinder their device, all the dayes of Cyrus king of Persia, even untill the reigne of Darius King of Persia.

6 And in the reigne of Ahasuerus (in the beginning of his reigne) wrote they an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

7 And in the daies of Artahastate, Dithersab, Tadel, & the rest of their companions wrote when it was peace, unto Artahastate King of Persia, and the writing of the letter was the Aramites writing, and the thing declared was in the language of the Aramites.

8 Rehums the Chancellor, and Shimthai the Scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artahastate the King, in this sort.

9 Then wrote Rehums the Chancellor, and Shimthai the Scribe, and their companions, Dinae, and Appharhate, Carpele, Appharate, Archeate, Babelae, Shushanchae, Dehaue, Chimaie.

10 And the rest of the people whom the great and noble Anappar brought over and set in the cities of Samaria, and other that are beyond the River and Chemeth.

11 This is the copy of the letter that they sent unto King Artahastate, THE SERVANTS the men beyonde the River and Chemeth, salute thee.

g Some thinke it was Sareherib, but rather Salmanasar. h To wit, Euphrates, and he meaneth in respect of Babel that they dwell beyond it. i Which were a certaine people that envied the Jewes.

12 Be it knowne unto the King, that the Jewes which came up from the Captivity, are come unto Jerusalem: & they rebelled, and builded and builded, and lay the foundations of the walles, and have joynd the foundations.

13 Be it knowne now unto the King, that if this cite be builded, and the foundations of the walles layd, they will not give toll, tribute, nor custome: so that thou hinderest the Kings revenue.

14 Now therefore because thou hast bene brought up in the Kings palace, it was not meete for vs to see the Kings dishonour: for this cause have wee sent and certified the King.

15 That one may search in the booke of the Chronicles of the fathers, and thou shalt finde in the booke of the Chronicles, and perceive that this city is rebellious and sometime unto Kings and provinces, and that they have moued sedition of old time, for the which cause this city was destroyed.

16 We certifye the King therefore, that if this cite be builded, and the foundation of the walles layd, by this means the portion beyond the River shall not be thine.

17 The King sent an answer unto Rehums the Chancellor, and Shimthai the Scribe, and to the rest of their companions that dwell in Samaria, and unto the other beyonde the River, Belsham, and Chemeth.

18 The letter to which ye sent unto vs, hath bene openly read before me.

19 And I have commaunded, that this city of olde time hath made inurrection against Kings, and hath rebelled, and rebellion hath bene committed therein.

20 There have bene mightie Kings also ouer Jerusalem, which have ruled ouer all beyond the River, and toll, tribute, and custome was giuen unto them.

21 Make ye now a decree that those men may cease, and that the cite be not builded, till I have giuen another commandement.

22 Take heede now that ye cease not to doe this: why should damage growe to hurt the King?

23 When the copy of King Artahastates letter was read before Rehums & Shimthai the Scribe, and their companions, they went up in all the haste to Jerusalem unto the Jewes, and caused them to cease by force and power.

24 Then ceased the worke of the house of God, which was in Jerusalem, and did stay unto the second yeere of Darius king of Persia.

C H A P. V.

1 Haggai and Zachariah do prophesie. 3 The worke of the Temple goeth forward contrary to the mind of Tattenai. 6 He letter to Darius.

THEN Haggai a Prophet, and Zachariah the sonne of Iada a Prophet, prophesied unto the Jewes that were in Judah, and Jerusalem, in the Name of the God of Israel, even unto them.

2 Then Zerubbabel the sonne of Shechiel, and Jeshua the sonne of Josadak arose, and began to build the house of God at Jerusalem, & with them were the prophets also, which helped them.

10 And the same thing came to their Captaine, which was captaine beyond the river, and whether Borsai and their companions, and they thus vnto them, vnto hath given you commandment to build this house, and to lay the foundation of these walles?

11 Then sayd they vnto them after this manner, what are the names of the men that build this building?

12 But the voice of their God was vpon the Elders of the Jewes, that they could not cease them to cease, till the matter came to Darius: and then they answered by letters thereto.

13 The copie of the letter, that Carnai captaine beyond the River, and whether Borsai and his companions, Appharcebaie, (which were beyond the River) sent vnto king Darius.

14 They sent a letter vnto him wherein it was written thus, VNTO DARIUS the king all peace.

15 It is knowne vnto the king, that we sent vnto the Rountine of Indica, to the house of the great & D.D., which is builden with great stones, and brames are laid in the walls, and this worke is wrought wondrously, and prospereth in their hands.

16 Then asked we those Elders, and said vnto them thus, vnto hath given you commandment to build this house, and to lay the foundation of these walles?

17 They answered thus, vnto that we might tell thee, vnto that we might write the names of the men that were their rulers.

18 But they answered vs thus, and sayd, We are the seruants of the God of heauen and earth, and builde the house that was built of olde, and many yeres agoe, which a great king of Israel* builded, and founded it.

19 But after that our fathers had prouoked the God of heauen vnto wrath, he gaue them ouer into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babel the Caldean, and he destroyed this house, and caried the people away captiue vnto Babel.

20 But in the first yere of Cyrus king of Babel, king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God.

21 And the vessels of golde and siluer of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the Temple that was in Jerusalem and broughte them into the Temple of Babel, those did Cyrus the king take out of the Temple of Babel, and they gaue them vnto one, whether Borsai by his name, whom he made captaine.

22 And he said vnto him, Take these vessels go thy way, and put them in the Temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be built in his place.

23 Then came the same whether Borsai, and layde the foundation of the house of God, which is in Jerusalem, and since that time euen vntill now, hath it bene in building, yet is it not finished.

24 Now therefore if it please the king, let there bee search made in the house of writings at Jerusalem, which is there in Babel, whether a decree hath bene made by king Cyrus, to build this house of God in Jerusalem, and let the king send his minde concerning this.

CHAP. vi.

25 After commandment of Darius king of Persia, after the Temple was builded and dedicate, the children of Israel keepe the feast of vnleavened bread.

26 Then king Darius gaue commandment, and they made search in the library of the treasuries, which were there layde by in Babel.

27 And there was found in a coffer (in the place that was in the prouince of the Medes) a volume, and therein was it thus written: a memoriall.

28 IN THE FIRST yere of King Cyrus, King Cyrus made a decree for the house of God in Jerusalem. Let the house be builded in the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the walles thereof be tyned together: let the height thereof be threescore cubites, and the breadth thereof threescore cubites.

29 Three orders of great stones, and one order of timber, and let the expences be given of the Kings house.

30 And also let them render the vessels of the house of God (of golde and siluer, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the Temple which was in Jerusalem, and brought vnto Babel) and let him* goe vnto the Temple that is in Jerusalem to his place, & put them in the house of God.

31 Therefore Carnai captaine beyond the river, and whether Borsai, (and their companions Appharcebaie, which are beyond the river) be ye farrer* from thence.

32 Suffer ye the worke of this house of God, that the captaine of the Jewes and the Elders of the Jewes may builde this house of God in his place.

33 For I haue given a commandment what ye shall do to y Elders of these Jewes for the building of this house of God, that of the reuenues of the king, which is of the tribute beyond the river, there be incontinently expences given vnto these men that they* cease not.

34 And that which they shall haue neede of, let it bee given vnto them day by day, whether it be young bullockes, or calves, or lambs for the burnt offerings of the God of heauen, wheate, salt, wine and oyle, according to the appointment of the Priests that are in Jerusalem, that there bee no fault.

35 That they may haue to offer sweete odours vnto the God of heauen, and pray for the kings life, and for his houses.

36 And I haue made a decree, that no foener shall alter this sentence, the wood shall be pulled downe from his house, and shall be set vp, and hee shall bee hanged thereon, which was upon him.

7 And there went by certaine of the children of Israel, and of the Builders, and the Levites, and the singers, & the porters, and the Sathenims into Ierusalem, in the seventh yeere of king Artabanthe.

8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fourth moneth, which was in the seventh year of the King.

9. For upon the first day of the first moneth began he to go vp from Babel, and on the first day of the last moneth came he to Ierusalem, according to the good hande of his God that was vpon him.

IO For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the Law of the Lord, and to do it, and to teach the precepts and judgements in the Law.

II ¶ And this is the copie of the letter that king Artabastus gave unto Tyrus the Priest and scribe, even a writer of the words of the commandements of the Lord, and of his statutes over Israel.

12 ARTAHSHASHTB king of kings to Eyrā the Priest and perfite Scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, and to Cher-meth.

13 I have given commandment, that every one that is willing in my kingdom of the people of Israel, and of the Priests and Levites to goe to Jerusalem with thee, shall go.

14 Therefore art thou Oud of the king and his seven counsellors, to<sup>h</sup> enquire in Tynah and Jerusalem, according to the Law of the God, which is<sup>i</sup> in thine hand.

15 And so cards the silver and the gold, which the king and his counsellors willingly offer unto the God of Israel (whose habitation is in Jerusalem)

16 And all the silver and golde that thou canst finde in all the prouince of Babel, with the free offering of the people, and what which the Princes offer willingly to the house of their God which is in Jerusa-

17 That thou mayest buy speedily with his silver, bullocks, rammes, lambs, with their meate offerings, and their drinke offerings: and thou shalt offer them upon the altar of the house of your God, which is in Jerusalem.

18 And whatsoever it pleaseth thee and thy brethren to do with the rest of the silver and gold, doe ye it according to the will of our Lord.

19 And the vessels that are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, those bring thou before God in Jerusalem.

20 And the residue that shall bee needfull for the house of thy God, which shall be met thee to bestow, thou shalt bestow it out of the kings treasure house.

21 And I king Artabashata have given commandment to all the traders which are by the River, that whatsoever shall be the will and desire of the Law of the Lord of heaven shall require of you, that it be done accordingly.

20 And as hundred talents of silver, unto an hundred measures of wheat, and unto an hundred bays of wine, and unto an hundred bays of oyle, and salt without measure.

21 And thus is by the commandment of the God of heaven, let it be done speedily for the house of the God of heaven: for why should he be wroth? against the Realm of the Kings and his children?

22 And we certify you, that upon any of the Priests, Levites, singers, porters, Scribes, or ministers in this house of God, there shall no governance lay upon them tolls, tribute, nor customs.

23 And thou Ezra (after the will of the God, that is in thine hand) set judges and arbiters, which may judge all the people that is by the River, even all that know the Law of the God, and teach ye them that know it not.

24 And whatsoever will, not doe the Law of the God, and the kings law, let him have judgement without delay, whether it be unto death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

25 Blessed be the Lord God of our fathers, which so hath put in the kings heart, to beautie the house of the Lord that is in Jerusalem.

26 And hath inclined mercie toward me, before the King and his counsellors, and before all the Kings mightie Princes: and I was comforted by the hand of the Lord my God, which was upon mee, and I gathered the chiefe of Israel to goe up with mee.

8 And of the sonnes of Shephatiah, Ze-badiah, the sonne of Michael, and with him fourscore males.

9 Of the sonnes of Joab, Obadiah the sonne of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eightene males.

10 And of the sonnes of Shelemoth the sonne of Joshiab, and with him an hundred and threescore males.

11 And of the sonnes of Bebai, Jechariah, the sonne of Bebai, and with him eight and twentie males.

12 And of the sonnes of Azgad, Johanan the sonne of Hakatan, and with him an hundred and ten males.

13 And of the sonnes of Adonikam, that were the last, whose names are these: Eli-sheer, Jehiel and Sheumiah, and with them threescore males.

14 And of the sonnes of Bigvai, Uthai, and Zabbai, and with them seuentie males.

15 And I gathered them to the River that goeth toward Abana, and there abode wee three dayes: then I viewed the people, and the Priests, and found there none of the sonnes of Levi.

16 Therefore sent I to Eliezer, to Ariel, to Sheumiah, and to Elnathan, and to Jarib, and to Elnathan, and to Bariah, and to Jechariah, and to Shephumiah the chiefe, and to Joiarib, and to Elnathan, men of understanding.

17 And I gave them commandment to Idno the chiefe at the place of Calphatia, and I told them the words that they should speake to Idno, and to his brethren the Sacerdins at the place of Calphatia, that they should cause the ministers of the house of our God to come unto vs.

18 So by the good hand of our God, which was upon vs, they brought vs a man of understanding of the sonnes of Bahali the sonne of Levi the sonne of Israel, and She-rebiah with his sonnes and his brethren, even rightene.

19 Also Washabiah, and with him Jechiah of the sonnes of Merari, with his brethren, and their sonnes twentie.

20 And of the Sacerdins, whom David had set, and the Princes for the service of the Levites: two hundred and twentie of the Sacerdins, which all were named by name.

21 And there at the River, by Abana, I proclaimed a fast, that wee might humble our selves before our God, and seeke of him a right way for vs, and for our children, and for all our substance.

22 For I was ashamed to require of the king an arme and horsemen, to helpe vs against the enemy in the way, because we had spoken to the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them that seeke him in goodnesse, but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him.

23 So wee fasted, and besought our God for this: and he was intreated of vs.

24 Then I separated twelue of the chiefe of the Priests, Shebubiah, and Washabiah, and ten of their brethren with them.

25 And weighed them the silver and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of 29 Watch ye, and keepe them until ye weigh them before the chiefe Priests and the Leuites, and the chiefe fathers of Israel in Jerusalem in the chambers of the house of the Lord.

30 So the Priests and the Leuites received the weight of the silver, and of the golde, and of the vessels to bring them to Jerusalem, unto the house of our God.

When as these things were done, the rulers came to mee, saying, The people of Israel, and the Priests and the Leuites are not separated from the people of the lands (as touching their abominations) so wit, of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

2 For they haue taken their daughters to themselves, and to their sonnes, and they haue mixed the holy seede with the people of the lands: and the hand of our princes and rulers haue bene chiefe in this trespass.

3 But when I heard this saying, I rent my clothes and my garment, and plucked of the haire of mine head, and of my beards, and sat downe: astonished.

4 And there assembled vnto mee all that feared the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of them of the captiuitie. And I sate downe astonished until the evening sacrifice.

5 And at the evening sacrifice I rose vp from mine heavinesse, and when I had rent my clothes and my garment, I fell vpon my knees, and spread out mine hands vnto the Lord my God,

6 And said, O my God, I am confounded and ashamed to lift vp mine eyes vnto thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased ouer our head, & our trespasses to groen vp vnto the heauen.

7 From the dayes of our fathers haue we bene in a great trespass vnto this day, and for our iniquities, haue wee, our Kings, and our Priests bene drincked into the hand of the Kings of the lands, vnto the sword, into captiuitie, into a yoke, and into confusion of face, as appeared this day.

8 And now for a little space, grace hath bene shewed from the Lord our God, in calling a remnant to escape, and in giuing vs a name in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and giue vs a little ruining in our seruitude.

9 For though we were bondmen, yet our God hath not forsaken vs in our bondage, but hath inclined mercie vnto vs in the sight of the Kings of Persia, to giue vs life, and to erect the house of our God, and to reuerse the desolate places thereof, and to giue vs a wall in Iudah and in Jerusalem.

10 And now, our God, what shall we say after this? for we haue forsaken thy commandments,

11 Which thou hast commanded by thy seruants the Prophets, saying, The land wherunto ye goe to possesse it, is an vncleane land, because of the filthinesse of the people of the lands, which by their abominations, and by their vncleannesse haue filled it from corner to corner.

12 Therefore shall ye not giue your daughters vnto their sonnes, neither shall ye take their daughters vnto your sonnes, nor seeke their peace and wealth for euer, that ye may be strong and eate the goodnesse of the land, and leaue it for an inheritance to your sonnes for euer.

13 And after all that is come vpon vs for our euil deeds, and for our great trespasses, (seeing that thou our God hast giuen vs from being beneath: for our iniquities, and hast giuen vs such deliuerance)

14 Should we returne to breake thy commandments, and ioine in affinity with the people of such abominations: wouldst not thou be angry toward vs till thou hast consumed vs, so that there should bee no remnant nor any escaping?

15 O Lord God of Israel, thou art iust, for we have bene<sup>1</sup> refused to escape, as appeareth in this day: behold, we are before thee in our trespass: therefore we cannot stand before thee because of it.

1. And we are before thee to whom thou wilt have mercy.

1. The people repent and turne, and put away their strange wives.

VVitues Ezra prayed thus, and confessed himselfe weeping, and falling downe before the house of God, there assembled unto him of Israel a very great congregation of men, and women, and children: for the people wept with great lamentation.

2. Then Shechaniah the sonne of Jehiel one of the sonnes of Elam, answered, and said to Ezra, After have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the lande, yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this.

3. Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God, to put away all the wives (and such as are borne of them) according to the commandment of the Lawe, and of those that feare the commandments of our God, and let it be done according to the Law.

4. A title for the matter<sup>2</sup> belonged unto thee: we also will be with thee: be of comfort and so is.

5. Then arose Ezra, and caused the chief Priests, the Levites, and all Israel to sweare, that they would doe according to this word. So they sware.

6. And Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the sonne of Eliashib: hee went euen thither, but hee did neither eate bread, nor drinke water: for hee mourned, because of the transgression of them of the captivity.

7. And they caused a proclamation to goe throughout Iudah and Jerusalem, unto all them of the captivity, that they should assemble themselves unto Jerusalem.

8. And whosoever would not come within three dayes according to the counsel of the Princes and Elders, at his substance should bee forfeite, and hee should bee separate from the Congregation of them of the captivity.

9. Then all the men of Iudah and Benjamin assembled themselves unto Jerusalem within three dayes, which was the twentieth day of the ninth moneth, and all the people late in the street of the house of God, standing for this matter, and for the raine.

10. And Ezra the Priest stood up and layd unto them, We have transgressed, and have taken strange wives, to increase the trespass of Israel.

11. Now therefore<sup>3</sup> give place unto the Lord God of your fathers, and do his will, and separate your selves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives.

12. And all the Congregation answered, and layd with a loud voyce, So will we doe according to thy words unto vs.

13. But the people are many, and it is a thicke weather, and we are not able to stand without, neither is it the worke of one day or two: for we are many that have sinned in this thing.

14. Let our rulers stand the while before all the Congregation, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities, come at the time appointed, and with them the Elders of every cite, and the Judges thereof, till the fierce wrath of our God for this matter turne away from vs.

15. Then were appointed Jonathan the sonne of Abiath, and Jathaiab the sonne of Githai, after this matter, and Deshullam and Shabbethai the Levites helped them.

16. And they of the captivity did so and departed, euen Ezra the Priest, and the men that were chief fathers to the family of their fathers by name, and late downe in the first day of the tenth moneth to examine the matter.

17. And untill the first day of the first moneth they were finishing the businesse with all the men that had taken strange wives.

18. And of the sonnes of the Priests there were men founde, that had taken strange wives, to wit, of the sonnes of Iehua, the sonne of Jozabab, and of his brethren, Baasabab, Eliezer, and Jathai, and Gedaliah.

19. And they gave their handes, that they would put away their wives, and they that had trespassed, gave a ramme for their trespass.

20. And of the sonnes of Immer, Hanani, and Zebadiah.

Nehemiah.

THE ARGUMENT.

GOD doeth in all ages and at all times set vp worthy persons for the commoditie and profite of his Church, as nowe within the compasse of seuerie yeeres he raised vp diuers excellent men for the preferment of his people, after their returne from Babylon: as Zerubbabel, Ezra, and Nehemiah. Whereof the first was their capitaine to bring them home, and provided that the Temple was builded: the second reformed their maners, and planted religion: and the third builded vp the walls, deliuered the people from oppression, and provided that the law of God was put in execution among them. He was a godly man and in great authoritie with the King, so that the King favoured him greatly, and gaue him most ample letters for the accomplishment of all things which he could desire. This booke is also called of the Latines the second of Ezra, because he was the writer thereof.

CHAP. I.

4 Nehemiah bewaileth the calamitie of Ierusalem, 5 He confesseth the finnes of the people, and prayeth God for them.

He wordes of Nehemiah the sonne of Achabib. In the twentieth yere, as I was in the palace of Shushan,

My brethren, he and the men of Iudah: and I asked them concerning the Iewes that were deliuered, which were of the residue of the captiuitie, and concerning Ierusalem.

3 And they saide vnto mee, The residue that are left of the captiuitie there in the * pouldre, are in great affliction and in reproch, and the wall of Ierusalem is broken downe, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire.

4 And when I heard these wordes, I satte downe and wept, and mourned certaine dayes, and I fasted and prayed before the God of heauen.

5 And said, O Lord God of heauen, the great and terrible God, that keepeth couenant and mercy for them that loue him, and obserue his commandements.

6 I pray thee, let thine eares be attent, and thine eyes open, to heare the prayer of thy seruant, which I pray before thee daily, day and night for the children of Israel thy seruants, and confesse the finnes of the children of Israel, which we haue sinned against thee, both I and my fathers house haue sinned:

7 For we haue grievously sinned against thee, and haue not kept the commandements, nor the statutes, nor the iudgements which thou commandedst thy seruant Moses.

8 I beseech thee, remember the worde that thou commandedst thy seruant Moses, saying, Be will transgressit, and I will scatter you abroad among the people.

9 But if ye turne vnto me, and keepe my commandements, and doe them, though your scattering were to the uttermost part of the heauen, yet will I gather you from thence, and will bring you vnto the place that I haue chosen, to place my name there.

10 Nowe these are thy seruants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy power, and by thy mighty hand.

11 O Lord, I beseech thee, let thine eares nowe hearken to the prayer of thy seruant, and to the prayer of thy seruants, who desire to * feare thy name, and praye thee, cause thy seruant to prosper this day, and giue him fauour in the presence of this * man: for I was the kings butler.

CHAP. II.

1 After Nehemiah had obtained letters of Artaxerxes, 11 He came to Ierusalem, 17 And builded the walls.

Now in the month * Nisan in the twentieth yere of King Artaxerxes, the wine flood befoze him, and I tooke vp the wine, and gaue it vnto the king. Nowe I was not beforetime sad in his presence.

2 And the King sayd vnto mee, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sicke? this is nothing but sorrowe of heart. Then was I sore afraid.

3 And I saide to the King, God save the King for euer: why should not my countenance be sad, when the citie and house of the sepulchres of my fathers lieth waste, and the gates thereof are deuoured with fire?

4 And the King said vnto me, For what thing doest thou require? Then I prayed to the God of heauen.

5 And sayde vnto the King, If it please the king, and if thy seruant haue found fauour in thy sight, I desire that thou wouldest send mee to Iudah, vnto the citie of the sepulchres of my fathers, that I may builde it.

6 And the king said vnto me, (The Quene also sitting by him) How long shall thy loue bee? and when wilt thou come againe? So it pleased the king, and he sent me, and I set him a time.

7 After I said vnto the king, If it please the king, let them giue me letters to the capitaines beyond the River, that they may conuey me ouer, till I come into Iudah.

8 And letters unto Shaph the keeper of the Kings parkes, that he may give me timber to build the gates of the palace (which appertaineth to the house) and for the walls of the city, and for the house that I shall erect there. And the king gave me according to the good hand of my God upon me.

9 Then came I to the captains beyond the river, and gave them the kings letters. And the king had sent captains of the arme and hostmen with me.

10 But Samabai the Doronite, & Tobiah a servant an Ammonite heard it, and it grieved them sore, that there was come a man whith sought the wealth of the children of Israel.

11 So I came to Jerusalem, & was there three dayes.

12 And I arose in the night, I and a few men with me: for I told no man what God had put in mine heart to doe at Jerusalem, and there was not a beast with me, save the beast wheron I rode.

13 And I went out by night by the gate of the valley, and came betwixt the Dragon well, and to the dung port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, how they were broken downe, and the portes thereof denoured with the fire.

14 Then I went forth unto the gate of the fountain, and to the Kings fishpoole, and there was no roome for the beast that was under me to passe.

15 Then went I up in the night by the hooke, and betwixt the wall, and turned backe, and coming backe, I entered by the gate of the valley, and returned.

16 And the rulers knew not whither I was gone, nor what I did, neither did I as yet tell it unto the Jewes, nor to the Priests, nor to the noble men, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that laboured in the worke.

17 Afterward I said unto them, See see the miserie that wee are in, how Jerusalem hath waste, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire: come and let vs build the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproch.

18 Then I tolde them of the hand of my God (which was good over me) and also of the Kings wordes, that hee had spoken vnto mee. And they sayde, Let vs rise, and build. So they strenghtened their hand to good.

19 But when Sanballat the Doronite, and Tobiah the servant an Ammonite, and certain the Arabian heard it, they mocked vs, and despised vs, and sayd, What a thing is this that ye doe? Will ye rebell against the king?

20 Then answered I them, and sayde to them, The God of heauen, hee will prosper vs, & his seruants will rise up and build: because for you, we haue no portion nor right, nor memoriall in Jerusalem.
